41-22-19 Off-highway Vehicle Account -- Deposit and use of funds -- Grants and matching funds.

(1)

(a) Except as provided under Subsections (3) through (5) and Sections 41-22-34 and 41-22-36, registration fees and related money collected by the Motor Vehicle Division or any agencies designated to act for the Motor Vehicle Division under this chapter shall be deposited as restricted revenue into the Off-highway Vehicle Account in the General Fund less the costs incurred by the Motor Vehicle Division for collecting off-highway vehicle registration fees.

(b) The balance of the money may be used by the division:

(i) for the construction, improvement, operation, acquisition, or maintenance of publicly owned or administered off-highway vehicle facilities, including public access facilities;

(ii) for the mitigation of impacts associated with off-highway vehicle use;

(iii) for the education of off-highway vehicle users;

(iv) for off-highway vehicle access protection;

(v) to support off-highway vehicle search and rescue activities and programs;
(vi) to promote and encourage off-highway vehicle tourism;
(vii) for other uses that further the policy set forth in Section 41-22-1;
(viii) as grants or matching funds with a federal agency, state agency, political subdivision of the state, or organized user group for any of the uses described in Subsections (1)(b)(i) through (vii); and
(ix) for the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

(a) An agency or political subdivision requesting matching funds shall submit plans for proposed off-highway vehicle facilities to the division for review and approval.
(b) The division may award an upfront grant from the Off-highway Vehicle Account to cover the entire projected cost of a project or program to:
(i) a political subdivision of the state that:
(A) is a county of the third through sixth class; and
(B) submits a plan for a project or program consistent with a use described in Subsection (1)(b); and
(ii) an organized user group or agency that submits a plan for a project or program:
(A) located in a county of the third through sixth class; and
(B) consistent with a use described in Subsection (1)(b).
(c) In awarding a grant under Subsection (2)(b), the division may evaluate a grant application submitted on or after January 1, 2025.

(a) One dollar and 50 cents of each annual registration fee collected under Subsection 41-22-8(1) and each off-highway vehicle user fee collected under Subsection 41-22-35(2) shall be deposited into the Land Grant Management Fund created under Section 53C-3-101.
(b) The Utah School and Institutional Trust Lands Administration shall use the money deposited under Subsection (3)(a) for costs associated with off-highway vehicle use of legally accessible lands within its jurisdiction as follows:
(i) to improve recreational opportunities on trust lands by constructing, improving, maintaining, or perfecting access for off-highway vehicle trails; and
(ii) to mitigate impacts associated with off-highway vehicle use.
(c) An unused balance of the money deposited under Subsection (3)(a) exceeding $350,000 at the end of each fiscal year shall be deposited into the Off-highway Vehicle Account under Subsection (1).

(4) One dollar of each off-highway vehicle registration fee collected under Subsection 41-22-8(1) shall be deposited into the Utah Highway Patrol Aero Bureau Restricted Account created in Section 53-8-303.

(5)
(a) The Motor Vehicle Division shall collect a fee for any new or replacement license plate issued under this chapter.
(b) The fee described in Subsection (5)(a) shall be an amount equal to the fee for a new or replacement license plate as established in accordance with Section 63J-1-504.
(c) The Motor Vehicle Division shall deposit the fee described in Subsection (5)(a) into the License Plate Restricted Account created under Section 41-1a-122.

(6) For a vehicle registered for a 24-month period as provided in Section 41-1a-215.5, the deposited amounts described in this section shall be double the amount for the same vehicle registered for a 12-month period.

(7) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the division, after notifying the commission, shall make rules as necessary to implement this section.

Amended by Chapter 279, 2025 General Session

41-22-20 Public land administrating agencies to develop facilities and programs.

All public land administering agencies are encouraged:

(1) to develop and maintain trails, parking areas, rest rooms, and other related facilities appropriate to off-highway vehicle use; and

(2) to promote the safety, enjoyment, and responsible use of all forms of this recreational activity.

41-22-30 Supervision, safety certificate, or driver license required -- Penalty.

(1) As used in this section, "direct supervision" means oversight at a distance:
  (a) of no more than 300 feet; and
  (b) within which:
    (i) visual contact is maintained; and
    (ii) advice and assistance can be given and received.

(2) A person may not operate and an owner may not give that person permission to operate an off-highway vehicle on any public land, trail, street, or highway of this state unless the person:
  (a) is able to reach and operate each control necessary to safely operate the off-highway vehicle;
  (b)
    (i) is under the direct supervision of an off-highway vehicle safety instructor during a scheduled safety training course approved by the division in accordance with Section 41-22-32 ; or
    (ii) possesses a safety certificate issued or approved by the division in accordance with Section 41-22-31; and
  (c) is under the direct supervision of a person who is at least 18 years old if the person operating the off-highway vehicle:
    (i) is under 18 years old;
    (ii) does not possess a valid license to operate a motor vehicle issued in accordance with Title 53, Chapter 3, Uniform Driver License Act; and
    (iii) is operating the off-highway vehicle on a public highway that is:
      (A) open to motor vehicles; and
      (B) not exclusively reserved for off-highway vehicle use.

(3)
  (a) A person convicted of a violation of this section is guilty of an infraction and shall be fined not more than $100 per offense.
  (b) It is a defense to a charge under this section, if the person charged:
    (i) produces in court a license or safety certificate described in Subsection (2)(b) that was:
      (A) valid at the time of the citation or arrest; and

(B) issued to the person operating the off-highway vehicle; and
(ii) can show that the direct supervision requirement under Subsection (2)(b) was not violated at the time of citation or arrest.
(4) The requirements of this section do not apply to an operator of an off-highway implement of husbandry.
(5) Nothing in this section allows an individual without a valid driver license issued in accordance with Title 53, Chapter 3, Uniform Driver License Act, to operate a street-legal all-terrain vehicle on a roadway.

41-22-31 Division to set standards for safety program -- Safety certificates issued -- Cooperation with public and private entities -- State immunity from suit.
(a) The division shall:
(i) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, make rules, after notifying the commission, that establish curriculum standards for a comprehensive off-highway vehicle safety education and training program as described in this section; and
(ii) implement the program.
(b)
(i) The division shall design the program to develop and instill the knowledge, attitudes, habits, and skills necessary for the safe and ethical operation of an off-highway vehicle.
(ii) Components of the program shall include:
(A) the preparation and dissemination of off-highway vehicle information and safety advice to the public;
(B) the training of off-highway vehicle operators;
(C) education concerning the importance of gates and fences used in agriculture and how to properly close a gate; and
(D) education concerning respectful, sustainable, and on-trail off-highway vehicle operation, and respect for communities affected by off-highway vehicle operation.
(iii) Off-highway vehicle safety certificates shall be issued to those who successfully complete training or pass the knowledge and skills test established under the program and described in Subsections (2) and (3).
(iv) The division shall ensure that an individual has the option to complete the program online.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), an individual under 18 years old may not operate an off-highway vehicle on public lands in this state unless the individual has completed the requirements of the program established in accordance with this section and rules made in accordance with Subsection (1) by completing:
(a) an in-person safety and skills course offered by the division; or
(b) a safety and skills course approved by the division that is offered online.
(3) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(a), an individual who is 18 years old or older may not operate an off-highway vehicle on public lands in this state unless the individual has completed the requirements of the program established in accordance with this section and rules made in accordance with Subsection (1) by completing:
(a) a course described in Subsection (2); or
(b) a one-time course offered or approved by the division.
(4) The requirements described in this section do not apply to:
(a) an individual who is 18 years old or older operating:

(i) a snowmobile;
(ii) an off-highway implement of husbandry; or
(iii) an off-highway vehicle as part of a guided tour or a sanctioned off-highway vehicle event; or
(b) an individual under 18 years old operating an off-highway implement of husbandry.
(5) A person may not rent an off-highway vehicle to an individual until the individual who will operate the off-highway vehicle presents a certificate of completion of the off-highway vehicle safety education and training program established in accordance with this section and rules made under Subsection (1).
(6) The division may cooperate with appropriate private organizations and associations, private and public corporations, and local government units to implement the program established under this section.
(7) In addition to the governmental immunity granted in Title 63G, Chapter 7, Governmental Immunity Act of Utah, the state is immune from suit for any act, or failure to act, in any capacity relating to the off-highway vehicle safety education and training program. The state is also not responsible for any insufficiency or inadequacy in the quality of training provided by this program.
(8) A person convicted of a violation of this section is guilty of an infraction and shall be fined not more than $150 per offense.

Amended by Chapter 88, 2024 General Session

41-22-32 Approval of safety courses.
(1)
(a) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the division may make rules, after consultation with the commission, that establish standards for an off-highway vehicle safety course for instruction on the safe operation of an off-highway vehicle.
(b) The division shall require that the information described in Subsection 41-22-31(1)(b)(ii) be part of an off-highway vehicle safety course for instruction on the safe operation of an off-highway vehicle.
(2) If a private organization meets the standards set by the division under Subsection (1), the division shall approve the off-highway vehicle safety course as compliant with the standards and purposes of this chapter.

41-22-33 Fees for safety and education program -- Penalty -- Unlawful acts.
(1) A fee set by the division, after notifying the commission, in accordance with Section 63J-1-504 shall be added to the registration fee required to register an off-highway vehicle under Section 41-22-8 to help fund the off-highway vehicle safety and education program.
(2) If the division modifies the fee under Subsection (1), the modification shall take effect on the first day of the calendar quarter after 90 days from the day on which the division provides the State Tax Commission:
(a) notice from the division stating that the division will modify the fee; and
(b) a copy of the fee modification.
(3) The division shall require a person registering an off-highway vehicle or a street-legal all-terrain vehicle registered for a 24-month period as provided in Section 41-1a-215.5 to pay double the amount of the fee described in Subsection (1) for the same vehicle registered for a 12-month period.

Amended by Chapter 279, 2025 General Session

41-22-34 Search and rescue fee -- Amount -- Deposition.

(1) In addition to the fees imposed under Sections 41-22-8 and 41-22-33, there is imposed a search and rescue fee of 50 cents on each off-highway vehicle required to be registered or renewed under Section 41-22-3.

(2) The fees imposed under this section shall be collected in the same manner and by the same agency designated to collect the fees imposed under this chapter.

(3) The fees collected under this section shall be deposited into the General Fund as dedicated credits for the Search and Rescue Financial Assistance Program created under Section 53-2a-1101.

(4) The division shall require a person registering an off-highway vehicle or a street-legal all-terrain vehicle registered for a 24-month period as provided in Section 41-1a-215.5 to pay double the amount of the fee described in Subsection (1) for the same vehicle registered for a 12-month period.

Amended by Chapter 279, 2025 General Session

41-22-35 Off-highway vehicle user fee -- Decal -- Agents -- Penalty for fraudulent issuance of decal -- Deposit and use of fee revenue.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), any person owning or operating a nonresident off-highway vehicle who operates or gives another person permission to operate the nonresident off-highway vehicle on any public land, trail, street, or highway in this state shall:

(i) apply for an off-highway vehicle decal issued exclusively for an off-highway vehicle owned by a nonresident of the state;

(ii) pay an annual off-highway vehicle user fee;

(iii) provide evidence that the owner is a nonresident; and

(iv) provide evidence of completion of the safety course and program described in Section 41-22-31.

(b) The provisions of Subsection (1)(a) do not apply to an off-highway vehicle if the off-highway vehicle is:

(i) used exclusively as an off-highway implement of husbandry;

(ii) used exclusively for the purposes of a scheduled competitive event sponsored by a public or private entity or another event sponsored by a governmental entity under rules made by the division, after notifying the commission;

(iii) owned and operated by a state government agency and the operation of the off-highway vehicle within the boundaries of the state is within the course and scope of the duties of the agency;

(iv) used exclusively for the purpose of an off-highway vehicle manufacturer sponsored event within the state under rules made by the division; or

(v) operated as part of a sanctioned off-highway vehicle event or part of an official tour by a person licensed as a off-highway vehicle tour guide in this state.

(2) The division may:

(a) after notifying the commission, set a resident and nonresident off-highway vehicle user fee in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(b) collect an electronic payment fee in accordance with Section 41-22-35.5.

(3) Upon compliance with Subsection (1)(a), the nonresident shall:
(a) receive a nonresident off-highway vehicle user decal indicating compliance with the provisions of Subsection (1)(a); and
(b) display the decal on the off-highway vehicle in accordance with rules made by the division.
(4) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the division, after notifying the commission, shall make rules establishing:
(a) procedures for:
(i) the payment of off-highway vehicle user fees; and
(ii) the display of a decal on an off-highway vehicle as required under Subsection (3)(b);
(b) acceptable evidence indicating compliance with Subsection (1);
(c) eligibility for scheduled competitive events or other events under Subsection (1)(b)(ii); and
(d) eligibility for an off-highway vehicle manufacturer sponsored event under Subsection (1)(b)(iv).
(5)
(a) An off-highway vehicle user decal may be issued and the off-highway vehicle user fee may be collected by the division or agents of the division.
(b) An agent shall retain 10% of all off-highway vehicle user fees collected.
(c) The division may require agents to obtain a bond in a reasonable amount.
(d) On or before the tenth day of each month, each agent shall:
(i) report all sales to the division; and
(ii) submit all off-highway vehicle user fees collected less the remuneration provided in Subsection (5)(b).
(e)
(i) If an agent fails to pay the amount due, the division may assess a penalty of 20% of the amount due.
(ii) Delinquent payments shall bear interest at the rate of 1% per month.
(iii) If the amount due is not paid because of bad faith or fraud, the division shall assess a penalty of 100% of the total amount due together with interest.
(f) All fees collected by an agent, except the remuneration provided in Subsection (5)(b), shall:
(i) be kept separate and apart from the private funds of the agent; and
(ii) belong to the state.
(g) An agent may not issue an off-highway vehicle user decal to any person unless the person furnishes evidence of compliance with the provisions of Subsection (1)(a).
(h) A violation of any provision of this Subsection (5) is a class B misdemeanor and may be cause for revocation of the agent authorization.
(6) Revenue generated by off-highway vehicle user fees shall be deposited into the Off-highway Vehicle Account created in Section 41-22-19.

Amended by Chapter 88, 2024 General Session

41-22-35.5 Electronic payment fee.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Electronic payment" means use of a form of payment processed through electronic means, including use of a credit card, debit card, or automatic clearinghouse transaction.
(b) "Electronic payment fee" means the fee assessed to defray:
(i) a charge, discount fee, or process fee charged by a processing agent to process an electronic payment, including a credit card company; or

(ii) costs associated with the purchase of equipment necessary for processing an electronic payment.

(a) The division may impose and collect an electronic payment fee on an electronic payment related to an off-highway vehicle user fee.

(b) The division may charge an electronic payment fee under this section in an amount not to exceed 3% of the electronic payment.

(c) With regard to the electronic payment fee, the division is not required to separately identify the electronic payment fee from a fee imposed for an off-highway vehicle user fee.

(3) The division shall deposit the electronic payment fee into the Off-highway Vehicle Account described in Section 41-22-19.

Enacted by Chapter 88, 2024 General Session

41-22-36 Fees to cover the costs of electronic payments.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Electronic payment" has the same meaning as defined in Section 41-1a-1221.

(b) "Electronic payment fee" has the same meaning as defined in Section 41-1a-1221.

(a) The Motor Vehicle Division may collect an electronic payment fee on all registrations and renewals of registration under Section 41-22-8.

(b) The fee described in Subsection (2)(a) shall be imposed regardless of the method of payment for a particular transaction.

(3) The division shall establish the fee according to the procedures and requirements of Section 63J-1-504.

(4) A fee imposed under this section:

(a) shall be deposited in the Electronic Payment Fee Restricted Account created by Section 41-1a-121;

(b) is not subject to Subsection 63J-1-105(3) or (4); and

(c) need not be separately identified from the fees imposed on registrations and renewals of registration under Section 41-22-8.

41-22-37 Off-highway vehicle operator responsibilities.

(1) An off-highway vehicle operator who is 18 years of age or older shall accept legal responsibility for injury or damage of any kind to the extent that the injury or damage results from risks inherent in the sport of off-highway vehicle use.

(a) An off-highway vehicle operator shall regulate personal conduct at all times so that injury to self or other persons or property that results from the risks inherent in the sport of off-highway vehicle operation is avoided.

(b) Risks inherent in the sport of off-highway vehicle operation under Subsection (1) include:

(i) variations in terrain;

(ii) surface or subsurface conditions;

(iii) crevices;

(iv) ravines;

(v) streams;

(vi) poor visibility;
(vii) rocks;
(viii) trees;
(ix) other forms of forest growth or debris; and
(x) any other natural hazard.
(3) An off-highway vehicle operator is responsible for:
(a) knowing the range of the operator's ability to navigate any slope, trail, or area for off-highway vehicle use, taking into consideration the conditions;
(b) maintaining control of speed and course at all times while operating the off-highway vehicle;
(c) heeding all posted warnings; and
(d) refraining from acting in a manner that may cause or contribute to the injury of any person.
(4) The provisions of this section do not affect a product liability cause of action based upon proper warning, design, or manufacture of off-highway equipment or products or safety equipment used incidental to the operation of an off-highway vehicle.
(5) The provisions of this section do not affect a passenger's cause of action or ability to recover for injuries.
(6) The provisions of this section do not affect an off-highway vehicle owner's liability for negligent entrustment.

Chapter 26
Autonomous Vehicles

41-26-101 Title.

This chapter is known as "Autonomous Vehicles."

Enacted by Chapter 212, 2016 General Session

41-26-102.1 Definitions.

(1) "ADS-dedicated vehicle" means a vehicle designed to be operated exclusively by a level four or five ADS for all trips within the given operational design domain limitations of the ADS, if any.
(2)
(a) "Automated driving system" or "ADS" means the hardware and software that are collectively capable of performing the entire dynamic driving task on a sustained basis, regardless of whether the ADS is limited to a specific operational design domain, if any.
(b) "Automated driving system" or "ADS" is used specifically to describe a level three, four, or five driving automation system.
(3) "Commission" means the State Tax Commission as defined in Section 59-1-101.
(4) "Conventional driver" means a human driver who is onboard the motor vehicle and manually performs some or all of the following actions in order to operate a vehicle:
(a) braking;
(b) accelerating;
(c) steering; and
(d) transmission gear selection input devices.
(5)

(a) "Dispatch" means to place an ADS-equipped vehicle into service in driverless operation by engaging the ADS.
(b) "Dispatch" includes software-enabled dispatch of multiple ADS-equipped motor vehicles in driverless operation that may complete multiple trips involving pick-up and drop-off of passengers or goods throughout a day or other pre-defined periods of service, and which may involve multiple agents performing various tasks related to the dispatch function.
(6) "Division" means the Motor Vehicle Division of the commission, created in Section 41-1a-106.
(7) "Driverless operation" means the operation of an ADS-equipped vehicle in which:
(a) no on-board user is present; or
(b) no on-board user is a human driver with a valid driver license or fallback-ready user.
(8) "Driverless operation dispatcher" means a user who dispatches an ADS-equipped vehicle in driverless operation.
(9) "Driving automation system" means the hardware and software collectively capable of performing part or all of the dynamic driving task on a sustained basis.
(10) "Driving automation system feature" means a specific function of a driving automation system.
(a) "Dynamic driving task" means all of the real-time operational and tactical functions required to operate a motor vehicle in on-road traffic, including:
(i) lateral vehicle motion control through steering;
(ii) longitudinal motion control through acceleration and deceleration;
(iii) monitoring the driving environment through object and event detection, recognition, classification, and response preparation;
(iv) object and event response execution;
(v) maneuver planning; and
(vi) enhancing conspicuity with lighting, signaling, and gesturing.
(b) "Dynamic driving task" does not include strategic functions such as trip scheduling and selection of destinations and waypoints.
(12) "Engage" as it pertains to the operation of a vehicle by a driving automation system means to cause a driving automation system feature to perform part or all of the dynamic driving task on a sustained basis.
(13) "External event" is a situation in the driving environment that necessitates a response by a human driver with a valid driver license or driving automation system.
(14) "Fallback-ready user" means the user of a vehicle equipped with an engaged level three ADS who is:
(a) a human driver with a valid driver license; and
(b) ready to operate the vehicle if:
(i) a system failure occurs; or
(ii) the ADS issues a request to intervene.
(15)
(a) "Human driver" means a natural person who performs in real-time all or part of the dynamic driving task.
(b) "Human driver" includes a:
(i) conventional driver; and
(ii) remote driver.
(16) "Level five automated driving system" or "level five ADS" means an ADS feature that has the capability to perform on a sustained basis the entire dynamic driving task under all conditions that can reasonably be managed by a human driver, as well as any maneuvers necessary to respond to a system failure, without any expectation that a human user will respond to a request to intervene.

(17) "Level four automated driving system" or "level four ADS" means an ADS feature that, without any expectation that a human user will respond to a request to intervene, has:

(a) the capability to perform on a sustained basis the entire dynamic driving task within its operational design domain; and

(b) the capability to perform any maneuvers necessary to achieve a minimal risk condition in response to:

(i) an exit from the operational design domain of the ADS; or

(ii) a system failure.

(18) "Level three automated driving system" or "level three ADS" means an ADS feature that:

(a) has the capability to perform on a sustained basis the entire dynamic driving task within its operational design domain; and

(b) requires a fallback-ready user to operate the vehicle after receiving a request to intervene or in response to a system failure.

(19) "Minimal risk condition" means a condition to which a user or an ADS may bring a motor vehicle in order to reduce the risk of a crash when a given trip cannot or should not be completed.

(20) "Object and event detection and response" means the subtasks of the dynamic driving task that include:

(a) monitoring the driving environment; and

(b) executing an appropriate response in order to perform the dynamic driving task.

(21) "On-demand autonomous vehicle network" means a transportation service network that uses a software application or other digital means to dispatch or otherwise enable the prearrangement of transportation with motor vehicles that have a level four or five ADS in driverless operation for purposes of transporting persons, including for-hire transportation and transportation for compensation.

(22) "Operate" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-1a-102.

(23) "Operational design domain" means the operating conditions under which a given ADS or feature thereof is specifically designed to function, including:

(a) speed range, environmental, geographical, and time-of-day restrictions; or

(b) the requisite presence or absence of certain traffic or roadway characteristics.

(24) "Operator" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-6a-102.

(25) "Passenger" means a user on board a vehicle who has no role in the operation of that vehicle.

(26) "Person" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-6a-102.

(27) "Remote driver" means a human driver with a valid driver license who is not located in a position to manually exercise in-vehicle braking, accelerating, steering, or transmission gear selection input devices, but operates the vehicle.

(28) "Request to intervene" means the notification by an ADS to a fallback-ready user indicating that the fallback-ready user should promptly begin or resume operation of the vehicle.

(29) "Sustained operation of a motor vehicle" means the performance of part or all of the dynamic driving task both between and across external events, including response to external events and continued performance of part or all of the dynamic driving task in the absence of external events.

(30) "System failure" means a malfunction in a driving automation system or other vehicle system that prevents the ADS from reliably performing the portion of the dynamic driving task on a sustained basis, including the complete dynamic driving task, that the ADS would otherwise perform.

(31) "User" means a:
(a) human driver;
(b) passenger;
(c) fallback-ready user; or
(d) driverless operation dispatcher.

41-26-103 Operation of motor vehicles equipped with an automated driving system.

(1) A motor vehicle equipped with a level three ADS may operate on a highway in this state if:
(a) the motor vehicle is operated, whether by the ADS or human driver with a valid driver license, in compliance with the applicable traffic and motor vehicle safety laws and regulations of this state, unless an exemption has been granted;
(b) when required by federal law, the motor vehicle:
(i) has been certified as being in compliance with all applicable motor vehicle safety standards; and
(ii) bears the required certification label, including reference to any exemption granted under federal law;
(c) when operated by an ADS, if a system failure occurs that renders the ADS unable to perform the entire dynamic driving task relevant to the intended operational design domain of the ADS, the ADS will achieve a minimal risk condition or make a request to intervene; and
(d) the motor vehicle is titled and registered in compliance with Section 41-26-107.

(2) A motor vehicle equipped with a level four or level five ADS may operate in driverless operation on a highway in this state if:
(a) the ADS is capable of operating in compliance with applicable traffic and motor vehicle laws and regulations of this state, unless an exemption has been granted;
(b) when required by federal law, the motor vehicle:
(i) has been certified as being in compliance with all applicable Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards and regulations; and
(ii) bears the required certification label including reference to any exemption granted under federal law;
(c) a system failure occurs that renders the ADS unable to perform the entire dynamic driving task relevant to the intended operational design domain of the ADS, a minimal risk condition will be achieved; and
(d) the motor vehicle is titled and registered in compliance with Section 41-26-107.

(3) A vehicle being operated by an ADS or a remote driver is not considered unattended.

(4) The division may revoke the registration and privilege for a vehicle equipped with an ADS to operate on a highway of the state if the Department of Transportation or the Department of Public Safety determines and notifies the division that:
(a) the ADS is operating in an unsafe manner; or
(b) the vehicle's ADS is being engaged in an unsafe manner.

(5) Special mobile equipment, as defined in Section 41-1a-102, equipped with a level three, four, or five ADS, may be moved or operated incidentally over a highway.

(6) Nothing in this chapter prohibits or restricts a human driver with a valid driver license from operating a vehicle equipped with an ADS and equipped with controls that allow for the human driver to perform all or part of the dynamic driving task.

41-26-104 Licensing -- Responsibility for compliant operation of ADS-equipped vehicles.

For the purpose of assessing compliance with applicable traffic or motor vehicle laws:

(1)

(a) When an ADS is operating a motor vehicle, the ADS is the operator, and shall satisfy electronically all physical acts required by a conventional driver in operation of the vehicle.

(b) The ADS is responsible for the compliant operation of the vehicle and is not required to be licensed to operate the vehicle.

(a) If a vehicle with an engaged level three ADS issues a request to intervene, the ADS is responsible for the compliant operation of the vehicle until disengagement of the ADS.

(b) If a vehicle with an engaged level four or five ADS issues a request to intervene, the ADS is responsible for the compliant operation of the vehicle until or unless a human user begins to operate the vehicle.

(3) The ADS is responsible for compliant operation of an ADS-dedicated vehicle.

Enacted by Chapter 459, 2019 General Session

41-26-105 Duties following crashes involving motor vehicles equipped with an automated driving system.

(1) In the event of a crash involving a vehicle with the ADS engaged:

(a) the ADS-equipped vehicle shall remain on the scene of the crash when required to do so under Section 41-6a-401, consistent with the vehicle's ability to achieve a minimal risk condition as described in Section 41-26-103; and

(b) the owner of the ADS-equipped vehicle, or a person on behalf of the vehicle owner, shall report any crashes or collisions consistent with Chapter 6a, Part 4, Accident Responsibilities.

(2) If the owner or person on behalf of the owner is not on board the vehicle at the time of the crash, the owner shall ensure that the following information is immediately communicated or made available to the persons involved or to a peace officer upon request:

(a) the contents of the vehicle's registration card; and

(b) the name of the insurance provider for the vehicle, including the phone number of the agent or provider.

(3) The department may require that an accident report filed under Section 41-6a-402 include:

(a) whether a vehicle equipped with an ADS was involved in the accident; and

(b) whether the ADS was engaged at the time of the accident.

41-26-106 On-demand autonomous vehicle network.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), an on-demand autonomous vehicle network may only operate pursuant to state laws governing the operation of ground transportation for-hire under state law, including:

(a) a transportation network company pursuant to Title 13, Chapter 51, Transportation Network Company Registration Act;

(b) a public transit district as defined in Section 17B-2a-802; or

(c) a private passenger carrier as defined in Section 53-3-102.

(2) Any provision of state law described in Subsection (1) that reasonably applies only to a human driver, including Subsection 13-51-105(5)(b), shall not apply to the operation of a vehicle by an engaged level four or five ADS that is part of an on-demand autonomous vehicle network.

41-26-107 Registration, title, and insurance of motor vehicles equipped with an automated driving system.

(1) If the owner of a vehicle equipped with an ADS is a resident of this state, the owner shall properly register the vehicle in accordance with Chapter 1a, Part 2, Registration.
(2) If the owner of a vehicle equipped with an ADS is a resident of this state, the owner shall properly title the vehicle in accordance with Chapter 1a, Part 5, Titling Requirement.
(3) Before an ADS may operate a vehicle on a highway in this state, the owner of the vehicle shall ensure that the vehicle complies with Chapter 12a, Financial Responsibility of Motor Vehicle Owners and Operators Act.

41-26-108 Controlling authority.

No local agency, political subdivision, or other entity may prohibit the operation of a vehicle equipped with a driving automation system, an ADS, or an on-demand autonomous vehicle network, or otherwise enact or keep in force a rule or ordinance that would impose a tax, fee, performance standard, or other requirement specific to the operation of a vehicle equipped with a driving automation system, an ADS, or an on-demand autonomous vehicle network in addition to the requirements of this title.

Enacted by Chapter 459, 2019 General Session

Chapter 27
Novel Vehicle Registration

Part 1
General Provisions

41-27-101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:
(1) "Commission" means the State Tax Commission.
(2) "Division" means the Motor Vehicle Division.
(3) "Novel vehicle" means a vehicle:
  (a) that is not expressly exempt from registration; and
  (b)
    (i) that does not fit within a vehicle category;
    (ii) with unique characteristics that make it unclear whether the vehicle fits within a vehicle category; or
    (iii) that a reasonable person would not consider the vehicle to be clearly included in an existing vehicle category.

(4) "Vehicle" means a motor vehicle, combination of vehicles, trailer, semitrailer, vintage vehicle, restored-modified vehicle, off-highway vehicle, vessel, or park model recreational vehicle.
(a) "Vehicle category" means a vehicle type:
(i) that is defined in this title or Title 73, Chapter 18, State Boating Act; and
(ii) for which registration is required under:
(A) this chapter;
(B) Chapter 1a, Motor Vehicle Act;
(C) Chapter 22, Off-highway Vehicles; or
(D) Title 73, Chapter 18, State Boating Act.
(b) "Vehicle category" does not include a novel vehicle.
(6) "VIN" means a vehicle identification number or a hull identification number.

Enacted by Chapter 459, 2024 General Session

Part 2
Registration Process

41-27-201 Novel vehicle registration.
(1) An owner registering a vehicle shall provide the VIN, if applicable.
(2) The division shall identify a vehicle category based on the VIN.
(3) If the vehicle does not have a VIN, or if the division is unable to determine the vehicle category based on the VIN:
(a) the owner shall provide the division with a description of the vehicle, including the vehicle's purpose; and
(b) if the description of the vehicle fits with an existing category of vehicle, the vehicle shall be registered in accordance with that vehicle category.
(4) The vehicle shall be registered as a novel vehicle if:
(a) the vehicle is not expressly exempt from registration; and
(b)
(i) the vehicle does not fit within a vehicle category;
(ii) the unique characteristics of the vehicle make it unclear whether the vehicle fits within a vehicle category; or
(iii) a reasonable person would not consider the vehicle to be clearly included in an existing vehicle category.
(5) A person registering a novel vehicle shall pay:
(a) in accordance with Section 59-2-405, an annual $1 fee in lieu of property tax; and
(b) an annual $1 registration fee, to be deposited into the Transportation Fund.
(6) The division shall issue a registration sticker or license plate for a vehicle that is registered as a novel vehicle, as appropriate.
(7) A vehicle registered as a street-legal novel vehicle is subject to the requirements described in Section 41-6a-1509.
(8) The division may provide title to a novel vehicle.
(9) Except as expressly provided in this chapter:
(a) a novel vehicle that is not a watercraft is subject to the provisions applicable to an off-highway vehicle under Chapter 22, Off-Highway Vehicles; and

(b) a novel vehicle that is a watercraft is subject to the provisions applicable to a motorboat under Title 73, Chapter 18, State Boating Act.

41-27-202 Appeal to commission.

(1) If an owner disagrees with the division's decision, the owner may, within 14 days after the day on which the division makes the decision, appeal the decision to the commission by:
(a) filing a notice of appeal with the commission; and
(b) including any additional information regarding the vehicle.
(a) In reviewing a decision described in Subsection (1), the commission may:
(i) admit additional evidence; and
(ii) make a correction or change in the vehicle category determination made by the division.
(b) The owner shall register the vehicle in accordance with the commission's determination.
(c) The division shall reduce the fee required to register a vehicle under Subsection (2)(b) by the amount paid by the owner of the vehicle under Subsection 41-27-201(4).
(3) The commission shall decide an appeal filed under Subsection (1) as soon as practicable and promptly notify:
(a) the owner; and
(b) the division.

Enacted by Chapter 459, 2024 General Session

Part 3
Commission Reporting

41-27-301 Novel vehicle report to Transportation Interim Committee.

(1) The commission shall, at or before the October interim meeting of the Transportation Interim Committee, present a report on novel vehicle registrations that includes:
(a) the number of vehicles registered as novel vehicles; and
(b) a description of the vehicles registered as novel vehicles.
(2) The Transportation Interim Committee shall review the report described in Subsection (1) and determine whether to propose legislation relating to registration of a particular type of novel vehicle.
(3) A vehicle previously registered as a novel vehicle shall continue to be registered as a novel vehicle, unless the Legislature amends the Utah Code to:
(a) require the vehicle to be registered otherwise; or
(b) exempt the vehicle from registration.

Enacted by Chapter 459, 2024 General Session

Title 76. Utah Criminal Code

Chapter 1
General Provisions

Part 1
Introductory Provisions

76-1-101 Short title.

This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Utah Criminal Code."

Enacted by Chapter 196, 1973 General Session

76-1-101.5 Definitions.

Unless otherwise provided, as used in this title:

(1) "Act" means a voluntary bodily movement and includes speech.

(2) "Actor" means a person whose criminal responsibility is in issue in a criminal action.

(3) "Affinity" means a relationship by marriage.

(4) "Bodily injury" means physical pain, illness, or any impairment of physical condition.

(5) "Conduct" means an act or omission.

(6) "Consanguinity" means a relationship by blood to the first or second degree, including an individual's parent, grandparent, sibling, child, aunt, uncle, niece, or nephew.

(7) "Dangerous weapon" means:

(a) any item capable of causing death or serious bodily injury; or

(b) a facsimile or representation of the item, if:

(i) the actor's use or apparent intended use of the item leads the victim to reasonably believe the item is likely to cause death or serious bodily injury; or

(ii) the actor represents to the victim verbally or in any other manner that the actor is in control of such an item.

(8) "Grievous sexual offense" means:

(a) rape, Section 76-5-402;

(b) rape of a child, Section 76-5-402.1;

(c) object rape, Section 76-5-402.2;

(d) object rape of a child, Section 76-5-402.3;

(e) forcible sodomy, Subsection 76-5-403(2);

(f) sodomy on a child, Section 76-5-403.1;

(g) aggravated sexual abuse of a child, Section 76-5-404.3;

(h) aggravated sexual assault, Section 76-5-405;

(i) any felony attempt to commit an offense described in Subsections (8)(a) through (h); or

(j) an offense in another state, territory, or district of the United States that, if committed in Utah, would constitute an offense described in Subsections (8)(a) through (i).

(9) "Offense" means a violation of any penal statute of this state.

(10) "Omission" means a failure to act when there is a legal duty to act and the actor is capable of acting.

(11) "Person" means an individual, public or private corporation, government, partnership, or unincorporated association.

(12) "Possess" means to have physical possession of or to exercise dominion or control over tangible property.
(13) "Public entity" means:
(a) the state, or an agency, bureau, office, department, division, board, commission, institution, laboratory, or other instrumentality of the state;
(b) a political subdivision of the state, including a county, municipality, interlocal entity, special district, special service district, school district, or school board;
(c) an agency, bureau, office, department, division, board, commission, institution, laboratory, or other instrumentality of a political subdivision of the state; or
(d) another entity that:
(i) performs a public function; and
(ii) is authorized to hold, spend, transfer, disburse, use, or receive public money.
(14)
(a) "Public money" or "public funds" means money, funds, or accounts, regardless of the source from which they are derived, that:
(i) are owned, held, or administered by an entity described in Subsections (13)(a) through (c); or
(ii) are in the possession of an entity described in Subsection (13)(d)(i) for the purpose of performing a public function.
(b) "Public money" or "public funds" includes money, funds, or accounts described in Subsection (14)(a) after the money, funds, or accounts are transferred by a public entity to an independent contractor of the public entity.
(c) "Public money" or "public funds" remains public money or public funds while in the possession of an independent contractor of a public entity for the purpose of providing a program or service for, or on behalf of, the public entity.
(15) "Public officer" means:
(a) an elected official of a public entity;
(b) an individual appointed to, or serving an unexpired term of, an elected official of a public entity;
(c) a judge of a court of record or not of record, including justice court judges; or
(d) a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole.
(16)
(a) "Public servant" means:
(i) a public officer;
(ii) an appointed official, employee, consultant, or independent contractor of a public entity; or
(iii) a person hired or paid by a public entity to perform a government function.
(b) Public servant includes a person described in Subsection (16)(a) upon the person's election, appointment, contracting, or other selection, regardless of whether the person has begun to officially occupy the position of a public servant.
(17) "Serious bodily injury" means bodily injury that creates or causes serious permanent disfigurement, protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or creates a substantial risk of death.
(18) "Substantial bodily injury" means bodily injury, not amounting to serious bodily injury, that creates or causes protracted physical pain, temporary disfigurement, or temporary loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ.
(19) "Writing" or "written" includes any handwriting, typewriting, printing, electronic storage or transmission, or any other method of recording information or fixing information in a form capable of being preserved.

76-1-101.6 Application of definitions to title.

(1) For formatting purposes, sections in this title that contain a criminal offense include an express provision that states that the title definitions in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to that section.
(2) Although a provision described in Subsection (1) is not included in non-offense sections in Title 76, Utah Criminal Code, or in other titles, title definitions apply to all statutes within a title unless otherwise expressly provided.

76-1-102 Effective date.

This code shall become effective on July 1, 1973.

76-1-103 Application of code -- Offense prior to effective date.

(1) The provisions of this code shall govern the construction of, the punishment for, and defenses against any offense defined in this code or, except where otherwise specifically provided or the context otherwise requires, any offense defined outside this code; provided such offense was committed after the effective date of this code.
(2) Any offense committed prior to the effective date of this code shall be governed by the law, statutory and non-statutory, existing at the time of commission thereof, except that a defense or limitation on punishment available under this code shall be available to any defendant tried or retried after the effective date. An offense under the laws of this state shall be deemed to have been committed prior to the effective date of this act if any of the elements of the offense occurred prior thereto.

76-1-104 Purposes and principles of construction.

The provisions of this code shall be construed in accordance with these general purposes.
(1) Forbid and prevent the commission of offenses.
(2) Define adequately the conduct and mental state which constitute each offense and safeguard conduct that is without fault from condemnation as criminal.
(3) Prescribe penalties which are proportionate to the seriousness of offenses and which permit recognition or differences in rehabilitation possibilities among individual offenders.
(4) Prevent arbitrary or oppressive treatment of persons accused or convicted of offenses.

76-1-105 Common law crimes abolished.

Common law crimes are abolished and no conduct is a crime unless made so by this code, other applicable statute or ordinance.

Amended by Chapter 32, 1974 General Session

76-1-106 Strict construction rule not applicable.

The rule that a penal statute is to be strictly construed shall not apply to this code, any of its provisions, or any offense defined by the laws of this state. All provisions of this code and offenses defined by the laws of this state shall be construed according to the fair import of their terms to promote justice and to effect the objects of the law and general purposes of Section 76-1-104.

76-1-107 Procedure -- Applicable provisions -- Military codes, enforcement of court orders, and liability for civil damages not affected.

(1) Except as otherwise provided, the procedure governing the accusation, prosecution, conviction, and punishment of offenders and offenses is not regulated by this act but by the code of criminal procedure.
(2) This code does not affect any power conferred by law upon any court-martial or other military authority or officer to impose and inflict punishment upon offenders violating military codes or laws; nor does it affect any power of a court to punish for contempt or to employ any sanction authorized by law for the enforcement of an order or a civil judgment or decree.
(3) This act does not bar, suspend, or otherwise affect any right or liability to damages, penalty, forfeiture, impeachment, or other remedy authorized by law to be recovered or enforced in a civil action, administrative proceeding, or otherwise, regardless of whether the conduct involved in the proceeding constitutes an offense defined in this code.

76-1-108 Severability clause.

If any provision of this act, or the application of any provision to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of this act shall not be affected thereby.

Enacted by Chapter 196, 1973 General Session

Part 2
Jurisdiction and Venue

76-1-201 Jurisdiction of offenses.

(1) A person is subject to prosecution in this state for an offense which the person commits, while either within or outside the state, by the person's own conduct or that of another for which the person is legally accountable, if:
  (a) the offense is committed either wholly or partly within the state;
  (b) the conduct outside the state constitutes an attempt to commit an offense within the state;
  (c) the conduct outside the state constitutes a conspiracy to commit an offense within the state and an act in furtherance of the conspiracy occurs in the state; or
  (d) the conduct within the state constitutes an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit in another jurisdiction an offense under the laws of both this state and the other jurisdiction.
(2) An offense is committed partly within this state if either the conduct which is any element of the offense, or the result which is an element, occurs within this state.

(3) In homicide offenses, the "result" is either the physical contact which causes death or the death itself.
  (a) If the body of a homicide victim is found within the state, the death shall be presumed to have occurred within the state.
  (b) If jurisdiction is based on this presumption, this state retains jurisdiction unless the defendant proves by clear and convincing evidence that:
    (i) the result of the homicide did not occur in this state; and
    (ii) the defendant did not engage in any conduct in this state which is any element of the offense.
(4) An offense which is based on an omission to perform a duty imposed by the law of this state is committed within the state regardless of the location of the offender at the time of the omission.
(5)
  (a) If no jurisdictional issue is raised, the pleadings are sufficient to establish jurisdiction.
  (b) The defendant may challenge jurisdiction by filing a motion before trial stating which facts exist that deprive the state of jurisdiction.
  (c) The burden is upon the state to initially establish jurisdiction over the offense by a preponderance of the evidence by showing under the provisions of Subsections (1) through (4) that the offense was committed either wholly or partly within the borders of the state.
  (d) If after the prosecution has met its burden of proof under Subsection (5)(c) the defendant claims that the state is deprived of jurisdiction or may not exercise jurisdiction, the burden is upon the defendant to prove by a preponderance of the evidence:
    (i) any facts claimed; and
    (ii) why those facts deprive the state of jurisdiction.
(6) Facts that deprive the state of jurisdiction or prohibit the state from exercising jurisdiction include the fact that the:
  (a) defendant is serving in a position that is entitled to diplomatic immunity from prosecution and that the defendant's country has not waived that diplomatic immunity;
  (b) defendant is a member of the armed forces of another country and that the crime that he is alleged to have committed is one that due to an international agreement, such as a status of forces agreement between his country and the United States, cedes the exercise of jurisdiction over him for that offense to his country;
  (c) defendant is an enrolled member of an Indian tribe, as defined in Section 9-9-101, and that the Indian tribe has a legal status with the United States or the state that vests jurisdiction in either tribal or federal courts for certain offenses committed within the exterior boundaries of a tribal reservation, and that the facts establish that the crime is one that vests jurisdiction in tribal or federal court; or
  (d) offense occurred on land that is exclusively within federal jurisdiction.
(7)
  (a) The Legislature finds that identity fraud under Chapter 6, Part 11, Identity Fraud Act, involves the use of personal identifying information which is uniquely personal to the consumer or business victim of that identity fraud and which information is considered to be in lawful possession of the consumer or business victim wherever the consumer or business victim currently resides or is found.
  (b) For purposes of Subsection (1)(a), an offense which is based on a violation of Chapter 6, Part 11, Identity Fraud Act, is committed partly within this state, regardless of the location of the offender at the time of the offense, if the victim of the identity fraud resides or is found in this state.
(8) The judge shall determine jurisdiction.

Amended by Chapter 291, 2025 General Session

76-1-202 Venue of actions.

(1) Criminal actions shall be tried in the county, district, or precinct where the offense is alleged to have been committed. In determining the proper place of trial, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) If the commission of an offense commenced outside the state is consummated within this state, the offender shall be tried in the county where the offense is consummated.

(b) When conduct constituting elements of an offense or results that constitute elements, whether the conduct or result constituting elements is in itself unlawful, shall occur in two or more counties, trial of the offense may be held in any of the counties concerned.

(c) If a person committing an offense upon the person of another is located in one county and his victim is located in another county at the time of the commission of the offense, trial may be held in either county.

(d) If a cause of death is inflicted in one county and death ensues in another county, the offender may be tried in either county.

(e) A person who commits an inchoate offense may be tried in any county in which any act that is an element of the offense, including the agreement in conspiracy, is committed.

(f) Where a person in one county solicits, aids, abets, agrees, or attempts to aid another in the planning or commission of an offense in another county, he may be tried for the offense in either county.

(g) When an offense is committed within this state and it cannot be readily determined in which county or district the offense occurred, the following provisions shall be applicable:

(i) When an offense is committed upon any railroad car, vehicle, watercraft, or aircraft passing within this state, the offender may be tried in any county through which such railroad car, vehicle, watercraft, or aircraft has passed.

(ii) When an offense is committed on any body of water bordering on or within this state, the offender may be tried in any county adjacent to such body of water. The words "body of water" shall include but not be limited to any stream, river, lake, or reservoir, whether natural or man-made.

(iii) A person who commits theft may be tried in any county in which he exerts control over the property affected.

(iv) If an offense is committed on or near the boundary of two or more counties, trial of the offense may be held in any of such counties.

(v) For any other offense, trial may be held in the county in which the defendant resides, or, if he has no fixed residence, in the county in which he is apprehended or to which he is extradited.

(h) A person who commits an offense based on Chapter 6, Part 11, Identity Fraud Act, may be tried in the county:

(i) where the victim's personal identifying information was obtained;

(ii) where the defendant used or attempted to use the personally identifying information;

(iii) where the victim of the identity fraud resides or is found; or

(iv) if multiple offenses of identity fraud occur in multiple jurisdictions, in any county where the victim's identity was used or obtained, or where the victim resides or is found.

(i) For the purpose of establishing venue for a violation of Section 53-29-304 concerning sex offender, kidnap offender, or child abuse offender registration, the offense is considered to be committed:

(i) at the most recent registered primary residence of the offender, if the actual location of the offender at the time of the violation is not known; or
(ii) at the location of the offender at the time the offender is apprehended.
(2) All objections of improper place of trial are waived by a defendant unless made before trial.

Amended by Chapter 291, 2025 General Session

Part 3
Limitations of Actions

76-1-301 Offenses for which prosecution may be commenced at any time.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Aggravating offense" means any offense incident to which a homicide was committed as described in Subsection 76-5-202(2)(a)(iv) or (v) or Subsection 76-5-202(2)(b).
(b) "Predicate offense" means an offense described in Subsection 76-5-203(1)(a) if a person other than a party as defined in Section 76-2-202 was killed in the course of the commission, attempted commission, or immediate flight from the commission or attempted commission of the offense.
(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this code, prosecution for the following offenses may be commenced at any time:
(a) an offense classified as a capital felony under Section 76-3-103;
(b) aggravated murder under Section 76-5-202;
(c) murder under Section 76-5-203;
(d) manslaughter under Section 76-5-205;
(e) child abuse homicide under Section 76-5-208;
(f) aggravated kidnapping under Section 76-5-302;
(g) child kidnapping under Section 76-5-301.1;
(h) rape under Section 76-5-402;
(i) rape of a child under Section 76-5-402.1;
(j) object rape under Section 76-5-402.2;
(k) object rape of a child under Section 76-5-402.3;
(l) forcible sodomy under Section 76-5-403;
(m) sodomy on a child under Section 76-5-403.1;
(n) sexual abuse of a child under Section 76-5-404.1;
(o) aggravated sexual abuse of a child under Section 76-5-404.3;
(p) aggravated sexual assault under Section 76-5-405;
(q) any predicate offense to a murder or aggravating offense to an aggravated murder;
(r) aggravated human trafficking under Section 76-5-310;
(s) aggravated human smuggling under Section 76-5-310.1;
(t) human trafficking of a child under Section 76-5-308.5; or
(u) aggravated exploitation of prostitution involving a child under Section 76-5d-208.

76-1-301.1 Statute of limitations for unlawful sexual activity with a minor.

The statute of limitations for a felony violation of Section 76-5-401 or 76-5-401.2 is 10 years from the time the victim reaches the age of 18.

Enacted by Chapter 194, 2020 General Session

76-1-301.5 Time limitations for prosecution of misusing public money, falsification or alteration of government records, and bribery.

(1) A prosecution for misusing public money, falsification or alteration of government records, or for a bribery offense shall be commenced within two years after facts constituting the offense have been reported to a prosecutor having responsibility and jurisdiction to prosecute the offense.
(2) This section does not shorten the limitation of actions under Section 76-1-302 or Subsection 76-1-303(3).

Amended by Chapter 208, 2002 General Session

76-1-302 Time limitations for prosecution of offenses -- Provisions if DNA evidence would identify the defendant -- Commencement of prosecution.

(1) Except as otherwise provided, a prosecution for:
  (a) a felony or negligent homicide shall be commenced within four years after it is committed, except that prosecution for:
    (i) forcible sexual abuse shall be commenced within eight years after the offense is committed, if within four years after its commission the offense is reported to a law enforcement agency; and
    (ii) incest shall be commenced within eight years after the offense is committed, if within four years after its commission the offense is reported to a law enforcement agency;
  (b) a misdemeanor other than negligent homicide shall be commenced within two years after it is committed; and
  (c) any infraction shall be commenced within one year after it is committed.
  (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), prosecution for the offenses listed in Subsections 76-3-203.5(1)(c)(i)(A) through (CC) may be commenced at any time if the identity of the person who committed the crime is unknown but DNA evidence is collected that would identify the person at a later date.
  (b) Subsection (2)(a) does not apply if the statute of limitations on a crime has run as of May 5, 2003, and no charges have been filed.
(3) If the statute of limitations would have run but for the provisions of Subsection (2) and identification of a perpetrator is made through DNA, a prosecution shall be commenced within four years of confirmation of the identity of the perpetrator.
(4) A prosecution is commenced upon:
  (a) the finding and filing of an indictment by a grand jury;
  (b) the filing of a complaint or information; or
  (c) the issuance of a citation.

Amended by Chapter 185, 2022 General Session

76-1-303 Time limitations for fraud or breach of fiduciary obligation -- Misconduct of public officer or employee.

(1) If the period prescribed in Section 76-1-302 has expired, a prosecution may be commenced for any offense a material element of which is either fraud or a breach of fiduciary obligation within one year after a report of the offense has been filed with a law enforcement agency.
(2) Subsection (1) may not extend the period of limitation as provided in Section 76-1-302 by more than three years.
(3) If the period prescribed in Section 76-1-301.5 or 76-1-302 has expired, a prosecution may be commenced for:
  (a) any offense based upon misconduct in office by a public officer or public employee:
    (i) at any time during which the defendant holds a public office or during the period of his public employment; or
    (ii) within two years after termination of defendant's public office or public employment.
  (b) Except as provided in Section 76-1-301.5, Subsection (3) shall not extend the period of limitation otherwise applicable by more than three years.

Amended by Chapter 145, 2009 General Session

76-1-304 Defendant out of state -- Plea held invalid -- New prosecutions.
(1) The period of limitation does not run against any defendant during any period of time in which the defendant is out of the state following the commission of an offense.
(2) If the defendant has entered into a plea agreement with the prosecution and later successfully moves to invalidate the defendant's conviction, the period of limitation is suspended from the time of the entry of the plea pursuant to the plea agreement until the time at which the conviction is determined to be invalid, and that determination becomes final.
(3) For purposes of this section, "final" means:
  (a) all appeals have been exhausted;
  (b) no judicial review is pending; and
  (c) no application for judicial review is pending.
(4) When the period of limitation is suspended pursuant to Subsection (2), the suspension includes any charges to which the defendant pleaded guilty pursuant to a plea agreement, charges which were dismissed as a result of a plea agreement, as well as any known charges which were not barred at the time of entry of the plea.
(5) Notwithstanding any other limitation, a prosecution may be commenced for charges described in Subsection (4) within one year after a plea entered pursuant to a plea agreement has been determined to be invalid, and that determination becomes final.

76-1-305 Lesser included offense for which period of limitations has run.
Whenever a defendant is charged with an offense for which the period of limitations has not run and the defendant should be found guilty of a lesser offense for which the period of limitations has run, the finding of the lesser and included offense against which the statute of limitations has run shall not be a bar to punishment for the lesser offense.

Enacted by Chapter 196, 1973 General Session

76-1-306 Judge to determine.
When an issue concerning the statute of limitations is raised, the judge shall determine by a preponderance of the evidence whether the prosecution is barred by the limitations in this part.

Enacted by Chapter 121, 1998 General Session

Part 4
Multiple Prosecutions and Double Jeopardy

76-1-401 "Single criminal episode" defined -- Joinder of offenses and defendants.

In this part unless the context requires a different definition, "single criminal episode" means all conduct which is closely related in time and is incident to an attempt or an accomplishment of a single criminal objective.

Nothing in this part shall be construed to limit or modify the effect of Section 77-8a-1 in controlling the joinder of offenses and defendants in criminal proceedings.

76-1-402 Separate offenses arising out of single criminal episode -- Included offenses.

(1) A defendant may be prosecuted in a single criminal action for all separate offenses arising out of a single criminal episode; however, when the same act of a defendant under a single criminal episode shall establish offenses which may be punished in different ways under different provisions of this code, the act shall be punishable under only one such provision; an acquittal or conviction and sentence under any such provision bars a prosecution under any other such provision.

(2) Whenever conduct may establish separate offenses under a single criminal episode, unless the court otherwise orders to promote justice, a defendant shall not be subject to separate trials for multiple offenses when:

(a) the offenses are within the jurisdiction of a single court; and

(b) the offenses are known to the prosecuting attorney at the time the defendant is arraigned on the first information or indictment.

(3) A defendant may be convicted of an offense included in the offense charged but may not be convicted of both the offense charged and the included offense. An offense is so included when:

(a) it is established by proof of the same or less than all the facts required to establish the commission of the offense charged; or

(b) it constitutes an attempt, solicitation, conspiracy, or form of preparation to commit the offense charged or an offense otherwise included therein; or

(c) it is specifically designated by a statute as a lesser included offense.

(4) The court shall not be obligated to charge the jury with respect to an included offense unless there is a rational basis for a verdict acquitting the defendant of the offense charged and convicting the defendant of the included offense.

(5) If the district court on motion after verdict or judgment, or an appellate court on appeal or certiorari, shall determine that there is insufficient evidence to support a conviction for the offense charged but that there is sufficient evidence to support a conviction for an included offense and the trier of fact necessarily found every fact required for conviction of that included offense, the verdict or judgment of conviction may be set aside or reversed and a judgment of conviction entered for the included offense, without necessity of a new trial, if such relief is sought by the defendant.

76-1-403 Former prosecution barring subsequent prosecution for offense out of same episode.

(1) If a defendant has been prosecuted for one or more offenses arising out of a single criminal episode, a subsequent prosecution for the same or a different offense arising out of the same criminal episode is barred if:
  (a) the subsequent prosecution is for an offense that was or should have been tried under Subsection 76-1-402(2) in the former prosecution; and
  (b) the former prosecution:
    (i) resulted in acquittal;
    (ii) resulted in conviction;
    (iii) was improperly terminated; or
    (iv) was terminated by a final order or judgment for the defendant that has not been reversed, set aside, or vacated and that necessarily required a determination inconsistent with a fact that must be established to secure conviction in the subsequent prosecution.

(2) There is an acquittal if the prosecution resulted in a finding of not guilty by the trier of facts or in a determination that there was insufficient evidence to warrant conviction. A finding of guilty of a lesser included offense is an acquittal of the greater offense even though the conviction for the lesser included offense is subsequently reversed, set aside, or vacated.

(3) There is a conviction if the prosecution resulted in a judgment of guilt that has not been reversed, set aside, or vacated; a verdict of guilty that has not been reversed, set aside, or vacated and that is capable of supporting a judgment; or a plea of guilty accepted by the court.

(4) There is an improper termination of prosecution if the termination takes place before the verdict, is for reasons not amounting to an acquittal, and takes place after a jury has been impaneled and sworn to try the defendant, or, if the jury trial is waived, after the first witness is sworn. However, termination of prosecution is not improper if:
  (a) the defendant consents to the termination;
  (b) the defendant waives his right to object to the termination; or
  (c) the court finds and states for the record that the termination is necessary because:
    (i) it is physically impossible to proceed with the trial in conformity with the law;
    (ii) there is a legal defect in the proceeding not attributable to the state that would make any judgment entered upon a verdict reversible as a matter of law;
    (iii) prejudicial conduct in or out of the courtroom not attributable to the state makes it impossible to proceed with the trial without injustice to the defendant or the state;
    (iv) the jury is unable to agree upon a verdict; or
    (v) false statements of a juror on voir dire prevent a fair trial.

76-1-404 Concurrent jurisdiction -- Prosecution in other jurisdiction barring prosecution in state.

If a defendant's conduct establishes the commission of one or more offenses within the concurrent jurisdiction of this state and of another jurisdiction, federal or state, the prosecution in the other jurisdiction is a bar to a subsequent prosecution in this state if:

(1) the former prosecution resulted in an acquittal, conviction, or termination of prosecution, as those terms are defined in Section 76-1-403; and

(2) the subsequent prosecution is for the same offense or offenses.

Enacted by Chapter 196, 1973 General Session

76-1-405 Subsequent prosecution not barred -- Circumstances.

A subsequent prosecution for an offense shall not be barred under the following circumstances:

(1) The former prosecution was procured by the defendant without the knowledge of the prosecuting attorney bringing the subsequent prosecution and with intent to avoid the sentence that might otherwise be imposed; or

(2) The former prosecution resulted in a judgment of guilt held invalid in a subsequent proceeding on writ of habeas corpus, coram nobis, or similar collateral attack.

Enacted by Chapter 196, 1973 General Session

Part 5
Burden of Proof

76-1-501 Presumption of innocence -- "Element of the offense" defined.

(1) A defendant in a criminal proceeding is presumed to be innocent until each element of the offense charged against him is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. In the absence of this proof, the defendant shall be acquitted.

(2) As used in this part, "element of the offense" means:

(a) the conduct, attendant circumstances, or results of conduct proscribed, prohibited, or forbidden in the definition of the offense; and

(b) the culpable mental state required.

(3) The existence of jurisdiction and venue are not elements of the offense but shall be established by a preponderance of the evidence.

Amended by Chapter 40, 2014 General Session
Amended by Chapter 189, 2014 General Session

76-1-502 Negating defense by allegation or proof -- When not required.

Section 76-1-501 does not require negating a defense:

(1) By allegation in an information, indictment, or other charge; or

(2) By proof, unless:

(a) The defense is in issue in the case as a result of evidence presented at trial, either by the prosecution or the defense; or

(b) The defense is an affirmative defense, and the defendant has presented evidence of such affirmative defense.

Enacted by Chapter 196, 1973 General Session

76-1-503 Presumption of fact.

An evidentiary presumption established by this code or other penal statute has the following consequences:

(1) When evidence of facts which support the presumption exist, the issue of the existence of the presumed fact must be submitted to the jury unless the court is satisfied that the evidence as a whole clearly negates the presumed fact;
(2) In submitting the issue of the existence of a presumed fact to the jury, the court shall charge that while the presumed fact must on all evidence be proved beyond a reasonable doubt, the law regards the facts giving rise to the presumption as evidence of the presumed fact.

76-1-504 Affirmative defense presented by defendant.

Evidence of an affirmative defense as defined by this code or other statutes shall be presented by the defendant.

Enacted by Chapter 196, 1973 General Session

Chapter 2
Principles of Criminal Responsibility

Part 1
Culpability Generally

76-2-101 Requirements of criminal conduct and criminal responsibility.

(1)
(a) A person is not guilty of an offense unless the person's conduct is prohibited by law; and
(b)
(i) the person acts intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, with criminal negligence, or with a mental state otherwise specified in the statute defining the offense, as the definition of the offense requires; or
(ii) the person's acts constitute an offense involving strict liability.
(2) These standards of criminal responsibility do not apply to the violations set forth in Title 41, Chapter 6a, Traffic Code, unless specifically provided by law.

76-2-102 Culpable mental state required -- Strict liability.

Every offense not involving strict liability shall require a culpable mental state, and when the definition of the offense does not specify a culpable mental state and the offense does not involve strict liability, intent, knowledge, or recklessness shall suffice to establish criminal responsibility. An offense shall involve strict liability if the statute defining the offense clearly indicates a legislative purpose to impose criminal responsibility for commission of the conduct prohibited by the statute without requiring proof of any culpable mental state.

Amended by Chapter 90, 1983 General Session

76-2-103 Definitions.

A person engages in conduct:

(1) Intentionally, or with intent or willfully with respect to the nature of his conduct or to a result of his conduct, when it is his conscious objective or desire to engage in the conduct or cause the result.

(2) Knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to his conduct or to circumstances surrounding his conduct when he is aware of the nature of his conduct or the existing circumstances. A person acts knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to a result of his conduct when he is aware that his conduct is reasonably certain to cause the result.

(3) Recklessly with respect to circumstances surrounding his conduct or the result of his conduct when he is aware of but consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the circumstances exist or the result will occur. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that its disregard constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that an ordinary person would exercise under all the circumstances as viewed from the actor's standpoint.

(4) With criminal negligence or is criminally negligent with respect to circumstances surrounding his conduct or the result of his conduct when he ought to be aware of a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the circumstances exist or the result will occur. The risk must be of a nature and degree that the failure to perceive it constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that an ordinary person would exercise in all the circumstances as viewed from the actor's standpoint.

76-2-104 Culpable mental state -- Higher mental states included.

(1) If acting with criminal negligence is sufficient to establish the culpable mental state for an element of an offense, that element is also established if a person acts intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly.

(2) If acting recklessly is sufficient to establish the culpable mental state for an element of an offense, that element is also established if a person acts intentionally or knowingly.

(3) If acting knowingly is sufficient to establish the culpable mental state for an element of an offense, that element is also established if a person acts intentionally.

76-2-105 Transferred intent.

Where intentionally causing a result is an element of an offense, that element is established even if a different person than the actor intended was killed, injured, or harmed, or different property than the actor intended was damaged or otherwise affected.

76-2-106 Commission of offense with aid of unmanned aircraft system.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Unmanned aircraft" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.

(b) "Unmanned aircraft system" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.

(2) An actor may be found guilty of an offense if:

(a) the actor commits the offense with the aid of an unmanned aircraft; and

(b) the unmanned aircraft system for the unmanned aircraft is under the actor's control at the time of the offense.

76-2-107 Commission of offense with aid of generative artificial intelligence.

(1) As used in this section, "generative artificial intelligence" means the same as that term is defined in Section 13-77-101.

(2) An actor may be found guilty of an offense if:

(a) the actor commits the offense with the aid of a generative artificial intelligence; or

(b) the actor intentionally prompts or otherwise causes a generative artificial intelligence to commit the offense.

Part 2
Criminal Responsibility for Conduct of Another

76-2-201 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Agent" means any director, officer, employee, or other person authorized to act in behalf of a corporation or association.

(2) "High managerial agent" means:

(a) a partner in a partnership;

(b) an officer of a corporation or association;

(c) an agent of a corporation or association who has duties of such responsibility that the agent's conduct reasonably may be assumed to represent the policy of the corporation or association.

(3) "Corporation" means all organizations required by the laws of this state or any other state to obtain a certificate of authority, a certificate of incorporation, or other form of registration to transact business as a corporation within this state or any other state and shall include domestic, foreign, profit and nonprofit corporations, but shall not include a corporation sole, as such term is used in Title 16, Chapter 7, Corporations Sole. Lack of an appropriate certificate of authority, incorporation, or other form of registration shall be no defense when such organization conducted its business in a manner as to appear to have lawful corporate existence.

76-2-202 Criminal responsibility for direct commission of offense or for conduct of another.

Every person, acting with the mental state required for the commission of an offense who directly commits the offense, who solicits, requests, commands, encourages, or intentionally aids another person to engage in conduct which constitutes an offense shall be criminally liable as a party for such conduct.

76-2-203 Defenses unavailable in prosecution based on conduct of another.

In any prosecution in which an actor's criminal responsibility is based on the conduct of another, it is no defense:
(1) That the actor belongs to a class of persons who by definition of the offense is legally incapable of committing the offense in an individual capacity, or
(2) That the person for whose conduct the actor is criminally responsible has been acquitted, has not been prosecuted or convicted, has been convicted of a different offense or of a different type or class of offense or is immune from prosecution.

Enacted by Chapter 196, 1973 General Session

76-2-204 Criminal responsibility of corporation or association.

A corporation or association is guilty of an offense when:
(1) The conduct constituting the offense consists of an omission to discharge a specific duty of affirmative performance imposed on corporations or associations by law; or
(2) The conduct constituting the offense is authorized, solicited, requested, commanded, or undertaken, performed, or recklessly tolerated by the board of directors or by a high managerial agent acting within the scope of employment and in behalf of the corporation or association.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

76-2-205 Criminal responsibility of person for conduct in name of corporation or association.

A person is criminally liable for conduct constituting an offense which the person performs or causes to be performed in the name of or on behalf of a corporation or association to the same extent as if such conduct were performed in the person's own name or behalf.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

Part 3
Defenses to Criminal Responsibility

76-2-301 Person under 14 years old not criminally responsible.

A person is not criminally responsible for conduct performed before the person reaches 14 years old. This section shall in no way limit the jurisdiction of or proceedings before the juvenile courts of this state.

76-2-302 Compulsion.

(1) A person is not guilty of an offense when the person engaged in the proscribed conduct because the person was coerced to do so by the use or threatened imminent use of unlawful physical force upon the person or a third person, which force or threatened force a person of reasonable firmness in that situation would not have resisted.
(2) The defense of compulsion provided by this section shall be unavailable to a person who intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly places himself or herself in a situation in which it is probable that the person will be subjected to duress.

(3) A married woman is not entitled, by reason of the presence of her husband, to any presumption of compulsion or to any defense of compulsion except as in Subsection (1) provided.

76-2-303 Entrapment.

(1) It is a defense that the actor was entrapped into committing the offense. Entrapment occurs when a peace officer or a person directed by or acting in cooperation with the officer induces the commission of an offense in order to obtain evidence of the commission for prosecution by methods creating a substantial risk that the offense would be committed by one not otherwise ready to commit it. Conduct merely affording a person an opportunity to commit an offense does not constitute entrapment.
(2) The defense of entrapment shall be unavailable when causing or threatening bodily injury is an element of the offense charged and the prosecution is based on conduct causing or threatening the injury to a person other than the person perpetrating the entrapment.
(3) The defense provided by this section is available even though the actor denies commission of the conduct charged to constitute the offense.
(4) Upon written motion of the defendant, the court shall hear evidence on the issue and shall determine as a matter of fact and law whether the defendant was entrapped to commit the offense. Defendant's motion shall be made at least 10 days before trial except the court for good cause shown may permit a later filing.
(5) Should the court determine that the defendant was entrapped, it shall dismiss the case with prejudice, but if the court determines the defendant was not entrapped, such issue may be presented by the defendant to the jury at trial. Any order by the court dismissing a case based on entrapment shall be appealable by the state.
(6) In any hearing before a judge or jury where the defense of entrapment is an issue, past offenses of the defendant shall not be admitted, except that in a trial where the defendant testifies, the defendant may be asked about past convictions for felonies and any testimony given by the defendant at a hearing on entrapment may be used to impeach the defendant's testimony at trial.

76-2-304 Ignorance or mistake of fact or law.

(1) Unless otherwise provided, ignorance or mistake of fact which disproves the culpable mental state is a defense to any prosecution for that crime.
(2) Ignorance or mistake concerning the existence or meaning of a penal law is no defense to a crime unless:
  (a) due to an actor's ignorance or mistake, the actor reasonably believed the actor's conduct did not constitute an offense; and
  (b) an actor's ignorance or mistake resulted from the actor's reasonable reliance upon:
    (i) an official statement of the law contained in a written order or grant of permission by an administrative agency charged by law with responsibility for interpreting the law in question; or
    (ii) a written interpretation of the law contained in an opinion of a court of record or made by a public servant charged by law with responsibility for interpreting the law in question.

(3) Although an actor's ignorance or mistake of fact or law may constitute a defense to the offense charged, the actor may nevertheless be convicted of a lesser included offense of which the actor would be guilty if the fact or law were as the actor believed.

76-2-304.5 Mistake as to victim's age not a defense.

(1) It is not a defense to the following offenses that the actor mistakenly believed the victim to be 14 years old or older at the time of the alleged offense or was unaware of the victim's true age:
  (a) child kidnapping, Section 76-5-301.1;
  (b) rape of a child, Section 76-5-402.1;
  (c) object rape of a child, Section 76-5-402.3;
  (d) sodomy on a child, Section 76-5-403.1;
  (e) sexual abuse of a child, Section 76-5-404.1;
  (f) aggravated sexual abuse of a child, Section 76-5-404.3;
  (g) unlawful kissing of a child, Section 76-5-416.2; or
  (h) an attempt to commit an offense listed in Subsections (1)(a) through (1)(g).
(2) It is not a defense to the following offenses that the actor mistakenly believed the victim to be 16 years old or older at the time of the alleged offense or was unaware of the victim's true age:
  (a) unlawful sexual activity with a minor, Section 76-5-401;
  (b) sexual abuse of a minor, Section 76-5-401.1; or
  (c) an attempt to commit an offense listed in Subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b).
(3) It is not a defense to the following offenses that the actor mistakenly believed the victim to be 18 years old or older at the time of the alleged offense or was unaware of the victim's true age:
  (a) human trafficking of a child, Section 76-5-308.5;
  (b) aggravated human trafficking, Section 76-5-310;
  (c) aggravated human smuggling, Section 76-5-310.1;
  (d) unlawful sexual conduct with a minor, Subsection 76-5-401.2(2)(a)(ii);
  (e) patronizing a prostituted individual who is a child, Section 76-5d-204;
  (f) aggravated exploitation of prostitution, Section 76-5d-208; or
  (g) sexual solicitationby an actor offering compensation to a child in exchange for sexual activity, Section 76-5d-211.

Amended by Chapter 174, 2025 General Session

76-2-305 Mental condition -- Use as a defense -- Influence of alcohol or other substance voluntarily consumed.

(1) As used in this section:
    (i) "Mental condition" means a mental illness or a mental disability that substantially impairs an individual's mental, emotional, or behavioral functioning.
    (ii) "Mental condition" does not include a mental abnormality that is manifested solely by repeated criminal conduct, anti-social behavior, or a substance use disorder.
  (b) "Mental disability" means an intellectual disability or a neurodevelopmental disorder as those terms are defined in the current edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders published by the American Psychiatric Association.

(c) "Mental illness" means the following mental disorders as described in the most recent edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders published by the American Psychiatric Association:
(i) schizophrenia spectrum and other psychotic disorders;
(ii) bipolar I disorder;
(iii) post-traumatic stress disorder; or
(iv) other serious mental health conditions with psychotic features.

(a) It is a defense to a prosecution under any statute or ordinance that the defendant, as a result of a mental condition, lacked the mental state required as an element of the offense charged.
(b) A mental condition is not otherwise a defense, but may be evidence in mitigation of the penalty in a capital felony under Section 76-3-207 and may be evidence of special mitigation reducing the level of a criminal homicide or attempted criminal homicide offense under Section 76-5-205.5.

(3) The defense defined in this section includes the defenses known as "insanity" and "diminished mental capacity."

(4) A person who asserts a defense of insanity or diminished mental capacity, and who is under the influence of voluntarily consumed, injected, or ingested alcohol, controlled substances, or volatile substances at the time of the alleged offense is not excused from criminal responsibility on the basis of a mental condition if the alcohol or substance caused, triggered, or substantially contributed to the mental condition.

76-2-306 Voluntary intoxication.

(1) Voluntary intoxication is not a defense to a criminal charge unless such intoxication negates the existence of the mental state which is an element of the offense. If recklessness or criminal negligence establishes an element of an offense and the actor is unaware of the risk because of voluntary intoxication, his unawareness is immaterial in a prosecution for that offense.

(2) Voluntary intoxication is not a defense to sexual offenses, as described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417, 76-5-418, 76-5-419, or 76-5-420.

76-2-307 Voluntary termination of efforts prior to offense.

It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution in which an actor's criminal responsibility arises from the actor's own conduct or from being a party to an offense under Section 76-2-202 that prior to the commission of the offense, the actor voluntarily terminated the actor's effort to promote or facilitate its commission and either:

(1) gave timely warning to the proper law enforcement authorities or the intended victim; or

(2) wholly deprives the actor's prior efforts of effectiveness in the commission.

76-2-308 Affirmative defenses.

Defenses enumerated in this part constitute affirmative defenses.

76-2-309 Justified use of force.

(1) An individual who uses or threatens to use force as permitted in Section 76-2-402, 76-2-404, 76-2-405, 76-2-406, 76-2-407, or 76-2-408 is justified in that conduct.

(2) The pretrial justification hearing process described in Subsections (3)(a) and (b) does not apply if:

(i) the individual against whom force was used or threatened is a law enforcement officer, as defined in Section 53-13-103;

(ii) the officer was acting lawfully in the performance of the officer's official duties; and

(iii)

(A) the officer was identified as an officer by the officer in accordance with applicable law; or

(B) the individual using or threatening to use force knew or reasonably should have known that the officer was a law enforcement officer; or

(b) the charge filed against the defendant for which the defendant seeks a pretrial justification hearing is an infraction, a class B or C misdemeanor, or a domestic violence offense as defined in Section 77-36-1.

(a) Upon motion of the defendant filed in accordance with Rule 12 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure, the court shall hear evidence on the issue of justification under this section and shall determine as a matter of fact and law whether the defendant was justified in the use or threatened use of force.

(b) At the pretrial justification hearing, after the defendant makes a prima facie claim of justification, the state has the burden to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant's use or threatened use of force was not justified.

(i) If the court determines that the state has not met the state's burden described in Subsection (3)(b), the court shall dismiss the charge with prejudice.

(ii) The state may appeal a court's order dismissing a charge under Subsection (3)(c)(i) in accordance with Section 77-18a-1.

(iii) If a court determines after the pretrial justification hearing that the state has met the state's burden described in Subsection (3)(b), the issue of justification may be raised by the defendant to the jury at trial and, if raised by the defendant, the state shall have the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant's use or threatened use of force was not justified.

(iv) At trial, a court's determination that the state met the state's burden under Subsection (3)(c)(iii) is not admissible and may not be referenced by the prosecution.

Part 4
Justification Excluding Criminal Responsibility

76-2-401 Justification as defense -- When allowed.

(1) Conduct which is justified is a defense to prosecution for any offense based on the conduct. The defense of justification may be claimed:

(a) when the actor's conduct is in defense of persons or property under the circumstances described in Sections 76-2-402 through 76-2-406 of this part;
(b) when the actor's conduct is reasonable and in fulfillment of his duties as a governmental officer or employee;
(c) when the actor's conduct is reasonable discipline of minors by parents, guardians, teachers, or other persons in loco parentis, as limited by Subsection (2);
(d) when the actor's conduct is reasonable discipline of persons in custody under the laws of the state; or
(e) when the actor's conduct is justified for any other reason under the laws of this state.
(2) The defense of justification under Subsection (1)(c) is not available if the offense charged involves causing serious bodily injury, as defined in Section 76-1-101.5, serious injury, as defined in Section 76-5-109, or the death of the minor.

Amended by Chapter 284, 2025 General Session

76-2-402 Force in defense of person -- Forcible felony defined.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Forcible felony" means aggravated assault, mayhem, aggravated murder, murder, manslaughter, kidnapping and aggravated kidnapping, rape, forcible sodomy, rape of a child, object rape, object rape of a child, sexual abuse of a child, aggravated sexual abuse of a child, and aggravated sexual assault as defined in Chapter 5, Offenses Against the Individual, and arson, robbery, and burglary as defined in Chapter 6, Offenses Against Property.
(b) "Forcible felony" includes any other felony offense that involves the use of force or violence against an individual that poses a substantial danger of death or serious bodily injury.
(c) "Forcible felony" does not include burglary of a vehicle, as defined in Section 76-6-204, unless the vehicle is occupied at the time unlawful entry is made or attempted.
(a) An individual is justified in threatening or using force against another individual when and to the extent that the individual reasonably believes that force or a threat of force is necessary to defend the individual or another individual against the imminent use of unlawful force.
(b) An individual is justified in using force intended or likely to cause death or serious bodily injury only if the individual reasonably believes that force is necessary to prevent death or serious bodily injury to the individual or another individual as a result of imminent use of unlawful force, or to prevent the commission of a forcible felony.
(a) An individual is not justified in using force under the circumstances specified in Subsection (2) if the individual:
(i) initially provokes the use of force against another individual with the intent to use force as an excuse to inflict bodily harm upon the other individual;
(ii) is attempting to commit, committing, or fleeing after the commission or attempted commission of a felony , unless the use of force is a reasonable response to factors unrelated to the commission, attempted commission, or fleeing after the commission of that felony ; or
(iii) was the aggressor or was engaged in a combat by agreement, unless the individual withdraws from the encounter and effectively communicates to the other individual the intent to withdraw from the encounter and, notwithstanding, the other individual continues or threatens to continue the use of unlawful force.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (3)(a)(iii) the following do not, alone, constitute "combat by agreement":
(i) voluntarily entering into or remaining in an ongoing relationship; or
(ii) entering or remaining in a place where one has a legal right to be.
(4) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(a)(iii):
(a) an individual does not have a duty to retreat from the force or threatened force described in Subsection (2) in a place where that individual has lawfully entered or remained; and
(b) the failure of an individual to retreat under the provisions of Subsection (4)(a) is not a relevant factor in determining whether the individual who used or threatened force acted reasonably.
(5) In determining imminence or reasonableness under Subsection (2), the trier of fact may consider:
(a) the nature of the danger;
(b) the immediacy of the danger;
(c) the probability that the unlawful force would result in death or serious bodily injury;
(d) the other individual's prior violent acts or violent propensities;
(e) any patterns of abuse or violence in the parties' relationship; and
(f) any other relevant factors.

76-2-403 Force in arrest or temporary detention..

A person is justified in using any force, except deadly force, which the person reasonably believes to be necessary to effect an arrest or temporary detention or to defend the person's self or another from bodily harm while making an arrest or temporary detention.

Amended by Chapter 199, 2025 General Session
Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

76-2-404 Law enforcement officer use of deadly force.

(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Deadly force" means force that creates or is likely to create, or that the individual using the force intends to create, a substantial likelihood of death or serious bodily injury to an individual.
(b) "Officer" means an officer described in Section 53-13-102.
(c) "Serious bodily injury" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-1-101.5.
(2) The defense of justification applies to the use of deadly force by an officer, or an individual acting by the officer's command in providing aid and assistance, when:
(a) the officer is acting in obedience to and in accordance with the judgment of a competent court in executing a penalty of death under Subsection 77-18-113(2), (3), or (4);
(b) effecting an arrest or preventing an escape from custody following an arrest, if:
(i) the officer reasonably believes that deadly force is necessary to prevent the arrest from being defeated by escape; and
(ii)
(A) the officer has probable cause to believe that the suspect has committed a felony offense involving the infliction or threatened infliction of death or serious bodily injury; or
(B) the officer has probable cause to believe the suspect poses a threat of death or serious bodily injury to the officer or to an individual other than the suspect if apprehension is delayed; or

(c) the officer reasonably believes that the use of deadly force is necessary to prevent death or serious bodily injury to the officer or an individual other than the suspect.

(3) If feasible, a verbal warning should be given by the officer prior to any use of deadly force under Subsection (2)(b) or (2)(c).

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-2-405 Force or deadly force in defense of habitation, vehicle, or place of business or employment.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), an actor is justified in using force against an individual when and to the extent that the actor reasonably believes that the force is necessary to prevent or terminate the individual's unlawful entry into the actor's vehicle or unlawful entry or attack upon the actor's habitation or place of business or employment.

(2) An actor is justified in using force against the individual described in Subsection (1) that is intended or likely to cause death or serious bodily injury to the individual only if:

(i) the entry is made or attempted in a violent and tumultuous manner, surreptitiously, or by stealth; and

(ii) the actor reasonably believes:

(A) that the entry is attempted or made for the purpose of assaulting or perpetrating personal violence against any individual who dwells in or is present in the habitation or is present in the vehicle, or place of business or employment; and

(B) that the force is necessary to prevent the assault or perpetration of personal violence; or

(b) the actor reasonably believes that:

(i) the entry is made or attempted for the purpose of committing a felony in the habitation; and

(ii) the force is necessary to prevent the commission of the felony.

(a) An actor who uses force or deadly force against an individual to defend the actor's habitation is presumed for the purpose of both civil and criminal cases to have acted reasonably and had a reasonable fear of imminent peril of death or serious bodily injury if the entry or attempted entry is:

(i) unlawful; and

(ii) made or attempted:

(A) by use of force;

(B) in a violent and tumultuous manner;

(C) surreptitiously or by stealth; or

(D) for the purpose of committing a felony.

(b) An actor who uses force or deadly force against an individual to defend the actor's vehicle or place of business or employment is presumed for the purpose of both civil and criminal cases to have acted reasonably and had a reasonable fear of imminent peril of death or serious bodily injury if:

(i) the actor knew or had reason to believe that the individual:

(A) entered, or attempted to enter, unlawfully and with force, the actor's occupied vehicle or place of business or employment; or

(B) removed, or attempted to remove, unlawfully and with force, the actor from the actor's vehicle or place of business or employment; and

(ii) the actor:

(A) did not provoke the individual; and

(B) was not otherwise engaged in criminal activity, other than a traffic offense, at the time the force was used.

(c) The presumption in Subsection (3)(b) applies to an actor's use of force or deadly force against an individual to protect a third person if:

(i) under the circumstances as the actor believes them to be, the actor would be justified under Subsection (3)(b) in using force or deadly force to protect the actor against the unlawful force or unlawful deadly force that the actor reasonably believes to be threatening the third person the actor seeks to protect; and

(ii) the actor reasonably believes that the actor's intervention is immediately necessary to protect the third person.

76-2-406 Force in defense of property -- Affirmative defense.

(1) Except as provided in Section 76-2-405, an actor is justified in using force, other than deadly force, against another individual when and to the extent that the actor reasonably believes that force is necessary to prevent or terminate the individual's criminal interference with:

(a) real or personal property lawfully in the actor's possession;

(b) real or personal property lawfully in the possession of a member of the actor's immediate family;

(c) real or personal property belonging to an individual whose property the actor has a legal duty to protect; or

(d) personal property that the actor reasonably believes belongs to another person and that individual's criminal interference is meant to deprive the other person of the person's personal property.

(2) In determining reasonableness under Subsection (1), the trier of fact shall, in addition to any other factors, consider the following factors:

(a) the apparent or perceived extent of the damage to the property;

(b) property damage previously caused by the other individual;

(c) threats of personal injury or damage to property that have been made previously by the other individual; and

(d) any patterns of abuse or violence between the actor and the individual.

Amended by Chapter 199, 2025 General Session

76-2-407 Deadly force in defense of individuals on real property.

(1) As used in this section, "forcible felony" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-2-402.

(2) An actor is justified in using force intended or likely to cause death or serious bodily injury against an individual in the actor's defense of another individual on real property other than the places or situations described in Section 76-2-405 if:

(a) the actor is in lawful possession of the real property;

(b) the actor reasonably believes that the force is necessary to prevent or terminate the individual's trespass onto the real property;

(c) the individual's trespass is made or attempted by use of force or in a violent and tumultuous manner; and

(d)

(i) the actor reasonably believes:

(A) that the individual's trespass is attempted or made for the purpose of committing violence against an individual on the real property; and
(B) that the force is necessary to prevent personal violence; or
(ii) the actor reasonably believes that:
(A) the individual's trespass is made or attempted for the purpose of committing a forcible felony that poses imminent peril of death or serious bodily injury to an individual on the real property; and
(B) the force is necessary to prevent the commission of the forcible felony.
(3) An actor who uses deadly force in defense of an individual on real property under Subsection (2) is presumed for the purpose of both civil and criminal cases to have acted reasonably and had a reasonable fear of imminent peril of death or serious bodily injury if the trespass or attempted trespass:
(a) is unlawful; and
(b) is made or attempted:
(i) by use of force;
(ii) in a violent and tumultuous manner; or
(iii) for the purpose of committing a forcible felony.

Amended by Chapter 189, 2024 General Session

76-2-408 Officer use of force -- Investigations.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Dangerous weapon" means a firearm or an object that in the manner of its use or intended use is capable of causing death or serious bodily injury to an individual.
(b) "Deadly force" means a force that creates or is likely to create, or that the individual using the force intends to create, a substantial likelihood of death or serious bodily injury to an individual.
(c) "In custody" means in the legal custody of a state prison, county jail, or other correctional facility, including custody that results from:
(i) a detention to secure attendance as a witness in a criminal case;
(ii) an arrest for or charging with a crime and committing for trial;
(iii) committing for contempt, upon civil process, or by other authority of law; or
(iv) sentencing to imprisonment on conviction of a crime.
(d) "Investigating agency" means a law enforcement agency, the county or district attorney's office, or an interagency task force composed of officers from multiple law enforcement agencies.
(e) "Officer" means an officer described in Section 53-13-102.
(f) "Officer-involved critical incident" means any of the following:
(i) an officer's use of deadly force;
(ii) an officer's use of a dangerous weapon against an individual who causes injury to any individual;
(iii) death or serious bodily injury to any individual, other than the officer, resulting from an officer's:
(A) use of a motor vehicle while the officer is on duty; or
(B) use of a government vehicle while the officer is off duty;
(iv) the death of an individual who is in custody, but excluding a death that is the result of disease, natural causes, or conditions that have been medically diagnosed prior to the individual's death; or

(v) the death of or serious bodily injury to an individual not in custody, other than an officer, resulting from an officer's attempt to prevent an individual's escape from custody, to make an arrest, or otherwise to gain physical control of an individual.

(g) "Serious bodily injury" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-1-101.5.

(2) When an officer-involved critical incident occurs:

(a) upon receiving notice of the officer-involved critical incident, the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction where the incident occurred shall, as soon as practical, notify the county or district attorney having jurisdiction where the incident occurred; and

(b) the chief executive of the law enforcement agency and the county or district attorney having jurisdiction where the incident occurred shall:

(i) jointly designate an investigating agency for the officer-involved critical incident; and

(ii) designate which agency is the lead investigative agency if the officer-involved critical incident involves multiple investigations.

(3) The investigating agency under Subsection (2) may not be the law enforcement agency employing the officer who is alleged to have caused or contributed to the officer-involved critical incident.

(4) This section does not preclude the law enforcement agency employing an officer alleged to have caused or contributed to the officer-involved critical incident from conducting an internal administrative investigation.

(5) Each law enforcement agency that is part of or administered by the state or any of the state's political subdivisions shall adopt and post on the agency's publicly accessible website:

(a) the policies and procedures the agency has adopted to select the investigating agency if an officer-involved critical incident occurs in the agency's jurisdiction and one of the agency's officers is alleged to have caused or contributed to the officer-involved incident; and

(b) the protocols the agency has adopted to ensure that any investigation of officer-involved incidents occurring in the agency's jurisdiction are conducted professionally, thoroughly, and impartially.

(6) Once a criminal investigation is turned over from law enforcement, the county or district attorney's findings or analyses into an officer's use of force shall be completed within 180 days of the turnover. If the findings or analyses is not published within 180 days of the turnover, the county or district attorney shall post a public statement on the county or district attorney's website stating a reasonable estimate when the findings or analyses will be complete and the reason for the delay.

(7) Subject to the requirements of Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, the county or district attorney's resulting findings or analyses shall be published on the county or district attorney's website within five business days of completion.

76-2-409 Battered person mitigation.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Abuse" means the same as that term is defined in Section 78B-7-102.

(b) "Cohabitant" means:

(i) the same as that term is defined in Section 78B-7-102; or

(ii) the relationship of a minor and a natural parent, an adoptive parent, a stepparent, or an individual living with the minor's natural parent as if a stepparent to the minor.

(a) An individual is entitled to battered person mitigation if:
(i) the individual committed a criminal offense that was not legally justified;
(ii) the individual committed the criminal offense against a cohabitant who demonstrated a pattern of abuse against the individual or another cohabitant of the individual; and
(iii) the individual reasonably believed that the criminal offense was necessary to end the pattern of abuse.
(b) A reasonable belief under Subsection (2)(a) is determined from the viewpoint of a reasonable person in the individual's circumstances, as the individual's circumstances are perceived by the individual.
(3) An individual claiming mitigation under Subsection (2)(a) has the burden of proving, by clear and convincing evidence, each element that would entitle the individual to mitigation under Subsection (2)(a).
(4) Mitigation under Subsection (2)(a) results in a one-step reduction of the level of offense of which the individual is convicted.
(5)
(a) If the trier of fact is a jury, an individual is not entitled to mitigation under Subsection (2)(a) unless the jury:
(i) finds the individual proved, in accordance with Subsection (3), that the individual is entitled to mitigation by unanimous vote; and
(ii) returns a special verdict for the reduced charge at the same time the jury returns the general verdict.
(b) A nonunanimous vote by the jury on the question of mitigation under Subsection (2)(a) does not result in a hung jury.
(6) An individual intending to claim mitigation under Subsection (2)(a) at the individual's trial shall give notice of the individual's intent to claim mitigation under Subsection (2)(a) to the prosecuting agency at least 30 days before the individual's trial.

Part 2
Sentencing

76-3-201 Sentences or combination of sentences allowed -- Restitution and other costs -- Civil penalties.

(1) As used in this section:
  (a)
    (i) "Convicted" means:

(A) having entered a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, or a plea of guilty with a mental condition; or
(B) having received a judgment of guilty or a judgment of guilty with a mental condition.
(ii) "Convicted" does not include an adjudication of an offense under Section 80-6-701.
(b) "Restitution" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38b-102.
(2) Within the limits provided by this chapter, a court may sentence an individual convicted of an offense to any one of the following sentences, or combination of the following sentences:
(a) to pay a fine;
(b) to removal or disqualification from public or private office;
(c) except as otherwise provided by law, to probation in accordance with Section 77-18-105;
(d) in accordance with Subsection 77-18-111(4), to imprisonment;
(e) on or after April 27, 1992, to life in prison without parole; or
(f) to death.
(3)
(a) This chapter does not deprive a court of authority conferred by law:
(i) to forfeit property;
(ii) to dissolve a corporation;
(iii) to suspend or cancel a license;
(iv) to permit removal of an individual from office;
(v) to cite for contempt; or
(vi) to impose any other civil penalty.
(b) A court may include a civil penalty in a sentence.
(4) In addition to any other sentence that a sentencing court may impose, the court shall order an individual to:
(a) pay restitution in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act;
(b) subject to Section 77-32b-104, pay the cost expended by an appropriate governmental entity under Section 77-30-24 for the extradition of the individual if the individual:
(i) was extradited to this state, under Title 77, Chapter 30, Extradition, to resolve pending criminal charges; and
(ii) is convicted of an offense in the county for which the individual is returned;
(c) subject to Subsection (5) and Subsections 77-32b-104(2), (3), and (4), pay the cost of medical care, treatment, hospitalization, and related transportation, as described in Section 17-63-706, that is provided by a county to the individual while the individual is in a county correctional facility before and after sentencing if:
(i) the individual is convicted of an offense that results in incarceration in the county correctional facility; and
(ii)
(A) the individual is not a state prisoner housed in the county correctional facility through a contract with the Department of Corrections; or
(B) the reimbursement does not duplicate the reimbursement under Section 64-13e-104 if the individual is a state probationary inmate or a state parole inmate; and
(d) pay any other cost that the court determines is appropriate under Section 77-32b-104.
(5) The cost of medical care under Subsection (4)(c) does not include expenses incurred by the county correctional facility in providing reasonable accommodation for an inmate qualifying as an individual with a disability as defined and covered by the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. 12101 through 12213, including medical and mental health treatment for the inmate's disability.

Amended by Chapter 17, 2025 Special Session 1

76-3-202 Paroled individuals -- Termination or discharge from sentence -- Time served on parole -- Discretion of Board of Pardons and Parole.

(1) As described in Subsection 77-27-5(7), every individual committed to the state prison to serve an indeterminate term and, after December 31, 2018, released on parole shall complete a term of parole that extends through the expiration of the individual's maximum sentence unless the parole is earlier terminated by the Board of Pardons and Parole in accordance with the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1, to the extent the guidelines are consistent with the requirements of the law.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), an individual committed to the state prison to serve an indeterminate term and released on parole on or after October 1, 2015, but before January 1, 2019, shall, upon completion of three years on parole outside of confinement and without violation, be terminated from the individual's sentence unless the parole is earlier terminated by the Board of Pardons and Parole or is terminated pursuant to Section 64-14-204.

(b) An individual committed to the state prison to serve an indeterminate term and later released on parole on or after July 1, 2008, but before January 1, 2019, and who was convicted of a felony offense under Chapter 5, Offenses Against the Individual, or an attempt, conspiracy, or solicitation to commit the offense, shall complete a term of parole that extends through the expiration of the individual's maximum sentence, unless the parole is earlier terminated by the Board of Pardons and Parole.

(3) An individual convicted of a second degree felony for violating Section 76-5-404, forcible sexual abuse; Section 76-5-404.1, sexual abuse of a child; or Section 76-5-404.3, aggravated sexual abuse of a child; or attempting, conspiring, or soliciting the commission of a violation of any of those sections, and who is paroled before July 1, 2008, shall, upon completion of 10 years parole outside of confinement and without violation, be terminated from the sentence unless the individual is earlier terminated by the Board of Pardons and Parole.

(4) An individual who violates the terms of parole, while serving parole, for any offense under Subsection (1), (2), or (3), shall at the discretion of the Board of Pardons and Parole be recommitted to prison to serve the portion of the balance of the term as determined by the Board of Pardons and Parole, but not to exceed the maximum term.

(5) An individual paroled following a former parole revocation may not be discharged from the individual's sentence until:

(a) the individual has served the applicable period of parole under this section outside of confinement;

(b) the individual's maximum sentence has expired; or

(c) the Board of Pardons and Parole orders the individual to be discharged from the sentence.

(a) All time served on parole, outside of confinement and without violation, constitutes service toward the total sentence.

(b) Any time an individual spends outside of confinement after commission of a parole violation does not constitute service toward the total sentence unless the individual is exonerated at a parole revocation hearing.

(c)

(i) Any time an individual spends in confinement awaiting a hearing before the Board of Pardons and Parole or a decision by the board concerning revocation of parole constitutes service toward the total sentence.

(ii) In the case of exoneration by the board, the time spent is included in computing the total parole term.

(7) When a parolee causes the parolee's absence from the state without authority from the Board of Pardons and Parole or avoids or evades parole supervision, the period of absence, avoidance, or evasion tolls the parole period.

(a) While on parole, time spent in confinement outside the state may not be credited toward the service of any Utah sentence.

(b) Time in confinement outside the state or in the custody of any tribal authority or the United States government for a conviction obtained in another jurisdiction tolls the expiration of the Utah sentence.

(9) This section does not preclude the Board of Pardons and Parole from paroling or discharging an inmate at any time within the discretion of the Board of Pardons and Parole unless otherwise specifically provided by law.

(10) A parolee sentenced to lifetime parole may petition the Board of Pardons and Parole for termination of lifetime parole.

76-3-203 Felony conviction -- Indeterminate term of imprisonment.

A person who has been convicted of a felony may be sentenced to imprisonment for an indeterminate term as follows:

(1) In the case of a felony of the first degree, unless the statute provides otherwise, for a term of not less than five years and which may be for life.

(2) In the case of a felony of the second degree, unless the statute provides otherwise, for a term of not less than one year nor more than 15 years.

(3) In the case of a felony of the third degree, unless the statute provides otherwise, for a term not to exceed five years.

Amended by Chapter 148, 2003 General Session

76-3-203.1 Enhanced penalty for offenses committed in or for a certain group.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Criminal street gang" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-9-802.

(b) "In concert with two or more individuals" means:

(i) the actor was aided or encouraged by at least two other individuals in committing an offense and was aware of this aid or encouragement; and

(ii) each of the other individuals:

(A) was physically present; and

(B) participated as a party to an offense listed in Subsection (6) or (7).

(c) "In concert with two or more individuals" means, regarding intent:

(i) any other individual participating as a party need not have the intent to engage in the same offense or degree of offense as the actor; and

(ii) a minor is a party if the minor's actions would cause the minor to be a party if the minor were an adult.

(d) "Organized criminal group" means a group of three or more individuals, whether operating formally or informally, that:

(i) has as one of the group's purposes the commission of criminal offenses; and

(ii) whose members collectively engage in committing criminal offenses for the financial or other material benefit of the members or group.

(e) "Principal place of residence" means the single location where an individual's habitation is fixed and to which, whenever the individual is absent, the individual has the intention of returning, as evidenced by:

(i) the intent expressed by the individual; and

(ii) acts of the individual that are consistent or inconsistent with the intent expressed by the individual.

(2) An actor who commits an offense listed in Subsection (6) is subject to an enhanced penalty for the offense as provided in Subsection (5) if the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the actor acted:

(a) in concert with two or more individuals;

(b) for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with a criminal street gang or other organized criminal group; or

(c) to gain recognition, acceptance, membership, or increased status with a criminal street gang or other organized criminal group.

(3) An actor who commits an offense listed in Subsection (7) is subject to an enhanced penalty for the offense as provided in Subsection (5) if the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the actor:

(i) acted in concert with two or more individuals; and

(ii)

(A) traveled more than 50 miles from the actor's principal place of residence for the purpose of the actor committing an offense listed in Subsection (7); or

(B) had previously been convicted of an offense listed in Subsection (7), or an offense in another jurisdiction, including a state, federal, or military court, that is substantially equivalent to an offense under Subsection (7);

(b) acted for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with a criminal street gang or other organized criminal group; or

(c) acted to gain recognition, acceptance, membership, or increased status with a criminal street gang or other organized criminal group.

(4) The prosecuting attorney, or grand jury if an indictment is returned, shall cause to be subscribed upon the information or indictment notice that the actor is subject to the enhanced penalties provided under this section.

(5) For an offense listed in Subsection (6) or (7), an actor may be charged as follows:

(a) for a class B misdemeanor, as a class A misdemeanor;

(b) for a class A misdemeanor, as a third degree felony;

(c) for a third degree felony, as a second degree felony; and

(d) for a second degree felony, as a first degree felony.

(6) The offenses referred to in Subsection (2) are:

(a) an offense described in Chapter 5, Part 1, Assault and Related Offenses;

(b) an offense described in Chapter 5, Part 2, Criminal Homicide;

(c) a felony offense described in Chapter 5, Part 3, Kidnapping, Trafficking, and Smuggling;

(d) a felony offense described in Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than enticing a minor under Section 76-5-417, lewdness under Section 76-5-419, or lewdness involving a child under Section 76-5-420;

(e) a felony violation of aiding prostitution as described in Section 76-5d-206;

(f) exploiting prostitution as described in Section 76-5d-207;

(g) aggravated exploitation of prostitution under Section 76-5d-208;
(h) robbery as described in Section 76-6-202;
(i) burglary as described in Subsection 76-6-202(3)(b);
(j) aggravated burglary as described in Section 76-6-203;
(k) burglary of a research facility as described in Section 76-6-207;
(l) aggravated robbery as described in Section 76-6-302;
(m) an offense described in Chapter 11, Weapons; and
(n) transporting or harboring aliens as described in Section 76-14-209.

(7) The offenses referred to in Subsection (3) are:
(a) criminal solicitation of a minor as described in Section 76-4-205;
(b) an offense described in Chapter 6, Part 1, Property Destruction;
(c) an offense described in Chapter 6, Part 4, Theft;
(d) an offense described in Chapter 6, Part 6, Retail Theft;
(e) an offense described in Chapter 6, Part 11, Identity Fraud Act;
(f) communications fraud as described in Section 76-6-525; and
(g) an offense described in Chapter 9, Part 16, Money Laundering and Currency Transaction Reporting Act.

(8) A court may, if not otherwise prohibited from doing so by another section of the code, suspend a sentence imposed under this section and place the actor on probation.

(9) It is not a bar to imposing the enhanced penalties under this section that the individuals with whom the actor is alleged to have acted in concert are not identified, apprehended, charged, or convicted, or that any of those individuals are charged with or convicted of a different or lesser offense.

76-3-203.2 Definitions -- Use of dangerous weapon in offenses committed on or about school premises -- Enhanced penalties.

(a) As used in this section "on or about school premises" means:
(i)
(A) in a public or private elementary or secondary school; or
(B) on the grounds of any of those schools;
(ii)
(A) in a public or private institution of higher education; or
(B) on the grounds of a public or private institution of higher education;
(iii) within 1,000 feet of any school, institution, or grounds included in Subsections (1)(a)(i) and (ii); and
(iv) in or on the grounds of a preschool or child care facility.
(b) As used in this section:
(i) "Dangerous weapon" has the same definition as in Section 76-1-101.5.
(ii) "Educator" means a person who is:
(A) employed by a public school district; and
(B) required to hold a certificate issued by the State Board of Education in order to perform duties of employment.

(iii) "Within the course of employment" means that an educator is providing services or engaging in conduct required by the educator's employer to perform the duties of employment.

(2) A person who, on or about school premises, commits an offense and uses or threatens to use a dangerous weapon, as defined in Section 76-1-101.5, in the commission of the offense is subject to an enhanced degree of offense as provided in Subsection (4).

(a) A person who commits an offense against an educator when the educator is acting within the course of employment is subject to an enhanced degree of offense as provided in Subsection (4).

(b) As used in Subsection (3)(a), "offense" means:

(i) an offense under Chapter 5, Offenses Against the Individual; and

(ii) an offense under Chapter 6, Part 3, Robbery.

(4) If the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, while on or about school premises, commits an offense and in the commission of the offense uses or threatens to use a dangerous weapon, or that the defendant committed an offense against an educator when the educator was acting within the course of the educator's employment, the enhanced penalty for a:

(a) class B misdemeanor is a class A misdemeanor;

(b) class A misdemeanor is a third degree felony;

(c) third degree felony is a second degree felony; or

(d) second degree felony is a first degree felony.

(5) The enhanced penalty for a first degree felony offense of a convicted person:

(a) is imprisonment for a term of not less than five years and which may be for life, and imposition or execution of the sentence may not be suspended unless the court finds that the interests of justice would be best served and states the specific circumstances justifying the disposition on the record; and

(b) is subject also to the dangerous weapon enhancement provided in Section 76-3-203.8, except for an offense committed under Subsection (3) that does not involve a firearm.

(6) The prosecuting attorney, or grand jury if an indictment is returned, shall provide notice upon the information or indictment that the defendant is subject to the enhanced degree of offense or penalty under Subsection (4) or (5).

(7) In cases where an offense is enhanced under Subsection (4), or under Subsection (5)(a) for an offense committed under Subsection (2) that does not involve a firearm, the convicted person is not subject to the dangerous weapon enhancement in Section 76-3-203.8.

(8) The sentencing enhancement described in this section does not apply if:

(a) the offense for which the person is being sentenced is:

(i) a grievous sexual offense;

(ii) child kidnapping under Section 76-5-301.1;

(iii) aggravated kidnapping under Section 76-5-302; or

(iv) forcible sexual abuse under Section 76-5-404; and

(b) applying the sentencing enhancement provided for in this section would result in a lower maximum penalty than the penalty provided for under the section that describes the offense for which the person is being sentenced.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-3-203.3 Penalty for hate crimes -- Civil rights violation.

As used in this section:
(1) "Primary offense" means those offenses provided in Subsection (4).
(2)
(a) A person who commits any primary offense with the intent to intimidate or terrorize another person or with reason to believe that his action would intimidate or terrorize that person is subject to Subsection (2)(b).
(b)
(i) A class C misdemeanor primary offense is a class B misdemeanor; and
(ii) a class B misdemeanor primary offense is a class A misdemeanor.
(3) "Intimidate or terrorize" means an act which causes the person to fear for his physical safety or damages the property of that person or another. The act must be accompanied with the intent to cause or has the effect of causing a person to reasonably fear to freely exercise or enjoy any right secured by the Constitution or laws of the state or by the Constitution or laws of the United States.
(4) Primary offenses referred to in Subsection (1) are the misdemeanor offenses for:
(a) assault and related offenses under Sections 76-5-102, 76-5-102.4, 76-5-106, 76-5-107, and 76-5-108;
(b) any misdemeanor property destruction offense under Sections 76-6-102 and 76-6-104, and Subsection 76-6-106(2)(a);
(c) any criminal trespass offense under Sections 76-6-204 and 76-6-206;
(d) any misdemeanor theft offense under Chapter 6, Offenses Against Property;
(e) any offense of obstructing government operations under Sections 76-8-301, 76-8-301.2, 76-8-302, 76-8-305, 76-8-306, 76-8-307, 76-8-308, 76-8-309.2, and 76-8-313;
(f) any offense of interfering or intending to interfere with activities of colleges and universities under Chapter 8, Part 7, Colleges and Universities;
(g) any misdemeanor offense against public order and decency as defined in Chapter 9, Part 1, Breaches of the Peace and Related Offenses, other than Section 76-9-105.5, 76-9-105.6, 76-9-110, 76-9-111, 76-9-112, 76-9-113, or 76-9-114;
(h) any telephone abuse offense under Sections 76-12-202, 76-12-203, 76-12-204, and 76-12-206;
(i) any cruelty to animals offense under Sections 76-13-202, 76-13-203, and 76-13-204;
(j) any weapons offense under Section 76-11-207; or
(k) a violation of Section 76-9-102, if the violation occurs at an official meeting.
(5) This section does not affect or limit any individual's constitutional right to the lawful expression of free speech or other recognized rights secured by the Constitution or laws of the state or by the Constitution or laws of the United States.

(MM) aggravated robbery as described in Section 76-6-302;
(NN) theft by extortion as described in Subsection 76-6-406(1)(a)(i) or (1)(a)(ii);
(OO) tampering with a witness as described in Section 76-8-508;
(PP) retaliation against a witness, victim, or informant as described in Section 76-8-508.3;
(QQ) tampering or retaliating against a juror as described in Subsection 76-8-508.5(2)(a)(iii);
(RR) extortion to dismiss a criminal proceeding as described in Subsection 76-6-406(1)(a)(i), (ii), or (ix);
(SS) bus hijacking as described in Section 76-9-1502;
(TT) assault with intent to commit bus hijacking as described in Section 76-9-1503;
(UU) purchase or possession of a dangerous weapon by a restricted person as described in Section 76-11-305 or 76-11-306;
(VV) unlawful delivery of explosive, chemical, or incendiary devices as described in Section 76-15-209;
(WW) unlawful conduct involving an explosive, chemical, or incendiary device as described in Section 76-15-210;
(XX) unlawful conduct involving an explosive, chemical, or incendiary part as described in Section 76-15-211;
(YY) unlawful discharge of a firearm or hurling of a missile into a bus or terminal as described in Section 76-9-1504; and
(ZZ) felony discharge of a firearm as described in Section 76-11-210.

(ii) any felony violation of a criminal statute of any other state, the United States, or any district, possession, or territory of the United States which would constitute a violent felony as defined in this Subsection (1) if committed in this state.

(2) If a person is convicted in this state of a violent felony by plea or by verdict and the trier of fact determines beyond a reasonable doubt that the person is a habitual violent offender under this section, the penalty for a:

(a) third degree felony is as if the conviction were for a first degree felony;
(b) second degree felony is as if the conviction were for a first degree felony; or
(c) first degree felony remains the penalty for a first degree penalty except:
(i) the convicted person is not eligible for probation; and
(ii) the Board of Pardons and Parole shall consider that the convicted person is a habitual violent offender as an aggravating factor in determining the length of incarceration.

(3)

(a) The prosecuting attorney, or grand jury if an indictment is returned, shall provide notice in the information or indictment that the defendant is subject to punishment as a habitual violent offender under this section. Notice shall include the case number, court, and date of conviction or commitment of any case relied upon by the prosecution.

(b)

(i) The defendant shall serve notice in writing upon the prosecutor if the defendant intends to deny that:

(A) the defendant is the person who was convicted or committed;

(B) the defendant was represented by counsel or had waived counsel; or

(C) the defendant's plea was understandingly or voluntarily entered.

(ii) The notice of denial shall be served not later than five days prior to trial and shall state in detail the defendant's contention regarding the previous conviction and commitment.

(a) If the defendant enters a denial under Subsection (3)(b) and if the case is tried to a jury, the jury may not be told, until after it returns its verdict on the underlying felony charge, of the:

(i) defendant's previous convictions for violent felonies, except as otherwise provided in the Utah Rules of Evidence; or

(ii) allegation against the defendant of being a habitual violent offender.

(b) If the jury's verdict is guilty, the defendant shall be tried regarding the allegation of being an habitual violent offender by the same jury, if practicable, unless the defendant waives the jury, in which case the allegation shall be tried immediately to the court.

(c)

(i) Before or at the time of sentencing the trier of fact shall determine if this section applies.

(ii) The trier of fact shall consider any evidence presented at trial and the prosecution and the defendant shall be afforded an opportunity to present any necessary additional evidence.

(iii) Before sentencing under this section, the trier of fact shall determine whether this section is applicable beyond a reasonable doubt.

(d) If any previous conviction and commitment is based upon a plea of guilty or no contest, there is a rebuttable presumption that the conviction and commitment were regular and lawful in all respects if the conviction and commitment occurred after January 1, 1970. If the conviction and commitment occurred prior to January 1, 1970, the burden is on the prosecution to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant was then represented by counsel or had lawfully waived the right to have counsel present, and that the defendant's plea was understandingly and voluntarily entered.

(e) If the trier of fact finds this section applicable, the court shall enter that specific finding on the record and shall indicate in the order of judgment and commitment that the defendant has been found by the trier of fact to be a habitual violent offender and is sentenced under this section.

(a) The sentencing enhancement provisions of Section 76-3-407 supersede the provisions of this section.

(b)

(i) Notwithstanding Subsection (5)(a) and except as provided in Subsection (5)(b)(ii), the "violent felony" offense defined in Subsection (1)(c) shall include any felony sexual offense violation of Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, to determine if the convicted person is a habitual violent offender.

(ii) The "violent felony" offense defined in Subsection (1)(c) does not include any felony sexual offense violation of:

(A) enticing a minor, Section 76-5-417;

(B) lewdness, Section 76-5-419; or

(C) lewdness involving a child, Section 76-5-420.

(6) The sentencing enhancement described in this section does not apply if:

(a) the offense for which the person is being sentenced is:

(i) a grievous sexual offense;

(ii) child kidnapping, Section 76-5-301.1;

(iii) aggravated kidnapping, Section 76-5-302; or

(iv) forcible sexual abuse, Section 76-5-404; and

(b) applying the sentencing enhancement provided for in this section would result in a lower maximum penalty than the penalty provided for under the section that describes the offense for which the person is being sentenced.

76-3-203.6 Enhanced penalty for certain offenses committed by prisoner.

(1) As used in this section, "serving a sentence" means a prisoner is sentenced and committed to the custody of the Department of Corrections, the sentence has not been terminated or voided, and the prisoner:

(a) has not been paroled; or

(b) is in custody after arrest for a parole violation.

(2) If the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that a prisoner serving a sentence for a capital felony or a first degree felony commits any offense listed in Subsection (5), the offense is a first degree felony and the court shall sentence the defendant to life in prison without parole.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the court may sentence the defendant to an indeterminate prison term of not less than 20 years and that may be for life if the court finds that the interests of justice would best be served and states the specific circumstances justifying the disposition on the record.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the prisoner is younger than 18 years old at the time the offense listed in Subsection (5) is committed and is sentenced on or after May 10, 2016.

(5) Offenses referred to in Subsection (2) are:

(a) aggravated assault by a prisoner, Section 76-5-103.5;

(b) mayhem, Section 76-5-105;

(c) attempted murder, Section 76-5-203;

(d) kidnapping, Section 76-5-301;

(e) child kidnapping, Section 76-5-301.1;

(f) aggravated kidnapping, Section 76-5-302;

(g) rape, Section 76-5-402;

(h) rape of a child, Section 76-5-402.1;

(i) object rape, Section 76-5-402.2;

(j) object rape of a child, Section 76-5-402.3;

(k) forcible sodomy, Section 76-5-403;

(l) sodomy on a child, Section 76-5-403.1;

(m) aggravated sexual abuse of a child, Section 76-5-404.3;

(n) aggravated sexual assault, Section 76-5-405;

(o) aggravated arson, Section 76-6-103;

(p) aggravated burglary, Section 76-6-203; and
(q) aggravated robbery, Section 76-6-302.
(6) The sentencing enhancement described in this section does not apply if:
(a) the offense for which the person is being sentenced is:
(i) a grievous sexual offense;
(ii) child kidnapping, Section 76-5-301.1; or
(iii) aggravated kidnapping, Section 76-5-302; and
(b) applying the sentencing enhancement provided for in this section would result in a lower maximum penalty than the penalty provided for under the section that describes the offense for which the person is being sentenced.

76-3-203.7 Increase of sentence for violent felony if body armor used.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Body armor" means any material designed or intended to provide bullet penetration resistance or protection from bodily injury caused by a dangerous weapon.
(b) "Dangerous weapon" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-1-101.5.
(c) "Violent felony" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-3-203.5.
(2) A person convicted of a violent felony may be sentenced to imprisonment for an indeterminate term, as provided in Section 76-3-203, but if the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant used, carried, or possessed a dangerous weapon and also used or wore body armor, with the intent to facilitate the commission of the violent felony, and the violent felony is:
(a) a first degree felony, the court shall sentence the person convicted for a term of not less than six years, and which may be for life;
(b) a second degree felony, the court shall sentence the person convicted for a term of not less than two years nor more than 15 years, and the court may sentence the person convicted for a term of not less than two years nor more than 20 years; and
(c) a third degree felony, the court shall sentence the person convicted for a term of not less than one year nor more than five years, and the court may sentence the person convicted for a term of not less than one year nor more than 10 years.
(3) The sentencing enhancement described in this section does not apply if:
(a) the offense for which the person is being sentenced is:
(i) a grievous sexual offense;
(ii) child kidnapping, Section 76-5-301.1;
(iii) aggravated kidnapping, Section 76-5-302; or
(iv) forcible sexual abuse, Section 76-5-404; and
(b) applying the sentencing enhancement provided for in this section would result in a lower maximum penalty than the penalty provided for under the section that describes the offense for which the person is being sentenced.

76-3-203.8 Increase of sentence if dangerous weapon used.
(1) As used in this section, "dangerous weapon" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-1-101.5.

(2) If the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that a dangerous weapon was used in the commission or furtherance of a felony, the court:
(a)
(i) shall increase by one year the minimum term of the sentence applicable by law; and
(ii) if the minimum term applicable by law is zero, shall set the minimum term as one year; and
(b) may increase by five years the maximum sentence applicable by law in the case of a felony of the second or third degree.
(3) A defendant who is a party to a felony offense shall be sentenced to the increases in punishment provided in Subsection (2) if the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that:
(a) a dangerous weapon was used in the commission or furtherance of the felony; and
(b) the defendant knew that the dangerous weapon was present.
(4) If the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that a person has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a felony in which a dangerous weapon was used in the commission of or furtherance of the felony and that person is subsequently convicted of another felony in which a dangerous weapon was used in the commission of or furtherance of the felony, the court shall, in addition to any other sentence imposed including those in Subsection (2), impose an indeterminate prison term to be not less than five nor more than 10 years to run consecutively and not concurrently.

76-3-203.9 Violent offense committed in presence of a child -- Aggravating factor.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "In the presence of a child" means:
(i) in the physical presence of a child younger than 14 years of age; or
(ii) having knowledge that a child younger than 14 years of age is present and may see or hear a violent criminal offense.
(b) "Violent criminal offense" means any criminal offense involving violence or physical harm or threat of violence or physical harm, or any attempt to commit a criminal offense involving violence or physical harm.
(2) The sentencing judge or the Board of Pardons and Parole shall consider as an aggravating factor in their deliberations that the defendant committed the violent criminal offense in the presence of a child.
(3) The sentencing judge or the Board of Pardons and Parole shall also consider whether the penalty for the offense is already increased by other existing provisions of law.
(4) This section does not affect or limit any individual's constitutional right to the lawful expression of free speech or other recognized rights secured by the Constitution or laws of Utah or by the Constitution or laws of the United States.
(5) This section does not affect or restrict the exercise of judicial discretion under any other provision of Utah law.

76-3-203.10 Violent offense committed in presence of a child -- Penalties.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "In the presence of a child" means:
(i) in the physical presence of a child younger than 14 years old; and

(ii) having knowledge that the child is present and may see or hear the commission of a violent criminal offense.

(b) "Violent criminal offense" means any criminal offense involving violence or physical harm or threat of violence or physical harm, or any attempt to commit a criminal offense involving violence or physical harm that is not a domestic violence offense as defined in Section 77-36-1.

(2) A person commits a violent criminal offense in the presence of a child if the person:

(a) commits or attempts to commit criminal homicide, as defined in Section 76-5-201, against a third party in the presence of a child;

(b) intentionally causes or attempts to cause serious bodily injury to a third party or uses a dangerous weapon, as defined in Section 76-1-101.5, or other means or force likely to produce death or serious bodily injury, against a third party in the presence of a child; or

(c) under circumstances not amounting to a violation of Subsection (2)(a) or (b), commits a violent criminal offense in the presence of a child.

(3) A person who violates Subsection (2) is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

76-3-203.11 Reporting an overdose -- Mitigating factor.

It is a mitigating factor in sentencing for an offense under Title 58, Chapter 37, Utah Controlled Substances Act, that the person or bystander:

(1) reasonably believes that the person or another person is experiencing an overdose event due to the ingestion, injection, inhalation, or other introduction into the human body of a controlled substance or other substance;

(2) reports, or assists a person who reports, in good faith the overdose event to a medical provider, an emergency medical service provider as defined in Section 53-2d-101, a law enforcement officer, a 911 emergency call system, or an emergency dispatch system, or the person is the subject of a report made under this section;

(3) provides in the report under Subsection (2) a functional description of the location of the actual overdose event that facilitates responding to the person experiencing the overdose event;

(4) remains at the location of the person experiencing the overdose event until a responding law enforcement officer or emergency medical service provider arrives, or remains at the medical care facility where the person experiencing an overdose event is located until a responding law enforcement officer arrives;

(5) cooperates with the responding medical provider, emergency medical service provider, and law enforcement officer, including providing information regarding the person experiencing the overdose event and any substances the person may have injected, inhaled, or otherwise introduced into the person's body; and

(6) committed the offense in the same course of events from which the reported overdose arose.

76-3-203.12 Enhanced penalty for sexual offenses committed by a person with human immunodeficiency virus, acquired immunodeficiency virus, hepatitis B, or hepatitis C.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Sexual offense" means an offense described in Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses.

(b) "Sexual offense" does not include:

(i) enticing a minor, as described in Section 76-5-417;
(ii) sexual battery, as described in Section 76-5-418;
(iii) lewdness, as described in Section 76-5-419; or
(iv) lewdness involving a child, as described in Section 76-5-420.

(2) A person convicted of a sexual offense is subject to an enhanced penalty if at the time of the sexual offense the person was infected with human immunodeficiency virus, acquired immunodeficiency virus, hepatitis B, or hepatitis C and the person knew of the infection.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), the enhancement of a penalty described in Subsection (2) shall be an enhancement of one classification higher than the root offense for which the person was convicted.
(b) A felony of the first degree is not enhanced under this section.

76-3-203.13 Enhanced penalty for unlawful sexual contact with a student.

(1) An actor convicted of a sexual offense described in Section 76-5-401.1 or 76-5-401.2 may be subject to an enhanced penalty if, at the time of the commission of the sexual offense, the actor:
(a) was 18 years old or older;
(b) held a position of special trust as a teacher, employee, or volunteer at a school, as that position is defined in Subsection 76-5-404.1(1)(a)(v)(S); and
(c) committed the offense against an individual who at the time of the offense was enrolled as a student at the school where the actor was employed or was acting as a volunteer.

(2) The enhancement of a penalty described in Subsection (1) shall be an enhancement of one classification higher than the offense of which the actor was convicted.

76-3-203.14 Victim targeting penalty enhancement -- Penalties.

(1) As used in this section "personal attribute" means:
(a) age;
(b) ancestry;
(c) disability;
(d) ethnicity;
(e) familial status;
(f) gender identity;
(g) homelessness;
(h) marital status;
(i) matriculation;
(j) national origin;
(k) political expression;
(l) race;
(m) religion;
(n) sex;
(o) sexual orientation;
(p) service in the U.S. Armed Forces;

(q) status as an emergency responder, as defined in Section 53-2b-102; or
(r) status as a law enforcement officer, correctional officer, special function officer, or any other peace officer, as defined in Title 53, Chapter 13, Peace Officer Classifications.

(2) A defendant is subject to enhanced penalties under Subsection (3) if the defendant intentionally selects:
(a) the victim of the criminal offense because of the defendant's belief or perception regarding the victim's personal attribute or a personal attribute of another individual or group of individuals with whom the victim has a relationship; or
(b) the property damaged or otherwise affected by the criminal offense because of the defendant's belief or perception regarding the property owner's, possessor's, or occupant's personal attribute or a personal attribute of another individual or group of individuals with whom the property owner, possessor, or occupant has a relationship.

(a) If the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that a defendant committed a criminal offense and selected the victim or property damaged or otherwise affected by the criminal offense in the manner described in Subsection (2), the defendant is subject to an enhanced penalty for the criminal offense as follows:
(i) a class C misdemeanor is a class B misdemeanor;
(ii) a class B misdemeanor is a class A misdemeanor;
(iii) a class A misdemeanor is a third degree felony;
(iv) a third degree felony is a third degree felony punishable by an indeterminate term of imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than five years; and
(v) a second degree felony is a second degree felony punishable by an indeterminate term of imprisonment for not less than two years nor more than 15 years.
(b) If the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that a defendant committed a criminal offense that is a first degree felony and selected the victim or property damaged or otherwise affected by the criminal offense in the manner described in Subsection (2), the sentencing judge or the Board of Pardons and Parole shall consider the defendant's selection of the victim or property as an aggravating factor.

(4) This section does not:
(a) apply if:
(i) the penalty for the criminal offense is increased or enhanced under another provision of state law; or
(ii) the personal attribute of the victim or property owner, possessor, or occupant is an element of a criminal offense under another provision of state law;
(b) prevent the court from imposing alternative sanctions as the court finds appropriate;
(c) affect or limit any individual's constitutional right to the lawful expression of free speech or other recognized rights secured by the Utah Constitution or the laws of the state, or by the United States Constitution or the laws of the United States; or
(d) create a special or protected class for any purpose other than a criminal penalty enhancement under this section.

(a) If a final decision of a court of competent jurisdiction holds invalid any provision of this section or the application of any provision of this section to any person or circumstance, the remaining provisions of this section remain effective without the invalidated provision or application.
(b) The provisions of this section are severable.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Animal enterprise" means a commercial or academic enterprise that:

(i) uses animals for food or fiber production;

(ii) is an agricultural operation, including a facility for the production of crops or livestock, or livestock products;

(iii) operates a zoo, aquarium, circus, rodeo, or lawful competitive animal event; or

(iv) any fair or similar event intended to advance agricultural arts and sciences.

(b) "Livestock" means cattle, sheep, goats, swine, horses, mules, poultry, domesticated elk as defined in Section 4-39-102, or any other domestic animal or domestic furbearer raised or kept for profit.

(c) "Property" includes any buildings, vehicles, animals, data, records, stables, livestock handling facilities, livestock watering troughs or other watering facilities, and fencing or other forms of enclosure.

(2) A person who commits any criminal offense with the intent to halt, impede, obstruct, or interfere with the lawful operation of an animal enterprise or to damage, take, or cause the loss of any property owned by, used by, or in the possession of a lawful animal enterprise, is subject to an enhanced penalty under Subsection (4).

(3) The prosecuting attorney, or grand jury if an indictment is returned, shall cause to be subscribed upon the information or indictment notice that the defendant is subject to the enhanced penalties provided under this section.

(4) If the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant committed any criminal offense with the intent to halt, impede, obstruct, or interfere with the lawful operation of an animal enterprise or to damage, take, or cause the loss of any property owned by, used by, or in the possession of a lawful animal enterprise, the penalties are enhanced as provided in this Subsection (4):

(a) a class C misdemeanor is a class B misdemeanor, with a mandatory fine of not less than $1,000, which is in addition to any term of imprisonment the court may impose;

(b) a class B misdemeanor is a class A misdemeanor, with a fine of not less than $2,500, which is in addition to any term of imprisonment the court may impose;

(c) a class A misdemeanor is a third degree felony, with a fine of not less than $5,000, which is in addition to any term of imprisonment the court may impose;

(d) a third degree felony is a second degree felony, with a fine of not less than $7,500, which is in addition to any term of imprisonment the court may impose; and

(e) a second degree felony is subject to a fine of not less than $10,000, which is in addition to any term of imprisonment the court may impose.

(5) This section does not apply to action protected by the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. Sec. 151 et seq., or the Federal Railway Labor Act, 45 U.S.C. Sec. 151 et seq.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-3-203.17 Enhancement of an offense for road rage.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Roadway" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-1a-1101.

(b) "Operator" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-6a-102.

(c) "Vehicle" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-1a-102.

(2) If the trier of fact finds that an actor was an operator or passenger of a vehicle and the actor committed an offense in response to an incident that occurred or escalated upon a roadway and with the intent to endanger or intimidate an individual in another vehicle, the actor is guilty of:

(a) a class A misdemeanor if the actor is charged with an offense that is designated by law as a class B misdemeanor;

(b) a third degree felony if the actor is charged with an offense that is designated by law as a class A misdemeanor;

(c) a third degree felony if the actor is charged with an offense that is designated by law as a third degree felony; or

(d) a second degree felony if the actor is charged with an offense that is designated by law as a second degree felony.

(a) If an actor is guilty of a class A misdemeanor as described in Subsection (2)(a), the court shall impose a mandatory fine of no less than $750 in addition to any other penalty the court may impose for a class A misdemeanor.

(b) If an actor is guilty of a third degree felony as described in Subsection (2)(b), the court shall impose a mandatory fine of no less than $1,000 in addition to any other penalty the court may impose for a third degree felony.
(c) If an actor is guilty of a third degree felony as described in Subsection (2)(c), the court shall impose:
(i) a mandatory fine of no less than $1,000; and
(ii) an indeterminate term of imprisonment for no less than one year and no more than five years in addition to any other penalty the court may impose for a third degree felony.
(d) If an actor is guilty of a second degree felony as described in Subsection (2)(d), the court shall impose:
(i) a mandatory fine of no less than $1,000; and
(ii) an indeterminate term of imprisonment for no less than two years and no more than 15 years in addition to any other penalty the court may impose for a second degree felony.
(4) Except as otherwise provided by another provision of the Utah Code, the court may suspend the execution of an indeterminate term of imprisonment described in Subsection (3)(c)(ii) or (3)(d)(ii) in accordance with Section 77-18-105.
(5) The prosecuting attorney, or the grand jury if an indictment is returned, shall include notice in the information or indictment that the offense is subject to an enhancement under this section.
(a) If an actor is convicted of an offense and the offense is enhanced under this section, the court may order the suspension of the actor's driver license for a period of no longer than one year, except that the court may not order a suspension of an actor's driver license if the actor's driver license is required to be revoked under Subsection 53-3-220(1).
(b) If the court orders the suspension of the actor's driver license, the court shall:
(i) specify the length of the suspension in the order as described in Section 53-3-225; and
(ii) forward the order of suspension to the Driver License Division.
(7) If an offense is enhanced under this section, the court shall forward a record of conviction for the offense to the Driver License Division.
(8) This section does not affect or limit any individual's constitutional right to lawful expression of free speech or other recognized rights secured by the laws or Constitution of Utah or by the laws or Constitution of the United States.

Enacted by Chapter 319, 2024 General Session

76-3-203.18 Use of artificial intelligence -- Aggravating factor.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Artificial intelligence" means the same as that term is defined in Section 20A-11-1104.
(b) "Material assistance" means providing significant or essential support, information, tools, or other means that facilitate planning, commission, or concealment of a criminal offense.
(2) The sentencing judge or the Board of Pardons and Parole may consider as an aggravating factor in their deliberations that the defendant committed or facilitated the criminal offense with the intentional or knowing use and material assistance of an artificial intelligence system.
(3) This section does not affect or restrict the exercise of judicial sentencing discretion under any other provision of Utah law.

Enacted by Chapter 172, 2024 General Session

76-3-203.19 Aggravating factor for an offense committed against a child or minor as part of a ritual.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Offense against a child or minor" means an offense that is:

(i) child abuse as described in Section 76-5-109;

(ii) child torture, as described in Section 76-5-109.4;

(iii) aggravated child abuse as described in Section 76-5-109.2;

(iv) abuse or neglect of a child with a disability as described in Section 76-5-110;

(v) child abuse homicide as described in Section 76-5-208;

(vi) kidnapping as described in Section 76-5-301, if committed against an individual under 18 years old;

(vii) child kidnapping as described in Section 76-5-301.1;

(viii) aggravated kidnapping as described in Section 76-5-302, if committed against an individual under 18 years old;

(ix) human trafficking of a child as described in Section 76-5-308.5;

(x) unlawful sexual activity with a minor as described in Section 76-5-401;

(xi) sexual abuse of a minor as described in Section 76-5-401.1;

(xii) rape as described in Section 76-5-402, if committed against an individual under 18 years old;

(xiii) rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.1;

(xiv) object rape as described in Section 76-5-404.2, if committed against an individual under 18 years old;

(xv) object rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.3;

(xvi) forcible sodomy as described in Section 76-5-403, if committed against an individual under 18 years old;

(xvii) sodomy on a child as described in Section 76-5-403.1;

(xviii) forcible sexual abuse as described in Section 76-5-404, if committed against an individual under 18 years old;

(xix) sexual abuse of a child as described in Section 76-5-404.1;

(xx) aggravated sexual abuse of a child as described in Section 76-5-404.3;

(xxi) aggravated sexual assault as described in Section 76-5-405, if committed against an individual under 18 years old;

(xxii) unlawful kissing of a child as described in Section 76-5-416.2; or (xxiii) unlawful kissing of a minor as described in Section 76-5-416.4.

(b) "Ritual" means an event or act, or a series of events or acts:

(i) marked by specific actions, specific gestures, ceremonial objects, ceremonial clothing, religious texts, or specific words; and

(ii) designed to commemorate, celebrate, or solemnize a particular occasion or significance in a religious, cultural, social, institutional, or other context.

(2) For a defendant convicted of an offense against a child or minor, it is an aggravating factor if the sentencing court finds that the defendant committed the offense as part of, or to facilitate, a ritual or a training or practice to perform a ritual.

(3) When sentencing a defendant convicted of an offense against a child or minor subject to the aggravating factor described in Subsection (2), the sentencing court shall consider the aggravating factor and include the aggravating factor in the judgment of commitment.

(4) In determining the length of imprisonment for a defendant imprisoned for a conviction of an offense against a child or minor subject to the aggravating factor described in Subsection (2), the Board of Pardons and Parole shall consider the aggravating factor.

Enacted by Chapter 185, 2025 General Session

76-3-203.20 Aggravating factor if actor traveled to commit a child sexual offense.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Child sexual offense" means one of the following offenses:

(i) human trafficking of a child as described in Section 76-5-308.5;

(ii) unlawful sexual activity with a minor as described in Section 76-5-401;

(iii) sexual abuse of a minor as described in Section 76-5-401.1;

(iv) unlawful sexual conduct with a 16- or 17-year-old as described in Section 76-5-401.2;

(v) rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.1;

(vi) object rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.3;

(vii) sodomy on a child as described in Section 76-5-403.1;

(x) unlawful kissing of a child as described in Section 76-5-416.2; or

(xi) unlawful kissing of a minor as described in Section 76-5-416.4.

(b) "Principal place of residence" means the single location where an individual's habitation is fixed and to which, whenever the individual is absent, the individual has the intention of returning, as evidenced by:

(i) the intent expressed by the individual; and

(ii) acts of the individual that are consistent or inconsistent with the intent expressed by the individual.

(2) For a defendant convicted of a child sexual offense, it is an aggravating factor if the sentencing court finds that the defendant:

(a) traveled more than 45 miles from the defendant's principal place of residence for the purpose of the defendant committing, or attempting to commit, the child sexual offense; or

(b) paid for, or otherwise facilitated, the victim to travel more than 45 miles from the victim's principal place of residence, for the purpose of the defendant committing, or attempting to commit, the child sexual offense.

(3) When sentencing a defendant convicted of a child sexual offense subject to the aggravating factor described in Subsection (2), the sentencing court shall consider the aggravating factor and include the aggravating factor in the judgment of commitment.

(4) In determining the length of imprisonment for a defendant imprisoned for a conviction of an offense against a child or minor subject to the aggravating factor described in Subsection (2), the Board of Pardons and Parole shall consider the aggravating factor.

76-3-204 Misdemeanor conviction -- Term of imprisonment.

A person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor may be sentenced to imprisonment as follows:

(1)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), in the case of a class A misdemeanor, for a term not exceeding 364 days.

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(ii), in the case of a class A misdemeanor under Title 76, Chapter 5, Offenses Against the Individual, for a term not exceeding one year.

(ii) For a class A misdemeanor for one of following offenses, for a term not exceeding 364 days:
(A) Section 76-5-102.9, propelling a bodily substance or material as described in Section 76-5-102.9;
(B) Section 76-5-107.5, prohibition of "hazing";
(C) Section 76-5-113, surreptitious administration of certain substances; or
(D) Section 76-5-303, custodial interference.
(2) In the case of a class B misdemeanor, for a term not exceeding six months.
(3) In the case of a class C misdemeanor, for a term not exceeding 90 days.

Amended by Chapter 227, 2025 General Session

76-3-205 Infraction conviction -- Fine, forfeiture, and disqualification.
(1) A person convicted of an infraction may not be imprisoned but may be subject to:
(a) a fine, which may include compensatory service as a method to satisfy the fine;
(b) forfeiture;
(c) disqualification; or
(d) any combination of the above.
(2) Compensatory service shall be considered in accordance with Section 76-3-301.7.
(3) Whenever a person is convicted of an infraction and no punishment is specified, the person may be fined as for a class C misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2018 General Session

76-3-206 Capital felony -- Penalties.
(1) A person who has pled guilty to or been convicted of a capital felony shall be sentenced in accordance with this section and Section 76-3-207.
(2)
(a) If the person described in Subsection (1) was 18 years of age or older at the time the offense was committed, the sentence shall be:
(i) death;
(ii) an indeterminate prison term of not less than 25 years and that may be for life; or
(iii) on or after April 27, 1992, life in prison without parole.
(b) Subsections (2)(a)(i) and (2)(a)(iii) do not apply if the person was younger than 18 years of age at the time the offense was committed and was sentenced on or after May 10, 2016.
(3)
(a) The judgment of conviction and sentence of death is subject to automatic review by the Utah State Supreme Court within 60 days after certification by the sentencing court of the entire record unless time is extended an additional period not to exceed 30 days by the Utah State Supreme Court for good cause shown.
(b) The review by the Utah State Supreme Court has priority over all other cases and shall be heard in accordance with rules promulgated by the Utah State Supreme Court.

Amended by Chapter 277, 2016 General Session

76-3-207 Capital felony -- Sentencing proceeding.
(a) When a defendant has pled guilty to or been found guilty of a capital felony, there shall be further proceedings before the court or jury on the issue of sentence.

(b) In the case of a plea of guilty to a capital felony, the sentencing proceedings shall be conducted before a jury or, upon request of the defendant and with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution, by the court which accepted the plea.

(i) When a defendant has been found guilty of a capital felony, the proceedings shall be conducted before the court or jury which found the defendant guilty, provided the defendant may waive hearing before the jury with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution, in which event the hearing shall be before the court.

(ii) If circumstances make it impossible or impractical to reconvene the same jury for the sentencing proceedings, the court may dismiss that jury and convene a new jury for the proceedings.

(d) If a retrial of the sentencing proceedings is necessary as a consequence of a remand from an appellate court, the sentencing authority shall be determined as provided in Subsection (6).

(a) In capital sentencing proceedings, evidence may be presented on:

(i) the nature and circumstances of the crime;

(ii) the defendant's character, background, history, and mental and physical condition;

(iii) the victim and the impact of the crime on the victim's family and community without comparison to other persons or victims; and

(iv) any other facts in aggravation or mitigation of the penalty that the court considers relevant to the sentence.

(b) Any evidence the court considers to have probative force may be received regardless of its admissibility under the exclusionary rules of evidence. The state's attorney and the defendant shall be permitted to present argument for or against the sentence of death.

(3) Aggravating circumstances include those outlined in Section 76-5-202.

(4) Mitigating circumstances include:

(a) the defendant has no significant history of prior criminal activity;

(b) the homicide was committed while the defendant was under the influence of mental or emotional disturbance;

(c) the defendant acted under duress or under the domination of another person;

(d) at the time of the homicide, the capacity of the defendant to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirement of law was impaired as a result of a mental condition, intoxication, or influence of drugs, except that "mental condition" under this Subsection (4)(d) does not mean an abnormality manifested primarily by repeated criminal conduct;

(e) the youth of the defendant at the time of the crime;

(f) the defendant was an accomplice in the homicide committed by another person and the defendant's participation was relatively minor; and

(g) any other fact in mitigation of the penalty.

(a) The court or jury, as the case may be, shall retire to consider the penalty. Except as provided in Subsections 76-3-207.5(2) and 76-3-206(2)(b), in all proceedings before a jury, under this section, it shall be instructed as to the punishment to be imposed upon a unanimous decision for death and that the penalty of either an indeterminate prison term of not less than 25 years and which may be for life or life in prison without parole, shall be imposed if a unanimous decision for death is not found.

(b) The death penalty shall only be imposed if, after considering the totality of the aggravating and mitigating circumstances, the jury is persuaded beyond a reasonable doubt that total aggravation outweighs total mitigation, and is further persuaded, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the imposition of the death penalty is justified and appropriate in the circumstances. If the jury reports unanimous agreement to impose the sentence of death, the court shall discharge the jury and shall impose the sentence of death.

(c) If the jury is unable to reach a unanimous decision imposing the sentence of death, the jury shall then determine whether the penalty of life in prison without parole shall be imposed, except as provided in Subsection 76-3-207.5(2). The penalty of life in prison without parole shall only be imposed if the jury determines that the sentence of life in prison without parole is appropriate. If the jury reports agreement by 10 jurors or more to impose the sentence of life in prison without parole, the court shall discharge the jury and shall impose the sentence of life in prison without parole. If 10 jurors or more do not agree upon a sentence of life in prison without parole, the court shall discharge the jury and impose an indeterminate prison term of not less than 25 years and which may be for life.

(d) If the defendant waives hearing before the jury as to sentencing, with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution, the court shall determine the appropriate penalty according to the standards of Subsections (5)(b) and (c).

(e) If the defendant is sentenced to more than one term of life in prison with or without the possibility of parole, or in addition to a sentence of life in prison with or without the possibility of parole the defendant is sentenced for other offenses which result in terms of imprisonment, the judge shall determine whether the terms of imprisonment shall be imposed as concurrent or consecutive sentences in accordance with Section 76-3-401.

(6) Upon any appeal by the defendant where the sentence is of death, the appellate court, if it finds prejudicial error in the sentencing proceeding only, may set aside the sentence of death and remand the case to the trial court for new sentencing proceedings to the extent necessary to correct the error or errors. An error in the sentencing proceedings may not result in the reversal of the conviction of a capital felony. In cases of remand for new sentencing proceedings, all exhibits and a transcript of all testimony and other evidence properly admitted in the prior trial and sentencing proceedings are admissible in the new sentencing proceedings, and if the sentencing proceeding was before a:

(a) jury, a new jury shall be impaneled for the new sentencing proceeding unless the defendant waives the hearing before the jury with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution, in which case the proceeding shall be held according to Subsection (6)(b) or (c), as applicable;

(b) judge, the original trial judge shall conduct the new sentencing proceeding; or

(c) judge, and the original trial judge is unable or unavailable to conduct a new sentencing proceeding, then another judge shall be designated to conduct the new sentencing proceeding, and the new proceeding will be before a jury unless the defendant waives the hearing before the jury with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution.

(7) If the penalty of death is held to be unconstitutional by the Utah Supreme Court or the United States Supreme Court, the court having jurisdiction over a person previously sentenced to death for a capital felony shall cause the person to be brought before the court, and the court shall sentence the person to life in prison without parole.

(a) If the appellate court's final decision regarding any appeal of a sentence of death precludes the imposition of the death penalty due to mental retardation or subaverage general intellectual functioning under Section 77-15a-101, the court having jurisdiction over a defendant previously sentenced to death for a capital felony shall cause the defendant to be brought before the sentencing court, and the court shall sentence the defendant to life in prison without parole.

(b) If the appellate court precludes the imposition of the death penalty under Subsection (8)(a), but the appellate court finds that sentencing the defendant to life in prison without parole is likely to result in a manifest injustice, it may remand the case to the sentencing court for further sentencing proceedings to determine if the defendant should serve a sentence of life in prison without parole or an indeterminate prison term of not less than 25 years and which may be for life.

76-3-207.5 Applicability -- Effect on sentencing -- Options of offenders.

(a) The sentencing option of life without parole provided in Sections 76-3-201 and 76-3-207 applies only to those capital felonies for which the offender is sentenced on or after April 27, 1992.

(b) The sentencing option of life without parole provided in Sections 76-3-201 and 76-3-207 has no effect on sentences imposed in capital cases prior to April 27, 1992.

(2) An offender, who commits a capital felony prior to April 27, 1992, but is sentenced on or after April 27, 1992, shall be given the option, prior to a sentencing hearing pursuant to Section 76-3-207, to proceed either under the law which was in effect at the time the offense was committed or under the additional sentencing option of life in prison without parole provided in Sections 76-3-201 and 76-3-207.

(3) The sentencing option of life without parole has no effect on sentences imposed on an offender who was younger than 18 years of age at the time the offense was committed and was sentenced on or after May 10, 2016.

Amended by Chapter 277, 2016 General Session

76-3-207.7 First degree felony aggravated murder -- Noncapital felony -- Penalties -- Sentenced by court.

(1) A person who has pled guilty to or been convicted of first degree felony aggravated murder under Section 76-5-202 shall be sentenced by the court.

(a) The sentence under this section shall be:

(i) life in prison without parole; or

(ii) an indeterminate prison term of not less than 25 years and that may be for life.

(b) Subsection (2)(a)(i) does not apply if the person was younger than 18 years of age at the time the offense was committed and was sentenced on or after May 10, 2016.

Amended by Chapter 277, 2016 General Session

76-3-208 Imprisonment -- Custodial authorities.

(1) Persons sentenced to imprisonment shall be committed to the following custodial authorities:

(a) felony commitments shall be to the Utah State Prison;

(b)

(i) class A misdemeanor commitments shall be to the jail, or other facility designated by the town, city, or county where the defendant was convicted, unless the defendant is also serving a felony commitment at the Utah State Prison at the commencement of the class A misdemeanor conviction, in which case, the class A misdemeanor commitment shall be to the Utah State Prison for an indeterminate term not to exceed one year with a credit for one day, unless the offense is an offense described in Subsection 76-3-204(1)(b)(i), in which case there is no credit for one day; and

(ii) the court may not order the imprisonment of a defendant to the Utah State Prison for a fixed term or other term that is inconsistent with this section and Section 77-18-111; and

(c) all other misdemeanor commitments shall be to the jail or other facility designated by the town, city or county where the defendant was convicted.

(2) A custodial authority may place a prisoner in a facility other than the one to which the prisoner was committed when:

(a) the custodial authority does not have space to accommodate the prisoner; or

(b) the security of the institution or prisoner requires the prisoner to be placed in a facility other than the one to which the prisoner was committed.

Amended by Chapter 227, 2025 General Session

76-3-209 Limitation on sentencing for crimes committed by juveniles.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Qualifying sexual offense" means an offense described in Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses.

(b) "Qualifying sexual offense" does not include enticing a minor as described in Section 76-5-417.

(a) This Subsection (2) only applies prospectively to an individual sentenced on or after May 10, 2016.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of law, an individual may not be sentenced to life without parole if:

(i) the individual is convicted of a crime punishable by life without parole; and

(ii) at the time the individual committed the crime, the individual was under 18 years old.

(c) The maximum punishment that may be imposed on an individual described in Subsection (2)(b) is an indeterminate prison term of not less than 25 years and that may be for life.

(3) Except as provided in Subsection (4), if an individual is convicted in district court of a qualifying sexual offense and, at the time of the offense, the individual was at least 14 years old, but under 18 years old:

(a) the district court shall impose a sentence consistent with the disposition that would have been made in juvenile court; and

(b) the district court may not impose incarceration unless the court enters specific written findings that incarceration is warranted based on a totality of the circumstances, taking into account:

(i) the time that elapsed after the individual committed the offense;

(ii) the age of the individual at the time of the offense;

(iii) the age of the victim at the time of the offense;

(iv) the criminal history of the individual after the individual committed the offense;

(v) any treatment assessments or validated risk tools; and

(vi) public safety concerns.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if:

(a) before the individual described in Subsection (3) is convicted of the qualifying sexual offense, the individual is convicted of a qualifying sexual offense that the individual committed when the individual was 18 years old or older;
(b) the individual is convicted in district court, before the victim is 18 years old, of a violation of Section 76-5-405, aggravated sexual assault; or
(c) the conviction occurred in district court after the individual was:
(i) charged by criminal information in the juvenile court for the qualifying sexual offense in accordance with Section 80-6-503; and
(ii) bound over to the district court for the qualifying sexual offense in accordance with Section 80-6-504.
(5) If the district court imposes incarceration under Subsection (3)(b), the term of incarceration may not exceed:
(a) seven years for a violation of Section 76-5-405, aggravated sexual assault;
(b) except as provided in Subsection (5)(a), four years for a felony violation of Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417, 76-5-419, or 76-5-420; or
(c) the maximum sentence described in Section 76-3-204 for a misdemeanor violation of Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

Part 3
Fines and Special Sanctions

76-3-301 Fines of individuals.
(1) An individual convicted of an offense may be sentenced to pay a fine, not exceeding:
(a) $10,000 for a felony conviction of the first degree or second degree;
(b) $5,000 for a felony conviction of the third degree;
(c) $2,500 for a class A misdemeanor conviction;
(d) $1,000 for a class B misdemeanor conviction;
(e) $750 for a class C misdemeanor conviction or infraction conviction; and
(f) any greater amounts specifically authorized by statute.
(2)
(a) An individual convicted of a misdemeanor or infraction and sentenced to pay a fine may not be charged by a court:
(i) notwithstanding Section 15-1-4, interest on the judgment that in the aggregate is more than 25% of the initial fine; or
(ii) that issues an order to show cause under Section 78B-6-317 for failure to pay the fine, interest that is more than 25% of the initial fine.
(b) An individual convicted only of an infraction and sentenced to pay a fine may not be charged:
(i) by the Office of State Debt Collection, late fees and interest that in the aggregate are more than 25% of the initial fine; or
(ii) by a third-party debt contractor of the Office of State Debt Collection, additional fees.
(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a case that includes:
(a) victim restitution; or
(b) a felony conviction, even if that felony conviction is later reduced.

(4) This section does not apply to a corporation, association, partnership, government, or governmental instrumentality.

Amended by Chapter 113, 2023 General Session

76-3-301.5 Uniform fine schedule -- Judicial Council.

(1) The Judicial Council shall establish a uniform recommended fine schedule for each offense under Subsection 76-3-301(1).
  (a) The fine for each offense shall proportionally reflect the seriousness of the offense and other factors as determined in writing by the Judicial Council.
  (b) The schedule shall be reviewed annually by the Judicial Council.
  (c) The fines shall be collected as part of a criminal accounts receivable, as defined in Section 77-32b-102, that is established under Section 77-32b-103.
(2) The schedule shall incorporate:
  (a) criteria for determining aggravating and mitigating circumstances; and
  (b) guidelines for enhancement or reduction of the fine, based on aggravating or mitigating circumstances.
(3) Presentence investigation reports shall include documentation of aggravating and mitigating circumstances as determined under the criteria, and a recommended fine under the schedule.
(4) The Judicial Council shall also establish a separate uniform recommended fine schedule for the juvenile court and by rule provide for its implementation.
(5) This section does not prohibit the court from in its discretion imposing no fine, or a fine in any amount up to and including the maximum fine, for the offense.

Amended by Chapter 260, 2021 General Session

76-3-301.7 Compensatory service -- Credit for cost of court-ordered treatment or course.

(1) As used in this section:
  (a) "Compensatory service" means service or unpaid work performed by a person, in lieu of the payment of a criminal fine, for:
    (i) a state or local government agency;
    (ii) an entity that is approved as a nonprofit organization under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code; or
    (iii) any other entity or organization if prior approval is obtained from the court.
  (b) "Eligible offense" means a criminal conviction, including a traffic offense.
(2) When a defendant is sentenced to pay a fine for an eligible offense, the court shall consider allowing the defendant to complete compensatory service in lieu of the payment of the fine or account receivable, exclusive of any victim restitution imposed.
(3) A defendant who intends to forfeit bail or who is ordered to pay a fine by the court for an eligible offense shall be informed by the court of the opportunity to perform compensatory service in lieu of the fine or bail amount.
(4) The court shall credit timely completed compensatory service reported in accordance with Subsection (5) against the fine or bail amount at the rate of $12 per hour and shall allow the defendant a reasonable amount of time to complete the service.
(5)
  (a) The court shall provide the defendant with instructions that inform the organization:
    (i) about the requirements in Subsection (5)(b); and

(ii) that making a written false statement to the court about the defendant's compensatory service is punishable as a class B misdemeanor pursuant to Section 76-8-504.

(b) The defendant shall report compensatory service hours to the court in a letter that:

(i) is on the organization's official letterhead and includes contact information for the organization's representative;

(ii) specifies the number of hours for which the defendant provided service;

(iii) contains a brief description of what the service involved; and

(iv)

(A) is signed by an authorized representative of the organization; or

(B) is in a form otherwise acceptable to the court.

(6) The court may refuse to accept compensatory service:

(a) completed prior to the date of sentencing;

(b) that has been submitted to another court for credit; or

(c) completed at an agency or organization or is a type of service that is specifically prohibited by the court.

(7) In addition to any other provision of this section, a court may order that the unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable, that is not the principal or interest amount owed for restitution, be reduced in the amount of the cost of any treatment or course if:

(a) the treatment or course was ordered by the court as part of the case;

(b) the defendant has completed the court's requirements related to the treatment or course;

(c) the defendant provides proof that the defendant completed the court's requirements and paid the cost of the treatment or course; and

(d) the court finds that payment of an unpaid amount of a criminal accounts receivable will impose manifest hardship on the defendant or the defendant's family.

76-3-302 Fines of corporations, associations, partnerships, or government instrumentalities.

A corporation, association, partnership, or governmental instrumentality shall pay a fine for an offense defined in this code for which no special corporate fine is specified. The fine shall not exceed:

(1) $20,000 for a felony conviction;

(2) $10,000 for a class A misdemeanor conviction;

(3) $5,000 for a class B misdemeanor conviction; and

(4) $1,000 for a class C misdemeanor conviction or for an infraction conviction.

76-3-303 Additional sanctions against corporation or association -- Advertising of conviction -- Disqualification of officer.

(1) When a corporation or association is convicted of an offense, the court may, in addition to or in lieu of imposing other authorized sanctions, require the corporation or association to give appropriate publicity of the conviction by notice to the class or classes of persons or section of the public interested in or affected by the conviction, by advertising in designated areas, or by designated media or otherwise.

(2) When an executive or high managerial officer of a corporation or association is convicted of an offense committed in furtherance of the affairs of the corporation or association, the court may include in the sentence an order disqualifying the executive or high managerial officer from exercising similar functions in the same or other corporations or associations for a period of not exceeding five years if the court finds the scope or willfulness of the illegal actions make it dangerous or inadvisable for such functions to be entrusted to the executive or high managerial officer.

Part 4
Limitations and Special Provisions on Sentences

76-3-401 Concurrent or consecutive sentences -- Limitations -- Definition.

(1) A court shall determine, if a defendant has been adjudged guilty of more than one felony offense, whether to impose concurrent or consecutive sentences for the offenses. The court shall state on the record and shall indicate in the order of judgment and commitment:
  (a) if the sentences imposed are to run concurrently or consecutively to each other; and
  (b) if the sentences before the court are to run concurrently or consecutively with any other sentences the defendant is already serving.

(2) In determining whether state offenses are to run concurrently or consecutively, the court shall consider the gravity and circumstances of the offenses, the number of victims, and the history, character, and rehabilitative needs of the defendant.

(3) The court shall order that sentences for state offenses run consecutively if the later offense is committed while the defendant is imprisoned or on parole, unless the court finds and states on the record that consecutive sentencing would be inappropriate.

(4) If a written order of commitment does not clearly state whether the sentences are to run consecutively or concurrently, the Board of Pardons and Parole shall request clarification from the court. Upon receipt of the request, the court shall enter a clarified order of commitment stating whether the sentences are to run consecutively or concurrently.

(5) A court may impose consecutive sentences for offenses arising out of a single criminal episode as defined in Section 76-1-401.

  (a) If a court imposes consecutive sentences, the aggregate maximum of all sentences imposed may not exceed 30 years imprisonment, except as provided under Subsection (6)(b).
  (b) The limitation under Subsection (6)(a) does not apply if:
    (i) an offense for which the defendant is sentenced authorizes the death penalty or a maximum sentence of life imprisonment; or
    (ii) the defendant is convicted of an additional offense based on conduct which occurs after his initial sentence or sentences are imposed.

(7) The limitation in Subsection (6)(a) applies if a defendant:
  (a) is sentenced at the same time for more than one offense;
  (b) is sentenced at different times for one or more offenses, all of which were committed prior to imposition of the defendant's initial sentence; or

(c) has already been sentenced by a court of this state other than the present sentencing court or by a court of another state or federal jurisdiction, and the conduct giving rise to the present offense did not occur after his initial sentencing by any other court.

(8) When the limitation of Subsection (6)(a) applies, determining the effect of consecutive sentences and the manner in which they shall be served, the Board of Pardons and Parole shall treat the defendant as though he has been committed for a single term that consists of the aggregate of the validly imposed prison terms as follows:

(a) if the aggregate maximum term exceeds the 30-year limitation, the maximum sentence is considered to be 30 years; and

(b) when indeterminate sentences run consecutively, the minimum term, if any, constitutes the aggregate of the validly imposed minimum terms.

(9) When a sentence is imposed or sentences are imposed to run concurrently with the other or with a sentence presently being served, the term that provides the longer remaining imprisonment constitutes the time to be served.

(10) This section may not be construed to restrict the number or length of individual consecutive sentences that may be imposed or to affect the validity of any sentence so imposed, but only to limit the length of sentences actually served under the commitments.

(11) This section may not be construed to limit the authority of a court to impose consecutive sentences in misdemeanor cases.

(12) As used in this section, "imprisoned" means sentenced and committed to a secure correctional facility as defined in Section 64-13-1, the sentence has not been terminated or voided, and the person is not on parole, regardless of where the person is located.

Amended by Chapter 129, 2002 General Session

76-3-401.5 Concurrent or consecutive sentence with a juvenile disposition.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Authority" means the Youth Parole Authority created in Section 80-5-701.

(b) "Board" means the Board of Pardons and Parole created in Section 77-27-2.

(c) "Division" means the Division of Juvenile Justice and Youth Services created in Section 80-5-103.

(i) "Juvenile disposition" means an order for commitment to the custody of the division under Subsection 80-6-703(2).

(ii) "Juvenile disposition" includes an order for secure care under Subsection 80-6-705(1).

(e) "Secure correctional facility" means the same as that term is defined in Section 64-13-1.

(f) "Secure care" means the same as that term is defined in Section 80-1-102.

(2) If a defendant who is 18 years old or older is serving a juvenile disposition, a court may not terminate the juvenile disposition for the defendant when:

(a) the defendant is convicted of an offense; and

(b) the court imposes a sentence under Section 76-3-201 for the offense.

(a) If a defendant who is 18 years old or older is convicted and sentenced for an offense and the defendant is serving a juvenile disposition at the time of sentencing, the court shall determine whether the sentence is to run concurrently or consecutively to the juvenile disposition.

(b) The court shall state on the record and in the order of judgment and commitment whether the sentence imposed is to run concurrently or consecutively with the juvenile disposition.

(c) In determining whether a sentence is to run concurrently or consecutively with a juvenile disposition, the court shall consider:
(i) the gravity and circumstances of the offense for which the defendant is convicted;
(ii) the number of victims; and
(iii) the history, character, and rehabilitative needs of the defendant.
(d) If an order of judgment and commitment does not clearly state whether the sentence is to run consecutively or concurrently with the juvenile disposition, the division shall request clarification from the court.
(e) Upon receipt of the request under Subsection (3)(d), the court shall enter a clarified order of judgment and commitment stating whether the sentence is to run concurrently or consecutively to the juvenile disposition.
(4) If a court orders a sentence for imprisonment to run concurrently with a juvenile disposition for secure care, the defendant shall serve the sentence in secure care until the juvenile disposition is terminated by the authority in accordance with Section 80-6-804.
(5) If a court orders a sentence for imprisonment in a county jail to run concurrently with a juvenile disposition for secure care and the disposition is terminated before the defendant's sentence for imprisonment in the county jail is terminated, the division shall:
(a) notify the county jail at least 14 days before the day on which the defendant's disposition is terminated or the defendant is released from secure care; and
(b) facilitate the transfer or release of the defendant in accordance with the order of judgment and commitment imposed by the court.
(a) If a court orders a sentence for imprisonment in a secure correctional facility to run concurrently with a juvenile disposition for secure care:
(i) the board has authority over the defendant for purposes of ordering parole, pardon, commutation, termination of sentence, remission of fines or forfeitures, restitution, and any other authority granted by law; and
(ii) the court and the division shall immediately notify the board that the defendant will remain in secure care as described in Subsection (4) for the board to schedule a hearing for the defendant in accordance with board procedures.
(b) If a court orders a sentence for imprisonment in a secure correctional facility to run concurrently with a juvenile disposition for secure care and the juvenile disposition is terminated before the defendant's sentence is terminated, the division shall:
(i) notify the board and the Department of Corrections at least 14 days before the day on which the defendant's disposition is terminated or the defendant is released from the secure care; and
(ii) facilitate a release or transfer of the defendant in accordance with the order of judgment and commitment imposed by the court.

76-3-402 Conviction of lower degree of offense -- Procedure and limitations.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Lower degree of offense" includes an offense for which:
(i) a statutory enhancement is charged in the information or indictment that would increase either the maximum or the minimum sentence; and
(ii) the court removes the statutory enhancement in accordance with this section.
(b) "Minor regulatory offense" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-40a-101.

(c)
(i) "Rehabilitation program" means a program designed to reduce criminogenic and recidivism risks.
(ii) "Rehabilitation program" includes:
(A) a domestic violence treatment program, as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-101;
(B) a residential vocational or life skills program, as that term is defined in Section 13-53-102;
(C) a substance abuse treatment program, as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-101;
(D) a substance use disorder treatment program, as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-101;
(E) a youth program, as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-101;
(F) a program that meets the standards established by the Department of Corrections under Section 64-13-25;
(G) a drug court, a veterans court, or a mental health court certified by the Judicial Council; or
(H) a program that is substantially similar to a program described in Subsections (1)(c)(ii)(A) through (G).
(d) "Serious offense" means a felony or misdemeanor offense that is not a minor regulatory offense or a traffic offense.
(e) "Traffic offense" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-40a-101.
(f)
(i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(f)(ii), "violent felony" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-3-203.5.
(ii) "Violent felony" does not include an offense, or any attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit an offense, for:
(A) the purchase or possession of a dangerous weapon or firearm by a restricted person under Section 76-11-305 or 76-11-306;
(B) unlawful conduct involving an explosive, chemical, or incendiary device under Subsection 76-15-210(2)(a); or
(C) unlawful conduct involving an explosive, chemical, or incendiary part under Section 76-15-211.
(2) The court may enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute and impose a sentence at the time of sentencing for the lower degree of offense if the court:
(a) takes into account:
(i) the nature and circumstances of the offense of which the defendant was found guilty; and
(ii) the history and character of the defendant;
(b) gives any victim present at the sentencing and the prosecuting attorney an opportunity to be heard; and
(c) concludes that the degree of offense established by statute would be unduly harsh to record as a conviction on the record for the defendant.
(3) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the court may enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute:
(a) after the defendant is successfully discharged from probation or parole for the conviction; and
(b) if the court finds that entering a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice in accordance with Subsection (7).
(4) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the court may enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute if:

(a) the defendant's probation or parole for the conviction did not result in a successful discharge but the defendant is successfully discharged from probation or parole for a subsequent conviction of an offense;

(b)

(i) at least five years have passed after the day on which the defendant is sentenced for the subsequent conviction; or

(ii) at least three years have passed after the day on which the defendant is sentenced for the subsequent conviction and the prosecuting attorney consents to the reduction;

(c) the defendant is not convicted of a serious offense during the time period described in Subsection (4)(b);

(d) there are no criminal proceedings pending against the defendant;

(e) the defendant is not on probation, on parole, or currently incarcerated for any other offense;

(f) if the offense for which the reduction is sought is a violent felony, the prosecuting attorney consents to the reduction; and

(g) the court finds that entering a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice in accordance with Subsection (7).

(5) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the court may enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute if:

(a) the defendant's probation or parole for the conviction did not result in a successful discharge but the defendant is successfully discharged from a rehabilitation program;

(b) at least three years have passed after the day on which the defendant is successfully discharged from the rehabilitation program;

(c) the defendant is not convicted of a serious offense during the time period described in Subsection (5)(b);

(d) there are no criminal proceedings pending against the defendant;

(e) the defendant is not on probation, on parole, or currently incarcerated for any other offense;

(f) if the offense for which the reduction is sought is a violent felony, the prosecuting attorney consents to the reduction; and

(g) the court finds that entering a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice in accordance with Subsection (7).

(6) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, the court may enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by statute if:

(a) at least five years have passed after the day on which the defendant's probation or parole for the conviction did not result in a successful discharge;

(b) the defendant is not convicted of a serious offense during the time period described in Subsection (6)(a);

(c) there are no criminal proceedings pending against the defendant;

(d) the defendant is not on probation, on parole, or currently incarcerated for any other offense;

(e) if the offense for which the reduction is sought is a violent felony, the prosecuting attorney consents to the reduction; and

(f) the court finds that entering a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice in accordance with Subsection (7).

(7) In determining whether entering a judgment of a conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6):

(a) the court shall consider:

(i) the nature, circumstances, and severity of the offense for which a reduction is sought;

(ii) the physical, emotional, or other harm that the defendant caused any victim of the offense for which the reduction is sought; and

(iii) any input from a victim of the offense; and

(b) the court may consider:

(i) any special characteristics or circumstances of the defendant, including the defendant's criminogenic risks and needs;

(ii) the defendant's criminal history;

(iii) the defendant's employment and community service history;

(iv) whether the defendant participated in a rehabilitative program and successfully completed the program;

(v) any effect that a reduction would have on the defendant's ability to obtain or reapply for a professional license from the Department of Commerce;

(vi) whether the level of the offense has been reduced by law after the defendant's conviction;

(vii) any potential impact that the reduction would have on public safety; or (viii) any other circumstances that are reasonably related to the defendant or the offense for which the reduction is sought.

(8)

(a) A court may only enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) after:

(i) notice is provided to the other party;

(ii) reasonable efforts have been made by the prosecuting attorney to provide notice to any victims; and

(iii) a hearing is held if a hearing is requested by either party.

(b) A prosecuting attorney is entitled to a hearing on a motion seeking to reduce a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6).

(c) In a motion under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) and at a requested hearing on the motion, the moving party has the burden to provide evidence sufficient to demonstrate that the requirements under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) are met.

(d) If a defendant files a motion under this section, the prosecuting attorney shall respond to the motion within 35 days after the day on which the motion is filed with the court.

(9) A court has jurisdiction to consider and enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense under Subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) regardless of whether the defendant is committed to jail as a condition of probation or is sentenced to prison.

(a) An offense may be reduced only one degree under this section, unless the prosecuting attorney specifically agrees in writing or on the court record that the offense may be reduced two degrees.

(b) An offense may not be reduced under this section by more than two degrees.

(11) This section does not preclude an individual from obtaining or being granted an expungement of the individual's record in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 40a, Expungement of Criminal Records.

(12) The court may not enter a judgment for a conviction for a lower degree of offense under this section if:

(a) the reduction is specifically precluded by law; or

(b) any unpaid balance remains on court-ordered restitution for the offense for which the reduction is sought.

(13) When the court enters a judgment for a lower degree of offense under this section, the actual title of the offense for which the reduction is made may not be altered.

(a) An individual may not obtain a reduction under this section of a conviction that requires the individual to register as a sex offender, kidnap offender, or child abuse offender under Section 53-29-202 until the registration requirements under Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry, have expired.
(b) An individual required to register as a sex offender, kidnap offender, or child abuse offender under Section 53-29-202 and required to register for the individual's lifetime as described in Subsection 53-29-203(1)(b), may not be granted a reduction of the conviction for the offense or offenses that require the individual to register as a sex offender, kidnap offender, or child abuse offender.

(1) is not for an offense for which release is prohibited under state law; and
(a) is for a misdemeanor offense, and the sentencing judge has not entered an order prohibiting release under this section; or
(b) is part of a probation agreement for a felony offense, and the sentencing district judge has not entered an order prohibiting release under this section.

76-3-405 Limitation on sentence where conviction or prior sentence set aside.

(1) Where a conviction or sentence has been set aside on direct review or on collateral attack, the court shall not impose a new sentence for the same offense or for a different offense based on the same conduct which is more severe than the prior sentence less the portion of the prior sentence previously satisfied.
(2) This section does not apply when:

(a) the increased sentence is based on facts which were not known to the court at the time of the original sentence, and the court affirmatively places on the record the facts which provide the basis for the increased sentence; or
(b) a defendant enters into a plea agreement with the prosecution and later successfully moves to invalidate the defendant's conviction, in which case the defendant and the prosecution stand in the same position as though the plea bargain, conviction, and sentence had never occurred.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

76-3-406 Crimes for which probation, suspension of sentence, lower category of offense, or hospitalization may not be granted.

(1) As used in this section, "attempted child sexual offense" means an attempt to commit a felony that is:
(a) rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.1;
(b) object rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.3;
(c) sodomy on a child as described in Section 76-5-403.1; or
(d) aggravated sexual abuse of a child as described in Section 76-5-404.3.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), a court may not grant probation, suspend the execution or imposition of a sentence, enter a judgment for a lower category of offense, or order hospitalization, if the effect of which would in any way shorten the prison sentence for:
(a) an actor who commits a capital felony or a first degree felony, or attempts to commit a capital felony or a first degree felony, that is:
(i) aggravated child abuse as described in Section 76-5-109.2;
(ii) child torture as described in Section 76-5-109.4;
(iii) aggravated murder as described in Section 76-5-202;
(iv) murder as described in Section 76-5-203;
(v) child kidnapping as described in Section 76-5-301.1;
(vi) aggravated kidnapping as described in Subsection 76-5-302(3)(b);
(vii) rape as described in Subsection 76-5-402(3)(b), (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4);
(viii) rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.1;
(ix) object rape as described in Subsection 76-5-402.2(3)(b), (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4);
(x) object rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.3;
(xi) forcible sodomy as described in Subsection 76-5-403(3)(b), (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4);
(xii) sodomy on a child as described in Section 76-5-403.1;
(xiii) forcible sexual abuse as described in Subsection 76-5-404(3)(b)(i) or (ii);
(xiv) aggravated sexual abuse of a child as described in Section 76-5-404.3; or
(xv) aggravated sexual assault as described in Section 76-5-405; or
(b) an offense for which the penalty has been increased under Section 76-3-407, Repeat and habitual sex offenders.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a court may suspend the execution or imposition of a prison sentence for an actor who is convicted of an attempt to commit a felony described in Subsection (2)(a) if the court:
(i) makes a finding on the record that:
(A) details why it is in the interests of justice not to execute or impose the prison sentence; and

(B) the actor does not pose a significant safety risk to the victim of the attempted crime or the general public; and

(ii) orders the actor to complete the terms and conditions of probation that is supervised by the Department of Corrections.

(b) If a court suspends a sentence for an attempted child sexual offense the court shall follow the provisions described in Section 76-5-406.5.

(4) Except for an offense before the district court in accordance with Section 80-6-502 or 80-6-504, the provisions of this section do not apply if the sentencing court finds that the actor:

(a) was under 18 years old at the time of the offense; and

(b) could have been adjudicated in the juvenile court but for the delayed reporting or delayed filing of the information.

(5) Except as provided in Subsection 77-16a-103(6) or (7), a court may not grant probation, suspend the execution or imposition of a sentence, enter a judgment for a lower category of offense under Section 76-3-402, or order hospitalization under Section 76-3-201 or 77-18-105 or Title 77, Chapter 16a, Commitment and Treatment of Individuals with a Mental Condition, if the court is prohibited from doing so by this section.

76-3-406.5 Aggravating factors in imprisonment for certain criminal homicide cases.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Cohabitant" has the same definition as in Section 78B-7-102.

(b) "Position of trust" includes the position of a spouse, parent, or cohabitant.

(2) It is an aggravating factor that the person occupied a position of trust in relation to the victim.

(3) The Board of Pardons and Parole shall consider the aggravating factor in Subsection (2) in determining the length of imprisonment for a person convicted of:

(a) aggravated murder under Section 76-5-202;

(b) murder under Section 76-5-203; or

(c) manslaughter under Section 76-5-205.

(4) The sentencing court shall consider the aggravating factor in Subsection (2) in sentencing a person convicted of manslaughter under Section 76-5-205.

(A) a felony offense described in Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses;

(B) sexual exploitation of a minor, Section 76-5b-201;

(C) aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor, Section 76-5b-201.1;

(D) a felony attempt to commit an offense described in Subsections (1)(a)(i)(A) through (C); or

(E) an offense in another state, territory, or district of the United States that, if committed in Utah, would constitute an offense described in Subsections (1)(a)(i)(A) through (D).

(ii) "Prior sexual offense" does not include:

(A) lewdness, as described in Section 76-5-419; or

(B) lewdness involving a child, as described in Section 76-5-420.

(b)
(i) "Sexual offense" means:
(A) an offense that is a second or third degree felony, or an attempted offense, which attempt is a second or third degree felony, described in Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses;
(B) sexual exploitation of a minor, Section 76-5b-201;
(C) aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor, Section 76-5b-201.1;
(D) a felony attempt to commit an offense described in Subsections (1)(b)(i)(B) and (C); or
(E) an offense in another state, territory, or district of the United States that, if committed in Utah, would constitute an offense described in Subsections (1)(b)(i)(A) through (D).
(ii) "Sexual offense" does not include:
(A) lewdness, as described in Section 76-5-419; or
(B) lewdness involving a child, as described in Section 76-5-420.
(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the minimum and maximum penalty for a sexual offense is increased by five years for each conviction of the defendant for a prior sexual offense that arose from a separate criminal episode, if the trier of fact finds that:
(a) the defendant was convicted of a prior sexual offense; and
(b) the defendant was convicted of the prior sexual offense described in Subsection (2)(a) before the defendant committed the sexual offense for which the defendant is being sentenced.
(3) The increased term described in Subsection (2) shall be in addition to, and consecutive to, any other prison term served by the defendant.
(4) If a defendant's conviction is increased under this section, the defendant's entire sentence for the conviction is subject to mandatory imprisonment under Section 76-3-406.

76-3-409 Child abuse or sex offense against child -- Treatment of offender or victim -- Payment of costs.

(1) Any person convicted in the district court of child abuse, or a sexual offense if the victim is under 18 years old, may be ordered to participate in treatment or therapy under the supervision of the Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202, in cooperation with the division of children, youth, and families until the court is satisfied that such treatment or therapy has been successful or that no further benefit to the convicted offender would result if such treatment or therapy were continued. The court may also order treatment of the victim if it believes the same would be beneficial under the circumstances. Nothing in this section shall preclude the court from imposing any additional sentence as provided by law.
(2) The convicted offender shall be ordered to pay, to the extent that the convicted offender is able, the costs of the convicted offender's treatment, together with treatment costs incurred by the victim and any administrative costs incurred by the appropriate state agency in the supervision of such treatment. If the convicted offender is unable to pay all or part of the costs of treatment, the court may order the appropriate state agency to pay such costs to the extent funding is provided by the Legislature for such purpose and shall order the convicted offender to perform public service work as compensation for the cost of treatment.

76-3-410 Compensatory service -- Graffiti penalties.

(1) If an actor uses graffiti and is convicted under Section 76-6-106, 76-6-106.1, 76-6-107, or 76-6-206 for the use of graffiti, the court may, as a condition of probation under Subsection 77-18-105(6), order the actor to clean up graffiti of the actor and any other at a time and place within the jurisdiction of the court.
  (a) For a first conviction or adjudication, the court may require the actor to clean up graffiti for not less than eight hours.
  (b) For a second conviction or adjudication, the court may require the actor to clean up graffiti for not less than 16 hours.
  (c) For a third conviction or adjudication, the court may require the actor to clean up graffiti for not less than 24 hours.
(2) The actor convicted under Section 76-6-106, 76-6-106.1, 76-6-206, or 76-6-107 shall be responsible for removal costs as determined under Section 76-6-107, unless waived by the court for good cause.
(3) The court may also require the actor to perform other alternative forms of restitution or repair to the damaged property in accordance with Subsection 77-18-105(6).

Chapter 4
Inchoate Offenses

Part 1
Attempt

76-4-101 Attempt -- Elements of offense.

(1) For purposes of this part, a person is guilty of an attempt to commit a crime if he:
  (a) engages in conduct constituting a substantial step toward commission of the crime; and
  (b)
    (i) intends to commit the crime; or
    (ii) when causing a particular result is an element of the crime, he acts with an awareness that his conduct is reasonably certain to cause that result.
(2) For purposes of this part, conduct constitutes a substantial step if it strongly corroborates the actor's mental state as defined in Subsection (1)(b).
(3) A defense to the offense of attempt does not arise:
  (a) because the offense attempted was actually committed; or
  (b) due to factual or legal impossibility if the offense could have been committed if the attendant circumstances had been as the actor believed them to be.

Amended by Chapter 154, 2004 General Session

76-4-102 Attempt -- Classification of offenses.

(1) A violation of Section 76-4-101 where the actor attempts to commit:
    (i) a capital felony, or a felony punishable by imprisonment for life without parole, is a first degree felony;

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (2), aggravated murder under Section 76-5-202, which results in serious bodily injury, is punishable by imprisonment for an indeterminate term of not fewer than 15 years and which may be for life;

(b) except as provided in Subsection (1)(c), (d), or (e), a first degree felony is a second degree felony;

(c) murder under Subsection 76-5-203(2)(a) is a first degree felony punishable by imprisonment for an indeterminate term of not fewer than five years and which may be for life;

(d) one of the the following offenses is a first degree felony that is punishable by imprisonment for an indeterminate term of not fewer than three years and which may be for life:

(i) child kidnapping under Section 76-5-301.1; or

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (1)(e), a felony described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417, that is a first degree felony;

(e) except as provided in Subsection (3), one of the following offenses is a first degree felony that is punishable by imprisonment for an indeterminate term of not fewer than 15 years and which may be for life:

(i) rape of a child under Section 76-5-402.1;

(ii) object rape of a child under Section 76-5-402.3; or

(iii) sodomy on a child under Section 76-5-403.1;

(f) a second degree felony is a third degree felony;

(g) a third degree felony is a class A misdemeanor;

(h) a class A misdemeanor is a class B misdemeanor;

(i) a class B misdemeanor is a class C misdemeanor; and

(j) a class C misdemeanor is punishable by a penalty not exceeding one half the penalty for a class C misdemeanor.

(2) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) is in the interests of justice and the court states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than:

(a) 10 years and which may be for life; or

(b) six years and which may be for life.

(3) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection (1)(e), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection (1)(e) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than:

(a) 10 years and which may be for life;

(b) six years and which may be for life; or

(c) three years and which may be for life.

Part 2
Conspiracy, Solicitation, and Contributing to Delinquency

76-4-201 Conspiracy -- Elements of offense.

For purposes of this part a person is guilty of conspiracy when he, intending that conduct constituting a crime be performed, agrees with one or more persons to engage in or cause the performance of the conduct and any one of them commits an overt act in pursuance of the conspiracy, except where the offense is a capital felony, a felony against the person, arson, burglary, or robbery, the overt act is not required for the commission of conspiracy.

Amended by Chapter 209, 2001 General Session

76-4-202 Conspiracy -- Classification of offenses.

Conspiracy to commit:

(1) a capital felony is a first degree felony;

(2) a first degree felony is a second degree felony, except that conspiracy to commit child kidnaping, in violation of Section 76-5-301.1 or to commit any of those felonies described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417, which are first degree felonies, is a first degree felony punishable by imprisonment for an indeterminate term of not less than three years and which may be for life;

(3) a second degree felony is a third degree felony;

(4) a third degree felony is a class A misdemeanor;

(5) a class A misdemeanor is a class B misdemeanor;

(6) a class B misdemeanor is a class C misdemeanor;

(7) A class C misdemeanor is punishable by a penalty not exceeding one half the penalty for a class C misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-4-203 Criminal solicitation of an adult.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Adult" means an individual who is 18 years old or older.

(ii) "Solicit" means to ask, command, encourage, importune, offer to hire, or request.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits criminal solicitation of an adult if, with the intent that a felony offense be committed, the actor solicits an adult to engage in specific conduct that, under the circumstances as the actor believes the circumstances to be, would be a felony offense or would cause the adult to be a party to the commission of a felony offense.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) where the actor solicits the adult to commit:

(a) a capital felony, or a felony punishable by imprisonment for life without parole, is a first degree felony;

(b) except as provided in Subsection (3)(c) or (d), a first degree felony is a second degree felony;

(c) any of the following felony offenses is a first degree felony punishable by imprisonment for an indeterminate term of not fewer than three years and which may be for life:

(i) murder, as described in Subsection 76-5-203(2)(a);

(ii) child kidnapping, as described in Section 76-5-301.1; or

(iii) except as provided in Subsection (3)(d), an offense described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417, that is a first degree felony;

(d) except as provided in Subsection (4), any of the following felony offenses is a first degree felony punishable by a term of imprisonment of not less than 15 years and which may be for life:

(i) rape of a child, Section 76-5-402.1;

(ii) object rape of a child, Section 76-5-402.3; or

(iii) sodomy on a child, Section 76-5-403.1;
(e) a second degree felony is a third degree felony; and
(f) a third degree felony is a class A misdemeanor.
(4) If a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection (3)(d) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than:
(a) 10 years and which may be for life;
(b) six years and which may be for life; or
(c) three years and which may be for life.
(5) An actor may be convicted under this section only if the solicitation is made under circumstances strongly corroborative of the actor's intent that the offense be committed.
(6) It is not a defense to a violation of this section that:
(a) the adult solicited by the actor:
(i) does not agree to act upon the solicitation;
(ii) does not commit an overt act;
(iii) does not engage in conduct constituting a substantial step toward the commission of any offense;
(iv) is not criminally responsible for the felony offense solicited;
(v) was acquitted, was not prosecuted or convicted, or was convicted of a different offense or of a different type or degree of offense; or
(vi) is immune from prosecution; or
(b) the actor:
(i) belongs to a class of persons that by definition is legally incapable of committing the offense in an individual capacity; or
(ii) fails to communicate with the adult that the actor solicits to commit an offense if the intent of the actor's conduct was to effect the communication.
(7) Nothing in this section prevents an actor who otherwise solicits an adult to engage, or intentionally aids an adult in engaging, in conduct that constitutes an offense from being prosecuted and convicted as a party to the offense under Section 76-2-202 if the adult actually commits the offense.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-4-205 Criminal solicitation of a minor.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Minor" means an individual who is younger than 18 years old.
(ii) "Solicit" means to ask, command, encourage, importune, offer to hire, or request.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits criminal solicitation of a minor if, with the intent that a felony or class A misdemeanor offense be committed, the actor solicits a minor to engage in specific conduct that, under the circumstances as the actor believes the circumstances to be, would be a felony or class A misdemeanor offense or would cause the minor to be a party to the commission of a felony or class A misdemeanor offense.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a first degree felony if the actor solicits conduct that is a first degree felony;
(b) a second degree felony if the actor solicits conduct that is a second degree felony;
(c) a third degree felony if the actor solicits conduct that is a third degree felony; and

(d) a class A misdemeanor if the actor solicits conduct that is a class A misdemeanor.
(4) An actor may be convicted under this section only if the solicitation is made under circumstances strongly corroborative of the actor's intent that the offense be committed.
(5) It is not a defense to a violation of this section that:
(a) the minor:
(i) does not agree to act upon the solicitation;
(ii) does not commit an overt act;
(iii) does not engage in conduct constituting a substantial step toward the commission of any offense;
(iv) is not criminally responsible for the offense solicited;
(v) was acquitted or the allegations about the minor in a delinquency petition were found to not be true;
(vi) was not prosecuted, adjudicated, or convicted, or was convicted or adjudicated of a different offense or of a different type or degree of offense; or
(vii) is immune from prosecution; or
(b) the actor:
(i) belongs to a class of persons that by definition is legally incapable of committing the offense in an individual capacity; or
(ii) fails to communicate with the minor that the actor solicits to commit an offense if the intent of the actor's conduct was to effect the communication.
(6) Nothing in this section prevents an actor who otherwise solicits a minor to engage, or intentionally aids in a minor in engaging, in conduct that constitutes an offense from being prosecuted and convicted as a party to the offense under Section 76-2-202 if the minor actually commits the offense.

Enacted by Chapter 301, 2024 General Session

76-4-206 Contributing to the delinquency of a minor.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Adult" means an individual who is 18 years old or older.
(ii) "Minor" means an individual who is younger than 18 years old.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits contributing to the delinquency of a minor if the actor:
(a) is an adult; and
(b) commits any act or engages in any conduct that the actor knows or should know would have the effect of causing or encouraging a minor to commit an act that would be a class B misdemeanor, a class C misdemeanor, or an infraction under a federal or state statute or a county or municipal ordinance.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(4) A violation of Subsection (2) does not require that the minor be found to be delinquent or to have committed a delinquent act.
(5) An offense committed under Subsection (2) is in addition to any completed or inchoate offense which the actor may have committed personally or as a party.

Offenses Against the Individual

Part 1
Assault and Related Offenses

76-5-101 Definitions.

Unless otherwise provided, as used in this part:

(1) "Detained individual" means an individual detained under Section 77-7-15.

(2) "Prisoner" means an individual who is in custody of a peace officer pursuant to a lawful arrest or who is confined in a jail or other penal institution or a facility used for confinement of delinquent juveniles operated by the Division of Juvenile Justice and Youth Services regardless of whether the confinement is legal.

Amended by Chapter 240, 2024 General Session

76-5-102 Assault -- Penalties.

(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits assault if the actor:

(a) attempts, with unlawful force or violence, to inflict bodily injury on an individual; or

(b) commits an act, with unlawful force or violence, that:

(i) causes bodily injury to an individual; or

(ii) creates a substantial risk of bodily injury to an individual.

(3)

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if:

(i) the actor causes substantial bodily injury to an individual; or

(ii) the individual is pregnant and the actor has knowledge of the pregnancy.

(4) The fact that the actor caused serious bodily injury to an individual is not a defense to a violation of this section.

76-5-102.1 Negligently operating a vehicle resulting in injury.

(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Controlled substance" means the same as that term is defined in Section 58-37-2.
(ii) "Drug" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-207.
(iii) "Negligent" or "negligence" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-207.
(iv) "Vehicle" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-6a-501.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits negligently operating a vehicle resulting in injury if the actor:
(a)
(i) operates a vehicle in a negligent manner causing bodily injury to another; and
(ii)
(A) has sufficient alcohol in the actor's body such that a subsequent chemical test shows that the actor has a blood or breath alcohol concentration of .05 grams or greater at the time of the test;
(B) is under the influence of alcohol, a drug, or the combined influence of alcohol and a drug to a degree that renders the actor incapable of safely operating a vehicle; or
(C) has a blood or breath alcohol concentration of .05 grams or greater at the time of operation; or
(b)
(i) operates a vehicle in a criminally negligent manner causing bodily injury to another; and
(ii) has in the actor's body any measurable amount of a controlled substance.
(3) Except as provided in Subsection (4), a violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a)
(i) a class A misdemeanor; or
(ii) a third degree felony if the actor has two or more driving under the influence related convictions under Subsection 41-6a-501(2)(a), each of which is within 10 years of:
(A) the current conviction; or
(B) the commission of the offense upon which the current conviction is based;
(iii) a third degree felony, if the current conviction is at any time after the conviction of:
(A) a conviction, as the term conviction is defined in Subsection 41-6a-501(2), that is a felony; or
(B) any conviction described in Subsection (3)(a)(iii)(A) for which judgment of conviction is reduced under Section 76-3-402; or
(iv) a third degree felony if the bodily injury is serious bodily injury; and
(b) a separate offense for each victim suffering bodily injury as a result of the actor's violation of this section, regardless of whether the injuries arise from the same episode of driving.
(4) An actor is not guilty of negligently operating a vehicle resulting in injury under Subsection (2)(b) if:
(a) the controlled substance was obtained under a valid prescription or order, directly from a practitioner while acting in the course of the practitioner's professional practice, or as otherwise authorized by Title 58, Occupations and Professions;
(b) the controlled substance is 11-nor-9-carboxy-tetrahydrocannabinol; or

(c) the actor possessed, in the actor's body, a controlled substance listed in Section 58-37-4.2 if:
(i) the actor is the subject of medical research conducted by a holder of a valid license to possess controlled substances under Section 58-37-6; and
(ii) the substance was administered to the actor by the medical researcher.

(5)
(a) A judge imposing a sentence under this section may consider:
(i) the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1;
(ii) the defendant's history;
(iii) the facts of the case;
(iv) aggravating and mitigating factors; or
(v) any other relevant fact.
(b) The judge may not impose a lesser sentence than would be required for a conviction based on the defendant's history under Section 41-6a-505.
(c) The standards for chemical breath analysis under Section 41-6a-515 and the provisions for the admissibility of chemical test results under Section 41-6a-516 apply to determination and proof of blood alcohol content under this section.
(d) A calculation of blood or breath alcohol concentration under this section shall be made in accordance with Subsection 41-6a-502(3).
(e) Except as provided in Subsection (4), the fact that an actor charged with violating this section is or has been legally entitled to use alcohol or a drug is not a defense.
(f) Evidence of a defendant's blood or breath alcohol content or drug content is admissible except if prohibited by the Utah Rules of Evidence, the United States Constitution, or the Utah Constitution.
(g) In accordance with Subsection 77-2a-3(8), a guilty or no contest plea to an offense described in this section may not be held in abeyance.

(a) A judge imposing a sentence under this section shall designate the defendant as an interdicted person, as that term is defined in Section 32B-1-102, for a period of time not to exceed the probationary period, unless the court finds good cause to order a shorter or longer time.
(b) If a court designates a person as an interdicted person as provided in Subsection (6)(a), the court shall:
(i) require the person to surrender the person's identification card or driver license;
(ii) notify the Driver License Division that the person is an interdicted person; and
(iii) provide the person's identification card or driver license to the Driver License Division.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2)
(a) An actor commits assault against a peace officer if:
(i) the actor commits an assault or threat of violence against a peace officer, with knowledge that the peace officer is a peace officer; and
(ii) at the time of the assault or threat of violence, the peace officer was acting within the scope of authority as a peace officer.
(b) An actor commits an assault or threat of violence against a military service member in uniform if:
(i) the actor commits an assault or threat of violence against a military service member in uniform; and
(ii) at the time of the assault or threat of violence, the service member was on orders and acting within the scope of authority granted to the military service member in uniform.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the actor:
(i) has been previously convicted of a class A misdemeanor or a felony violation of this section; or
(ii) causes substantial bodily injury.
(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a) or (b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the actor uses:
(i) a dangerous weapon; or
(ii) other means or force likely to produce death or serious bodily injury.
(4) This section does not affect or limit any individual's constitutional right to the lawful expression of free speech, the right of assembly, or any other recognized rights secured by the Utah Constitution or laws, or by the United States Constitution or federal law.

(5) An actor who violates this section shall serve, in jail or another correctional facility, a minimum of:
(a) 90 consecutive days for a second offense; and
(b) 180 consecutive days for each subsequent offense.
(6) The court may suspend the imposition or execution of the sentence required under Subsection (5) if the court finds that the interests of justice would be best served by the suspension and the court makes specific findings concerning the disposition on the record.

76-5-106.5 Stalking -- Definitions -- Injunction -- Penalties -- Duties of law enforcement officer.

  (a) As used in this section:
    (i) "Course of conduct" means two or more acts directed at or toward a specific individual, including:
      (A) acts in which the actor follows, monitors, observes, photographs, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about an individual, or interferes with an individual's property:
        (I) directly, indirectly, or through any third party; and
        (II) by any action, method, device, or means; or
      (B) when the actor engages in any of the following acts or causes someone else to engage in any of these acts:
        (I) approaches or confronts an individual;
        (II) appears at the individual's workplace or contacts the individual's employer or coworker;
        (III) appears at an individual's residence or contacts an individual's neighbor, or enters property owned, leased, or occupied by an individual;
        (IV) sends material by any means to the individual or for the purpose of obtaining or disseminating information about or communicating with the individual to a member of the individual's family or household, employer, coworker, friend, or associate of the individual;
        (V) places an object on or delivers an object to property owned, leased, or occupied by an individual, or to the individual's place of employment with the intent that the object be delivered to the individual; or
        (VI) uses a computer, the Internet, text messaging, or any other electronic means to commit an act that is a part of the course of conduct.

(ii)
(A) "Emotional distress" means significant mental or psychological suffering, whether or not medical or other professional treatment or counseling is required.
(B) "Emotional distress" includes significant mental or psychological suffering resulting from harm to an animal.
(iii) "Immediate family" means a spouse, parent, child, sibling, or any other individual who regularly resides in the household or who regularly resided in the household within the prior six months.
(iv) "Private investigator" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-12-305.
(v) "Reasonable person" means a reasonable person in the victim's circumstances.
(vi) "Stalking" means an offense as described in Subsection (2).
(vii) "Text messaging" means a communication in the form of electronic text or one or more electronic images sent by the actor from a telephone or computer to another individual's telephone or computer by addressing the communication to the recipient's telephone number.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits stalking if the actor intentionally or knowingly:
(a) engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific individual and knows or is reckless as to whether the course of conduct would cause a reasonable person:
(i) to fear for the individual's own safety or the safety of a third individual; or
(ii) to suffer other emotional distress; or
(b) violates:
(i) a stalking injunction issued under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 7, Civil Stalking Injunctions; or
(ii) a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 9, Criminal Stalking Injunctions.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor:
(i) upon the actor's first violation of Subsection (2); or
(ii) if the actor violated a stalking injunction issued under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 7, Civil Stalking Injunctions.
(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the actor:
(i) has been previously convicted of an offense of stalking;
(ii) has been previously convicted in another jurisdiction of an offense that is substantially similar to the offense of stalking;
(iii) has been previously convicted of any felony offense in Utah or of any crime in another jurisdiction which if committed in Utah would be a felony, in which the victim of the stalking offense or a member of the victim's immediate family was also a victim of the previous felony offense;
(iv) violated a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 9, Criminal Stalking Injunctions; or
(v) has been or is at the time of the offense a cohabitant, as defined in Section 78B-7-102, of the victim.
(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a) or (b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the actor:
(i) used a dangerous weapon or used other means or force likely to produce death or serious bodily injury, in the commission of the crime of stalking;
(ii) has been previously convicted two or more times of the offense of stalking;

(iii) has been convicted two or more times in another jurisdiction or jurisdictions of offenses that are substantially similar to the offense of stalking;
(iv) has been convicted two or more times, in any combination, of offenses under Subsection (3)(b)(i), (ii), or (iii);
(v) has been previously convicted two or more times of felony offenses in Utah or of crimes in another jurisdiction or jurisdictions which, if committed in Utah, would be felonies, in which the victim of the stalking was also a victim of the previous felony offenses; or
(vi) has been previously convicted of an offense under Subsection (3)(b)(iv) or (v).

(4) In a prosecution under this section, it is not a defense that the actor:
(a) was not given actual notice that the course of conduct was unwanted; or
(b) did not intend to cause the victim fear or other emotional distress.

(5) An offense of stalking may be prosecuted under this section in any jurisdiction where one or more of the acts that is part of the course of conduct was initiated or caused an effect on the victim.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), an actor does not violate this section if:
(i) the actor is acting:
(A) in the actor's official capacity as a law enforcement officer, governmental investigator, or private investigator; and
(B) for a legitimate official or business purpose; or
(ii)
(A) the actor is the owner of a business;
(B) the actor engages in a course of conduct that is reasonable and necessary to protect the actor's ownership interest in the business;
(C) the conduct is not directed at a cohabitant, as that term is defined in Section 78B-7-102; and
(D) the actor's conduct does not violate any other provision of this code.
(b) A private investigator is not exempt from this section if the private investigator engages in conduct that would constitute a ground for disciplinary action under Section 53-9-118.

(a) A permanent criminal stalking injunction limiting the contact between the actor and victim may be filed in accordance with Section 78B-7-902.
(b) This section does not preclude the filing of criminal information for stalking based on the same act which is the basis for the violation of the stalking injunction issued under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 7, Civil Stalking Injunctions, or a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 9, Criminal Stalking Injunctions.

(a) A law enforcement officer who responds to an allegation of stalking shall use all reasonable means to protect the victim and prevent further violence, including:
(i) taking action that, in the officer's discretion, is reasonably necessary to provide for the safety of the victim and any family or household member;
(ii) confiscating the weapon or weapons involved in the alleged stalking;
(iii) making arrangements for the victim and any child to obtain emergency housing or shelter;
(iv) providing protection while the victim removes essential personal effects;
(v) arranging, facilitating, or providing for the victim and any child to obtain medical treatment; and

(vi) arranging, facilitating, or providing the victim with immediate and adequate notice of the rights of victims and of the remedies and services available to victims of stalking, in accordance with Subsection (8)(b).

(b)

(i) A law enforcement officer shall give written notice to the victim in simple language, describing the rights and remedies available under this section and Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 7, Civil Stalking Injunctions.

(ii) The written notice shall also include:

(A) a statement that the forms needed in order to obtain a stalking injunction are available from the court clerk's office in the judicial district where the victim resides or is temporarily domiciled; and

(B) a list of shelters, services, and resources available in the appropriate community, together with telephone numbers, to assist the victim in accessing any needed assistance.

(c) If a weapon is confiscated under this Subsection (8), the law enforcement agency shall return the weapon to the individual from whom the weapon is confiscated if a stalking injunction is not issued or once the stalking injunction is terminated.

(ii) "School" means a preschool or a public or private elementary or secondary school.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor is guilty of making a threat against a school if the actor threatens, with real intent or as an intentional hoax, to commit an offense involving bodily injury, death, or substantial property damage and the actor:
(a) threatens the use of a firearm or weapon or hoax weapon of mass destruction;
(b) acts with intent to:
(i) disrupt the regular schedule of the school or influence or affect the conduct of students, employees, or the general public at the school;
(ii) prevent or interrupt the occupancy of the school or a portion of the school, or a facility or vehicle used by the school; or
(iii) intimidate or coerce students or employees of the school; or
(c) causes an official or volunteer agency organized to deal with emergencies to take action due to the risk to the school or general public.
(i) A violation of Subsection (2)(a), (b)(i), or (b)(iii) is a third degree felony.
(ii) A violation of Subsection (2)(b)(ii) is a class A misdemeanor.
(iii) A violation of Subsection (2)(c) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b)
(i) In addition to another penalty authorized by law, a court shall order an actor convicted under this section to pay restitution to a federal, state, or local unit of government, or a private business, organization, individual, or entity for expenses and losses incurred in responding to the threat, unless the court states on the record the reasons why the reimbursement would be inappropriate.
(ii) Restitution ordered in the case of a minor adjudicated for a violation of this section shall be determined in accordance with Section 80-6-710.
(4) It is not a defense to this section that the actor did not attempt to carry out the threat or was incapable of carrying out the threat.
(5) A violation of this section shall be reported to the local law enforcement agency.
(6) Counseling for a minor alleged to have violated this section and the minor's family may be made available through state and local health department programs.

76-5-107.5 Prohibition of "hazing" -- Definitions -- Penalties.
(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits hazing if the actor intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly commits an act or causes another to commit an act that:
(a)
(i) endangers the mental or physical health or safety of an individual;
(ii) involves any brutality of a physical nature such as whipping, beating, branding, calisthenics, bruising, electric shocking, placing of a harmful substance on the body, or exposure to the elements;
(iii) involves consumption of any food, alcoholic product, drug, or other substance or any other physical activity that endangers the mental or physical health and safety of an individual; or
(iv) involves any activity that would subject the individual to extreme mental stress, such as sleep deprivation, extended isolation from social contact, or conduct that subjects another to extreme embarrassment, shame, or humiliation; and
(b)
(i) is for the purpose of initiation, admission into, affiliation with, holding office in, or as a condition for continued membership in any organization; or

(ii) if the actor knew that the individual is a member of or candidate for membership with a school team or school organization to which the actor belongs or did belong within the preceding two years.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the act involves:

(i) the operation or other use of a motor vehicle;

(ii) the consumption of an alcoholic product as defined in Section 32B-1-102; or

(iii) the consumption of a drug or a substance as defined in Section 76-5-113.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a) or (b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the act involves the use of a dangerous weapon.

(d) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), (b), or (c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the hazing results in serious bodily injury to an individual.

(e) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), (b), (c), or (d), a violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if hazing under Subsection (3)(d) involves the use of a dangerous weapon .

(a) A person who in good faith reports or participates in reporting of an alleged hazing is not subject to any civil or criminal liability regarding the reporting.

(b) It is not a defense to prosecution of hazing that an individual under 21 years old, against whom the hazing was directed, consented to or acquiesced in the hazing activity.

(5)

(a) This section does not apply to military training or other official military activities.

(b) Military conduct is governed by Title 39A, Chapter 5, Utah Code of Military Justice.

(a) A prosecution under this section does not bar a prosecution of the actor for:

(i) any other offense for which the actor may be liable as a party for conduct committed by the individual hazed; or

(ii) any offense, caused in the course of the hazing, that the actor commits against the individual hazed.

(b) Under Subsection (6)(a)(i) an actor may be separately punished, both for the hazing offense and the conduct committed by the individual hazed.

(c) Under Subsection (6)(a)(ii) an actor may not be punished both for hazing and for the other offense, but shall be punished for the offense carrying the greater maximum penalty.

(4) Violation of an order described in Subsection (2) is a domestic violence offense under Section 77-36-1 and subject to increased penalties in accordance with Section 77-36-1.1.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-5-109 Child abuse.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Child" means an individual who is younger than 18 years old.
(ii) "Injury" means a physical or psychological injury to or condition of a child which impairs the physical or psychological condition of the child, including:
(A) a bruise or other contusion of the skin;
(B) a minor laceration or abrasion;
(C) failure to thrive or malnutrition; or
(D) any other condition that imperils the child's physical or psychological health or welfare and that is not a serious injury.
(iii) "Psychological injury" means an identifiable mental or emotional harm, damage, impairment, or dysfunction.
(iv)
(A) "Serious injury" means an injury or set of injuries that:
(I) seriously impairs the child's health, which includes the child's physical or mental well-being or development;
(II) causes serious emotional harm to the child; or
(III) involves a substantial risk of death to the child.
(B) "Serious injury" includes:
(I) fracture of any bone or bones;
(II) intracranial bleeding, swelling or contusion of the brain, whether caused by blows, shaking, or causing the child's head to impact with an object or surface;
(III) any burn, including burns inflicted by hot water, or those caused by placing a hot object upon the skin or body of the child;
(IV) any injury caused by use of a dangerous weapon;
(V) any combination of two or more injuries inflicted by the same individual, either at the same time or on different occasions;
(VI) any damage to internal organs of the body;
(VII) any conduct toward a child that results in severe emotional harm, severe developmental delay or intellectual disability, or severe impairment of the child's ability to function;
(VIII) any injury that creates a permanent disfigurement or protracted loss or impairment of the function of a bodily member, limb, or organ;
(IX) any impediment of the breathing or the circulation of blood by application of pressure to the neck, throat, or chest, or by the obstruction of the nose or mouth, that is likely to produce a loss of consciousness;

(X) any conduct involving unreasonable forcible restriction of a child's movements, including restraining or confining the child with restraints or in an enclosed space or forcing the child to remain in a stress position;
(XI) any conduct involving forcing or coercing a child to injure the child's self, an individual known to the child, or an animal known to the child;
(XII) any conduct involving a threat to harm or kill the child, an individual known to the child, or an animal known to the child;
(XIII) any conduct involving unreasonably subjecting a child to excessive heat, cold, darkness, solitary confinement, or sleep deprivation;
(XIV) any conduct that results in starvation, dehydration, failure to thrive, or malnutrition, that jeopardizes the child's life or seriously injures the child's physical or mental well-being or development; or
(XV) unconsciousness caused by the unlawful infliction of a brain injury or unlawfully causing any deprivation of oxygen to the brain.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits child abuse if the actor:

(a) inflicts upon a child an injury; or

(b) having the care or custody of a child, causes or permits another to inflict an injury upon the child.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if done intentionally or knowingly.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor if done recklessly.

(c) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor if done with criminal negligence.

(a) A parent or legal guardian who provides a child with treatment by spiritual means alone through prayer, in lieu of medical treatment, in accordance with the tenets and practices of an established church or religious denomination of which the parent or legal guardian is a member or adherent may not, for that reason alone, be considered to have committed an offense under this section.

(b) A parent or guardian of a child does not violate this section by selecting a treatment option for a medical condition of the child, if the treatment option is one that a reasonable parent or guardian would believe to be in the best interest of the child.

(c) An actor is not guilty of an offense under this section for conduct that constitutes:

(i) reasonable discipline or management of a child, including withholding privileges;

(ii) conduct described in Section 76-2-401; or

(iii) the use of reasonable and necessary physical restraint or force on a child:

(A) in self-defense;

(B) in defense of others;

(C) to protect the child; or

(D) to remove a weapon in the possession of a child for any of the reasons described in Subsections (4)(c)(iii)(A) through (C).

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Child" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-109.

(ii) "Serious injury" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-109.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) Under circumstances not amounting to a violation of Section 76-5-109.4, Child torture, an actor commits aggravated child abuse if the actor:
(a) inflicts upon a child a serious injury; or
(b) having the care or custody of a child, causes or permits another to inflict a serious injury upon the child.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a first degree felony if done intentionally or knowingly.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if done recklessly.
(c) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if done with criminal negligence.
(a) A parent or legal guardian who provides a child with treatment by spiritual means alone through prayer, in lieu of medical treatment, in accordance with the tenets and practices of an established church or religious denomination of which the parent or legal guardian is a member or adherent may not, for that reason alone, be considered to have committed an offense under this section.
(b) A parent or guardian of a child does not violate this section by selecting a treatment option for the medical condition of the child, if the treatment option is one that a reasonable parent or guardian would believe to be in the best interest of the child.
(c) An actor is not guilty of an offense under this section for conduct that constitutes:
(i) conduct described in Section 76-2-401; or
(ii) the use of reasonable and necessary physical restraint or force on a child:
(A) in self-defense;
(B) in defense of others;
(C) to protect the child; or
(D) to remove a weapon in the possession of a child for any of the reasons described in Subsections (4)(c)(ii)(A) through (C).

76-5-109.3 Child abandonment.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Child" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-109.
(ii) "Enterprise" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-17-401.
(iii) "Serious injury" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-109.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an actor commits child abandonment if the actor:
(i) is a parent or legal guardian of a child, and:
(A) intentionally ceases to maintain physical custody of the child;
(B) intentionally fails to make reasonable arrangements for the safety, care, and physical custody of the child; and
(C)
(I) intentionally fails to provide the child with food, shelter, or clothing;
(II) manifests an intent to permanently not resume physical custody of the child; or

(III) for a period of at least 30 days, intentionally fails to resume physical custody of the child and fails to manifest a genuine intent to resume physical custody of the child; or

(ii) encourages or causes the parent or legal guardian of a child to violate Subsection (2)(a)(i).

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an enterprise commits child abandonment if the enterprise encourages, commands, induces by misrepresentation, or causes another to violate Subsection (2)(a).

(i) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a)(i), a violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if, as a result of the child abandonment:

(A) the child suffers a serious injury; or

(B) the actor or enterprise receives, directly or indirectly, any benefit.

(b)

(i) In addition to the penalty described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii), the court may order the actor or enterprise described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii)(B) to pay the costs of investigating and prosecuting the offense and the costs of securing any forfeiture provided for under Subsection (3)(b)(ii).

(ii) Any tangible or pecuniary benefit received under Subsection (3)(a)(ii)(B) is subject to criminal or civil forfeiture pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 11b, Forfeiture of Seized Property.

(a) A parent or legal guardian who provides a child with treatment by spiritual means alone through prayer, in lieu of medical treatment, in accordance with the tenets and practices of an established church or religious denomination of which the parent or legal guardian is a member or adherent may not, for that reason alone, be considered to have committed an offense under this section.

(b) An actor is not guilty of an offense under this section for conduct that constitutes:

(i) the safe relinquishment of a child pursuant to the provisions of Section 80-4-502;

(ii) giving legal consent to a court order for termination of parental rights:

(A) in a legal adoption proceeding; or

(B) in a case in which a petition for the termination of parental rights, or the termination of a guardianship, has been filed;

(iii) reasonable discipline or management of a child, including withholding privileges; or

(iv) conduct described in Section 76-2-401.

(c) It is a defense to prosecution under Subsection (2)(a)(i) that the actor committed child abandonment due to:

(i) intimidation;

(ii) isolation;

(iii) harassment;

(iv) coercion;

(v) the actor's reasonable fear of bodily harm; or

(vi) the reasonable actions of the actor to protect the safety and welfare of the actor or another individual.

76-5-109.4 Child torture.

(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Child" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-109.
(ii) "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of two or more acts that evidence a continuity of purpose.
(iii) "Serious injury" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-109.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits child torture if the actor intentionally or knowingly inflicts upon a child, or having the care or custody of a child, intentionally or knowingly causes or permits another to inflict upon the child:
(a) a serious injury that is inflicted in an exceptionally cruel or exceptionally depraved manner that causes the child to experience extreme physical or psychological pain or anguish; or
(b) a serious injury, or more than one serious injury, as part of a course of conduct or over a prolonged period of time.
(3)
(a) Except as provided under Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a first degree felony subject to a sentence of imprisonment of at least 10 years and which may be for life.
(b) If, when imposing a sentence of imprisonment, a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection (3)(a) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than:
(i) seven years and which may be for life; or
(ii) four years and which may be for life.
(4) Imprisonment under Subsection (3) is mandatory in accordance with Section 76-3-406.
(5) An actor's conduct is not subject to punishment under Subsection (2)(b) if the serious injury that forms the basis for the offense is based solely on the commission of two or more injuries by the same individual as described under Subsection 76-5-109(1)(a)(iii)(B)(V).

Enacted by Chapter 284, 2025 General Session

76-5-110 Abuse or neglect of a child with a disability.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Abuse" means:
(A) inflicting injury;
(B) having the care or custody of a child with a disability, causing or permitting another to inflict injury; or
(C) unreasonable confinement.
(ii) "Caretaker" means:
(A) any parent, legal guardian, or other person having under that person's care and custody a child with a disability; or
(B) any person, corporation, or public institution that has assumed by contract or court order the responsibility to provide food, shelter, clothing, medical, and other necessities to a child with a disability.
(iii) "Child with a disability" means an individual under 18 years old who is impaired because of mental illness, mental deficiency, physical illness or disability, or other cause, to the extent that the individual is unable to care for the individual's own personal safety or to provide necessities such as food, shelter, clothing, and medical care.
(iv) "Injury" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-109.

(v) "Neglect" means failure by a caretaker to provide care, nutrition, clothing, shelter, supervision, or medical care.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits abuse or neglect of a child with a disability if the actor is a caretaker and intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly abuses or neglects a child with a disability.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.

(a) A parent or legal guardian who provides a child with treatment by spiritual means alone through prayer, in lieu of medical treatment, in accordance with the tenets and practices of an established church or religious denomination of which the parent or legal guardian is a member or adherent may not, for that reason alone, be considered to be in violation under this section.

(b) Subject to Section 80-3-109, the exception under Subsection (4)(a) does not preclude a court from ordering medical services from a physician licensed to engage in the practice of medicine to be provided to the child where there is substantial risk of harm to the child's health or welfare if the treatment is not provided.

(c) A caretaker of a child with a disability does not violate this section by selecting a treatment option for a medical condition of a child with a disability, if the treatment option is one that a reasonable caretaker would believe to be in the best interest of the child with a disability.

76-5-111 Abuse of a vulnerable adult -- Penalties.

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Abandonment" means a knowing or intentional action or inaction, including desertion, by a person acting as a caretaker for a vulnerable adult that leaves the vulnerable adult without the means or ability to obtain necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical or other health care.

(ii) "Abuse" means:

(A) attempting to cause harm, intentionally or knowingly causing harm, or intentionally or knowingly placing another in fear of imminent harm;

(B) causing physical injury by knowing or intentional acts or omissions;

(C) unreasonable or inappropriate use of physical restraint, medication, or isolation that causes or is likely to cause harm to a vulnerable adult that is in conflict with a physician's or physician assistant's orders or used as an unauthorized substitute for treatment, unless that conduct furthers the health and safety of the vulnerable adult; or

(D) deprivation of life-sustaining treatment, except:

(I) as provided in Title 75A, Chapter 3, Health Care Decisions; or

(II) when informed consent, as defined in this section, has been obtained.

(iii) "Caretaker" means a person or public institution that is entrusted with or assumes the responsibility to provide a vulnerable adult with care, food, shelter, clothing, supervision, medical or other health care, or other necessities for pecuniary gain, by contract, or as a result of friendship, or in a position of trust and confidence with a vulnerable adult, including a relative, a household member, an attorney-in-fact, a neighbor, a person who is employed or who provides volunteer work, a court-appointed or voluntary guardian, or a person who contracts or is under court order to provide care.

(iv)

(A) "Dependent adult" means an individual 18 years old or older, who has a physical or mental impairment that restricts the individual's ability to carry out normal activities or to protect the individual's rights.

(B) "Dependent adult" includes an individual who has physical or developmental disabilities or whose physical or mental capacity has substantially diminished because of age.

(v) "Elder adult" means an individual 65 years old or older.

(vi) "Exploitation" means an offense described in Section 76-5-111.3, 76-5-111.4, or 76-5b-202.

(vii) "Harm" means pain, mental anguish, emotional distress, hurt, physical or psychological damage, physical injury, suffering, or distress inflicted knowingly or intentionally.

(viii) "Informed consent" means:

(B) consent to withdraw food, water, medication, medical services, shelter, cooling, heating, or other services necessary to maintain minimum physical or mental health, as permitted by court order.

(A) "Isolation" means knowingly or intentionally preventing a vulnerable adult from having contact with another person, unless the restriction of personal rights is authorized by court order, by:

(I) preventing the vulnerable adult from communicating, visiting, interacting, or initiating interaction with others, including receiving or inviting visitors, mail, or telephone calls, contrary to the express wishes of the vulnerable adult, or communicating to a visitor that the vulnerable adult is not present or does not want to meet with or talk to the visitor, knowing that communication to be false;

(II) physically restraining the vulnerable adult in order to prevent the vulnerable adult from meeting with a visitor; or

(III) making false or misleading statements to the vulnerable adult in order to induce the vulnerable adult to refuse to receive communication from visitors or other family members.

(B) "Isolation" does not include an act:

(I) intended in good faith to protect the physical or mental welfare of the vulnerable adult; or

(II) performed pursuant to the treatment plan or instructions of a physician, physician assistant, or other professional advisor of the vulnerable adult.

(x) "Neglect" means:

(A) failure of a caretaker to provide nutrition, clothing, shelter, supervision, personal care, or dental or other health care, or failure to provide protection from health and safety hazards or maltreatment;

(B) failure of a caretaker to provide care to a vulnerable adult in a timely manner and with the degree of care that a reasonable person in a like position would exercise;

(C) a pattern of conduct by a caretaker, without the vulnerable adult's informed consent, resulting in deprivation of food, water, medication, health care, shelter, cooling, heating, or other services necessary to maintain the vulnerable adult's well being;

(D) intentional failure by a caretaker to carry out a prescribed treatment plan that results or could result in physical injury or physical harm; or
(E) abandonment by a caretaker.
(xi)
(A) "Physical injury" includes damage to any bodily tissue caused by nontherapeutic conduct, to the extent that the tissue must undergo a healing process in order to be restored to a sound and healthy condition, or damage to any bodily tissue to the extent that the tissue cannot be restored to a sound and healthy condition.
(B) "Physical injury" includes skin bruising, a dislocation, physical pain, illness, impairment of physical function, a pressure sore, bleeding, malnutrition, dehydration, a burn, a bone fracture, a subdural hematoma, soft tissue swelling, injury to any internal organ, or any other physical condition that imperils the health or welfare of the vulnerable adult and is not a serious physical injury as defined in this section.
(xii) "Position of trust and confidence" means the position of a person who:
(A) is a parent, spouse, adult child, or other relative of a vulnerable adult;
(B) is a joint tenant or tenant in common with a vulnerable adult;
(C) has a legal or fiduciary relationship with a vulnerable adult, including a court-appointed or voluntary guardian, trustee, attorney, attorney-in-fact, or conservator; or
(D) is a caretaker of a vulnerable adult.
(xiii) "Serious physical injury" means any physical injury or set of physical injuries that:
(A) seriously impairs a vulnerable adult's health;
(B) was caused by use of a dangerous weapon;
(C) involves physical torture or causes serious emotional harm to a vulnerable adult; or
(D) creates a reasonable risk of death.
(xiv) "Vulnerable adult" means an elder adult, or a dependent adult who has a mental or physical impairment which substantially affects that individual's ability to:
(A) provide personal protection;
(B) provide necessities such as food, shelter, clothing, or medical or other health care;
(C) obtain services necessary for health, safety, or welfare;
(D) carry out the activities of daily living;
(E) manage the adult's own resources; or
(F) comprehend the nature and consequences of remaining in a situation of abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor, including a caretaker, commits abuse of a vulnerable adult if the actor, under circumstances other than those likely to produce death or serious physical injury:
(a) causes a vulnerable adult to suffer harm, abuse, or neglect;
(b) having the care or custody of a vulnerable adult, causes or permits that vulnerable adult's person or health to be injured, abused, or neglected; or
(c) causes or permits a vulnerable adult to be placed in a situation in which the vulnerable adult's person or health is endangered.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2):
(i) is a class A misdemeanor if done intentionally or knowingly;
(ii) is a class B misdemeanor if done recklessly; or
(iii) is a class C misdemeanor if done with criminal negligence.
(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a violation of Subsection (2) that is based on isolation of a vulnerable adult is a third degree felony.

(4)
(a) It does not constitute a defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section that the actor did not know the age of the vulnerable adult.
(b) An adult is not considered abused, neglected, or a vulnerable adult for the reason that the adult has chosen to rely solely upon religious, nonmedical forms of healing in lieu of medical care.
(5) If an actor, including a caretaker, violates this section by willfully isolating a vulnerable adult, in addition to the penalties under Subsection (3), the court may require that the actor:
(a) undergo appropriate counseling as a condition of the sentence; and
(b) pay for the costs of the ordered counseling.

76-5-111.2 Aggravated abuse of a vulnerable adult -- Penalties.
(1)
(a) As used in this section, "abuse," "caretaker," "isolation," "neglect," "serious physical injury," and "vulnerable adult" all mean the same as those terms are defined in Section 76-5-111.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor, including a caretaker, commits aggravated abuse of a vulnerable adult if the actor, under a circumstance likely to produce death or serious physical injury:
(a) causes a vulnerable adult to suffer serious physical injury;
(b) having the care or custody of a vulnerable adult, causes or permits the vulnerable adult's person or health to be injured; or
(c) causes or permits a vulnerable adult to be placed in a situation in which the vulnerable adult's person or health is endangered.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if done intentionally or knowingly.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if done recklessly.
(c) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if done with criminal negligence.
(4)
(a) It does not constitute a defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section that the actor did not know the age of the vulnerable adult.
(b) An adult is not considered abused, neglected, or a vulnerable adult for the reason that the adult has chosen to rely solely upon religious, nonmedical forms of healing in lieu of medical care.
(5) If an actor, including a caretaker, violates this section by willfully isolating a vulnerable adult, in addition to the penalties under Subsection (3), the court may require that the actor:
(a) undergo appropriate counseling as a condition of the sentence; and
(b) pay for the costs of the ordered counseling.

76-5-111.3 Personal dignity exploitation of a vulnerable adult -- Penalties.
(1)
(a) As used in this section, "abuse," "caretaker," "exploitation," "neglect," and "vulnerable adult" all mean the same as those terms are defined in Section 76-5-111.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an actor commits personal dignity exploitation of a vulnerable adult if the actor is a caretaker of a vulnerable adult and intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly:
(a) creates, transmits, or displays a photographic or electronic image or recording of the vulnerable adult:
(i) to which creation, transmission, or display a reasonable person would not consent; and
(ii)
(A) that shows the vulnerable adult's unclothed breasts, buttocks, anus, genitals, or pubic area;
(B) that displays the clothed area of only the vulnerable adult's breasts, buttocks, anus, genitals, or pubic area; or
(C) that shows the vulnerable adult engaged in conduct that is harmful to the mental or physical health or safety of the vulnerable adult; or
(b) causes the vulnerable adult to participate in an act that is highly offensive or demeaning to the vulnerable adult:
(i) in which a reasonable person would not participate; or
(ii) that is harmful to the mental or physical health or safety of the vulnerable adult.
(3)
(i) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if done intentionally or knowingly.
(ii) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor if done recklessly.
(b)
(i) It is a separate offense under Subsection (2)(a) for each vulnerable adult included in a photographic or electronic image or recording created, transmitted, or displayed in violation of Subsection (2)(a).
(ii) It is a separate offense under Subsection (2)(b) for each vulnerable adult caused to participate in an act in violation of Subsection (2)(b).
(4)
(a) A caretaker does not violate Subsection (2)(a) if the caretaker creates, transmits, or displays the photographic or electronic image or recording:
(i) with the consent of the vulnerable adult, if the vulnerable adult:
(A) is mentally and physically able to give voluntary consent to the creation, transmission, or display; and
(B) gives voluntary consent for the creation, transmission, or display;
(ii) for a legitimate purpose relating to monitoring or providing care, treatment, or diagnosis; or
(iii) for a legitimate purpose relating to investigating abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
(b) A caretaker does not violate Subsection (2)(b) if:
(i) the vulnerable adult:
(A) is mentally and physically able to give voluntary consent to participate in the act; and
(B) gives voluntary consent to participate in the act; or
(ii) the caretaker causes the vulnerable adult to participate in the act for a legitimate purpose relating to:
(A) monitoring or providing care, treatment, or diagnosis; or
(B) investigating abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
(5)
(a) It is not a defense that the vulnerable adult was unaware of:
(i) the creation, transmission, or display prohibited under Subsection (2)(a); or
(ii) participation in the act, or the nature of participation in the act, under Subsection (2)(b).

(b) It does not constitute a defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section that the actor did not know the age of the vulnerable adult.

76-5-111.4 Financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult -- Penalties.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Abuse" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.

(ii) "Business relationship" means a relationship between two or more individuals or entities where there exists an oral or written agreement for the exchange of goods or services.

(iii) "Deception" means:

(A) a misrepresentation or concealment:

(I) of a material fact relating to services rendered, disposition of property, or use of property intended to benefit a vulnerable adult;

(II) of the terms of a contract or agreement entered into with a vulnerable adult; or

(III) relating to the existing or preexisting condition of any property involved in a contract or agreement entered into with a vulnerable adult; or

(B) the use or employment of any misrepresentation, false pretense, or false promise in order to induce, encourage, or solicit a vulnerable adult to enter into a contract or agreement.

(iv) "Endeavor" means to attempt or try.

(v) "Intimidation" means communication conveyed through verbal or nonverbal conduct that threatens deprivation of money, food, clothing, medicine, shelter, social interaction, supervision, health care, or companionship, or that threatens isolation or harm.

(vi) "Isolation" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.

(vii) "Lacks capacity to consent" means an impairment by reason of mental illness, developmental disability, organic brain disorder, physical illness or disability, chronic use of drugs, chronic intoxication, short-term memory loss, or other cause to the extent that a vulnerable adult lacks sufficient understanding of the nature or consequences of decisions concerning the vulnerable adult's person or property.

(viii) "Neglect" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.

(ix) "Undue influence" occurs when a person:

(A) uses influence to take advantage of a vulnerable adult's mental or physical impairment; or

(B) uses the person's role, relationship, or power:

(I) to exploit, or knowingly assist or cause another to exploit, the trust, dependency, or fear of a vulnerable adult; or

(II) to gain control deceptively over the decision making of the vulnerable adult.

(x) "Vulnerable adult" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits the offense of financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult if the actor:

(a) is in a position of trust and confidence, or has a business relationship, with the vulnerable adult or has undue influence over the vulnerable adult and knowingly, by deception or intimidation, obtains or uses, or endeavors to obtain or use, the vulnerable adult's funds, credit, assets, or other property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the vulnerable adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the vulnerable adult's property, for the benefit of someone other than the vulnerable adult;

(b) knows or should know that the vulnerable adult lacks the capacity to consent, and obtains or uses, or endeavors to obtain or use, or assists another in obtaining or using or endeavoring to obtain or use, the vulnerable adult's funds, assets, or property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the vulnerable adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the vulnerable adult's property for the benefit of someone other than the vulnerable adult;

(c) unjustly or improperly uses or manages the resources of a vulnerable adult for the profit or advantage of someone other than the vulnerable adult;

(d) unjustly or improperly uses a vulnerable adult's power of attorney or guardianship for the profit or advantage of someone other than the vulnerable adult; or

(e) involves a vulnerable adult who lacks the capacity to consent in the facilitation or furtherance of any criminal activity.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if done intentionally or knowingly and the aggregate value of the resources used or the profit made is or exceeds $5,000.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if done intentionally or knowingly and the aggregate value of the resources used or the profit made is less than $5,000 or cannot be determined.

(c) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if done recklessly.

(d) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor if done with criminal negligence.

(4) It does not constitute a defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section that the actor did not know the age of the vulnerable adult.

76-5-112 Reckless endangerment -- Penalty.

(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits reckless endangerment if, under circumstances not amounting to a felony offense, the actor recklessly engages in conduct that creates a substantial risk of death or serious bodily injury to another individual.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.

76-5-112.5 Endangerment of a child or vulnerable adult.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i)

(A) "Chemical substance" means:

(I) a substance intended to be used as a precursor in the manufacture of a controlled substance;

(II) a substance intended to be used in the manufacture of a controlled substance; or

(III) any fumes or by-product resulting from the manufacture of a controlled substance.

(B) Intent under this Subsection (1)(a)(i) may be demonstrated by:

(I) the use, quantity, or manner of storage of the substance; or

(II) the proximity of the substance to other precursors or to manufacturing equipment.

(ii) "Child" means an individual who is under 18 years old.

(iii) "Controlled substance" means the same as that term is defined in Section 58-37-2.

(iv) "Drug paraphernalia" means the same as that term is defined in Section 58-37a-3.

(v) "Exposed to" means that the child or vulnerable adult:

(A) is able to access an unlawfully possessed:

(I) controlled substance; or
(II) chemical substance;
(B) has the reasonable capacity to access drug paraphernalia; or
(C) is able to smell an odor produced during, or as a result of, the manufacture or production of a controlled substance.
(vi) "Prescription" means the same as that term is defined in Section 58-37-2.
(vii) "Vulnerable adult" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits endangerment of a child or vulnerable adult if the actor knowingly or intentionally causes or permits a child or a vulnerable adult to be exposed to, inhale, ingest, or have contact with a controlled substance, chemical substance, or drug paraphernalia.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.
(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if:
(i) the actor engages in the conduct described in Subsection (2); and
(ii) as a result of the conduct described in Subsection (2), the child or the vulnerable adult suffers bodily injury, substantial bodily injury, or serious bodily injury.
(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a) or (b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a first degree felony if:
(i) the actor engages in the conduct described in Subsection (2); and
(ii) as a result of the conduct described in Subsection (2), the child or the vulnerable adult dies.
(4)
(a) Notwithstanding Subsection (3), a child may not be subjected to delinquency proceedings for a violation of Subsection (2) unless:
(i) the child is 15 years old or older; and
(ii) the other child who is exposed to or inhales, ingests, or has contact with the controlled substance, chemical substance, or drug paraphernalia, is under 12 years old.
(b) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of this section that the controlled substance:
(i) was obtained by lawful prescription or in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis; and
(ii) is used or possessed by the individual to whom the controlled substance was lawfully prescribed or recommended to under Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis.
(5) The penalties described in this section are separate from, and in addition to, the penalties and enhancements described in Title 58, Occupations and Professions.
(6) If an offense committed under this section amounts to an offense subject to a greater penalty under another provision of state law, this section does not prohibit prosecution and sentencing for the more serious offense.

76-5-113 Surreptitious administration of certain substances -- Definitions -- Penalties -- Defenses.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Administer" means the introduction of a substance into the body by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or by any other means.
(ii) "Alcoholic beverage" means the same as that term is defined in Section 32B-1-102.

(iii) "Controlled substance" means the same as that term is defined in Section 58-37-2.
(iv) "Deleterious substance" means a substance which, if administered, would likely cause bodily injury.
(v) "Health care provider" means the same as that term is defined in Section 78B-3-403.
(vi) "Poisonous" means a substance which, if administered, would likely cause serious bodily injury or death.
(vii) "Prescription drug" means the same as that term is defined in Section 58-17b-102.
(viii) "Serious bodily injury" means the same as that term is defined in Section 19-2-115.
(ix) "Substance" means a controlled substance, poisonous substance, or deleterious substance.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits surreptitious administration of a certain substance if the actor, surreptitiously or by means of fraud, deception, or misrepresentation, causes an individual to unknowingly consume or receive the administration of:
(a) any poisonous, deleterious, or controlled substance; or
(b) any alcoholic beverage.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a second degree felony if the substance is a poisonous substance, regardless of whether the substance is a controlled substance or a prescription drug;
(b) a third degree felony if the substance is not within the scope of Subsection (3)(a), and is a controlled substance or a prescription drug; or
(c) a class A misdemeanor if the substance is a deleterious substance or an alcoholic beverage.
(4)
(a) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under Subsection (2) that the actor:
(i) provided the appropriate administration of a prescription drug; and
(ii) acted on the reasonable belief that the actor's conduct was in the best interest of the well-being of the individual to whom the prescription drug was administered.
(b)
(i) The defendant shall file and serve on the prosecuting attorney a notice in writing of the defendant's intention to claim a defense under Subsection (4)(a) not fewer than 20 days before the trial.
(ii) The notice shall specifically identify the factual basis for the defense and the names and addresses of the witnesses the defendant proposes to examine to establish the defense.
(c)
(i) The prosecuting attorney shall file and serve the defendant with a notice containing the names and addresses of the witnesses the prosecutor proposes to examine in order to contradict or rebut the defendant's claim of an affirmative defense under Subsection (4)(a).
(ii) This notice shall be filed or served not more than 10 days after receipt of the defendant's notice under Subsection (4)(b), or at another time as the court may direct.
(d)
(i) Failure of a party to comply with the requirements of Subsection (4)(b) or (4)(c) entitles the opposing party to a continuance to allow for preparation.
(ii) If the court finds that a party's failure to comply is the result of bad faith, it may impose appropriate sanctions.
(5)
(a) This section does not diminish the scope of authorized health care by a health care provider.
(b) Conduct in violation of Subsection (2) may also constitute a separate offense.

Amended by Chapter 330, 2023 General Session

76-5-114 Commission of domestic violence in the presence of a child.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Cohabitant" means the same as that term is defined in Section 78B-7-102.
(ii) "Criminal homicide offense" means an offense listed in Subsection 76-5-201(2).
(iii) "Domestic violence" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-36-1.
(iv) "In the presence of a child" means:
(A) in the physical presence of a child; or
(B) having knowledge that a child is present and may see or hear an act of domestic violence.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits domestic violence in the presence of a child if the actor:
(a) commits or attempts to commit a criminal homicide offense against a cohabitant in the presence of a child;
(b) intentionally causes serious bodily injury to a cohabitant or uses a dangerous weapon or other means or force likely to produce death or serious bodily injury against a cohabitant, in the presence of a child;
(c) intentionally or knowingly impedes the breathing or the circulation of blood of another individual by the actor's use of unlawful force or violence by applying pressure to the neck or throat of an individual or obstructing the nose, mouth, or airway of an individual, in the presence of a child; or
(d) under circumstances not amounting to a violation of Subsection (2)(a), (2)(b), or (2)(c), commits an act of domestic violence in the presence of a child.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2)(a), (2)(b), or (2)(c) is a third degree felony.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2)(d) is a class B misdemeanor.
(4)
(a) A charge under this section is separate and distinct from, and is in addition to, a charge of domestic violence in which the victim is the cohabitant.
(b) Either or both charges may be filed by the prosecutor.
(5) An actor who commits a violation of this section when more than one child is present is guilty of one offense of domestic violence in the presence of a child regarding each child present when the violation occurred.

Amended by Chapter 243, 2025 General Session

76-5-115 Leaving a child unattended in a motor vehicle.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Child" means an individual who is younger than nine years old.
(ii) "Enclosed compartment" means any enclosed area of a motor vehicle, including the passenger compartment, regardless of whether a door, window, or hatch is left open.
(iii) "Motor vehicle" means an automobile, truck, truck tractor, bus, or any other self-propelled vehicle.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits leaving a child unattended in a motor vehicle if:

(a) the actor intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or with criminal negligence leaves a child in an enclosed compartment of a motor vehicle;
(b) the motor vehicle is on:
(i) public property; or
(ii) private property that is open to the general public;
(c) the child is not supervised by an individual who is at least nine years old; and
(d) the conditions present a risk to the child of:
(i) hyperthermia;
(ii) hypothermia; or
(iii) dehydration.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.
(4) This section does not apply if the actor's conduct that constitutes a violation of this section is subject to a greater penalty under another provision of state law.
(5) This section preempts enforcement of a local law or ordinance that makes it an infraction or a criminal offense to engage in the conduct that constitutes a misdemeanor under this section.
(6) Notwithstanding any provision of state law to the contrary, a conviction under this section may not be used by a state or local government entity as grounds for revoking, refusing to grant, or refusing to renew, a license or permit, including a license or permit relating to the provision of day care or child care.

Part 2
Criminal Homicide

76-5-201 Criminal homicide -- Designations of offenses -- Exceptions -- Application of consensual altercation defense.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Abortion" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-7-301.
(ii) "Criminal homicide" means an act causing the death of another human being, including an unborn child at any stage of the unborn child's development.
(b) The terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) The following are criminal homicide:
(a) aggravated murder;
(b) murder;
(c) manslaughter;
(d) child abuse homicide;
(e) homicide by assault;
(f) negligent homicide; and
(g) automobile homicide.
(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), an actor is not guilty of criminal homicide if:
(a) the death of an unborn child is caused by an abortion;
(b) the sole reason for the death of an unborn child is that the actor:
(i) refused to consent to:
(A) medical treatment; or

(B) a cesarean section; or
(ii) failed to follow medical advice; or
(c) a woman causes the death of her own unborn child, and the death:
(i) is caused by a criminally negligent act or reckless act of the woman; and
(ii) is not caused by an intentional or knowing act of the woman.
(4) The provisions governing a defense of a consensual altercation as described in Section 76-5-104 apply to this part.

(I) object rape of a child, under Section 76-5-402.3;

(J) forcible sodomy, under Section 76-5-403;

(K) sodomy on a child, under Section 76-5-403.1;

(M) aggravated sexual assault, under Section 76-5-405;

(N) aggravated arson, under Section 76-6-103;

(O) aggravated burglary, under Section 76-6-203;

(P) aggravated robbery, under Section 76-6-302;

(Q) felony discharge of a firearm, under Section 76-11-210; or

(R) an offense committed in another jurisdiction which if committed in this state would be a violation of a crime listed in this Subsection (2)(a)(x);

(xi) the actor committed homicide for the purpose of:

(A) preventing a witness from testifying;

(B) preventing a person from providing evidence or participating in any legal proceedings or official investigation;

(C) retaliating against a person for testifying, providing evidence, or participating in any legal proceedings or official investigation; or

(D) disrupting or hindering any lawful governmental function or enforcement of laws;

(xii) the deceased individual was a local, state, or federal public official, or a candidate for public office, and the homicide is based on, is caused by, or is related to that official position, act, capacity, or candidacy;

(xiii) the deceased individual was on duty in a verified position or the homicide is based on, is caused by, or is related to the deceased individual's position, and the actor knew, or reasonably should have known, that the deceased individual holds or has held the position of:

(A) a peace officer;

(B) an executive officer, prosecuting officer, jailer, or prison official;

(C) a firefighter, search and rescue personnel, emergency medical personnel, ambulance personnel, or any other emergency responder;

(D) a judge or other court official, juror, probation officer, or parole officer; or

(E) a security officer contracted to secure, guard, or otherwise protect tangible personal property, real property, or the life and well-being of human or animal life in the area of the offense;

(xiv) the actor committed homicide:

(A) by means of a destructive device, bomb, explosive, incendiary device, or similar device which was planted, hidden, or concealed in any place, area, dwelling, building, or structure, or was mailed or delivered;

(B) by means of any weapon of mass destruction; or

(C) to target a law enforcement officer;

(xv) the actor committed homicide during the act of unlawfully assuming control of an aircraft, train, or other public conveyance by use of threats or force with intent to:

(A) obtain any valuable consideration for the release of the public conveyance or any passenger, crew member, or any other person aboard;

(B) direct the route or movement of the public conveyance; or

(C) otherwise exert control over the public conveyance;

(xvi) the actor committed homicide by means of the administration of a poison or of any lethal substance or of any substance administered in a lethal amount, dosage, or quantity;

(xvii) the deceased individual was held or otherwise detained as a shield, hostage, or for ransom;

(xviii) the actor committed homicide in an especially heinous, atrocious, cruel, or exceptionally depraved manner, any of which must be demonstrated by physical torture, serious physical abuse, or serious bodily injury of the deceased individual before death;

(xix) the actor dismembers, mutilates, or disfigures the deceased individual's body, whether before or after death, in a manner demonstrating the actor's depravity of mind; or

(xx) the deceased individual, at the time of the death of the deceased individual:

(A) was younger than 14 years old; and

(B) was not an unborn child.

(b) An actor commits aggravated murder if the actor, with reckless indifference to human life, causes the death of another individual incident to an act, scheme, course of conduct, or criminal episode during which the actor is a major participant in the commission or attempted commission of:

(i) aggravated child abuse, punishable as a felony of the second degree under Subsection 76-5-109.2(3)(a);

(ii) child torture under Section 76-5-109.4;

(iii) child kidnapping under Section 76-5-301.1;

(iv) rape of a child under Section 76-5-402.1;

(v) object rape of a child under Section 76-5-402.3;
(vi) sodomy on a child under Section 76-5-403.1; or
(vii) sexual abuse or aggravated sexual abuse of a child under Section 76-5-404.1.

(a) If a notice of intent to seek the death penalty has been filed, a violation of Subsection (2) is a capital felony.
(b) If a notice of intent to seek the death penalty has not been filed, aggravated murder is a noncapital first degree felony punishable as provided in Section 76-3-207.7.
(c)
(i) Within 60 days after arraignment of the defendant, the prosecutor may file notice of intent to seek the death penalty.
(ii) The notice shall be served on the defendant or defense counsel and filed with the court.
(iii) Notice of intent to seek the death penalty may be served and filed more than 60 days after the arraignment upon written stipulation of the parties or upon a finding by the court of good cause.
(d) Without the consent of the prosecutor, the court may not accept a plea of guilty to noncapital first degree felony aggravated murder during the period in which the prosecutor may file a notice of intent to seek the death penalty under Subsection (3)(c)(i).
(e) If the defendant was younger than 18 years old at the time the offense was committed, aggravated murder is a noncapital first degree felony punishable as provided in Section 76-3-207.7.
(f) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a) or (3)(b), if the trier of fact finds the elements of aggravated murder, or alternatively, attempted aggravated murder, as described in this section, are proved beyond a reasonable doubt, and also finds that the existence of special mitigation is established by a preponderance of the evidence and in accordance with Section 76-5-205.5, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction as follows:
(i) if the trier of fact finds the defendant guilty of aggravated murder, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction for murder; or
(ii) if the trier of fact finds the defendant guilty of attempted aggravated murder, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction for attempted murder.

(a) It is an affirmative defense to a charge of aggravated murder or attempted aggravated murder that the actor caused the death of another or attempted to cause the death of another under a reasonable belief that the circumstances provided a legal justification or excuse for the conduct although the conduct was not legally justifiable or excusable under the existing circumstances.
(b) The reasonable belief of the actor under Subsection (4)(a) shall be determined from the viewpoint of a reasonable person under the then existing circumstances.
(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a) or (3)(b), if the trier of fact finds the elements of aggravated murder, or alternatively, attempted aggravated murder, as described in this section, are proved beyond a reasonable doubt, and also finds the affirmative defense described in this Subsection (4) is not disproven beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction as follows:
(i) if the trier of fact finds the defendant guilty of aggravated murder, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction for murder; or
(ii) if the trier of fact finds the defendant guilty of attempted aggravated murder, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction for attempted murder.

(a) Any aggravating circumstance described in Subsection (2) that constitutes a separate offense does not merge with the crime of aggravated murder.
(b) An actor who is convicted of aggravated murder, based on an aggravating circumstance described in Subsection (2) that constitutes a separate offense, may also be convicted of, and punished for, the separate offense.

(xxii) aggravated robbery under Section 76-6-302;
(xxiii) escape under Section 76-8-309;
(xxiv) aggravated escape under Section 76-8-309.3; or
(xxv) a violation of Section 76-11-209 or 76-11-210 regarding discharge of a firearm or dangerous weapon.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits murder if:
(a) the actor intentionally or knowingly causes the death of another individual;
(b) intending to cause serious bodily injury to another individual, the actor commits an act clearly dangerous to human life that causes the death of the other individual;

(c) acting under circumstances evidencing a depraved indifference to human life, the actor knowingly engages in conduct that creates a grave risk of death to another individual and thereby causes the death of the other individual;

(i) the actor is engaged in the commission, attempted commission, or immediate flight from the commission or attempted commission of any predicate offense, or is a party to the predicate offense;

(ii) an individual other than a party described in Section 76-2-202 is killed in the course of the commission, attempted commission, or immediate flight from the commission or attempted commission of any predicate offense; and

(iii) the actor acted with the intent required as an element of the predicate offense;

(e) the actor recklessly causes the death of a peace officer or military service member in uniform while in the commission or attempted commission of:

(i) an assault against a peace officer under Section 76-5-102.4;

(ii) interference with a peace officer while making a lawful arrest under Section 76-8-305 if the actor uses force against the peace officer; or

(iii) an assault against a military service member in uniform under Section 76-5-102.4; or

(f) the actor commits a homicide that would be aggravated murder, but the offense is reduced in accordance with Subsection 76-5-202(4).

(i) A violation of Subsection (2) is a first degree felony.

(ii) A defendant who is convicted of murder shall be sentenced to imprisonment for an indeterminate term of not less than 15 years and which may be for life.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), if the trier of fact finds the elements of murder, or alternatively, attempted murder, as described in this section are proved beyond a reasonable doubt, and also finds that the existence of special mitigation is established by a preponderance of the evidence and in accordance with Section 76-5-205.5, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction as follows:

(i) if the trier of fact finds the defendant guilty of murder, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction for manslaughter; or

(ii) if the trier of fact finds the defendant guilty of attempted murder, the court shall, notwithstanding Subsection 76-4-102(1)(b) or 76-4-102(1)(c), enter a judgment of conviction for attempted manslaughter.

(4)

(a) It is an affirmative defense to a charge of murder or attempted murder that the defendant caused the death of another individual or attempted to cause the death of another individual under a reasonable belief that the circumstances provided a legal justification or excuse for the conduct although the conduct was not legally justifiable or excusable under the existing circumstances.

(b) The reasonable belief of the actor under Subsection (4)(a) shall be determined from the viewpoint of a reasonable person under the then existing circumstances.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), if the trier of fact finds the elements of murder, or alternatively, attempted murder, as described in this section are proved beyond a reasonable doubt, and also finds the affirmative defense described in this Subsection (4) is not disproven beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction as follows:

(i) if the trier of fact finds the defendant guilty of murder, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction for manslaughter; or

(ii) if the trier of fact finds the defendant guilty of attempted murder, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction for attempted manslaughter.

(5)

(a) Any predicate offense that constitutes a separate offense does not merge with the crime of murder.

(b) An actor who is convicted of murder, based on a predicate offense that constitutes a separate offense, may also be convicted of, and punished for, the separate offense.

76-5-205 Manslaughter -- Penalties.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i)

(A) "Aid" means the act of providing the physical means.

(B) "Aid" does not include the withholding or withdrawal of life sustaining treatment procedures to the extent allowed under Title 75A, Chapter 3, Health Care Decisions, or any other laws of this state.

(ii) "Practitioner" means an individual currently licensed, registered, or otherwise authorized by law to administer, dispense, distribute, or prescribe medications or procedures in the course of professional practice.

(iii) "Provides" means to administer, prescribe, distribute, or dispense.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (5), an actor commits manslaughter if the actor:

(a) recklessly causes the death of another individual;

(b) intentionally, and with knowledge that another individual intends to commit suicide or attempt to commit suicide, aids the individual to commit suicide; or

(c) commits a homicide which would be murder, but the offense is reduced in accordance with Subsection 76-5-203(4).

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a felony of the second degree.

(4)

(a) In addition to the penalty described under this section or any other section, a defendant who is convicted of violating this section shall have the defendant's driver license revoked under Section 53-3-220 if the death of another individual results from driving a motor vehicle.

(b) The court shall forward the report of the conviction resulting from driving a motor vehicle to the Driver License Division in accordance with Section 53-3-218.

(a) A practitioner does not violate Subsection (2)(b) if the practitioner provides medication or a procedure to treat an individual's illness or relieve an individual's pain or discomfort, regardless of whether the medication or procedure may hasten or increase the risk of death to the individual to whom the practitioner provides the medication or procedure.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (5)(a), a practitioner violates Subsection (2)(b) if the practitioner intentionally and knowingly provides the medication or procedure to aid the individual to commit suicide or attempt to commit suicide.

76-5-205.5 Special mitigation for mental condition or provocation -- Burden of proof -- Charge reduction.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i)

(A) "Extreme emotional distress" means an overwhelming reaction of anger, shock, or grief that:

(I) causes the defendant to be incapable of reflection and restraint; and

(II) would cause an objectively reasonable person to be incapable of reflection and restraint.

(B) "Extreme emotional distress" does not include:

(I) a condition resulting from a mental condition; or

(II) distress that is substantially caused by the defendant's own conduct.

(ii) "Mental condition" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-2-305.

(b) The terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) Special mitigation exists when a defendant causes the death of another individual or attempts to cause the death of another individual:

(i) under circumstances that are not legally justified, but the defendant acts under a delusion attributable to a mental condition;

(ii) the nature of the delusion is such that, if the facts existed as the defendant believed them to be in the delusional state, those facts would provide a legal justification for the defendant's conduct; and

(iii) the defendant's actions, in light of the delusion, are reasonable from the objective viewpoint of a reasonable person; or

(b) except as provided in Subsection (4), under the influence of extreme emotional distress that is predominantly caused by the victim's highly provoking act immediately preceding the defendant's actions.

(3) A defendant who is under the influence of voluntarily consumed, injected, or ingested alcohol, controlled substances, or volatile substances at the time of the alleged offense may not claim mitigation of the offense under Subsection (2)(a) on the basis of a mental condition if the alcohol or substance causes, triggers, or substantially contributes to the defendant's mental condition.

(4) A defendant may not claim special mitigation under Subsection (2)(b) if:

(a) the time period after the victim's highly provoking act and before the defendant's actions was long enough for an objectively reasonable person to have recovered from the extreme emotional distress;

(b) the defendant responded to the victim's highly provoking act by inflicting serious or substantial bodily injury on the victim over a prolonged period, or by inflicting torture on the victim, regardless of whether the victim was conscious during the infliction of serious or substantial bodily injury or torture; or

(c) the victim's highly provoking act, described in Subsection (2)(b), is comprised of words alone.

(5) If the trier of fact finds that the elements of aggravated murder, attempted aggravated murder, murder, or attempted murder are proven beyond a reasonable doubt, and also finds that the existence of special mitigation under this section is established by a preponderance of the evidence, the court shall enter a judgment of conviction in accordance with Subsection 76-5-202(3)(f)(i), 76-5-202(3)(f)(ii), 76-5-203(3)(b)(i), or 76-5-203(3)(b)(ii), respectively.

(6) If the issue of special mitigation is submitted to the trier of fact, the trier of fact shall return a special verdict at the same time as the general verdict, indicating whether it finds special mitigation.

(a) If a jury is the trier of fact, a unanimous vote of the jury is required to find special mitigation under this section.

(b) If the jury unanimously finds that the elements of an offense described in Subsection (5) are proven beyond a reasonable doubt, and finds special mitigation by a unanimous vote, the jury shall return a general verdict finding the defendant guilty of the charged crime and a special verdict indicating special mitigation.

(c) If the jury unanimously finds that the elements of an offense described in Subsection (5) are proven beyond a reasonable doubt but finds by a unanimous vote that special mitigation is not established, or if the jury is unable to unanimously agree that special mitigation is established, the jury shall convict the defendant of the greater offense for which the prosecution proves all the elements beyond a reasonable doubt.

76-5-206 Negligent homicide -- Penalties.

(1) Definitions of terms in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits negligent homicide if the actor, acting with criminal negligence, causes the death of another individual.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.

(4)

(a) In addition to the penalty provided under this section or any other section, a defendant who is convicted of violating this section shall have the defendant's driver license revoked under Section 53-3-220 if the death of another individual results from driving a motor vehicle.

(b) The court shall forward the report of the conviction to the Driver License Division in accordance with Section 53-3-218.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-5-207 Automobile homicide -- Penalties -- Evidence.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Controlled substance" means the same as that term is defined in Section 58-37-2.

(ii) "Criminally negligent" means the same as that term is described in Subsection 76-2-103(4).

(iii) "Drug" means:

(A) a controlled substance;

(B) a drug as defined in Section 58-37-2; or

(C) a substance that, when knowingly, intentionally, or recklessly taken into the human body, can impair the ability of an individual to safely operate a vehicle.

(iv) "Negligent" or "negligence" means simple negligence, the failure to exercise that degree of care that reasonable and prudent persons exercise under like or similar circumstances.
(v) "Vehicle" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-6a-501.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits automobile homicide if the actor:
(a)
(i) operates a vehicle in a negligent or criminally negligent manner causing the death of another individual; and
(ii)
(A) has sufficient alcohol in the actor's body such that a subsequent chemical test shows that the actor has a blood or breath alcohol concentration of .05 grams or greater at the time of the test;
(B) is under the influence of alcohol, any drug, or the combined influence of alcohol and any drug to a degree that renders the actor incapable of safely operating a vehicle; or
(C) has a blood or breath alcohol concentration of .05 grams or greater at the time of operation; or
(b)
(i) operates a vehicle in a criminally negligent manner causing death to another; and
(ii) has in the actor's body any measurable amount of a controlled substance.
(3) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an actor who violates Subsection (2) is guilty of:
(a) a second degree felony, punishable by a term of imprisonment of not less than five years nor more than 15 years; and
(b) a separate offense for each victim suffering death as a result of the actor's violation of this section, regardless of whether the deaths arise from the same episode of driving.
(4) An actor is not guilty of a violation of automobile homicide under Subsection (2)(b) if:
(a) the controlled substance was obtained under a valid prescription or order, directly from a practitioner while acting in the course of the practitioner's professional practice, or as otherwise authorized by Title 58, Occupations and Professions;
(b) the controlled substance is 11-nor-9-carboxy-tetrahydrocannabinol; or
(c) the actor possessed, in the actor's body, a controlled substance listed in Section 58-37-4.2 if:
(i) the actor is the subject of medical research conducted by a holder of a valid license to possess controlled substances under Section 58-37-6; and
(ii) the substance was administered to the actor by the medical researcher.
(5)
(a) A judge imposing a sentence under this section may consider:
(i) the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1;
(ii) the defendant's history;
(iii) the facts of the case;
(iv) aggravating and mitigating factors; or
(v) any other relevant fact.
(b) The judge may not impose a lesser sentence than would be required for a conviction based on the defendant's history under Section 41-6a-505.
(c) The standards for chemical breath analysis as provided by Section 41-6a-515 and the provisions for the admissibility of chemical test results as provided by Section 41-6a-516 apply to determination and proof of blood alcohol content under this section.
(d) A calculation of blood or breath alcohol concentration under this section shall be made in accordance with Subsection 41-6a-502(3).

(e) Except as provided in Subsection (4), the fact that an actor charged with violating this section is or has been legally entitled to use alcohol or a drug is not a defense.
(f) Evidence of a defendant's blood or breath alcohol content or drug content is admissible except when prohibited by the Utah Rules of Evidence, the United States Constitution, or the Utah Constitution.
(g) In accordance with Subsection 77-2a-3(8), a guilty or no contest plea to an offense described in this section may not be held in abeyance.
(6) If, when imposing a sentence under this section, the court finds that it is in the interest of justice to suspend the imposition of prison, the court shall detail the finding on the record, including why a suspended prison sentence is in the interest of justice.
(7) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), the court may impose a sentence of not less than three years nor more than 15 years if the court details on the record why it is in the interest of justice.
(8)
(a) A judge imposing a sentence under this section shall designate the defendant as an interdicted person, as that term is defined in Section 32B-1-102, for a period of time not to exceed the probationary period, unless the court finds good cause to order a shorter or longer time.
(b) If a court designates a person as an interdicted person as provided in Subsection (8)(a), the court shall:
(i) require the person to surrender the person's identification card or driver license;
(ii) notify the Driver License Division that the person is an interdicted person; and
(iii) provide the person's identification card or driver license to the Driver License Division.

76-5-207.5 Automobile homicide involving a handheld wireless communication device while driving.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Criminally negligent" means the same as that term is described in Subsection 76-2-103(4).
(ii) "Motor vehicle" means any self-propelled vehicle, including an automobile, truck, van, motorcycle, train, engine, watercraft, or aircraft.
(iii) "Negligent" means the failure to exercise the degree of care that a reasonable and prudent person exercises under similar circumstances.
(iv) "Wireless communication device" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-6a-1716.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits automobile homicide if the actor:
(a) operates a moving motor vehicle in a negligent manner;
(b) while using a wireless communication device in violation of Section 41-6a-1716; and
(c) causes the death of another individual.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the actor operated the moving motor vehicle in a criminally negligent manner.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-5-208 Child abuse homicide -- Penalties.

(a) As used in this section, "child abuse" means an offense described in Section 76-5-109, 76-5-109.2, 76-5-109.3, 76-5-109.4, or 76-5-114.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) Unless a violation amounts to aggravated murder as described in Section 76-5-202, an actor commits child abuse homicide if:
(i) the actor causes the death of another individual who is younger than 18 years old; and
(ii) the individual's death results from child abuse; and
(b)
(i) the child abuse is based on a violation of Section 76-5-109.4, Child Torture;
(ii) the child abuse is done recklessly under Subsection 76-5-109.2(3)(b);
(iii) the child abuse is done with criminal negligence under Subsection 76-5-109.2(3)(c); or
(iv) under circumstances not amounting to the type of child abuse homicide described in Subsection (2)(b)(i), the child abuse is done intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or with criminal negligence, under Subsection 76-5-109(3)(a), (b), or (c).

(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) under the circumstances described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) is a first degree felony.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) under the circumstances described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii) or (iii) is a second degree felony.

Amended by Chapter 284, 2025 General Session

76-5-209 Homicide by assault -- Penalty.

(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits homicide by assault if, under circumstances not amounting to aggravated murder, murder, or manslaughter:
(a) the actor causes the death of another individual; and
(b) the actor causes the other individual's death while intentionally or knowingly attempting, with unlawful force or violence, to do bodily injury to the other individual.

(3) Homicide by assault is a third degree felony.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

Part 3
Kidnapping, Trafficking, and Smuggling

76-5-301 Kidnapping.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Against the will of an individual" includes without the consent of the legal guardian, caretaker, or custodian of an individual who is a dependent adult.
(ii) "Dependent adult" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.
(iii) "Minor" means an individual who is 14 years old or older but younger than 18 years old.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits kidnapping if the actor intentionally or knowingly, without authority of law, and against the will of an individual:
(a) detains or restrains the individual for any substantial period of time;
(b) detains or restrains the individual in circumstances exposing the individual to risk of bodily injury;
(c) holds the individual in involuntary servitude;
(d) detains or restrains a minor without the consent of the minor's parent or legal guardian or the consent of a person acting in loco parentis; or
(e) moves the individual any substantial distance or across a state line.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-5-301.1 Child kidnapping.
(1)
(a) As used in this section, "child" means an individual under 14 years old.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits child kidnapping if the actor intentionally or knowingly, without authority of law, and by any means and in any manner, seizes, confines, detains, or transports a child without the consent of the child's parent or guardian, or the consent of a person acting in loco parentis.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a first degree felony.
(4) An actor convicted of a violation of this section shall be sentenced to imprisonment of:
(a) except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), (4)(c), or (5), not less than 15 years and which may be for life;
(b) except as provided in Subsection (4)(c) or (5), life without parole, if the trier of fact finds that during the course of the commission of the child kidnapping the actor caused serious bodily injury to another; or
(c) life without parole, if the trier of fact finds that at the time of the commission of the child kidnapping the actor was previously convicted of a grievous sexual offense.
(5) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection (4)(a) or (b), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection (4)(a) or (b) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than:
(a) for purposes of Subsection (4)(b), 15 years and which may be for life; or
(b) for purposes of Subsection (4)(a) or (b):
(i) 10 years and which may be for life; or
(ii) six years and which may be for life.
(6) The provisions of Subsection (5) do not apply when a person is sentenced under Subsection (4)(c).
(7) Subsections (4)(b) and (4)(c) do not apply if the defendant was younger than 18 years old at the time of the offense.
(8) Imprisonment under this section is mandatory in accordance with Section 76-3-406.
(9) A violation of Section 76-5-303 is not a violation of this section.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-5-301.2 Parental kidnapping.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Child" means an individual under 18 years old.

(ii) "Custody" means court-ordered physical custody of a child entered by a court.

(iii) "Parent" means an individual:

(A) recognized as a biological parent or adoptive parent; or

(B) that has established a parent-child relationship under Section 81-5-201.

(iv) "Parent-time" means court-ordered parent-time or visitation entered by a court.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) A parent commits parental kidnapping of the parent's child if the parent:

(a) takes, entices, conceals, detains, or withholds the child from an individual entitled to custody of the child;

(b) intends to interfere with the custody of the child; and

(c)

(i) has never had a right to physical custody of the child;

(ii) has never been granted parent-time with the child;

(iii) has had all rights to physical custody of the child terminated by a court; or

(iv) at the time of the parent's action under Subsection (2)(a), had parent-time with the child terminated or suspended by a court.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if, during the course of parental kidnapping, the parent removes, causes the removal, or directs the removal of the child from the state.

(4) In addition to the affirmative defenses described in Section 76-5-305, it is an affirmative defense to the crime of parental kidnapping that:

(a) the parent acted under a reasonable belief that the action described in Subsection (2)(a) was:

(i) necessary to protect the child from imminent serious bodily injury, or death;

(ii) authorized by law; or

(iii) taken with the consent of:

(A) the individual entitled to custody of the child; or

(B) a custodian, guardian, caretaker, or other individual lawfully acting in place of the individual entitled to custody of the child; or

(b)

(i) the parent acted under a reasonable belief that the action described in Subsection (2)(a) was necessary to protect the child from abuse, including sexual abuse; and

(ii) before taking the action described in Subsection (2)(a), the parent reports to law enforcement the parent's intention to engage in the action and the basis for the parent's belief described in Subsection (4)(b)(i).

Amended by Chapter 426, 2025 General Session

76-5-302 Aggravated kidnapping.

(a) As used in this section, "in the course of committing unlawful detention or kidnapping" means in the course of committing, attempting to commit, or in the immediate flight after the attempt or commission of a violation of:

(i) Section 76-5-301, kidnapping; or
(ii) Section 76-5-304, unlawful detention.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits aggravated kidnapping if the actor, in the course of committing unlawful detention or kidnapping:
(a) uses or threatens to use a dangerous weapon; or
(b) acts with the intent to:
(i) hold the victim for ransom or reward, as a shield or hostage, or to compel a third person to engage in particular conduct or to forbear from engaging in particular conduct;
(ii) facilitate the commission, attempted commission, or flight after commission or attempted commission of a felony;
(iii) hinder or delay the discovery of or reporting of a felony;
(iv) inflict bodily injury on or to terrorize the victim or another individual;
(v) interfere with the performance of any governmental or political function; or
(vi) commit a sexual offense as described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417, 76-5-418, 76-5-419, or 76-5-420.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) in the course of committing unlawful detention is a third degree felony.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) in the course of committing kidnapping is a first degree felony.
(4) An actor convicted of a violation of Subsection (3)(b) shall be sentenced to imprisonment of:
(a) except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), (4)(c), or (5), not less than 15 years and which may be for life;
(b) except as provided in Subsection (4)(c) or (5), life without parole, if the trier of fact finds that during the course of the commission of the aggravated kidnapping the defendant caused serious bodily injury to the victim or another individual; or
(c) life without parole, if the trier of fact finds that at the time of the commission of the aggravated kidnapping, the defendant was previously convicted of a grievous sexual offense.
(5) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection (4)(a) or (b), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection (4)(a) or (b) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than:
(a) for purposes of Subsection (4)(b), 15 years and which may be for life; or
(b) for purposes of Subsection (4)(a) or (b):
(i) 10 years and which may be for life; or
(ii) six years and which may be for life.
(6) The provisions of Subsection (5) do not apply when a defendant is sentenced under Subsection (4)(c).
(7) Subsections (4)(b) and (c) do not apply if the actor was younger than 18 years old at the time of the offense.
(8) Imprisonment under Subsection (4) is mandatory in accordance with Section 76-3-406.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5-303 Custodial interference.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Child" means an individual under 18 years old.

(ii) "Custody" means court-ordered physical custody entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.
(iii) "Visitation" means court-ordered parent-time or visitation entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(a) An actor who is entitled to custody of a child commits custodial interference if, during a period of time when another individual is entitled to visitation of the child, the actor takes, entices, conceals, detains, or withholds the child from the individual entitled to visitation of the child, with the intent to interfere with the visitation of the child.
(b) An actor who is entitled to visitation of a child commits custodial interference if, during a period of time when the individual is not entitled to visitation of the child, the actor takes, entices, conceals, detains, or withholds the child from an individual who is entitled to custody of the child, with the intent to interfere with the custody of the child.
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the actor:
(i) commits custodial interference; and
(ii) has been convicted of custodial interference at least twice in the two-year period immediately preceding the day on which the commission of custodial interference described in Subsection (3)(b)(i) occurs.
(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a) or (b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a felony of the third degree if, during the course of the custodial interference, the actor removes, causes the removal, or directs the removal of the child from the state.
(4) In addition to the affirmative defenses described in Section 76-5-305, it is an affirmative defense to the crime of custodial interference that:
(a) the action is consented to by the individual whose custody or visitation of the child was interfered with; or
(b)
(i) the action is based on a reasonable belief that the action is necessary to protect a child from abuse, including sexual abuse; and
(ii) before engaging in the action, the actor reports the actor's intention to engage in the action, and the basis for the belief described in Subsection (4)(b)(i), to the Division of Child and Family Services or law enforcement.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-5-303.5 Notification of conviction of custodial interference.
(1) As used in this section:
(a)
(i) "Convicted" means a conviction by plea or verdict or adjudication in juvenile court of a crime or offense.
(ii) "Convicted" includes:
(A) a plea of guilty or guilty with a mental condition;
(B) a plea of no contest; and

(C) the acceptance by the court of a plea in abeyance under Title 77, Chapter 2a, Pleas in Abeyance, regardless of whether the charge is subsequently reduced or dismissed in accordance with the plea in abeyance agreement.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) If an individual is convicted of custodial interference under Section 76-5-303, the court shall notify the Driver License Division, created in Section 53-3-103, of the conviction, and whether the conviction is for:

(a) a class B misdemeanor, under Subsection 76-5-303(3)(a);

(b) a class A misdemeanor, under Subsection 76-5-303(3)(b); or

(c) a felony, under Subsection 76-5-303(3)(c).

Amended by Chapter 184, 2023 General Session

76-5-304 Unlawful detention and unlawful detention of a minor.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) Acting "against the will of an individual" includes acting without the consent of the legal guardian, caretaker, or custodian of an individual who is:

(A) a dependent adult; or

(B) a minor who is 14 or 15 years old.

(ii) "Dependent adult" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(a) An actor commits unlawful detention if the actor intentionally or knowingly, without authority of law, and against the will of an individual, detains or restrains the individual.

(b) An actor commits unlawful detention of a minor if the actor is at least four or more years older than the minor, and intentionally or knowingly, without authority of law, and against the will of the minor, coerces or exerts influence over the minor with the intent to cause the minor to remain with the actor for an unreasonable period of time under the circumstances.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

(4) If the conduct of the actor amounts to a violation under one of the following, the actor shall be charged with the violation and not under Subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b):

(a) kidnapping, as described in Section 76-5-301; or

(b) child kidnapping, as described in Section 76-5-301.1.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-5-305 Defenses.

(1) It is a defense under this part that:

(a) the actor was acting under a reasonable belief that:

(i) the conduct was necessary to protect any individual from imminent bodily injury or death; or

(ii) the detention or restraint was authorized by law; or

(b) the alleged victim is younger than 18 years old or is a dependent adult, as defined in Section 76-5-111, and the actor was acting under a reasonable belief that the custodian, guardian, caretaker, legal guardian, custodial parent, or person acting in loco parentis to the victim would, if present, have consented to the actor's conduct.

(2) Subsection (1)(b) may not be used as a defense to conduct described in Section 76-5-308.5.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-5-307 Definitions.

As used in Sections 76-5-308 through 76-5-310.1 of this part:

(1) "Child" means an individual younger than 18 years old.

(2) "Commercial purpose" includes direct or indirect participation in or facilitation of the transportation of one or more individuals for the purpose of:

(a) charging or obtaining a fee for the transportation; or

(b) obtaining, exchanging, or receiving any thing or item of value or an attempt to conduct any of these activities.

(3) "Facilitation" regarding transportation under Subsection (2) includes providing:

(a) travel arrangement services;

(b) payment for the costs of travel; or

(c) property that would advance an act of transportation, including a vehicle or other means of transportation, a weapon, false identification, and making lodging available, including by rent, lease, or sale.

(4) "Family member" means an individual's parent, grandparent, sibling, or any other individual related to the individual by consanguinity or affinity to the second degree.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-5-308 Human trafficking for labor.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-5-307 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits human trafficking for labor if the actor recruits, harbors, transports, obtains, patronizes, or solicits an individual for labor through the use of force, fraud, or coercion, which may include:

(a) threatening serious harm to, or physical restraint against, that individual or another individual;

(b) destroying, concealing, removing, confiscating, or possessing any passport, immigration document, or other government-issued identification document;

(c) abusing or threatening abuse of the law or legal process against the individual or another individual;

(d) using a condition of an individual being a debtor due to a pledge of the individual's personal services or the personal services of an individual under the control of the debtor as a security for debt where the reasonable value of the services is not applied toward the liquidation of the debt or the length and nature of those services are not respectively limited and defined;

(e) using a condition of servitude by means of any scheme, plan, or pattern intended to cause an individual to believe that if the individual did not enter into or continue in a condition of servitude, the individual or another individual would suffer serious harm or physical restraint, or would be threatened with abuse of legal process; or

(f) creating or exploiting a relationship where the individual is dependent upon the actor.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony.

(4) Human trafficking for labor includes any labor obtained through force, fraud, or coercion as described in Subsection (2).

(5) This offense is a separate offense from any other crime committed in relationship to the commission of this offense.

Amended by Chapter 181, 2022 General Session

76-5-308.1 Human trafficking for sexual exploitation.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-5-307 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits human trafficking for sexual exploitation if the actor recruits, harbors, transports, obtains, patronizes, or solicits an individual for sexual exploitation through the use of force, fraud, or coercion, which may include:

(a) threatening serious harm to, or physical restraint against, that individual or another individual;

(b) destroying, concealing, removing, confiscating, or possessing any passport, immigration document, or other government-issued identification document;

(c) abusing or threatening abuse of the law or legal process against the individual or another individual;

(d) using a condition of an individual being a debtor due to a pledge of the individual's personal services or the personal services of an individual under the control of the debtor as a security for debt where the reasonable value of the services is not applied toward the liquidation of the debt or the length and nature of those services are not respectively limited and defined;

(e) using a condition of servitude by means of any scheme, plan, or pattern intended to cause an individual to believe that if the individual did not enter into or continue in a condition of servitude, the individual or another individual would suffer serious harm or physical restraint, or would be threatened with abuse of legal process; or

76-5-406.5 Circumstances required for probation or suspension of sentence for certain sex offenses against a child.

(1) In a case involving a conviction for an attempted violation of Section 76-5-402.1, rape of a child, Section 76-5-402.3, object rape of a child, Section 76-5-403.1, sodomy on a child, or Section 76-5-404.3, aggravated sexual abuse of a child, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and consider probation to a residential sexual abuse treatment center only if all of the following circumstances are found by the court to be present and the court in the court's discretion, considering the circumstances of the offense, including the nature, frequency, and duration of the conduct, and considering the best interests of the public and the child victim, finds probation to a residential sexual abuse treatment center to be proper:
(a) the defendant did not use a weapon, force, violence, substantial duress or menace, or threat of harm, in committing the offense or before or after committing the offense, in an attempt to frighten the child victim or keep the child victim from reporting the offense;
(b) the defendant did not cause bodily injury to the child victim during or as a result of the offense and did not cause the child victim severe psychological harm;
(c) the defendant, prior to the offense, had not been convicted of any public offense in Utah or elsewhere involving sexual misconduct in the commission of the offense;
(d) the defendant did not commit an offense described in this Part 4, Sexual Offenses, against more than one child victim or victim, at the same time, or during the same course of conduct, or previous to or subsequent to the instant offense;
(e) the defendant did not use, show, or display pornography or create sexually-related photographs or tape recordings in the course of the offense;
(f) the defendant did not act in concert with another offender during the offense or knowingly commit the offense in the presence of a person other than the victim or with lewd intent to reveal the offense to another;
(g) the defendant did not encourage, aid, allow, or benefit from any act of prostitution or sexual act by the child victim with any other person or sexual performance by the child victim before any other person;
(h) the defendant admits the offense of which he has been convicted and has been accepted for mental health treatment in a residential sexual abuse treatment center that has been approved by the Department of Corrections under Subsection (3);
(i) rehabilitation of the defendant through treatment is probable, based upon evidence provided by a treatment professional who has been approved by the Department of Corrections under Subsection (3) and who has accepted the defendant for treatment;

(j) prior to being sentenced, the defendant has undergone a complete psychological evaluation conducted by a professional approved by the Department of Corrections and:
(i) the professional's opinion is that the defendant is not an exclusive pedophile and does not present an immediate and present danger to the community if released on probation and placed in a residential sexual abuse treatment center; and
(ii) the court accepts the opinion of the professional;
(k) if the offense is committed by a parent, stepparent, adoptive parent, or legal guardian of the child victim, the defendant shall, in addition to establishing all other conditions of this section, establish it is in the child victim's best interest that the defendant not be imprisoned, by presenting evidence provided by a treatment professional who:
(i) is treating the child victim and understands he will be treating the family as a whole; or
(ii) has assessed the child victim for purposes of treatment as ordered by the court based on a showing of good cause; and
(l) if probation is imposed, the defendant, as a condition of probation, may not reside in a home where children younger than 18 years old reside for at least one year beginning with the commencement of treatment, and may not again take up residency in a home where children younger than 18 years old reside during the period of probation until allowed to do so by order of the court.

(2) A term of incarceration of at least 90 days is to be served prior to treatment and continue until the time when bed space is available at a residential sexual abuse treatment center as provided under Subsection (3) and probation is to be imposed for up to a maximum of 10 years.

(a) The Department of Corrections shall develop qualification criteria for the approval of the sexual abuse treatment programs and professionals under this section. The criteria shall include the screening criteria employed by the department for sexual offenders.
(b) The sexual abuse treatment program shall be at least one year in duration, shall be residential, and shall specifically address the sexual conduct for which the defendant was convicted.

(4) Establishment by the defendant of all the criteria of this section does not mandate the granting under this section of probation or modification of the sentence that would otherwise be imposed by Section 76-3-406 regarding sexual offenses against children. The court has discretion to deny the request based upon its consideration of the circumstances of the offense, including:
(a) the nature, frequency, and duration of the conduct;
(b) the effects of the conduct on any child victim involved;
(c) the best interest of the public and any child victim; and
(d) the characteristics of the defendant, including any risk the defendant presents to the public and specifically to children.

(5) The defendant has the burden to establish by a preponderance of evidence eligibility under all of the criteria of this section.

(6) If the court finds a defendant granted probation under this section fails to cooperate or succeed in treatment or violates probation to any substantial degree, the sentence previously imposed for the offense shall be immediately executed.

(7) The court shall enter written findings of fact regarding the conditions established by the defendant that justify the granting of probation under this section.

(8) In cases involving conviction of any sexual offense against a child other than those offenses provided in Subsection (1), the court shall consider the circumstances described in Subsection (1) as advisory in determining whether or not execution of sentence should be suspended and probation granted. The defendant is not required to satisfy all of those circumstances for eligibility pursuant to this Subsection (8).

(C) a special function officer, as defined in Section 53-13-105; or

(D) an employee of, or private provider or contractor for, the Department of Corrections or a county jail.

(ii) "Indecent liberties" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-401.1.

(iii) "Person in custody" means an individual, either an adult 18 years old or older, or a minor younger than 18 years old, who is:

(A) a prisoner, as defined in Section 76-5-101, and includes a prisoner who is in the custody of the Department of Corrections created under Section 64-13-2, but who is being housed at the Utah State Hospital established under Section 26B-5-302 or other medical facility;

(B) under correctional supervision, such as at a work release facility or as a parolee or probationer; or

(C) under lawful or unlawful arrest, either with or without a warrant.

(iv) "Private provider or contractor" means a person that contracts or enters into a memorandum of understanding with a governmental or private entity to provide services or functions that are part of the operation of the Department of Corrections or a county jail under state or local law.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(a) An actor commits custodial sexual relations if the actor commits any of the acts under Subsection (2)(b):

(i) under circumstances not amounting to commission of, or an attempt to commit, an offense under Subsection (4); and

(ii)

(A) the actor knows that the individual is a person in custody; or

(B) a reasonable person in the actor's position should have known under the circumstances that the individual was a person in custody.

(b) Acts referred to in Subsection (2)(a) are:

(i) having sexual intercourse with a person in custody;

(ii) engaging in a sexual act with a person in custody involving the genitals of one individual and the mouth or anus of another individual; or

(iii)

76-5-419 Lewdness.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Common area of a privacy space" means any area of a privacy space other than:
(A) a toilet stall with a closed door;
(B) immediately in front of a urinal during use; or
(C) a shower stall with a closed door or other closed covering.
(ii) "Privacy space" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-12-309.
(iii) "Sex-designated" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-12-309.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) Under circumstances not amounting to an offense listed in Subsection (4), an actor commits lewdness if:
(a) the actor performs:
(i) an act of sexual intercourse or sodomy;
(ii) an act exposing the actor's:
(A) genitals;
(B) female breast below the top of the areola if the actor is female;
(C) buttocks, anus, or pubic area;
(iii) masturbates; or
(iv) any other act of lewdness; and
(b) an action described in Subsection (2)(a) is undertaken:
(i) in a public place; or
(ii) under circumstances which the actor should know will likely cause affront or alarm to, on, or in the presence of another individual who is 14 years old or older.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if at the time of the violation:
(i) the actor is a sex offender as defined in Section 57-8a-102;
(ii) the actor has previously been convicted two or more times of a violation of Subsection (2);
(iii) the actor has previously been convicted of:
(A) a violation of Subsection (2); and
(B) a violation of Section 76-5-420;
(iv) the actor also commits the offense of:
(A) criminal trespass resulting from unlawfully entering a sex-designated changing room as described in Subsection 76-6-206(2)(d);
(B) lewdness involving a child as described in Section 76-5-420;
(C) voyeurism as described in Section 76-12-306;
(D) recorded or photographed voyeurism as described in Section 76-12-307;

(iii) "In the presence of" includes within visual contact through an electronic device.
(iv) "Privacy space" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-12-309.
(v) "Sex-designated" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-12-309.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits lewdness involving a child if:
(a) the actor, under circumstances not amounting to an offense listed in Subsection (4), intentionally or knowingly does any of the following in the presence of a child:
(i) performs an act of sexual intercourse or sodomy;
(ii) exposes the actor's genitals, female breast below the top of the areola, buttocks, anus, or pubic area:
(A) in a public place; or
(B) in a private place under circumstances the actor should know will likely cause affront or alarm or with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of the actor or the child; or
(iii) masturbates;

(b) the actor is 18 years old or older and, under circumstances not amounting to an offense listed in Subsection (4), intentionally or knowingly does any of the following in the presence of a child with the intent to cause affront or alarm to the child or with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of the actor or the child:
(i) simulates masturbation;
(ii) performs an act of simulated intercourse or sodomy;
(iii) displays the actor's male genitals or prosthetic male genitals in a discernibly turgid state, even if completely and opaquely covered;
(iv) engages in erotic touching of the actor's nude breast, regardless of the actor's sex or how the breast was developed or created; or
(v) involves a child in an act that would lead a reasonable person to conclude that the child is engaging in an act of:
(A) simulated intercourse or sodomy; or
(B) simulated masturbation;
(c) the actor, under circumstances not amounting to sexual exploitation of a minor under Section 76-5b-201 or aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor under Section 76-5b-201.1, intentionally or knowingly causes a child to expose the child's genitals, anus, or breast, if female, to the actor, with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of the actor or the child; or
(d) the actor performs any other act of lewdness.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if at the time of the violation, the actor:
(i) is a sex offender as described in Subsection 53-29-202(2)(b) and the offense that the actor committed that resulted in the actor being a sex offender was committed against an individual younger than 18 years old;
(ii) previously has been convicted of a violation of this section;
(iii) commits the violation of Subsection (2) while also committing the offense of:
(A) lewdness as described in Section 76-5-419;
(B) criminal trespass resulting from unlawfully entering a sex-designated changing room as described in Subsection 76-6-206(2)(d);
(C) voyeurism as described in Section 76-12-306;
(D) recorded or photographed voyeurism as described in Section 76-12-307;

Chapter 5b
Sexual Exploitation Act

Part 1
General Provisions

76-5b-102 Legislative determinations -- Purpose of chapter.

(1) The Legislature of Utah determines that:

(a) the sexual exploitation of a minor is excessively harmful to the minor's physiological, emotional, social, and mental development;

(b) the sexual exploitation of a vulnerable adult who lacks the capacity to consent to sexual exploitation can result in excessive harm to the vulnerable adult's physiological, emotional, and social well-being;

(c) a minor cannot intelligently and knowingly consent to sexual exploitation;

(d) regardless of whether it is classified as legally obscene, material that sexually exploits a minor, or a vulnerable adult who does not have the capacity to consent to sexual exploitation, is not protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution or by the First or Fifteenth sections of Article I of the Utah Constitution and may be prohibited; and

(e) prohibition of and punishment for the distribution, possession, possession with intent to distribute, and production of materials that sexually exploit a minor, or a vulnerable adult who lacks the capacity to consent to sexual exploitation, is necessary and justified to eliminate the market for those materials and to reduce the harm to the minor or vulnerable adult inherent in the perpetuation of the record of the minor's or vulnerable adult's sexually exploitive activities.

(2) It is the purpose of this chapter to prohibit the production, possession, possession with intent to distribute, and distribution of materials that sexually exploit a minor, or a vulnerable adult who lacks capacity to consent to sexual exploitation, regardless of whether the materials are classified as legally obscene.

(4) "Female breast" means the undeveloped, partially developed, or developed breast of a female individual.

(5) "Identifiable minor" means an individual:

(a)

(i) who was a minor at the time the visual depiction was created, adapted, or modified; or

(ii) whose image as a minor was used in creating, adapting, or modifying the visual depiction; and

(b) who is recognizable as an actual individual by the individual's face, likeness, or other distinguishing characteristic, such as a birthmark, or other recognizable feature.

(6) "Identifiable vulnerable adult" means an individual:

(a)

(i) who was a vulnerable adult at the time the visual depiction was created, adapted, or modified; or

(ii) whose image as a vulnerable adult was used in creating, adapting, or modifying the visual depiction; and

(b) who is recognizable as an actual individual by the individual's face, likeness, or other distinguishing characteristic, such as a birthmark, or other recognizable feature.

(7) "Lacks capacity to consent" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-111.4.

(8) "Live performance" means any act, play, dance, pantomime, song, or other activity performed by live actors in person.

(9) "Minor" means an individual who is younger than 18 years old.

(10) "Nudity or partial nudity" means any state of dress or undress in which the human genitals, pubic region, buttocks, or the female breast, at a point below the top of the areola, is less than completely and opaquely covered.

(11) "Produce" means:

(a) the photographing, filming, taping, directing, producing, creating, designing, or composing of child sexual abuse material or vulnerable adult sexual abuse material; or

(b) the securing or hiring of individuals to engage in the photographing, filming, taping, directing, producing, creating, designing, or composing of child sexual abuse material or vulnerable adult sexual abuse material.

(12) "Sexually explicit conduct" means actual or simulated:

(a) sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal, whether between individuals of the same or opposite sex;

(b) masturbation;

(c) bestiality;

(d) sadistic or masochistic activities;

(e) lascivious exhibition of the genitals, pubic region, buttocks, or female breast of any individual;

(f) the visual depiction of nudity or partial nudity for the purpose of causing sexual arousal of any individual;

(g) the fondling or touching of the genitals, pubic region, buttocks, or female breast; or

(h) the visual depiction of defecation or urination for the purpose of causing sexual arousal of any individual.

(13) "Simulated sexually explicit conduct" means a feigned or pretended act of sexually explicit conduct which duplicates, within the perception of an average person, the appearance of an actual act of sexually explicit conduct.

(14) "Vulnerable adult" means the same as that term is defined in Subsection 76-5-111(1).

(15) "Vulnerable adult sexual abuse material" means any visual depiction, including any live performance, photograph, film, video, picture, or computer or computer-generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, of sexually explicit conduct, where:

(a) the production of the visual depiction involves the use of a vulnerable adult engaging in sexually explicit conduct;

(b) the visual depiction is of a vulnerable adult engaging in sexually explicit conduct; or

(c) the visual depiction has been created, adapted, or modified to appear that an identifiable vulnerable adult is engaging in sexually explicit conduct.

Part 2
Sexual Exploitation

76-5b-201 Sexual exploitation of a minor -- Offenses.

(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits sexual exploitation of a minor when the actor knowingly possesses, views, accesses with the intent to view, or maintains access with the intent to view, child sexual abuse material.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony.

(b) It is a separate offense under this section:

(i) for each minor depicted in the child sexual abuse material; and

(ii) for each time the same minor is depicted in different child sexual abuse material.

(4) For a charge of violating this section, it is an affirmative defense that:

(a) the defendant:

(i) did not solicit the child sexual abuse material from the minor depicted in the child sexual abuse material;

(ii) is not more than two years older than the minor depicted in the child sexual abuse material; and

(iii) upon request of a law enforcement agent or the minor depicted in the child sexual abuse material, removes from an electronic device or destroys the child sexual abuse material and all copies of the child sexual abuse material in the defendant's possession; and

(b) the child sexual abuse material does not depict an offense under Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417, 76-5-418, 76-5-419, or 76-5-420.

(5) In proving a violation of this section in relation to an identifiable minor, proof of the actual identity of the identifiable minor is not required.

(6) The following are not criminally or civilly liable under this section when acting in good faith compliance with Section 77-4-201:

(a) an entity or an employee, director, officer, or agent of an entity when acting within the scope of employment, for the good faith performance of:

(i) reporting or data preservation duties required under federal or state law; or

(ii) implementing a policy of attempting to prevent the presence of child sexual abuse material on tangible or intangible property, or of detecting and reporting the presence of child sexual abuse material on the property;

(b) a law enforcement officer, a civilian employee of a law enforcement agency, or an independent contractor who is contracted with a law enforcement agency, acting within the scope of a criminal investigation;

(c) an employee of a court who may be required to view child sexual abuse material during the course of and within the scope of the employee's employment;

(d) a juror who may be required to view child sexual abuse material during the course of the individual's service as a juror;
(e) an attorney or employee of an attorney who is required to view child sexual abuse material during the course of a judicial process and while acting within the scope of employment;
(f) an employee of the Department of Health and Human Services who is required to view child sexual abuse material within the scope of the employee's employment;
(g) an employee, independent contractor, or designated interviewer of a Children's Justice Center, who is required to view child sexual abuse material within the scope of the employee's, independent contractor's, or designated interviewer's scope of employment or assignment;
(h) an attorney who is required to view child sexual abuse material within the scope of the attorney's responsibility to represent the Department of Health and Human Services, including the divisions and offices within the Department of Health and Human Services.

76-5b-201.1 Aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor.
(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor if the actor:
(a) knowingly distributes or produces child sexual abuse material; or
(b) is the minor's parent or legal guardian and knowingly consents to or permits the minor to be sexually exploited as described in Subsection (2)(a) or Section 76-5b-201.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a first degree felony.
(b) If an actor is under 18 years old at the time of the offense, a violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony.
(4) It is a separate offense under this section:
(a) for each minor depicted in the child sexual abuse material; and
(b) for each time the same minor is depicted in different child sexual abuse material.
(5) In proving a violation of this section in relation to an identifiable minor, proof of the actual identity of the identifiable minor is not required.
(6) The following are not criminally or civilly liable under this section when acting in good faith compliance with Section 77-4-201:
(a) an entity or an employee, director, officer, or agent of an entity when acting within the scope of employment, for the good faith performance of:
(i) reporting or data preservation duties required under federal or state law; or
(ii) implementing a policy of attempting to prevent the presence of child sexual abuse material on tangible or intangible property, or of detecting and reporting the presence of child sexual abuse material on the property;
(b) a law enforcement officer, a civilian employee of a law enforcement agency, or an independent contractor who is contracted with a law enforcement agency, acting within the scope of a criminal investigation;
(c) an employee of a court who may be required to view child sexual abuse material during the course of and within the scope of the employee's employment;
(d) a juror who may be required to view child sexual abuse material during the course of the individual's service as a juror;

(e) an attorney or employee of an attorney who is required to view child sexual abuse material during the course of a judicial process and while acting within the scope of employment;
(f) an employee of the Department of Health and Human Services who is required to view child sexual abuse material within the scope of the employee's employment;
(g) an employee, independent contractor, or designated interviewer of a Children's Justice Center, who is required to view child sexual abuse material within the scope of the employee's, independent contractor's, or designated interviewer's scope of employment or assignment; or
(h) an attorney who is required to view child sexual abuse material within the scope of the attorney's responsibility to represent the Department of Health and Human Services, including the divisions and offices within the Department of Health and Human Services.

76-5b-202 Sexual exploitation of a vulnerable adult -- Offenses.
(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits sexual exploitation of a vulnerable adult if the actor:
(a)
(i)
(A) knowingly produces, possesses, or possesses with intent to distribute material that the actor knows is vulnerable adult sexual abuse material; or
(B) intentionally distributes or views material that the actor knows is vulnerable adult sexual abuse material; and
(ii) the vulnerable adult who appears in, or is depicted in, the vulnerable adult sexual abuse material lacks capacity to consent to the conduct described in Subsection (2)(a); or
(b) is a vulnerable adult's legal guardian and knowingly consents to, or permits the vulnerable adult to be, sexually exploited as described in Subsection (2)(a).
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.
(b) It is a separate offense under this section:
(i) for each vulnerable adult depicted in the vulnerable adult sexual abuse material; and
(ii) for each time the same vulnerable adult is depicted in different vulnerable adult sexual abuse material.
(4) It is an affirmative defense to a charge of violating this section that no vulnerable adult was actually depicted in the visual depiction or used in producing or advertising the visual depiction.
(5) In proving a violation of this section in relation to an identifiable vulnerable adult, proof of the actual identity of the identifiable vulnerable adult is not required.
(6) This section may not be construed to impose criminal or civil liability on:
(a) any entity or an employee, director, officer, or agent of an entity, when acting within the scope of employment, for the good faith performance of:
(i) reporting or data preservation duties required under any federal or state law; or
(ii) implementing a policy of attempting to prevent the presence of vulnerable adult sexual abuse material on any tangible or intangible property, or of detecting and reporting the presence of vulnerable adult sexual abuse material on the property; or
(b) any law enforcement officer acting within the scope of a criminal investigation.

76-5b-203 Distribution of an intimate image -- Penalty.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Intimate image" means any visual depiction, photograph, film, video, recording, picture, or computer or computer-generated image, picture, or video, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, that depicts:

(A) exposed human male or female genitals or pubic area, with less than an opaque covering;

(B) a female breast with less than an opaque covering, or any portion of the female breast below the top of the areola; or

(C) the individual engaged in any sexually explicit conduct.

(ii) "Sexually explicit conduct" means actual or simulated:

(A) sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal, whether between individuals of the same or opposite sex;

(B) masturbation;

(C) bestiality;

(D) sadistic or masochistic activities;

(E) exhibition of the genitals, pubic region, buttocks, or female breast of any individual;

(F) visual depiction of nudity or partial nudity;

(G) fondling or touching of the genitals, pubic region, buttocks, or female breast; or

(H) visual depiction of defecation or urination for the purpose of causing sexual arousal of any individual.

(iii) "Simulated sexually explicit conduct" means a feigned or pretended act of sexually explicit conduct that duplicates, within the perception of an average person, the appearance of an actual act of sexually explicit conduct.

(iv) "Single criminal episode" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-1-401.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(a) An actor commits the offense of distribution of an intimate image if:

(i) the actor knowingly or intentionally distributes to a third party, or knowingly duplicates or copies an intimate image of an individual who is 18 years old or older and knows or should know that the distribution, duplication or copying would cause a reasonable person to suffer emotional distress or harm;

(ii) the actor has not received consent from the individual depicted in the image to distribute the intimate image;

(iii) the intimate image was created by or provided to the actor under circumstances in which the individual depicted in the image has a reasonable expectation of privacy; and

(iv) except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), actual emotional distress or harm is caused to the individual depicted in the image as a result of the distribution.

(b) Subsection (2)(a)(iv) is not an element of the offense described in Subsection (2)(a) if:

(i) the individual depicted in the intimate image was the victim of a crime;

(ii) the intimate image was provided to law enforcement as part of an investigation or prosecution of a crime committed against the victim;

(iii) the intimate image was distributed without a legitimate law enforcement or investigative purpose by an individual who had access to the intimate image due to the individual's association with the investigation or prosecution described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii); and

(iv) the victim is incapacitated or deceased.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony on a second or subsequent conviction for an offense under this section that does not arise from a single criminal episode.
(4) This section does not apply to:
(a) except as provided in Section 76-5b-203.5:
(i) lawful practices of law enforcement agencies;
(ii) prosecutorial agency functions;
(iii) the reporting of a criminal offense;
(iv) court proceedings or any other judicial proceeding; or
(v) lawful and generally accepted medical practices and procedures;
(b) an intimate image if the individual portrayed in the image voluntarily allows public exposure of the image;
(c) an intimate image that is portrayed in a lawful commercial setting; or
(d) an intimate image that is related to a matter of public concern or interest.
(5)
(a) This section does not apply to an Internet service provider or interactive computer service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230(f)(2), a provider of an electronic communications service as defined in 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2510, a telecommunications service, information service, or mobile service as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 153, including a commercial mobile service as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 332(d), or a cable operator as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 522, if:
(i) the distribution of an intimate image by the Internet service provider occurs only incidentally through the provider's function of:
(A) transmitting or routing data from one person to another person; or
(B) providing a connection between one person and another person;
(ii) the provider does not intentionally aid or abet in the distribution of the intimate image; and
(iii) the provider does not knowingly receive from or through a person who distributes the intimate image a fee greater than the fee generally charged by the provider, as a specific condition for permitting the person to distribute the intimate image.
(b) This section does not apply to a hosting company, as defined in Section 76-5c-401, if:
(i) the distribution of an intimate image by the hosting company occurs only incidentally through the hosting company's function of providing data storage space or data caching to a person;
(ii) the hosting company does not intentionally engage, aid, or abet in the distribution of the intimate image; and
(iii) the hosting company does not knowingly receive from or through a person who distributes the intimate image a fee greater than the fee generally charged by the provider, as a specific condition for permitting the person to distribute, store, or cache the intimate image.
(c) A service provider, as defined in Section 76-5c-401, is not negligent under this section if it complies with Section 76-5c-402.

76-5b-203.5 Misuse of intimate image during a criminal action.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Criminal action" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-1-3.
(ii) "Intimate image" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5b-203.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits misuse of an intimate image during a criminal action if the actor:
(a) obtains access to an intimate image in the course of a criminal action; and
(b) intentionally displays, duplicates, copies, or shares the intimate image, unless:
(i) displaying, duplicating, copying, or sharing the intimate image is done solely for the purpose of the adjudication, defense, prosecution or investigation of a criminal matter involving the intimate image;
(ii) each individual who is the subject of the intimate image gives written permission to display, duplicate, copy, or share the intimate image; or
(iii) the intimate image was not created by or provided to the actor under circumstances in which the depicted individual has a reasonable expectation of privacy.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a class A misdemeanor for a first offense; or
(b) a third degree felony for each subsequent offense.
(4) Nothing in this section precludes an agency that employs an individual who is involved in a criminal action from establishing internal policies for an individual's violation of this section.

76-5b-204 Sexual extortion -- Penalties.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Adult" means an individual 18 years old or older.
(ii) "Child" means any individual under 18 years old.
(iii) "Counterfeit intimate image" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5b-205.
(iv) "Intimate image" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5b-203.
(v) "Position of special trust" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-404.1.
(vi) "Sexually explicit conduct" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5b-203.
(vii) "Simulated sexually explicit conduct" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5b-203.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2)
(a) An actor commits the offense of sexual extortion if the actor:
(i) with an intent to coerce a victim to engage in sexual contact, in sexually explicit conduct, or in simulated sexually explicit conduct, or to produce, provide, or distribute an image, video, or other recording of any individual naked or engaged in sexually explicit conduct, communicates by any means a threat:
(A) to the victim's person, property, or reputation; or
(B) to distribute an intimate image, counterfeit intimate image, or video of the victim;
(ii) knowingly causes a victim to engage in sexual contact, in sexually explicit conduct, or in simulated sexually explicit conduct, or to produce, provide, or distribute any image, video, or other recording of any individual naked or engaged in sexually explicit conduct by means of a threat:
(A) to the victim's person, property, or reputation; or
(B) to distribute an intimate image, counterfeit intimate image, or video of the victim; or
(iii) with intent to obtain a thing of value from a victim communicates, by any means, a threat to distribute an intimate image, counterfeit intimate image, or video of the victim.

(b) An actor commits aggravated sexual extortion when, in conjunction with the offense described in Subsection (2)(a), any of the following circumstances have been charged and admitted or found true in the action for the offense:
(i) the victim is a child or vulnerable adult;
(ii) the offense was committed by the use of a dangerous weapon or by violence, intimidation, menace, fraud, or threat of physical harm, or was committed during the course of a kidnapping;
(iii) the victim suffered bodily injury or severe psychological injury during, or as a result of, the offense;
(iv) the actor was a stranger to the victim, or became a friend of the victim, for the purpose of committing the offense;
(v) the actor, before sentencing for the offense, was previously convicted of any sexual offense;
(vi) the actor occupied a position of special trust in relation to the victim;
(vii) the actor encouraged, aided, allowed, or benefitted from acts of prostitution or sexual acts by the victim with any other individual, or sexual performance by the victim before any other individual, human trafficking, or human smuggling; or (viii) the actor caused the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal opening of the victim by any part or parts of the human body, or by any other object.

(3)
(a) If the actor is an adult:
(i) a violation of Subsection (2)(a) is a third degree felony;
(ii) a violation of Subsection (2)(b)(i), (ii), (iv), (v), (vi), (vii), or (viii) in which the victim is an adult is a second degree felony;
(iii) a violation of Subsection (2)(b)(iii) in which the victim is an adult is a first degree felony; or
(iv) a violation of Subsection (2)(b) in which the victim is a child or a vulnerable adult is a first degree felony.
(b) If the actor is a child:
(i) a violation of Subsection (2)(a) is a class A misdemeanor; or
(ii) a violation of Subsection (2)(b) is a third degree felony if there is more than a two-year age gap between the actor and the victim.
(c) An actor commits a separate offense under this section:
(i) for each victim the actor subjects to the offense outlined in Subsection (2)(a); and
(ii) for each separate time the actor subjects a victim to the offense outlined Subsection (2)(a).
(d) This section does not preclude an actor from being charged and convicted of a separate criminal act if the actor commits the separate criminal act while the individual violates or attempts to violate this section.

(4) An interactive computer service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230, is not subject to liability under this section related to content provided by a user of the interactive computer service.

76-5b-205 Unlawful distribution of a counterfeit intimate image -- Penalty.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Child" means an individual under 18 years old.
(ii) "Counterfeit intimate image" means any visual depiction, photograph, film, video, recording, picture, or computer or computer-generated image , picture, or video, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, that has been edited, manipulated, generated, or altered to depict the likeness of an identifiable individual and purports to, or is made to appear to, depict that individual's:

(A) exposed human male or female genitals or pubic area, with less than an opaque covering;

(B) a female breast with less than an opaque covering, or any portion of the female breast below the top of the areola; or

(C) the individual engaged in any sexually explicit conduct or simulated sexually explicit conduct.

(iii) "Sexually explicit conduct" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5b-203.

(iv) "Simulated sexually explicit conduct" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5b-203.

(v) "Single criminal episode" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-1-401.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2)

(a) An actor commits the offense of unlawful distribution of a counterfeit intimate image if the actor knowingly or intentionally distributes a counterfeit intimate image that the actor knows or should reasonably know would cause a reasonable person to suffer emotional or physical distress or harm, if:

(i) the actor has not received consent from the depicted individual to distribute the counterfeit intimate image; and

(ii) the counterfeit intimate image was created or provided by the actor without the knowledge and consent of the depicted individual.

(b) An actor who is 18 years old or older commits aggravated unlawful distribution of a counterfeit intimate image if, in committing the offense described in Subsection (2)(a), the individual depicted in the counterfeit intimate image is a child.

(i) A violation of Subsection (2)(a) that is knowing or intentional is a class A misdemeanor.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a)(i), a violation of Subsection (2)(a) that is knowing or intentional is a third degree felony on a second or subsequent conviction for an offense under this section that does not arise from a single criminal episode.

(b)

(i) A violation of Subsection (2)(b) that is knowing or intentional is a third degree felony.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(b)(i), a violation of Subsection (2)(b) that is knowing or intentional is a second degree felony on a second or subsequent conviction for an offense under this section that does not arise from a single criminal episode.

(c) This section does not apply to an actor who engages in conduct that constitutes a violation of this section to the extent that the actor is chargeable, for the same conduct, under Section 76-5b-201, sexual exploitation of a minor, or Section 76-5b-201.1, aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor.

(4) This section does not apply to:

(a)

(i) lawful practices of law enforcement agencies;

(ii) prosecutorial agency functions;

(iii) the reporting of a criminal offense;

(iv) court proceedings or any other judicial proceeding; or

(v) lawful and generally accepted medical practices and procedures;

(b) a counterfeit intimate image if the individual depicted in the image voluntarily allows public exposure of the image;

(c) a counterfeit intimate image that is portrayed in a lawful commercial setting; or
(d) a counterfeit intimate image that is related to a matter of public concern or interest or protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution or Article I, Sections 1 and 15 of the Utah Constitution.

(5)
(a) This section does not apply to an Internet service provider or interactive computer service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230(f)(2), a provider of an electronic communications service as defined in 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2510, a telecommunications service, information service, or mobile service as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 153, including a commercial mobile service as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 332(d), or a cable operator as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 522, if:
(i) the distribution of a counterfeit intimate image by the Internet service provider occurs only incidentally through the provider's function of:
(A) transmitting or routing data from one person to another person; or
(B) providing a connection between one person and another person;
(ii) the provider does not intentionally aid or abet in the distribution of the counterfeit intimate image; and
(iii) the provider does not knowingly receive from or through a person who distributes the counterfeit intimate image a fee greater than the fee generally charged by the provider, as a specific condition for permitting the person to distribute the counterfeit intimate image.
(b) This section does not apply to a hosting company, as defined in Section 76-5c-401, if:
(i) the distribution of a counterfeit intimate image by the hosting company occurs only incidentally through the hosting company's function of providing data storage space or data caching to a person;
(ii) the hosting company does not intentionally engage, aid, or abet in the distribution of the counterfeit intimate image;
(iii) the hosting company does not knowingly receive from or through a person who distributes the counterfeit intimate image a fee greater than the fee generally charged by the provider, as a specific condition for permitting the person to distribute, store, or cache the counterfeit intimate image; and
(iv) the hosting company immediately removes the counterfeit intimate image upon notice from a law enforcement agency, prosecutorial agency, or the individual purportedly depicted in the counterfeit intimate image.
(c) A service provider, as defined in Section 76-5c-401, is not negligent under this section if it complies with Section 76-5c-402.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5b-206 Failure to report child sexual abuse material by a computer technician.

(1)
(a) As used in this section, "computer technician" means an individual who in the course and scope of the individual's employment for compensation installs, maintains, troubleshoots, upgrades, or repairs computer hardware, software, personal computer networks, or peripheral equipment.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-5b-103 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits failure to report child sexual abuse material by a computer technician if:
(a) the actor is a computer technician;
(b) in the actor's course of employment for compensation the actor views an image on a computer or other electronic device that:

(i) is child sexual abuse material;
(ii) appears to be child sexual abuse material; or
(iii) the actor reasonably believes is child sexual abuse material; and
(c) the actor willfully fails to immediately report the finding of the image to:
(i) a state or local law enforcement agency;
(ii) the Cyber Tip Line at the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children; or
(iii) an employee designated by the employer of the computer technician in accordance with Subsection (7).
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) a class B misdemeanor.
(4) The identity of the computer technician who reports an image that is or appears to be child sexual abuse material shall be confidential, except as necessary for the criminal investigation and the judicial process.
(5)
(a) If a computer technician makes or does not make a report under this section and is acting in good faith, the technician is immune from any criminal or civil liability related to reporting or not reporting the image.
(b) Good faith described in Subsection (5)(a) may be presumed from a computer technician's previous course of conduct when the computer technician has made appropriate reports.
(6) It is a defense to prosecution under this section that the computer technician did not report the image because the computer technician reasonably believed the image did not depict an individual younger than 18 years old.
(7)
(a) An employer of a computer technician may implement a procedure that requires:
(i) the computer technician report an image as is required under Subsection (2) to an employee designated by the employer to receive the report of the image; and
(ii) the designated employee to immediately forward the report provided by the computer technician to an agency described in Subsection (2)(c)(i).
(b) Compliance by the computer technician and the designated employee with the reporting process under Subsection (7)(a) is compliance with the reporting requirement of Subsection (2)(c) and establishes immunity under Subsection (5)(a).
(8) This section does not apply to an Internet service provider or interactive computer service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230(f)(2), a provider of an electronic communications service as defined in 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2510, a telecommunications service, information service, or mobile service as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 153, including a commercial mobile service as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 332(d), or a cable operator as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 522, if the provider reports the image in compliance with 18 U.S.C. 2258A or a successor federal statute that requires reporting by a provider of an image of child sexual abuse material.

Part 3
Miscellaneous

76-5b-301 Determination whether material violates chapter.
(1) In determining whether material is in violation of this chapter, the material need not be considered as a whole, but may be examined by the trier of fact in part only.

(2) It is not an element of the offense of sexual exploitation of a minor that the material appeal to the prurient interest in sex of the average person nor that prohibited conduct need be portrayed in a patently offensive manner.
(3) It is not an element of the offense of sexual exploitation of a vulnerable adult that the material appeal to the prurient interest in sex of the average person nor that prohibited conduct need be portrayed in a patently offensive manner.

Chapter 5c
Pornographic and Harmful Materials and Performances

Part 1
General Provisions

76-5c-101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:
(1) "Blinder rack" means an opaque cover that covers the lower 2/3 of a material so that the lower 2/3 of the material is concealed from view.
(2) "Constructive awareness" means that:
(a) a reasonable inspection or observation by an individual under the circumstances would have disclosed the nature of the subject matter; and
(b) a failure to inspect or observe by the individual is either for the purpose of avoiding the disclosure or the individual is criminally negligent.
(3) "Contemporary community standards" means those current standards in the vicinage where an offense alleged under this part has occurred, is occurring, or will occur.
(4) "Criminally negligent" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-2-103.
(5) "Distribute" means to transfer possession of a material with or without consideration.
(6) "Exhibit" means to show.
(7)

(a) "Harmful to minors" means that quality of any description or representation, in whatsoever form, of nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse when it:
(i) taken as a whole, appeals to the prurient interest in sex of minors;
(ii) is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable material for minors; and
(iii) taken as a whole, does not have serious value for minors.
(b) Serious value includes only serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value for minors.
(8) "Knowingly," regarding material or a performance, means an awareness, whether actual awareness or constructive awareness, of the character of the material or performance.
(9)
(a) "Material" means anything printed or written or any picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture, or pictorial representation, or any statue or other figure, or any recording or transcription, or any mechanical, chemical, or electrical reproduction, or anything which is or may be used as a means of communication.
(b) "Material" includes undeveloped photographs, molds, printing plates, and other latent representational objects.
(10) "Minor" means an individual younger than 18 years old.
(11) "Negligently" means simple negligence, the failure to exercise that degree of care that a reasonable and prudent person would exercise under like or similar circumstances.
(12) "Nudity" means:
(a) the showing of the human male or female genitals, pubic area, or buttocks, with less than an opaque covering;
(b) the showing of a female breast with less than an opaque covering, or any portion of the female breast below the top of the areola; or
(c) the depiction of covered male genitals in a discernibly turgid state.
(13) "Performance" means any physical human bodily activity, whether engaged in alone or with other individuals, including singing, speaking, dancing, acting, simulating, or pantomiming.
(14) "Pornographic" means:
(a) the average individual, applying contemporary community standards, finds that, taken as a whole, the material or performance appeals to prurient interest in sex;
(b) the material or performance is patently offensive in the description or depiction of nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, sadomasochistic abuse, or excretion; and
(c) taken as a whole the material or performance does not have serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.
(15) "Public place" includes a place to which admission is gained by payment of a membership or admission fee, however designated, notwithstanding its being designated a private club or by words of like import.
(16) "Sadomasochistic abuse" means:
(a) flagellation or torture by or upon a person who is nude or clad in undergarments, a mask, or in a revealing or bizarre costume; or
(b) the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restrained on the part of an individual clothed as described in Subsection (14)(a).
(17) "Sexual conduct" means acts of masturbation, sexual intercourse, or any touching of an individual's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or, if the individual is a female, breast, whether alone or between members of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals in an act of apparent or actual sexual stimulation or gratification.

(18) "Sexual excitement" means a condition of human male or female genitals when in a state of sexual stimulation or arousal, or the sensual experiences of humans engaging in or witnessing sexual conduct or nudity.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-102 Evidence related to a material's or performance's literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.

(1) In a prosecution under this chapter, where circumstances of production, presentation, sale, dissemination, distribution, exhibition, or publicity indicate that the matter is being commercially exploited by the actor for the sake of the matter's prurient appeal, this evidence is probative with respect to the nature of the matter and can justify the conclusion that, in the context in which the matter is used, the matter has no serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.

(2) In a prosecution under this chapter neither the prosecution or the defense is required to introduce expert witness testimony to testify as to whether a material or performance is or is not harmful to adults or minors or is or is not pornographic, or as to any element of the definition of pornographic, including contemporary community standards.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-103 Relation to other state and local laws.

(1)

(a) A county, city, or other political subdivision has the right to regulate pornographic materials or materials harmful to minors as this chapter does not proscribe or limit the regulation of pornographic materials or materials harmful to minors by a county, city, or other political subdivision.

(b) Without limitation, a political subdivision may further regulate pornographic materials or materials harmful to minors by ordinances relating to:

(i) zoning;

(ii) licensing;

(iii) public nuisances;

(iv) a specific type of business such as adult bookstores or drive-in movies; or

(v) use of blinder racks.

(2) This chapter does not preclude the application of other laws of this state to pornographic materials or materials harmful to minors and, without limitation, this chapter is not in derogation of Subsection 76-9-1301(2) and Section 76-9-1306.

(3)

(a) The commission of a crime under this chapter offends public decency under Subsection 76-9-1301(2).

(b) It is the intent of this chapter to give the broadest meaning permissible under the United States Constitution and the Utah Constitution to the words "offends public decency" in Subsection 76-9-1301(2).

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-104 Injunctive relief -- Jurisdiction -- Consent to be sued.

(a) Subject to Subsections (1)(b), (c), (d), and (e), a district court has full power, authority, and jurisdiction, upon application by any county attorney or city attorney within the county attorney's or city attorney's respective jurisdictions or the attorney general, to issue any and all proper restraining orders, preliminary and permanent injunctions, and any other writs and processes appropriate to carry out and enforce the provisions of this chapter.
(b) No restraining order or injunction, however, shall issue except upon notice to the person sought to be enjoined.
(c) The person sought to be enjoined is entitled to a trial of the issues commencing within three days after the day on which the answer to the complaint is filed and a decision by the court is required to be rendered within two days after the conclusion of the trial.
(d) If a final order or judgment of injunction is entered against the person sought to be enjoined, this final order or judgment shall contain a provision directing the person to surrender to the sheriff of the county in which the action was brought any pornographic material in the person's possession which is subject to the injunction.
(e) The sheriff receiving the material described in Subsection (1)(d) shall be directed to seize and destroy the material.

(2) Any person not qualified to do business in the state who sends or brings any pornographic material into the state with the intent to distribute or exhibit the pornographic material to others in this state consents that the person may be sued in any proceedings commenced under this section.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-105 Lease void if property used for conduct prohibited by chapter.

(1) If a tenant or occupant of real property uses the real property for an activity for which the tenant or occupant or tenant's or occupant's employee is convicted under any provision of this chapter, the conviction makes void the lease or other title under which the tenant or occupant holds at the option of the fee owner or any intermediate lessor.
(2) Subject to Subsection (3), ten days after the day on which the fee owner or intermediate lessor gives notice in writing to the tenant or occupant that the fee owner or intermediate lessor is exercising the option to void the lease or other title as described in Subsection (1), the right of possession to the property reverts to the fee owner or intermediate lessor exercising the option.
(3) The fee owner's or intermediate lessor's option described in Subsection (2) does not arise until all avenues of direct appeal from the conviction have been exhausted or abandoned by the tenant or occupant, or the tenant's or occupant's employee.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-106 Corporate defendants -- Summons -- Subpoena duces tecum.

(a) The attendance in court by a corporation for purposes of commencing or prosecuting a criminal action against the corporation under this chapter may be accomplished by the issuance and service of a summons issued by a magistrate if the magistrate finds probable cause that material in the possession of the corporation is pornographic or harmful to minors, which finding shall be upon affidavit describing with specificity the material alleged to be pornographic or harmful to minors or by another manner or means the magistrate finds necessary.

(b) Where practical, the material alleged to be pornographic or harmful to minors shall be attached to the affidavit described in Subsection (1)(a) to provide the magistrate with the opportunity to examine the material.
(c) The summons must be served upon the corporation by delivery of the summons to an officer, director, managing or general agent, or cashier, or assistant cashier of the corporation.
(2) The production of material alleged to be pornographic or harmful to minors in any proceedings under this chapter against a corporation may be compelled by the issuance and service of a subpoena duces tecum.
(3) This section does not prohibit or limit the use of a subpoena duces tecum in proceedings against individuals under this chapter.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-107 Search and seizure -- Affidavit -- Issuance of warrant -- Hearing upon claim that material seized not pornographic or harmful to minors -- Procedures cumulative.
(1)
(a) An affidavit for a search warrant shall be filed with a magistrate describing with specificity the material sought to be seized.
(b) Where practical, the material alleged to be pornographic or harmful to minors shall be attached to the affidavit for a search warrant described in Subsection (1)(a) to provide the magistrate with the opportunity to examine the material.
(a) Upon the filing of an affidavit for a search warrant under Subsection (1), the magistrate shall determine, by examination of the material sought to be seized if attached, by examination of the affidavit describing the material, or by another manner or means that the magistrate finds necessary, whether probable cause exists to believe that the material is pornographic or harmful to minors and whether probable cause exists for the immediate issuance of a search warrant.
(b) Upon making the determination that probable cause exists under Subsection (2)(a), the magistrate shall issue a search warrant ordering the seizure of the material described in the affidavit for a search warrant according to the provisions of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure.
(3)
(a) If a search warrant is issued under Subsection (2) and the material alleged to be pornographic or harmful to minors is seized under the provisions of this section, any person claiming to be in possession of this material or claiming ownership of the material at the time of the material's seizure may file a notice in writing with the magistrate within 10 days after the day on which the material was seized, to assert that the material is not pornographic or harmful to minors.
(b) The magistrate shall set a hearing within seven days after the filing of the notice described in Subsection (3)(a), or at another time with the consent of the claimant, at which evidence may be presented regarding whether there is probable cause to believe that the material seized is pornographic or harmful to minors.
(c)
(i) At the conclusion of the hearing described in Subsection (3)(b), the magistrate shall make a further determination of whether probable cause exists to believe that the material is pornographic or harmful to minors.

(ii) The magistrate's determination described in Subsection (3)(c)(i) shall be rendered by the court within two days after the day on which the hearing described in Subsection (3)(b) concludes.

(d) If at the hearing described in Subsection (3)(b) the magistrate finds that no probable cause exists to believe that the material is pornographic or harmful to minors, the material shall be returned to the person from whom it was seized.

(e) If the material seized is a film, and the claimant demonstrates that no other copy of the film is available to the claimant, the court shall allow the film to be copied at the claimant's expense pending the hearing described in Subsection (3)(b).

(4) If a motion to suppress the evidence is granted on the grounds of an unlawful seizure, the property shall be restored unless it is subject to confiscation as contraband, in which case the property may not be returned.

(5)

(a) Procedures under this section for the seizure of allegedly pornographic material or material harmful to minors are cumulative of all other lawful means of obtaining evidence as provided by the laws of this state.

(b) This section does not prevent the obtaining of allegedly pornographic material or material harmful to minors by purchase, subpoena duces tecum, or under injunction proceedings as authorized by this act or by any other provision of law of the state.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-108 Prosecution by county, district, or city attorney.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), a prosecution for a violation of this chapter, including for a felony violation, shall be brought by the county attorney or, if within a prosecution district, the district attorney of the county where the violation occurs.

(2) If a violation occurs in a city of the first or second class, a prosecution may be brought by the county attorney, district attorney, or city attorney, notwithstanding any provision of law limiting the powers of a city attorney.

(3) All fines imposed for a violation of this chapter shall be paid to the county or city where the prosecuting attorney is located.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-109 Affirmative defenses.

(1) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under this chapter that the distribution of pornographic material is restricted to institutions or persons having scientific, educational, governmental, or other similar justification for possessing pornographic material.

(2) It is not a defense to a prosecution under this chapter that the actor is a motion picture projectionist, usher, ticket-taker, bookstore employee, or otherwise is required to violate this chapter incident to the actor's employment.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-110 Exemptions to chapter.

(1) This chapter does not apply to the Department of Corrections or any treatment program by or under contract with the Department of Corrections when the use of material that is pornographic is limited to the assessment or treatment of an offender as defined in Section 64-13-1.

(2) A woman breast feeding, including breast feeding in any location where the woman otherwise may rightfully be, does not under any circumstance constitute a violation of this chapter, irrespective of whether the woman's breast is covered during or incidental to feeding.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-111 Severability clause.

(1) If any provision, part, section, or subsection of this chapter or the application of any provision, part, section, or subsection to any person or circumstance is held invalid by a final decision of a court, the remainder of this chapter shall be given effect without the invalid provision, part, section, or subsection or application.

(2) The provisions of this chapter are severable.

Part 2
General Offenses

76-5c-201 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Hosting company" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5c-401.

(2) "Internet service provider" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5c-401.

Enacted by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-202 Distributing pornographic material.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-5c-101, and 76-5c-201 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits distributing pornographic material if the actor knowingly:

(a) sends or brings pornographic material into the state with intent to distribute or exhibit the pornographic material to another individual;

(b) prepares, publishes, prints, or possesses pornographic material with intent to distribute or exhibit the pornographic material to another individual;

(c) distributes or offers to distribute, or exhibits or offers to exhibit, pornographic material to another individual;

(d) writes, creates, or solicits the publication or advertising of pornographic material;

(e) promotes the distribution or exhibition of material the actor represents to be pornographic; or

(f) presents or directs a pornographic performance in a public place or a place exposed to public view or participates in that portion of the performance which makes the performance pornographic.

(3)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b) or (c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the actor is 18 years old or older and is subject to:

(i) a minimum mandatory fine of not less than $1,000, plus $10 for each article exhibited up to the maximum allowed by law; and
(ii) incarceration, without suspension of sentence in any way, for a term of not less than 30 days.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the actor is 16 or 17 years old.
(c) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor if the actor is younger than 16 years old.
(4) It is a separate offense under this section for:
(a) each day's exhibition of a pornographic motion picture film;
(b) each day in which a pornographic publication is displayed or exhibited in a public place with intent to distribute or exhibit the publication to another individual; or
(c) each act of distributing of pornographic material described in Subsection (2).
(5)
(a) This section does not apply to an Internet service provider if:
(i) the distribution of pornographic material by the Internet service provider occurs only incidentally through the Internet service provider's function of:
(A) transmitting or routing data from one person to another person; or
(B) providing a connection between one person and another person;
(ii) the Internet service provider does not intentionally aid or abet in the distribution of the pornographic material; and
(iii) the Internet service provider does not knowingly receive funds from or through a person who distributes the pornographic material in exchange for permitting the person to distribute the pornographic material.
(b) This section does not apply to a hosting company if:
(i) the distribution of pornographic material by the hosting company occurs only incidentally through the hosting company's function of providing data storage space or data caching to a person;
(ii) the hosting company does not intentionally engage, aid, or abet in the distribution of the pornographic material; and
(iii) the hosting company does not knowingly receive funds from or through a person who distributes the pornographic material in exchange for permitting the person to distribute, store, or cache the pornographic material.
(6) Subsection (3)(a) supersedes Section 77-18-105.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-203 Aiding or abetting a minor in distributing pornographic material.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-5c-101, and 76-5c-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits aiding or abetting a minor in distributing pornographic material if the actor:
(a) is 18 years old or older; and
(b) knowingly solicits, requests, commands, encourages, or intentionally aids a minor in:
(i) sending or bringing pornographic material into the state with intent to distribute or exhibit the pornographic material to another individual;
(ii) preparing, publishing, printing, or possessing pornographic material with intent to distribute or exhibit the pornographic material to another individual;
(iii) distributing or offering to distribute, or exhibiting or offering to exhibit, pornographic material to another individual;

(iv) writing, creating, or soliciting the publication or advertising of pornographic material;
(v) promoting the distribution or exhibition of material the minor represents to be pornographic; or
(vi) presenting or directing a pornographic performance in a public place or a place exposed to public view or participates in that portion of the performance which makes the performance pornographic.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony subject to:
(a) a minimum mandatory fine of not less than $1,000, plus $10 for each article exhibited up to the maximum allowed by law; and
(b) incarceration, without suspension of sentence in any way, for a term of not less than 30 days.
(4)
(a) Each act of distributing pornographic material described in Subsection (2) is a separate offense.
(b) It is a separate offense under this section for:
(i) each day's exhibition of any pornographic motion picture film; and
(ii) each day in which any pornographic publication is displayed or exhibited in a public place with intent to distribute or exhibit the publication to another individual.
(5)
(a) This section does not apply to an Internet service provider if:
(i) the distribution of pornographic material by the Internet service provider occurs only incidentally through the Internet service provider's function of:
(A) transmitting or routing data from one person to another person; or
(B) providing a connection between one person and another person;
(ii) the Internet service provider does not intentionally aid or abet in the distribution of the pornographic material; and
(iii) the Internet service provider does not knowingly receive funds from or through a person who distributes the pornographic material in exchange for permitting the person to distribute the pornographic material.
(b) This section does not apply to a hosting company if:
(i) the distribution of pornographic material by the hosting company occurs only incidentally through the hosting company's function of providing data storage space or data caching to a person;
(ii) the hosting company does not intentionally engage, aid, or abet in the distribution of the pornographic material; and
(iii) the hosting company does not knowingly receive funds from or through a person who distributes the pornographic material in exchange for permitting the person to distribute, store, or cache the pornographic material.
(6) Subsection (3) supersedes Section 77-18-105.

Enacted by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-204 Inducing acceptance of pornographic material.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-5c-101, and 76-5c-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits inducing acceptance of pornographic material if the actor knowingly:
(a) requires or demands as a condition to a sale, allocation, consignment, or delivery for resale of any newspaper, magazine, periodical, book, publication, or other merchandise that the purchaser or consignee receive any pornographic material or material reasonably believed by the purchaser or consignee to be pornographic; or

(b) denies, revokes, or threatens to deny or revoke a franchise, or to impose any penalty, financial or otherwise, because of the failure or refusal to accept pornographic material or material reasonably believed by the purchaser or consignee to be pornographic.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony subject to:

(a) a minimum mandatory fine of not less than $1,000 plus $10 for each article exhibited up to the maximum allowed by law; and

(b) incarceration, without suspension of sentence in any way, for a term of not less than 30 days.

(4)

(a) This section does not apply to an Internet service provider if:

(i) the distribution of pornographic material by the Internet service provider occurs only incidentally through the Internet service provider's function of:

(A) transmitting or routing data from one person to another person; or

(B) providing a connection between one person and another person;

(ii) the Internet service provider does not intentionally aid or abet in the distribution of the pornographic material; and

(iii) the Internet service provider does not knowingly receive funds from or through a person who distributes the pornographic material in exchange for permitting the person to distribute the pornographic material.

(b) This section does not apply to a hosting company if:

(i) the distribution of pornographic material by the hosting company occurs only incidentally through the hosting company's function of providing data storage space or data caching to a person;

(ii) the hosting company does not intentionally engage, aid, or abet in the distribution of the pornographic material; and

(iii) the hosting company does not knowingly receive funds from or through a person who distributes the pornographic material in exchange for permitting the person to distribute, store, or cache the pornographic material.

(5) Subsection (3) supersedes Section 77-18-105.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-205 Distributing material harmful to minors.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-5c-101, and 76-5c-201 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits distributing material harmful to minors if the actor:

(i) intentionally distributes or offers to distribute, or exhibits or offers to exhibit, material harmful to minors to an individual;

(ii) intentionally produces, performs, or directs any performance, before an individual that is harmful to minors; or

(iii) intentionally participates in a performance before an individual that is harmful to minors; and

(b)

(i) knows or believes the individual described in Subsection (2)(a) is a minor; or

(ii) negligently fails to determine if the individual described in Subsection (2)(a) is a minor and the individual is a minor.

(3)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), (c), (d), or (e), a violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the actor is 18 years old or older and has previously been convicted or adjudicated of a violation of Subsection (2) and is subject to:

(i) a minimum mandatory fine of not less than $5,000, plus $10 for each article exhibited up to the maximum allowed by law; and
(ii) incarceration, without suspension of sentence, for a term of not less than one year.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), (d), or (e), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if:
(i) the actor is 18 years old or older and is subject to:
(A) a minimum mandatory fine of not less than $1,000, plus $10 for each article exhibited up to the maximum allowed by law; and
(B) incarceration, without suspension of sentence, for a term of not less than 14 days; or
(ii) the actor is younger than 18 years old and has previously been convicted of a violation of Subsection (2).
(c) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(d) or (e), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the actor is 18 years old or older and the minor described in Subsection (2) is 16 years old or older, but younger than 18 years old, and the actor is less than seven years older than the minor at the time of the offense.
(d) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(e), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the actor is 16 years old or 17 years old.
(e) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor if the actor is younger than 16 years old.
(4)
(a) This section does not apply to an Internet service provider, a provider of an electronic communications service as defined in 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2510, a telecommunications service, information service, or mobile service as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 153, including a commercial mobile service as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 332(d), or a cable operator as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 522, if:
(i) the distribution of pornographic material by the Internet service provider occurs only incidentally through the provider's function of:
(A) transmitting or routing data from one person to another person; or
(B) providing a connection between one person and another person;
(ii) the provider does not intentionally aid or abet in the distribution of the pornographic material; and
(iii) the provider does not knowingly receive from or through a person who distributes the pornographic material a fee greater than the fee generally charged by the provider, as a specific condition for permitting the person to distribute the pornographic material.
(b) This section does not apply to a hosting company if:
(i) the distribution of pornographic material by the hosting company occurs only incidentally through the hosting company's function of providing data storage space or data caching to a person;
(ii) the hosting company does not intentionally engage, aid, or abet in the distribution of the pornographic material; and
(iii) the hosting company does not knowingly receive from or through a person who distributes the pornographic material a fee greater than the fee generally charged by the provider, as a specific condition for permitting the person to distribute, store, or cache the pornographic material.
(5) An Internet service provider is not negligent under this section if the Internet service provider complies with Section 76-5c-402.
(6) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section if the violation arises from displaying or exhibiting an outer portion of material that the material is:

(a) in a sealed opaque wrapper that covers at least the lower 2/3 of the material so that the lower 2/3 of the material is concealed from view;
(b) placed behind a blinder rack; or
(c)
(i) displayed in an area from which a minor is physically excluded; and
(ii) the material cannot be viewed by the minor from an area where the minor is allowed.
(7) Subsections (3)(a) and (3)(b)(i) supersede Section 77-18-105.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-206 Aiding or abetting a minor in distributing material harmful to minors.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-5c-101, and 76-5c-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits aiding or abetting a minor in distributing material harmful to minors if:
(a) the actor is 18 years old or older; and
(b) the actor knowingly solicits, requests, commands, encourages, or intentionally aids a minor to:
(i) intentionally distribute or offer to distribute, or exhibit or offer to exhibit, material harmful to minors to an individual;

Requirements and Penalties for Content and Internet Providers

76-5c-401 Definitions.
As used in this part:
(1) "Consumer" means an individual residing in this state who subscribes to a service provided by a service provider for personal or residential use.

(2) "Content provider" means a person domiciled in Utah or that generates or hosts content in Utah, and that creates, collects, acquires, or organizes electronic data for electronic delivery to a consumer with the intent of making a profit.
(3)
(a) "Hosting company" means a person that provides services or facilities for storing or distributing content over the Internet without editorial or creative alteration of the content.
(b) A hosting company may have policies concerning acceptable use without becoming a content provider under Subsection (2).
(4) "Internet service provider" means a person engaged in the business of providing broadband Internet access service, with the intent of making a profit, to consumers in Utah.
(5) "Properly rated" means content using a labeling system to label material harmful to minors provided by the content provider in a way that:
(a) accurately apprises a consumer of the presence of material harmful to minors; and
(b) allows the consumer the ability to control access to material harmful to minors based on the material's rating by use of reasonably priced commercially available software, including software in the public domain.
(6) "Restrict" means to limit access to material harmful to minors by:
(a) properly rating content; or
(b) any other reasonable measures feasible under available technology.
(7)
(a) "Service provider" means an Internet service provider.
(b) "Service provider" does not include a person who does not terminate a service in this state, but merely transmits data through:
(i) a wire;
(ii) a cable; or
(iii) an antenna.
(c) "Service provider," notwithstanding Subsection (7)(b), includes a person who leases or rents a wire or cable for the transmission of data.

76-5c-402 Data service providers -- Internet content harmful to minors.
(1)
(a) Upon request by a consumer, a service provider shall filter content to prevent the transmission of material harmful to minors to the consumer.
(b) A service provider complies with Subsection (1)(a) if the service provider makes a good faith effort to apply a generally accepted and commercially reasonable method of filtering.
(c) At the time of a consumer's subscription to a service provider's service, the service provider shall notify the consumer in a conspicuous manner that the consumer may request to have material harmful to minors blocked under Subsection (1)(a).
(2) The Division of Consumer Protection within the Department of Commerce shall:
(a) every other year request from each service provider information on how the service provider complies with Subsection (1)(a);
(b) publish on the division's website a compilation of the information the division receives under Subsection (2)(a); and
(c) update the compilation described in Subsection (2)(b) every other year.
(3)

(a) A service provider may comply with Subsection (1)(a) by providing in-network filtering to prevent the receipt of material harmful to minors, provided that the filtering does not affect or interfere with access to Internet content for consumers who do not request filtering under Subsection (1)(a).
(b) A service provider may comply with Subsection (1)(a) by engaging a third party to provide or referring a consumer to a third party that provides a commercially reasonable method of filtering to block the receipt of material harmful to minors.
(c) A service provider may charge a consumer a commercially reasonable fee for providing filtering under this Subsection (3).
(4) If the attorney general determines that a service provider violates Subsection (1), the attorney general shall:
(a) notify the service provider that the service provider is in violation of Subsection (1); and
(b) notify the service provider that the service provider has 90 days to comply with the provision being violated or be subject to the civil penalties described in Subsection (5).
(5)
(a) A service provider that intentionally or knowingly violates Subsection (1)(a) is subject to a civil fine of $2,500 for each separate violation of Subsection (1)(a), up to $15,000 per day.
(b) A service provider that intentionally or knowingly violates Subsection (1)(c) is subject to a civil fine up to $10,000.
(6) A proceeding to impose a civil fine under Subsection (5) may only be brought by the attorney general.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-5c-403 Content providers -- Material harmful to minors.
(1) A content provider that is domiciled in Utah, or generates or hosts content in Utah, shall restrict access to material harmful to minors.
(2) If the attorney general determines that a content provider violates Subsection (1), the attorney general shall:
(a) notify the content provider that the content provider is in violation of Subsection (1); and
(b) notify the content provider that the content provider has 30 days to comply with Subsection (1) or be subject to the civil penalties described in Subsection (3).
(3)
(a) If a content provider intentionally or knowingly violates this section more than 30 days after receiving the notice provided under Subsection (2), the content provider is subject to a civil fine of $2,500 for each separate violation of Subsection (1), up to $10,000 per day.
(b) A proceeding to impose the civil fine under this section may be brought only by the attorney general.
(4) The Division of Consumer Protection shall make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to establish acceptable rating methods to be implemented by a content provider under Subsection (1).

76-5d-103 Mandatory testing -- Retention of medical file -- Civil liability.

(1) An individual who has entered a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, a plea of guilty with a mental condition, or been found guilty of a violation of Section 76-5d-202, 76-5d-203, 76-5d-204, 76-5d-205, 76-5d-209, 76-5d-210, or 76-5d-211 is required to submit before sentencing to a mandatory test to determine if the individual is an HIV positive individual.

(2)

(a) If the mandatory test described in Subsection (1) has not been conducted before sentencing, and the convicted individual is already confined in a county jail or state prison, the individual is required to be tested while in confinement.

(b) For an individual described in Subsection (1) who is confined in a county jail, the local law enforcement agency shall cause the individual's blood specimen to be taken and tested.

(c) For an individual described in Subsection (1) who is confined in a state prison, the Department of Corrections shall cause the individual's blood specimen to be taken and tested.

(3)

(a) The local law enforcement agency shall collect and retain in the individual's medical file the following data:

(i) the HIV infection test results;

(ii) a copy of the written notice as provided in Section 76-5d-104;

(iii) photographic identification; and

(iv) fingerprint identification.

(b) The local law enforcement agency shall classify the medical file described in Subsection (3)(a) as a private record pursuant to Subsection 63G-2-302(1)(b) or a controlled record pursuant to Section 63G-2-304.

(4)

(a) An individual required to be tested under this section is responsible for the costs of testing, unless the individual is indigent.

(b) If an individual is indigent, the costs for the testing will be paid by the local law enforcement agency or the Department of Corrections from the General Fund.

(5)

(a) The laboratory performing testing shall report test results to only designated officials in the Department of Corrections, the Department of Health and Human Services, and the local law enforcement agency submitting the blood specimen.

(b) Each department or agency shall designate the officials described in Subsection (5)(a) by written policy.

(c) Designated officials may release information identifying an individual under Section 76-5d-202, 76-5d-203, 76-5d-204, 76-5d-205, 76-5d-209, 76-5d-210, or 76-5d-211 who has tested HIV positive as provided under Subsection 63G-2-202(1) and for purposes of prosecution pursuant to Section 76-5d-212.

(a) An employee of the local law enforcement agency, the Department of Corrections, or the Department of Health and Human Services who discloses the HIV test results under this section is not civilly liable except when disclosure constitutes fraud or willful misconduct under Section 63G-7-202.

(b) An employee of the local law enforcement agency, the Department of Corrections, or the Department of Health and Human Services who discloses the HIV test results under this section is not civilly or criminally liable, except when disclosure constitutes a knowing violation of Section 63G-2-801.

(7) When a medical file is released as provided in Section 63G-2-803, the local law enforcement agency, the Department of Corrections, or the Department of Health and Human Services, or an officer or employee of the local law enforcement agency, the Department of Corrections, or the Department of Health and Human Services, is not liable for damages for release of the medical file.

76-5d-104 Notice to a convicted individual of HIV positive test results.

(1) An individual convicted under Section 76-5d-202, 76-5d-203, 76-5d-204, 76-5d-205, 76-5d-209, 76-5d-210, or 76-5d-211 who has tested positive for the HIV infection shall be notified of the test results in person by:
  (a) the local law enforcement agency;
  (b) the Department of Corrections, for an individual confined in a state prison;
  (c) the Department of Health and Human Services; or
  (d) an authorized representative of an agency listed in Subsections (1)(a) through (c).

(2) The notice described in Subsection (1) shall contain the signature of the HIV positive individual, indicating the individual's receipt of the notice, the name and signature of the individual providing the notice, and:
  (a) the date of the test;
  (b) the positive test results;
  (c) the name of the HIV positive individual; and
  (d) the following language:

"An individual who has been convicted of engaging in prostitution under Section 76-5d-202, patronizing a prostituted individual who is an adult under Section 76-5d-203, patronizing a prostituted individual who is a child under Section 76-5d-204, entering or remaining in a place of prostitution under Section 76-5d-205, sexual solicitation by an actor offering to engage in sexual activity for compensation under Section 76-5d-209, sexual solicitation by an actor offering compensation to an adult in exchange for sexual activity under Section 76-5d-210, or sexual solicitation by an actor offering compensation to a child in exchange for sexual activity under Section 76-5d-211, after being tested and diagnosed as an HIV positive individual and either had actual knowledge that the individual is an HIV positive individual or the individual has previously been convicted of any of the criminal offenses listed above is guilty of a third degree felony under Section 76-5d-212."

(3) Failure to provide the notice described in Subsection (1), or to provide the notice in the manner or form prescribed under this section, does not:
  (a) create any civil liability; or
  (b) create a defense to a prosecution under this chapter.

76-5d-203 Patronizing a prostituted individual who is an adult.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-5d-101, and 76-5d-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits the offense of patronizing a prostituted individual who is an adult if:
(a) the actor pays, offers to pay, or agrees to pay an adult prostituted individual, or an adult individual the actor believes to be a prostituted individual, a fee, or the functional equivalent of a fee; and
(b) the payment, offer of payment, or agreement for payment described in Subsection (2)(a) is for the purpose of engaging in an act of sexual activity.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the actor has previously been convicted two or more times of:
(i) a violation of Subsection (2);
(ii) a local ordinance adopted in accordance with Section 76-5d-102 addressing the same or similar type of violation to the violation described in Subsection (2); or
(iii) a criminal violation in another jurisdiction, including a state, federal, or military court, that is substantially equivalent to the violation described in Subsection (2).
(4) Upon a conviction for a violation of this section, the court shall order:
(a) the maximum fine amount and may not waive or suspend the fine; and
(b) the actor to pay for and complete a court-approved educational program about the negative effects on an individual involved with prostitution or human trafficking.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-5d-101, and 76-5d-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits patronizing a prostituted individual who is a child if:
(a) the actor is 12 years old or older;
(b) the actor pays, offers to pay, or agrees to pay a prostituted individual, or an individual the actor believes to be a prostituted individual, a fee, or the functional equivalent of a fee;
(c) the payment, offer of payment, or agreement for payment described in Subsection (2)(b) is for the purpose of engaging in an act of sexual activity; and
(d) the prostituted individual, or the individual the actor believes to be a prostituted individual, described in Subsection (2)(b) is:

(i) a child; or
(ii) believed by the actor to be a child.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony with a mandatory fine of not less than $20,000.
(b) If the actor is under 18 years old at the time of the offense, a violation of Subsection (2) is:
(i) a third degree felony if:
(A) the actor is 17 years old and the prostituted individual is 13 years old or younger; or
(B) the actor is 16 years old and the prostituted individual is 12 years old or younger;
(ii) a class A misdemeanor if:
(A) the actor is 17 years old and the prostituted individual is 14 years old;
(B) the actor is 16 years old and the prostituted individual is 13 years old;
(C) the actor is 15 years old and the prostituted individual is 12 years old or younger; or

(B) the actor is 16 years old and the child is 15 years old or older;
(C) the actor is 15 years old and the child is 14 years old or older;
(D) the actor is 14 years old and the child is 13 years old or older;
(E) the actor is 13 years old and the child is 12 years old or older; or
(F) the actor is 12 years old and the child is 11 years old or older.

(4) The offenses referred to in Subsection (2) are:
(a) human trafficking for labor as described in Section 76-5-308;
(b) human trafficking for sexual exploitation as described in Section 76-5-308.1;
(c) human smuggling as described in Section 76-5-308.3;
(d) human trafficking of a child as described in Section 76-5-308.5;
(e) aggravated human trafficking as described in Section 76-5-310; and
(f) aggravated human smuggling as described in Section 76-5-310.1.

(5) The actor's intent to hire a child to engage in sexual activity for a fee may be inferred from an actor engaging in, offering or agreeing to engage in, or requesting or directing another to engage in any of the acts described in Subsection (2)(b) under the totality of the existing circumstances.

(6) A prosecutor may not prosecute an actor for a violation of Subsection (2) if the actor engages in a violation of Subsection (2) at or near the time the actor witnesses or is a victim of any of the offenses, or an attempt to commit any of the offenses, described in Subsection 76-5d-202(4), and the actor reports the offense or attempt to law enforcement in good faith.

(7)
(a) Upon encountering a child engaged in commercial sex or sexual solicitation, a law enforcement officer shall follow the procedure described in Subsection 76-5d-106(2).
(b) A child engaged in commercial sex or sexual solicitation shall be referred to the Division of Child and Family Services for services and may not be subjected to delinquency proceedings.

76-6-104.5 Abandonment of a fire -- Penalties.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-101 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits abandonment of a fire if, under circumstances not amounting to the offense of arson, aggravated arson, or causing a catastrophe, the actor leaves a fire:

(a) without first completely extinguishing it; and

(b) with the intent to not return to the fire.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2):
(a) is a class C misdemeanor if there is no property damage;
(b) is a class B misdemeanor if property damage is less than $1,000 in value; and
(c) is a class A misdemeanor if property damage is or exceeds $1,000 in value.
(4) An actor does not commit a violation of Subsection (2) if the actor leaves a fire to report an uncontrolled fire.
(5) If a violation of Subsection (2) involves a wildland fire, the actor is also liable for suppression costs under Section 65A-3-4.
(6) A fire spreading or reigniting is prima facie evidence that the actor did not completely extinguish the fire as required by Subsection (2)(a).

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-105 Causing a catastrophe -- Penalties.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits causing a catastrophe if the actor causes widespread injury or damage to persons or property by:
(a) use of a weapon of mass destruction as defined in Section 76-15-301; or
(b) explosion, fire, flood, avalanche, collapse of a building, or other harmful or destructive force or substance that is not a weapon of mass destruction.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a first degree felony if the actor causes the catastrophe knowingly and by the use of a weapon of mass destruction;
(b) a second degree felony if the actor causes the catastrophe knowingly and by a means other than a weapon of mass destruction; and
(c) a class A misdemeanor if the actor causes the catastrophe recklessly.
(4) In addition to any other penalty authorized by law, a court shall order an actor convicted of any violation of this section to reimburse any federal, state, or local unit of government, or any private business, organization, individual, or entity for all expenses incurred in responding to the violation, unless the court states on the record the reasons why the reimbursement would be inappropriate.

76-6-107 Defacement by graffiti defined -- Penalties -- Removal costs -- Reimbursement liability -- Victim liability.

(a) As used in this section, "victim" means the person whose property is defaced or damaged by the use of graffiti and who bears the expense for removal of the graffiti.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-101 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits defacement by graffiti if the actor, without permission, defaces or damages the property of another by graffiti.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a:
(a) second degree felony if the damage caused is in excess of $5,000;
(b) third degree felony if the damage caused is equal to or in excess of $1,000 but less than or equal to $5,000;

(c) class A misdemeanor if the damage caused is equal to or in excess of $300 but less than $1,000; and
(d) class B misdemeanor if the damage caused is less than $300.
(4) Damages under Subsection (3) include removal costs, repair costs, or replacement costs, whichever is less.
(5) The court shall order an individual convicted under Subsection (3) to pay restitution to the victim in an amount equal to the costs incurred by the victim as a result of the graffiti.
(6) An additional amount of $1,000 in restitution shall be added to removal costs if the graffiti is positioned on an overpass or an underpass, requires that traffic be interfered with in order to remove it, or the entity responsible for the area in which the clean-up is to take place must provide assistance in order for the removal to take place safely.
(7) An individual who voluntarily, at the individual's own expense, and with the consent of the property owner, removes graffiti for which the individual is responsible may be credited for the removal costs against restitution ordered by a court.
(8) Before an authorized government agency may issue a citation or assess a fine to a victim for the victim's failure to remove graffiti from the victim's property, the agency shall:
(a) provide written notice to the victim alerting the victim of the graffiti;
(b) allow the victim one week after the day on which the agency provides written notice of the graffiti to remove the graffiti; and
(c) provide the victim with a list of resources available to assist the victim with removal of the graffiti.
(9)
(a) After receiving notification of graffiti under Subsection (8)(a), a victim who is unable to remove the graffiti due to physical or financial hardship may alert the agency that provided notice under Subsection (8)(a) of the hardship.
(b) If an authorized government agency finds a victim has demonstrated that the victim would experience significant hardship in removing the graffiti, the agency:
(i) may not issue a citation or assess a fee to the victim for failure to remove the graffiti; and
(ii) shall provide, or hire an outside entity to provide, the assistance necessary to remove the graffiti from the victim's property.
(c) An authorized government agency that provides, or hires an outside agency to provide, assistance under Subsection (9)(b)(ii), may request reimbursement from a restitution order, under Subsection (5), against an individual who used graffiti to damage the property that the agency removed, or paid another to remove.

76-6-107.5 Defacing by graffiti on public lands.
(1)
(a) As used in this section, "public lands" means state or federally owned property that is held substantially in the property's natural state, including canyons, parks owned or managed by the state, national parks, land managed by the Bureau of Land Management, and other lands owned or maintained by a government entity for outdoor recreational use.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits defacing by graffiti on public lands if the actor creates, or assists in creating, graffiti on any public lands or state-owned object permanently located on public lands.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is;
(a) a class B misdemeanor; or

(b) if the individual was previously convicted of violating this section, a class A misdemeanor.
(4) If an actor is convicted of defacing by graffiti on public lands, the court shall sentence the actor to a term of community service as follows:
(a) for a first conviction, the court shall sentence the actor to 100 hours of community service, to be completed within 90 days after the day on which the court issues the order;
(b) for a second conviction, the court shall sentence the actor to 200 hours of community service, to be completed within 180 days after the day on which the court issues the order; or
(c) for a third or subsequent conviction, the court shall sentence the actor to 300 hours of community service, to be completed within 270 days after the day on which the court issues the order.
(5) If an actor is enrolled in school or maintains full or part-time employment, the ordered community service may not be scheduled at a time the actor is scheduled to be in school or performing the individual's employment duties.
(6) A sentence of community service described in Subjection (4) shall, to the greatest extent possible, be for the benefit of public lands.
(7) If an actor is convicted of defacing by graffiti on public lands, the court may impose a fine up to the full amount of the estimated cost to restore the damaged land, caused by the actor, to the land's original state.
(8) An actor who voluntarily, at the actor's own expense, and with the consent of the property owner, removes graffiti for which the actor is responsible shall be credited for costs ordered by the court under Subsection (7).

76-6-111 Wanton destruction of livestock -- Penalties -- Restitution criteria -- Seizure and disposition of property.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Law enforcement officer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-13-103.

(ii) "Livestock" means a domestic animal or fur bearer raised or kept for profit or as an asset, including:

(A) cattle;

(B) sheep;

(C) goats;

(D) swine;

(E) horses;

(F) mules;

(G) poultry;

(H) domesticated elk as defined in Section 4-39-102; and

(I) livestock guardian dogs.

(iii) "Livestock guardian dog" means a dog that is being used to live with and guard livestock, other than itself, from predators.

(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-101 apply to this section.

(2) Unless authorized by Section 4-25-201, 4-25-202, 4-25-401, 4-39-401, or 18-1-3, an actor commits wanton destruction of livestock if the actor:

(a) injures, physically alters, releases, or causes the death of livestock; and

(b) does so:

(i) intentionally or knowingly; and

(ii) without the permission of the owner of the livestock.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a:

(a) class B misdemeanor if the aggregate value of the livestock is $250 or less;

(b) class A misdemeanor if the aggregate value of the livestock is more than $250, but does not exceed $750;

(c) third degree felony if the aggregate value of the livestock is more than $750, but does not exceed $5,000; and

(d) second degree felony if the aggregate value of the livestock is more than $5,000.

(4) For purposes of this section, a livestock guardian dog is presumed to belong to an owner of the livestock with which the livestock guardian dog was living at the time of an alleged violation of Subsection (2).

(5) When a court orders an actor who is convicted of wanton destruction of livestock to pay restitution under Title 77, Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act, the court shall consider the restitution guidelines in Subsection (6) when setting the amount of restitution under Section 77-38b-205.

(6) The minimum restitution value for cattle and sheep is the sum of the following, unless the court states on the record why it finds the sum to be inappropriate:

(a) the fair market value of the animal, using as a guide the market information obtained from the Department of Agriculture and Food created under Section 4-2-102; and

(b) 10 years times the average annual value of offspring, for which average annual value is determined using data obtained from the National Agricultural Statistics Service within the United States Department of Agriculture, for the most recent 10-year period available.

(7) A material, device, or vehicle used in violation of Subsection (2) is subject to forfeiture under the procedures and substantive protections established in Title 77, Chapter 11b, Forfeiture of Seized Property.
(8) A peace officer may seize a material, device, or vehicle used in violation of Subsection (2):
(a) upon notice and service of process issued by a court having jurisdiction over the property; or
(b) without notice and service of process if:
(i) the seizure is incident to an arrest under:
(A) a search warrant; or
(B) an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;
(ii) the material, device, or vehicle has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding under this section; or
(iii) the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the property has been used in violation of Subsection (2).
(9)
(a) A material, device, or vehicle seized under this section is not repleviable but is in custody of the law enforcement agency making the seizure, subject only to the orders and decrees of a court or official having jurisdiction.
(b) A peace officer who seizes a material, device, or vehicle under this section may:
(i) place the property under seal;
(ii) remove the property to a place designated by the warrant under which it was seized; or
(iii) take custody of the property and remove it to an appropriate location for disposition in accordance with law.

76-6-112 Agricultural operation interference -- Penalties.
(1)
(a) As used in this section, "agricultural operation" means private property used for the production of livestock, poultry, livestock products, or poultry products.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits agricultural operation interference if the actor:
(a) without consent from the owner of the agricultural operation, or the owner's agent, knowingly or intentionally records an image of, or sound from, the agricultural operation by leaving a recording device on the agricultural operation;
(b) obtains access to an agricultural operation under false pretenses;
(c)
(i) applies for employment at an agricultural operation with the intent to record an image of, or sound from, the agricultural operation;
(ii) knows, at the time that the actor accepts employment at the agricultural operation, that the owner of the agricultural operation prohibits the employee from recording an image of, or sound from, the agricultural operation; and
(iii) while employed at, and while present on, the agricultural operation, records an image of, or sound from, the agricultural operation; or
(d) without consent from the owner of the operation or the owner's agent, knowingly or intentionally records an image of, or sound from, an agricultural operation while the person is committing criminal trespass, as described in Section 76-6-206, on the agricultural operation.
(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2)(a) is a class A misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2)(b), (c), or (d) is a class B misdemeanor.

(i) "Business" means an enterprise carried on for the purpose of gain or economic profit.
(ii) "Governmental entity" means the state, a county, a municipality, a special district, a special service district, a school district, a state institution of higher education, or any other political subdivision or administrative unit of the state.
(iii) "Economic interruption" means any disruption or cessation to the operations of a business or governmental entity that results in:
(A) the business or governmental entity ceasing operations for at least one day; or
(B) the employees of the business or governmental entity being unable to perform labor for the business or governmental entity for at least one day.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits property damage resulting in economic interruption if:
(a) the actor intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or negligently damages, defaces, or destroys a business's or governmental entity's property; and
(b) the actor's actions under Subsection (2)(a) cause an economic interruption for the business or governmental entity.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(4) It is not a defense under this section that the actor did not know that the victim is a business or governmental entity.
(5) If the trier of facts finds that the actor committed a violation of Subsection (2), the actor is guilty of:
(a) a third degree felony if the actor has two prior convictions for a violation of Subsection (2) within five years before the day on which the actor committed the most recent violation of Subsection (2); and
(b) a second degree felony if the actor has at least three prior convictions for a violation of Subsection (2) within five years before the day on which the actor committed the most recent violation of Subsection (2).
(6) A prior conviction used for a penalty enhancement under Subsection (5) is a conviction that is from a separate criminal episode than:
(a) the most recent violation of Subsection (2); and
(b) any other prior conviction that is used to enhance the penalty for the most recent violation of Subsection (2).
(7) The prosecuting attorney, or the grand jury if an indictment is returned, shall include notice in the information or indictment that the offense is subject to an enhancement under Subsection (5).

76-6-206.4 Criminal trespass by long-term guest to a residence.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Burglary" means an offense described in Section 76-6-202, 76-6-203, or 76-6-204.
(ii) "Long-term guest" means an individual who is not a tenant, nor the immediate family member of an owner or tenant, but who is given express or implied permission by an owner or tenant of the residence or someone with apparent authority to act for an owner or tenant to enter a portion of a residence or temporarily occupy a portion of a residence:
(A) for a period of time longer than 48 hours; and
(B) without providing the owner or tenant of the residence compensation or entering into an agreement that the individual provide labor in lieu of providing the owner or primary occupant compensation for occupying the residence.

(iii) "Residence" means an improvement to real property used or occupied as a primary or secondary dwelling.
(iv) "Tenant" means a person who has the right to occupy a residence under a rental agreement or lease, or has a tenancy by operation of law.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-201 apply to this section.
(2)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), a long-term guest commits criminal trespass of a residence if the long-term guest, in circumstances not amounting to burglary, remains in a residence after receiving notice to leave the residence from:
(i) an owner;
(ii) a tenant; or
(iii) someone with apparent authority to act for an owner or a tenant.
(b) A long-term guest does not commit criminal trespass if:
(i) the long-term guest has express permission to remain in the residence from a separate owner or tenant; and
(ii) the express permission is not:
(A) revoked by the owner or tenant described in Subsection (2)(b)(i); or
(B) rendered void under Subsection (2)(c).
(c) The express permission described in Subsection (2)(b) is void if:
(i) the long-term guest or a visitor of the long-term guest:
(A) uses or distributes illegal drugs at the residence;
(B) distributes alcohol to a minor at the residence;
(C) commits a crime against a person or property at the residence; or
(D) commits a behavior that threatens or substantially endangers the security, safety, well-being, or health of other persons at the residence or threatens or damages property at the residence; or
(ii) the long-term guest commits a felony after occupying the residence, regardless of whether the long-term guest enters into a plea agreement for a lower offense and regardless of where the felony takes place.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(4) Before a law enforcement officer escorts a long-term guest from a residence for a violation of Subsection (2), the law enforcement officer shall provide the long-term guest a reasonable time for the long-term guest to collect the long-term guest's personal belongings.

Part 4
Theft

76-6-401 Definitions.

As used in this part:
(1) "Deception" occurs when a person intentionally:
(a) creates or confirms by words or conduct an impression of law or fact that is false and that the actor does not believe to be true and that is likely to affect the judgment of another in the transaction;
(b) fails to correct a false impression of law or fact that the actor previously created or confirmed by words or conduct that is likely to affect the judgment of another and that the actor does not now believe to be true;
(c) prevents another person from acquiring information likely to affect the person's judgment in the transaction;
(d) sells or otherwise transfers or encumbers property without disclosing a lien, security interest, adverse claim, or other legal impediment to the enjoyment of the property, regardless of whether the lien, security interest, claim, or impediment is valid or is a matter of official record; or
(e) promises performance that is likely to affect the judgment of another in the transaction, which performance the actor does not intend to perform or knows will not be performed, except that failure to perform the promise in issue without other evidence of intent or knowledge is not sufficient proof that the actor did not intend to perform or knew the promise would not be performed.
(2) "Livestock guardian dog" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-6-111.
(3) "Obtain" means, in relation to property, to bring about a transfer of possession or of some other legally recognized interest in property, whether to the obtainer or another; in relation to labor or services, to secure performance thereof; and in relation to a trade secret, to make any facsimile, replica, photograph, or other reproduction.
(4) "Obtain or exercise unauthorized control" means conduct originally defined or known as common-law larceny by trespassory taking, larceny by conversion, larceny by bailee, or embezzlement.
(5) "Property" means anything of value, including real estate, tangible and intangible personal property, captured or domestic animals and birds, written instruments or other writings representing or embodying rights concerning real or personal property, labor, services, or otherwise containing anything of value to the owner, commodities of a public utility nature such as telecommunications, gas, electricity, steam, or water, and trade secrets, meaning the whole or any portion of any scientific or technical information, design, process, procedure, formula, or invention which the owner intends to be available only to persons selected by the owner.

(6) "Purpose to deprive" means to have the conscious object:

(a) to withhold property permanently or for so extended a period or to use under such circumstances that a substantial portion of its economic value, or of the use and benefit thereof, would be lost;

(b) to restore the property only upon payment of a reward or other compensation; or

(c) to dispose of the property under circumstances that make it unlikely that the owner will recover it.

Amended by Chapter 57, 2021 General Session

76-6-402 Presumptions and defenses.

The following presumption shall be applicable to this part:

(1) Possession of property recently stolen, when no satisfactory explanation of such possession is made, shall be deemed prima facie evidence that the person in possession stole the property.

(2) It is not a defense under this part that the actor:

(a) has an interest in the property or service stolen if another person also has an interest that the actor is not entitled to infringe, unless the interest is a security interest for the repayment of a debt or obligation; or

(b) takes livestock, as defined in Section 76-3-203.16, from the owner because the livestock is sick, injured, or a liability to the owner.

(3) It is a defense under this part that the actor:

(a) acted under an honest claim of right to the property or service involved;

(b) acted in the honest belief that the actor had the right to obtain or exercise control over the property or service in the manner the actor obtained or exercised control; or

(c) obtained or exercised control over the property or service honestly believing that the owner, if present, would have consented.

(4) A livestock guardian dog is presumed to belong to an owner of the livestock with which the livestock guardian dog is living at the time of an alleged violation of this part.

76-6-409 Theft of service.

(a) As used in this section, "service" includes:

(i) labor, professional service, a public utility or transportation service, restaurant, hotel, motel, tourist cabin, rooming house, and like accommodations, the supplying of equipment, a tool, a vehicle, or a trailer for temporary use, telegraph service, steam, admission to entertainment, an exhibition, a sporting event, or other event for which a charge is made;

(ii) gas, electricity, water, sewer, or cable television service, only if the service is obtained by threat, force, or a form of deception not described in Section 76-6-409.3; and

(iii) telephone service, only if the service is obtained by threat, force, or a form of deception not described in Section 76-6-409.6, 76-6-409.7, 76-6-409.8, or 76-6-409.9.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits theft of service if:

(a) the actor, by deception, threat, force, or another means designed to avoid due payment, obtains a service that the actor knows is available only for compensation; or

(b) the actor:
(i) has control over the disposition of another person's service; and
(ii)
(A) diverts the other person's service to the benefit of the actor, knowing that the actor is not entitled to the service; or
(B) diverts the other person's service to the benefit of a third person, knowing that the third person is not entitled to the service.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a second degree felony if the value of the service is or exceeds $5,000;
(b) a third degree felony if:
(i) the value of the service is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000;
(ii) the value of the service is or exceeds $500 and the actor has been twice before convicted of any of the following offenses, if each prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based and at least one of those convictions is for a class A misdemeanor:
(A) any theft, any robbery, or any burglary with intent to commit theft;
(B) any offense under Part 5, Fraud;
(C) any attempt to commit any offense under Subsection (3)(b)(ii)(A) or (B); or
(D) any offense in another jurisdiction, including a state, federal, or military court, that is substantially equivalent to an offense under Subsection (3)(b)(ii)(A), (B), or (C);
(iii)
(A) the value of the service is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500;
(B) the theft occurs on a property where the offender has committed any theft within the past five years; and
(C) the offender has received written notice from the merchant prohibiting the offender from entering the property pursuant to Subsection 78B-3-108(4); or
(iv) the actor has been previously convicted of a felony violation of any of the offenses listed in Subsections (3)(b)(ii)(A) through (D), if the prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based;
(c) a class A misdemeanor if:
(i) the value of the service stolen is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500;
(ii)
(A) the value of the service is less than $500;
(B) the theft occurs on a property where the offender has committed any theft within the past five years; and
(C) the offender has received written notice from the merchant prohibiting the offender from entering the property pursuant to Subsection 78B-3-108(4); or
(iii) the actor has been twice before convicted of any of the offenses listed in Subsections (3)(b)(ii)(A) through (D), if each prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based; or
(d) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the service is less than $500 and the theft is not an offense under Subsection (3)(c).

76-6-409.1 Unlawful device for theft of service -- Seizure and destruction -- Civil actions for damages.

(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful device for theft of service if the actor:
(a) makes or possesses an instrument, apparatus, equipment, or device for the use of, or for the purpose of, committing or attempting to commit theft under Section 76-6-409 or 76-6-409.3; or
(b) sells, offers to sell, advertises, gives, transports, or otherwise transfers to another person:
(i) an instrument, apparatus, equipment, or device; or
(ii) any information, plan, or instruction for obtaining, making, or assembling an instrument, apparatus, equipment, or device, with intent that the instrument, apparatus, equipment, or device be used, or caused to be used, to commit or attempt to commit theft under Section 76-6-409 or 76-6-409.3.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(b) Any instrument, apparatus, equipment, device, information, plan, or instruction referred to in Subsection (2) may be seized pursuant to a court order, lawful search and seizure, lawful arrest, or other lawful process.
(c) Upon the conviction of an actor for a violation of this section, the sheriff of the county in which the actor was convicted shall destroy as contraband any instrument, apparatus, equipment, device, information, plan, or instruction.
(4) A criminal prosecution under this section does not affect any person's right of civil action for redress for damages suffered as a result of a violation of this section.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-409.3 Theft of utility or cable television services -- Restitution -- Civil action for damages.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Cable television service" means an audio, video, or data service provided for payment by a cable television company over the cable company's cable system facilities, but does not include the use of a satellite dish or antenna.
(ii) "Occupant" includes a person, including the owner, who occupies the whole or part of a building, whether alone or with others.
(iii) "Owner" includes a partial owner, joint owner, tenant in common, joint tenant, or tenant by the entirety of the whole or a part of a building and the property on which the building is located.
(iv) "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or other legal entity.
(v) "Tenant" includes a person, including the owner, who occupies the whole or part of any building, whether alone or with others.
(vi) "Utility" means any public utility, municipally owned utility, or cooperative utility that provides electricity, gas, water, or sewer, or any combination of electricity, gas, water, or sewer, for sale to consumers.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits theft of a utility or cable television service if, with intent to avoid due payment to the utility or cable television company, the actor makes gas, electricity, water, sewer, or cable television available to a tenant or occupant, including to the actor, by committing any of the following acts:

(a) connecting a tube, pipe, wire, cable, or other instrument with any meter, device, or other instrument used for conducting gas, electricity, water, sewer, or cable television in a manner as permits the use of the gas, electricity, water, sewer, or cable television without the gas, electricity, water, sewer, or cable television passing through a meter or other instrument recording the usage for billing;

(b) altering, injuring, or preventing the normal action of a meter, valve, stopcock, or other instrument used for measuring quantities of gas, electricity, water, or sewer service, or making or maintaining any modification or alteration to any device installed with the authorization of a cable television company for the purpose of intercepting or receiving any program or other service carried by the company that the actor is not authorized by the company to receive;

(c) reconnecting a gas, electricity, water, sewer, or cable television connection or otherwise restoring service when one or more of those utilities or cable service has been lawfully disconnected or turned off by the provider of the utility or cable service;

(d) intentionally breaking, defacing, or causing to be broken or defaced a seal, locking device, or other part of a metering device for recording usage of gas, electricity, water, or sewer service, or a security system for the recording device, or a cable television control device;

(e) removing a metering device designed to measure quantities of gas, electricity, water, or sewer service;

(f) transferring from one location to another location a metering device for measuring quantities of public utility services of gas, electricity, water, or sewer service;

(g) changing the indicated consumption, jamming the measuring device, bypassing the meter or measuring device with a jumper so that it does not indicate use or registers use incorrectly, or otherwise obtaining quantities of gas, electricity, water, or sewer service from the utility without the gas, electricity, water, or sewer service passing through a metering device for measuring quantities of consumption for billing purposes;

(h) using a metering device belonging to the utility that has not been assigned to the location and installed by the utility;

(i) fabricating or using a device to pick or otherwise tamper with the locks used to deter utility service diversion, meter tampering, meter thefts, and unauthorized cable television service;

(j) assisting or instructing a person in obtaining or attempting to obtain any cable television service without payment of all lawful compensation to the company providing the service;

(k) making or maintaining a connection or connections, whether physical, electrical, mechanical, acoustical, or by other means, with a cable, wire, component, or other device used for the distribution of cable television services without authority from the cable television company; or

(l) possessing without authority any device or printed circuit board designed in whole or in part to receive any cable television programming or service offered for sale over a cable television system, unless the device or printed circuit board includes the use of a satellite dish or antenna, with the intent that the device or printed circuit be used for the reception of the cable television company's services without payment.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2), if the violation is a theft of a utility service, is:

(i) a second degree felony if:

(A) the value of the gas, electricity, water, or sewer service is or exceeds $5,000; or

(B) if the actor previously has been convicted of a violation of this section;

(ii) a third degree felony if the value of the gas, electricity, water, or sewer service is or exceeds $1,500 but is not more than $5,000;

(iii) a class A misdemeanor if the value of the gas, electricity, water, or sewer service is or exceeds $500 but is not more than $1,500; or

(iv) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the gas, electricity, water, or sewer service is less than $500.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2), if the violation is a theft of a cable television service, is:

(i) a second degree felony if the value of the service is or exceeds $5,000;

(ii) a third degree felony if:

(A) the value of the service is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000;

(B) the value of the service is or exceeds $500 and the actor has been twice before convicted of any of the following offenses, if each prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based and at least one of those convictions is for a class A misdemeanor:

(I) any theft, any robbery, or any burglary with intent to commit theft;

(II) any offense under Part 5, Fraud;

(III) any attempt to commit any offense under Subsection (3)(b)(ii)(B)(I) or (II); or

(IV) any offense in another jurisdiction, including a state, federal, or military court, that is substantially equivalent to an offense under Subsection (3)(b)(ii)(B)(I), (II), or (III); or

(C) the actor has been previously convicted of a felony violation of any of the offenses listed in Subsections (3)(b)(ii)(B)(I) through (IV), if the prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based;

(iii) a class A misdemeanor if:

(A) the value of the service stolen is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500; or

(B) the actor has been twice before convicted of any of the offenses listed in Subsections (3)(b)(ii)(B)(I) through (IV), if each prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based; or

(iv) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the service is less than $500 and the theft is not an offense under Subsection (3)(b)(iii).

(c)

(i) An actor who violates this section shall make restitution to the utility or cable television company for the value of the gas, electricity, water, sewer, or cable television service consumed in violation of this section plus all reasonable expenses and costs incurred on account of the violation of this section.

(ii) Reasonable expenses and costs include expenses and costs for investigation, disconnection, reconnection, service calls, employee time, and equipment use.

(4)

(a) The presence on property in the possession of an actor of a device or alteration that permits the diversion or use of utility or cable service to avoid the registration of the use by or on a meter installed by the utility or to otherwise avoid the recording of use of the service for payment or otherwise avoid payment gives rise to an inference that the actor in possession of the property installed the device or caused the alteration if:

(i) the presence of the device or alteration can be attributed only to a deliberate act in furtherance of an intent to avoid payment for utility or cable television service; and

(ii) the actor charged has received the direct benefit of the reduction of the cost of the utility or cable television service.

(b) An actor who aids or abets in a prohibited act is a party to the offense under Section 76-2-202.

(5)
(a) Criminal prosecution under this section does not affect the right of a utility or cable television company to bring a civil action for redress for damages suffered as a result of the commission of any of the acts prohibited by this section.
(b) This section does not abridge or alter any other right, action, or remedy otherwise available to a utility or cable television company.

Amended by Chapter 178, 2025 General Session

76-6-409.5 Definitions.

As used in this section and Sections 76-6-409.6, 76-6-409.7, 76-6-409.8, 76-6-409.9, and 76-6-409.10:

(1) "Access device" means any telecommunication device including the telephone calling card number, electronic serial number, account number, mobile identification number, or personal identification number that can be used to obtain telephone service.
(2) "Clone cellular telephone" or "counterfeit cellular telephone" means a cellular telephone whose electronic serial number has been altered from the electronic serial number that was programmed in the telephone by the manufacturer by someone other than the manufacturer.
(3) "Cloning paraphernalia" means materials that, when possessed in combination, are capable of the creation of a cloned cellular telephone. These materials include scanners to intercept the electronic serial number and mobile identification number, cellular telephones, cables, EPROM chips, EPROM burners, software for programming the cloned telephone with a false electronic serial number and mobile identification number combination, a computer containing such software, and lists of electronic serial number and mobile identification number combinations.
(4) "Electronic serial number" means the unique number that:
(a) was programmed into a cellular telephone by its manufacturer;
(b) is transmitted by the cellular telephone; and
(c) is used by cellular telephone providers to validate radio transmissions to the system as having been made by an authorized device.
(5) "EPROM" or "Erasable programmable read-only memory" means an integrated circuit memory that can be programmed from an external source and erased, for reprogramming, by exposure to ultraviolet light.
(6) "Intercept" means to electronically capture, record, reveal, or otherwise access, the signals emitted or received during the operation of a cellular telephone without the consent of the sender or receiver, by means of any instrument, device or equipment.
(7) "Manufacture of an unlawful telecommunication device" means to produce or assemble an unlawful telecommunication device, or to modify, alter, program, or reprogram a telecommunication device to be capable of acquiring or facilitating the acquisition of telecommunication service without the consent of the telecommunication service provider.
(8) "Mobile identification number" means the cellular telephone number assigned to the cellular telephone by the cellular telephone carrier.
(9) "Possess" means to have physical possession or otherwise to exercise control over tangible property.
(10) "Sell" means to offer to, agree to offer to, or to sell, exchange, give, or dispose of an unlawful telecommunications device to another.
(11) "Telecommunication device" means:
(a) any type of instrument, device, machine, or equipment which is capable of transmitting or receiving telephonic, electronic, or radio communications; or

(b) any part of an instrument, device, machine, or equipment, or other computer circuit, computer chip, electronic mechanism, or other component, which is capable of facilitating the transmission or reception of telephonic or electronic communications within the radio spectrum allocated to cellular radio telephony.

(12) "Telecommunication service" includes any service provided for a charge or compensation to facilitate the origination, transmission, emission, or reception of signs, signals, writings, images, and sounds or intelligence of any nature by telephone, including cellular telephones, wire, radio, television optical or other electromagnetic system.

(13) "Telecommunication service provider" means any person or entity providing telecommunication service including a cellular telephone or paging company or other person or entity which, for a fee, supplies the facility, cell site, mobile telephone switching office, or other equipment or telecommunication service.

(14) "Unlawful telecommunication device" means any telecommunication device that is capable of, or has been altered, modified, programmed, or reprogrammed, alone or in conjunction with another access device, so as to be capable of, acquiring or facilitating the acquisition of a telecommunication service without the consent of the telecommunication service provider. Unlawful devices include tumbler phones, counterfeit phones, tumbler microchips, counterfeit microchips, and other instruments capable of disguising their identity or location or of gaining access to a communications system operated by a telecommunication service provider.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-409.6 Use of telecommunication device to avoid lawful charge for service.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-409.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits use of a telecommunication device to avoid lawful charge for service if the actor uses a telecommunication device:

(a) with the intent to avoid the payment of a lawful charge for telecommunication service; or

(b) with the knowledge that the use of the telecommunication device was to avoid the payment of a lawful charge for telecommunication service.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is:

(i) a class B misdemeanor, if the value of the telecommunication service is less than $300 or cannot be ascertained;

(ii) a class A misdemeanor, if the value of the telecommunication service charge is or exceeds $300 but is not more than $1,000;

(iii) a third degree felony, if the value of the telecommunication service is or exceeds $1,000 but is not more than $5,000; or

(iv) a second degree felony, if:

(A) the value of the telecommunication service is or exceeds $5,000;

(B) the cloned cellular telephone was used to facilitate the commission of a felony; or

(C) the actor previously has been convicted of a violation of this section.

(b) An actor who violates this section is subject to the restitution and civil action provisions described in Section 76-6-409.10.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-409.7 Possession of unlawful telecommunication device.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-409.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits possession of unlawful telecommunication device if the actor knowingly possesses an unlawful telecommunication device.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b) or (3)(c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the actor knowingly possesses five or more unlawful telecommunication devices in the same criminal episode.
(c) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the actor:
(i) knowingly and unlawfully possesses an instrument capable of intercepting electronic serial number and mobile identification number combinations under circumstances evidencing an intent to clone; or
(ii) knowingly and unlawfully possesses cloning paraphernalia under circumstances evidencing an intent to clone.
(d) An actor who violates this section is subject to the restitution and civil action provisions described in Section 76-6-409.10.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-409.8 Sale of an unlawful telecommunication device.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-409.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits sale of unlawful telecommunication device if the actor intentionally sells an unlawful telecommunication device or material, including hardware, data, computer software, or other information or equipment, knowing that the purchaser or a third person intends to use such material in the manufacture of an unlawful telecommunication device.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the offense involves the intentional sale of five or more unlawful telecommunication devices within a six-month period.
(c) An actor who violates this section is subject to the restitution and civil action provisions described in Section 76-6-409.10.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-409.9 Manufacture of an unlawful telecommunication device.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-409.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits manufacture of unlawful telecommunication device if the actor intentionally manufactures an unlawful telecommunication device.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is third degree felony.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the offense involves the intentional manufacture of five or more unlawful telecommunication devices within a six-month period.
(c) An actor who violates this section is subject to the restitution and civil action provisions described in Section 76-6-409.10.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-409.10 Payment of restitution -- Civil action -- Other remedies retained.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-409.5 apply to this section.
(2)
(i) An actor who violates Section 76-6-409.6, 76-6-409.7, 76-6-409.8, or 76-6-409.9 shall make restitution to the telecommunication service provider for the value of the telecommunication service consumed in the violation plus all reasonable expenses and costs incurred on account of the violation.
(ii) Reasonable expenses and costs include expenses and costs for investigation, service calls, employee time, and equipment use.
(b) A criminal prosecution under Section 76-6-409.6, 76-6-409.7, 76-6-409.8, or 76-6-409.9 does not affect the right of a telecommunication service provider to bring a civil action for redress for damages suffered as a result of the commission of any of the acts prohibited by Section 76-6-409.6, 76-6-409.7, 76-6-409.8, or 76-6-409.9.
(3) This section does not abridge or alter any other right, action, or remedy otherwise available to a telecommunication service provider.

76-6-410 Theft by custodian of property pursuant to repair or rental agreement.
(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits theft by custodian of property pursuant to repair or rental agreement if:
(a)
(i) the actor has custody of property pursuant to an agreement between the actor or another person and the property's owner;
(ii) the actor or another person is to perform for compensation a specific service for the property's owner involving the maintenance, repair, or use of the owner's property; and
(iii) the actor intentionally uses or operates the owner's property, without the consent of the owner, for the actor's own purposes in a manner constituting a gross deviation from the agreed purpose; or
(b)
(i) the actor has custody of any property pursuant to a rental or lease agreement in which the property is to be returned in a specified manner or at a specified time; and
(ii) the actor intentionally fails to comply with the terms of the agreement concerning return so as to render such failure a gross deviation from the agreement.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a second degree felony if the:
(i) value of the property is or exceeds $5,000; or
(ii) property stolen is a firearm or an operable motor vehicle;
(b) a third degree felony if:
(i) the value of the property is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000;
(ii) the property is:
(A) a catalytic converter as defined under Section 76-6-1402; or
(B) 25 pounds or more of a suspect metal item as defined under Section 76-6-1402 if the value is less than $5,000 and the suspect metal is made of or contains aluminum or copper and is not a lead battery;
(iii) the value of the property is or exceeds $500 and the actor has been twice before convicted of any of the following offenses, if each prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based and at least one of those convictions is for a class A misdemeanor:

(A) any theft, any robbery, or any burglary with intent to commit theft;
(B) any offense under Part 5, Fraud;
(C) any attempt to commit any offense under Subsection (3)(b)(iii)(A) or (B); or
(D) any offense in another jurisdiction, including a state, federal, or military court, that is substantially equivalent to an offense under Subsection (3)(b)(iii)(A), (B), or (C); or
(iv) the actor has been previously convicted of a felony violation of any of the offenses listed in Subsections (3)(b)(iii)(A) through (D), if the prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based;
(c) a class A misdemeanor if:
(i) the value of the property stolen is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500; or
(ii) the actor has been twice before convicted of any of the offenses listed in Subsections (3)(b)(iii)(A) through (D), if each prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based; or
(d) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the property stolen is less than $500 and the theft is not an offense under Subsection (3)(c).

76-6-410.5 Theft of a rental vehicle.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Motor vehicle" means a self-propelled vehicle that is intended primarily for use and operation on the highways.
(ii) "Rental agreement" means a written agreement stating the terms and conditions governing the use of a motor vehicle provided by a rental company.
(iii) "Rental company" means a person or organization in the business of providing motor vehicles to the public.
(iv) "Renter" means a person or organization obtaining the use of a motor vehicle from a rental company under the terms of a rental agreement.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits theft of a rental vehicle if the actor:
(a) is a renter; and
(b) without notice to and permission of the rental company, knowingly fails without good cause to return the vehicle within 72 hours after the time established for the return in the rental agreement.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony.
(4) If a motor vehicle is not rented on a periodic tenancy basis, the rental company shall include the following information, legibly written, as part of the terms of the rental agreement:
(a) the date and time the motor vehicle is required to be returned; and
(b) the maximum penalties under state law if the motor vehicle is not returned within 72 hours from the date and time stated in compliance with Subsection (4)(a).

76-6-413 Release of a fur-bearing animal -- Finding.

(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits release of a fur-bearing animal if the actor intentionally and without permission of the owner releases a fur-bearing animal raised for commercial purposes.
(3)
  (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.
  (b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the value of the property is or exceeds $5,000.
(4) The Legislature finds that the release of a fur-bearing animal raised for commercial purposes subjects the animal to unnecessary suffering through deprivation of food and shelter and compromises the animal's genetic integrity, thereby permanently depriving the owner of substantial value.
(5) An actor who violates Subsection (2) is civilly liable for three times the amount of actual damages, if any sustained by the plaintiff, and for costs of suit and reasonable attorney fees.

  (b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-401 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits theft resulting in economic interruption if:
  (a) the actor intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or negligently obtains or exercises unauthorized control over a business's or governmental entity's property with the intent to deprive the business or governmental entity of the property; and
  (b) the actor's actions under Subsection (2)(a) cause an economic interruption for the business or governmental entity.
(3)
  (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b) or (c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
  (b) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the actor has two prior convictions for a violation of Subsection (2) within five years before the day on which the actor committed the most recent violation of Subsection (2).
  (c) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the actor has at least three prior convictions for a violation of Subsection (2) within five years before the day on which the actor committed the most recent violation of Subsection (2).

(4) It is not a defense under this section that the actor did not know that the victim is a business or governmental entity.
(5) A prior conviction used for a penalty enhancement under Subsection (3)(b) or (c) is a conviction that is from a separate criminal episode than:
(a) the most recent violation of Subsection (2); and
(b) any other prior conviction that is used to enhance the penalty for the most recent violation of Subsection (2).
(6) The prosecuting attorney, or the grand jury if an indictment is returned, shall include notice in the information or indictment that the offense is subject to an enhancement under Subsection (3)(b) or (c).

76-6-703 Unlawful computer technology access or action or denial of service attack.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-702 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits unlawful computer technology access or action or denial of service attack if the actor:

(a) without authorization, or in excess of the actor's authorization, accesses or attempts to access computer technology if the access or attempt to access results in:
(i) the alteration, damage, destruction, copying, transmission, discovery, or disclosure of computer technology;
(ii) interference with or interruption of:
(A) the lawful use of computer technology; or
(B) the transmission of data;
(iii) physical damage to or loss of real, personal, or commercial property;
(iv) audio, video, or other surveillance of another person; or
(v) economic loss to any person or entity;

(b) after accessing computer technology that the actor is authorized to access, knowingly takes or attempts to take unauthorized or unlawful action that results in:
(i) the alteration, damage, destruction, copying, transmission, discovery, or disclosure of computer technology;
(ii) interference with or interruption of:
(A) the lawful use of computer technology; or
(B) the transmission of data;
(iii) physical damage to or loss of real, personal, or commercial property;
(iv) audio, video, or other surveillance of another person; or
(v) economic loss to any person or entity; or

(c) knowingly engages in a denial of service attack.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:

(a) a class B misdemeanor if:
(i) the economic loss or other loss or damage caused or the value of the money, property, or benefit obtained or sought to be obtained is less than $500; or
(ii) the information obtained is not confidential;
(b) a class A misdemeanor if the economic loss or other loss or damage caused or the value of the money, property, or benefit obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500;
(c) a third degree felony if:
(i) the economic loss or other loss or damage caused or the value of the money, property, or benefit obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000;
(ii) the property or benefit obtained or sought to be obtained is a license or entitlement;
(iii) the damage is to the license or entitlement of another person;
(iv) the information obtained is confidential or identifying information; or
(v) in gaining access the actor breaches or breaks through a security system; or
(d) a second degree felony if the economic loss or other loss or damage caused or the value of the money, property, or benefit obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $5,000.

(4)
(a) It is an affirmative defense that the actor obtained access or attempted to obtain access:
(i) in response to, and for the purpose of protecting against or investigating, a prior attempted or successful breach of security of computer technology whose security the actor is authorized or entitled to protect, and the access attempted or obtained was no greater than reasonably necessary for that purpose; or
(ii) pursuant to a search warrant or a lawful exception to the requirement to obtain a search warrant.
(b) In accordance with 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230, this section may not apply to, and nothing in this section may be construed to impose liability or culpability on, an interactive computer service for content provided by another person.
(c) This section does not affect, limit, or apply to any activity or conduct that is protected by the constitution or laws of this state, or by the constitution or laws of the United States.

(5)
(a) An interactive computer service is not guilty of violating this section if a person violates this section using the interactive computer service and the interactive computer service did not knowingly assist the person to commit the violation.
(b) A service provider is not guilty of violating this section for:
(i) action taken in relation to a customer of the service provider, for a legitimate business purpose, to install software on, monitor, or interact with the customer's Internet or other network connection, service, or computer for network or computer security purposes, authentication, diagnostics, technical support, maintenance, repair, network management, updates of computer software or system firmware, or remote system management; or
(ii) action taken, including scanning and removing computer software, to detect or prevent the following:
(A) unauthorized or fraudulent use of a network, service, or computer software;
(B) illegal activity; or
(C) infringement of intellectual property rights.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-703.3 Unlawful use of technology to defraud.

(1)
(a) As used in this section, "sensitive personal identifying information" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-6-525.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-702 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful use of technology to defraud if the actor uses or knowingly allows another person to use a computer, computer network, computer property, or computer system, program, or software to devise or execute any artifice or scheme to defraud or to obtain money, property, a service, or other thing of value by a false pretense, promise, or representation.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the money, property, service, or thing obtained or sought to be obtained is less than $500;
(b) a class A misdemeanor if the value of the money, property, service, or thing obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500;
(c) a third degree felony if the value of the money, property, service, or thing obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000; or
(d) a second degree felony if:
(i) the value of the money, property, service, or thing obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $5,000; or
(ii) the object or purpose of the artifice or scheme to defraud is the obtaining of sensitive personal identifying information, regardless of the value.
(4)
(a) In accordance with 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230, this section may not apply to, and nothing in this section may be construed to impose liability or culpability on, an interactive computer service for content provided by another person.
(b) This section does not affect, limit, or apply to any activity or conduct that is protected by the constitution or laws of this state, or by the constitution or laws of the United States.
(5)
(a) An interactive computer service is not guilty of violating this section if a person violates this section using the interactive computer service and the interactive computer service did not knowingly assist the person to commit the violation.
(b) A service provider is not guilty of violating this section for:
(i) action taken in relation to a customer of the service provider, for a legitimate business purpose, to install software on, monitor, or interact with the customer's Internet or other network connection, service, or computer for network or computer security purposes, authentication, diagnostics, technical support, maintenance, repair, network management, updates of computer software or system firmware, or remote system management; or
(ii) action taken, including scanning and removing computer software, to detect or prevent the following:
(A) unauthorized or fraudulent use of a network, service, or computer software;
(B) illegal activity; or
(C) infringement of intellectual property rights.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-6-703.5 Interference or interruption of critical infrastructure.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-702 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits interference or interruption of critical infrastructure if the actor intentionally or knowingly, and without lawful authorization, interferes with or interrupts critical infrastructure.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.
(4)
(a) In accordance with 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230, this section may not apply to, and nothing in this section may be construed to impose liability or culpability on, an interactive computer service for content provided by another person.
(b) This section does not affect, limit, or apply to any activity or conduct that is protected by the constitution or laws of this state, or by the constitution or laws of the United States.
(5)
(a) An interactive computer service is not guilty of violating this section if a person violates this section using the interactive computer service and the interactive computer service did not knowingly assist the person to commit the violation.
(b) A service provider is not guilty of violating this section for:
(i) action taken in relation to a customer of the service provider, for a legitimate business purpose, to install software on, monitor, or interact with the customer's Internet or other network connection, service, or computer for network or computer security purposes, authentication, diagnostics, technical support, maintenance, repair, network management, updates of computer software or system firmware, or remote system management; or
(ii) action taken, including scanning and removing computer software, to detect or prevent the following:
(A) unauthorized or fraudulent use of a network, service, or computer software;
(B) illegal activity; or
(C) infringement of intellectual property rights.

76-6-703.7 Unlawful computer access.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-702 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful computer access if:
(a) the actor intentionally or knowingly, and without authorization, gains or attempts to gain access to a computer, computer network, computer property, or computer system; and
(b) the circumstances of the violation of Subsection (2)(a) do not constitute an offense under Section 76-6-703, 76-6-703.3, 76-6-703.5, or 76-12-205.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(4)
(a) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), a retailer that uses an electronic product identification or tracking system, or other technology, to identify, track, or price goods is not guilty of a violation of this section if the equipment designed to read the electronic product identification or tracking system data and used by the retailer to identify, track, or price goods is located within the retailer's location.
(b) It is an affirmative defense to a violation under this section that the actor obtained access or attempted to obtain access:
(i) in response to, and for the purpose of protecting against or investigating, a prior attempted or successful breach of security of computer technology whose security the actor is authorized or entitled to protect, and the access attempted or obtained was no greater than reasonably necessary for that purpose; or
(ii) pursuant to a search warrant or a lawful exception to the requirement to obtain a search warrant.

(c) In accordance with 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230, this section may not apply to, and nothing in this section may be construed to impose liability or culpability on, an interactive computer service for content provided by another person.
(d) This section does not affect, limit, or apply to any activity or conduct that is protected by the constitution or laws of this state, or by the constitution or laws of the United States.
(5)
(a) An interactive computer service is not guilty of violating this section if an actor violates this section using the interactive computer service and the interactive computer service did not knowingly assist the actor to commit the violation.
(b) A service provider is not guilty of violating this section for:
(i) action taken in relation to a customer of the service provider, for a legitimate business purpose, to install software on, monitor, or interact with the customer's Internet or other network connection, service, or computer for network or computer security purposes, authentication, diagnostics, technical support, maintenance, repair, network management, updates of computer software or system firmware, or remote system management; or
(ii) action taken, including scanning and removing computer software, to detect or prevent the following:
(A) unauthorized or fraudulent use of a network, service, or computer software;
(B) illegal activity; or
(C) infringement of intellectual property rights.

Part 8
Library Theft

76-6-801 Library theft.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Library" means:

(A) a public library;

(B) a library of an educational or historical society;

(C) a museum; or

(D) a repository of public records.

(ii) "Library materials" means a book, plate, picture, photograph, engraving, painting, drawing, map, newspaper, magazine, pamphlet, broadside, manuscript, document, letter, public record, microfilm, sound recording, audiovisual materials in any format, electronic data processing records, artifacts, or other documentary, written or printed materials regardless of physical form or characteristics, belonging to, on loan to, or otherwise in the custody of a library.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits library theft if the actor:

(a) willfully, for the purpose of converting to personal use, and depriving the owner, conceals on the actor's person or among the actor's belongings library materials while on the premises of the library; or

(b) willfully and without authority removes library materials from the library building with the intention of converting them to the actor's own use.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:

(a) a second degree felony if the value of the library materials is or exceeds $5,000;

(b) a third degree felony if:

(i) the value of the library materials is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000;

(ii) the value of the library materials is or exceeds $500 and the actor has been twice before convicted of any of the following offenses, if each prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based and at least one of those convictions is for a class A misdemeanor:

(A) any theft, any robbery, or any burglary with intent to commit theft;

(B) any offense under Part 5, Fraud; or

(C) any attempt to commit any offense under Subsection (3)(b)(ii)(A) or (B);

(iii)

(A) the value of the library materials is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500;

(B) the theft occurs on a property where the offender has committed any theft within the past five years; and

(C) the offender has received written notice from the library prohibiting the offender from entering the property if the library has complied with the provisions of Subsection 78B-3-108(4) governing notice by a merchant; or

(iv) the actor has been previously convicted of a felony violation of any of the offenses listed in Subsections (3)(b)(ii)(A) through (3)(b)(ii)(C), if the prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based;

(c) a class A misdemeanor if:

(i) the value of the library materials stolen is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500;

(ii)

(A) the value of the library materials is less than $500;

(B) the theft occurs on a property where the offender has committed any theft within the past five years; and
(C) the offender has received written notice from the library if the library has complied with the provisions of Subsection 78B-3-108(4) governing notice by a merchant; or
(iii) the actor has been twice before convicted of any of the offenses listed in Subsections (3)(b)(ii)(A) through (3)(b)(ii)(C), if each prior offense was committed within 10 years before the date of the current conviction or the date of the offense upon which the current conviction is based; or
(d) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the library materials stolen is less than $500 and the theft is not an offense under Subsection (3)(c).
(4)
(a) An actor who willfully conceals library materials on the actor's person or among the actor's belongings while on the premises of the library or in the library's immediate vicinity is prima facie presumed to have concealed library materials with the intention of converting the library materials to the actor's own use.
(b) If library materials are found concealed upon the actor's person or among the actor's belongings, or electronic security devices are activated by the actor's presence, it is prima facie evidence of willful concealment.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2006 General Session

76-6-902 Antiquities alteration, removal, injury, or destruction.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-901 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits antiquities alteration, removal, injury, or destruction if the actor:
(a) intentionally alters, removes, injures, or destroys antiquities from state lands or private lands without the landowner's consent; or
(b) counsels, procures, solicits, or employs another person to violate Subsection (2)(a).
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if:
(i) the violation is the actor's second or subsequent violation of this section, Section 76-6-902.1, or Section 76-6-902.2; or
(ii) the amount at issue, as calculated under Subsection (3)(c), exceeds $500.
(c) The amount described in Subsection (3)(b)(ii) is calculated by adding together:
(i) the commercial or archaeological value of the antiquities involved in the violation; and
(ii) the cost of the restoration and repair of the antiquities involved in the violation.
(d) An actor shall surrender to the landowner all articles and material discovered, collected, excavated, or offered for sale or exchange in violation of this section.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-902.1 Unlawful creation, labeling, or sale of reproduction of antiquities.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-901 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful reproduction, labeling, or sale of reproduction of antiquities if the actor:
(a) with the intent to represent one or more objects as original and genuine antiquities, intentionally:
(i) reproduces, reworks, or forges antiquities; or
(ii)
(A) makes an object, whether as a copy or not; or
(B) falsely labels, describes, identifies, or offers for sale or exchange an object; or
(b) counsels, procures, solicits, or employs another person to violate Subsection (2)(a).
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if:
(i) the violation is the actor's second or subsequent violation of this section, Section 76-6-902, or Section 76-6-902.2; or
(ii) the amount at issue, as calculated under Subsection (3)(c), exceeds $500.
(c) The amount described in Subsection (3)(b)(ii) is calculated by adding together:
(i) the commercial or archaeological value of the antiquities involved in the violation; and
(ii) the cost of the restoration and repair of the antiquities involved in the violation.
(d) An actor shall surrender to the landowner all articles and material discovered, collected, excavated, or offered for sale or exchange in violation of this section.

Enacted by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-902.2 Unlawful sale or exchange of antiquities.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-901 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits unlawful sale or exchange of antiquities if the actor:
(a) offers for sale or exchange an object that was collected or excavated in violation of Section 76-6-902; or
(b) counsels, procures, solicits, or employs another person to violate Subsection (2)(a).
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if:
(i) the violation is the actor's second or subsequent violation of this section, Section 76-6-902, or Section 76-6-902.1; or
(ii) the amount at issue, as calculated under Subsection (3)(c), exceeds $500.
(c) The amount described in Subsection (3)(b)(ii) is calculated by adding together:
(i) the commercial or archaeological value of the antiquities involved in the violation; and
(ii) the cost of the restoration and repair of the antiquities involved in the violation.
(d) An actor shall surrender to the landowner all articles and material discovered, collected, excavated, or offered for sale or exchange in violation of this section.

Part 10
Mail Box Damage and Mail Theft

76-6-1001 Definitions.

As used in this part:
(1) "Common mail carrier" means a person engaged in or transacting the business of collecting, transporting, or delivering mail, other than the United States Postal Service.
(2) "Key" means any instrument used by the postal service and postal customer, and which is designed to operate the lock on a mail receptacle.
(3) "Mail" means any letter, card, parcel, or other material, along with its contents, that:
(a) has postage affixed by the postal customer or postal service;
(b) has been accepted for delivery by the postal service;
(c) the postal customer leaves for collection by the postal service; or
(d) the postal service delivers to the postal customer.
(4) "Mail receptacle" means a mail box, post office box, rural box, or any place or area intended or used by postal customers or a postal service for the collection or delivery of mail.
(5) "Personal identifying information" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-6-1101.
(6) "Postage" means a postal service stamp, permit imprint, meter strip, or other indication of either prepayment for postal service provided or authorization by the postal service for collection and delivery of mail.
(7) "Postal service" means the United States Postal Service or a private common mail carrier.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-1002 Damage to mail receptacle.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-1001 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits damage to a mail receptacle if the actor knowingly damages the condition of a mail receptacle, including:
(a) taking, concealing, damaging, or destroying a key; or
(b) breaking open, tearing down, taking, damaging, or destroying a mail receptacle.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a:
(i) second degree felony if the actor's conduct causes or is intended to cause pecuniary loss equal to or in excess of $5,000 in value;
(ii) third degree felony if the actor's conduct causes or is intended to cause pecuniary loss equal to or in excess of $1,500 but is less than $5,000 in value;
(iii) class A misdemeanor if the actor's conduct causes or is intended to cause pecuniary loss equal to or in excess of $500 but is less than $1,500 in value; and
(iv) class B misdemeanor if the actor's conduct causes or is intended to cause pecuniary loss less than $500 in value.
(b) If the act committed amounts to an offense subject to a greater penalty, Subsection (3)(a) does not prohibit prosecution and sentencing for the more serious offense.
(4) The following presumptions and defenses shall be applicable to this section:
(a) possession of property recently stolen, when no satisfactory explanation of such possession is made, is prima facie evidence that the actor in possession stole the property;
(b) it is no defense under this part that the actor has an interest in the property or service stolen if another person also has an interest that the actor is not entitled to infringe, provided an interest in property for purposes of this Subsection (4)(b) shall not include a security interest for the repayment of a debt or obligation; and
(c) it is a defense under this section that the actor:
(i) acted under an honest claim of right to the property or service involved;
(ii) acted in the honest belief that the actor had the right to obtain or exercise control over the property or service as the actor did; or
(iii) obtained or exercised control over the property or service honestly believing that the owner, if present, would have consented.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-1003 Mail theft.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-1001 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits mail theft if the actor:
(a) knowingly, and with the intent to deprive another:
(i) takes, destroys, hides, or embezzles mail; or
(ii) obtains any mail by fraud or deception; or
(b) buys, receives, conceals, or possesses mail and knows or reasonably should have known that the mail was unlawfully taken or obtained.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a third degree felony;
(b) a class A misdemeanor, if the mail has no monetary value and does not include the name of an individual; or
(c) a second degree felony, if the mail contains the personal identifying information of 10 or more individuals.
(4) The following presumptions and defenses shall be applicable to this section:

(a) possession of property recently stolen, when no satisfactory explanation of such possession is made, is prima facie evidence that the actor in possession stole the property;
(b) it is no defense under this section that the actor has an interest in the property or service stolen if another person also has an interest that the actor is not entitled to infringe, provided an interest in property for purposes of this Subsection (4)(b) shall not include a security interest for the repayment of a debt or obligation; and
(c) it is a defense under this section that:
(i) the actor acted under an honest claim of right to the property or service involved;
(ii) the actor acted in the honest belief that the actor had the right to obtain or exercise control over the property or service as the actor did;
(iii) the actor obtained or exercised control over the property or service honestly believing that the owner, if present, would have consented;
(iv) the actor was unaware that the mail belonged to another person;
(v) the actor reasonably believed the actor was entitled to the mail or had a right to acquire or dispose of the mail as the actor did; or
(vi) the mail belonged to the actor's spouse, unless the parties were either legally separated or living in separate residences at the time of the alleged mail theft.

(vii) place of employment;
(viii) employee identification numbers or other personal identification numbers;
(ix) mother's maiden name;
(x) electronic identification numbers;
(xi) electronic signatures under Title 46, Chapter 4, Uniform Electronic Transactions Act;
(xii) any other numbers or information that can be used to access a person's financial resources or medical information, except for numbers or information that can be prosecuted as financial transaction card offenses under Sections 76-6-506, 76-6-506.2, 76-6-506.3, and 76-6-506.6; or (xiii) a photograph or any other realistic likeness.
(b) "Restitution" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38b-102.

Repealed and Re-enacted by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-1102 Identity fraud.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-1101 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits identity fraud if the actor knowingly or intentionally uses, or attempts to use, the personal identifying information of another person, whether that person is alive or deceased, with fraudulent intent, including to obtain, or attempt to obtain, credit, goods, services, employment, any other thing of value, or medical information.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (3)(b)(ii), a third degree felony if the value of the credit, goods, services, employment, or any other thing of value is less than $5,000; or

(b) a second degree felony if:

(i) the value of the credit, goods, services, employment, or any other thing of value is or exceeds $5,000; or

(ii) the use described in Subsection (2) of personal identifying information results, directly or indirectly, in bodily injury to another person.

(4)

(a) It is not a defense to a violation of Subsection (2) that the actor did not know that the personal information belonged to another person.

(b) Multiple violations of Subsection (2) may be aggregated into a single offense, and the degree of the offense is determined by the total value of all credit, goods, services, or any other thing of value used, or attempted to be used, through the multiple violations.

(5)

(a) If a defendant is convicted of a violation of this section, the court shall order the defendant to pay restitution in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act.

(b) Restitution under Subsection (5)(a) may include:

(i) payment for any costs incurred, including attorney fees, lost wages, and replacement of checks; and

(ii) the value of the victim's time incurred due to the offense:

(A) in clearing the victim's credit history or credit rating;

(B) in any civil or administrative proceedings necessary to satisfy or resolve any debt, lien, or other obligation of the victim or imputed to the victim and arising from the offense; and

(C) in attempting to remedy any other intended or actual harm to the victim incurred as a result of the offense.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-1103 Investigation of violation.

In addition to investigations conducted by law enforcement agencies, the Office of the Attorney General also has responsibility for investigating violations of this part where identity fraud is the primary violation that is alleged to have been committed.

Amended by Chapter 227, 2004 General Session

76-6-1104 Court records.

In any case in which a person commits identify fraud and uses the personal identifying information obtained to commit a crime in addition to the identity fraud, the court shall make appropriate findings in any prosecution of such a crime that the person whose identity was falsely used to commit the crime did not commit the crime.

Enacted by Chapter 57, 2000 General Session

76-6-1105 Unlawful possession of another's identification documents.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i)
(A) "Identifying document" means:
(I) a government issued document commonly used for identification;

Part 13
Utah Automated Sales Suppression Device Act

76-6-1302 Definitions.
As used in this part:
(1) "Automated sales suppression device" means:
(a) a software program that falsifies the electronic records of electronic cash registers or any other point-of-sale systems, including transaction data and transaction reports; or
(b) a general reference to a device that allows for, creates, or supports an automated sales suppression system or any kind of phantomware.
(2) "Electronic cash register" means any device, wherever located, that maintains a transaction register or supporting documents by means of an electronic device or computer system designed to record transaction data for the purpose of computing, compiling, or processing retail, wholesale, or any other sales transaction data.
(3) "Person" means an individual, business, or entity.
(4) "Phantomware" means a programming option that:
(a) is pre-installed, installed at a later time, or otherwise embedded in the operating system of an electronic cash register or hardwired into the electronic cash register; and

(b) can be used to create a virtual alternate register or to eliminate or manipulate transaction records that may or may not be preserved in digital formats in order to represent a manipulated record or records of transactions in the electronic cash register.

(5) "Transaction data" includes items purchased by a customer, the price for each item, a taxability determination for each item, a segregated tax amount for each of the taxed items, the amount of cash or credit tendered, the net amount returned to the customer in change or in a refund, the date and time of the purchase, the name, address, and identification number of the vendor, and the receipt or invoice number of the transaction.

(6) "Transaction report" means a report that includes the sales, taxes collected, media totals, and discount voids at an electronic cash register and that is generated at the end of a day or shift. The report is printed on cash register tape or is stored electronically.

Enacted by Chapter 32, 2012 General Session

76-6-1303 Possession, sale, or use of automated sales suppression device unlawful.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-1302 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits possession, sale, or use of an automated sales suppression device if the actor willfully or knowingly sells, purchases, installs, transfers, uses, or possesses in this state any automated sales suppression device or phantomware with the intent to defraud.

(3)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.

(b) A second or subsequent violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 76-3-301, any person convicted of violating Subsection (2) may be fined not more than twice the amount of the applicable taxes that would otherwise be due, but for the use of the automated sales suppression device or phantomware.

(d) Any person convicted of a violation of Subsection (2):

(i) is liable for all applicable taxes, penalties under Section 59-1-401, and interest under Section 59-1-402 that would otherwise be due, but for the use of the automated sales suppression device or phantomware to evade the payment of taxes; and

(ii) shall disgorge all profits associated with the sale or use of an automated sales suppression device or phantomware.

(4) An automated sales suppression device and any device containing an automated sales suppression device is contraband and subject to forfeiture under Title 77, Chapter 11b, Forfeiture of Seized Property.

76-6-1403 Requirements for records of sale or purchases.
(1) Every dealer shall:
(a) require the information under Subsection (2) for each transaction of regulated metal, except under Subsection 76-6-1406(4); and
(b) maintain for each purchase of regulated metal the information required by this part in a written or electronic log, in the English language.
(2) The dealer shall require the following information of the seller and shall record the information as required under Subsection (1) for each purchase of regulated metal:
(a) a complete description of the regulated metal, including weight and metallic description, in accordance with scrap metal recycling industry standards;
(b) the full name and residence of each person selling the regulated metal;
(c) the vehicle type and license plate number, if applicable, of the vehicle transporting the regulated metal to the dealer;
(d) the price per pound and the amount paid for each type of regulated metal purchased by the dealer;

(e) the date, time, and place of the purchase;
(f) the type and the identifying number of the identification provided in Subsection (2)(g);
(g) a form of identification that is a valid United States federal or state-issued photo ID, which includes a driver license, a United States passport, a United States passport card, or a United States military identification card;
(h) the seller's signature on a certificate stating that the seller has the legal right to sell the scrap metal or junk; and
(i) a digital photograph or still video of the seller, taken at the time of the sale, or a clearly legible photocopy of the seller's identification.
(3) No entry in the log may be erased, deleted, mutilated, or changed.
(4) The log and entries shall be open to inspection by the following officials having jurisdiction over the area in which the dealer does business during regular business hours:
(a) the county sheriff or deputies;
(b) any law enforcement agency; and
(c) any constable or other state, municipal, or county official in the county in which the dealer does business.
(5) A dealer shall make these records available for inspection by any law enforcement agency, upon request, at the dealer's place of business during the dealer's regular business hours.
(6) Log entries made under this section shall be maintained for not less than three years from date of entry.
(7)
(a) The dealer may maintain the information required by Subsection (2) for repeat sellers who use the same vehicle to bring regulated metal for each transaction in a relational database that allows the dealer to enter an initial record of the seller's information and then relate subsequent transaction records to that initial information, except under Subsection (7)(b).
(b) The dealer shall obtain regarding each transaction with repeat sellers:
(i) a photograph of the seller; and
(ii) a signature from the seller.
(8) A dealer who violates this section is subject to the penalties described in Section 76-6-1403.1.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-1403.1 Unlawful conduct with respect to record of sale or purchase.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-1402 apply to this section.
(2) A dealer commits unlawful conduct with respect to record of sale or purchase if the dealer violates a requirement under Section 76-6-1403.
(3)
(i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.
(ii) A dealer who is convicted of a class C misdemeanor under this section is subject to a mandatory fine of no less than $750.
(b)
(i) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the dealer previously has been convicted of a violation of this section or Section 76-6-1404.1, 76-6-1405.1, 76-6-1406.1, or 76-6-1409.1.
(ii) A dealer who is convicted of a class A misdemeanor under this section is subject to a mandatory fine of no less than $2,500.

(a) This section does not impair the authority of a county or municipality in this state to license, tax, and regulate any junk dealer or metal dealer, except that local regulations may not be any less stringent than the provisions in Section 76-6-1403 or this section.
(b) This section does not impair the authority of a county or municipality to revoke or deny a business license or permit required by that county or municipality regulating the authority to sell, purchase, or possess metal, including the revocation or denial of a business license or permit based on a violation of Section 76-6-1403 or this section.
(c) This section does not prohibit the charging of a seller or dealer with any other criminal offense related to the obtaining, possession, or selling of stolen regulated metals.

76-6-1405 Qualifications to sell to dealer.

(1) A dealer may not purchase regulated metal from a person younger than 18 years old.

(2) If the person is unable to comply with all the identification requirements of Subsection 76-6-1403(2), the dealer may not conduct a transaction of regulated metal with that person.

(3) A dealer who violates this section is subject to the penalties described in Section 76-6-1405.1.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-1405.1 Unlawful failure to comply with qualifications to sell to dealer.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-1402 apply to this section.

(2) A dealer commits unlawful failure to comply with qualifications to sell to dealer if the dealer violates a requirement under Section 76-6-1405.

(3)

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.

(ii) A dealer who is convicted of a class C misdemeanor under this section is subject to a mandatory fine of no less than $750.

(b)

(i) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the dealer previously has been convicted of a violation of this section or Section 76-6-1403.1, 76-6-1404.1, 76-6-1406.1, or 76-6-1409.1.

(ii) A dealer who is convicted of a class A misdemeanor under this section is subject to a mandatory fine of no less than $2,500.

(a) This section does not impair the authority of a county or municipality in this state to license, tax, and regulate any junk dealer or metal dealer, except that local regulations may not be any less stringent than the provisions in Section 76-6-1405 or this section.

(b) This section does not impair the authority of a county or municipality to revoke or deny a business license or permit required by that county or municipality regulating the authority to sell, purchase, or possess metal, including the revocation or denial of a business license or permit based on a violation of Section 76-6-1405 or this section.

(c) This section does not prohibit the charging of a seller or dealer with any other criminal offense related to the obtaining, possession, or selling of stolen regulated metals.

76-6-1406 Restrictions on the purchase of regulated metal -- Exemption.

(1) A dealer may conduct purchase transactions involving regulated metal only between the hours of 6 a.m. and 7 p.m.

(2) Except when the dealer pays a government entity by check for regulated metal, the dealer may not purchase any of the following regulated metal without obtaining and keeping on file reasonable documentation that the seller is an employee, agent, or contractor of a governmental entity who is authorized to sell the item of regulated metal property on behalf of the governmental entity:

(a) a manhole cover or sewer grate;
(b) an electric light pole; or
(c) a guard rail.

(3)
(a) A dealer may not purchase suspect metal without obtaining the information under Subsection (3)(b) identifying the owner of the suspect metal.
(b) The owner of the suspect metal shall provide in writing:
(i) the owner's telephone number;
(ii) the owner's business or residential address, which may not be a post box;
(iii) a copy of the owner's driver license; and
(iv) a signed statement that the person is the lawful owner of the suspect metal and authorizes the seller, identified by name, to sell the suspect metal.
(c) The dealer shall keep the identifying information provided in Subsection (3)(b) on file for not less than one year.

(4) Transactions with businesses that have an established account with the dealer are exempt from the requirements of Subsections (2) and (3) if the business holds a valid business license, and:
(a)
(i) the dealer has on file a statement from the business identifying those employees authorized to sell all metals to the dealer; and
(ii) the dealer conducts regulated metal transactions only with those identified employees of the business and records the name of the employee when recording the transaction;
(b) the dealer has on file reasonable documentation from the business that any person verified as representing the business as an employee, and whom the dealer has verified is an employee, may sell regulated metal; or
(c) the dealer makes payment for regulated metal purchased from a person by issuing a check to the business employing the seller.

(5) If a dealer is a catalytic converter purchaser as defined in Section 13-32a-102, the dealer shall comply with the requirements in Title 13, Chapter 32a, Pawnshop, Secondhand Merchandise, and Catalytic Converter Transaction Information Act.

(6) A dealer who violates this section is subject to the penalties described in Section 76-6-1406.1.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-1406.1 Unlawful failure to follow restrictions on the purchase of regulated metal.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-1402 apply to this section.

(2) A dealer commits unlawful failure to follow restrictions on the purchase of regulated metal if the dealer violates a requirement under Section 76-6-1406.

(3)
(i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.
(ii) A dealer who is convicted of a class C misdemeanor under this section is subject to a mandatory fine of no less than $750.
(b)
(i) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the dealer previously has been convicted of a violation of this section or Section 76-6-1403.1, 76-6-1404.1, 76-6-1405.1, or 76-6-1409.1.

(ii) A dealer who is convicted of a class A misdemeanor under this section is subject to a mandatory fine of no less than $2,500.

(a) This section does not impair the authority of a county or municipality in this state to license, tax, and regulate any junk dealer or metal dealer, except that local regulations may not be any less stringent than the provisions in Section 76-6-1406 or this section.

(b) This section does not impair the authority of a county or municipality to revoke or deny a business license or permit required by that county or municipality regulating the authority to sell, purchase, or possess metal, including the revocation or denial of a business license or permit based on a violation of Section 76-6-1406 or this section.

(c) This section does not prohibit the charging of a seller or dealer with any other criminal offense related to the obtaining, possession, or selling of stolen regulated metals.

76-6-1409 Hold on stolen regulated metal property -- Hold notice.

(1)

(a) If a law enforcement agency has reasonable cause to believe that items of regulated metal in the possession of a dealer are stolen, the law enforcement agency may issue a written hold notice.

(b) The hold notice described in Subsection (1)(a) shall:

(i) identify those items of regulated metal alleged to be stolen and subject to hold; and

(ii) inform the dealer of the restrictions imposed on the regulated metal property under Subsection (2).

(2) For 60 days after the date of receiving a hold notice, a dealer may not process or remove from the dealer's place of business any regulated metal identified in the hold notice, unless the property is released earlier by the law enforcement agency or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) On the expiration of the hold notice period, the hold is automatically released, and the dealer may dispose of the regulated metal, unless otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction.
(4) A dealer who violates this section is subject to the penalties described in Section 76-6-1409.1.

Amended by Chapter 111, 2023 General Session

76-6-1409.1 Unlawful violation of regulated metal hold requirement.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-1402 apply to this section.
(2) A dealer commits unlawful violation of regulated metal hold requirement if the dealer violates a requirement under Section 76-6-1409.
(3)
(i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.
(ii) A dealer who is convicted of a class C misdemeanor under this section is subject to a mandatory fine of no less than $750.
(b)
(i) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the dealer previously has been convicted of a violation of this section or Section 76-6-1403.1, 76-6-1404.1, 76-6-1405.1, or 76-6-1406.1.
(ii) A dealer who is convicted of a class A misdemeanor under this section is subject to a mandatory fine of no less than $2,500.
(4)
(a) This section does not impair the authority of a county or municipality in this state to license, tax, and regulate any junk dealer or metal dealer, except that local regulations may not be any less stringent than the provisions in Section 76-6-1409 or this section.
(b) This section does not impair the authority of a county or municipality to revoke or deny a business license or permit required by that county or municipality regulating the authority to sell, purchase, or possess metal, including the revocation or denial of a business license or permit based on a violation of Section 76-6-1409 or this section.

Chapter 7
Offenses Against the Family

Part 1
Marital Violations

76-7-101 Bigamy.
(1) An individual is guilty of bigamy if:
(a) the individual purports to marry another individual; and

(b) knows or reasonably should know that one or both of the individuals described in Subsection (1)(a) are legally married to another individual.
(2) An individual who violates Subsection (1) is guilty of an infraction.
(3) An individual is guilty of a third degree felony if the individual induces bigamy:
(a) under fraudulent or false pretenses; or
(b) by threat or coercion.
(4) An individual is guilty of a second degree felony if the individual:
(a) cohabitates with another individual with whom the individual is engaged in bigamy as described in Subsection (1); and
(b) in furtherance of the conduct described in Subsection (4)(a), commits a felony offense, or for Section 76-5-418, a misdemeanor offense, in violation of one or more of the following:
(i) Section 76-5-109, child abuse;
(ii) Section 76-5-109.2, aggravated child abuse;
(iii) Section 76-5-109.3, child abandonment;
(iv) Section 76-5-109.4, child torture;
(v) Section 76-5-111, abuse of a vulnerable adult;
(vi) Section 76-5-111.2, aggravated abuse of a vulnerable adult;
(vii) Section 76-5-111.3, personal dignity exploitation of a vulnerable adult;
(viii) Section 76-5-111.4, financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult;
(ix) Chapter 5, Part 2, Criminal Homicide;
(x) Section 76-5-208, child abuse homicide;
(xi) Chapter 5, Part 3, Kidnapping, Trafficking, and Smuggling;
(xii) Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than:
(A) Section 76-5-417, enticing a minor;
(B) Section 76-5-419, lewdness; or
(C) Section 76-5-420, lewdness involving a child;
(xiii) Section 76-7-201, criminal nonsupport;
(xiv) Title 77, Chapter 36, Cohabitant Abuse Procedures Act; or
(xv) Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 8, Criminal Protective Orders.
(5) It is a defense to prosecution under Subsection (2) that:
(a) the individual ceased the practice of bigamy as described in Subsection (1) under reasonable fear of coercion or bodily harm;
(b) the individual entered the practice of bigamy, as described in Subsection (1), as a minor and ceased the practice of bigamy at any time after the individual entered the practice of bigamy; or
(c) law enforcement discovers that the individual practices bigamy, as described in Subsection (1), as a result of the individual's efforts to protect the safety and welfare of another individual.

76-7-101.5 Child bigamy -- Penalty.
(1) An actor 18 years of age or older is guilty of child bigamy when, knowing he or she has a wife or husband, or knowing that a person under 18 years of age has a wife or husband, the actor carries out the following with the person who is under 18 years of age:
(a) purports to marry the person who is under 18 years of age; and
(b) cohabitates with the person who is under 18 years of age.
(2) A violation of Subsection (1) is a second degree felony.

Amended by Chapter 442, 2017 General Session

76-7-102 Incest -- Definitions -- Penalty.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Provider" means a person who provides or makes available his seminal fluid or her human egg.

(b) "Related person" means a person related to the provider or actor as an ancestor, descendant, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, or first cousin, and includes:

(i) blood relationships of the whole or half blood, regardless of whether the relationship is legally recognized;

(ii) the relationship of parent and child by adoption; and

(iii) the relationship of stepparent and stepchild while the marriage creating the relationship of a stepparent and stepchild exists.

(2)

(a) An actor is guilty of incest when, under circumstances not amounting to rape, rape of a child, or aggravated sexual assault, the actor knowingly and intentionally:

(i) engages in conduct under Subsection (2)(b)(i), (ii), (iii), or (iv); or

(ii) provides a human egg or seminal fluid under Subsection (2)(b)(v).

(b) Conduct referred to under Subsection (2)(a) is:

(i) sexual intercourse between the actor and a person the actor knows has kinship to the actor as a related person;

(ii) the insertion or placement of the provider's seminal fluid into the vagina, cervix, or uterus of a related person by means other than sexual intercourse;

(iii) providing or making available his seminal fluid for the purpose of insertion or placement of the fluid into the vagina, cervix, or uterus of a related person by means other than sexual intercourse;

(iv) a woman 18 years of age or older who:

(A) knowingly allows the insertion of the seminal fluid of a provider into her vagina, cervix, or uterus by means other than sexual intercourse; and

(B) knows that the seminal fluid is that of a person with whom she has kinship as a related person; or

(v) providing the actor's sperm or human egg that is used to conduct in vitro fertilization, or any other means of fertilization, with the human egg or sperm of a person who is a related person.

(c) This Subsection (2) does not prohibit providing a fertilized human egg if the provider of the fertilizing sperm is not a related person regarding the person providing the egg.

(3) Incest is a third degree felony.

(4) A provider under this section is not a donor under Section 81-5-702.

Amended by Chapter 426, 2025 General Session

Part 2
Nonsupport and Custody of Children

76-7-201 Criminal nonsupport.

(1) A person commits criminal nonsupport if, having a spouse, a child, or children under the age of 18 years, the person knowingly fails to provide for the support of a spouse, child, or children when any one of them:
  (a) is in needy circumstances; or
  (b) would be in needy circumstances but for support received from a source other than the defendant or paid on the defendant's behalf.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), criminal nonsupport is a class A misdemeanor.
(3) Criminal nonsupport is a felony of the third degree if the defendant:
  (a) has been convicted one or more times of nonsupport, whether in this state, any other state, or any court of the United States;
  (b) committed the offense while residing outside of Utah; or
  (c) commits the crime of nonsupport in each of 18 individual months within any 24-month period, or the total arrearage is in excess of $10,000.
(4) For purposes of this section "child" includes a child born out of wedlock whose paternity has been admitted by the defendant or has been established in a civil suit.
(5)
  (a) In a prosecution for criminal nonsupport under this section, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant is unable to provide support. Voluntary unemployment or underemployment by the defendant does not give rise to that defense.
  (b) Not less than 20 days before trial the defendant shall file and serve on the prosecuting attorney a notice, in writing, of the defendant's intention to claim the affirmative defense of inability to provide support. The notice shall specifically identify the factual basis for the defense and the names and addresses of the witnesses who the defendant proposes to examine in order to establish the defense.
  (c) Not more than 10 days after receipt of the notice described in Subsection (5)(b), or at such other time as the court may direct, the prosecuting attorney shall file and serve the defendant with a notice containing the names and addresses of the witnesses who the state proposes to examine in order to contradict or rebut the defendant's claim.
  (d) Failure to comply with the requirements of Subsection (5)(b) or (5)(c) entitles the opposing party to a continuance to allow for preparation. If the court finds that a party's failure to comply is the result of bad faith, it may impose appropriate sanctions.
(6) Criminal nonsupport is a continuing offense.

Amended by Chapter 209, 2020 General Session

76-7-202 Orders for support in criminal nonsupport proceedings.
(1) In any proceeding under Section 76-7-201, the court may, instead of imposing the punishments otherwise prescribed, issue an order directing the defendant to periodically pay a sum to the Office of Recovery Services, or otherwise as the court may direct, to be used for the support of the dependents who are the subject of the proceeding under Section 76-7-201.
(2) The order to periodically pay a sum for the support of the dependents:
  (a) may be issued with the consent of the defendant prior to trial, or after conviction, having regard to the circumstances, financial ability, and earning capacity of the defendant;
  (b) shall be subject to change from time to time as circumstances may require;
  (c) may not require payments for a period exceeding the term of probation provided for the offense with which the defendant is charged, or of which the defendant is found guilty; and
  (d) shall be conditioned upon the defendant either entering a recognizance in accordance with Subsection (3), or providing security in a sum as the court directs.

(3) The condition of recognizance shall require the defendant to:
(a) make personal appearance in court whenever ordered to do so within the period of probation; and
(b) comply with the terms of the order and any subsequent modifications of the order.
(4) If the court is satisfied by information and due proof under oath that at any time during the period of probation the defendant has violated the terms of the order, it may proceed with the trial of defendant under the original charge or sentence the defendant under the original conviction or enforce the original sentence as the case may be. In the case of forfeiture of bail or bond in any proceeding under Section 76-7-201, the sum recovered may, in the discretion of the court, be paid in whole or in part to the Office of Recovery Services, or otherwise as the court may direct, to be used for the support of the dependents involved.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

76-7-203 Sale of child -- Felony -- Payment of adoption related expenses.
(1) For purposes of this section:
(a) "Adoption related expenses" means expenses that:
(i) are reasonably related to the adoption of a child;
(ii) are incurred for a reasonable amount; and
(iii) may include expenses:
(A) of the mother or father of the child being adopted, including:
(I) legal expenses;
(II) maternity expenses;
(III) medical expenses;
(IV) hospital expenses;
(V) counseling expenses;
(VI) temporary living expenses and lost wages during the pregnancy of the mother for up to eight weeks after the day on which the mother delivers the child; or
(VII) expenses for travel between the mother's or father's home and the location where the child will be born or placed for adoption;
(B) of a directly affected person for:
(I) travel between the directly affected person's home and the location where the child will be born or placed for adoption; or
(II) temporary living expenses during the pregnancy or confinement of the mother; or
(C) other than those included in Subsection (1)(a)(iii)(A) or (B), that are not made for the purpose of inducing the mother, parent, or legal guardian of a child to:
(I) place the child for adoption;
(II) consent to an adoption; or
(III) cooperate in the completion of an adoption.
(b) "Directly affected person" means a person who is:
(i) a parent or guardian of a minor when the minor is the mother or father of the child being adopted;
(ii) a dependent of:
(A) the mother or father of the child being adopted; or
(B) the parent or guardian described in Subsection (1)(b)(i); or
(iii) the spouse or partner of the mother or father of the child being adopted.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), a person is guilty of a third degree felony if the person:

(a) while having custody, care, control, or possession of a child, sells, or disposes of the child, or attempts or offers to sell or dispose of the child, for and in consideration of the payment of money or another thing of value; or
(b) offers, gives, or attempts to give money or another thing of value to a person, with the intent to induce or encourage a person to violate Subsection (2)(a).
(3) A person does not violate this section by paying or receiving payment for adoption related expenses, if:
(a) the expenses are paid as an act of charity; and
(b) the payment is not made for the purpose of inducing the mother, parent, or legal guardian of a child to:
(i) place the child for adoption;
(ii) consent to an adoption; or
(iii) cooperate in the completion of an adoption.

Part 3
Abortion

76-7-301 Definitions.
As used in this part:
(1)
(a) "Abortion" means the act, by a physician, of using an instrument, or prescribing a drug, with the intent to cause the death of an unborn child of a woman known to be pregnant, except as permitted under this part.
(b) "Abortion" does not include:
(i) removal of a dead unborn child;
(ii) removal of an ectopic pregnancy; or
(iii) the killing or attempted killing of an unborn child without the consent of the pregnant woman, unless:
(A) the killing or attempted killing is done through a medical procedure carried out by a physician or through a substance used under the direction of a physician; and
(B) the physician is unable to obtain the consent due to a medical emergency.
(2) "Abortion clinic" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-201.
(3) "Abuse" means the same as that term is defined in Section 80-1-102.
(4) "Department" means the Department of Health and Human Services.
(5) "Down syndrome" means a genetic condition associated with an extra chromosome 21, in whole or in part, or an effective trisomy for chromosome 21.
(6) "Gestational age" means the age of an unborn child as calculated from the first day of the last menstrual period of the pregnant woman.
(7) "Hospital" means:
(a) a general hospital licensed by the department according to Title 26B, Chapter 2, Part 2, Health Care Facility Licensing and Inspection; and
(b) a clinic or other medical facility to the extent that such clinic or other medical facility is certified by the department as providing equipment and personnel sufficient in quantity and quality to provide the same degree of safety to the pregnant woman and the unborn child as would be provided for the particular medical procedures undertaken by a general hospital licensed by the department.

(8) "Information module" means the pregnancy termination information module prepared by the department.

(9) "Medical emergency" means a life threatening physical condition aggravated by, caused by, or arising from a pregnancy that places the pregnant woman at risk of death, or poses a serious risk of substantial impairment of a major bodily function, unless the abortion is performed or induced.

(10) "Minor" means an individual who is:

(a) under 18 years old;

(b) unmarried; and

(c) not emancipated.

(11)

(a) "Partial birth abortion" means an abortion in which the person performing the abortion:

(i) deliberately and intentionally vaginally delivers a living fetus until, in the case of a head first presentation, the entire fetal head is outside the body of the mother, or, in the case of breech presentation, any part of the fetal trunk past the navel is outside the body of the mother, for the purpose of performing an overt act that the person knows will kill the partially delivered living fetus; and

(ii) performs the overt act, other than completion of delivery, that kills the partially living fetus.

(b) "Partial birth abortion" does not include the dilation and evacuation procedure involving dismemberment prior to removal, the suction curettage procedure, or the suction aspiration procedure for abortion.

(12) "Perinatal hospice" means comprehensive support to the mother and her family from the time of the diagnosis of a lethal fetal anomaly, through the time of the child's birth, and through the postpartum period, that:

(a) focuses on alleviating fear and ensuring that the woman and her family experience the life and death of a child in a comfortable and supportive environment; and

(b) may include counseling or medical care by:

(i) maternal-fetal medical specialists;

(ii) obstetricians;

(iii) neonatologists;

(iv) anesthesia specialists;

(v) psychiatrists, psychologists, or other mental health providers;

(vi) clergy;

(vii) social workers; or

(viii) specialty nurses.

(13) "Physician" means:

(a) a medical doctor licensed to practice medicine and surgery under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act;

(b) an osteopathic physician licensed to practice osteopathic medicine under Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act; or

(c) a physician employed by the federal government who has qualifications similar to an individual described in Subsection (13)(a) or (b).

(14)

(a) "Severe brain abnormality" means a malformation or defect that causes an individual to live in a mentally vegetative state.

(b) "Severe brain abnormality" does not include:

(i) Down syndrome;
(ii) spina bifida;
(iii) cerebral palsy; or
(iv) any other malformation, defect, or condition that does not cause an individual to live in a mentally vegetative state.

76-7-301.1 Preamble -- Findings and policies of Legislature.

(1) It is the finding and policy of the Legislature, reflecting and reasserting the provisions of Article I, Sections 1 and 7, Utah Constitution, which recognize that life founded on inherent and inalienable rights is entitled to protection of law and due process; and that unborn children have inherent and inalienable rights that are entitled to protection by the state of Utah pursuant to the provisions of the Utah Constitution.
(2) The state of Utah has a compelling interest in the protection of the lives of unborn children.
(3) It is the intent of the Legislature to protect and guarantee to unborn children their inherent and inalienable right to life as required by Article I, Sections 1 and 7, Utah Constitution.
(4) It is also the policy of the Legislature and of the state that, in connection with abortion, a woman's liberty interest, in limited circumstances, may outweigh the unborn child's right to protection. These limited circumstances arise when the abortion is necessary to save the pregnant woman's life or prevent grave damage to her medical health, and when pregnancy occurs as a result of rape or incest. It is further the finding and policy of the Legislature and of the state that a woman may terminate the pregnancy if the unborn child would be born with grave defects.

76-7-301.5 Relationship to criminal homicide.

(1) This part does not apply to the killing or attempted killing of a live unborn child in any manner that is not an abortion.
(2) The killing or attempted killing of a live unborn child in a manner that is not an abortion shall be punished as provided in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 2, Criminal Homicide.

Enacted by Chapter 13, 2010 General Session

76-7-302 Circumstances under which abortion authorized.

(1) An abortion may be performed in this state only by a physician.
(2) An abortion may be performed in this state only under the following circumstances:
(a) the unborn child has not reached 18 weeks gestational age;
(b) the unborn child has reached 18 weeks gestational age, and:
(i) the abortion is necessary to avert:
(A) the death of the woman on whom the abortion is performed; or
(B) a serious physical risk of substantial impairment of a major bodily function of the woman on whom the abortion is performed; or
(ii) subject to Subsection (4), two physicians who practice maternal fetal medicine concur, in writing, in the patient's medical record that the fetus has a fetal abnormality that in the physicians' reasonable medical judgment is incompatible with life; or

(c) the unborn child has not reached 18 weeks gestational age and:
(i)
(A) the woman is pregnant as a result of:
(I) rape, as described in Section 76-5-402;
(II) rape of a child, as described in Section 76-5-402.1; or
(III) incest, as described in Subsection 76-5-406(2)(j) or Section 76-7-102; or
(B) the pregnant child is under the age of 14; and
(ii) before the abortion is performed, the physician who performs the abortion:
(A) for an abortion authorized under Subsection (2)(c)(i)(A), verifies that the incident described in Subsection (2)(c)(i)(A) has been reported to law enforcement; and
(B) if applicable, complies with the requirements of Section 80-2-602.
(3) An abortion may be performed only in an abortion clinic or a hospital, unless it is necessary to perform the abortion in another location due to a medical emergency.
(4) If the unborn child has been diagnosed with a fetal abnormality that is incompatible with life, at the time of the diagnosis, the physician shall inform the woman, both verbally and in writing, that perinatal hospice and perinatal palliative care services are available and are an alternative to abortion.
(5) A physician who performs an abortion under Subsection (2)(c) shall:
(a) maintain an accurate record as to the manner in which the physician conducted the verification under Subsection (2)(c)(ii)(A); and
(b) report the information described in Subsection (5)(a) to the department in accordance with Section 76-7-313.

76-7-302.4 Abortion restriction of an unborn child with Down syndrome.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, an abortion may not be performed if the pregnant mother's sole reason for the abortion is that the unborn child has or may have Down syndrome, unless the abortion is permissible for a reason described in Section 76-7-302.

Amended by Chapter 301, 2023 General Session

76-7-303 Concurrence of attending physician based on medical judgment.

No abortion may be performed in this state without the concurrence of the attending physician, based on the attending physician's best medical judgment.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

76-7-304 Considerations by physician -- Notice to a parent or guardian -- Exceptions.

(1) To enable the physician to exercise the physician's best medical judgment, the physician shall consider all factors relevant to the well-being of a pregnant woman upon whom an abortion is to be performed, including:
(a) her physical, emotional, and psychological health and safety;
(b) her age; and
(c) her familial situation.
(2) Subject to Subsection (3), at least 24 hours before a physician performs an abortion on a minor, the physician shall notify a parent or guardian of the minor that the minor intends to have an abortion.

(3) A physician is not required to comply with Subsection (2) if:
(a) subject to Subsection (4)(a):
(i) a medical condition exists that, on the basis of the physician's good faith clinical judgment, so complicates the medical condition of a pregnant minor as to necessitate the abortion of her pregnancy to avert:
(A) the minor's death; or
(B) a serious physical risk of substantial impairment of a major bodily function of the minor; and
(ii) there is not sufficient time to give the notice required under Subsection (2) before it is necessary to terminate the minor's pregnancy in order to avert the minor's death or impairment described in Subsection (3)(a)(i);
(b) subject to Subsection (4)(b):
(i) the physician complies with Subsection (5); and
(ii)
(A) the minor is pregnant as a result of incest to which the parent or guardian was a party; or
(B) the parent or guardian has abused the minor; or
(c) subject to Subsection (4)(b), the parent or guardian has not assumed responsibility for the minor's care and upbringing.
(4)
(a) If, for the reason described in Subsection (3)(a), a physician does not give the 24-hour notice described in Subsection (2), the physician shall give the required notice as early as possible before the abortion, unless it is necessary to perform the abortion immediately in order to avert the minor's death or impairment described in Subsection (3)(a)(i).
(b) If, for a reason described in Subsection (3)(b) or (c), a parent or guardian of a minor is not notified that the minor intends to have an abortion, the physician shall notify another parent or guardian of the minor, if the minor has another parent or guardian that is not exempt from notification under Subsection (3)(b) or (c).
(5) If, for a reason described in Subsection (3)(b)(ii)(A) or (B), a physician does not notify a parent or guardian of a minor that the minor intends to have an abortion, the physician shall report the incest or abuse to the Division of Child and Family Services within the Department of Health and Human Services.

Amended by Chapter 301, 2023 General Session

76-7-304.5 Consent required for abortions performed on minors -- Division of Child and Family Services as guardian of a minor -- Hearing to allow a minor to self-consent -- Appeals.

(1) In addition to the other requirements of this part, a physician may not perform an abortion on a minor unless:
(a) the physician obtains the informed written consent of a parent or guardian of the minor, in accordance with Sections 76-7-305 and 76-7-305.5;
(b) the minor is granted the right, by court order under Subsection (4)(b), to consent to the abortion without obtaining consent from a parent or guardian; or
(c)
(i) a medical condition exists that, on the basis of the physician's good faith clinical judgment, so complicates the medical condition of a pregnant minor as to necessitate the abortion of her pregnancy to avert:
(A) the minor's death; or

(B) a risk described in Subsection 76-7-302(2)(b)(i)(B); and
(ii) there is not sufficient time to obtain the consent in the manner chosen by the minor under Subsection (2) before it is necessary to terminate the minor's pregnancy in order to avert the minor's death or impairment described in Subsection (1)(c)(i).
(2)
(a) A minor who wants to have an abortion may choose:
(i) to seek consent from the minor's parent or guardian as described in Subsection (1); or
(ii) to seek a court order as described in Subsection (1).
(b) Neither Subsection (1) nor this Subsection (2) require the minor to seek or obtain consent from the minor's parent or guardian if the circumstances described in Subsection 76-7-304(3)(b)(ii) exist.
(3) If a minor does not obtain the consent of the minor's parent or guardian, the minor may file a petition with the juvenile court to obtain a court order as described in Subsection (1).
(4)
(a) The juvenile court shall close the hearing on a petition described in Subsection (3) to the public.
(b) After considering the evidence presented at the hearing, the court shall order that the minor may obtain an abortion without the consent of a parent or guardian of the minor if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that:
(i) the minor:
(A) has given her informed consent to the abortion; and
(B) is mature and capable of giving informed consent to the abortion; or
(ii) an abortion would be in the minor's best interest.
(5) The Judicial Council shall make rules that:
(a) provide for the administration of the proceedings described in this section;
(b) provide for the appeal of a court's decision under this section;
(c) ensure the confidentiality of the proceedings described in this section and the records related to the proceedings; and
(d) establish procedures to expedite the hearing and appeal proceedings described in this section.

Amended by Chapter 301, 2023 General Session

76-7-305 Informed consent requirements for abortion -- 72-hour wait mandatory -- Exceptions.

(1) A person may not perform an abortion, unless, before performing the abortion, the physician who will perform the abortion obtains from the woman on whom the abortion is to be performed a voluntary and informed written consent that is consistent with:
(a) Section 8.08 of the American Medical Association's Code of Medical Ethics, Current Opinions; and
(b) the provisions of this section.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (8), consent to an abortion is voluntary and informed only if, at least 72 hours before the abortion:
(a) a staff member of an abortion clinic or a hospital, physician, registered nurse, nurse practitioner, advanced practice registered nurse, certified nurse midwife, genetic counselor, or physician's assistant presents the information module to the pregnant woman;

(b) the pregnant woman views the entire information module and presents evidence to the individual described in Subsection (2)(a) that the pregnant woman viewed the entire information module;

(c) after receiving the evidence described in Subsection (2)(b), the individual described in Subsection (2)(a):

(i) documents that the pregnant woman viewed the entire information module;

(ii) gives the pregnant woman, upon her request, a copy of the documentation described in Subsection (2)(c)(i); and

(iii) provides a copy of the statement described in Subsection (2)(c)(i) to the physician who is to perform the abortion, upon request of that physician or the pregnant woman;

(d) after the pregnant woman views the entire information module, the physician who is to perform the abortion, the referring physician, a physician, a registered nurse, nurse practitioner, advanced practice registered nurse, certified nurse midwife, genetic counselor, or physician's assistant, in a face-to-face consultation in any location in the state, orally informs the woman of:

(i) the nature of the proposed abortion procedure;

(ii) specifically how the procedure described in Subsection (2)(d)(i) will affect the fetus;

(iii) the risks and alternatives to the abortion procedure or treatment;

(iv) the options and consequences of aborting a medication-induced abortion, if the proposed abortion procedure is a medication-induced abortion;

(v) the probable gestational age and a description of the development of the unborn child at the time the abortion would be performed;

(vi) the medical risks associated with carrying her child to term;

(vii) the right to view an ultrasound of the unborn child, at no expense to the pregnant woman, upon her request; and

(viii) when the result of a prenatal screening or diagnostic test indicates that the unborn child has or may have Down syndrome, the department's website, which contains the information described in Section 26B-7-106, including the information on the informational support sheet; and

(e) after the pregnant woman views the entire information module, a staff member of the abortion clinic or hospital provides to the pregnant woman:

(i) on a document that the pregnant woman may take home:

(A) the address for the department's website described in Section 76-7-305.5; and

(B) a statement that the woman may request, from a staff member of the abortion clinic or hospital where the woman viewed the information module, a printed copy of the material on the department's website;

(ii) a printed copy of the material on the department's website described in Section 76-7-305.5, if requested by the pregnant woman; and

(iii) a copy of the form described in Subsection 26B-2-232(3)(a)(i) regarding the disposition of the aborted fetus.

(3) Before performing an abortion, the physician who is to perform the abortion shall:

(a) in a face-to-face consultation, provide the information described in Subsection (2)(d), unless the attending physician or referring physician is the individual who provided the information required under Subsection (2)(d); and

(b)

(i) obtain from the pregnant woman a written certification that the information required to be provided under Subsection (2) and this Subsection (3) was provided in accordance with the requirements of Subsection (2) and this Subsection (3);

(ii) obtain a copy of the statement described in Subsection (2)(c)(i); and
(iii) ensure that:
(A) the woman has received the information described in Subsections 26B-2-232(3) and (4); and
(B) if the woman has a preference for the disposition of the aborted fetus, the woman has informed the health care facility of the woman's decision regarding the disposition of the aborted fetus.

(4) When a medical emergency compels the performance of an abortion, the physician shall inform the woman prior to the abortion, if possible, of the medical indications supporting the physician's judgment that an abortion is necessary.

(5) If an ultrasound is performed on a woman before an abortion is performed, the individual who performs the ultrasound, or another qualified individual, shall:
(a) inform the woman that the ultrasound images will be simultaneously displayed in a manner to permit her to:
(i) view the images, if she chooses to view the images; or
(ii) not view the images, if she chooses not to view the images;
(b) simultaneously display the ultrasound images in order to permit the woman to:
(i) view the images, if she chooses to view the images; or
(ii) not view the images, if she chooses not to view the images;
(c) inform the woman that, if she desires, the person performing the ultrasound, or another qualified person shall provide a detailed description of the ultrasound images, including:
(i) the dimensions of the unborn child;
(ii) the presence of cardiac activity in the unborn child, if present and viewable; and
(iii) the presence of external body parts or internal organs, if present and viewable; and
(d) provide the detailed description described in Subsection (5)(c), if the woman requests it.

(6) The information described in Subsections (2), (3), and (5) is not required to be provided to a pregnant woman under this section if the abortion is performed for a reason described in:
(a) Subsection 76-7-302(2)(b)(i), if the treating physician and one other physician concur, in writing, that the abortion is necessary to avert:
(i) the death of the woman on whom the abortion is performed; or
(ii) a risk described in Subsection 76-7-302(2)(b)(i)(B); or
(b) Subsection 76-7-302(2)(b)(ii).

(7) In addition to the criminal penalties described in this part, a physician who violates the provisions of this section:
(a) is guilty of unprofessional conduct as defined in Section 58-67-102 or 58-68-102; and
(b) shall be subject to:
(i) suspension or revocation of the physician's license for the practice of medicine and surgery in accordance with Section 58-67-401 or 58-68-401; and
(ii) administrative penalties in accordance with Section 58-67-402 or 58-68-402.

(8) A physician is not guilty of violating this section for failure to furnish any of the information described in Subsection (2) or (3), or for failing to comply with Subsection (5), if:
(a) the physician can demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the physician reasonably believed that furnishing the information would have resulted in a severely adverse effect on the physical or mental health of the pregnant woman;
(b) in the physician's professional judgment, the abortion was necessary to avert:
(i) the death of the woman on whom the abortion is performed; or
(ii) a risk described in Subsection 76-7-302(2)(b)(i)(B);

(c) the pregnancy was the result of rape or rape of a child, as described in Sections 76-5-402 and 76-5-402.1;
(d) the pregnancy was the result of incest, as defined in Subsection 76-5-406(2)(j) and Section 76-7-102; or
(e) at the time of the abortion, the pregnant child was 14 years old or younger.
(9) A physician who complies with the provisions of this section and Section 76-7-304.5 may not be held civilly liable to the physician's patient for failure to obtain informed consent under Section 78B-3-406.
(10)
(a) The department shall provide an ultrasound, in accordance with the provisions of Subsection (5)(b), at no expense to the pregnant woman.
(b) A local health department shall refer a pregnant woman who requests an ultrasound described in Subsection (10)(a) to the department.
(11) A physician is not guilty of violating this section if:
(a) the information described in Subsection (2) is provided less than 72 hours before the physician performs the abortion; and
(b) in the physician's professional judgment, the abortion was necessary in a case where:
(i) a ruptured membrane, documented by the attending or referring physician, will cause a serious infection; or
(ii) a serious infection, documented by the attending or referring physician, will cause a ruptured membrane.

Amended by Chapter 313, 2024 General Session

76-7-305.5 Requirements for information module and website.
(1) In order to ensure that a woman's consent to an abortion is truly an informed consent, the department shall, in accordance with the requirements of this section, develop an information module and maintain a public website.
(2) The information module and public website described in Subsection (1) shall:
(a) be scientifically accurate, comprehensible, and presented in a truthful, nonmisleading manner;
(b) present adoption as a preferred and positive choice and alternative to abortion;
(c) be produced in a manner that conveys the state's preference for childbirth over abortion;
(d) state that the state prefers childbirth over abortion;
(e) state that it is unlawful for any person to coerce a woman to undergo an abortion;
(f) state that any physician who performs an abortion without obtaining the woman's informed consent or without providing her a private medical consultation in accordance with the requirements of this section, may be liable to her for damages in a civil action at law;
(g) provide a geographically indexed list of resources and public and private services available to assist, financially or otherwise, a pregnant woman during pregnancy, at childbirth, and while the child is dependent, including:
(i) medical assistance benefits for prenatal care, childbirth, and neonatal care;
(ii) services and supports available under Section 35A-3-308;
(iii) other financial aid that may be available during an adoption;
(iv) services available from public adoption agencies, private adoption agencies, and private attorneys whose practice includes adoption; and
(v) the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of each person listed under this Subsection (2)(g);

(h) describe the adoption-related expenses that may be paid under Section 76-7-203;
(i) describe the persons who may pay the adoption related expenses described in Subsection (2)(h);
(j) except as provided in Subsection (4), describe the legal responsibility of the father of a child to assist in child support, even if the father has agreed to pay for an abortion;
(k) except as provided in Subsection (4), describe the services available through the Office of Recovery Services, within the Department of Health and Human Services, to establish and collect the support described in Subsection (2)(j);
(l) state that private adoption is legal;
(m) describe and depict, with pictures or video segments, the probable anatomical and physiological characteristics of an unborn child at two-week gestational increments from fertilization to full term, including:
(i) brain and heart function;
(ii) the presence and development of external members and internal organs; and
(iii) the dimensions of the fetus;
(n) show an ultrasound of the heartbeat of an unborn child at:
(i) four weeks from conception;
(ii) six to eight weeks from conception; and
(iii) each month after 10 weeks gestational age, up to 14 weeks gestational age;
(o) describe abortion procedures used in current medical practice at the various stages of growth of the unborn child, including:
(i) the medical risks associated with each procedure;
(ii) the risk related to subsequent childbearing that are associated with each procedure; and
(iii) the consequences of each procedure to the unborn child at various stages of fetal development;
(p) describe the possible detrimental psychological effects of abortion;
(q) describe the medical risks associated with carrying a child to term;
(r) include relevant information on the possibility of an unborn child's survival at the two-week gestational increments described in Subsection (2)(m);
(s) except as provided in Subsection (5), include:
(i) information regarding substantial medical evidence from studies concluding that an unborn child who is at least 20 weeks gestational age may be capable of experiencing pain during an abortion procedure; and
(ii) the measures that will be taken in accordance with Section 76-7-308.5;
(t) explain the options and consequences of aborting a medication-induced abortion;
(u) include the following statement regarding a medication-induced abortion, "Research indicates that mifepristone alone is not always effective in ending a pregnancy. You may still have a viable pregnancy after taking mifepristone. If you have taken mifepristone but have not yet taken the second drug and have questions regarding the health of your fetus or are questioning your decision to terminate your pregnancy, you should consult a physician immediately.";
(v) inform a pregnant woman that she has the right to view an ultrasound of the unborn child, at no expense to her, upon her request;
(w) inform a pregnant woman that she has the right to:
(i) determine the final disposition of the remains of the aborted fetus;
(ii) unless the woman waives this right in writing, wait up to 72 hours after the abortion procedure is performed to make a determination regarding the disposition of the aborted fetus before the health care facility may dispose of the fetal remains;

(iii) receive information about options for disposition of the aborted fetus, including the method of disposition that is usual and customary for a health care facility; and
(iv) for a medication-induced abortion, return the aborted fetus to the health care facility for disposition; and
(x) provide a digital copy of the form described in Subsection 26B-2-232(3)(a)(i); and
(y) be in a typeface large enough to be clearly legible.
(3) The information module and website described in Subsection (1) may include a toll-free 24-hour telephone number that may be called in order to obtain, orally, a list and description of services, agencies, and adoption attorneys in the locality of the caller.
(4) The department may develop a version of the information module and website that omits the information in Subsections (2)(j) and (k) for a viewer who is pregnant as the result of rape.
(5) The department may develop a version of the information module and website that omits the information described in Subsection (2)(s) for a viewer who will have an abortion performed:
(a) on an unborn child who is less than 20 weeks gestational age at the time of the abortion; or
(b) on an unborn child who is at least 20 weeks gestational age at the time of the abortion, if:
(i) the abortion is being performed for a reason described in Subsection 76-7-302(2)(b)(i) or (ii); and
(ii) due to a serious medical emergency, time does not permit compliance with the requirement to provide the information described in Subsection (2)(s).
(6) The department and each local health department shall make the information module and the website described in Subsection (1) available at no cost to any person.
(7) The department shall make the website described in Subsection (1) available for viewing on the department's website by clicking on a conspicuous link on the home page of the website.
(8) The department shall ensure that the information module is:
(a) available to be viewed at all facilities where an abortion may be performed;
(b) interactive for the individual viewing the module, including the provision of opportunities to answer questions and manually engage with the module before the module transitions from one substantive section to the next;
(c) produced in English and may include subtitles in Spanish or another language; and
(d) capable of being viewed on a tablet or other portable device.
(9) After the department releases the initial version of the information module, for the use described in Section 76-7-305, the department shall:
(a) update the information module, as required by law; and
(b) present an updated version of the information module to the Health and Human Services Interim Committee for the committee's review and recommendation before releasing the updated version for the use described in Section 76-7-305.

76-7-306 Refusal to participate, admit, or treat for abortion based on religious or moral grounds -- Cause of action.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Health care facility" is as defined in Section 26B-2-201.
(b) "Health care provider" means an individual who is an employee of, has practice privileges at, or is otherwise associated with a health care facility.
(2) A health care provider may, on religious or moral grounds, refuse to perform or participate in any way, in:

(a) an abortion; or
(b) a procedure that is intended to, or likely to, result in the termination of a pregnancy.
(3) Except as otherwise required by law, a health care facility may refuse, on religious or moral grounds, to:
(a) admit a patient for an abortion procedure or another procedure that is intended to, or likely to, result in the termination of a pregnancy; or
(b) perform for a patient an abortion procedure or another procedure that is intended to, or likely to, result in the termination of a pregnancy.
(4) A health care provider's refusal under Subsection (2) and a health care facility's refusal under Subsection (3) may not be the basis for civil liability or other recriminatory action.
(5) A health care facility, employer, or other person may not take an adverse action against a health care provider for exercising the health care provider's right of refusal described in Subsection (2), or for bringing or threatening to bring an action described in Subsection (6), including:
(a) dismissal;
(b) demotion;
(c) suspension;
(d) discipline;
(e) discrimination;
(f) harassment;
(g) retaliation;
(h) adverse change in status;
(i) termination of, adverse alteration of, or refusal to renew an association or agreement; or
(j) refusal to provide a benefit, privilege, raise, promotion, tenure, or increased status that the health care provider would have otherwise received.
(6) A person who is adversely impacted by conduct prohibited in Subsection (5) may bring a civil action for equitable relief, including reinstatement, and for damages. A person who brings an action under this section must commence the action within three years after the day on which the cause of action arises.

76-7-307 Medical procedure required to save life of unborn child.

If an abortion is performed when the unborn child is sufficiently developed to have any reasonable possibility of survival outside its mother's womb, the medical procedure used must be that which, in the best medical judgment of the physician will give the unborn child the best chance of survival. No medical procedure designed to kill or injure that unborn child may be used unless necessary, in the opinion of the woman's physician, to prevent grave damage to her medical health.

Amended by Chapter 2, 1991 Special Session 1
Amended by Chapter 2, 1991 Special Session 1

76-7-308 Medical skills required to preserve life of unborn child.

Consistent with the purpose of saving the life of the woman or preventing grave damage to the woman's medical health, the physician performing the abortion must use all of the physician's medical skills to attempt to promote, preserve and maintain the life of any unborn child sufficiently developed to have any reasonable possibility of survival outside of the mother's womb.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

76-7-308.5 Administration of anesthetic or analgesic to an unborn child.

A physician who performs an abortion of an unborn child who is at least 20 weeks gestational age shall administer an anesthetic or analgesic to eliminate or alleviate organic pain to the unborn child caused by the particular method of abortion to be employed, unless:

(1) the abortion is necessary to avert:
  (a) the death of the woman on whom the abortion is performed; or
  (b) a serious risk of substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily function of the woman on whom the abortion is performed;
(2) the abortion is performed because the fetus has a defect that is uniformly diagnosable and uniformly lethal, based on the written concurrence of two physicians who practice maternal fetal medicine; or
(3) the treating physician and one other physician concur, in writing, that the administration of an anesthetic or analgesic would:
  (a) cause the death of the woman on whom the abortion is performed; or
  (b) create a serious risk of substantial or irreversible impairment of a major bodily function of the woman on whom the abortion is performed.

Amended by Chapter 362, 2016 General Session

76-7-309 Pathologist's report.

Any human tissue removed during an abortion shall be submitted to a pathologist who shall make a report, including whether:

(1) the pregnancy was aborted by evacuating the uterus; and
(2) a medical record indicates that, through a prenatal screening or other diagnostic test, the aborted fetus had or may have had Down syndrome.

Amended by Chapter 124, 2019 General Session

76-7-310 Experimentation with unborn children prohibited -- Testing for genetic defects.

Live unborn children may not be used for experimentation, but when advisable, in the best medical judgment of the physician, may be tested for genetic defects.

Enacted by Chapter 33, 1974 General Session

76-7-310.5 Prohibition of specified abortion procedures -- Viability defined.

(1) As used in this section, "saline abortion procedure" means performance of amniocentesis and injection of saline into the amniotic sac within the uterine cavity.
(2)
  (a) After viability has been determined in accordance with Subsection (2)(b), no person may knowingly perform a saline abortion procedure unless all other available abortion procedures would pose a risk to the life or the health of the pregnant woman.
  (b) For purposes of this section determination of viability shall be made by the physician, based upon his own best clinical judgment. The physician shall determine whether, based on the particular facts of a woman's pregnancy that are known to him, and in light of medical technology and information reasonably available to him, there is a realistic possibility of maintaining and nourishing a life outside of the womb, with or without temporary, artificial life-sustaining support.

(3) Intentional, knowing, and willful violation of this section is a third degree felony.

Amended by Chapter 272, 2004 General Session

76-7-311 Selling and buying unborn children prohibited.

Selling, buying, offering to sell and offering to buy unborn children is prohibited.

Enacted by Chapter 33, 1974 General Session

76-7-312 Intimidation or coercion to obtain abortion prohibited.

No person shall intimidate or coerce in any way any person to obtain an abortion.

Enacted by Chapter 33, 1974 General Session

76-7-313 Department's enforcement responsibility -- Physician's report to department -- Reporting.

(1) In order for the department to maintain necessary statistical information and ensure enforcement of the provisions of this part:

(a) any physician performing an abortion must obtain and record in writing:

(i) the age, marital status, and county of residence of the woman on whom the abortion was performed;

(ii) the number of previous abortions performed on the woman described in Subsection (1)(a)(i);

(iii) the hospital or other facility where the abortion was performed;

(iv) the weight in grams of the unborn child aborted, if it is possible to ascertain;

(v) the pathological description of the unborn child;

(vi) the given gestational age of the unborn child;

(vii) the date the abortion was performed;

(viii) the measurements of the unborn child, if possible to ascertain;

(ix) if applicable, the information obtained under Subsection 76-7-302(5) or 76-7a-201(7); and

(x) the medical procedure used to abort the unborn child; and

(b) the department shall make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(2) Each physician who performs an abortion shall provide the following to the department within 30 days after the day on which the abortion is performed:

(a) the information described in Subsection (1);

(b) a copy of the pathologist's report described in Section 76-7-309;

(c) an affidavit:

(i) indicating whether the required consent was obtained pursuant to Sections 76-7-305 and 76-7-305.5;

(ii) described in Subsection (3), if applicable; and

(iii) indicating whether at the time the physician performed the abortion, the physician had any knowledge that the pregnant woman sought the abortion solely because the unborn child had or may have had Down syndrome; and

(d) a certificate indicating:

(i) whether the unborn child was older or younger than 18 weeks gestational age at the time of the abortion; and

(ii) the reason for the abortion.
(3) If the information module or the address to the website is not provided to a pregnant woman, the physician who performs the abortion on the woman shall, within 10 days after the day on which the abortion is performed, provide to the department an affidavit that:
(a) specifies the information that was not provided to the woman; and
(b) states the reason that the information was not provided to the woman.
(4) All information supplied to the department shall be confidential and privileged pursuant to Section 26B-1-229.
(5) The department shall pursue all administrative and legal remedies when the department determines that a physician or a facility has not complied with the provisions of this part.
(6)
(a) The department shall receive, compile, and create a report outlining the data provided under Subsection (1)(a)(ix).
(b) Annually on or before November 30, the department shall provide the report described in Subsection (6)(a) to the Health and Human Services Interim Committee.

76-7-314 Violations of abortion laws -- Classifications.
(1) An intentional violation of Section 76-7-307, 76-7-308, 76-7-310, 76-7-310.5, 76-7-311, or 76-7-312 is a felony of the third degree.
(2) A violation of Section 76-7-326 is a felony of the third degree.
(3) A violation of Section 76-7-314.5 is a felony of the second degree.
(4) A violation of any other provision of this part, including Subsections 76-7-305(2)(a) through (c), and (e), is a class A misdemeanor.
(5) The Department of Health and Human Services shall report a physician's violation of any provision of this part to the Medical Licensing Board, described in Section 58-67-201.
(6) Any person with knowledge of a physician's violation of any provision of this part may report the violation to the Medical Licensing Board, described in Section 58-67-201.
(7) In addition to the penalties described in this section, the department may take any action described in Section 26B-2-703 against a health care facility if a violation of this chapter occurs at the health care facility.

Amended by Chapter 507, 2024 General Session

76-7-314.5 Killing an unborn child.
(1) A person is guilty of killing an unborn child if the person intentionally causes the death of an unborn child by performing an abortion of the unborn child in violation of the provisions of Subsection 76-7-302(2).
(2) A woman is not criminally liable for:
(a) seeking to obtain, or obtaining, an abortion that is permitted by this part; or
(b) a physician's failure to comply with Subsection 76-7-302(2)(b)(ii) or Section 76-7-305.

Amended by Chapter 301, 2023 General Session

76-7-315 Exceptions to certain requirements in serious medical emergencies.

When due to a serious medical emergency, time does not permit compliance with Section 76-7-302, 76-7-305, 76-7-305.5, 76-7-308.5, or 76-7-310.5 the provisions of those sections do not apply.

76-7-321 Contraceptive and abortion services -- Funds -- Minor -- Definitions.

As used in Sections 76-7-321 through 76-7-325:

(1) "Abortion services" means any material, program, plan, or undertaking which seeks to promote abortion, encourages individuals to obtain an abortion, or provides abortions.

(2) "Contraceptive services" means any material, program, plan, or undertaking that is used for instruction on the use of birth control devices and substances, encourages individuals to use birth control methods, or provides birth control devices.

(3) "Funds" means any money, supply, material, building, or project provided by this state or its political subdivisions.

(4) "Minor" means any person under the age of 18 who is not otherwise emancipated, married, or a member of the armed forces of the United States.

Amended by Chapter 20, 1995 General Session

76-7-322 Public funds for provision of contraceptive or abortion services restricted.

No funds of the state or its political subdivisions shall be used to provide contraceptive or abortion services to an unmarried minor without the prior written consent of the minor's parent or guardian.

Amended by Chapter 50, 1988 General Session

76-7-323 Public funds for support entities providing contraceptive or abortion services restricted.

No agency of the state or its political subdivisions shall approve any application for funds of the state or its political subdivisions to support, directly or indirectly, any organization or health care provider that provides contraceptive or abortion services to an unmarried minor without the prior written consent of the minor's parent or guardian. No institution shall be denied state or federal funds under relevant provisions of law on the ground that a person on its staff provides contraceptive or abortion services in that person's private practice outside of such institution.

Amended by Chapter 50, 1988 General Session

76-7-324 Violation of restrictions on public funds for contraceptive or abortion services as misdemeanor.

Any agent of a state agency or political subdivision, acting alone or in concert with others, who violates Section 76-7-322, 76-7-323, or 76-7-331 is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 271, 2004 General Session

76-7-325 Notice to parent or guardian of minor requesting contraceptive -- Definition of contraceptives -- Penalty for violation.

(1) Any person before providing contraceptives to a minor shall notify, whenever possible, the minor's parents or guardian of the service requested to be provided to such minor. Contraceptives shall be defined as appliances (including but not limited to intrauterine devices), drugs, or medicinal preparations intended or having special utility for prevention of conception.
(2) Any person in violation of this section shall be guilty of a class C misdemeanor.

Enacted by Chapter 94, 1983 General Session

76-7-326 Partial birth abortions prohibited.

Any physician who knowingly performs a partial birth abortion and thereby kills a human fetus shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, as provided under this part. This section does not apply to a partial birth abortion that is necessary to save the life of a mother whose life is endangered by a physical disorder, physical illness, or physical injury, including a life endangering physical condition caused by or arising from the pregnancy itself.

Enacted by Chapter 272, 2004 General Session

76-7-327 Remedies for father or maternal grandparents.

(1) The father, if married to the mother at the time she receives a partial birth abortion, and if the mother has not attained the age of 18 years at the time of the abortion, the maternal grandparents of the fetus, may in a civil action obtain appropriate relief, unless the pregnancy resulted from the plaintiff's criminal conduct or the plaintiff consented to the abortion.
(2) Such relief shall include:
  (a) money damages for all injuries, psychological and physical, occasioned by the violation of Section 76-7-326; and
  (b) statutory damages equal to three times the cost of the partial birth abortion.

Amended by Chapter 13, 2010 General Session

76-7-328 Hearing to determine necessity of physician's conduct.

(1) A physician accused of an offense under Section 76-7-326 may seek a hearing before the Medical Licensing Board created in Section 58-67-201 on whether the physician's conduct was necessary to save the life of the mother whose life was endangered by a physical disorder, physical illness, or physical injury, including a life endangering physical condition caused by or arising from the pregnancy itself.
(2) The findings on that issue are admissible on that issue at the trial of the physician. Upon a motion from the physician, the court shall delay the beginning of the trial for not more than 30 days to permit such a hearing to take place.

Amended by Chapter 507, 2024 General Session

76-7-330 Contingent continuance of prior law.
(1) If the implementation of Section 76-7-326 enacted by this bill is stayed or otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction to not be implemented, beginning on the day on which the implementation of Section 76-7-326 is stayed or otherwise ordered not to be implemented the statutes listed in Subsection (2) shall:
  (a) be given effect as if this bill did not amend those statutes; and
  (b) remain in effect as if not amended by this bill until the day on which a court orders that Section 76-7-326 may be implemented.
(2) Subsection (1) applies to:
  (a) Section 76-7-301;
  (b) Section 76-7-310.5; and
  (c) Section 76-7-314.
(3) Nothing in this section prevents the Legislature from amending, repealing, or taking any other action regarding the sections listed in Subsection (2) in this or a subsequent session.

Enacted by Chapter 272, 2004 General Session

76-7-331 Public funding of abortion forbidden.
(1) As used in this section, "damage to a major bodily function" refers only to injury or impairment of a physical nature and may not be interpreted to mean mental, psychological, or emotional harm, illness, or distress.
(2) Public funds of the state, its institutions, or its political subdivisions may not be used to pay or otherwise reimburse, either directly or indirectly, any person, agency, or facility for the performance of any induced abortion services unless:
  (a) in the professional judgment of the pregnant woman's attending physician, the abortion is necessary to save the pregnant woman's life;
  (b) the pregnancy is the result of rape or incest reported to law enforcement agencies, unless the woman was unable to report the crime for physical reasons or fear of retaliation; or
  (c) in the professional judgment of the pregnant woman's attending physician, the abortion is necessary to prevent permanent, irreparable, and grave damage to a major bodily function of the pregnant woman provided that a caesarian procedure or other medical procedure that could also save the life of the child is not a viable option.
(3) Any officer or employee of the state who knowingly authorizes the use of funds prohibited by this section shall be dismissed from that person's office or position and the person's employment shall be immediately terminated.

Enacted by Chapter 271, 2004 General Session

76-7-332 Drugs known to be used for abortion -- Prescriber limitation -- Criminal penalties -- Pharmacy presumption for other use.

(1) As used in the section, "abortion-related drug" means a drug or medication that is known to be used for the purpose of performing an abortion, and includes:
  (a) methotrexate, or methotrexate with misoprostol;
  (b) mifepristone, also known as mifeprex;
  (c) misoprostol, also known as cytotec; and
  (d) RU-486.
(2) An individual may not prescribe an abortion-related drug for the purpose of causing an abortion, unless the individual is licensed as a physician in this state under:
  (a) Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act; or
  (b) Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(4)
  (a) Any prescription or medical order for a drug that is known to possibly cause an abortion shall be presumed by a pharmacy to be for an indication other than for the termination of a pregnancy.
  (b) A pharmacy dispensing a prescription or medical order for a drug that is known to possibly cause an abortion shall not be required to verify whether the prescription or medical order violates any provision of this chapter.

Part 4
Genetic Material Misuse

76-7-401 Definitions.

As used in this part:
(1) "Assisted reproductive treatment" means a method of causing pregnancy by any means other than through sexual intercourse, including:
  (a) intrauterine or intracervical insemination;
  (b) donation of eggs or sperm;
  (c) donation of embryos;
  (d) in vitro fertilization and embryo transfer; and
  (e) intracytoplasmic sperm injection.
(2) "Gamete" means a cell containing a haploid complement of DNA that has the potential to form an embryo when combined with another gamete, including:
  (a) a sperm;
  (b) an egg; or
  (c) nuclear DNA from one individual combined with the:
    (i) cytoplasm of another individual; or
    (ii) cytoplasmic DNA of another individual.
(3) "Health care provider" means an individual listed in Subsection 78B-3-403(12).

Enacted by Chapter 133, 2021 General Session

76-7-402 Genetic material misuse.

(1) A health care provider may not knowingly use the health care provider's own gamete, when providing assisted reproductive treatment to a patient, without the patient's written consent.

(2) A health care provider who violates Subsection (1) is guilty of a third degree felony.

Chapter 7a
Abortion Prohibition

Part 1
Definitions

76-7a-101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1)

(a) "Abortion" means the act, by a physician, of using an instrument, or prescribing a drug, with the intent to cause the death of an unborn child of a woman known to be pregnant, except as permitted under this chapter.

(b) "Abortion" does not include:

(i) removal of a dead unborn child;

(ii) removal of an ectopic pregnancy; or

(iii) the killing or attempted killing of an unborn child without the consent of the pregnant woman, unless:

(A) the killing or attempted killing is done through a medical procedure carried out by a physician or through a substance used under the direction of a physician; and

(B) the physician is unable to obtain the consent due to a medical emergency.

(2) "Abortion clinic" means a type I abortion clinic licensed by the state or a type II abortion clinic licensed by the state.

(3) "Department" means the Department of Health and Human Services.

(4) "Down syndrome" means a genetic condition associated with an extra chromosome 21, in whole or in part, or an effective trisomy for chromosome 21.

(5) "Hospital" means:

(a) a general hospital licensed by the department; or

(b) a clinic or other medical facility to the extent the clinic or other medical facility is certified by the department as providing equipment and personnel sufficient in quantity and quality to provide the same degree of safety to a pregnant woman and an unborn child as would be provided for the particular medical procedure undertaken by a general hospital licensed by the department.

(6) "Medical emergency" means a life threatening physical condition aggravated by, caused by, or arising from a pregnancy that places the pregnant woman at risk of death, or poses a serious risk of substantial impairment of a major bodily function, unless the abortion is performed or induced.

(7) "Perinatal hospice" means comprehensive support to the mother and her family from the time of the diagnosis of a lethal fetal anomaly, through the time of the child's birth, and through the postpartum period, that:
(a) focuses on alleviating fear and ensuring that the woman and her family experience the life and death of a child in a comfortable and supportive environment; and
(b) may include counseling or medical care by:
(i) maternal-fetal medical specialists;
(ii) obstetricians;
(iii) neonatologists;
(iv) anesthesia specialists;
(v) psychiatrists, psychologists, or other mental health providers;
(vi) clergy;
(vii) social workers; or
(viii) specialty nurses.
(8) "Physician" means:
(a) a medical doctor licensed to practice medicine and surgery in the state;
(b) an osteopathic physician licensed to practice osteopathic medicine in the state; or
(c) a physician employed by the federal government who has qualifications similar to an individual described in Subsection (7)(a) or (b).
(9)
(a) "Severe brain abnormality" means a malformation or defect that causes an individual to live in a mentally vegetative state.
(b) "Severe brain abnormality" does not include:
(i) Down syndrome;
(ii) spina bifida;
(iii) cerebral palsy; or
(iv) any other malformation, defect, or condition that does not cause an individual to live in a mentally vegetative state.

Amended by Chapter 313, 2024 General Session

Part 2
Prohibition

76-7a-201 Abortion prohibition -- Exceptions -- Penalties.
(1) An abortion may be performed in this state only under the following circumstances:
(a) the abortion is necessary to avert:
(i) the death of the woman on whom the abortion is performed; or
(ii) a serious physical risk of substantial impairment of a major bodily function of the woman on whom the abortion is performed;
(b) subject to Subsection (3), two physicians who practice maternal fetal medicine concur, in writing, in the patient's medical record that the fetus has a fetal abnormality that in the physicians' reasonable medical judgment is incompatible with life; or
(c) the unborn child has not reached 18 weeks gestational age and:
(i)
(A) the woman is pregnant as a result of:

(I) rape, as described in Section 76-5-402;
(II) rape of a child, as described in Section 76-5-402.1; or
(III) incest, as described in Subsection 76-5-406(2)(j) or Section 76-7-102; or
(B) the pregnant child is under the age of 14; and
(ii) before the abortion is performed, the physician who performs the abortion:
(A) for an abortion authorized under Subsection (1)(c)(i)(A), verifies that the incident described in Subsection (1)(c)(i)(A) has been reported to law enforcement; and
(B) if applicable, complies with requirements related to reporting suspicions of or known child abuse.

(2) An abortion may be performed only:
(a) by a physician; and
(b) in an abortion clinic or a hospital, unless it is necessary to perform the abortion in another location due to a medical emergency.

(3) If the unborn child has been diagnosed with a fetal abnormality that is incompatible with life, at the time of the diagnosis, the physician shall inform the woman, both verbally and in writing, that perinatal hospice services and perinatal palliative care are available and are an alternative to abortion.

(4) A person who performs an abortion in violation of this section is guilty of a second degree felony.

(5) In addition to the penalty described in Subsection (4), the department may take appropriate corrective action against a health care facility, including revoking the health care facility's license, if a violation of this chapter occurs at the health care facility.

(6) The department shall report a physician's violation of any provision of this section to the state entity that regulates the licensing of a physician.

(7) A physician who performs an abortion under Subsection (1)(c) shall:
(a) maintain an accurate record as to the manner in which the physician conducted the verification under Subsection (1)(c)(ii)(A); and
(b) report the information described in Subsection (7)(a) to the department in accordance with Section 76-7-313.

Offenses Against the Administration of Government

Part 1
Corrupt Practices

76-8-101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Party official" means an individual holding any post in a political party whether by election, appointment, or otherwise.

(2) "Peace officer" means an employee of a police or law enforcement agency that is part of or administered by the state or a political subdivision of the state, and whose duties consist primarily of the prevention and detection of crime and the enforcement of criminal statutes or ordinances of this state or a political subdivision of the state.

(3)

(a) "Pecuniary benefit" means an advantage in the form of money, property, commercial interest, or anything else, the primary significance of which is economic gain.

(b) "Pecuniary benefit" does not include economic advantage applicable to the public generally, such as tax reduction or increased prosperity generally.

(4)

(a) "Public property" means real or personal property that is owned, held, or managed by a public entity.

(b) "Public property" includes real or personal property that is owned, held, or managed by a public entity after the real or personal property is transferred by the public entity to an independent contractor of the public entity.

(c) "Public property" remains public property while in the possession of an independent contractor of a public entity for the purpose of providing a program or service for, or on behalf of, the public entity.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-102 Campaign contributions not prohibited.

(1) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the giving or receiving of campaign contributions made for the purpose of defraying the costs of a political campaign.

(2) No person shall be convicted of an offense solely on the evidence that a campaign contribution was made and that an appointment or nomination was subsequently made by the person to whose campaign or political party the contribution was made.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-103 Bribery or offering a bribe.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits bribery or offering a bribe if the actor promises, offers, or agrees to give or gives, directly or indirectly, any benefit to another with the purpose or intent to influence an action, decision, opinion, recommendation, judgment, vote, nomination, or exercise of discretion of a public servant, party official, or voter.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:

(a) a second degree felony if the value of the benefit is $1,000 or more; or

(b) a third degree felony if the value of the benefit is less than $1,000.

(4) It is not a defense to a prosecution under this statute that:

(a) the person sought to be influenced was not qualified to act in the desired way, whether because the person had not assumed office, lacked jurisdiction, or for any other reason;
(b) the person sought to be influenced did not act in the desired way; or
(c) the benefit is not conferred, solicited, or accepted until after:
(i) the action, decision, opinion, recommendation, judgment, vote, nomination, or exercise of discretion, has occurred; or
(ii) the public servant ceases to be a public servant.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-104 Threat to influence official or political action.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Harm" means any disadvantage or injury, pecuniary or otherwise, including disadvantage or injury to any other person or entity in whose welfare the public servant, party official, or voter is interested.
(ii) "Public servant" does not include a juror.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits threat to influence official or political action if the actor, with a purpose of influencing an action, decision, opinion, recommendation, nomination, vote, or other exercise of discretion of a public servant, party official, or voter, threatens harm to:
(a) the public servant, party official, or voter; or
(b) a person or entity in whose welfare the public servant, party official, or voter is interested.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-105 Receiving or soliciting bribe or bribery by public servant.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits receiving or soliciting a bribe if the actor asks for, solicits, accepts, or receives, directly or indirectly, any benefit with the understanding or agreement that the purpose or intent is to influence an action, decision, opinion, recommendation, judgment, vote, nomination, or exercise of discretion, of a public servant, party official, or voter.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a second degree felony if the value of the benefit asked for, solicited, accepted, or conferred is more than $1,000; or
(b) a third degree felony if the value of the benefit asked for, solicited, accepted, or conferred is $1,000 or less.
(4) It is not a defense to a prosecution under this statute that:
(a) the person sought to be influenced was not qualified to act in the desired way, whether because the person had not assumed office, lacked jurisdiction, or for any other reason;
(b) the person sought to be influenced did not act in the desired way; or
(c) the benefit is not asked for, conferred, solicited, or accepted until after:
(i) the action, decision, opinion, recommendation, judgment, vote, nomination, or exercise of discretion, has occurred; or
(ii) the public servant ceases to be a public servant.

(1)
(a) As used in this section, "public servant" does not include a juror.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits denial of public servant's use of public property if, under circumstances not amounting to unlawful detention and unlawful detention of a minor as described in Section 76-5-304, the actor, on property that is owned, operated, or controlled by the state or a political subdivision of the state, willfully denies to a public servant lawful:
(a) freedom of movement;
(b) use of the property or facility; or
(c) entry into or exit from the facility.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 204, 2025 General Session

76-8-301.5 Failure to disclose identity.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits failure to disclose identity if, during the period of time that the actor is lawfully subjected to a stop as described in Section 77-7-15:
  (a) a peace officer demands that the actor disclose the actor's name or date of birth;
  (b) the demand described in Subsection (2)(a) is reasonably related to the circumstances justifying the stop;
  (c) the disclosure of the actor's name or date of birth by the actor does not present a reasonable danger of self-incrimination in the commission of a crime; and
  (d) the actor fails to disclose the actor's name or date of birth.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-302 Picketing or parading in or near court.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits picketing or parading in or near a court if the actor pickets or parades in or near a building that houses a court of this state with intent to:
  (a) obstruct access to that court; or
  (b) affect the outcome of a case pending before that court.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-305 Interference with a peace officer.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits interference with a peace officer if the actor:
  (a) knows, or by the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that a peace officer is seeking to effect a lawful arrest or detention of the actor or another individual; and
  (b) interferes with the arrest or detention by:
    (i) use of force or a weapon;
    (ii) refusing to perform an act required by lawful order:
      (A) necessary to effect the arrest or detention; and
      (B) made by a peace officer involved in the arrest or detention; or
    (iii) refusing to refrain from performing an act that would impede the arrest or detention.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

(4) Recording the actions of a peace officer with a camera, mobile phone, or other photographic device, while the peace officer is performing official duties in plain view, does not by itself constitute:
(a) interference with the peace officer;
(b) willful resistance;
(c) disorderly conduct; or
(d) obstruction of justice.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

(2) An actor commits failure to stop at the command of a peace officer if, after the peace officer has issued a verbal or visual command to stop, the actor flees from or otherwise attempts to elude a peace officer:
(a) for the purpose of avoiding arrest; and
(b) by any means other than a violation of Section 41-6a-210 regarding failure to stop a vehicle at the command of a law enforcement officer.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-306 Obstruction of justice in a criminal investigation or proceeding.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i)
(A) "Conduct that constitutes a criminal offense" means conduct that would be punishable as a crime and is separate from a violation of this section.
(B) "Conduct that constitutes a criminal offense" includes:
(I) any violation of a criminal statute or ordinance of this state or a political subdivision of this state, any other state, or any district, possession, or territory of the United States; and
(II) conduct committed by a juvenile that would be a crime if committed by an adult.
(ii) "Juvenile offender" means the same as that term is defined in Section 80-1-102.
(iii) "Official custody" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-8-309.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (5), an actor commits obstruction of justice in a criminal investigation or proceeding if the actor, with intent to hinder, delay, or prevent the investigation, apprehension, prosecution, conviction, or punishment of any person regarding conduct that constitutes a criminal offense:
(a) provides any person with a weapon;
(b) prevents by force, intimidation, or deception, a person from performing an act that might aid in the discovery, apprehension, prosecution, conviction, or punishment of any person;
(c) alters, destroys, conceals, or removes an item or other thing;
(d) makes, presents, or uses an item or thing known by the actor to be false;
(e) harbors or conceals a person;
(f) provides a person with transportation, disguise, or other means of avoiding discovery or apprehension;
(g) warns a person of impending discovery or apprehension;

(h) warns a person of an order authorizing the interception of wire communications or of a pending application for an order authorizing the interception of wire communications;
(i) conceals information that is not privileged and that concerns the offense, after a judge or magistrate has ordered the actor to provide the information; or
(j) provides false information regarding a suspect, a witness, the conduct constituting an offense, or any other material aspect of the investigation.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a second degree felony if the conduct that constitutes an offense would be a capital felony or first degree felony;
(b) a third degree felony if:
(i) the conduct that constitutes an offense would be a second or third degree felony and the actor violates Subsection (2)(b), (c), (d), (e), or (f);
(ii) the conduct that constitutes an offense would be any offense other than a capital or first degree felony and the actor violates Subsection (2)(a);
(iii) the obstruction of justice is presented or committed before a court of law; or
(iv) a violation of Subsection (2)(h); or
(c) a class A misdemeanor for any violation of this section that is not enumerated under Subsection (3)(a) or (b).
(4) It is not a defense that the actor was unaware of the level of penalty for the conduct constituting an offense.
(5)
(a) Subsection (2) does not apply to harboring or concealing an offender who has escaped from official custody, which is governed by Section 76-8-309.2.
(b) Subsection (2)(b) does not apply to:
(i) threat with intent to impede, intimidate, interfere, or retaliate against a judge or a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole or acting against a family member of a judge or a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole under Section 76-8-316;
(ii) assault with intent to impede, intimidate, interfere, or retaliate against a judge or a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole or acting against a family member of a judge or a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole under Section 76-8-316.2;
(iii) aggravated assault with intent to impede, intimidate, interfere, or retaliate against a judge or a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole or acting against a family member of a judge or a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole under Section 76-8-316.4;
(iv) attempted murder with intent to impede, intimidate, interfere, or retaliate against a judge or a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole or acting against a family member of a judge or a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole under Section 76-8-316.6;
(v) tampering with a witness under Section 76-8-508;
(vi) retaliation against a witness, victim, or informant under Section 76-8-508.3;
(vii) tampering or retaliating against a juror under Section 76-8-508.5;
(viii) receiving or soliciting a bribe as a witness under Section 76-8-508.7; or
(ix) extortion or bribery to dismiss a criminal proceeding under Section 76-8-509.
(c) Subsection (2)(e) does not apply to harboring a juvenile offender, which is governed by Section 76-8-319.
(6) For purposes of Subsection (3), a violation of a criminal statute that is committed in another state, or any district, possession, or territory of the United States, is:
(a) a capital felony if the penalty provided includes death or life imprisonment without parole;
(b) a first degree felony if the penalty provided includes life imprisonment with parole or a maximum term of imprisonment exceeding 15 years;

(c) a second degree felony if the penalty provided exceeds five years;
(d) a third degree felony if the penalty provided includes imprisonment for any period exceeding one year; or
(e) a misdemeanor if the penalty provided includes imprisonment for any period of one year or less.

76-8-307 Failure to aid a peace officer.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits failure to aid a peace officer if, upon command by a peace officer identifiable or identified by the peace officer as such, the actor unreasonably fails or refuses to aid the peace officer in effecting an arrest or in preventing the commission of any offense by another person.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-308 Acceptance of bribe or bribery to prevent criminal prosecution.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits acceptance of bribe or bribery to prevent criminal prosecution if the actor:
(a) solicits, accepts, or agrees to accept any benefit as consideration for the actor's refraining from initiating or aiding in a criminal prosecution; or
(b) confers, offers, or agrees to confer any benefit upon a person as consideration for the person refraining from initiating or aiding in a criminal prosecution.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(4) It is an affirmative defense that the value of the benefit did not exceed an amount that the actor believed to be due as restitution or indemnification for the loss caused or to be caused by the offense.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-309 Escape.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Agency" means a law enforcement agency, the Department of Corrections, a county or district attorney's office, the Office of the Attorney General, the Board of Pardons and Parole, or the judicial branch, including the Judicial Council, the Administrative Office of the Courts, or a similar administrative unit of the judicial branch.

(ii) "Confinement in a state prison" means:

(A)

(I) the individual is housed in a state prison, or any other facility in accordance with a contract with the Department of Corrections or Section 80-6-507, after being sentenced and committed;

(II) the individual's sentence has not been terminated or voided; and

(III) the individual is not on parole;

(B) the individual is being housed in a county jail, after felony commitment, in accordance with a contract with the Department of Corrections;

(C) the individual is on parole and the individual is in prehearing custody after an arrest for a parole violation;

(D) the individual is housed in a state prison and is being transported as a prisoner in the state prison by a correctional officer; or

(E) the individual is housed in a state prison, or any other facility in accordance with a contract with the Department of Corrections or Section 80-6-507, and the individual is permitted to leave temporarily for a work release or home visit and is required to return at a designated time.

(iii) "Lawful authorization" does not include authorization to leave official custody, or to remove or disable a tracking device, if the authorization was obtained by means of deceit, fraud, or other artifice.

(iv)

(A) "Offender" means an individual who is in official custody.

(B) "Offender" includes an individual who is under trusty status.

(v) "Official custody" means:

Part 4
Offenses Against Public Property

76-8-402 Misusing public money or public property -- Disqualification from office.

(1)

(a) As used in this section, "authorized personal use" means:

(i) the use of public property, for a personal matter, by an actor who is a public servant if:

(A) the actor is authorized to use or possess the public property to fulfill the actor's duties as a public servant;

(B) the primary purpose of the actor using or possessing the public property is to fulfill the actor's duties as a public servant;

(C) at the time the actor uses the public property for a personal matter, a written policy of the actor's public entity is in effect that authorizes the actor to use or possess the public property for personal use in addition to the primary purpose of fulfilling the actor's duties as a public servant; and

(D) the actor uses and possesses the public property in a lawful manner and in accordance with the policy described in Subsection (1)(a)(i)(C); or

(ii) incidental or de minimus use of public property for a personal matter by an actor who is a public servant if:

(A) the value provided to the actor's public entity by the actor's use or possession of the public property for a public purpose substantially outweighs the personal benefit received by the actor from the incidental use of the public property for a personal matter; and

(B) the incidental or de minimus use of the public property for a personal matter is not prohibited by law or by the actor's public entity.

(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits misusing public money or public property if the actor is a public servant and knowingly:
(a) appropriates public money to the actor's own use or benefit or to the use or benefit of another person without authority of law;
(b) loans or transfers public money without authority of law;
(c) fails to keep public money in the actor's possession until disbursed by authority of law;
(d) deposits public money in a bank or with another person in violation of the written policy of the actor's public entity or the requirements of law;
(e) keeps a false account or makes a false entry or erasure in an account of, or relating to, public money;
(f) fraudulently alters, falsifies, conceals, or destroys an account described in Subsection (2)(e);
(g) refuses or omits to pay over, on demand, any public money in the actor's custody or control, upon the presentation of a draft, order, or warrant drawn upon the public money by competent authority;
(h) omits to transfer public money when the transfer is required by law;
(i) omits or refuses to pay over, to an officer or person authorized by law to receive public money, public money received by the actor under any duty imposed on the actor by law;
(j) damages or disposes of public property in violation of the written policy of the actor's public entity or the requirements of law;
(k) obtains or exercises unauthorized control of public property with the intent to deprive the owner of possession of the public property;
(l) obtains or exercises unauthorized control of public property with the intent to temporarily appropriate, possess, use, or deprive the owner of possession of the public property;
(m) appropriates public property to the actor's own use or benefit or to the use or benefit of another person without authority of law;
(n) loans or transfers public property without authority of law; or
(o) fails to keep public property in the actor's possession until returned to the property owner or disposed of or relinquished in accordance with the written policy of the actor's public entity and the requirements of law.

(3)
(a) Except as provided by Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsections (2)(a) through (i) is a third degree felony.
(b) A violation of Subsections (2)(a) through (i) is a second degree felony if:
(i) the value of the public money exceeds $5,000;
(ii) the amount of the false account exceeds $5,000;
(iii) the amount falsely entered exceeds $5,000;
(iv) the amount that is the difference between the original amount and the fraudulently altered amount exceeds $5,000; or
(v) the amount falsely erased, fraudulently concealed, destroyed, or falsified in the account exceeds $5,000.
(c) A violation of Subsection (2)(j) is:
(i) a class B misdemeanor if the cost to repair or replace the public property is less than $500;
(ii) a class A misdemeanor if the cost to repair or replace the public property is $500 or more, but less than $1,500;
(iii) a third degree felony if the cost to repair or replace the public property is $1,500 or more, but less than $5,000; or
(iv) a second degree felony if the cost to repair or replace the public property is $5,000 or more.
(d) A violation of Subsection (2)(k), (m), (n), or (o) is:

(i) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the public property is less than $500;
(ii) a class A misdemeanor if the value of the public property is $500 or more, but less than $1,500;
(iii) a third degree felony if the value of the public property is $1,500 or more, but less than $5,000; or
(iv) a second degree felony if the value of the public property is $5,000 or more.
(e) A violation of Subsection (2)(l) is:
(i) a class C misdemeanor if the value of the public property is less than $500;
(ii) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the public property is $500 or more, but less than $1,500;
(iii) a class A misdemeanor if the value of the public property is $1,500 or more, but less than $5,000; or
(iv) a third degree felony if the value of the public property is $5,000 or more.
(4) It is not a defense to a violation of Subsection (2) that:
(a) subsequent to the violation, a public entity modifies or adopts a policy or law, or takes other action, to retroactively authorize, approve, or ratify the conduct that constitutes a violation; or
(b) a written policy of the actor's public entity permits private use of the public property if it is proven, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the actor did not comply with the written policy.
(5) Subsections (2)(j) through (2)(o) do not apply to the authorized personal use of public property.
(6) In addition to the punishment described in Subsection (3), an actor who:
(a) is convicted of a felony offense under this section may not disburse public funds or access public accounts; or
(b) is a public officer and is convicted of a felony offense under this section is disqualified from holding public office if:
(i) regardless of whether the public officer receives, safekeeps, transfers, disburses, or has a fiduciary relationship with public money, the public officer makes a profit from or out of public money or public property; or
(ii) the public officer uses public money or public property in a manner or for a purpose not authorized by law.

Public Assistance Fraud

76-8-1201 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Client" means a person who receives or has received public assistance.

(2) "Overpayment" means the same as that term is defined in Section 35A-3-102.

(3) "Provider" means a person or entity that receives compensation from any public assistance program for goods or services provided to a public assistance recipient.

(4) "Public assistance" means the same as that term is defined in Section 35A-1-102.

Amended by Chapter 366, 2024 General Session

76-8-1203 Required disclosures by an applicant, a recipient, or a provider of public assistance.

(1) An individual who is 18 years old or older and applies for public assistance, or who is 18 years old or older and currently receives public assistance, shall disclose to the state agency administering the public assistance each fact that may materially affect the individual's eligibility to receive or continue to receive public assistance, including the individual's current:

(a) marital status;

(b) household composition;

(c) employment;

(d) earned and unearned income, as defined by rule;

(e) receipt of monetary and in-kind gifts that may affect the individual's eligibility;

(f) assets that may affect the individual's eligibility; and

(g) any other material fact or change in circumstance that may affect the determination of the individual's eligibility to receive public assistance benefits, or may affect the amount of benefits for which the individual is eligible.

(a) Subject to Subsection (2)(b), a provider that solicits, requests, or receives, actually or constructively, a payment or contribution in the form of an assessment, a payment, a gift, a devise, a bequest, or other means, directly or indirectly, from a client or client's family shall:

(i) notify the state agency administering the public assistance to the client of the amount of the payment or contribution the provider received from the client or the client's family; and

(ii) provide the notification to the state agency in writing within 10 days after the day on which the payment or contribution was received.

(b) If the payment or contribution described in Subsection (2)(a) is made under an agreement, written or oral, the provider shall notify the state agency administering the public assistance to the client of the payment or contribution within 10 days after the day on which the provider entered into the agreement.

(3) An actor may be charged under Section 76-8-1203.1, 76-8-1203.3, or 76-8-1203.5 for failing to provide information required under this section.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-1203.1 Public assistance fraud by an applicant for public assistance.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-8-101, and 76-8-1201 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits public assistance fraud by an applicant for public assistance if the actor intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly:

(a) applies for public assistance; and

(b) fails to disclose a material fact required to be disclosed under Subsection 76-8-1203(1).

(3) Subject to Subsection (5), a violation of Subsection (2) is, based on the value of payments, assistance, or other benefits received, misappropriated, claimed, or applied:
(a) a second degree felony if the value is or exceeds $5,000;
(b) a third degree felony if the value is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000;
(c) a class A misdemeanor if the value is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500; or
(d) a class B misdemeanor if the value is less than $500.
(4) It is not a defense to prosecution under this section that the actor repaid the funds or benefits obtained in violation of this section.
(5)
(a) In determining the value of payments, assistance, or other benefits received to determine the penalty level of an actor's conduct under Subsection (3), the value is calculated by aggregating the values of each instance of public assistance fraud committed by the actor as part of the same facts and circumstances or a related series of facts and circumstances.
(b) The value of a benefit received by an individual is the ordinary or usual charge for similar benefits in the private sector.
(6) The provisions of Section 35A-1-503 apply to a prosecution brought under this section.

Enacted by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-1203.3 Public assistance fraud by a recipient of public assistance.
(1)
(a) As used in this section, "SNAP benefit" means the same as that term is defined in Section 35A-1-102.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-8-101, and 76-8-1201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits public assistance fraud by a recipient of public assistance if the actor:
(a)
(i) except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), is receiving public assistance administered by a state agency; and
(ii) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly fails to disclose to the state agency administering the public assistance to the actor of a change of a material fact required to be disclosed under Subsection 76-8-1203(1) within 10 days after the day on which the change occurred;
(b)
(i) is receiving public assistance from the Department of Workforce Services or the Department of Health and Human Services; and
(ii) at the time of a review or recertification, whichever comes first, intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly fails to disclose a change of a material fact required to be disclosed under Subsection 76-8-1203(1);
(c) in a manner not allowed by law, intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly uses, transfers, acquires, traffics in, falsifies, or possesses:
(i) SNAP benefits;
(ii) a SNAP benefit identification card;
(iii) a certificate of eligibility for medical services;
(iv) a Medicaid identification card;
(v) a fund transfer instrument;
(vi) a payment instrument; or
(vii) a public assistance warrant;
(d)
(i) is receiving public assistance;

(ii) acquires income or resources in excess of the amount the actor previously reported to the state agency administering the public assistance to the actor; and
(iii) fails to notify the state agency to which the actor previously reported within 10 days after the day on which the actor acquired the excess income or resources;
(e)
(i) fails to disclose a material fact required to be disclosed under Subsection 76-8-1203(1) or notify a state agency under Subsection 76-8-1203(2); and
(ii)
(A) intends to obtain or help another individual obtain an overpayment; or
(B) obtains an overpayment, unauthorized payment, or benefit; or
(f) receives an unauthorized payment or benefit as a result of unlawful acts described in this section, Section 76-8-1203.3, Section 76-8-1203.5, or Section 76-8-1203.7.
(3) Subject to Subsection (5), a violation of Subsection (2) is, based on the value of payments, assistance, or other benefits received, misappropriated, claimed, or applied:
(a) a second degree felony if the value is or exceeds $5,000;
(b) a third degree felony if the value is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000;
(c) a class A misdemeanor if the value is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500; or
(d) a class B misdemeanor if the value is less than $500.
(4) It is not a defense to prosecution under this section that the actor repaid the funds or benefits obtained in violation of this section.
(5)
(a) In determining the value of payments, assistance, or other benefits received to determine the penalty level of an actor's conduct under Subsection (3), the value is calculated by aggregating the values of each instance of public assistance fraud committed by the actor as part of the same facts and circumstances or a related series of facts and circumstances.
(b) The value of a benefit received by an individual is the ordinary or usual charge for similar benefits in the private sector.
(6) The provisions of Section 35A-1-503 apply to a prosecution brought under this section.
(7) Incidents of trafficking in SNAP benefits that occur within a six-month period, committed by an individual or coconspirators, are deemed to be a related series of facts and circumstances regardless of whether the transactions are conducted with a variety of unrelated parties.

Enacted by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-1203.5 Public assistance fraud by a provider.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-8-101, and 76-8-1201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits public assistance fraud by a provider if the actor:
(a) is a provider; and
(b) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly:
(i) receives a payment after failing to comply with the requirements in Subsection 76-8-1203(1) or 76-8-1203(2);
(ii) files a claim for payment under a state or federally funded public assistance program for goods or services not provided to or for a client under that program;
(iii) files or falsifies a claim, report, or document required by a state or federal law, a rule, or a provider agreement for goods or services not authorized under the state or federally funded public assistance program for which the goods or services were provided;
(iv) fails to credit the state for payments received from other sources;
(v) bills a client, or the client's family, for:

(A) goods or services not provided; or
(B) an amount greater than that allowed by law or rule; or
(vi) fails to comply with the notification requirements under Subsection 76-8-1203(2).
(3) Subject to Subsection (5), a violation of Subsection (2) is, based on the value of payments, assistance, or other benefits received, misappropriated, claimed, or applied:
(a) a second degree felony if the value is or exceeds $5,000;
(b) a third degree felony if the value is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000;
(c) a class A misdemeanor if the value is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500; or
(d) a class B misdemeanor if the value is less than $500.
(4) It is not a defense to prosecution under this section that the actor repaid the funds or benefits obtained in violation of this section.
(5)
(a) In determining the value of payments, assistance, or other benefits received to determine the penalty level of an actor's conduct under Subsection (3), the value is calculated by aggregating the values of each instance of public assistance fraud committed by the actor as part of the same facts and circumstances or a related series of facts and circumstances.
(b) The value of a benefit received by an individual is the ordinary or usual charge for similar benefits in the private sector.
(6) This section does not apply to offenses by providers under the state's Medicaid program that are actionable under Title 26B, Chapter 3, Part 11, Utah False Claims Act.
(7) The provisions of Section 35A-1-503 apply to a prosecution brought under this section.

Enacted by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-1203.7 Fraudulently misappropriating public assistance funds.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-8-101, and 76-8-1201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits fraudulently misappropriating public assistance funds if the actor:
(a)
(i) is an administrator of a state or federally funded public assistance program; and
(ii) while performing the actor's duties as an administrator, intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly fraudulently misappropriates funds exchanged for:
(A) SNAP benefits;
(B) an identification card;
(C) a certificate of eligibility for medical services;
(D) a Medicaid identification card; or
(E) other public assistance the actor has been entrusted with or that has come into the actor's possession as a result of the actor's duties; or
(b)
(i) is an individual entrusted with:
(A) SNAP benefits;
(B) an identification card;
(C) a certificate of eligibility for medical services;
(D) a Medicaid identification card; or
(E) other public assistance with which the individual has been entrusted; and
(ii) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly fraudulently misappropriates funds exchanged for a benefit described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) with which the individual has been entrusted.
(3) Subject to Subsection (5), a violation of Subsection (2) is, based on the value of payments, assistance, or other benefits received, misappropriated, claimed, or applied:

(a) a second degree felony if the value is or exceeds $5,000;
(b) a third degree felony if the value is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000;
(c) a class A misdemeanor if the value is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500; or
(d) a class B misdemeanor if the value is less than $500.

(4) It is not a defense to prosecution under this section that the actor repaid the funds or benefits obtained in violation of this section.

(5)
(a) In determining the value of payments, assistance, or other benefits received to determine the penalty level of an actor's conduct under Subsection (3), the value is calculated by aggregating the values of each instance of public assistance fraud committed by the actor as part of the same facts and circumstances or a related series of facts and circumstances.
(b) The value of a benefit received by an individual is the ordinary or usual charge for similar benefits in the private sector.

(6) The provisions of Section 35A-1-503 apply to a prosecution brought under this section.

Enacted by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-1207 Evidence in criminal actions for public assistance fraud.

In a criminal action under this part:

(1) a paid state warrant made to the order of an individual or a payment made through an electronic benefit card issued to an individual constitutes prima facie evidence that the individual received financial assistance from the state; and

(2) all of the records in the custody of the state agency administering public assistance relating to the application for, verification of, issuance of, receipt of, and use of public assistance constitute records of regularly conducted activity within the meaning of the exceptions to the hearsay rule of evidence.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

Part 13
Unemployment Insurance Fraud

76-8-1301 False statement to obtain or increase unemployment compensation.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits false statement to obtain or increase unemployment compensation if the actor, to obtain or increase a benefit or other payment under Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act, or under the Unemployment Compensation Law of any state or of the federal government:
(a) makes a false statement or representation, knowing the representation is false; or
(b) knowingly fails to disclose a material fact.

(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(i) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is less than $500;
(ii) a class A misdemeanor if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500;

(iii) a third degree felony if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000; or
(iv) a second degree felony if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $5,000.
(b) The determination of the degree of an offense under Subsection (3)(a) is measured by the total value of all money obtained or sought to be obtained by the unlawful conduct.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-1302 False statement to prevent or reduce unemployment compensation or liability.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits false statement to prevent or reduce unemployment compensation or liability if the actor, to prevent or reduce the payment of unemployment compensation benefits to an individual entitled to those benefits, or to avoid becoming or remaining a subject employer, or to avoid or reduce a contribution or other payment required from an employing unit under Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act, or under the Unemployment Compensation Law of a state or of the federal government:
(a) makes a false statement or representation, knowing the representation is false; or
(b) knowingly fails to disclose a material fact.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is less than $500;
(b) a class A misdemeanor if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500;
(c) a third degree felony if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000; or
(d) a second degree felony if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $5,000.
(4) An actor under this section may include an officer or agent of an employing unit as defined under Section 35A-4-202.

Enacted by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-1303 Unlawful failure to comply with Employment Security Act requirement.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful failure to comply with Employment Security Act requirements if the actor willfully:
(a) fails or refuses:
(i) to make a contribution or other payment required under Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act;
(ii) to furnish a report required under Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act; or
(iii) to produce or permit the inspection or copying of records required under Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act; or
(b) violates a provision of Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act, or an order made under that chapter, for which the violation:
(i) is made unlawful or the observance of which is required under the terms of Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act;

(ii) does not have a prescribed penalty in Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act, or another applicable statute; and
(iii) is for conduct not described in Subsection (2)(a).
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2)(a) is:
(i) a class B misdemeanor if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is less than $500;
(ii) a class A misdemeanor if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $500 but is less than $1,500;
(iii) a third degree felony if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $1,500 but is less than $5,000; or
(iv) a second degree felony if the value of the money obtained or sought to be obtained is or exceeds $5,000.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2)(b) is a class A misdemeanor.
(4) An actor under this section may include an officer or agent of an employing unit as defined under Section 35A-4-202.

Enacted by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-1304 Unlawful use or disclosure of employment information.
(1)
(a) As used in this section, "employing unit" means the same as that term is defined in Section 35A-4-202.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful use or disclosure of employment information if the actor:
(a)
(i) is an employee of the Department of Workforce Services; and
(ii) willfully violates Section 35A-4-312 by making a disclosure of information obtained from an employing unit or individual in the administration of Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act; or
(b)
(i) obtains a list of applicants for work or of claimants or recipients of benefits under Title 35A, Chapter 4, Employment Security Act; and
(ii) uses or permits the use of the list described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) for a political purpose.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.

Enacted by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

Part 14
Disruption of School Activities

76-8-1402 Disruption of activity in or near school building.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i)

(A) "Chief administrator" means the principal of a school or the chief administrator of a school that does not have a principal.
(B) "Chief administrator" includes the chief administrator's designee or representative.
(ii) "School" means a public or private kindergarten, elementary, or secondary school through grade 12.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) In the absence of a local ordinance or other controlling law governing the conduct described in this Subsection (2), an actor commits disruption of activity in or near school building if the actor, while on a street, sidewalk, or public way adjacent to a school building or ground:
(a) materially disrupts the peaceful conduct of school activities by the actor's presence or act; and
(b) remains upon the place under Subsection (2)(a) after being asked to leave by the chief administrator of that school.
(3)
(a) Except as provided under Subsection (4), a first or second violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) Except as provided under Subsection (4), a third or subsequent violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(4) If an actor's conduct violates Subsection (2) and the actor's conduct also amounts to a violation of another offense with a greater penalty, the offense with the greater penalty applies.

Amended by Chapter 96, 2024 General Session

76-8-1403 Unlawful evasion of law enforcement by entering school property-- Restitution.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "School" means a public or private kindergarten, elementary, or secondary school through grade 12, including all buildings and property of the school.
(ii) "School property" means real property:
(A) that is owned or occupied by a public or private school; or
(B)
(I) that is temporarily occupied by students for a school-related activity or program; and
(II) regarding which, during the time the activity or program is being conducted, the main use of the real property is allocated to participants in the activity or program.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-8-101 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful evasion of law enforcement by entering school property if the actor enters onto school property when:
(a) students are attending the school or students are participating in any school-related activity or program on school property; and
(b) the actor is in the act of fleeing or evading, or attempting to flee or evade, pursuit or apprehension by a peace officer.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(4) It is not a defense to a violation of this section that the actor did not know that the actor had entered onto school property.
(5) As a part of the sentence for violation of this section, the court shall order the actor to reimburse the school for costs incurred by the school in responding to the actor's presence on the school property.
(6) The offense under this section is a separate offense from a violation of:
(a) failure to respond to officer's signal to stop under Section 41-6a-210; or

(b) failure to stop at the command of a peace officer under Section 76-8-305.5.

Chapter 9
Offenses Against Public Order, Health, and Safety

Part 1
Breaches of the Peace and Related Offenses

76-9-101 Riot.

(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits riot if the actor:

(a) simultaneously with two or more other individuals engages in violent conduct, knowingly or recklessly creating a substantial risk of causing public alarm;

(b) assembles with two or more other individuals with the purpose of engaging, soon thereafter, in violent conduct, knowing, that two or more other individuals in the assembly have the same purpose;

(c) assembles with two or more other individuals with the purpose of committing an offense against a person, or the property of another person who the actor supposes to be guilty of a violation of law, believing that two or more other individuals in the assembly have the same purpose; or

(d) refuses to comply with a lawful order to withdraw prior to, during, or immediately following a violation of Subsection (2)(a), (b), or (c).

(3)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if, in the course of the violation:

(i) the actor causes substantial or serious bodily injury;

(ii) the actor causes substantial property damage or commits arson; or

(iii) the actor was in possession of a dangerous weapon.

(4) It is not a defense to a prosecution under Subsection (2)(d) that in order for an actor to comply with an order to withdraw the actor must enter or cross over private property.

(5) An actor is not criminally or civilly liable for actions that the actor takes that are reasonably necessary to comply with an order to withdraw under Subsection (2)(d).

(6) An actor arrested for a violation of Subsection (2) may not be released from custody before the actor appears before a magistrate or a judge.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-9-102 Disorderly conduct.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Official meeting" means:

(A) a meeting, as defined in Section 52-4-103;

(B) a meeting of the Legislature, the Utah Senate, the Utah House of Representatives, a legislative caucus, or any committee, task force, working group, or other organization in the state legislative branch; or

(C) a meeting of an entity created by the Utah Constitution, Utah Code, Utah administrative rule, legislative rule, or a written rule or policy of the Legislative Management Committee.

(ii) "Public place" means a place to which the public or a substantial group of the public has access, including:

(A) streets or highways; and

(B) the common areas of schools, hospitals, apartment houses, office buildings, public buildings, public facilities, transport facilities, and shops.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits disorderly conduct if:

(a) the actor refuses to comply with the lawful order of a law enforcement officer to move from a public place or an official meeting, or knowingly creates a hazardous or physically offensive condition by any act that serves no legitimate purpose; or

(b) intending to cause public inconvenience, annoyance, or alarm, or recklessly creating a risk of public inconvenience, annoyance, or alarm, the actor:

(i) engages in fighting or in violent, tumultuous, or threatening behavior;

(ii) makes unreasonable noises in a public place or an official meeting;

(iii) makes unreasonable noises in a private place that can be heard in a public place or an official meeting; or

(iv) obstructs vehicular or pedestrian traffic in a public place or an official meeting.

(3)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), (c), or (d), a violation of Subsection (2) is an infraction.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c) or (d), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor if the violation occurs after the actor has been asked to cease conduct prohibited under this section.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(d), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor if:

(i) the violation occurs after the actor has been asked to cease conduct prohibited under this section; and

(ii) within five years before the day on which the actor violates this section, the actor was previously convicted of a violation of this section.

(d) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if:

(i) the violation occurs after the actor has been asked to cease conduct prohibited under this section; and

(ii) within five years before the day on which the actor violates this section, the actor was previously convicted of two or more violations of this section.

(4)

(a) The mere carrying or possession of a holstered or encased firearm, whether visible or concealed, without additional behavior or circumstances that would cause a reasonable person to believe the holstered or encased firearm was carried or possessed with criminal intent, does not constitute a violation of this section.

(b) Subsection (4)(a) does not limit or prohibit a law enforcement officer from approaching or engaging an individual in a voluntary conversation.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-9-102.1 Aggravated disorderly conduct on a street or highway.
(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits aggravated disorderly conduct on a street or highway if the actor:
(a) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly obstructs vehicular or pedestrian traffic on a street or highway with:
(i) a speed limit of 40 miles per hour or more; or
(ii) at least two lanes in the same direction of travel; and
(b) refuses to comply with the lawful order of a law enforcement officer to move from the street or highway.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if within one year before the day on which the actor violates this section, the actor was previously convicted of a violation of Subsection (2).

76-9-103 Disrupting a meeting or procession.
(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits disrupting a meeting or procession if the actor:
(a) obstructs or interferes with a lawful meeting, procession, or gathering by physical action, verbal utterance, or any other means; and
(b) intends the obstruction or disruption described in Subsection (2)(a) to prevent or disrupt the meeting, procession, or gathering.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-9-104 Failure to disperse.
(1) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits failure to disperse if the actor:
(a) is at the scene of a riot, disorderly conduct, or an unlawful assembly; and
(b) remains at the scene of the riot, disorderly conduct, or unlawful assembly after having been ordered to disperse by a peace officer.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.
(4) This section does not apply to an actor who attempts to leave the scene of a riot, disorderly conduct, or unlawful assembly but is unsuccessful in leaving the scene.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-9-105 Making a false alarm.
(1)
(a) As used in this section, "weapon of mass destruction" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-15-301.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits making a false alarm if the actor:

(a) initiates or circulates a report or warning of a fire, impending bombing, or other crime or catastrophe; and
(b) knows that that the report or warning described in Subsection (2)(a) is:
(i) false or baseless;
(ii) is likely to cause the evacuation of a building, place of assembly, or facility of public transport; and
(iii) likely to cause public inconvenience or alarm or action of any sort by an official or volunteer agency organized to deal with emergencies.

(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b) or (c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if:
(i) the actor makes a false alarm alleging an ongoing act or event, or an imminent threat; and
(ii) the false alarm causes or threatens to cause bodily harm, serious bodily injury, or death to another individual.
(c) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the false alarm is regarding a weapon of mass destruction.

(4) In addition to any other penalty authorized by law, a court shall order an actor convicted of a felony violation of this section to reimburse any federal, state, or local unit of government, or any private business, organization, individual, or entity for all expenses and losses incurred in responding to the violation, unless the court states on the record the reasons why the court finds the reimbursement would be inappropriate.

76-9-105.5 Emergency reporting abuse.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Emergency" means a situation in which property or human life is in jeopardy and the prompt summoning of aid is essential to the preservation of human life or property.
(ii) "Party line" means a subscriber's line or telephone circuit:
(A) that consists of two or more connected main telephone stations; and
(B) where each telephone station has a distinctive ring or telephone number.
(iii) "Weapon of mass destruction" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-15-301.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits emergency reporting abuse if the actor:
(a) reports an emergency or causes an emergency to be reported, through any means, to a public, private, or volunteer entity whose purpose is to respond to fire, police, or medical emergencies, when the actor knows the reported emergency does not exist;
(b) makes a false report, or intentionally aids, abets, or causes another person to make a false report, through any means to an emergency response service, including a law enforcement dispatcher or a 911 emergency response service, if the false report claims that:
(i) an emergency exists or will exist;
(ii) the emergency described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) involves an imminent or future threat of serious bodily injury, serious physical injury, or death; and

(iii) the emergency described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) is occurring, or will occur, at a specified location; or

(c) makes a false report after having previously made a false report, or intentionally aides, abets, or causes a third party to make a false report, to an emergency response service, including a law enforcement dispatcher or a 911 emergency response service, alleging a violation of Section 63G-31-302 regarding a sex-designated changing room.

(3)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2)(a) is a class B misdemeanor.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2)(a) is a second degree felony if the report is regarding a weapon of mass destruction.

(c) A violation of Subsection (2)(b) is a second degree felony.

(d) A violation of Subsection (2)(c) is a class B misdemeanor.

(a) In addition to another penalty authorized by law, a court shall order an actor convicted of a violation of this section to reimburse a federal, state, or local unit of government, or a private business, organization, individual, or entity for all expenses and losses incurred in responding to the violation.

(b) The court may order that the actor pay less than the full amount of the costs described in Subsection (4)(a) only if the court states on the record the reasons why the reimbursement would be inappropriate.

76-9-105.6 Prohibited use of a party line or public pay telephone in an emergency.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Emergency" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-9-105.5.

(ii) "Party line" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-9-105.5.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits prohibited use of a party line or public pay telephone in an emergency if the actor:

(a) intentionally refuses to yield or surrender the use of a party line or a public pay telephone to another individual upon being informed that the party line or public pay telephone is needed to report a fire or summon police, medical, or other aid in case of an emergency; or

(b) asks for or requests the use of a party line or a public pay telephone on the pretext that an emergency exists, knowing that no emergency exists.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.

(4) Subsection (2)(a) does not apply if the actor refuses to yield or surrender the use of the party line or public pay telephone because the actor is using the party line or public pay telephone to report an emergency.

(5)

(a) In addition to another penalty authorized by law, a court shall order an actor convicted of a violation of this section to reimburse a federal, state, or local unit of government, or a private business, organization, individual, or entity for all expenses and losses incurred in responding to the violation.

(b) The court may order that the actor pay less than the full amount of the costs described in Subsection (5)(a) only if the court states on the record the reasons why the full reimbursement would be inappropriate.

(a) As used in this section, "minor" means an individual who is younger than 21 years old.
(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits public intoxication if the actor:
(a)
(i) is in a public place; or
(ii) in a private place where the actor could unreasonably disturb other individuals;
(b) is under the influence of alcohol, a controlled substance, or any substance having the property of releasing toxic vapors; and
(c) is under the influence to a degree that it may endanger the actor or another individual.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.
(4)
(a) A peace officer or a magistrate may release an actor from custody arrested under this section if the peace officer or magistrate believes incarceration is unnecessary for the protection of the actor or another individual.
(b) A peace officer may take the actor to a detoxification center or other special facility as an alternative to incarceration or release from custody.
(5)
(a) If a minor is found by a court to have committed a violation of Subsection (2) and the violation is the minor's first violation of Subsection (2), the court may:
(i) order the minor to complete a screening as defined in Section 41-6a-501;
(ii) order the minor to complete an assessment as defined in Section 41-6a-501 if the screening indicates an assessment to be appropriate; and
(iii) order the minor to complete an educational series as defined in Section 41-6a-501 or substance use disorder treatment as indicated by an assessment.
(b) If a minor is found by a court to have violated Subsection (2) and the violation is the minor's second or subsequent violation of Subsection (2), the court shall:

(i) order the minor to complete a screening as defined in Section 41-6a-501;
(ii) order the minor to complete an assessment as defined in Section 41-6a-501 if the screening indicates an assessment to be appropriate; and
(iii) order the minor to complete an educational series as defined in Section 41-6a-501 or substance use disorder treatment as indicated by an assessment.

(a) When a minor who is at least 18 years old, but younger than 21 years old, is found by a court to have violated Subsection (2), the court shall suspend the minor's driving privileges under Section 53-3-219.
(b) Notwithstanding the requirement in Subsection (6)(a), the court may reduce the suspension period required under Section 53-3-219 if:
(i) the violation is the minor's first violation of Subsection (2); and
(ii)
(A) the minor completes an educational series as defined in Section 41-6a-501; or
(B) the minor demonstrates substantial progress in substance use disorder treatment.
(c) Notwithstanding the requirement in Subsection (6)(a) and in accordance with the requirements of Section 53-3-219, the court may reduce the suspension period required under Section 53-3-219 if:
(i) the violation is the minor's second or subsequent violation of Subsection (2);
(ii) the minor has completed an educational series as defined in Section 41-6a-501 or demonstrated substantial progress in substance use disorder treatment; and
(iii)
(A) the minor is 18 years old or older and provides a sworn statement to the court that the minor has not unlawfully consumed alcohol or drugs for at least a one-year consecutive period during the suspension period imposed under Subsection (6)(a); or
(B) the minor is under 18 years old and has the minor's parent or legal guardian provide an affidavit or sworn statement to the court certifying that to the parent or legal guardian's knowledge the minor has not unlawfully consumed alcohol or drugs for at least a one-year consecutive period during the suspension period imposed under Subsection (6)(a).

(7) When a minor who is younger than 18 years old is found by a court to have violated Subsection (2), the provisions regarding suspension of the driver's license under Section 80-6-707 apply to the violation.
(8) Notwithstanding Subsections (5)(a) and (b), if a minor is adjudicated under Section 80-6-701, the court may only order substance use disorder treatment or an educational series if the minor has an assessed need for the intervention based on the results of a validated assessment.
(9) When the court issues an order suspending an actor's driving privileges for a violation of Subsection (2), the actor's driver license shall be suspended under Section 53-3-219.

General Provisions

76-11-101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1)
(a) "Antique firearm" means:
(i) any firearm, including any firearm with a matchlock, flintlock, percussion cap, or similar type of ignition system, manufactured in or before 1898;
(ii) a firearm that is a replica of any firearm described in this Subsection (1)(a), if the replica:
(A) is not designed or redesigned for using rimfire or conventional centerfire fixed ammunition; or
(B) uses rimfire or centerfire fixed ammunition that is no longer manufactured in the United States and is not readily available in ordinary channels of commercial trade; or
(iii)
(A) that is a muzzle loading rifle, shotgun, or pistol; and
(B) is designed to use black powder, or a black powder substitute, and cannot use fixed ammunition.
(b) "Antique firearm" does not include:
(i) a weapon that incorporates a firearm frame or receiver;
(ii) a firearm that is converted into a muzzle loading weapon; or
(iii) a muzzle loading weapon that can be readily converted to fire fixed ammunition by replacing the:
(A) barrel;
(B) bolt;
(C) breechblock; or
(D) any combination of Subsection (1)(b)(iii)(A), (B), or (C).

(2) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Criminal Identification created in Section 53-10-201 within the Department of Public Safety.

(3)
(a) "Dangerous weapon" means:
(i) a firearm; or
(ii) an object that in the manner of its use or intended use is capable of causing death or serious bodily injury.

(b) The following factors are used in determining whether any object, other than a firearm, is a dangerous weapon:
(i) the location and circumstances in which the object was used or possessed;
(ii) the primary purpose for which the object was made;
(iii) the character of the wound, if any, produced by the object's unlawful use;
(iv) the manner in which the object was unlawfully used;
(v) whether the manner in which the object is used or possessed constitutes a potential imminent threat to public safety; and
(vi) the lawful purposes for which the object may be used.
(c) "Dangerous weapon" does not include an explosive, chemical, or incendiary device as defined by Section 76-15-210.
(4) "Firearm" means:
(a) a pistol, revolver, shotgun, short barreled shotgun, rifle, or short barreled rifle; or
(b) a device that could be used as a dangerous weapon from which a projectile is expelled by an explosive action.
(5) "Handgun" means a pistol, revolver, or other firearm of any description, from which a shot, bullet, or other missile can be discharged, the length of which, not including any revolving, detachable, or magazine breech, does not exceed 12 inches.
(6) "Minor" means an individual under 18 years old.
(7)
(a) "Short barreled rifle" means a rifle having a barrel or barrels of fewer than 16 inches in length.
(b) "Short barreled rifle" includes a dangerous weapon made from a rifle by alteration, modification, or otherwise, if the weapon as modified has an overall length of fewer than 26 inches.
(8)
(a) "Short barreled shotgun" means a shotgun having a barrel or barrels of fewer than 18 inches in length.
(b) "Short barreled shotgun" includes a dangerous weapon made from a shotgun by alteration, modification, or otherwise, if the weapon as modified has an overall length of fewer than 26 inches.
(9) "Shotgun" means a smooth bore firearm designed to fire cartridges containing pellets or a single slug.
(10) "Slug" means a single projectile discharged from a shotgun shell.
(11) "Violent felony" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-3-203.5.

76-11-102 When a firearm is considered to be loaded.
(1) For the purpose of this chapter:
(a) a firearm is considered to be loaded when there is an unexpended cartridge, shell, or projectile in the firing position;
(b) handguns are also considered to be loaded when an unexpended cartridge, shell, or projectile is in a position whereby the manual operation of any mechanism once would cause the unexpended cartridge, shell, or projectile to be fired; and
(c) a muzzle loading firearm is considered loaded when the muzzle loading firearm is capped or primed and has a powder charge and ball or shot in the barrel or cylinders.

(2) If a provision of this chapter does not specify that the firearm in the prohibited or allowed conduct is loaded or unloaded, the prohibited or allowed conduct includes if the firearm is either loaded or unloaded.

76-11-202 Unlawful carrying of a concealed firearm by an individual under 21 years old.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-11-101, and 76-11-201 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits unlawful carrying of a concealed firearm by an individual under 21 years old if:

(a) the actor is younger than 21 years old;

(b) the actor does not have a provisional concealed carry permit issued in accordance with Section 53-5a-304 or a concealed carry permit lawfully issued by or in another state;

(c) the actor conceals a firearm in a covered, hidden, or secreted manner that the public would not be aware of the firearm's presence;

(d) the firearm described in Subsection (2)(c) is readily accessible for immediate use by the actor; and
(e) the actor is in a location that is not:
(i) the actor's residence;
(ii) the actor's real property;
(iii) a vehicle that the actor is lawfully present in; or
(iv) a business under the actor's control.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b) or (3)(c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the firearm was loaded at the time of the violation.
(c) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the firearm was used in the commission of a violent felony and the actor was a party to the offense.
(4) This section does not:
(a) apply to an individual who is categorized as a restricted person under Section 76-11-302 or 76-11-303 and may not possess a firearm in any manner or location and is subject to the penalties described in Part 3, Persons Restricted Regarding Dangerous Weapons;
(b) prohibit an individual engaged in the lawful taking of protected or unprotected wildlife as defined in Title 23A, Wildlife Resources Act, from carrying a concealed firearm while performing an act to take the wildlife if the taking of wildlife does not occur:
(i) within the limits of a municipality in violation of that municipality's ordinances; or
(ii) upon the highways of the state as defined in Section 41-6a-102;
(c) apply to an individual who is not a restricted person as described in Section 76-11-302 or 76-11-303 or 18 U.S.C. Sec. 922(g) and is issued a protective order under Subsection 78B-7-404(1)(b) or 78B-7-603(1)(b), for a period of 120 days after the day on which the individual is issued the protective order; or
(d) prohibit the owner or lawful possessor of a vehicle from prohibiting another individual from carrying a firearm in the owner's or lawful possessor's vehicle.
(5) An actor is lawfully present in a vehicle while carrying a firearm under this section if:
(a) the vehicle is in the lawful possession of the actor; or
(b) the actor has the consent of the person lawfully in possession of the vehicle to carry the firearm in the vehicle.

76-11-218 Possession of a dangerous weapon in an airport secure area -- Reporting requirements.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Airport authority" has the same meaning as defined in Section 72-10-102.
(ii) "Explosive" is the same as defined for "explosive, chemical, or incendiary device" in Section 76-15-210.
(iii) "Law enforcement officer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-13-103.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-11-101, and 76-11-201 apply to this section.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an actor commits possession of a dangerous weapon in an airport secure area if the actor, including an actor with a concealed firearm permit issued under Title 53, Chapter 5a, Part 3, Concealed Firearm Permits:
(a) intentionally or knowingly possesses a dangerous weapon within the secure area of an airport established under Subsection (5); or
(b) recklessly or with criminal negligence possesses a dangerous weapon within the secure area of an airport established under Subsection (5).
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2)(a) is a class A misdemeanor.
(b) Subject to Subsection (6), a violation of Subsection (2)(b) is an infraction.
(4) Subsection (2) does not apply to:
(a) an individual exempted from certain weapons laws as described in Section 53-5a-108; or

(b) a member of the state or federal military forces while engaged in the performance of the member's official duties.

(5)

(a) An airport authority, county, municipality, or other entity regulating an airport may:

(i) establish a secure area located beyond the main area where the public generally buys tickets, checks and retrieves luggage; and

(ii) use reasonable means, including mechanical, electronic, x-ray, or another device, to detect firearms, other dangerous weapons, or explosives concealed in baggage or upon the person of an individual attempting to enter the secure area.

(b) At least one notice shall be prominently displayed at each entrance to a secure area in which a firearm, other dangerous weapon, or explosive is restricted.

(c) An actor who transports, possesses, distributes, or sells an explosive, chemical, or incendiary device within the secure area of an airport commits a violation of Section 76-15-210.

(a) An actor who violates Subsection (2)(b) on a first offense may receive a written warning for the offense and may not receive a citation or any other form of punishment.

(b) An actor who violates Subsection (2)(b) on a second or subsequent offense may receive a written warning or a citation.

(7)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(d), if a law enforcement officer issues a citation to an actor for an infraction as a result of the actor's conduct described in Subsection (2)(b), or provides an oral or written warning for that conduct, the law enforcement officer shall:

(i) if the law enforcement officer is able to confirm that the actor may lawfully possess the dangerous weapon, allow the actor, at the actor's option, to:

(A) temporarily surrender custody of the dangerous weapon into the custody of the law enforcement agency so that the dangerous weapon may be retrieved by the actor at a later date; or

(B) exit the secure area of the airport with the dangerous weapon; or

(ii) if the law enforcement officer is unable to confirm that the actor may lawfully possess the dangerous weapon, or the airport authority under Subsection (7)(d) prohibits the procedure described in Subsection (7)(a)(i), take temporary custody of the dangerous weapon so that the dangerous weapon may be retrieved by the actor at a later date if legally permitted to do so.

(b) If a law enforcement officer takes temporary custody of a dangerous weapon under Subsection (7)(a):

(i) at the time the dangerous weapon is obtained from the actor, the law enforcement officer, or another law enforcement officer, or an employee who works in the secure area of the airport, shall provide the actor with written instructions on how, when, and where the actor may retrieve the actor's dangerous weapon; and

(ii) within three business days from the time when the law enforcement officer receives the dangerous weapon, the law enforcement agency shall determine whether the actor is legally permitted to possess the dangerous weapon, and if so, ensure that the dangerous weapon is available for the actor to retrieve.

(c) An unclaimed dangerous weapon that is surrendered into the custody of a law enforcement agency under this Subsection (7) may be disposed of pursuant to Section 77-11d-105, disposition of unclaimed property.

(d) An airport authority may implement a policy that prohibits the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the airport from utilizing the procedure described in Subsection (7)(a)(i).

(8)
(a) An actor's firearm that is confiscated based on a violation of Subsection (2)(a) shall be returned to the actor in accordance with Subsection 77-11a-402(2).
(b) In accordance with Subsection 77-11b-102(5), a firearm seized under Subsection (2)(a) is not subject to forfeiture if the actor may lawfully possess the firearm.
(c) In a prosecution brought under this section, a prosecutor may not condition a plea on the forfeiture of a firearm.
(9) An airport authority, county, municipality, or other entity regulating an airport or with local jurisdiction over an airport may not:
(a) charge, cite, or prosecute an actor with a different offense under the Utah Code, local ordinance, or another state or local law or regulation for conduct described in Subsection (2)(b);
(b) assess a civil penalty for conduct described in Subsection (2); or
(c) enact a regulation, ordinance, or law covering conduct described in Subsection (2).
(10) A law enforcement agency that issues a written warning, citation, or referral for prosecution under this section shall record and report the information as required under Section 53-25-103.

76-11-219 Trespass with a firearm in a house of worship or a private residence.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-11-101, and 76-11-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor is guilty of trespass with a firearm in a house of worship or a private residence if the actor:
(a) has been given notice as described in Subsection (4) that firearms are prohibited in the house of worship or the private residence; and
(b) knowingly and intentionally:
(i) transports a firearm into the house of worship or private residence; or
(ii) while in possession of a firearm, enters or remains in the house of worship or private residence.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is an infraction.
(4) Notice that firearms are prohibited may be given by:
(a) personal communication to the actor by:
(i) the church or organization operating the house of worship;
(ii) the owner, lessee, or person with lawful right of possession of the private residence; or
(iii) a person with authority to act for the person or entity in Subsections (4)(a)(i) and (ii);
(b) posting of signs reasonably likely to come to the attention of persons entering the house of worship or private residence;
(c) announcement, by a person with authority to act for the church or organization operating the house of worship, in a regular congregational meeting in the house of worship;
(d) publication in a bulletin, newsletter, worship program, or similar document generally circulated or available to the members of the congregation regularly meeting in the house of worship; or
(e) publication:
(i) in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the house of worship is located or the church or organization operating the house of worship has its principal office in this state; and
(ii) as required in Section 45-1-101.
(5) A church or organization operating a house of worship and giving notice that firearms are prohibited may:

(a) revoke the notice, with or without supersedure, by giving further notice in any manner provided in Subsection (4); and
(b) provide or allow exceptions to the prohibition as the church or organization considers advisable.

(6)
(i) Within 30 days of giving or revoking any notice pursuant to Subsection (4)(c), (d), or (e), a church or organization operating a house of worship shall notify the division on a form and in a manner as the division shall prescribe.
(ii) The division shall post on its website a list of the churches and organizations operating houses of worship who have given notice under Subsection (6)(a)(i).
(b) Any notice given pursuant to Subsection (4)(c), (d), or (e) shall remain in effect until revoked or for a period of one year from the date the notice was originally given, whichever occurs first.

(7) This section does not permit an owner who has granted the lawful right of possession to a renter or lessee to restrict the renter or lessee from lawfully possessing a firearm in the residence.

76-11-303 Category II restricted person established.

Except as provided in Section 76-11-304, Exceptions, limitations, and exclusions to restricted person categories, an individual is categorized as a category II restricted person and subject to the restrictions and penalties described in Section 76-11-306:
(1) if the individual has been convicted of:
(a) a domestic violence offense that is a felony; or
(b) multiple felonies that are not part of a single criminal episode;
(2) if the individual has:
(a) been convicted of:

(i) a felony that is not a domestic violence offense or a violent felony; or
(ii) multiple felonies that are part of a single criminal episode and are not domestic violence offenses or violent felonies; and
(b) within seven years after completing the sentence for the conviction described in Subsection (2)(a), been convicted of, or charged with, another felony or class A misdemeanor;
(3) for seven years after the day on which the individual completes a sentence for:
(a) a conviction for a felony that is not a domestic violence offense or a violent felony; or
(b) convictions for multiple felonies that are part of a single criminal episode and are not domestic violence offenses or violent felonies;
(4) for seven years after the day on which the individual was an adjudicated delinquent for an offense which if committed by an adult would have been a felony;
(5) if the individual is an unlawful user of a controlled substance;
(6) if the individual is in possession of a dangerous weapon while knowingly and intentionally being in unlawful possession of a schedule I controlled substance or a schedule II controlled substance;
(7) if the individual has been found not guilty by reason of insanity for a felony offense;
(8) if the individual has been found mentally incompetent to stand trial for a felony offense;
(9) if the individual has been adjudicated as mentally defective as provided in the Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act, Pub. L. No. 103-159, 107 Stat. 1536 (1993), or having been committed to a mental institution;
(10) if the individual has been dishonorably discharged from the armed forces;
(11) if the individual has renounced the individual's citizenship after having been a citizen of the United States;
(12) if the individual is a respondent or defendant subject to a protective order or child protective order that:
(a) is issued after a hearing for which the individual received actual notice and at which the individual had an opportunity to participate;
(b) restrains the individual from harassing, stalking, threatening, or engaging in other conduct that would place an intimate partner, or a child of the intimate partner, in reasonable fear of bodily injury to the intimate partner or child of the intimate partner; and
(c)
(i) includes a finding that the individual represents a credible threat to the physical safety of an intimate partner or the child of the intimate partner; or
(ii) explicitly prohibits the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force that would reasonably be expected to cause bodily harm against an intimate partner or the child of an intimate partner; or
(13) except as provided in Subsection 76-11-304(2), if the individual has been convicted of the commission or attempted commission of misdemeanor assault under Section 76-5-102, or aggravated assault under Section 76-5-103, against a victim:
(a) who is a current or former spouse, parent, or guardian of the individual;
(b) with whom the individual shares a child in common;
(c) who is cohabitating or has cohabitated with the individual as a spouse, parent, or guardian;
(d) involved in a dating relationship with the individual within the last five years; or
(e) similarly situated to a spouse, parent, or guardian of the individual.

Enacted by Chapter 208, 2025 General Session

76-11-304 Exceptions, limitations, and exclusions to restricted person categories -- Burden on defendant to prove exception.

(1)

(a) Subject to Subsection (1)(c), an individual convicted of a felony, or adjudicated for an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult, is not a category I restricted person, or a category II restricted person, if:

(i) the felony or adjudication has, in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the conviction or adjudication occurred, been:

(A) expunged;

(B) set aside;

(C) reduced to a misdemeanor by court order; or

(D) pardoned;

(ii) the individual has had the individual's civil rights that had been limited by the conviction or adjudication restored in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the conviction or adjudication occurred; or

(iii) the felony or adjudication is an offense pertaining to antitrust violations, unfair trade practices, restraint of trade, or other similar offenses relating to the regulation of business practices not involving theft or fraud.

(b) Subject to Subsection (1)(c), an individual convicted of a misdemeanor assault under Subsection 76-11-303(13) that qualifies to make the individual a category II restricted person is otherwise not a category II restricted person, if, in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the conviction occurred:

(i) the misdemeanor has been:

(A) expunged;

(B) set aside;

(C) reduced to an infraction by court order; or

(D) pardoned; or

(ii) the individual has had the individual's civil rights that had been limited by the conviction restored.

(c) An individual who has received a pardon, reduction, expungement, setting aside, or restoration of civil rights as described in Subsection (1)(a) or (b) remains a category I or category II restricted person that corresponds with the individual's conviction if the pardon, reduction, expungement, setting aside, or restoration of civil rights expressly provides that the person may not ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms.

(2) An individual is not a category II restricted person resulting from a conviction for a misdemeanor assault committed against an individual involved in a dating relationship as described in Subsection 76-11-303(13)(d) if:

(a) five years have elapsed from the later of:

(i) the day on which the conviction is entered;

(ii) the day on which the individual is released from incarceration following the conviction; or

(iii) the day on which the individual's probation for the conviction is successfully terminated;

(b) the individual only has a single conviction for misdemeanor assault as described in Subsection 76-11-303(12)(d); and

(c) the individual is not otherwise a category I restricted person or a category II restricted person.

(3)

(a) In a criminal case brought against the defendant in which the question of whether the defendant meets an exception, limitation, or exclusion under this section arises and therefore makes the defendant not a category I or category II restricted person, the defendant has the burden to provide evidence that an exception, limitation, or exclusion described in Subsection (1) or (2) applies.

(b) If the defendant satisfies the defendant's burden to provide evidence described in Subsection (3)(a), the burden shifts to the state to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant's conviction or adjudication is not subject to an exception, limitation, or exclusion described in Subsection (1) or (2).

76-11-305 Category I restricted person participating in prohibited dangerous weapon conduct.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-11-101, and 76-11-301 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits category I restricted person participating in prohibited dangerous weapon conduct if the actor:

(a) is a category I restricted person; and

(b) intentionally or knowingly:

(i) agrees, consents, offers, or arranges to:

(A) purchase a dangerous weapon;

(B) transfer a dangerous weapon;

(C) use a dangerous weapon; or

(D) carry or otherwise possess a dangerous weapon; or

(ii) purchases, transfers, uses, carries, or otherwise possesses a dangerous weapon.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the dangerous weapon is not a firearm.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the dangerous weapon is a firearm.

(4) For purposes of this section, using a dangerous weapon includes using an antique firearm for an activity regulated under Title 23A, Wildlife Resources Act.

(5) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution for transferring a dangerous weapon by an actor under Subsection (2) that the dangerous weapon:

(a) was possessed by the actor or was under the actor's custody or control before the actor became a restricted person;

(b) was not used in or possessed during the commission of a crime or subject to disposition under Title 77, Chapter 11a, Part 4, Disposal of Seized Property and Contraband;

(c) is not being held as evidence by a court or law enforcement agency;

(d) was transferred to an individual not legally prohibited from possessing the weapon; and

(e) unless a different time is ordered by the court, was transferred within 10 days after the day on which the actor became a restricted person.

(6)

(a) It is not a violation of this section for an actor who is a category I restricted person to own, carry, or otherwise possess, archery equipment, including crossbows, for the purpose of lawful hunting and lawful target shooting.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a), this section applies if the owning, carrying, or otherwise possessing archery equipment, including crossbows, is prohibited by:

(i) a court, as a condition of pre-trial release or probation; or

(ii) the Board of Pardons and Parole, as a condition of parole.

76-11-306 Category II restricted person participating in prohibited dangerous weapon conduct.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-11-101, and 76-11-301 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits category II restricted person participating in prohibited dangerous weapon conduct if the actor:

(a) is a category II restricted person; and

(b) intentionally or knowingly:

(i) purchases a dangerous weapon;

(ii) transfers a dangerous weapon;

(iii) uses a dangerous weapon; or

(iv) carries or otherwise possesses a dangerous weapon.

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if the dangerous weapon is not a firearm.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the dangerous weapon is a firearm.

(4) For purposes of this section using a dangerous weapon includes using an antique firearm for an activity regulated under Title 23A, Wildlife Resources Act.

(5) It is an affirmative defense to:

(a) a prosecution under this section that is based on proving that an actor is a category II restricted person as a result of being in possession of a dangerous weapon while knowingly and intentionally being in unlawful possession of a schedule I controlled substance or a schedule II controlled substance as described in Subsection 76-11-303(6) that the actor was:

(i) in possession of the controlled substance pursuant to a lawful order of a practitioner for use of a member of the person's household or for administration to an animal owned by the person or a member of the person's household; or

(ii) otherwise authorized by law to possess the controlled substance; and

(b) a prosecution for transferring a dangerous weapon by an actor under Subsection (2) that the dangerous weapon:

(i) was possessed by the actor or was under the actor's custody or control before the actor became a restricted person;

(ii) was not used in or possessed during the commission of a crime or subject to disposition under Title 77, Chapter 11a, Part 4, Disposal of Seized Property and Contraband;

(iii) is not being held as evidence by a court or law enforcement agency;

(iv) was transferred to an individual not legally prohibited from possessing the weapon; and

(v) unless a different time is ordered by the court, was transferred within 10 days after the day on which the actor became a restricted person.

(6)

(a) It is not a violation of this section for an actor who is a category II restricted person to own, carry, or otherwise possess, archery equipment, including crossbows, for the purpose of lawful hunting and lawful target shooting.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a), this section applies if the owning, carrying, or otherwise possessing of archery equipment, including crossbows, is prohibited by:

(i) a court, as a condition of pre-trial release or probation; or

(ii) the Board of Pardons and Parole, as a condition of parole.

76-11-307 Selling a dangerous weapon to a category I restricted person.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-11-101, and 76-11-301 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits selling a dangerous weapon to a category I restricted person if the actor:
(a) sells, transfers, or otherwise provides a dangerous weapon to an individual who is a category I restricted person; and
(b) knows the individual that the actor has sold, transferred, or provided the dangerous weapon to is a category I restricted person.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the dangerous weapon sold, transferred, or provided is a firearm.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the dangerous weapon sold, transferred, or provided is not a firearm and the actor knew that the recipient intended to use the dangerous weapon for an unlawful purpose.

76-11-309 Firearm restriction notification requirement for restricted persons.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Peace officer" means an officer described Section 53-13-102.
(b) "Restricted person" means an individual who is restricted from purchasing, transferring, using, or otherwise possessing a firearm under Section 76-11-302 or 76-11-303 or federal law.
(2) A defendant intending to plead guilty or no contest to a criminal charge that will, upon conviction, cause the defendant to become a restricted person shall, before entering a plea before a court, sign an acknowledgment that states:
(a) the defendant's attorney or the prosecuting attorney has informed the defendant:
(i) that conviction of the charge will classify the defendant as a restricted person;
(ii) that a restricted person may not purchase, transfer, use, or otherwise possess a firearm; and
(iii) of the criminal penalties associated with purchasing, transferring, using, or otherwise possessing a firearm by a restricted person of the same category the defendant will become upon entering a plea for the criminal charge; and
(b) the defendant acknowledges and understands that, by pleading guilty or no contest to the criminal charge, the defendant:

(i) will be a restricted person;
(ii) upon conviction, shall forfeit possession of each firearm currently in the defendant's possession; and
(iii) will be in violation of federal and state law if the defendant purchases, transfers, uses, or otherwise possesses a firearm.

(3) The prosecuting attorney or the defendant's attorney shall provide the acknowledgment described in Subsection (2) to the court before the defendant's entry of a plea, if the defendant pleads guilty or no contest.

(4) A defendant who is convicted by trial of a criminal charge resulting in the defendant becoming a restricted person shall, at the time of sentencing:

(a) be verbally informed by the court, prosecuting attorney, or defendant's attorney:
(i) that the defendant is a restricted person;
(ii) that, as a restricted person, the defendant may not purchase, transfer, use, or otherwise possess a firearm; and
(iii) of the criminal penalties associated with purchasing, transferring, using, or otherwise possessing a firearm by a restricted person of the defendant's category; and

(b) sign an acknowledgment in the presence of the court attesting that the defendant acknowledges and understands that the defendant:
(i) is a restricted person;
(ii) shall forfeit possession of each firearm; and
(iii) will be in violation of federal and state law if the defendant purchases, transfers, uses, or otherwise possesses a firearm.

(5) The prosecuting attorney and the defendant's attorney shall inform the court at the preliminary hearing if a charge filed against the defendant would qualify the defendant as a restricted person if the defendant is convicted of the charge.

(6) The failure to inform or obtain a signed acknowledgment from the defendant may not render the plea invalid, form the basis for withdrawal of the plea, or create a basis to challenge a conviction or sentence.

(7) An individual who becomes a restricted person as a result of being served with a pretrial protective order in accordance with Section 78B-7-803, a sentencing protective order in accordance with Section 77-36-5, or a continuous protective order in accordance with Section 77-36-5, shall, at the time of service of the protective order:

(a) be verbally informed by the court, prosecuting attorney, defendant's attorney, or, if a peace officer is serving the protective order, the peace officer:
(i) that the individual is a restricted person;
(ii) that, as a restricted person, the individual may not purchase, transfer, use, or otherwise possess a firearm; and
(iii) of the criminal penalties associated with purchasing, transferring, using, or otherwise possessing a firearm by a restricted person of the individual's category; and

(b) sign, in the presence of the court or, if a peace officer serves the protective order, in the presence of the peace officer, an acknowledgment contained within the protective order document attesting that the individual acknowledges and understands that the individual:
(i) is a restricted person;
(ii) is required to relinquish possession of each firearm in the individual's possession;
(iii) will be in violation of federal and state law if the individual purchases, transfers, uses, or otherwise possesses a firearm; and
(iv) may be eligible for an affirmative defense to a state-law prosecution for transferring a firearm under Section 76-11-305 or 76-11-306 if the individual lawfully transfers the individual's firearms within 10 days after the day on which the individual became a restricted person.

76-11-310 Removal from National Instant Check System database for certain category II restricted persons.

(1) An individual who is subject to the restrictions in Subsection 76-11-303(7), (8), or (9), or 18 U.S.C. 922(d)(4) and (g)(4) based on a commitment, finding, or adjudication that occurred in this state may petition the district court in the county in which the commitment, finding, or adjudication occurred to remove the disability imposed.

(2) The petition shall be filed in the district court in the county where the commitment, finding, or adjudication occurred and shall include:

(a) a listing of facilities, with their addresses, where the petitioner has ever received mental health treatment;

(b) a release signed by the petitioner to allow the prosecutor or county attorney to obtain the petitioner's mental health records;

(c) a verified report of a mental health evaluation conducted by a licensed psychiatrist occurring within 30 days prior to the filing of the petition, which shall include a statement regarding:

(i) the nature of the commitment, finding, or adjudication that resulted in the restriction on the petitioner's ability to purchase or possess a dangerous weapon;

(ii) the petitioner's previous and current mental health treatment;

(iii) the petitioner's previous violent behavior, if any;

(iv) the petitioner's current mental health medications and medication management;

(v) the length of time the petitioner has been stable;

(vi) external factors that may influence the petitioner's stability;

(vii) the ability of the petitioner to maintain stability with or without medication; and

(viii) whether the petitioner is dangerous to public safety; and

(d) a copy of the petitioner's state and federal criminal history record.

(3) The petitioner shall serve the petition on the prosecuting entity that prosecuted the case or, if the disability is not based on a criminal case, on the county or district attorney's office having jurisdiction where the petition was filed and the individual who filed the original action which resulted in the disability.

(4)

(a) The court shall schedule a hearing as soon as practicable in which the petitioner may present evidence and subpoena witnesses to appear at the hearing.

(b) The prosecuting, county attorney, or the individual who filed the original action which resulted in the disability may object to the petition and present evidence in support of the objection.

(5) The court shall consider the following evidence:

(a) the facts and circumstances that resulted in the commitment, finding, or adjudication;

(b) the petitioner's mental health and criminal history records; and

(c) the petitioner's reputation, including the testimony of character witnesses.

(6) The court shall grant the relief if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that:

(a) the petitioner is not a danger to the petitioner or to another individual;

(b) the petitioner is not likely to act in a manner dangerous to public safety; and

(c) the requested relief would not be contrary to the public interest.

(7) The court shall issue an order with its findings and send a copy to the bureau.

(a) The bureau, upon receipt of a court order removing a petitioner's disability under Subsection 76-11-303(9), shall send a copy of the court order to the National Instant Check System requesting removal of the petitioner's name from the database.
(b) In addition to the action described in Subsection (8)(a), if the petitioner is listed in a state database utilized by the bureau to determine eligibility for the purchase or possession of a firearm or to obtain a concealed firearm permit under Title 53, Chapter 5a, Part 3, Concealed Firearm Permits, the bureau shall remove the petitioner's name or send a copy of the court's order to the agency responsible for the database for removal of the petitioner's name.
(9) If the court denies the petition, the petitioner may not petition again for relief until at least two years after the date of the court's final order.
(10) The petitioner may appeal a denial of the requested relief and the review on appeal shall be de novo.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-201 apply to this section.
(2) Except to the extent an actor's conduct constitutes an offense under Section 76-12-206, an actor commits electronic communication harassment if, with intent to intimidate, abuse, threaten, harass, frighten, or disrupt the electronic communications of another, the actor:
(a)
(i) makes repeated contact by means of electronic communications, regardless of whether a conversation ensues; or
(ii) after the recipient has requested or informed the actor not to contact the recipient, and the actor repeatedly or continuously:
(A) contacts the electronic communication device of the recipient; or
(B) causes an electronic communication device of the recipient to ring or to receive other notification of attempted contact by means of electronic communication;
(b) makes contact by means of electronic communication and insults, taunts, or challenges the recipient of the communication or any person at the receiving location in a manner likely to provoke a violent or disorderly response;
(c) makes contact by means of electronic communication and threatens to inflict injury, physical harm, or damage to any person or the property of any person; or
(d) causes disruption, jamming, or overload of an electronic communication system through excessive message traffic or other means utilizing an electronic communication device.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) A second or subsequent violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(4)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), a criminal prosecution under this section does not affect an individual's right to bring a civil action for damages suffered as a result of the commission of an offense under this section.
(b) This section does not create a civil cause of action based on electronic communications made for a legitimate business purpose.
(5) A violation of this section is subject to prosecution in the jurisdiction in which the electronic communication originated or was received.

76-12-203 Unlawful electronic disclosure of personal identifying information.
(1)
(a) As used in this section, "personal identifying information" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-6-1101.

(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful electronic disclosure of personal identifying information if the actor:
(a)
(i) electronically publishes, posts, or otherwise discloses personal identifying information of another individual in a public online site or forum without the permission of the other individual; and
(ii) undertakes the action described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) with the intent to abuse, threaten, or disrupt the other individual's electronic communication; or
(b) sends a communication by electronic mail, instant message, or other similar means, if:
(i) the communication references personal identifying information of another individual;
(ii) the actor sends the communication:
(A) without the individual's consent; and
(B) with the intent to cause a recipient of the communication to reasonably believe that the individual authorized or sent the communication; and
(iii) with the intent to:
(A) cause an individual physical, emotional, or economic injury or damage; or
(B) defraud an individual.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) A second or subsequent violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(4)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), a criminal prosecution under this section does not affect an individual's right to bring a civil action for damages suffered as a result of the commission of an offense under this section.
(b) This section does not create a civil cause of action based on an electronic communication made for a legitimate business purpose.

76-12-204 Unlawful electronic disclosure of a minor's personal information.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Minor victim" means a minor who is a victim of a violation of Subsection (2).
(ii) "Personal identifying information" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-6-1101.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful electronic disclosure of a minor's personal information if:
(a) the actor:
(i) is an adult;
(ii) electronically publishes, posts, or otherwise discloses in a public online site or forum personal identifying information of a minor who is unrelated by blood, marriage, or adoption to the actor; and
(iii) knows of, but consciously disregards, a substantial and unjustifiable risk that performing the action described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii) will result in the minor being the victim of an offense described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Offenses Against the Individual; and
(b) the minor described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii) is aware of the actor's action described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii).

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(4)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), a criminal prosecution under this section does not affect an individual's right to bring a civil action for damages suffered as a result of the commission of an offense under this section.
(b) This section does not create a civil cause of action based on an electronic communication made for a legitimate business purpose.
(5)
(a) A minor victim has a civil right of action against an actor who violates Subsection (2).
(b) A minor victim who brings a successful civil action under Subsection (5)(a) is entitled to recover from the actor:
(i) damages resulting from the violation of Subsection (2);
(ii) reasonable attorney fees; and
(iii) court costs.

(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits disclosure of personal information with intent to cause electronic communication harassment if:
(a) with intent that electronic communication harassment occur, the actor discloses or disseminates another person's identifying information with the expectation that others will further disseminate or use the person's identifying information; and
(b) the disclosure or dissemination of the other person's identifying information results in electronic communication harassment.
(3)
(a) If the individual whose identifying information is disseminated is an adult, a violation of Subsection (2) is:
(i) a class B misdemeanor on the first offense;
(ii) a class A misdemeanor on the second offense; or
(iii) a third degree felony on a third or subsequent offense.
(b) If the individual whose identifying information is disseminated is a minor, a violation of Subsection (2) is:
(i) a class A misdemeanor on the first offense; or
(ii) a third degree felony on the second or subsequent offense.

(4)
(a) This section does not apply to an actor who provides information in conjunction with a report under Title 34A, Chapter 6, Utah Occupational Safety and Health Act, or Title 67, Chapter 21, Utah Protection of Public Employees Act.
(b) In accordance with 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230, this section may not apply to, and does not impose liability or culpability on, an interactive computer service for content provided by another person.
(c) This section does not affect, limit, or apply to any activity or conduct that is protected by the constitution or laws of this state, or by the constitution or laws of the United States.
(5)
(a) An interactive computer service does not commit a violation of Subsection (2) if an actor violates Subsection (2) using the interactive computer service and the interactive computer service did not knowingly assist the actor to commit the violation.
(b) A service provider does not commit a violation of Subsection (2) for:
(i) action taken in relation to a customer of the service provider, for a legitimate business purpose, to install software on, monitor, or interact with the customer's Internet or other network connection, service, or computer for network or computer security purposes, authentication, diagnostics, technical support, maintenance, repair, network management, updates of computer software or system firmware, or remote system management; or
(ii) action taken, including scanning and removing computer software, to detect or prevent the following:
(A) unauthorized or fraudulent use of a network, service, or computer software;
(B) illegal activity; or
(C) infringement of intellectual property rights.

76-12-206 Unlawful online impersonation.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Commercial social networking website" means a person who operates a website that allows a person to register as a user for the purpose of:
(A) establishing a personal relationship with one or more other users through direct or real time communication with the other user; or
(B) the creation of a web page or a profile available to the public or to other users.
(ii) "Commercial social networking website" does not include an electronic mail program or a message board program.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful online impersonation if the actor uses the name or persona of an individual:
(a) without the individual's consent;
(b)
(i) to create a web page on a commercial social networking website or other website; or
(ii) to post or send a message on or through a commercial social networking website or other website, other than on or through an electronic mail program or message board program;
(c) with the intent to cause an individual to reasonably believe that the individual whose name or persona is used authorized or performed the applicable action described in Subsection (2)(b); and

(d) with the intent to harm, defraud, intimidate, or threaten any individual.

(3)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.

(b) A second or subsequent offense of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.

(4) It is a defense to prosecution under this section that the actor is one of the following entities or that the actor's conduct consisted solely of action taken as an employee of one of the following entities:

(a) a commercial social networking website;

(b) an Internet service provider;

(c) an interactive computer service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230;

(d) a telecommunications provider, as defined in Section 10-1-402;

(e) a cable television service;

(f) an entity that provides cable television service, as defined in Section 10-18-102; or 76-12-207 Misrepresentation of a call or text communication identification.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Caller or text message identification information" means information provided by a caller identification service or text message service regarding the telephone number or other information regarding the origination of a call or text message made using a telecommunications service or VoIP voice service.

(ii) "Caller or text message identification service" means a service or device designed to provide the user of the service or device with the telephone number of, or other information regarding, the origination of a call or text message made using a telecommunications service or VoIP voice service, including automatic number identification services.

(iii) "Text message":

(A) means a real-time or near real-time message consisting of text, images, sounds, or other information transmitted from or received by a device identified by a telephone number; and

(B) does not include a real-time, two-way voice or video communication.

(iv) "VoIP" means a technology that allows telephone calls to be made over computer networks, including the Internet.

(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-201 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits misrepresentation of a call or text communication identification if the actor, in connection with a telecommunications service or VoIP voice service, knowingly causes a caller identification service or text message service to transmit false, misleading, or inaccurate caller or text message identification information:

(a) with the intent to harm the recipient of the call or text message; or

(b) to a public safety answering point when reporting an emergency.

(3)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class C misdemeanor.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor on a second or subsequent violation.

(c) Each separate call or text message is a violation of this section.

(4) This section does not prevent or restrict a person from blocking the capability of a caller or text message identification service to transmit caller or text message identification information.
(5) The following are exempt from this section:
(a) the lawful investigative, protective, or intelligence activity of a law enforcement agency; and
(b) a court order that specifically authorizes the use of caller or text message identification manipulation.
(6) A violation of this section may be enforced in a civil action initiated by the recipient of a call, message, or text message made in violation of this section, a criminal action initiated by a prosecuting attorney, or both.
(7) This section does not apply to an Internet service provider or hosting company, a provider of public telecommunications services, or a text message service by reason of the fact that the Internet service provider, hosting company, text message service, or provider of public telecommunications services:
(a) transmits, routes, or provides connections for material without selecting the material;
(b) stores or delivers the material at the direction of a user; or
(c) provides a caller or text message identification service.

Part 3
Privacy Offenses

76-12-301 Definitions.

For purposes of this part:
(1) "Eavesdrop" means to overhear, record, amplify, or transmit any part of a wire or oral communication of another without the consent of at least one party thereto by means of an electronic, mechanical, or other device.
(2) "Private place" means a place where one may reasonably expect to be safe from casual or hostile intrusion or surveillance.
(3) "Public" includes any professional or social group of which the victim of a defamation is a member.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-12-302 Unlawful privacy violation.

(a) For purposes of this section, "expectation of privacy" means a property owner's expectation of privacy described in Subsection (6).
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-301 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unlawful privacy violation if, except as authorized by law, the actor:
(a) trespasses on property with intent to subject anyone to eavesdropping or other surveillance in a private place;
(b) installs, or uses after unauthorized installation in a private place, without the consent of the person or persons entitled to privacy in the private place, a device for observing, photographing, hearing, recording, amplifying, or broadcasting sounds or events in the private place;

(c) installs or uses outside of a private place a device for observing, photographing, hearing, recording, amplifying, or broadcasting sounds or events originating in the private place that would not ordinarily be audible, visible, or comprehensible outside the private place, without the consent of the person or persons entitled to privacy in the private place; or

(d) uses ground-penetrating technology, without the consent of the property owner, to detect, observe, measure, map, or otherwise capture information or data about the property or characteristics of the property of another for which the property owner has an expectation of privacy.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

(4) A court may order an actor who commits a violation of Subsection (2) to remove or destroy any data collected by the actor in the commission of the violation of Subsection (2).

(5) An actor is not guilty of a violation of this section if:

(a) the device used is an unmanned aircraft;

(b) the actor is operating the unmanned aircraft for legitimate commercial or educational purposes in a manner consistent with applicable Federal Aviation Administration rules, exemptions, or other authorizations; and

(c) any conduct described in Subsection (2) that occurs via the unmanned aircraft is solely incidental to the lawful commercial or educational use of the unmanned aircraft.

(6) A property owner has an expectation of property privacy regarding characteristics, data, or information pertaining to the owner's property that:

(a) is not immediately apparent through routine visual observation of the property; and

(b) requires ground-penetrating technology to detect, observe, measure, map, or otherwise capture information or data about the property or characteristics of the property.

(7)

(a) This section does not apply to lawful practices of:

(i) a law enforcement agency; or

(ii) another government entity.

(b) Subsection (2)(d) does not apply to a land surveyor if:

(i) the land surveyor is performing a survey service in good faith pursuant to a bona fide contract; and

(ii) for any data pertaining to property not owned by a party to the contract described in Subsection (7)(b)(i) that is captured incidentally by the land surveyor, the land surveyor:

(A) does not share, publish, sell, or distribute any incidentally captured data pertaining to property that is not relevant to the contract described in Subsection (7)(b)(i); and

(B) upon completion of the contract, deletes or destroys any data pertaining to property that is not the subject of the contract.

(8)

(a) A person, or the heirs of a deceased person, who has been injured by a violation of this section may bring an action against the actor who committed the violation.

(b) If in the action described in Subsection (8)(a) the court finds the defendant is violating or has violated any of the provisions of this section, the court shall enjoin the defendant from a continued violation.

(c) It is not necessary that actual damages to the plaintiff be alleged or proved, but if damages are alleged and proved, the plaintiff in the action is entitled to recover from the defendant the actual damages sustained, if any, in addition to injunctive relief.

(d) A finding that the defendant is in violation of this section entitles the plaintiff to an award of reasonable attorney fees.

(e) Exemplary damages may be awarded when the violation is found to be malicious.

76-12-303 Unlawful interception or disclosure of a private communication.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-301 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits unlawful interception or disclosure of a private communication if, except as authorized by law, the actor:

(a) intercepts, without the consent of the sender or receiver, a message by telephone, telegraph, letter, or other means of communicating privately; or

(b) divulges, without consent of the sender or receiver, the existence or contents of a message described in Subsection (2)(a), if the actor:

(i) knows that the message described in Subsection (2)(a) was illegally intercepted; or

(ii) learned of the message described in Subsection (2)(a) in the course of employment with an agency engaged in the transmission of the message.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

(4) Subsection (2)(a) does not apply to:

(a) overhearing a message through a regularly installed instrument on a telephone party line or on an extension; or

(b) intercepting a message by a telephone company or subscriber incident to enforcement of regulations limiting use of the facilities or to other normal operation and use.

(5)

(a) A person, or the heirs of a deceased person, who has been injured by a violation of this section may bring an action against the actor who committed the violation.

(b) If in the action described in Subsection (5)(a) the court finds the defendant is violating or has violated any of the provisions of this section, the court shall enjoin the defendant from a continued violation.

(c) It is not necessary that actual damages to the plaintiff be alleged or proved, but if damages are alleged and proved, the plaintiff in the action is entitled to recover from the defendant the actual damages sustained, if any, in addition to injunctive relief.

(d) A finding that the defendant is in violation of this section entitles the plaintiff to an award of reasonable attorney fees.

(e) Exemplary damages may be awarded when the violation is found to be malicious.

76-12-304 Unlawful use of another's personal identity in an advertisement.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 45-3-2, 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-301 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits unlawful use of another's personal identity in an advertisement if the actor knowingly or intentionally causes the publication of an advertisement in which the personal identity of an individual is used in a manner that expresses or implies that the individual approves, endorses, has endorsed, or will endorse the specific subject matter of the advertisement without the consent for such use by the individual.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

(4) It is an affirmative defense that the actor who caused the publication of the advertisement reasonably believed that the individual whose personal identity was to be used had consented to the use of the individual's personal identity.

(5)

(a) Upon conviction of an offense under this section, unless waived by the victim, the court shall order that, within 30 days of the conviction, the actor convicted shall issue a public apology or retraction to whomever received the advertisement.
(b) The apology or retraction described in Subsection (5)(a) shall be of similar size and placement as the original advertisement.
(6) Nothing in this section prohibits a civil action under Title 45, Chapter 3, Abuse of Personal Identity Act.
(7)
(a) A person, or the heirs of a deceased person, who has been injured by a violation of this section may bring an action against the actor who committed the violation.
(b) If in the action described in Subsection (7)(a) the court finds the defendant is violating or has violated any of the provisions of this section, the court shall enjoin the defendant from a continued violation.
(c) It is not necessary that actual damages to the plaintiff be alleged or proved, but if damages are alleged and proved, the plaintiff in the action is entitled to recover from the defendant the actual damages sustained, if any, in addition to injunctive relief.
(d) A finding that the defendant is in violation of this section entitles the plaintiff to an award of reasonable attorney fees.
(e) Exemplary damages may be awarded when the violation is found to be malicious.

76-12-305 Unlawful installation of a tracking device.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Motor vehicle" means the same as that term is defined in Subsection 41-12a-103(4).
(ii) "Private investigator" means an individual who is:
(A) licensed as a private investigator under Title 53, Chapter 9, Private Investigator Regulation Act; and
(B) acting in the capacity of a private investigator.
(iii) "Protective order" means a protective order, stalking injunction, or restraining order issued by a court of any jurisdiction.
(iv)
(A) "Tracking device" means a device used for the primary purpose of revealing the device's location or movement by the transmission or recording of an electronic signal.
(B) "Tracking device" does not include location technology installed on a vehicle by the vehicle manufacturer or a commercial vehicle dealer that transmits electronic signals for the purpose of data collection, if the data collection is anonymized.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-12-101, and 76-12-301 apply to this section.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an actor commits unlawful installation of a tracking device if the actor knowingly installs, or directs another to install, a tracking device on a motor vehicle owned or leased by another person, without the permission of the owner or lessee of the vehicle.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.
(4) An actor does not commit a violation of Subsection (2) if the actor:
(a)
(i) is a licensed private investigator installing the tracking device for a legitimate business purpose; and

(ii) installs the tracking device on a motor vehicle that is not:
(A) owned or leased by an individual under the protection of a protective order; or
(B) operated by an individual under the protection of a protective order who resides with, or is an immediate family member of, the owner or lessee of the motor vehicle; or
(b) installs the tracking device pursuant to a court order.
(5) This section does not apply to a peace officer, acting in the peace officer's official capacity, who installs a tracking device on a motor vehicle in the course of a criminal investigation or pursuant to a court order.
(6) Before installing a tracking device on a motor vehicle under Subsection (4), a private investigator shall request confirmation from a state entity with access to updated protective order records, that:
(a) the owner or lessee of the vehicle is not under the protection of a protective order; and
(b) an individual who resides with, or is an immediate family member of, the owner or lessee of the motor vehicle is not under the protection of a protective order.
(7) On request from a licensed private investigator, a state entity, including a law enforcement agency, with access to protective order records shall confirm or deny the existence of a protective order, disclosing only whether an individual named by the private investigator is under the protection of a protective order issued in any jurisdiction.
(8) A private investigator may not disclose the information obtained under Subsection (7) to any person, except as permitted by law.
(9) On request from the Bureau of Criminal Identification, a private investigator who installs a tracking device on a motor vehicle shall disclose the purpose of the tracking device to the Bureau of Criminal Identification.
(10)
(a) A person, or the heirs of a deceased person, who has been injured by a violation of this section may bring an action against the actor who committed the violation.
(b) If in the action described in Subsection (10)(a) the court finds the defendant is violating or has violated any of the provisions of this section, the court shall enjoin the defendant from a continued violation.
(c) It is not necessary that actual damages to the plaintiff be alleged or proved, but if damages are alleged and proved, the plaintiff in the action is entitled to recover from the defendant the actual damages sustained, if any, in addition to injunctive relief.
(d) A finding that the defendant is in violation of this section entitles the plaintiff to an award of reasonable attorney fees.
(e) Exemplary damages may be awarded when the violation is found to be malicious.

76-13-103 Officer's authority at a dog fighting exhibition -- Authority to arrest and take possession of dogs and property.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-13-101 apply to this section.
(2) A peace officer as defined in Title 53, Chapter 13, Peace Officer Classifications, may enter any place, building, or tenement where an exhibition of dog fighting is occurring, or where preparations are being made for such an exhibition and, without a warrant, arrest all persons present.

(3)

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 76-13-102, Officer's authority to take possession of an animal, any authorized officer who makes an arrest under Subsection (2) may lawfully take possession of all dogs, paraphernalia, implements, or other property or things used or employed, or to be employed, in an exhibition of dog fighting prohibited by Subsection 76-13-202(2)(e) or Section 76-13-205, Dog fighting.

(b) The officer, at the time of the taking of property pursuant to Subsection (3)(a), shall state the officer's name and provide other identifying information to the person in charge of the dogs or property taken.

(4)

(a) After taking possession of dogs, paraphernalia, implements, or other property or things under Subsection (3), the officer shall file an affidavit with the judge or magistrate before whom a complaint has been made against any person arrested under this section.

(b) The affidavit shall include:

(i) the name of the person charged in the complaint;

(ii) a description of all property taken;

(iii) the time and place of the taking of the property;

(iv) the name of the person from whom the property was taken;

(v) the name of the person who claims to own the property, if known; and

(vi) a statement that the officer has reason to believe and believes that the property taken was used or employed, or was to be used or employed, in violation of Section 76-13-202, 76-13-203, 76-13-204, or 76-13-205, and the grounds for the belief.

(5)

(a) The officer shall deliver the confiscated property to the judge or magistrate who shall, by order, place the property in the custody of the officer or any other person designated in the order, and that person shall keep the property until conviction or final discharge of the person against whom the complaint was made.

(b) The person designated in Subsection (5)(a) shall assume immediate custody of the property, and retain the property until further order of the court.

(c) Upon conviction of the person charged, all confiscated property shall be forfeited and destroyed or otherwise disposed of, as the court may order.

(d) If the person charged is acquitted or discharged without conviction, the court shall, on demand, order the property to be returned to its owner.

Enacted by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-13-202 Cruelty to an animal.
(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i)
(A) "Abandon" means to intentionally deposit, leave, or drop off any live animal:
(I) without providing for the care of that animal, in accordance with accepted animal husbandry practices or customary farming practices; or
(II) in a situation where conditions present an immediate, direct, and serious threat to the life, safety, or health of the animal.
(B) "Abandon" does not include returning wildlife to its natural habitat.
(ii)
(A) "Animal" means, except as provided in Subsection (1)(a)(ii)(B), a live, nonhuman vertebrate creature.
(B) "Animal" does not include:
(I) a live, nonhuman vertebrate creature, if:
(Aa) the conduct toward the creature, and the care provided to the creature, is in accordance with accepted animal husbandry practices; and
(Bb) the creature is:
(Ii) owned or kept by a zoological park that is accredited by, or a member of, the American Zoo and Aquarium Association;
(IIii) kept, owned, or used for the purpose of training hunting dogs or raptors; or (IIIiii) temporarily in the state as part of a circus or traveling exhibitor licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture under 7 U.S.C. Sec. 2133;
(II) a live, nonhuman vertebrate creature that is owned, kept, or used for rodeo purposes, if the conduct toward the creature, and the care provided to the creature, is in accordance with accepted rodeo practices;

(III) livestock, if the conduct toward the creature, and the care provided to the creature, is in accordance with accepted animal husbandry practices or customary farming practices; or

(IV) wildlife, as defined in Section 23A-1-101, including protected and unprotected wildlife, if the conduct toward the wildlife is in accordance with lawful hunting, fishing, or trapping practices or other lawful practices.

(iii) "Custody" means ownership, possession, or control over an animal.

(iv) "Legal privilege" means an act that:

(A) is authorized by state law, including rules under Title 23A, Wildlife Resources Act; and

(B) is not in violation of a local ordinance.

(v) "Livestock" means:

(A) domesticated:

(I) cattle;

(II) sheep;

(III) goats;

(IV) turkeys;

(V) swine;

(VI) equines;

(VII) camelidae;

(VIII) ratites; or

(IX) bison;

(B) domesticated elk, as defined in Section 4-39-102;

(C) a livestock guardian dog, as defined in Section 76-6-111; or

(D) any domesticated nonhuman vertebrate creature, domestic furbearer, or domestic poultry, raised, kept, or used for agricultural purposes.

(vi) "Necessary food, water, care, or shelter" means the following, taking into account the species, age, and physical condition of the animal:

(A) appropriate and essential food and water;

(B) adequate protection, including appropriate shelter, against extreme weather conditions; and

(C) other essential care.

(vii) "Torture" means intentionally or knowingly causing or inflicting extreme physical pain to an animal in an especially heinous, atrocious, cruel, or exceptionally depraved manner.

(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-13-101, and 76-13-201 apply to this section.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an actor commits cruelty to an animal if the actor, without legal privilege to do so, intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or with criminal negligence:

(a) fails to provide necessary food, water, care, or shelter for an animal in the actor's custody;

(b) abandons an animal in the actor's custody;

(c) injures an animal;

(d) causes an animal, not including a dog or game fowl, to fight with another animal of like kind for amusement or gain; or

(e) causes an animal, including a dog or game fowl, to fight with a different kind of animal or creature for amusement or gain.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:

(a) a class B misdemeanor if committed intentionally or knowingly; or

(b) a class C misdemeanor if committed recklessly or with criminal negligence.

(4) If an actor's conduct in violation of this section also constitutes a violation of Section 76-13-203, Aggravated cruelty to an animal, or Section 76-13-204, Torturing a companion animal, the actor's conduct shall be prosecuted under either Section 76-13-203 or 76-13-204 as applicable.
(5) It is a defense to prosecution under this section that the conduct of the actor towards the animal was:
  (a) by a licensed veterinarian using accepted veterinary practice;
  (b) directly related to bona fide experimentation for scientific research, provided that if the animal is to be destroyed, the manner employed will not be unnecessarily cruel unless directly necessary to the veterinary purpose or scientific research involved;
  (c) permitted under Section 18-1-3;
  (d) by an actor who humanely destroys an animal found suffering past recovery for any useful purpose; or
  (e) by an actor who humanely destroys an apparently abandoned animal found on the actor's property.
(6) For purposes of Subsection (5)(d), before destroying the suffering animal, the actor who is not the owner of the animal shall obtain:
  (a) the judgment of a veterinarian of the animal's nonrecoverable condition;
  (b) the judgment of two other persons called by the actor to view the unrecoverable condition of the animal in the actor's presence;
  (c) the consent from the owner of the animal to the destruction of the animal; or
  (d) a reasonable conclusion that the animal's suffering is beyond recovery, through the actor's own observation, if the actor is in a location or circumstance where the actor is unable to contact another person.
(7) This section does not affect or prohibit:
  (a) the training, instruction, and grooming of animals, if the methods used are in accordance with accepted animal husbandry practices or customary farming practices;
  (b) the use of an electronic locating or training collar by the owner of an animal for the purpose of lawful animal training, lawful hunting practices, or protecting against loss of that animal; or
  (c) the lawful hunting of, fishing for, or trapping of, wildlife.
(8) County and municipal governments may not prohibit the use of an electronic locating or training collar.
(9) Upon conviction under this section, the court may in its discretion, in addition to other penalties:
  (a) order the defendant to be evaluated to determine the need for psychiatric or psychological counseling, to receive counseling as the court determines to be appropriate, and to pay the costs of the evaluation and counseling;
  (b) require the defendant to forfeit any rights the defendant has to the animal subjected to a violation of this section and to repay the reasonable costs incurred by any person or agency in caring for each animal subjected to violation of this section;
  (c) order the defendant to no longer possess or retain custody of any animal, as specified by the court, during the period of the defendant's probation or parole or other period as designated by the court; and
  (d) order the animal to be placed for the purpose of adoption or care in the custody of a county or municipal animal control agency or an animal welfare agency registered with the state to be sold at public auction or humanely destroyed.
(10) This section does not prohibit the use of animals in lawful training.
(11) A veterinarian who, acting in good faith, reports a violation of this section to law enforcement may not be held civilly liable for making the report.

76-13-210 Interference with a public safety animal.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Handler" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-13-209.

(ii) "Public safety animal" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-13-209.

(iii) "Public safety organization" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-13-209.

(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-13-101, and 76-13-201 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits interference with a public safety animal if the actor intentionally or knowingly:

(a) taunts, torments, strikes, or otherwise assaults a public safety animal;

(b) throws an object or substance at, or in the path of, a public safety animal;

(c) interferes with or obstructs a public safety animal, or attempts to, or interferes with the handler of the public safety animal in a manner that inhibits, restricts, or deprives the handler of control of the public safety animal;

(d) releases a public safety animal from the public safety animal's area of control, including a vehicle, kennel, or pen, or trespasses in that area; or

(e) places any food, object, or substance into a public safety animal's area of control without the permission of the handler.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor.

(4) In addition to any other penalty, an actor convicted of a violation of this section is liable for restitution to the owning or employing public safety organization or individual owner of the public safety animal for the replacement, training, and veterinary costs incurred as a result of the violation of this section.

76-13-211 Injuring, harassing, or endangering a service animal.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) "Disability" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-6-801.

(ii) "Search and rescue dog" means a dog:

(A) with documented training to locate individuals who are:

(I) lost, missing, or injured; or

(II) trapped under debris as the result of a natural or man-made event; and

(B) affiliated with an established search and rescue dog organization.
(iii) "Service animal" means:
(A) a service animal as that term is defined in Section 26B-6-801; or
(B) a search and rescue dog.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-13-101, and 76-13-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits injuring, harassing, or endangering a service animal if the actor:
(a) knowingly, intentionally, or recklessly causes substantial bodily injury or death to a service animal;
(b) owns, keeps, harbors, or exercises control over an animal and knowingly, intentionally, or recklessly fails to exercise sufficient control over the animal to prevent the animal from:
(i) causing substantial bodily injury to or the death of a service animal;
(ii) causing a service animal's subsequent inability to function as a service animal as a result of the animal's attacking, chasing, or harassing the service animal; or
(iii) chasing or harassing a service animal while the service animal is carrying out the service animal's functions as a service animal, to the extent that the animal temporarily interferes with the service animal's ability to carry out the service animal's functions; or
(c) chases or harasses a service animal.
(3)
(a) A violation of Subsection (2)(a), (2)(b)(i), or (2)(b)(ii) is a class A misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2)(b)(iii) or (2)(c) is a class B misdemeanor.
(4)
(a) A service animal is exempt from quarantine or other animal control ordinances if the service animal bites an individual while the service animal is subject to an offense under Subsection (2).
(b) The owner of the service animal or the individual with a disability whom the service animal serves shall make the service animal available for examination at a reasonable time and shall notify the local health officer if the service animal exhibits any abnormal behavior.
(5) In addition to any other penalty, an actor convicted of a violation of this section is liable for restitution to the owner of the service animal or the individual with a disability whom the service animal serves for the replacement, training, and veterinary costs incurred as a result of the violation of this section.
(6) If the act committed under this section amounts to an offense subject to a greater penalty under another provision of Title 76, Utah Criminal Code, than is provided under this section, this section does not prohibit prosecution and sentencing for the more serious offense.

76-13-212 Allowing a vicious animal to go at large.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-13-101, and 76-13-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits allowing a vicious animal to go at large if:
(a) the actor is an owner of a vicious animal, knowing the animal's propensities, and:
(i) willfully allows the animal to go at large; or
(ii) keeps the animal without ordinary care; and
(b) the animal, while at large, or while not kept with ordinary care, causes injury to or the death of another animal or a human being who has taken reasonable precautions under the circumstances.
(3)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony if the animal causes the death of a human being.

76-13-213 Bestiality.

(1)
(a) For purposes of this section:
(i) "Animal" means any live, nonhuman vertebrate creature, including fowl.
(ii) "Sexual activity" means physical sexual contact:
(A) between the actor and the animal involving the genitals of the actor and the genitals of the animal;
(B) the genitals of the actor or the animal and the mouth or anus of the actor or the animal; or
(C) through the actor's use of an object in contact with the genitals or anus of the animal.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-13-101, and 76-13-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits bestiality if the actor engages in sexual activity with an animal with the intent to sexually gratify the actor.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-13-214 Harassment of livestock.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Livestock" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-13-202.
(ii) "Unmanned aircraft system" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.
(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-13-101, and 76-13-201 apply to this section.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an actor commits harassment of livestock if the actor intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly chases, with the intent of causing distress, or harms livestock through the use of:
(a) a motorized vehicle or all-terrain vehicle;
(b) a dog; or
(c) an unmanned aircraft system.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor if:
(i) no livestock is seriously injured or killed as a result of the actor's actions; or
(ii) the actor's actions cause the livestock to be displaced onto property where the livestock is not legally entitled to be.
(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class A misdemeanor if:
(i) the offense is the actor's second or subsequent offense;
(ii) livestock is seriously injured or killed as a result of the actor's actions; or
(iii) livestock or property suffered damage in excess of $1,000, including money spent in recovering the livestock, as a result of the actor's actions.
(4) An actor does not commit a violation of Subsection (2) if:
(a) the actor is:

(i) the owner of the livestock;
(ii) an employee or agent of the owner, or otherwise acting under the owner's general direction or with the owner's permission;
(iii) acting in an emergency situation to prevent damage to the livestock or property; or
(iv) an employee or agent of the state or a political subdivision and acting in the employee or agent's official capacity; or
(b) the action is in line with generally accepted animal husbandry practices.

76-13-215 Failure of an animal care facility to maintain required standards.

(1)
(a) As used in this section:
(i) "Animal care facility" means an animal rescue, animal sanctuary, or animal shelter.
(ii) "Animal rescue" means a person that:
(A) accepts companion animals for the purpose of finding a permanent home for each companion animal;
(B) does not maintain a central facility for keeping companion animals; and
(C) uses a system of temporarily fostering the companion animals in a private residence or boarding facility.
(iii) "Animal sanctuary" means a nonprofit entity, other than a government entity, that:
(A) harbors companion animals; and
(B) is used exclusively for the purpose of indefinitely caring for, rehabilitating, or housing companion animals.
(iv)
(A) "Animal shelter" means the same as that term is defined in Section 11-46-102.
(B) "Animal shelter" does not include an animal rescue.
(v) "Boarding facility" means a facility where a companion animal is kept for the purpose of caring for the companion animal.
(vi) "Companion animal" means an animal that is a domestic dog or a domestic cat.
(vii) "Facility" means a location other than a private residence.
(2) An actor commits failure of an animal care facility to maintain required standards if the actor:
(a) is an animal care facility; and
(b) fails to:
(i) ensure that:
(A) a female dog does not produce more than one litter in any twelve-month period, unless a licensed veterinarian has examined the female dog and has determined that it is safe for the dog to produce more than one litter in a twelve-month period; or
(B) a dog under eight weeks old or a dog not properly weaned is not sold; or
(ii) keep records:
(A) identifying, to the best of the animal care facility's knowledge, an animal's owner at the time the animal care facility acquires the animal; or
(B) documenting dangerous behaviors, if any, heath conditions, and medical care for an animal in the animal care facility's possession.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is an infraction subject to a fine of $750.
(4) A prosecution under this section does not preclude a prosecution for any other criminal offense.
(5) It is a defense to a prosecution under this section that the conduct of the actor toward the animal was:

(a) performed by a licensed veterinarian using accepted veterinary practice;
(b) directly related to bona fide experimentation for scientific research, provided that if the animal is to be destroyed, the manner employed will not be unnecessarily cruel unless directly necessary to the veterinary purpose or scientific research involved;
(c) permitted under Section 18-1-3;
(d) performed by a person who humanely destroys an animal found suffering past recovery for any useful purpose; or
(e) performed by a person who humanely destroys an apparently abandoned animal found on the person's property.
(6) This section does not prohibit the use of animals in lawful training.
(7) A veterinarian who, acting in good faith, reports a violation of this section to law enforcement or the Department of Agriculture and Food in accordance with Section 4-2-903 may not be held civilly liable for making the report.

Part 2
Offenses Related to Immigration Status

76-14-201 Definitions.
As used in this part:
(1) "Alien" means an individual who is not a citizen or national of the United States.
(2) "ICE" means the federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency of the United States Department of Homeland Security.
(3) "Law enforcement officer" has the same meaning as in Section 53-13-103.
(4) "SAVE program" means the federal Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements program operated by the federal Department of Homeland Security.
(5) "State or local governmental agency" includes a private contractor or vendor that contracts with the agency to provide the agency's functions or services.
(6) "Verify immigration status" or "verification of immigration status" means the determination of an individual's immigration status by:
(a) a law enforcement officer who is authorized by a federal agency to determine an alien's immigration status; or

(b) the United States Department of Homeland Security, ICE, or other federal agency authorized to provide immigration status as provided by 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1373(c).

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-14-202 Detention or arrest -- Determination of immigration status.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), (c), or (d), a law enforcement officer who, acting in the enforcement of a state law or local ordinance, conducts a lawful stop, detention, or arrest of an individual as specified in Subsection (1)(a)(i) or (ii), and the individual is unable to provide to the law enforcement officer a document listed in Subsection 76-14-203(1) and the law enforcement officer is otherwise unable to verify the identity of the individual, the law enforcement officer:

(i) shall request verification of the citizenship or the immigration status of the individual under 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1373(c), except as allowed under Subsection (1)(b), (c), or (d), if the individual is arrested for an alleged offense that is a class A misdemeanor or a felony; and

(ii) may attempt to verify the immigration status of the individual, except as exempted under Subsection (1)(b), (c), or (d), if the alleged offense is a class B or C misdemeanor, except that if the individual is arrested and booked for a class B or C misdemeanor, the arresting law enforcement officer or the law enforcement agency booking the individual shall attempt to verify the immigration status of the individual.

(b) In individual cases, the law enforcement officer may forego the verification of immigration status under Subsection (1)(a) if the determination could hinder or obstruct a criminal investigation.

(c) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to a law enforcement officer who is acting as a school resource officer for an elementary or secondary school.

(d) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to a county or municipality when it has only one law enforcement officer on duty and response support from another law enforcement agency is not available.

(2) When a law enforcement officer makes a lawful stop, detention, or arrest under Subsection (1) of the operator of a vehicle, and while investigating or processing the primary offense, the law enforcement officer makes observations that give the law enforcement officer reasonable suspicion that the operator or any of the passengers in the vehicle are violating Section 76-5-308, 76-5-308.1, 76-5-308.3, 76-5-308.5, 76-5-310, 76-5-310.1, or 76-14-209, which concern smuggling, human trafficking, or transporting illegal aliens, the law enforcement officer shall, to the extent possible within a reasonable period of time:

(a) detain the occupants of the vehicle to investigate the suspected violations; and

(b) inquire regarding the immigration status of the occupants of the vehicle.

(3) When an individual under Subsection (1) is arrested or booked into a jail, juvenile detention facility, or correctional facility, the arresting officer or the booking officer shall ensure that a request for verification of immigration status of the arrested or booked individual is submitted as promptly as is reasonably possible.

(4) The law enforcement agency that has custody of an individual verified to be an illegal alien shall request that the United States Department of Homeland Security issue a detainer requesting transfer of the illegal alien into federal custody.

(5) A law enforcement officer may not consider race, color, or national origin in implementing this section, except to the extent permitted by the constitutions of the United States and this state.

76-14-203 Grounds for presumption of lawful presence in United States -- Statement to officer.

(1) An individual is presumed to be lawfully present in the United States for the purposes of this chapter if the individual provides one of the following documents to the law enforcement officer, unless the law enforcement officer has a reasonable suspicion that the document is false or identifies an individual other than the individual providing the document:
  (a) a valid Utah driver license issued on or after January 1, 2010;
  (b) a valid Utah identification card issued under Section 53-3-804 and issued on or after January 1, 2010;
  (c) a valid tribal enrollment card or other valid form of tribal membership identification that includes photo identification;
  (d) a valid identification document that:
    (i) includes a photo or biometric identifier of the holder of the document; and
    (ii) is issued by a federal, state, or local governmental agency that requires proof or verification of legal presence in the United States as a condition of issuance of the document; or
  (e) a valid resident immigrant permit issued under Section 63G-14-204.
(2) An individual is presumed to be a citizen or national of the United States for purposes of this part if the individual makes a statement or affirmation to the law enforcement officer that the individual is a United States citizen or national, unless the officer has a reasonable suspicion that the statement or affirmation is false.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-14-204 Illegal alien -- Notification of federal government -- Transportation to federal facility.

A state or local law enforcement agency may securely transport an alien who is in the agency's custody and whom the agency has verified is unlawfully present in the United States to:
(1) a federal detention facility in this state; or
(2) with the concurrence of the receiving federal agency, to a federal facility or other point of transfer to federal custody that is outside this state.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-14-205 Enforcement of federal immigration laws.

A state or local governmental agency of this state, or a representative of the agency, may not:
(1) limit or restrict by ordinance, regulation, or policy the authority of a law enforcement agency or other governmental agency to assist the federal government in the enforcement of any federal law or regulation governing immigration; or
(2) limit or restrict by ordinance, regulation, or policy the authority of a law enforcement agency to investigate or enforce a violation of the federal misdemeanor offenses of willful failure to register as an alien or willful failure to personally possess an alien registration document as required by 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1304(e) or 1306(a).

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-14-206 Determining an alien's immigration status -- Transfer or maintenance of information.

Except as limited by federal law, a state or local governmental agency is not restricted or prohibited in any way from sending, receiving, or maintaining information related to the lawful or unlawful immigration status of an individual by communicating with a federal, state, or local governmental entity for a lawful purpose, including:

(1) determining an individual's eligibility for a public benefit, service, or license provided by a federal agency, by this state, or by a political subdivision of this state;

(2) confirming an individual's claim of residence or domicile if determination is required by state law or a judicial order issued pursuant to a civil or criminal proceeding in this state;

(3) if the individual is an alien, determining if the individual is in compliance with the federal registration laws of Title II, Part 7, Immigration and Nationality Act; or

(4) a valid request for verification of the citizenship or immigration status of an individual pursuant to 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1373.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-14-207 Proof of immigration status required to receive public benefits.

(1)

(a) An agency that provides state or local public benefits as defined in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1621 shall comply with Section 63G-12-402 and shall also comply with this section, except:

(i) as provided in Subsection 63G-12-402(3)(g) or (k); or

(ii) when compliance is exempted by federal law or when compliance could reasonably be expected to be grounds for the federal government to withhold federal Medicaid funding.

(b) The agency shall verify an individual's lawful presence in the United States by requiring that the applicant under this section sign a certificate under penalty of perjury, stating that the applicant:

(i) is a United States citizen; or

(ii) is a qualified alien as defined by 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1641.

(c) The certificate under Subsection (1)(b) shall include a statement advising the signer that providing false information subjects the signer to penalties for perjury.

(d) The signature under this Subsection (1) may be executed in person or electronically.

(e) When an applicant who is a qualified alien has executed the certificate under this section, the applicant's eligibility for benefits shall be verified by the agency through the federal SAVE program or an equivalent program designated by the United States Department of Homeland Security.

(2) An individual who knowingly and willfully makes a false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement of representation in a certificate executed under this section is guilty of public assistance fraud by an applicant for public assistance under Section 76-8-1203.1.

(3) If the certificate constitutes a false claim of United States citizenship under 18 U.S.C. Sec. 911, the agency requiring the certificate shall file a complaint with the United States Attorney for the applicable federal judicial district based upon the venue in which the certificate was executed.

(4) Agencies may, with the concurrence of the Utah Attorney General, adopt variations to the requirements of the provisions of this section that provide for adjudication of unique individual circumstances in which the verification procedures in this section would impose unusual hardship on a legal resident of this state.

(5) If an agency under Subsection (1) receives verification that an individual making an application for a benefit, service, or license is not a qualified alien, the agency shall provide the information to the local law enforcement agency for enforcement of public assistance fraud by an applicant for public assistance under Section 76-8-1203.1 unless prohibited by federal mandate.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-14-208 Implementation to be consistent with federal law and civil rights.

All state and local agencies shall implement this part in a manner that is consistent with federal laws that regulate immigration, protect the civil rights of all individuals, and establish the privileges and immunities of United States citizens.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-14-209 Transporting or harboring an alien.

(1)

(a) As used in this section:

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(a)(ii), "alien" means an individual who is illegally present in the United States.

(ii) On or after the program start date, as defined in Section 63G-12-102, "alien" does not include an individual who holds a valid permit, as defined in Section 63G-12-102.

(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-14-101, and 76-14-201 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits transporting or harboring an alien if the actor:

(a) transports, moves, or attempts to transport into this state or within the state an alien for commercial advantage or private financial gain, knowing or in reckless disregard of the fact that the alien is in the United States in violation of federal law, in furtherance of the illegal presence of the alien in the United States;

(b) knowingly, with the intent to violate federal immigration law, conceals, harbors, or shelters from detection an alien in a place within this state, including a building or means of transportation for commercial advantage or private financial gain, knowing or in reckless disregard of the fact that the alien is in the United States in violation of federal law;

(c) encourages or induces an alien to come to, enter, or reside in this state, knowing or in reckless disregard of the fact that the alien's coming to, entry, or residence is or will be in violation of law; or

(d) engages in a conspiracy, for commercial advantage or private financial gain, to commit any of the offenses listed in Subsection (2)(a), (b), or (c).

(3)

(a) A violation of Subsection (2)(a), (c), or (d) is a third degree felony.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2)(b) is a class A misdemeanor.

(4) Nothing in this section prohibits or restricts the provision of:

(a) a state or local public benefit described in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1621(b); or

(b) charitable or humanitarian assistance, including medical care, housing, counseling, food, victim assistance, religious services and sacraments, or transportation to and from a location where the assistance is provided, by a charitable, educational, or religious organization or the employees, agents, or volunteers of a charitable, educational, or religious organization, using private funds.

(5)

(a) It is not a violation of this section for a religious denomination or organization or an agent, officer, or member of a religious denomination or organization to encourage, invite, call, allow, or enable an alien to perform the vocation of a minister or missionary for the denomination

or organization in the United States as a volunteer who is not compensated as an employee, notwithstanding the provision of room, board, travel, medical assistance, and other basic living expenses.

(b) Subsection (5)(a) applies only to an alien who has been a member of the religious denomination or organization for at least one year.

(6) An individual's participation in Title 63G, Chapter 14, Utah Pilot Sponsored Resident Immigrant Program Act, either as a sponsor or resident alien, does not constitute encouraging or inducing an alien to come to, enter, or reside in this state in violation of Subsection (2)(c).

Part 3
Weapons of Mass Destruction

76-15-301 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Biological agent" means a microorganism, virus, infectious substance, or biological product that may be engineered as a result of biotechnology, or a naturally occurring or bioengineered component of a microorganism, virus, infectious substance, or biological product, that is capable of causing:
  (a) death, disease, or other biological malfunction in a human, an animal, a plant, or another living organism;
  (b) deterioration of food, water, equipment, supplies, or material of any kind; or
  (c) deleterious alteration of the environment.
(2) "Delivery system" means:
  (a) an apparatus, equipment, device, or means of delivery specifically designed to deliver or disseminate a biological agent, toxin, or vector; or
  (b) a vector.
(3) "Hoax weapon of mass destruction" means a device or object that by the device's or object's design, construction, content, or characteristics appears to be or to contain, or is represented to be, constitute, or contain, a weapon of mass destruction as defined in this section, but which is, in fact, an inoperative facsimile, imitation, counterfeit, or representation of a weapon of mass destruction that does not:
  (a) meet the definition of a weapon of mass destruction; or
  (b) actually contain or constitute a weapon, biological agent, toxin, vector, or delivery system prohibited by this section.
(4) "Toxin" means the toxic material of plants, animals, microorganisms, viruses, fungi, or infectious substances, or a recombinant molecule, whatever its origin or method of production, including:
  (a) a poisonous substance or biological product that may be engineered as a result of biotechnology produced by a living organism; or
  (b) a poisonous isomer or biological product, homolog, or derivative of the substance under Subsection (4)(a).
(5) "Vector" means a living organism, or molecule, including a recombinant molecule, or biological product that may be engineered as a result of biotechnology, capable of carrying a biological agent or toxin to a host.
(6)
  (a) "Weapon of mass destruction" means:
    (i) an item or instrumentality that is designed or intended to cause widespread death or serious bodily injury to multiple victims;
    (ii) an item or instrumentality that is designed or intended to cause death or serious bodily injury through the release, dissemination, or impact of toxic or poisonous chemicals, or the precursors of toxic or poisonous chemicals;
    (iii) a disease organism, including a biological agent, toxin, or vector that is used or intended to be used as a weapon;
    (iv) an item or instrumentality that is designed to release radiation or radioactivity at a level dangerous to human life and that is used or intended to be used as a weapon; or
    (v) a substance or material or combination that has been prepared or altered for use in the creation of a weapon described in Subsections (6)(a)(i) through (iv).
  (b) "Weapon of mass destruction" does not include a firearm or rifle, pistol, or shotgun ammunition, reloading components, or muzzleloading equipment.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-15-302 Unlawful manufacture, possession, sale, use, or attempted use of a weapon of mass destruction.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-15-101, and 76-15-301 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits unlawful manufacture, possession, sale, use, or attempted use of a weapon of mass destruction if the actor, without lawful authority, intentionally or knowingly manufactures, possesses, sells, delivers, displays, uses, attempts to use, solicits the use of, or conspires to use a weapon of mass destruction or a delivery system for a weapon of mass destruction, including any biological agent, toxin, vector, or delivery system.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a first degree felony.

(4) In addition to any other penalty authorized by law, a court shall order an actor convicted of a violation of this section to reimburse any federal, state, or local unit of government, or any private business, organization, individual, or entity, for all expenses and losses incurred in responding to the violation, unless the court states on the record the reasons why the reimbursement would be inappropriate.

(5) This section does not apply to a member or employee of the armed forces of the United States, allied armed forces personnel, a federal or state governmental agency, or a private entity, who is engaged in lawful activity within the scope of the actor's employment, if the actor is authorized or licensed to manufacture, possess, sell, deliver, display, or otherwise engage in activity relative to this section, and if the actor is in compliance with applicable federal and state law.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-15-303 Unlawful manufacture, possession, sale, use, or attempted use of a hoax weapon of mass destruction.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-15-101, and 76-15-301 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits unlawful manufacture, possession, sale, use, or attempted use of a hoax weapon of mass destruction if the actor, without lawful authority, intentionally or knowingly manufactures, possesses, sells, delivers, displays, uses, attempts to use, solicits the use of, or conspires to use a hoax weapon of mass destruction with the intent to deceive or otherwise mislead another person into believing that the hoax weapon of mass destruction is a weapon of mass destruction.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony.

(4) In addition to any other penalty authorized by law, a court shall order an actor convicted of a violation of this section to reimburse any federal, state, or local unit of government, or any private business, organization, individual, or entity, for all expenses and losses incurred in responding to the violation, unless the court states on the record the reasons why the reimbursement would be inappropriate.

(5) This section does not apply to a member or employee of the armed forces of the United States, allied armed forces personnel, a federal or state governmental agency, or a private entity, who is engaged in lawful activity within the scope of the actor's employment, if the actor is authorized or licensed to manufacture, possess, sell, deliver, display, or otherwise engage in activity relative to this section, and if the actor is in compliance with applicable federal and state law.

Offenses Concerning Business Practices

Part 1
General Provisions

76-16-101 Definitions.

Reserved.

Enacted by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

Part 2
Corporation and Association Offenses

76-16-201 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Bona fide stockholder of record" means a stockholder of record who has acquired stock in good faith and is acting for a proper purpose reasonably related to the stockholder's interests as a stockholder.

(2) "Director" means a person having by law the direction or management of the affairs of a corporation, by whatever name the person is described in the corporation's charter or is known by law.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-202 Presumption of director's knowledge of affairs.

A director of a corporation or joint stock association is deemed to possess a knowledge of the affairs of the corporation or association so as to enable the director to determine whether an act, proceeding, or omission of the corporation's or association's directors is a violation of this part.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-203 Presumption of director's concurrence in action if present at meeting -- Exception.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a director of a corporation or joint stock association who is present at a meeting of the directors at which an act, proceeding, or omission of the directors in violation of this part occurs is deemed to have concurred in the act, proceeding, or omission.

(2) A director is not deemed to have concurred in an act, proceeding, or omission of the directors if, at the time of the act, proceeding, or omission, the director:

(a) causes, or in writing requires, the director's dissent from the act, proceeding, or omission to be entered in the minutes of the directors; or

(b) forwards the director's dissent by registered mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-204 Foreign corporations subject to Utah laws.

It is no defense to a prosecution for a violation of this part that the corporation was created by the laws of another state, government, or country if the corporation is carrying on business or keeping an office within this state.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-205 Fraudulent signing of a stock subscription or agreement.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-16-101, and 76-16-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits fraudulent signing of a stock subscription or agreement if the actor:
  (a) signs the name of a fictitious person to a subscription for, or agreement to take, stock in a proposed or existing corporation; or
  (b) signs the name of any person to a subscription for, or agreement to take, stock in a proposed or existing corporation, knowing that the person has no means or does not intend in good faith to comply with all the terms of the subscription or agreement, or under any understanding or agreement that the terms of the subscription or agreement are not to be complied with or enforced.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-206 Exhibition of a fraudulent document relating to a corporation or an increase of capital stock.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-16-101, and 76-16-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits exhibition of a fraudulent document relating to a corporation or an increase of capital stock if the actor:
  (a) is:
    (i) an officer, agent, or clerk of a corporation; or
    (ii) a person proposing to organize a corporation or to increase the capital stock of a corporation; and
  (b) knowingly exhibits a false, forged, or altered book, paper, voucher, security, or other instrument of evidence to a public officer or board authorized by law to examine the organization of the corporation, or to investigate the corporation's affairs, or to allow an increase of the corporation's capital, with the intent to deceive the officer or board with respect to the examination, investigation, or increase of capital.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-207 Misrepresentation of a person as an officer, agent, member, or promoter.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-16-101, and 76-16-201 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits misrepresentation of a person as an officer, agent, member, or promoter if the actor, without being authorized to do so, subscribes the name of another person to, or inserts the name of another person in, a prospectus, circular, or other advertisement or announcement of an existing corporation or joint stock association, existing or intended to be formed, with the intent to permit the prospectus, circular, or other advertisement or announcement to be published, and thereby to lead persons to believe that the person whose name is included in the prospectus, circular, or other advertisement or announcement is an officer, agent, member, or promoter of the corporation or association.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-208 Illegal concurrence by a director in a dividend or division of capital.

(1)

(a) For purposes of this section, "director" does not include a director of:

76-16-305 Using, destroying, concealing, or possessing an article with a registered trademark or service mark to deprive the owner of use or possession.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-16-101, and 76-16-301 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits using, destroying, concealing, or possessing an article with a registered trademark or service mark to deprive the owner of use or possession if the actor, without the consent of the owner of an article bearing the owner's validly registered trademark or service mark, and with the intent to deprive the owner of the use or possession of the article:
  (a) uses, destroys, conceals, or possesses the article; or
  (b) defaces or otherwise conceals the trademark or service mark on the article.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(4) This section does not apply to the transfer or use of a wooden box or the re-use of a burlap or cotton bag or sack when the bag or sack has been reversed inside out or the markings on the box, bag, or sack have been concealed or obliterated to effectively demonstrate that the product contained in the box, bag, or sack does not purport to be the product of the owner of the registered trademark or service mark that appeared on the box, bag, or sack.

Part 4
Offenses Concerning Unfair Market Discrimination

76-16-401 Definitions.

Reserved.

Enacted by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-402 Unfair discrimination in competitive practices.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-16-101, and 76-16-401 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits unfair discrimination in competitive prices if the actor:

(a) is a person engaged in the production, manufacture, or distribution of a commodity in general use; and

(b) intentionally, for the purpose of destroying the competition of a regular, established dealer in the commodity, or to prevent the competition of a person who in good faith intends and attempts to become a dealer, discriminates between different sections, communities, or cities of this state by selling the commodity at a lower rate in one section, community, or city, or any portion of the section, community, or city, than the actor charges for the commodity in another section, community, or city, after equalizing the distance from the point of production, manufacture, or distribution and freight rates.

(3) A violation of this section is subject to:

(a) a fine of not less than $500 and no more than $4,000 for each offense; and

(b) sanctions described in Subsection (4).

(a) If a complaint is made to the attorney general that a corporation has violated this section, the attorney general shall investigate the complaint, and for that purpose, may subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, take testimony, and require the production of books or other documents.

(b) If in the attorney general's opinion, sufficient grounds exist for a prosecution after an investigation under Subsection (4)(a), the attorney general may prosecute an action in the name of the state to annul the charter or revoke the license of the corporation, and to permanently enjoin the corporation from doing business in this state.

(c) If, in an action described in Subsection (4)(b), the court finds that the corporation is guilty of unfair discrimination under this section, the court shall annul the charter or revoke the license of the corporation and may permanently enjoin the corporation from transacting business in this state.

76-16-403 Fraudulent practice to affect market price.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-16-101, and 76-16-401 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits fraudulent practice to affect market price if the actor willfully makes or publishes a false statement, spreads a false rumor, or employs any other false or fraudulent means or device, with the intent to affect the market price of any kind of property.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a class B misdemeanor; and
(b) subject to a fine of not less than $500 and no more than $4,000 for each offense.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-404 Unfair discrimination by a buyer of milk, cream, or butterfat.
(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-16-101, and 76-16-401 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits unfair discrimination by a buyer of milk, cream, or butterfat if the actor:
(a) is:
(i) a person doing business in this state that is engaged in the business of buying milk, cream, or butterfat for the purpose of sale or storage; or
(ii) an officer or agent of a person described in Subsection (2)(a)(i); and
(b) for the purpose of creating a monopoly or destroying the business of a competitor, discriminates between different sections, communities, localities, cities, or towns of this state by purchasing milk, cream, or butterfat at a higher price or rate in one section, community, location, city, or town than is paid for the same milk, cream, or butterfat by the actor in another section, community, locality, city, or town, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the grade or quality, and in the actual cost of transportation from the point of purchase to the point of manufacture, sale, or storage.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is:
(a) a class B misdemeanor; and
(b) subject to a fine of not less than $500 and no more than $4,000 for each offense.

Part 5
Antitrust Offenses

76-16-501 Definitions.
As used in this part:
(1) "Attempt to monopolize" means action taken without a legitimate business purpose and with a specific intent of destroying competition or controlling prices to substantially lessen competition, or creating a monopoly, where there is a dangerous probability of creating a monopoly.
(2) "Attorney general" means the attorney general of the state or one of the attorney general's assistants.
(3) "Commodity" includes a product of the soil, an article of merchandise or trade or commerce, and any other kind of real or personal property.
(4) "Manufacturer" means the producer or originator of a commodity or service.
(5) "Service" includes an activity that is performed in whole or in part for the purpose of financial gain including, but not limited to, personal service, professional service, rental, leasing or licensing for use.

(6) "Trade or commerce" includes all economic activity involving, or relating to, a commodity, service, or business activity, including the cost of exchange or transportation.

76-16-502 Legislative findings -- Interpretation of part.

(a) The Legislature finds and determines that competition is fundamental to the free market system and that the unrestrained interaction of competitive forces will yield the best allocation of our economic resources, the lowest prices, the highest quality and the greatest material progress, while at the same time providing an environment conducive to the preservation of our democratic, political and social institutions.

(b) The purpose of this part is to encourage free and open competition in the interest of the general welfare and economy of this state by prohibiting monopolistic and unfair trade practices, combinations and conspiracies in restraint of trade or commerce and by providing adequate penalties for the enforcement of the part's provisions.

(2) The Legislature intends that the courts, in construing this part, will be guided by interpretations given by the federal courts to comparable federal antitrust statutes and by other state courts to comparable state antitrust statutes.

76-16-503 Statute of limitations.

(1) An action brought by the attorney general pursuant to this part is barred if the action is not commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues.

(2) Any other action pursuant to this part is barred if the action is not commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues, or within one year after the conclusion of an action brought by the state pursuant to this act based in whole or in part on any matter complained of in the subsequent action, whichever is the latter.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-504 Exempt activities.

(1) This act may not be construed to prohibit:

(a) the activities of a public utility to the extent that those activities are subject to regulation by the public service commission, the state or federal department of transportation, the federal energy regulatory commission, the federal communications commission, the interstate commerce commission, or successor agencies;

(b) the activities of an insurer, insurance producer, independent insurance adjuster, or rating organization including, but not limited to, making or participating in joint underwriting or reinsurance arrangements, to the extent that those activities are subject to regulation by the commissioner of insurance;

(c) the activities of securities dealers, issuers, or agents, to the extent that those activities are subject to regulation under the laws of either this state or the United States;

(d) the activities of a state or national banking institution, to the extent that the activities are regulated or supervised by state government officers or agencies under the banking laws of this state or by federal government officers or agencies under the banking laws of the United States;

(e) the activities of a state or federal savings and loan association to the extent that those activities are regulated or supervised by state government officers or agencies under the banking laws of this state or federal government officers or agencies under the banking laws of the United States;
(f) the activities of a political subdivision to the extent authorized or directed by state law, consistent with the state action doctrine of federal antitrust law; or
(g) the activities of an emergency medical service provider licensed under Title 53, Chapter 2d, Emergency Medical Services Act, to the extent that those activities are regulated by state government officers or agencies under that act.

(a) The labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce.
(b) Nothing contained in the antitrust laws shall be construed to forbid the existence and operation of labor, agricultural, or horticultural organizations, instituted for the purpose of mutual help and not having capital stock or conducted for profit, or to forbid or restrain individual members of these organizations from lawfully carrying out the organizations' legitimate objects; nor may these organizations or membership in them be held to be illegal combinations or conspiracies in restraint of trade under the antitrust laws.

(3)
(a) As used in this section, an entity is also a political subdivision if the entity was formed under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, prior to January 1, 1981, and the entity is:
(i) a project entity as defined in Section 11-13-103;
(ii) an electric interlocal entity as defined in Section 11-13-103; or
(iii) an energy services interlocal entity as defined in Section 11-13-103.
(b) The activities of the entities under Subsection (3)(a) are authorized or directed by state law.

76-16-505 Attorney general's powers -- Investigations -- Institution of actions -- Cooperation.

(1) The attorney general may investigate a suspected violation of this part and institute an appropriate action regarding the suspected violation as provided in this part.

(2)
(a) A violation of this part that comes to the attention of a state government officer or agency shall be reported to the attorney general.
(b) All state government officers and agencies shall cooperate with, and assist in, a prosecution for violation of this part.

(3) The attorney general may proceed under any antitrust laws in the state or federal courts on behalf of this state, any of the state's political subdivisions or agencies, or as parens patriae on behalf of natural persons in this state.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-506 Civil antitrust investigations -- Demand for production of documents and responses to written interrogatories -- Oral examination -- Judicial order for compliance -- Confidentiality -- Subpoenas precluded.

(1) When the attorney general has reasonable cause to believe that a person may be in possession, custody, or control of any information, including a document, material, or testimony, relevant to a civil antitrust investigation, the attorney general may, before the commencement of a civil action, issue and cause to be served upon that person a written civil investigative demand requesting that person to:

(a) produce any document or material for inspection, copying, or reproduction by the state where the document or material is located or produced;

(b) give oral testimony under oath, concerning the subject of the investigation;

(c) respond to written interrogatories; or

(d) furnish any combination of these.

(a) Each demand shall state:

(i) the nature of the activities under investigation, constituting the alleged antitrust violation, which may result in a violation of this part and the applicable provision of law;

(ii) that the recipient is entitled to counsel;

(iii) that the information received in response to the demand may be used in a civil or criminal proceeding;

(iv) that if the recipient does not comply with the demand, the attorney general may compel compliance by appearance, upon reasonable notice to the recipient, before the court in the judicial district where the recipient resides or does business and only upon a showing before that court that the requirements of Subsection (7) have been met;

(v) that the recipient has the right at any time before the return date of the demand, or within 30 days, whichever period is shorter, to seek a court order determining the validity of the demand; and

(vi) that at any time during the proceeding the person may assert any applicable privilege.

(b) If the demand is for production of a document or material, the demand shall also:

(i) describe the document or material to be produced with sufficient definiteness and certainty as to permit the document or material to be fairly identified;

(ii) prescribe return dates that provide a reasonable period of time within which the document or material demanded may be assembled and made available for inspection and reproduction; and

(iii) identify the individual at the Office of the Attorney General to whom the document or material shall be made available.

(c) If the demand is for the giving of oral testimony, the demand shall also:

(i) prescribe the date, time, and place at which oral testimony shall be commenced;

(ii) state that an employee of the Office of the Attorney General shall conduct the examination; and

(iii) state that the recording or the transcript of the examination shall be submitted to and maintained by the Office of the Attorney General.

(d) If the demand is for responses to written interrogatories, the demand shall also:

(i) state that each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing and under oath, unless the person objects to the interrogatory, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer;

(ii) state that the answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections are to be signed by the attorney making them;

(iii) identify by name and address the individual at the Office of the Attorney General on whom answers and objections provided under this Subsection (2)(d) are to be served; and

(iv) prescribe the date on or before which these answers and objections are to be served on the identified individual.

(3) The civil investigative demand may be served upon any person who is subject to the jurisdiction of any Utah court and shall be served upon the person in the manner provided for service of a subpoena.

(4)

(a) A document or material submitted in response to a demand served under this section shall be accompanied by an affidavit, in the form the demand designates, by the person, if a natural person, to whom the demand is directed or, if not a natural person, by a person having knowledge of the facts and circumstances relating to the production.

(b) The affidavit shall state that every document or material required by the demand and in the possession, custody, or control of the person to whom the demand is directed has in good faith been produced and made available to the Office of the Attorney General.

(c) The affidavit shall identify any demanded document or material that is not produced and state the reason why each item was not produced.

(5)

(i) An examination of a person pursuant to a demand for oral testimony served under this section may only be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths or affirmations by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held.

(ii) The officer before whom the testimony is to be taken shall put the witness on oath or affirmation and shall personally, or by someone acting under the officer's direction and in the officer's presence, record the testimony of the witness.

(iii) If the testimony is taken stenographically, the testimony shall be transcribed and the officer before whom the testimony is taken shall promptly transmit the transcript of the testimony to the Office of the Attorney General.

(b) When taking oral testimony, all persons other than personnel from the Office of the Attorney General, the witness, counsel for the witness, and the officer before whom the testimony is to be taken shall be excluded from the place where the examination is held.

(c) The oral testimony of a person taken pursuant to a demand served under this section shall be taken in the county where the person resides or transacts business or in any other place agreed upon by the attorney general and the person.

(d)

(i) When testimony is fully transcribed, the transcript shall be certified by the officer before whom the testimony was taken and submitted to the witness for examination and signing, in accordance with Rule 30(e) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

(ii) A copy of the deposition shall be furnished free of charge to a witness upon the witness's request.

(e) A change in testimony recorded by nonstenographic means shall be made in the manner provided in Rule 30 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure for changing deposition testimony recorded by nonstenographic means.

(f)

(i) A person compelled to appear under a demand for oral testimony under this section may be accompanied, represented, and advised by counsel.

(ii) Counsel may advise the person, in confidence, either upon the request of the person or upon counsel's own initiative, with respect to any question asked of the person.

(iii) The person or counsel may object on the record to any question, in whole or in part, and shall briefly state for the record the reason for the objection.

(iv) An objection may properly be made, received, and entered upon the record when it is claimed that the person is entitled to refuse to answer the question on grounds of any constitutional or other legal right or privilege, including the privilege against self-incrimination.

(v) If the person refuses to answer any question, the attorney general may petition the district court for an order compelling the person to answer the question.

(g) If a person compelled to appear under a demand for oral testimony or other information pursuant to this section refuses to answer any questions or produce information on grounds of the privilege against self-incrimination, the testimony of that person may be compelled as in criminal cases.

(h)

(i) A person appearing for oral examination pursuant to a demand served under this section is entitled to the same fees and mileage that are paid to witnesses in the district courts of the state of Utah.

(ii) Witness fees and expenses shall be tendered and paid as in any civil action.

(6) The providing of information in response to a civil investigative demand issued pursuant to the provisions of this part shall be considered part of an official proceeding as defined in Section 76-8-501.

(7)

(ii) Notice of hearing of the petition and a copy of the petition shall be served upon the person, who may appear in opposition to the petition.

(iii) If the court finds that the demand is proper, that there is reasonable cause to believe there has been a violation of this part, and that the information sought is relevant to the violation, the court shall order the person to comply with the demand, subject to modifications the court may prescribe.

(b)

(i)

(A) At any time before the return date specified in a demand or within 30 days after the demand has been served, whichever period is shorter, the person who has been served may file a petition for an order modifying or setting aside the demand.

(B) This petition shall be filed in the court in the county of the person's residence, principal office, or place of business, or in the court in Salt Lake County.

(C) The petition shall specify each ground upon which the petitioner relies in seeking the relief sought.

(D) The petition may be based upon a failure of the demand to comply with the provisions of this section or upon any constitutional or other legal right or privilege of the petitioner.

(E) The petitioner shall serve notice of hearing of the petition and a copy of the petition upon the attorney general.

(F) The attorney general may submit an answer to the petition within 30 days after receipt of the petition.

(ii)

(A) After a hearing on the petition described in Subsection (7)(b)(i), and for good cause shown, the court may make any further order in the proceedings that justice requires to protect the person from unreasonable annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, burden, or expense.

(B) At a hearing pursuant to this section it is the attorney general's burden to establish that the demand is proper, that there is reasonable cause to believe that there has been a violation of this part, and that the information sought is relevant to the violation.

(8)

(a) The attorney general may enter into a confidentiality agreement in lieu of, or in addition to, issuing a civil investigative demand, when the attorney general has reasonable cause to believe that a person may be in possession, custody, or control of information relevant to a civil antitrust investigation or civil antitrust action.

(b) In a civil antitrust action, the court may issue a confidentiality order, which may incorporate a confidentiality agreement.

(c)

(i) The confidentiality agreement or confidentiality order may address any procedure, testimony taken, or document or material produced under this section.

(ii) The agreement or order may define to whom access will be given, the conditions and the restrictions to the access, and how the testimony, document, or material will be safeguarded.

(iii) The agreement or order may require that documentation of testimony and any other document or material:

(A) be returned to the designated person; or

(B) notwithstanding the provisions of Section 63A-12-105 and any retention schedule promulgated pursuant to Section 63G-2-604, be destroyed by the attorney general at a designated time, in which case this requirement is binding upon the attorney general.

(9)

(a) Any procedure, testimony taken, or document or material produced under this section, whether produced pursuant to a civil investigative demand, confidentiality agreement, or confidentiality order, shall be kept confidential by the attorney general unless confidentiality is waived in writing by the person who has testified, or produced a document or material.

(b) Any testimony taken or document or material produced under this section may be used in a civil antitrust action, provided that the use is not restricted or prohibited under a confidentiality agreement or confidentiality order, unless that restriction or prohibition is waived by the person from whom the information was obtained.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the attorney general may disclose testimony taken or a document or material obtained under this section, without either the consent of the person from whom it was received or the person being investigated, to:

(i) a grand jury; and

(ii) officers and employees of federal or state law enforcement agencies, provided the person from whom the information was obtained is notified 20 days prior to disclosure, and the federal or state law enforcement agency certifies that the information will be:

(A) maintained in confidence, as required by Subsection (9)(a); and

(B) used only for official law enforcement purposes.

(10) Use of a civil investigative demand under this action precludes the invocation by the attorney general of Section 77-22-2.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-507 Venue of an action brought by the state -- Transfer.

An action brought by the state pursuant to this part shall be brought in any county in which the defendant resides or does business, or at the option of the defendant, the action shall be transferred, upon motion made within 30 days after commencement of the action, to Salt Lake County.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-508 Attorney general to advocate for the policy of competition.

The attorney general has the authority and responsibility to advocate for the policy of competition before all political subdivisions of this state and all public agencies whose actions may affect the interests of persons in this state.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-509 Attorney general may bring action for injunctive relief, damages, and civil penalty.

(1) The attorney general may bring an action for appropriate injunctive relief, a civil penalty, and damages in the name of the state, any of the state's political subdivisions or agencies, or as parens patriae on behalf of natural persons in this state, for a violation of this part.
(2) Actions may be brought under this part regardless of whether the plaintiff dealt directly or indirectly with the defendant.
(3) This remedy is an additional remedy to any other remedies provided by law and may not diminish or offset any other remedy.
(4) An individual who violates this act is subject to a civil penalty of not more than $100,000 for each violation.
(5) A person, other than an individual, who violates this act is subject to a civil penalty of not more than $500,000 for each violation.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-510 Illegal anticompetitive activities.

(1) Every contract, combination in the form of trust or otherwise, or conspiracy in restraint of trade or commerce is declared to be illegal.
(2) It is unlawful for any person to monopolize, or attempt to monopolize, or combine or conspire with any other person or persons to monopolize, any part of trade or commerce.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-16-511 Person may bring action for injunctive relief and damages -- Treble damages -- Recovery of actual damages or civil penalty by state or political subdivisions -- Immunity of political subdivisions from damages, costs, or attorney fees -- Conviction as prima facie evidence.

(i) A person who is a citizen of this state or a resident of this state and who is injured or is threatened with injury in the person's business or property by a violation of this part may bring an action for injunctive relief and damages, regardless of whether the person dealt directly or indirectly with the defendant.
(ii) This remedy is in addition to any other remedies provided by law and may not diminish or offset any other remedy.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Subsections (3), (4), and (5), the court shall award three times the amount of damages sustained, plus the cost of suit and a reasonable attorney fees, in addition to granting any appropriate temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctive relief.

(a) If the court determines that a judgment in the amount of three times the damages awarded plus attorney fees and costs will directly cause the insolvency of the defendant, the court shall reduce the amount of judgment to the highest sum that would not cause the defendant's insolvency.

(b) The court may not reduce a judgment to an amount less than the amount of damages sustained plus the costs of suit and reasonable attorney fees.

(3) The state or any of its political subdivisions may recover three times the amount of damages it sustains and the civil penalty provided by this part, in addition to injunctive relief, costs of suit, and reasonable attorney fees.

(4) No damages, costs, or attorney fees may be recovered under this section:

(a) from any political subdivision;

(b) from the official or employee of any political subdivision acting in an official capacity; or

(c) against any person based on any official action directed by a political subdivision or the political subdivision's official or employee acting in an official capacity.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to cases filed before April 27, 1987, unless the defendant establishes and the court determines that in light of all the circumstances, including the posture of litigation and the availability of alternative relief, it would be inequitable not to apply Subsection (4) to a pending case.

(a) When a defendant has been sued in one or more actions by both direct and indirect purchasers, whether in state court or federal court, a defendant shall be entitled to prove as a partial or complete defense to a claim for damages that the damages incurred by the plaintiff or plaintiffs have been passed on to others who are entitled to recover so as to avoid duplication of recovery of damages.

(b) In an action by indirect purchasers, any damages or settlement amounts paid to direct purchasers for the same alleged antitrust violations shall constitute a defense in the amount paid on a claim by indirect purchasers under this part so as to avoid duplication of recovery of damages.

(7)

(a) It shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that the injured persons who dealt directly with the defendant incurred at least 1/3 of the damages, and shall, therefore, recover at least 1/3 of the awarded damages.

(b) It shall also be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that the injured persons who dealt indirectly with the defendant incurred at least 1/3 of the damages, and shall, therefore, recover at least 1/3 of the awarded damages.

(c) The final 1/3 of the damages shall be awarded by the court to those injured persons determined by the court as most likely to have absorbed the damages.

(8)

(a) There is a presumption, in the absence of proof to the contrary and subject to Subsection (7), that each level in a product's or service's distribution chain passed on any and all increments in its cost due to an increase in the cost of an ingredient or a component product or service that was caused by a violation of this part.

(b) The amount described in Subsection (8)(a) will be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be equal to the change in the cost, in dollars and cents, of the ingredient, component product, or service to its first purchaser.

(9)

(a) The attorney general shall be notified by the plaintiff about the filing of a class action involving antitrust violations that includes plaintiffs from this state.

(b) The attorney general shall receive a copy of each filing described in Subsection (9)(a) from each plaintiff.

(c) The attorney general may, in his or her discretion, intervene or file amicus briefs in the case, and may be heard on the question of the fairness or appropriateness of any proposed settlement agreement.

(10) If, in a class action or parens patriae action filed under this part, including the settlement of an action, it is not feasible to return any part of the recovery to the injured plaintiffs, the court shall order the residual funds be applied to benefit the specific class of injured plaintiffs, to improve antitrust enforcement generally by depositing the residual funds into the Attorney General Litigation Fund created by Section 67-5-40, or both.

(11) In an action brought under this part, the court shall approve all attorney fees and arrangements for the payment of attorney fees, including contingency fee agreements.

(12)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (12)(b), in an action brought by the state, a final judgment or decree determining that a person has criminally violated this part is prima facie evidence against that person in an action brought under this section as to all matters with respect to which the judgment or decree would be an estoppel between the parties to the judgment or decree.

(b) Subsection (12)(a) does not apply to a judgment entered under a no contest plea or a decree entered before any testimony has been taken.

76-16-512 Fine for violation -- Certain vertical agreements excluded -- Nolo contendere.

(1)

(a) Any person who violates Section 76-16-510 by price fixing, bid rigging, agreeing among competitors to divide customers or territories, or by engaging in a group boycott with specific intent of eliminating competition is guilty of a third degree felony and, notwithstanding Sections 76-3-301 and 76-3-302, is subject to:

(i) if an individual, a fine not to exceed $100,000; or

(ii) if by a person other than an individual, a fine not to exceed $500,000.

(b) Subsection (1)(a) may not be construed to include vertical agreements between a manufacturer, its distributors, or their subdistributors dividing customers and territories solely involving the manufacturer's commodity or service where the manufacturer distributes its commodity or service both directly and through distributors or subdistributors in competition with itself.

(2) A defendant may plead nolo contendere to a charge brought under this title but only with the consent of the court.

(3) The court may accept the plea only after due consideration of the views of the parties and the interest of the public in the effective administration of justice.

Chapter 17
Offenses Concerning Kickbacks, Pyramid Schemes, and Patterns of Unlawful Activity

Part 1
General Provisions

76-17-101 Definitions.

Reserved.

Enacted by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

Part 2
Offenses Concerning Kickbacks

76-17-201 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Kickback or bribe" means a rebate, compensation, or any other form of remuneration, that is:
  (a) direct or indirect;
  (b) overt or covert; or
  (c) in cash or in kind.

(2) "Kickback or bribe" does not include:
  (a) a fee that is:
    (i) shared between two or more individuals, each of whom is licensed to practice law; and
    (ii) charged for services provided in the individual's capacity as a licensee described in Subsection (2)(a)(i); or
  (b) payment for medical services rendered.

Enacted by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-202 Unlawful conduct concerning a kickback or bribe.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-17-101, and 76-17-201 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits unlawful conduct concerning a kickback or bribe if the actor:
  (a) solicits or receives a kickback or bribe in return for the referral of a person to another person for the furnishing of a good or service that relates to an insurance claim or a claim for damages; or
  (b) offers or pays a kickback or bribe to induce the referral of a person to another person for the furnishing of a good or service that relates to an insurance claim or a claim for damages.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.

(4)
  (a) This section does not apply to an individual licensed to practice law or a medical provider when referring a client for medical treatment or evaluation, if the referral is made without compensation.

(b) This section does not apply to an individual licensed to practice law when:
(i) paying a lien, contractual reimbursement, or medical bill on behalf of a client from proceeds of a settlement or judgment; or
(ii) marketing to, or engaging in client development activities with, an individual licensed to provide medical treatment or evaluation, if the marketing or client development activities are not for the purpose of inducing the individual licensed to provide medical treatment or evaluation to refer a particular person to the individual licensed to practice law.

Part 3
Offenses Concerning Pyramid Schemes

76-17-301 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1)
(a) "Compensation" means money, money bonuses, overrides, prizes, or other real or personal property, tangible or intangible.
(b) "Compensation" does not include payment based on the sale of goods or services to anyone purchasing the goods or services for actual personal use or consumption.

(2) "Consideration" does not include:
(a) payment for sales demonstration equipment or materials furnished at cost for use in making sales and not for resale; or
(b) time or effort spent in selling or recruiting activities.

(3) "Person" includes a business trust, estate, trust, joint venture, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(4) "Pyramid scheme" means a sales device or plan under which a person gives consideration to another person in exchange for compensation or the right to receive compensation that is derived primarily from the introduction of other persons into the sales device or plan rather than from the sale of goods, services, or other property.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-302 Rights of person giving consideration in pyramid scheme.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-17-101, and 76-17-301 apply to this section.

(a) A person giving consideration in connection with a pyramid scheme may, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, declare the person's giving of consideration and the related sale or contract for sale void, and may bring a court action to recover the consideration.
(b) In an action brought under Subsection (2)(a), the court shall, in addition to any judgment awarded to the plaintiff, require the defendant to pay to the plaintiff interest as provided in Section 15-1-4, reasonable attorney fees, and the costs of the action reduced by any compensation paid by the defendant to the plaintiff in connection with the pyramid scheme.

(3)
(a) The rights, remedies, and penalties provided in this part are independent of and supplemental to each other and to any other right, remedy or penalty available in law or equity.

(b) Nothing contained in this part shall be construed to diminish or abrogate any other right, remedy or penalty.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-303 Conducting a pyramid scheme.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-17-101, and 76-17-301 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits conducting a pyramid scheme if the actor knowingly organizes, establishes, promotes, or administers a pyramid scheme.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.
(4) It is not a defense to an action brought under this section that:
(a) the sales device or plan limits the number of persons who may be introduced into the sales device or plan;
(b) the sales device or plan includes additional conditions affecting eligibility for introduction into the sales device or plan or when compensation may be received from the sales device or plan; or
(c) a person receives property or services in addition to the compensation or right to receive compensation in connection with a pyramid scheme.
(5) The appropriate county attorney or district attorney has primary responsibility for investigating and prosecuting a criminal violation of this section.
(6)
(a) A violation under this section constitutes a violation of Section 13-11-4.
(b) A criminal conviction under this section is prima facie evidence of a violation of Section 13-11-4.
(c) In addition to prosecution under this section, a violation of this section shall be civilly investigated and prosecuted as prescribed by Title 13, Chapter 11, Utah Consumer Sales Practices Act.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-304 Participating in a pyramid scheme.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-17-101, and 76-17-301 apply to this section.
(2) An actor commits participating in a pyramid scheme if the actor participates in a pyramid scheme only by receiving compensation for the introduction of another person into the pyramid scheme rather than from the sale of goods, services, or other property.
(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a class B misdemeanor.
(4) It is not a defense to an action brought under this section that:
(a) the sales device or plan limits the number of persons who may be introduced into the sales device or plan;
(b) the sales device or plan includes additional conditions affecting eligibility for introduction into the sales device or plan or when compensation may be received from the sales device or plan; or
(c) a person receives property or services in addition to the compensation or right to receive compensation in connection with a pyramid scheme.
(5) The appropriate county attorney or district attorney has primary responsibility for investigating and prosecuting a criminal violation of this section.
(6)
(a) A violation under this section constitutes a violation of Section 13-11-4.

(b) A criminal conviction under this section is prima facie evidence of a violation of Section 13-11-4.
(c) In addition to prosecution under this section, a violation of this section shall be civilly investigated and prosecuted as prescribed by Title 13, Chapter 11, Utah Consumer Sales Practices Act.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-402 Enforcement authority of peace officers.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, peace officers in this state have the authority to enforce the criminal provisions of this part by initiating investigations, assisting grand juries, obtaining indictments, filing informations, and assisting in the prosecution of criminal cases through the attorney general or county attorneys' offices.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-403 Remedies of person injured by a pattern of unlawful activity -- Double damages -- Costs, including attorney fees -- Arbitration -- Agency -- Burden of proof -- Actions by attorney general or county attorney -- Dismissal -- Statute of limitations -- Authorized orders of a court.

(1)

(a) A person injured in the person's person, business, or property by a person engaged in conduct forbidden by Section 76-17-407 may bring an action in a court with jurisdiction under Title 78A, Judiciary and Judicial Administration, to recover twice the damages that the person sustains, regardless of whether:

(i) the injury is separate or distinct from the injury suffered as a result of the acts or conduct constituting the pattern of unlawful conduct alleged as part of the cause of action; or

(ii) the conduct has been adjudged criminal by a court of the state or of the United States.

(2) A party who prevails on a cause of action brought under this section recovers the cost of the suit, including reasonable attorney fees.

(3) All actions arising under this section that are grounded in fraud are subject to arbitration under Title 78B, Chapter 11, Utah Uniform Arbitration Act.

(4)

(a) In all actions under this section, a principal is liable for actual damages for harm caused by an agent acting within the scope of either the agent's employment or apparent authority.

(b) A principal is liable for double damages only if the pattern of unlawful activity alleged and proven as part of the cause of action was authorized, solicited, requested, commanded, undertaken, performed, or recklessly tolerated by the board of directors or a high managerial agent acting within the scope of the agent's employment.

(5) In all actions arising under this section, the burden of proof is clear and convincing evidence.

(6) The attorney general, county attorney, or, if within a prosecution district, the district attorney may maintain an action under this section on behalf of the state, the county, or any person injured by a person engaged in conduct forbidden by Section 76-17-407, to prevent, restrain, or remedy injury as defined in this section and may recover the damages and costs allowed by this section.

(7) In all actions under this section, the elements of each claim or cause of action shall be stated with particularity against each defendant.

(8) If an action, claim, or counterclaim brought or asserted by a private party under this section is dismissed before trial or disposed of on summary judgment, or if it is determined at trial that there is no liability, the prevailing party shall recover from the party who brought the action or asserted the claim or counterclaim the amount of the prevailing party's reasonable expenses incurred because of the defense against the action, claim, or counterclaim, including a reasonable attorney fee.

(9)

(a) An action or proceeding brought under this section shall be commenced within three years after the conduct prohibited by Section 76-17-407 terminates or the cause of action accrues, whichever is later.
(b) Subsection (9)(a) supersedes any limitation to the contrary.
(10)
(a) In any action brought under this section, the court may prevent, restrain, or remedy injury as defined by this section by issuing appropriate orders after making provisions for the rights of innocent persons.
(b) Before liability is determined in any action brought under this section, the court may:
(i) issue restraining orders and injunctions;
(ii) require satisfactory performance bonds or any other bond the court considers appropriate and necessary in connection with any property or requirement imposed upon a party by the court; and
(iii) enter any other order the court considers necessary and proper.
(c) After a determination of liability, the court may, in addition to granting the relief allowed in Subsection (1), do any one or all of the following:
(i) order a person to divest the person's self of any interest in or any control, direct or indirect, of an enterprise;
(ii) impose reasonable restrictions on the future activities or investments of a person, including prohibiting a person from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the enterprise engaged in, to the extent the Utah Constitution and the Constitution of the United States permit; or
(iii) order the dissolution or reorganization of an enterprise.
(i) However, if an action is brought to obtain any relief provided by this section, and if the conduct prohibited by Section 76-17-407 has for its pattern of unlawful activity acts or conduct illegal under Section 76-5c-202, 76-5c-203, 76-5c-204, 76-5c-205, 76-5c-206, or 76-5c-305, the court may not enter an order that would amount to a prior restraint on the exercise of an affected party's rights under the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, or Article I, Sec. 15 of the Utah Constitution.
(ii) The court shall, upon the request of an affected party, and upon the notice to all parties, before the issuance of an order provided for in this subsection, and at any later time, hold hearings as necessary to determine whether any materials at issue are obscene or pornographic and to determine if there is probable cause to believe that any act or conduct alleged violates Section 76-5c-202, 76-5c-203, 76-5c-204, 76-5c-205, 76-5c-206, or 76-5c-305.
(iii) In making the court's findings, the court shall be guided by the same considerations required of a court making similar findings in criminal cases brought under Section 76-5c-202, 76-5c-203, 76-5c-204, 76-5c-205, 76-5c-206, or 76-5c-305, including, but not limited to, the definitions in Sections 76-5c-101 and 76-5c-301, and the exemptions in Section 76-5c-302.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-404 Evidentiary value of a criminal judgment in a civil proceeding.

A final judgment or decree rendered in favor of the state or a county in a criminal proceeding brought by this state or a county shall preclude the defendant from denying the essential allegations of the criminal offense in a subsequent civil proceeding.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-405 Prospective application.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), amendments to this part are prospective in nature and apply only to civil causes of action accruing after April 27, 1987.

(2) A crime committed before April 27, 1987, may comprise part of a pattern of unlawful activity if at least one of the criminal episodes comprising that pattern occurs after April 27, 1987, and the pattern otherwise meets the definition of pattern of unlawful activity as defined in Section 76-17-401.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-406 Severability clause.

If any part or application of this part is held invalid, the remainder of this part, or the part's application to other situations or persons, is not affected.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

76-17-407 Prohibited conduct concerning a pattern of unlawful activity.

(1)

(a) As used in this section, "net proceeds" of a violation of this section means property acquired as a result of the violation minus the direct costs of acquiring the property.

(b) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5, 76-17-101, and 76-17-401 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits prohibited conduct concerning a pattern of unlawful activity if the actor:

(i) has received proceeds derived, whether directly or indirectly, from a pattern of unlawful activity in which the actor has participated as a principal; and

(ii) uses or invests, directly or indirectly, any part of the income described in Subsection (2)(a)(i), or the proceeds of the income, or the proceeds derived from the investment or use of those proceeds, in the acquisition of an interest in, or the establishment or operation of, an enterprise;

(b) acquires or maintains, directly or indirectly, through a pattern of unlawful activity, an interest in or control of an enterprise;

(c)

(i) is employed by or associated with an enterprise; and

(ii) conducts or participates, whether directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the enterprise's affairs through a pattern of unlawful activity; or

(d) conspires to violate Subsection (2)(a), (b), or (c).

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony.

(4) In addition to penalties prescribed by law, the court may order an actor to pay to the state, if the attorney general brought the action, or to the county, if the county attorney or district attorney brought the action, the costs of investigating and prosecuting the offense and the costs of securing the forfeitures provided for in this section.

(5) In lieu of a fine otherwise authorized by law for a violation of this section, an actor who derives net proceeds from a conduct prohibited by this section may be fined not more than twice the amount of the net proceeds.

(6) Upon a conviction for a violation of this section, and in addition to a penalty prescribed by law, the court may do any or all of the following:

(a) order restitution to any victim or rightful owner of property obtained, directly or indirectly, from:
(i) the conduct constituting the pattern of unlawful activity; or
(ii) any act or conduct constituting the pattern of unlawful activity that is proven as part of the violation of this section;
(b) order the actor to divest the actor of any interest in or any control, direct or indirect, of an enterprise;
(c) impose reasonable restrictions on the future activities or investments of any person, including prohibiting the person from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the enterprise engaged in, to the extent the Utah Constitution and the Constitution of the United States permit; or
(d) order the dissolution or reorganization of an enterprise.
(7) If a violation of this section is based on a pattern of unlawful activity consisting of acts or conduct in violation of Section 76-5c-202, 76-5c-203, 76-5c-204, 76-5c-205, 76-5c-206, or 76-5c-305, the court may not enter an order that would amount to a prior restraint on the exercise of an affected party's rights under the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 15.

Title 77. Utah Code of Criminal Procedure

Chapter 1
Preliminary Provisions

77-1-1 Short title.

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Utah Code of Criminal Procedure."

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-1-2 Criminal procedure prescribed.

The procedure in criminal cases shall be as prescribed in this title, the Rules of Criminal Procedure, and such further rules as may be adopted by the Supreme Court of Utah.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-1-3 Definitions.

For the purpose of this act:

(1) "Criminal action" means the proceedings by which a person is charged, accused, and brought to trial for a public offense.

(2) "Indictment" means an accusation in writing presented by a grand jury to the district court charging a person with a public offense.

(3) "Information" means an accusation, in writing, charging a person with a public offense which is presented, signed, and filed in the office of the clerk where the prosecution is commenced in accordance with Section 77-2-2.2.

(4) "Magistrate" means a justice or judge of a court of record or not of record or a commissioner of such a court appointed in accordance with Section 78A-5-107, except that the authority of a court commissioner to act as a magistrate shall be limited by rule of the judicial council. The judicial council rules shall not exceed constitutional limitations upon the delegation of judicial authority.

(5) "Risk and needs assessment" means an actuarial tool validated on offenders that determines:

(a) an individual's risk of reoffending; and

(b) the criminal risk factors that, when addressed, reduce the individual's risk of reoffending.

Amended by Chapter 260, 2021 General Session

77-1-4 Conviction to precede punishment.

No person shall be punished for a public offense until convicted in a court having jurisdiction.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-1-5 Prosecuting party.

A criminal action for any violation of a state statute shall be prosecuted in the name of the state of Utah. A criminal action for violation of any county or municipal ordinance shall be prosecuted in the name of the governmental entity involved.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-1-6 Rights of defendant.

(1) In criminal prosecutions the defendant is entitled to:
(a) appear in person and defend in person or by counsel;
(b) receive a copy of the accusation filed against the defendant;
(c) testify in the defendant's own behalf;
(d) be confronted by the witnesses against the defendant;
(e) have compulsory process to insure the attendance of witnesses in the defendant's behalf;
(f) a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the county or district where the offense is alleged to have been committed;
(g) the right of appeal in all cases; and
(h) be admitted to bail in accordance with provisions of law, or be entitled to a trial within 30 days after arraignment if unable to post bail and if the business of the court permits.
(2) In addition:
(a) no person shall be put twice in jeopardy for the same offense;
(b) no accused person shall, before final judgment, be compelled to advance money or fees to secure rights guaranteed by the Constitution or the laws of Utah, or to pay the costs of those rights when received;
(c) no person shall be compelled to give evidence against himself or herself;
(d) an individual may not be compelled to testify against the individual's spouse; and
(e) no person shall be convicted unless by verdict of a jury, or upon a plea of guilty or no contest, or upon a judgment of a court when trial by jury has been waived or, in case of an infraction, upon a judgment by a magistrate.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-1-7 Dismissal without trial -- Custody or discharge of defendant.

(1)
(a) Further prosecution for an offense is not barred if the court dismisses an information or indictment based on the ground:
(i) there was unreasonable delay;
(ii) the court is without jurisdiction;
(iii) the offense was not properly alleged in the information or indictment; or
(iv) there was a defect in the impaneling or the proceedings relating to the grand jury.
(b) The court may make orders regarding custody of the defendant pending the filing of new charges as the interest of justice may require. Otherwise, the defendant shall be discharged and bail exonerated.
(2) An order of dismissal based upon unconstitutional delay in bringing the defendant to trial or upon the statute of limitations is a bar to any other prosecution for the offense charged.

Enacted by Chapter 7, 1990 General Session

Chapter 2
Prosecution, Screening, and Diversion

77-2-2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:
(1) "Commencement of prosecution" means the filing of an information or an indictment.
(2) "Diversion" means suspending criminal proceedings before conviction on the condition that a defendant agree to:
(a) participate in a rehabilitation program;
(b) pay restitution to a victim; or
(c) fulfill some other condition.
(3) "Restitution" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38b-102.
(4) "Screening" means the process used by a prosecuting attorney to:
(a) terminate an investigative action;
(b) proceed with prosecution;
(c) move to dismiss a prosecution that has been commenced; or
(d) cause a prosecution to be diverted.

Amended by Chapter 260, 2021 General Session

77-2-2.1 Authorization to file information.

Except as otherwise provided by law, no information may be filed charging the commission of any felony or class A misdemeanor unless authorized by a prosecuting attorney.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 260, 2021 General Session

77-2-2.2 Signing and filing of information.

(1) The prosecuting attorney shall sign all informations.
(2) The prosecuting attorney may:
(a) sign the information in the presence of a magistrate; or
(b) present and file the information in the office of the clerk where the prosecution is commenced upon the signature of the prosecuting attorney.
(3) When reasonably available, the prosecuting attorney shall ensure that the information includes:
(a) the defendant's state identification number issued by the Bureau of Criminal Identification;
(b) the citation number associated with the case; and
(c) the offense tracking number associated with the case.

Amended by Chapter 177, 2023 General Session

77-2-2.3 Reducing the level of an offense.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2) and notwithstanding any other provision of law, if a prosecuting attorney determines that it is in the interests of justice, the prosecuting attorney may:
(a) present and file an information charging an individual for an offense under Subsections 76-3-103(1)(b) through (d), Subsection 76-3-103(2), or Section 76-3-104 with a classification of the offense at one degree lower than the classification that is provided in the applicable section; or
(b) subject to the approval of the court, amend an information, as part of a plea agreement, to charge an individual for an offense under Subsections 76-3-103(1)(b) through (d), Subsection 76-3-103(2), or Section 76-3-104 with a classification of the offense at one degree lower than the classification that is provided in the applicable section.
(2) If the offense the prosecuting attorney is seeking to lower by one degree, either by information or plea agreement under Subsection (1)(a) or (b), is an offense listed in Subsection 76-3-406(2), the prosecuting attorney shall, on the record, state that it is in the interests of justice to lower the offense by one degree.

(3) A court may:

(a) enter a judgment of conviction for an offense filed under Subsection (1) at one degree lower than classified in the applicable section; and

(b) impose a sentence for the offense filed under Subsection (1) at one degree lower than classified in the applicable section.

(4) A conviction of an offense at one degree lower than classified in the applicable section under Subsection (3) does not affect the requirements for registration of the offense under Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry, if the elements of the offense for which the defendant is convicted are the same as the elements of a registrable offense described in Section 53-29-202.

(5) This section does not preclude an individual from obtaining and being granted an expungement for the individual's record in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 40a, Expungement of Criminal Records.

Amended by Chapter 193, 2025 General Session
Amended by Chapter 291, 2025 General Session

77-2-3 Termination of investigative action.

Prior to the commencement of prosecution, the prosecutor may, without approval of a magistrate, authorize a termination of investigative action when it appears that further investigative action is not in the public interest.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-2-4 Dismissal of prosecution.

After commencement of a prosecution the prosecutor may, upon reasonable grounds, move the magistrate before whom the prosecution is pending to dismiss the prosecution. If, in the judgment of the magistrate, the prosecution should not continue, the magistrate may dismiss the prosecution and enter an order of dismissal stating the reasons for the dismissal in the order.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-2-4.2 Compromise of traffic charges -- Deferred prosecution of traffic infractions -- Limitations.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Compromise" means referral of an individual charged with a traffic violation to traffic school or other school, class, or remedial or rehabilitative program.

(b) "Deferral period" means the 12-month period following the date on which an individual submits an application for deferred prosecution.

(c) "Deferred prosecution" means the deferral of prosecution of an individual charged with a traffic infraction if the individual complies with the requirements described in Subsection (5).

(d) "Felony traffic violation" means a violation of Title 41, Chapter 6a, Traffic Code, amounting to a felony.

(e) "Moving traffic infraction" means a traffic infraction that occurs when a vehicle is in motion on a highway.

(f)

(i) "Traffic infraction" means a violation of Title 41, Chapter 6a, Traffic Code, or a local traffic ordinance that is an infraction.
(ii) "Traffic infraction" does not include an offense that is a misdemeanor or a felony.
(g) "Traffic school deferred prosecution" means a deferred prosecution for which completion of traffic school is required as a condition of the application.
(h) "Traffic violation" means any charge for which a fine may be voluntarily remitted in lieu of appearance, by citation or information, of a violation of:
(i) Title 41, Chapter 6a, Traffic Code, amounting to:
(A) a class B misdemeanor;
(B) a class C misdemeanor; or
(C) an infraction; or
(ii) any local traffic ordinance.
(2) Any compromise of a traffic violation shall be done pursuant to a plea in abeyance agreement as provided in Title 77, Chapter 2a, Pleas in Abeyance, and Subsection (3), except:
(a) when the criminal prosecution is dismissed pursuant to Section 77-2-4;
(b) when there is a plea by the defendant to and entry of a judgment by a court for the offense originally charged or for an amended charge; or
(c) when there is a deferred plea of no contest as provided in Subsection (5).
(3) In all cases which are compromised pursuant to a plea in abeyance:
(a) the court, taking into consideration the offense charged, shall collect a plea in abeyance fee which shall:
(i) be subject to the same surcharge as if imposed on a criminal fine;
(ii) be allocated subject to the surcharge as if paid as a criminal fine under Section 78A-5-110 and a surcharge under Title 51, Chapter 9, Part 4, Criminal Conviction Surcharge Allocation; and
(iii) be not more than $25 greater than the fine designated in the Uniform Fine Schedule; or
(b) if no plea in abeyance fee is collected, a surcharge on the fee charged for the traffic school or other school, class, or rehabilitative program shall be collected, which surcharge shall:
(i) be computed, assessed, collected, and remitted in the same manner as if the traffic school fee and surcharge had been imposed as a criminal fine and surcharge; and
(ii) be subject to the financial requirements contained in Title 51, Chapter 9, Part 4, Criminal Conviction Surcharge Allocation.
(4) If a written plea in abeyance agreement is provided, or the defendant requests a written accounting, an itemized statement of all amounts assessed by the court shall be provided, including:
(a) the Uniform Fine Schedule amount;
(b) the amount of any surcharges being assessed; and
(c) the amount of the plea in abeyance fee.
(5)
(i) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), an individual who receives a citation for a moving traffic infraction may apply for deferred prosecution.
(ii) A court may not require an individual to appear in-person to apply for a deferred prosecution in accordance with this Subsection (5).
(b) The following may not apply for or be granted a deferred prosecution as described in this section:
(i) an individual under 21 years old;
(ii) an individual with a commercial driver license;

(iii) an individual who has not been issued a current Utah driver license;
(iv) an individual who has been convicted of a felony traffic violation, traffic violation, or traffic infraction within the 24 months immediately preceding the date of the application for deferred prosecution;
(v) an individual charged with two or more moving traffic infractions related to the same episode or occurrence;
(vi) an individual charged with multiple traffic infractions related to the same episode or occurrence if any of the offenses is a misdemeanor or felony traffic violation;
(vii) an individual charged with one or more traffic infractions if none of the traffic infractions are moving traffic violations;
(viii) an individual charged with any traffic infraction or traffic violation that is part of an episode or occurrence involving a traffic accident;
(ix) an individual charged with a moving traffic violation that is for speeding 20 miles per hour or more above the posted speed limit;
(x) an individual charged with a moving violation that is for speeding at a speed of 100 miles per hour or more; or
(xi) an individual who is currently within a deferral period related to a separate episode or occurrence.

(6)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), and upon availability of the traffic school program described in Subsection (11), if an individual completes a traffic school course as described in Subsection (11) within 28 days after the date the individual applies for traffic school deferred prosecution, an individual may apply for and be granted a traffic school deferred prosecution if:
(i) the individual has one or fewer moving traffic infraction convictions in the 24 months immediately preceding the current citation;
(ii) the individual received a citation for more than one but less than three moving traffic infractions from the same incident or occurrence;
(iii) the individual was involved in an accident during the commission of the traffic infraction, other than an accident resulting in serious bodily injury, as defined in Section 41-6a-401.3, or death; or
(iv) the individual received a citation for speeding between 20 and 30 miles per hour over the legal speed limit if the speeding violation is not more than double the legal speed limit.
(b) The following may not apply for or be granted a traffic school deferred prosecution in accordance with this Subsection (6):
(i) an individual to whom more than one of the conditions in Subsection (6)(a) apply;
(ii) an individual under 21 years old;
(iii) an individual with a commercial driver license;
(iv) an individual who has not been issued a current Utah driver license;
(v) an individual who has been convicted of a felony traffic violation or traffic violation within the 24 months immediately preceding the date of the application for deferred prosecution;
(vi) an individual charged with three or more moving traffic infractions related to the same episode or occurrence; or
(vii) an individual charged with multiple traffic infractions related to the same episode or occurrence if any of the offenses is a misdemeanor or felony traffic violation.
(c) A court may not require an individual to appear in-person to apply for traffic school deferred prosecution in accordance with this Subsection (6).
(7) An individual who applies for deferred prosecution or traffic school deferred prosecution shall:

(a) apply through an online application process developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts;
(b) pay the relevant fine, as provided by the uniform fine schedule described in Section 76-3-301.5, associated with each traffic infraction for which the individual was charged;
(c) pay an administrative fee as established by the judicial council; and
(d) enter a deferred plea of no contest as described in Subsection (9).

(8) An individual who receives a traffic citation shall:
(a) comply with Section 77-7-19;
(b) apply for deferred prosecution as described in Subsection (7) no sooner than five and no later than 21 days after receiving the citation; or
(c) for a traffic school deferred prosecution as described in Subsection (6), apply for deferred prosecution as described in Subsection (7) no later than 28 days after submitting an application into the deferred prosecution system.

(9) If an eligible individual applies for deferred prosecution, the court shall:
(a) record the deferred plea of no contest;
(b) not enter the deferred plea of no contest unless the individual fails to comply with the terms of the deferred prosecution; and
(c) if the individual fails to comply with the terms of the deferred prosecution, enter a judgment of conviction as described in Subsection (10)(b).

(10)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (10)(b), if an individual enters a deferred plea of no contest as described in Subsection (7)(d) and is not convicted of another traffic violation, felony traffic violation, or traffic infraction during the deferral period:
(i) the prosecutor may not prosecute the individual for the traffic infraction subject to the deferred prosecution;
(ii) the court may not enter judgment of conviction against the individual or impose a sentence for the traffic infraction; and
(iii) the court shall dismiss each traffic infraction to which the individual entered a deferred plea of no contest.
(b) If an individual enters a deferred plea of no contest as described in Subsection (7)(d) and is convicted of another a traffic violation within the deferral period, the court shall enter judgment of conviction against the individual for each traffic infraction to which the individual entered a deferred plea of no contest.
(c)
(i) A prosecutor may not amend a charge from an infraction to a misdemeanor:
(A) if the infraction offense has the same elements as the misdemeanor offense; or
(B) for the sole purpose of prohibiting an individual from applying for deferred prosecution.
(ii) A deferred prosecution is not a prosecution for purposes of Section 76-1-403.
(d)
(i) The judicial council shall set and periodically adjust the fee described in Subsection (7)(c) in an amount that the judicial council determines to be necessary to cover the cost to implement, operate, and maintain the deferred prosecution program described in this Subsection (5).
(ii) The state treasurer shall deposit the revenue generated from the administrative fee described in Subsection (7)(c) into the Justice Court Technology, Security, and Training Account created in Section 78A-7-301.

(11)

(a) The Department of Public Safety may enter into a contract with a traffic school provider to establish a traffic school course as described in this section.
(b) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the Department of Public Safety may make rules necessary to establish a traffic school program, including:
(i) establishing requirements and standards for the curriculum of a traffic school program;
(ii) establishing a fee for an individual to enroll and complete the traffic school course; and
(iii) creating a method to electronically transmit the completion of the course to the relevant court as required in Subsection (11)(c).
(c) The Department of Public Safety shall ensure than any traffic school program created under this Subsection (11) includes the ability for the traffic school provider to electronically transmit successful completion of the traffic school course to the relevant court.
(d) The Department of Public Safety shall ensure that the traffic school program required under this Subsection (11) is established no later than November 1, 2023.
(e) After the Department of Public Safety enters into a contract with a traffic school provider as described in this Subsection (11), no later than March 1, 2024, the Administrative Office of the Courts shall coordinate with the traffic school provider to ensure the traffic school provider and the Administrative Office of the Courts:
(i) establish the traffic school program as described in this Subsection (11); and
(ii) establish means by which completion of the traffic school course may be verified electronically.

Amended by Chapter 393, 2023 General Session

77-2-4.3 Compromise of boating violations -- Limitations.

(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Compromise" means referral of a person charged with a boating violation to a boating safety course approved by the Division of Outdoor Recreation.
(b) "Boating violation" means any charge for which bail may be forfeited in lieu of appearance, by citation or information, of a violation of Title 73, Chapter 18, State Boating Act, amounting to:
(i) a class B misdemeanor;
(ii) a class C misdemeanor; or
(iii) an infraction.
(2) Any compromise of a boating violation shall be done pursuant to a plea in abeyance agreement as provided in Title 77, Chapter 2a, Pleas in Abeyance, except:
(a) when the criminal prosecution is dismissed pursuant to Section 77-2-4; or
(b) when there is a plea by the defendant to and entry of a judgment by a court for the offense originally charged or for an amended charge.
(3) In a case that is compromised pursuant to Subsection (2):
(a) the court, taking into consideration the offense charged, shall collect a plea in abeyance fee which shall:
(i) be subject to the same surcharge as if imposed on a criminal fine;
(ii) be allocated subject to the surcharge as if paid as a criminal fine under Section 78A-5-110 and a surcharge under Title 51, Chapter 9, Part 4, Criminal Conviction Surcharge Allocation; and
(iii) be not more than $25 greater than the bail designated in the Uniform Bail Schedule; or
(b) if no plea in abeyance fee is collected, a surcharge on the fee charged for the boating safety course shall be collected, which surcharge shall:

(i) be computed, assessed, collected, and remitted in the same manner as if the boating safety course fee and surcharge had been imposed as a criminal fine and surcharge; and
(ii) be subject to the financial requirements contained in Title 51, Chapter 9, Part 4, Criminal Conviction Surcharge Allocation.

(4) If a written plea in abeyance agreement is provided, or the defendant requests a written accounting, an itemized statement of all amounts assessed by the court shall be provided, including:
(a) the Uniform Bail Schedule amount;
(b) the amount of any surcharges being assessed; and
(c) the amount of the plea in abeyance fee.

Amended by Chapter 68, 2022 General Session

77-2-4.5 Dismissal by compromise -- Limitations.

(1) In misdemeanor cases the court may dismiss the case upon motion of the prosecutor if it is compromised by the defendant and the injured party, except under Subsection (2). The injured party shall first acknowledge the compromise before the court or in writing. The reasons for the order shall be set forth and entered in the minutes. The order is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense.

(2) A dismissal by compromise may not be granted when the misdemeanor is committed by or upon a peace officer while in the performance of the peace officer's duties, or riotously, or with intent to commit a felony.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-2-5 Diversion agreement -- Negotiation -- Contents.

(1) At any time after the commencement of prosecution and before conviction, the prosecuting attorney may, by written agreement with the defendant, filed with the court, and upon approval of the court, divert a defendant to a non-criminal diversion program.

(2) A defendant shall be represented by counsel during negotiations for diversion and at the time of execution of any diversion agreement unless the defendant has knowingly and intelligently waived the defendant's right to counsel.

(3) The defendant has the right to be represented by counsel at any court hearing relating to a diversion program.

(a) A diversion agreement, entered into between the prosecuting attorney and the defendant and approved by a court, shall contain a full, detailed statement of the requirements agreed to by the defendant and the reasons for diversion.
(b) The diversion agreement described in Subsection (4)(a) shall include an agreement, by the parties, for a specific amount of restitution that the defendant will pay, unless the prosecuting attorney certifies that:
(i) the prosecuting attorney has consulted with all victims, including the Utah Office for Victims of Crime; and
(ii) the defendant does not owe any restitution.

(5)
(a) If the court approves a diversion agreement that includes an agreement by the parties for the amount of restitution that the defendant will pay, the court shall order the defendant to pay restitution in accordance with the terms of the diversion agreement.

(b) The court shall collect, receive, process, and distribute payments for restitution to the victim, unless otherwise provided by law or by the diversion agreement.
(6) A decision by a prosecuting attorney not to divert a defendant is not subject to judicial review.
(7) A diversion agreement entered into between the prosecution and the defense and approved by a magistrate may contain an order that the defendant pay a nonrefundable diversion fee that:
(a) shall be allocated in the same manner as if paid as a fine for a criminal conviction under Section 78A-5-110 or Section 78A-7-120; and
(b) may not exceed the suggested fine listed in the Uniform Fine Schedule adopted by the Judicial Council.
(8) A diversion agreement may not be approved unless the defendant knowingly and intelligently waives the defendant's constitutional right to a speedy trial before a magistrate and in the diversion agreement.
(9)
(a) The court shall, on the defendant's request, consider the defendant's ability to pay a diversion fee before ordering the defendant to pay a diversion fee.
(b) The court may:
(i) consider any relevant evidence in determining the defendant's ability to pay a diversion fee; and
(ii) lower or waive the diversion fee based on that evidence.
(10) A diversion program longer than two years is not permitted.
(11) The court may not rely solely on an algorithm or a risk assessment tool score in determining whether the court should approve the defendant's diversion to a non-criminal diversion program.

Amended by Chapter 187, 2024 General Session

77-2-6 Dismissal after compliance with diversion agreement.

The court shall dismiss the information or indictment filed against the defendant who has complied with the requirements of a diversion agreement and the defendant shall not thereafter be subject to further prosecution for the offense involved or for any lesser included offense.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-2-7 Diversion not a conviction.

Diversion is not a conviction and if the case is dismissed the matter shall be treated as if the charge had never been filed.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-2-8 Violation of diversion agreement -- Hearing -- Prosecution resumed.

If, during the course of the diversion of a defendant, information is brought to the attention of a magistrate or the prosecuting attorney that the defendant has violated the diversion agreement and it appears in the best interests of the community to reinstate and proceed with the prosecution, the prosecuting attorney, upon court approval, or the magistrate, on the magistrate's own motion, shall cause to be served upon the defendant an order to show cause specifying the facts relied upon by the prosecuting attorney or magistrate to terminate diversion and shall set a time and place for a hearing to determine whether or not the defendant has violated the diversion agreement. If, at the hearing, the magistrate finds the defendant has failed to comply with any terms or conditions of the diversion agreement, the magistrate may authorize the prosecuting attorney to proceed with prosecution. The prosecution of a diverted offense shall not bar any independent prosecution arising from any offense that constituted a violation of any term or condition of the diversion agreement by which the original prosecution was diverted.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-2-9 Offenses ineligible for diversion.

(1) A magistrate may not grant a diversion for:
  (a) a capital felony;
  (b) a felony in the first degree;
  (c) any case involving a sexual offense against a victim who is under 14 years old;
  (d) any motor vehicle related offense involving alcohol or drugs;
  (e) any case involving using a motor vehicle in the commission of a felony;
  (f) driving a motor vehicle or commercial motor vehicle on a revoked or suspended license;
  (g) any case involving operating a commercial motor vehicle in a negligent manner causing the death of another including the offenses of:
    (i) manslaughter under Section 76-5-205; or
    (ii) negligent homicide under Section 76-5-206; or
  (h) a crime of domestic violence as defined in Section 77-36-1.

(2) When an individual is alleged to have committed any violation of Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than a violation of Section 76-5-417, 76-5-418, 76-5-419, or 76-5-420, while the individual is under 16 years old, the court may enter a diversion in the matter if the court enters on the record the court's findings that:
  (a) the offenses could have been adjudicated in juvenile court but for the delayed reporting or delayed filing of the information in the district court, unless the offenses are before the court in accordance with Section 80-6-502 or 80-6-504;
  (b) the individual did not use coercion or force;
  (c) there is no more than three years' difference between the ages of the participants; and
  (d) it would be in the best interest of the person to grant diversion.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

Chapter 2a
Pleas in Abeyance

77-2a-1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Criminal conduct" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38b-102.
(2) "Pecuniary damages" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38b-102.
(3) "Plea in abeyance" means an order by a court, upon motion of the prosecuting attorney and the defendant, accepting a plea of guilty or of no contest from the defendant but not, at that time, entering judgment of conviction against the defendant nor imposing sentence upon the defendant on condition that the defendant comply with specific conditions as set forth in a plea in abeyance agreement.

(4) "Plea in abeyance agreement" means an agreement entered into between the prosecuting attorney and the defendant setting forth the specific terms and conditions upon which, following acceptance of the agreement by the court, a plea may be held in abeyance.
(5) "Restitution" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38b-102.
(6) "Victim" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38b-102.

Amended by Chapter 113, 2023 General Session

77-2a-2 Plea in abeyance agreement -- Negotiation -- Contents -- Terms of agreement -- Waiver of time for sentencing.

(1) At any time after acceptance of a plea of guilty or no contest but before entry of judgment of conviction and imposition of sentence, the court may, upon motion of both the prosecuting attorney and the defendant, hold the plea in abeyance and not enter judgment of conviction against the defendant nor impose sentence upon the defendant within the time periods contained in Rule 22(a), Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure.
(2) A defendant shall be represented by counsel during negotiations for a plea in abeyance and at the time of acknowledgment and affirmation of any plea in abeyance agreement unless the defendant knowingly and intelligently waives the defendant's right to counsel.
(3) A defendant has the right to be represented by counsel at any court hearing relating to a plea in abeyance agreement.
(4)
  (a) Any plea in abeyance agreement entered into between the prosecution and the defendant and approved by the court shall, subject to Subsection (7), include a full, detailed recitation of the requirements and conditions agreed to by the defendant and the reason for requesting the court to hold the plea in abeyance.
  (b) If the plea is to a felony or any combination of misdemeanors and felonies, the agreement shall be in writing and shall, before acceptance by the court, be executed by the prosecuting attorney, the defendant, and the defendant's counsel in the presence of the court.
(5)
  (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), a plea may not be held in abeyance for a period longer than 18 months if the plea is to any class of misdemeanor or longer than three years if the plea is to any degree of felony or to any combination of misdemeanors and felonies.
  (b)
    (i) For a plea in abeyance agreement that the Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202 supervises, the plea may not be held in abeyance for a period longer than the initial term of probation required under the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1, if the initial term of probation is shorter than the period required under Subsection (5)(a).
    (ii) Subsection (5)(b)(i) does not:
      (A) apply to a plea that is held in abeyance in a drug court created under Title 78A, Chapter 5, Part 2, Drug Court, or a problem solving court approved by the Judicial Council; or
      (B) prohibit court supervision of a plea in abeyance agreement after the day on which the Division of Adult Probation and Parole supervision described in Subsection (5)(b)(i) ends and before the day on which the plea in abeyance agreement ends.
(6) Notwithstanding Subsection (5), a plea may be held in abeyance for up to two years if the plea is to any class of misdemeanor and the plea in abeyance agreement includes a condition that the defendant participate in a problem solving court approved by the Judicial Council.
(7) A plea in abeyance agreement may not:

(a) be approved unless the defendant, before the court, and any written agreement, knowingly and intelligently waives time for sentencing as designated in Rule 22(a), Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure; or
(b) notwithstanding any other provision of law, include as part of the requirements and conditions agreed to by the defendant that the defendant will forfeit a firearm owned by the defendant if the offense the defendant will plea to is not an offense that would make the defendant a restricted person under Section 76-11-302 or 76-11-303 or federal law.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session
Amended by Chapter 431, 2025 General Session

77-2a-3 Manner of entry of plea -- Powers of court -- Expungement.
(1)
(a) Acceptance of any plea in anticipation of a plea in abeyance agreement shall be done in full compliance with the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rule 11.
(b) In cases charging offenses for which bail may be forfeited, a plea in abeyance agreement may be entered into without a personal appearance before a magistrate.
(2) A plea in abeyance agreement may provide that the court may, upon finding that the defendant has successfully completed the terms of the agreement:
(a) reduce the degree of the offense, enter a judgment of conviction for the lower degree of the offense, and impose a sentence for the lower degree of the offense;
(b) allow withdrawal of the defendant's plea and order the dismissal of the case; or
(c) issue an order of expungement for all records of the offense if:
(i) the defendant successfully completes a problem solving court program that is certified by the Judicial Council; and
(ii) the court allows the withdrawal of the defendant's plea and orders the dismissal of the case.
(3)
(a) Upon finding that a defendant has successfully completed the terms of a plea in abeyance agreement and only as provided in the plea in abeyance agreement or as agreed to by all parties, the court may :
(i) reduce the degree of the offense, enter a judgment of conviction for the lower degree of the offense, and impose a sentence for the lower degree of the offense;
(ii) allow withdrawal of the defendant's plea and order the dismissal of the case; or
(iii) issue an order of expungement for all records of the offense if:
(A) the defendant successfully completes a problem solving court program that is certified by the Judicial Council; and
(B) the court allows the withdrawal of the defendant's plea and orders the dismissal of the case.
(b) Upon sentencing a defendant for any lesser offense in accordance with a plea in abeyance agreement, the court may not invoke Section 76-3-402 to further reduce the degree of the offense.
(4) The court may require the Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202 to assist in the administration of the plea in abeyance agreement as if the defendant were placed on probation under Section 77-18-105.
(5) The terms of a plea in abeyance agreement may include:
(a) an order that the defendant pay a nonrefundable plea in abeyance fee, with a surcharge based on the amount of the plea in abeyance fee, both of which shall be allocated in the same manner as if paid as a fine for a criminal conviction under Section 78A-5-110 and a surcharge under Title 51, Chapter 9, Part 4, Criminal Conviction Surcharge Allocation, and which may not exceed in amount the maximum fine and surcharge which could have been imposed upon conviction and sentencing for the same offense;

(b) an order that the defendant pay the costs of any remedial or rehabilitative program required by the terms of the agreement; and

(c) an order that the defendant comply with any other conditions that could have been imposed as conditions of probation upon conviction and sentencing for the same offense.

(6)

(a) The terms of a plea in abeyance shall include:

(i) a specific amount of restitution that the defendant will pay, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney;

(ii) a certification from the prosecuting attorney that:

(A) the prosecuting attorney has consulted with all victims, including the Utah Office for Victims of Crime; and

(B) all victims, including the Utah Office for Victims of Crime, are not seeking restitution; or

(iii) an agreement between the parties that restitution will be determined by the court at a subsequent hearing in accordance with Section 77-38b-205.

(b) At a subsequent hearing described in Subsection (6)(a)(iii), the court shall order the defendant, as a modified term of the plea in abeyance, to pay restitution to all victims for the entire amount of pecuniary damages that are proximately caused by the criminal conduct of the defendant.

(c) The court shall collect, receive, process, and distribute payments for restitution to the victim, unless otherwise provided by law or by the plea in abeyance agreement.

(d) If the defendant does not successfully complete the terms of the plea in abeyance, the court shall enter an order for restitution, in accordance with Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act, upon entering a sentence for the defendant.

(7)

(a) A court may not hold a plea in abeyance without the consent of both the prosecuting attorney and the defendant.

(b) A decision by a prosecuting attorney not to agree to a plea in abeyance is final.

(8) No plea may be held in abeyance in any case involving:

(a) a sexual offense against an individual who is under 14 years old; or

(b) a driving under the influence violation under Section 41-6a-502, 41-6a-502.5, 41-6a-517, 41-6a-520, 41-6a-520.1, 41-6a-521.1, 76-5-102.1, or 76-5-207.

(9)

(a) If the terms of a plea in abeyance agreement allow a court to issue an order of expungement as described in Subsection (2)(c), the prosecuting attorney shall make a reasonable effort to provide notice to any victim of the offense of the terms of the plea in abeyance agreement.

(b) The notice under Subsection (9)(a) shall:

(i) state that the victim has a right to object to the expungement; and

(ii) provide instructions for registering an objection with the court.

(c) If there is a victim of the offense, the victim may file an objection with the court before the court makes a finding as to whether the defendant successfully completed the terms of the plea in abeyance agreement as described in Subsection (3).

(d) The defendant may respond, in writing, to any objection filed by the victim within 14 days after the day on which the objection is received by the court.

(10) If the court issues an order of expungement under Subsection (3)(a)(iii), the court shall:

(a) expunge all records of the case as described in Section 77-40a-401; and

(b) notify the Bureau of Criminal Identification of the order of expungement.

(11)

(a) Upon receiving notice from the court of an expungement order as described in Subsection (10), the Bureau of Criminal Identification shall notify any agency, as defined in Section 77-40a-101, affected by the expungement order.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (11)(a), the Bureau of Criminal Identification may not notify the Board of Pardons and Parole of an expungement order if the individual has never been:

(i) sentenced to prison in this state; or

(ii) under the jurisdiction of the Board of Pardons and Parole.

(c) The Bureau of Criminal Identification shall forward a copy of the expungement order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(12) The defendant may deliver copies of the expungement to any agency, as defined in Section 77-40a-101, affected by the order of expungement.

(13) If an agency receives an expungement order under this part, the agency shall expunge all records for the case in accordance with Section 77-40a-401.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-2a-4 Violation of plea in abeyance agreement -- Hearing -- Entry of judgment and imposition of sentence -- Subsequent prosecutions.

(1) If, at any time during the term of the plea in abeyance agreement, information comes to the attention of the prosecuting attorney or the court that the defendant has violated any condition of the agreement, the court, at the request of the prosecuting attorney, made by appropriate motion and affidavit, or upon its own motion, may issue an order requiring the defendant to appear before the court at a designated time and place to show cause why the court should not find the terms of the agreement to have been violated and why the agreement should not be terminated. If, following an evidentiary hearing, the court finds that the defendant has failed to substantially comply with any term or condition of the plea in abeyance agreement, it may terminate the agreement and enter judgment of conviction and impose sentence against the defendant for the offense to which the original plea was entered. Upon entry of judgment of conviction and imposition of sentence, any amounts paid by the defendant as a plea in abeyance fee prior to termination of the agreement shall be credited against any fine imposed by the court.

(2) The termination of a plea in abeyance agreement and subsequent entry of judgment of conviction and imposition of sentence shall not bar any independent prosecution arising from any offense that constituted a violation of any term or condition of an agreement whereby the original plea was placed in abeyance.

Security to Keep the Peace

77-3-1 Threatened offense -- Complaint.

A complaint that a person has threatened to commit an offense against the person or property of another, except in the case of stalking, may be made before any magistrate. Petitions alleging the commission of stalking shall be handled pursuant to Title 78B, Chapter 7, Protective Orders and Stalking Injunctions.

Amended by Chapter 276, 2001 General Session

77-3-2 Examination of complainant and witnesses.

The magistrate shall examine, on oath, the complainant and any witnesses the complainant may produce and may take the complainant's or witnesses' testimony in writing.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-3-3 "Complaint" defined.

A complaint, within the meaning of this chapter, is a statement in writing setting forth the jurisdictional facts, specifying the threatened offense, and subscribed and sworn to by the complainant before the magistrate.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-3-4 Warrant of arrest -- Temporary restraining order.

If the magistrate believes there is reasonable ground to fear the commission of the offense threatened, the magistrate may issue:

(1) a warrant directed generally to any peace officer, reciting the substance of the complaint and commanding the officer to immediately arrest the person complained of and bring that person before the magistrate or, in the case of the magistrate's absence or inability to act, before the nearest and most accessible magistrate of the county; and

(2) a temporary restraining order against the commission of the offense and order the person complained of to immediately appear before the magistrate for a hearing.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-3-5 Defendant taken before different magistrate -- Procedure.

When the person arrested is taken before a magistrate other than the one who issued the warrant, the peace officer who executed the warrant shall deliver it to the issuing magistrate with his or her endorsed return. The complaint and written testimony, if any, on which the warrant was issued shall be sent to the magistrate before whom the person arrested is taken.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-3-6 Change of venue.

When the person complained of is brought before the magistrate, a change of venue may be had for good cause shown.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-3-7 Hearing -- Evidence -- Record.

At the time set for hearing, the magistrate shall take evidence. The hearing may be recorded or reduced to writing.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-3-8 Findings and orders -- Discharge -- Undertaking -- Commitment.

(1) If it appears there is no reasonable ground to fear the commission of the offense alleged to have been threatened, the person complained of shall be discharged. The complainant may be ordered to pay the costs of the proceedings if the magistrate believes the complaint was unfounded and frivolous.

(2) If there is reasonable ground to fear the commission of an offense, the court may, in addition or as an alternative to other relief, enter an order permanently restraining the person from engaging in illegal conduct or acting in any manner that could result in illegal conduct or the person complained of may be required to enter into an undertaking in a sum not to exceed $3,000, with one or more sufficient sureties, to keep the peace toward the people of this state and particularly toward the persons endangered. The conditions of the undertaking shall be in writing and shall be for a period of six months. It may be extended on good cause shown for a longer period or enlarged and a new undertaking may be required.

(a) If the undertaking is given, the party complained of shall be discharged.

(b) If the undertaking is not given, the magistrate shall commit the defendant to jail specifying in the warrant of commitment the requirement to give security, the amount thereof, and the effective period of time.

(c) A person committed for not giving the required undertaking may be discharged by any magistrate when the person provides the undertaking.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

An undertaking shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court.

Amended by Chapter 68, 1995 General Session

77-3-10 Assault in presence of magistrate or court.

A person who, in the presence of the court or magistrate, assaults or threatens to assault another or to commit an offense against person or property, or who contends with another with threatening words, may be ordered by the court or magistrate to give security and if the person refuses to do so, may be committed as provided in Subsection 77-3-8(2)(b).

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-3-11 Undertaking, when broken -- Prosecution.

(1) The undertaking is broken if the person posting the bond violates the conditions set by the court.

(2) If the undertaking is broken and the county attorney produces evidence of the violation to the district court where the undertaking was filed, the court shall order an action on the undertaking to be commenced, and the county attorney shall commence an action in the name of the state against the principal sureties on the undertaking.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-3-12 Record of conviction conclusive evidence -- Judgment on undertaking.

In an action filed by the county attorney to recover on an undertaking:
(1) The offense shall be alleged as a breach of the undertaking stated in a record of conviction and a record of conviction is conclusive evidence thereof.
(2) If the court finds the offense constitutes a breach of the undertaking, judgment for the amount of the undertaking shall be entered against the parties liable.

(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Child sexual abuse material" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5b-103.
(b) "Law enforcement agency" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-1-102.
(c) "Victim" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-37-2.
(2) In a proceeding involving child sexual abuse material, the child sexual abuse material shall remain in the care, custody, and control of:
(a) a law enforcement agency; or
(b) a court.
(3)
(a) In a proceeding involving child sexual abuse material, a court shall deny a request by a defendant to copy, photograph, duplicate, or otherwise reproduce the child sexual abuse material if the court or a law enforcement agency provides the defendant's attorney or an individual the defendant may seek to qualify as an expert an adequate opportunity to view and examine the child sexual abuse material.
(b) An individual described in Subsection (3)(a) may view or examine the child sexual abuse material only at the law enforcement agency or court that has custody and control of the child sexual abuse material.
(c) A defendant who is self represented:
(i) may not inspect the child sexual abuse material; and

(ii) may request that the court appoint counsel for the purpose of inspecting the child sexual abuse material on behalf of the defendant.

(4)

(a) In a proceeding involving child sexual abuse material, a victim, the victim's attorney, or an individual the victim may, upon a showing of good cause, seek to qualify as an expert, may view and examine the child sexual abuse material that depicts the victim upon a showing of good cause.

(b) An individual described in Subsection (4)(a) may not copy, photograph, duplicate, or otherwise reproduce the child sexual abuse material.

(c) An individual described in Subsection (4)(a) may view or examine the child sexual abuse material only at the law enforcement agency or court that has custody and control of the child sexual abuse material.

(d) The court or law enforcement agency may redact the child sexual abuse material described in this Subsection (4) to protect the privacy of a third party.

Impeachments

77-5-1 Officers liable to impeachment.

The governor and other state and judicial officers shall be liable to impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors or malfeasance in office.

Amended by Chapter 471, 2015 General Session

77-5-2 Chief justice to preside, when.

When the governor is on trial, the chief justice of the Supreme Court shall preside, and, in case the chief justice is disqualified or unable to act, the Senate shall select some other justice of the Supreme Court to preside.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-5-3 Two-thirds vote of House required.

The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment, but in order to impeach, two-thirds of all the members elected shall vote therefor. Impeachments shall be by resolution. The resolution shall originate in and be adopted by the House of Representatives.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-5-4 Trial by Senate.

All impeachments shall be tried by the Senate sitting for that purpose.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-5-5 Hearing, notice of -- Defendant served with articles.

The Senate shall assign a day for the hearing of the impeachment and inform the House of Representatives. The president of the Senate shall cause a copy of the articles of impeachment, with a notice to appear and answer the same at the time and place appointed, to be served on the officer being impeached not less than 10 days before the day fixed for the hearing.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-5-6 Suspension on filing articles -- Vacancy, how filled.

When articles of impeachment are presented to the Senate, and the officer has been served with a copy of the articles, the officer shall be temporarily suspended from office and may not exercise the duties of the office until the officer is acquitted. Upon the suspension of any officer, other than the governor, or a justice or judge of a court of record, the office shall be temporarily filled by an appointment made by the governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, until the acquittal of the party impeached, or, in the case of the officer's removal, until the vacancy is filled at the next election as provided by law.

Amended by Chapter 352, 2020 General Session

77-5-7 Senators to be sworn -- Two-thirds required for proceedings.

At the time and place appointed, and before the Senate proceeds to act on the impeachment, the secretary shall administer to the president of the Senate, and the president of the Senate shall administer to each of the members of the Senate then present, an oath or affirmation to do justice according to law and the evidence and no member of the Senate shall act or vote on the impeachment, or any question arising on it without taking the oath or affirmation and being present during the proceedings. No proceedings shall be conducted unless at least two-thirds of the senators elected and entitled to vote are present.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-5-8 Two-thirds vote necessary for conviction.

The officer shall not be convicted on impeachment without the concurrence of two-thirds of the senators elected, voting by ayes and nays, and if two-thirds of the senators elected do not concur in a conviction, the officer shall be acquitted.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-5-9 Nature of judgment.

The judgment may be that the officer be suspended, or removed from office and disqualified to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit in the state.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-5-10 Effect of judgment.

If judgment of suspension is given, the officer, during the continuance thereof, is disqualified from receiving the salary, fees, or emoluments of the office.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-5-11 Impeachment not a bar to prosecution.

The officer, whether convicted or acquitted, shall nevertheless be liable to prosecution, trial, and punishment according to law for any offense committed that constituted a basis for the impeachment proceedings.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-5-12 Rules of procedure.

The procedure for impeachment proceedings shall be adopted by rule in each house and such rules shall govern.

Chapter 6
Removal by Judicial Proceedings

77-6-1 Officers subject to removal.

All officers of any city, county, or other political subdivision of this state not liable to impeachment shall be subject to removal as provided in this chapter for high crimes and misdemeanors or malfeasance in office.

Amended by Chapter 471, 2015 General Session

77-6-2 Commencement of action for removal.

An action for the removal of a justice court judge or officer of a city, county, or other political subdivision of this state shall be commenced by presenting a sworn, written accusation to the district court. The accusation may be initiated by any taxpayer, grand jury, county attorney, or district attorney for the county in which the officer was elected or appointed, or by the attorney general.

Amended by Chapter 38, 1993 General Session

77-6-3 Form of accusation.

The accusation shall state the grounds for removal in ordinary and concise language.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-6-4 Presentation of accusation -- Service on defendant.

(1) When the accusation is initiated by:

(a) a grand jury, the foreperson shall present the accusation to the court in the presence of the grand jurors which shall be filed with the clerk; or

(b) a taxpayer, the county attorney, district attorney, or the attorney general, any of these persons shall present the accusation to the presiding judge of the district court for filing with the clerk.

(a) Except when the accusation is initiated by the county attorney or district attorney, the court shall furnish a copy of the accusation to the county attorney or, if within a prosecution district, the district attorney who shall investigate and may prosecute the accusation.
(b) If the accusation is against the county or district attorney, the court shall furnish a copy of the accusation to the Office of the Attorney General, who shall investigate and may prosecute the accusation.
(c) If prosecution is pursued, the county attorney, district attorney, or attorney general shall serve a copy of the accusation on the defendant with a summons which requires the defendant to appear before the district court of the county in which the county attorney or district attorney serves and to answer the accusation.

(3) The time fixed for appearance may not be less than 10 days from the date of service of summons. The service of the accusation, summons, and the return of service shall be made in the manner provided by law for service of civil process.

Amended by Chapter 67, 1996 General Session

77-6-5 Appearance -- Procedure on default.

The defendant shall appear at the time appointed and answer the accusation, unless for some sufficient cause the court assigns another time for that purpose. If the defendant does not appear, the court may proceed to hear and determine the accusation in the defendant's absence.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-6-6 Answer -- Objections for insufficiency.

The defendant may orally answer the accusation either by admitting or denying it in open court, or the defendant may, in writing, object to the legal sufficiency of the accusation. If the objection to the sufficiency of the accusation is sustained, the accusation shall be dismissed. If the objection is overruled, the defendant shall immediately admit or deny the accusation.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-6-7 Trial on denial or refusal to answer -- Procedure.

If the defendant denies the accusation or refuses to answer or appear, the court shall proceed to try the accusation. The rights of the parties and procedures used shall be the same as in any civil proceeding.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-6-8 Judgment of removal -- Service on defendant.

If the defendant admits the accusation or is convicted, the court shall enter judgment against the defendant directing the defendant be removed from office and setting forth the causes of removal. The judgment of removal shall immediately be served upon the defendant.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-6-9 Appeal -- Suspension from office.

From a judgment of removal an appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court in the same manner as from a judgment in a civil action; but from entry of judgment and until the judgment is reversed, the defendant shall be suspended from the defendant's office. Pending the appeal, the office shall be filled as in the case of a vacancy.

Arrest, by Whom, and How Made

77-7-1 "Arrest" defined -- Restraint allowed.

An arrest is an actual restraint of the person arrested or submission to custody. The person shall not be subjected to any more restraint than is necessary for arrest and detention.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-7-2 Arrest by peace officers.

A peace officer may make an arrest under authority of a warrant or may, without warrant, arrest a person:

(1)
  (a) for any public offense committed or attempted in the presence of any peace officer; and
  (b) as used in this Subsection (1), "presence" includes all of the physical senses or any device that enhances the acuity, sensitivity, or range of any physical sense, or records the observations of any of the physical senses;

(2) when the peace officer has reasonable cause to believe a felony or a class A misdemeanor has been committed and has reasonable cause to believe that the person arrested has committed it;

(3) when the peace officer has reasonable cause to believe the person has committed a public offense, and there is reasonable cause for believing the person may:
  (a) flee or conceal himself to avoid arrest;
  (b) destroy or conceal evidence of the commission of the offense; or
  (c) injure another person or damage property belonging to another person;

(4) when the peace officer has reasonable cause to believe the person has committed the offense of failure to disclose identity under Section 76-8-301.5; or

(5) when the peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person is an alien:
  (a) subject to a civil removal order issued by an immigration judge;
  (b) regarding whom a civil detainer warrant has been issued by the federal Department of Homeland Security; or
  (c) who has been charged or convicted in another state with one or more aggravated felonies as defined by 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1101(a)(43).

Amended by Chapter 21, 2011 General Session

77-7-3 Temporary detention made by a private individual.

(1) A private individual may temporarily detain another individual:
  (a) for a public offense committed or attempted in the private individual's presence; or

(b) when a felony has been committed and the private individual has reasonable cause to believe the individual who the private individual seeks to temporarily detain has committed the felony.

(2)

(a) A temporary detention under Subsection (1) is lawful only if:

(i) the private individual immediately contacts law enforcement to notify law enforcement of the situation and the temporary detention; and

(ii) the temporary detention lasts only until a law enforcement officer arrives.

(b) A private individual is not required to immediately contact law enforcement as described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) if the private individual knows that another individual has already contacted law enforcement to notify law enforcement of the situation and the temporary detention.

(3) A private individual who in good faith conducts a lawful temporary detention under this section is:

(a) not liable for civil damages or penalties as a result of an act or omission by the private individual in performing the temporary detention unless the private individual was grossly negligent; and

(b) not subject to criminal prosecution for an act or omission by the private individual in performing the temporary detention unless the private individual was criminally negligent.

(4) A private individual may use force while temporarily detaining another individual under this section as described in Section 77-7-7.1.

77-7-4 Magistrate may orally order arrest.

A magistrate may orally require a peace officer to arrest anyone committing or attempting to commit a public offense in the presence of the magistrate, and, in the case of an emergency, when probable cause exists, a magistrate may orally authorize a peace officer to arrest a person for a public offense, and thereafter, as soon as practical, an information shall be filed against the person arrested.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-7-5 Issuance of summons or warrant -- Time and place arrests may be made -- Contents of warrant or summons -- Responsibility for transporting prisoners.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Daytime hours" means the hours after 6 a.m. and before 10 p.m.

(b) "Nighttime hours" means the hours after 10 p.m. and before 6 a.m.

(2) A magistrate may issue a warrant for arrest in lieu of a summons for the appearance of the accused only upon finding:

(a) probable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has committed a public offense; and

(b) under Rule 6 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure and this section that a warrant is necessary to:

(i) prevent risk of injury to a person or property;

(ii) secure the appearance of the accused; or

(iii) protect the public safety and welfare of the community or an individual.

(3) There is a presumption against the issuance of a warrant in lieu of a summons if:

(a) after being booked into jail on conduct that would constitute an offense, the accused was released from jail because the prosecuting attorney did not file an information within the time period required under Rule 9 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure; and
(b) the prosecuting attorney filed an information more than 60 days after the day on which the accused was released from jail.
(4) The presumption described in Subsection (3) may be overcome if:
(a) the accused fails to appear on a served summons;
(b) a summons is unable to be served after good faith efforts; or
(c) the prosecuting attorney establishes good cause for issuing a warrant in lieu of a summons to:
(i) prevent risk of injury to a person or property; or
(ii) protect the public safety and welfare of the community or an individual.
(5) If the offense charged is:
(a) a felony, the arrest upon a warrant may be made at any time of the day or night; or
(b) a misdemeanor, the arrest upon a warrant may be made during nighttime hours only if:
(i) the magistrate has endorsed authorization to do so on the warrant;
(ii) the person to be arrested is upon a public highway, in a public place, or in a place open to or accessible to the public; or
(iii) the person to be arrested is encountered by a peace officer in the regular course of that peace officer's investigation of a criminal offense unrelated to the misdemeanor warrant for arrest.
(6)
(a) If the magistrate determines that the accused must appear in court, the magistrate shall include in the arrest warrant the name of the law enforcement agency in the county or municipality with jurisdiction over the offense charged.
(b)
(i) The law enforcement agency identified by the magistrate under Subsection (6)(a) is responsible for providing inter-county transportation of the defendant, if necessary, from the arresting law enforcement agency to the court site.
(ii) The law enforcement agency named on the warrant may contract with another law enforcement agency to have a defendant transported.
(7) The law enforcement agency identified by the magistrate under Subsection (6)(a) shall indicate to the court within 48 hours of the issuance, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays if a warrant issued in accordance with this section is an extradition warrant.
(8) The law enforcement agency identified by the magistrate under Subsection (6)(a) shall report any changes to the status of a warrant issued in accordance with this section to the Bureau of Criminal Identification.

Amended by Chapter 314, 2025 General Session

77-7-6 Manner of making arrest.
(1) The person making the arrest shall inform the person being arrested of his intention, cause, and authority to arrest him. Such notice shall not be required when:
(a) there is reason to believe the notice will endanger the life or safety of the officer or another person or will likely enable the party being arrested to escape;
(b) the person being arrested is actually engaged in the commission of, or an attempt to commit, an offense; or
(c) the person being arrested is pursued immediately after the commission of an offense or an escape.

(a) If a deaf or hard of hearing person, as defined in Subsection 78B-1-201(2), is arrested for an alleged violation of a criminal law, including a local ordinance, the arresting officer shall assess the communicative abilities of the deaf or hard of hearing person and conduct this notification, and any further notifications of rights, warnings, interrogations, or taking of statements, in a manner that accurately and effectively communicates with the deaf or hard of hearing person, including qualified interpreters, lip reading, pen and paper, typewriters, computers with print-out capability, and telecommunications devices for the deaf.
(b) Compliance with this Subsection (2) is a factor to be considered by any court when evaluating whether statements of a deaf or hard of hearing person were made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently.

Amended by Chapter 43, 2017 General Session

77-7-7 Use of force in making an arrest by a law enforcement officer.
(1) If a person is being arrested and flees or forcibly resists after being informed of the intention to make the arrest, the law enforcement officer making the arrest may use reasonable force to effect the arrest.
(2) Deadly force in making an arrest may be used only as provided in Section 76-2-404.

Amended by Chapter 199, 2025 General Session

77-7-7.1 Use of force in making a temporary detention by a private individual.
(1) If a private individual temporarily detains another individual under Section 77-7-3, the private individual may use reasonable force to effect the temporary detention of the other individual if:
(a) the other individual who is being temporarily detained flees or forcibly resists after being informed of the private individual's intention to make the temporary detention; and
(b) the private individual's temporary detention of the other individual is lawful.
(2) Deadly force in making a temporary detention may only be used if the situation justifies the use of deadly force under Section 76-2-402, 76-2-405, or 76-2-407.

77-7-8 Forcible entry to conduct search or make arrest -- Conditions requiring a warrant.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Daytime hours" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-7-5.
(b) "Forcibly enter" means entering any premises by force.
(c) "Knock" means to knock with reasonably strong force in a quick succession of three or more contacts with a door or other point of entry into a building that would allow the occupant to reasonably hear the peace officer's demand for entry.
(d) "Knock and announce warrant" means a lawful search warrant that authorizes entry into a building after knocking and demanding entry onto a premises described in Subsection (2).
(e) "Nighttime hours" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-7-5.
(f) "Peace officer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-1-102.
(g) "Premises" means any building, room, conveyance, compartment, or other enclosure.
(h)
(i) "Supervisory official" means a command-level officer.

(ii) "Supervisory official" includes a sheriff, a head of a law enforcement agency, and a supervisory enforcement officer equivalent to a sergeant rank or higher.

(2)

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Subsection (2), a peace officer when making a lawful arrest, or serving a knock and announce warrant, may forcibly enter a premises:

(i) if the individual to be arrested is located within the premises; or

(ii) if there is probable cause to believe that the individual is located within the premises.

(b)

(i) Subject to Subsection (3), before forcibly entering a premises as described in Subsection (2)(a), a peace officer shall:

(A) wear readily identifiable markings, including a badge and vest or clothing with a distinguishing label or other writing that identifies the individual as a law enforcement officer;

(B) audibly identify himself or herself as a law enforcement officer;

(C) knock and demand admission more than once;

(D) wait a reasonable period of time for an occupant to admit access after knocking and demanding admission; and

(E) explain the purpose for which admission is desired.

(3)

(a) A peace officer does not need to:

(i) comply with the requirements of Subsection (2)(b)(i)(B), (2)(b)(i)(C), (2)(b)(i)(D), and (2)(b)(i)(E) before forcibly entering a premises:

(A) under the exceptions in Section 77-7-6or 77-7-8.1;

(B) where there is probable cause to believe exigent circumstances exist due to the destruction of evidence; or

(C) where there is reasonable suspicion to believe exigent circumstances exist due to the physical safety of a peace officer or individual inside or in near proximity to the premises; or

(ii) comply with the requirements described in Subsections (2)(b)(i)(C) and (2)(b)(i)(D) before forcibly entering a premises if the officer, or another peace officer:

(A) has been near the premises for an extended amount of time and a reasonable person would conclude that an individual on the premises knows or should know that a peace officer is present;

(B) has demanded admission and announced an intent to enter the premises more than once; and

(C) has complied with Subsections (2)(b)(i)(A), (2)(b)(i)(B), and (2)(b)(i)(E).

(b) If a peace officer forcibly enters a premises under Subsection (3)(a)(i), the peace officer shall identify himself or herself and state the purpose for entering the premises as soon as practicable after entering the premises.

(4) The peace officer may use only that force that is reasonable and necessary to forcibly enter a premises under this section.

(5) Subject to Subsection (6), if the premises to be entered under Subsection (2)(a) appears to be a private residence or the peace officer knows the premises is a private residence, and if there is no consent to enter or there are no exigent circumstances, the peace officer shall, before entering the premises:

(a) obtain an arrest or search warrant if the premises is the residence of the individual to be arrested; or

(b) obtain a search warrant if the building is a private residence, but not the residence of the individual whose arrest is sought.

(6) Before seeking a warrant from a judge or magistrate under Subsection (2)(a), a supervisory official shall, using the peace officer's affidavit:

(a) independently perform an assessment to evaluate the totality of the circumstances;

(b) ensure reasonable intelligence gathering efforts have been made;

(c) ensure a threat assessment was completed on the individual or premises to be searched; and

(d) determine either that there is a sufficient basis to support seeking a warrant or require that the peace officer continue evidence gathering efforts.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a peace officer may not forcibly enter a premises based solely on:

(a) the alleged possession or use of a controlled substance under Section 58-37-8; or

(b) the alleged possession of drug paraphernalia as defined in Section 58-37a-3.

(8) All arrest warrants are subject to the conditions described in Subsection 77-7-5(2).

(9) A peace officer shall serve a knock and announce warrant during daytime hours unless a peace officer has requested, and a judge or magistrate has approved, for the warrant to be served during nighttime hours.

Amended by Chapter 133, 2024 General Session

77-7-8.1 Forcible entry to conduct a search -- Conditions requiring a warrant -- No-knock warrants.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Daytime hours" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-7-5.

(b) "Forcibly enter" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-7-8.

(c) "Nighttime hours" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-7-5.

(d) "No-knock warrant" means a lawful search warrant that authorizes entry onto a premises without notice to any occupant on the premises at the time of service.

(e) "Supervisory official" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-7-8.

(f) "Peace officer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-1-102.

(g) "Premises" means any property, building, room, conveyance, compartment, or other enclosure.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, a peace officer serving a lawful no-knock warrant may forcibly enter a premises to be searched without notice.

(3) Before seeking a no-knock warrant from a judge or magistrate under Subsection (2), a supervisory official shall, using the peace officer's affidavit:

(a) independently perform an assessment to evaluate the totality of the circumstances;

(b) ensure reasonable intelligence gathering efforts have been made;

(c) ensure a threat assessment was completed on the individual or premises to be searched; and

(d) determine either that there is a sufficient basis to support seeking a warrant or require that the peace officer continue evidence gathering efforts.

(4)

(a) The affidavit for a no-knock warrant shall describe:

(i) why the peace officer believes the suspect is unable to be detained or the residence searched using less invasive or less confrontational methods;

(ii) investigative activities that have been undertaken to ensure that the correct premises is identified and that potential harm to innocent third parties, the premises, and officers may be minimized; or

(iii) the present or imminent threat of serious bodily injury or death to an individual inside, outside, or in near proximity to the premises.

(b) A peace officer shall serve a no-knock warrant during daytime hours unless a peace officer's affidavit states sufficient grounds to believe a search is necessary during nighttime hours.

(5) An officer shall wear readily identifiable markings when serving a no-knock warrant, including a badge and vest or clothing with a distinguishing label or other writing that shows that the individual is a peace officer.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a peace officer may not request a no-knock warrant if the warrant is solely for a misdemeanor investigation.

Amended by Chapter 133, 2024 General Session

77-7-8.5 Use of tactical groups -- Reporting requirements.

(1) As used in this section:

(a)

(i) "Reportable incident" means:

(A) the deployment of a tactical group; or

(B) law enforcement officers who serve a search warrant after using forcible entry.

(ii) "Reportable incident" does not mean a forced cell entry at a corrections facility.

(b) "Tactical group" means a special unit, within a law enforcement agency, specifically trained and equipped to respond to critical, high-risk situations.

(2) On and after January 1, 2015, every state, county, municipal, or other law enforcement agency shall annually on or before April 30 report to the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice the following information for the previous calendar year:

(a) whether the law enforcement agency conducted one or more reportable incidents;

(b) the following information regarding each reportable incident:

(i) the organizational title of the agency, task force, or tactical group deployed;

(ii) the city, county, and zip code of the location where the reportable incident occurred;

(iii) the reason for the deployment;

(iv) the type of warrant obtained, if any;

(v) if a threat assessment was completed;

(vi) if a warrant was obtained, the name of the judge or magistrate who authorized the warrant;

(vii) the number of arrests made, if any;

(viii) if any evidence was seized;

(ix) if any property was seized, other than property that was seized as evidence;

(x) if a forcible entry was made;

(xi) if a firearm was discharged by a law enforcement officer, and, if so, approximately how many shots were fired by each officer;

(xii) if a weapon was brandished by a person other than the law enforcement officers;

(xiii) if a weapon was used by a person against the law enforcement officers and, if a firearm was used, the number or approximate number of shots fired by the person;

(xiv) the identity of any law enforcement agencies that participated or provided resources for the deployment;

(xv) if a person or domestic animal was injured or killed by a law enforcement officer; and

(xvi) if a law enforcement officer was injured or killed; and

(c) the number of arrest warrants served that required a forced entry as provided by Section 77-7-8 and were not served in conjunction with a search warrant that resulted in a reportable incident.

(3) If a warrant is served by a multijurisdictional team of law enforcement officers, the reporting requirement in this section shall be the responsibility of the commanding agency or governing authority of the multijurisdictional team.
(4) The Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice shall develop a standardized format that each law enforcement agency shall use in reporting the data required in Subsection (2).
(5) A law enforcement agency shall:
(a) compile the data described in Subsection (2) for each year as a report in the format required under Subsection (4); and
(b) submit the report to:
(i) the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice; and
(ii) the local governing body of the jurisdiction served by the law enforcement agency.
(6)
(a) The Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice shall summarize the yearly reports of law enforcement agencies submitted under Subsection (2).
(b) Before August 1 of each year, the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice shall submit a report of the summaries described in Subsection (6)(a) to:
(i) the attorney general;
(ii) the speaker of the House of Representatives, for referral to any house standing or interim committees with oversight of law enforcement and criminal justice;
(iii) the president of the Senate, for referral to any senate standing or interim committees with oversight of law enforcement and criminal justice; and
(iv) each law enforcement agency.
(c) The report described in Subsection (6)(b) shall be published on the Utah Open Government website, open.utah.gov, before August 15 of each year.
(7)
(a) If a law enforcement agency fails to comply with the reporting requirements listed in Subsection (2), the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice shall contact the law enforcement agency and request that the agency comply with the required reporting provisions.
(b) If a law enforcement agency fails to comply with the reporting requirements listed in Subsection (2) within 30 days after being contacted by the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice with a request to comply, the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice shall report the noncompliance to the attorney general, the speaker of the House of Representatives, and the president of the Senate.

77-7-12 Detaining persons suspected of shoplifting or library theft -- Persons authorized.

(1) A peace officer, merchant, or merchant's employee, servant, or agent who has reasonable grounds to believe that goods held or displayed for sale by the merchant have been taken by a person with intent to steal may, for the purpose of investigating the unlawful act and attempting to effect a recovery of the goods, detain the person in a reasonable manner for a reasonable length of time.

(2) A peace officer or employee of a library may detain a person for the purposes and under the limits of Subsection (1) if there are reasonable grounds to believe the person violated Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 8, Library Theft.

Amended by Chapter 245, 1987 General Session

77-7-13 Arrest without warrant by peace officer -- Reasonable grounds, what constitutes -- Exemption from civil or criminal liability.

(1) A peace officer may arrest, without warrant, any person the officer has reasonable ground to believe has committed a theft under Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 8, Library Theft, or of goods held or displayed for sale.

(2) A charge of theft made to a peace officer under Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 8, Library Theft, by an employee of a library, or by a merchant, merchant's employee, servant, or agent constitutes a reasonable ground for arrest, and the peace officer is relieved from any civil or criminal liability.

Amended by Chapter 282, 1998 General Session

77-7-14 Person causing detention or arrest of person suspected of shoplifting or library theft -- Civil and criminal immunity.

(1) A peace officer, merchant, or merchant's employee, servant, or agent who causes the detention of a person as provided in Section 77-7-12, or who causes the arrest of a person for theft of goods held or displayed for sale, is not criminally or civilly liable where there is reasonable and probable cause to believe the person detained or arrested committed a theft of goods held or displayed for sale.

(2) A peace officer or employee of a library who causes a detention or arrest of a person under Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 8, Library Theft, is not criminally or civilly liable where there is reasonable and probable cause to believe that the person committed a theft of library materials.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-7-15 Authority of peace officer to stop and question suspect -- Grounds.

A peace officer may stop any individual in a public place when the officer has a reasonable suspicion to believe the individual has committed or is in the act of committing or is attempting to commit a public offense and may demand the individual's name, address, date of birth, and an explanation of the individual's actions.

Amended by Chapter 411, 2019 General Session

77-7-16 Authority of peace officer to frisk suspect for dangerous weapon -- Grounds.

A peace officer who has stopped a person temporarily for questioning may frisk the person for a dangerous weapon if the peace officer reasonably believes the peace officer or any other person is in danger.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-7-17 Authority of peace officer to take possession of weapons.

A peace officer who finds a dangerous weapon pursuant to a frisk may take and keep it until the completion of the questioning, at which time the peace officer shall either return it if lawfully possessed, or arrest such person.

77-7-17.5 Physical body cavity search policy -- Requirements.

(1) As used in this section:
  (a) "Arrestee" means an individual who is in the custody of law enforcement for an offense for which the individual has not been convicted.
  (b)
    (i) "Body cavity" includes the anus, rectum, vagina, esophagus, or stomach.
    (ii) "Body cavity" does not include the mouth, ear canal, or nasal passages.
  (c)
    (i) "Physical body cavity search" means a search of a body cavity of an individual that involves touching the individual with:
      (A) any part of another individual's body; or
      (B) an instrument or other item.
    (ii) "Physical body cavity search" does not include a clothed, pat down search.
(2) Each county jail shall adopt and implement a policy that meets the minimum standards contained in a model policy established by the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice.
(3) The model policy shall specify the minimum standards and procedures to be followed by the county jail when a body cavity search is performed on an arrestee within the county jail's jurisdiction, including:
  (a) stating with specificity the circumstances under which a body cavity search may be performed on an arrestee;
  (b) designating who may authorize the performance of a body cavity search;
  (c) designating specific jail staff or medical personnel who may perform a body cavity search;
  (d) requiring any nonmedically trained jail staff who may perform a body cavity search to be trained on safe practices for conducting a body cavity search;
  (e) requiring documentation of each body cavity search performed at the correctional facility, including:

(i) the identity of the arrestee searched;
(ii) the date, time, and location of the search;
(iii) the identity of the individual performing the search;
(iv) the identity of the individual authorizing the search;
(v) a description of the body areas searched and the procedures followed in performing the search; and
(vi) the circumstances necessitating the body cavity search; and
(f) designating rules and procedures to be followed, by authorized staff, when performing a body cavity search that account for the health and privacy interests of the arrestee, including:
(i) the location where a body cavity search must be performed;
(ii) the gender requirements of the individuals who perform or observe the search in relation to the gender of the arrestee being searched; and
(iii) methods to ensure the body cavity search is conducted with the minimal amount of touching necessary to effectuate the purposes of the search.
(4) A county jail's body cavity search policy is a public record.

77-7-18 Citation on misdemeanor or infraction charge.
(1) Any person subject to arrest or prosecution on a misdemeanor or infraction charge may be issued and delivered a citation that requires the person to appear at the court of the magistrate with territorial jurisdiction.
(2) The following may issue the citation described in Subsection (1):
(a) a peace officer, in lieu of or in addition to taking the person into custody;
(b) any public official of any county or municipality charged with the enforcement of the law;
(c) a port-of-entry agent as defined in Section 72-1-102;
(d) an animal control officer of a county, municipality, or special service district under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act, who is authorized to provide animal control service; and
(e) a volunteer authorized to issue a citation under Section 41-6a-217.

Amended by Chapter 379, 2018 General Session

77-7-19 Appearance required by citation -- Arrest for failure to appear -- Transfer of cases -- Disposition of fines and costs.
(1) An individual receiving a citation issued pursuant to Section 77-7-18 shall appear in the court designated in the citation on or before the time and date specified in the citation unless:
(a) the citation states that the court will, within five to 14 days, notify the individual of when to appear; or
(b) the individual is permitted to remit the fine and other penalties without a personal appearance in accordance with a uniform fine schedule adopted by the Judicial Council or by court order under Section 77-7-21.
(2) A citation may not require an individual to appear or contact the court sooner than five days or later than 14 days following its issuance.
(3) If the individual cited does not appear before the court as directed by the citation or the court, or pay the fine as allowed by Section 77-7-21, the court may issue a bench warrant for the individual's arrest.
(4)

(a) Clerks and other administrative personnel serving the courts shall identify for the judge any citations over which the court may lack jurisdiction.
(b) Upon determining that the court lacks jurisdiction over a citation, the court shall:
(i) transfer the case to a court with jurisdiction;
(ii) if the court cannot readily identify a court with jurisdiction, dismiss the charges contained in the citation; and
(iii) notify the prosecutor of the transfer or dismissal.
(c) Any fine, fee, or forfeiture collected by a court that lacks jurisdiction shall be:
(i) transferred to the court receiving the case; or
(ii) if the case is dismissed, returned to the defendant.

Amended by Chapter 185, 2020 General Session

77-7-20 Service of citation on defendant -- Filing in court -- Electronic filing -- Contents of citations.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (4), a peace officer or other authorized official who issues a citation pursuant to Section 77-7-18 shall give the citation to the individual cited and shall, within five business days, electronically file the data from Subsections (2)(a) through (2)(h) with the court specified in the citation. The data transmission shall use the court's electronic filing interface. A nonconforming filing is not effective.
(2) The citation issued under authority of this chapter shall contain the following data:
(a) the name, address, and phone number of the court before which the individual is to appear;
(b) the name and date of birth of the individual cited;
(c) a brief description of the offense charged;
(d) the date, time, and place at which the offense is alleged to have occurred;
(e) the date on which the citation was issued;
(f) the name of the peace officer or official who issued the citation, and the name of the arresting individual if a private party made the arrest and the citation was issued in lieu of taking the arrested individual before a magistrate;
(g) the time and date on or date range during which the individual is to appear or a statement that the court will notify the individual of the time to appear;
(h) whether the offense is a domestic violence offense;
(i) language informing the individual that the individual may be eligible for deferred prosecution under Section 77-2-4.2, including a link to a website with information regarding deferred prosecution; and
(j) a notice containing substantially the following language:

READ CAREFULLY

This citation is not an information and will not be used as an information without your consent. If an information is filed you will be provided a copy by the court. You MUST appear in court on or before the time set in this citation or as directed by the court. IF YOU FAIL TO APPEAR, THE COURT MAY ISSUE A WARRANT FOR YOUR ARREST.

(3) By electronically filing the data with the court, the peace officer or official affirms to the court that:
(a) the citation or information, including the summons and complaint, was served upon the defendant in accordance with the law;
(b) the defendant committed the offense described in the served documents; and

(c) the court to which the defendant was directed to appear has jurisdiction over the offense charged.

(4)

(a) If a citing law enforcement officer is not reasonably able to access the efiling system, the citation need not be filed electronically if being filed with a justice court.

(b) The court may accept an electronic filing received after five business days if:

(i) the defendant consents to the filing; and

(ii) the court finds the interests of justice would be best served by accepting the filing.

Amended by Chapter 393, 2023 General Session

77-7-21 Proceeding on citation -- Voluntarily remitting a fine -- Parent signature required -- Information, when required.

(1)

(a) A citation filed with the court may, with the consent of the defendant, serve in lieu of an information to which the defendant may plead guilty or no contest to the charge or charges listed and be sentenced accordingly.

(b) If provided by the uniform fine schedule described in Section 76-3-301.5, or with the court's approval, an individual may remit the fine and other penalties without a personal appearance before the court in any case charging a class B misdemeanor or lower offense, unless the charge is:

(i) a domestic violence offense as defined in Section 77-36-1;

(ii) a violation of Section 41-6a-502, driving under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or a combination of both or with specified or unsafe blood alcohol concentration;

(iii) a violation of Section 41-6a-517, driving with any measurable controlled substance in the body;

(iv) a violation of a local ordinance similar to the offenses described in Subsections (1)(b)(i) through (iii); or

(v) a violation that appears to:

(A) affect a victim, as defined in Section 77-38b-102; or

(B) require restitution, as defined in Section 77-38b-102.

(c) The remittal of fines and other penalties shall be entered as a conviction and treated the same as if the accused pleaded no contest.

(d) If the person cited is under 18 years old, the court shall promptly mail a copy or notice of the citation to the address as shown on the citation, to the attention of the parent or guardian of the defendant.

(2) If the individual pleads not guilty to the offense charged, further proceedings shall be held in accordance with the Rules of Criminal Procedure and all other applicable provisions of this code.

77-7-23 Delivery of an individual arrested without a warrant to a magistrate -- Transfer to a court with jurisdiction -- Transfer of duties -- Violation as misdemeanor.

(1)

(i)

(A) If an arrest is made without a warrant by a peace officer, the individual who has been arrested shall be taken by a peace officer without unnecessary delay to the magistrate in the district court, the precinct of the county, or the municipality in which the offense occurred, except under Subsection (2).

(B) An information stating the charge against the arrested individual shall be made before the magistrate.

(ii) If a private individual temporarily detains another individual under Section 77-7-3, a peace officer shall determine whether to release or arrest the individual who has been detained, and if the peace officer arrests the individual who has been detained, the peace officer shall follow the procedures described in Subsection (1)(a)(i).

(b) If the justice court judge of the precinct or municipality or the district court judge is not available, the arrested individual shall be taken before the magistrate within the same county who is nearest to the scene of the alleged offense or nearest to the jail under Subsection (2), who may act as committing magistrate for arraigning the accused individual, setting bail, or issuing warrants.

(a) If the arrested individual under Subsection (1) must be transported from jail to a magistrate, the individual may be taken before the magistrate nearest to the jail rather than the magistrate specified in Subsection (1) for arraignment, setting bail, or issuing warrants.

(b) The case shall then be transferred to the court having jurisdiction.

(3) If a jail accepts custody of an individual arrested under Subsection (1), the duties under this section of the peace officer who makes the arrest are transferred to the jail and the jail's personnel.

(4) This section does not confer jurisdiction upon a court unless otherwise provided by law.

(5) A violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor.

77-7-24 Notice to appear in court -- Contents -- Promise to comply -- Signing -- Release from custody -- Official misconduct.

(1) If a person who is arrested for a violation of Title 41, Chapter 6a, Traffic Code, that is punishable as a misdemeanor is immediately taken before a magistrate as provided under Section 77-7-23, the peace officer shall prepare, in triplicate or more copies, a written notice to appear in court containing:

(a) the name and address of the person;

(b) the number, if any, of the person's driver license;

(c) the license plate number of the person's vehicle;

(d) the offense charged; and

(e) the time and place the person shall appear in court.

(2) The time specified in the notice to appear must be at least five days after the arrest of the person unless the person demands an earlier hearing.

(3) The place specified in the notice to appear shall be made before a magistrate of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the alleged violation occurred.

(4)

(a) In order to secure release as provided in this section, the arrested person shall promise to appear in court by signing at least one copy of the written notice prepared by the arresting officer.

(b) The arresting peace officer shall immediately:

(i) deliver a copy of the notice to the person promising to appear; and
(ii) release the person arrested from custody.
(5) A peace officer violating any of the provisions of this section shall be:
(a) guilty of misconduct in office; and
(b) subject to removal from office.

77-7-25 Keeping of records -- Making and forwarding of abstract upon conviction or forfeiture of bail -- Form and contents -- Official misconduct.

(1) A magistrate or judge of a court shall keep a full record of each case in which a person is charged with:
(a) a violation of this chapter; or
(b) any other law regulating the operation of a motor vehicle on the highway.
(2)
(a) Within five days after the conviction or forfeiture of bail of a person on a charge of violating a provision of this chapter or other law regulating the operation of a motor vehicle on the highway, the magistrate of the court or clerk of the court in which the conviction was made or bail was forfeited shall prepare and immediately forward to the department an abstract of the record of the court covering the case in which the person was convicted or forfeited bail.
(b) The abstract shall be certified by the person required to prepare the abstract to be true and correct.
(c) A report under this Subsection (2) is not required for a conviction involving the illegal parking or standing of a vehicle.
(3) The abstract must be made in a manner specified by the Driver License Division and shall include the:
(a) name and address of the party charged;
(b) number, if any, of the person's driver license;
(c) license plate number of the vehicle involved;
(d) nature of the offense;
(e) date of hearing;
(f) plea;
(g) judgment, or whether bail was forfeited; and
(h) amount of the fine or forfeiture.
(4) A court shall provide a copy of the report to the Driver License Division on the conviction of a person of manslaughter or other felony in which a vehicle was used.
(5) The failure, refusal, or neglect of a judicial officer to comply with the requirements of this section constitutes misconduct in office and is grounds for removal.
(6) The Driver License Division shall classify and disclose all abstracts received in accordance with Section 53-3-109.

77-7-26 Improper disposition or cancellation of notice to appear or traffic citation -- Official misconduct -- Misdemeanor.

(1)
(a) It is unlawful and official misconduct for any peace officer or other officer or public employee to dispose of:

(i) a notice to appear; or
(ii) traffic citation.
(b) The provisions of Subsection (1)(a) do not apply if the disposal is done with the consent of the magistrate before whom the arrested person was to appear.
(2) A person who cancels or solicits the cancellation of a notice to appear or a traffic citation, in any manner other than as provided by law, is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

77-7-27 Quotas for arrest, citation prohibited.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Law enforcement agency" means an entity of the state, or a political subdivision of the state, that exists primarily to prevent and detect crime and enforce criminal laws, statutes, or ordinances.
(b) "Law enforcement quota" means any requirement or minimum standard regarding the number or percentage of citations or arrests made by a law enforcement officer.
(2) A political subdivision or law enforcement agency employing a peace officer may not require or direct that a peace officer meet a law enforcement quota.
(3) Subsection (2) does not prohibit a political subdivision or law enforcement agency from including a peace officer's engagement with the community or enforcement activity as part of an overall determination of the peace officer's performance.

Chapter 7a
Law Enforcement Use of Body-worn Cameras

77-7a-102 Body-worn cameras -- Written policies and procedures.
(1) Any law enforcement agency that uses body-worn cameras shall have a written policy governing the use of body-worn cameras that is consistent with the provisions of this chapter.
(2)
(a) Any written policy regarding the use of body-worn cameras by a law enforcement agency shall, at a minimum:
(i) comply with and include the requirements in this chapter; and
(ii) address the security, storage, and maintenance of data collected from body-worn cameras.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection 77-7a-104(11), this chapter does not prohibit a law enforcement agency from adopting body-worn camera policies that are more expansive than the minimum guidelines provided in this chapter.
(3) This chapter does not require an officer to jeopardize the safety of the public, other law enforcement officers, or himself or herself in order to activate or deactivate a body-worn camera.

Amended by Chapter 415, 2017 General Session

77-7a-103 Definitions.
(1)

(a) "Body-worn camera" means a video recording device that is carried by, or worn on the body of, a law enforcement officer and that is capable of recording the operations of the officer.
(b) "Body-worn camera" does not include a dashboard mounted camera or a camera intended to record clandestine investigation activities.
(2) "Law enforcement agency" means any public agency having general police power and charged with making arrests in connection with enforcement of the criminal statutes and ordinances of this state or any political subdivision.
(3) "Law enforcement encounter" means:
(a) an enforcement stop;
(b) a dispatched call;
(c) a field interrogation or interview;
(d) use of force;
(e) execution of a warrant;
(f) a traffic stop, including:
(i) a traffic violation;
(ii) stranded motorist assistance; and
(iii) any crime interdiction stop; or
(g) any other contact that becomes adversarial after the initial contact in a situation that would not otherwise require recording.

77-7a-104 Activation and use of body-worn cameras.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Health care facility" means the same as that term is defined in Section 78B-3-403.
(b) "Health care provider" means the same as that term is defined in Section 78B-3-403.
(c) "Hospital" means the same as that term is defined in Section 78B-3-403.
(d) "Human service program" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-101.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (5), an officer using a body-worn camera:
(a) shall verify that the equipment is properly functioning as is reasonably within the officer's ability;
(b) shall report any malfunctioning equipment to the officer's supervisor if:
(i) the body-worn camera issued to the officer is not functioning properly upon initial inspection; or
(ii) the officer determines that the officer's body-worn camera is not functioning properly at any time while the officer is on duty;
(c) shall wear the body-worn camera so that it is clearly visible to the individual being recorded;
(d) shall activate the body-worn camera prior to any law enforcement encounter, or as soon as reasonably possible;
(e) shall record in an uninterrupted manner until after the conclusion of a law enforcement encounter, except as an interruption of a recording is allowed under this section;
(f) shall, when going on duty and off duty, record the officer's name, identification number, and the current time and date, unless the information is already available due to the functionality of the body-worn camera;
(g) shall, if the body-worn camera was present during a law enforcement encounter, document the presence of the body-worn camera in any report or other official record of a contact;
(h) except as provided in Subsection (2)(i), when the body-worn camera has been activated during the officer's direct participation in a law enforcement encounter, keep the body-worn camera activated until the officer's direct participation in the law enforcement encounter is complete;

(i) may deactivate the body-worn camera:

(i) to consult with a supervisor or another officer;

(ii) during a significant period of inactivity;

(iii) during a conversation with a sensitive victim of crime, a witness of a crime, or an individual who wishes to report or discuss criminal activity if:

(A) the individual who is the subject of the recording requests that the officer deactivate the officer's body-worn camera; and

(B) the officer believes that the value of the information outweighs the value of the potential recording and records the request by the individual to deactivate the body-worn camera; or

(iv) during a conversation with a victim of a domestic violence offense as defined in Section 77-36-1, or a sexual offense, as described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses, other than Section 76-5-417, 76-5-418, 76-5-419, or 76-5-420 if:

(A) the officer is conducting an evidence-based lethality assessment;

(B) the victim or the officer believes that deactivating the body-worn camera recording will encourage complete and accurate information sharing by the victim, or is necessary to protect the safety or identity of the victim; and

(C) the officer's body-worn camera is reactivated as soon as reasonably possible after the evidence-based lethality assessment is complete;

(j) shall, if the officer deactivates or fails to activate the body-worn camera in violation of this section, document in a written report the reason for deactivating or for failing to activate the body-worn camera; and

(k) may not activate a body-worn camera in a hospital, health care facility, human service program, or the clinic of a health care provider, except during a law enforcement encounter, and with notice under Section 77-7a-105.

(3) A violation of this section may not serve as the sole basis to dismiss a criminal case or charge.

(4) This section does not preclude a law enforcement agency from establishing internal agency policies for an officer's failure to comply with the requirements of this section.

(5) Subsections (2)(c), (d), (e), (g), (h), and (j) do not apply to an officer who:

(a) is assigned to a narcotics unit or task force that is engaged primarily in narcotics investigations; or

(b) is engaged in an undercover operation.

77-7a-104.1 Adverse inference jury instruction.

(1) As used in this section, "adverse inference instruction" means an instruction that:

(a) is provided to a jury in accordance with Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rule 19; and

(b) directs the jury that an officer's failure to comply with a requirement of Section 77-7a-104 may give rise to an adverse inference against the officer.

(2)

(a) A court presiding over a jury trial may provide an adverse inference instruction if the defendant seeking the adverse inference instruction establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(i) an officer intentionally or, with reckless disregard of a requirement of Section 77-7a-104, failed to comply with a requirement of Section 77-7a-104; and
(ii) the officer's failure to comply with the requirement of Section 77-7a-104 is reasonably likely to affect the outcome of the defendant's trial.
(b) In considering whether to include an adverse inference instruction under Subsection (2)(a), the court shall consider:
(i) the degree of prejudice to the defendant as a result of the officer's failure to comply with Section 77-7a-104;
(ii) the materiality and importance of the missing evidence in relation to the case as a whole;
(iii) the strength of the remaining evidence;
(iv) the degree of fault on behalf of the officer described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) or the law enforcement agency employing the officer, including whether evidence supports that the officer or the law enforcement agency displays a pattern of intentional or reckless disregard of the requirements of Section 77-7a-104; and
(v) other considerations the court determines are relevant to ensure just adjudication and due process.
(c) If a court includes an adverse inference instruction, the prosecutor shall, after the conclusion of the trial, send written notice of the instruction to the law enforcement agency that employed the officer described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) at the time of the offense, including:
(i) the written order or a description of the order allowing for the instruction;
(ii) the language of the instruction; and
(iii) the outcome of the trial.

Enacted by Chapter 404, 2020 General Session

77-7a-105 Notice and privacy.

(1) An officer with a body-worn camera shall give notice, when reasonable under the circumstances:
(a) to:
(i) the occupants of a private residence in which the officer enters and in which a body-worn camera is in use; or
(ii) a health care provider present at a hospital, a health care facility, human service program, or a health care provider's clinic in which the officer enters and in which a body-worn camera is in use; and
(b) either by:
(i) wearing a body-worn camera in a clearly visible manner; or
(ii) giving an audible notice that the officer is using a body-worn camera.
(2) An agency shall make the agency's policies regarding the use of body-worn cameras available to the public, and shall place the policies on the agency's public website when possible.

Amended by Chapter 415, 2017 General Session

77-7a-106 Prohibited Activities.

An officer is prohibited from:
(1) using a body-worn camera for personal use;
(2) making a personal copy of a recording created while on duty or acting in an official capacity as a law enforcement officer;

(3) retaining a recording of any activity or information obtained while on duty or acting in an official capacity as a law enforcement officer;
(4) duplicating or distributing a recording except as authorized by the employing law enforcement agency; and
(5) altering or deleting a recording in violation of this chapter.

Enacted by Chapter 410, 2016 General Session

77-7a-107 Retention and release of recordings.

(1)
(a) Any recording made by an officer while on duty or acting in the officer's official capacity as a law enforcement officer shall be retained in accordance with applicable federal, state, and local laws.
(b) Any recording made by an officer while on duty or acting in the officer's official capacity as a law enforcement officer may not be retained, electronically or otherwise, by a private entity if the private entity has any authority to:
(i) withhold the recording; or
(ii) prevent the political subdivision from accessing or disclosing the recording.
(c)
(i) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(b), a political subdivision may continue to retain a recording in a manner prohibited under Subsection (1)(b) if the political subdivision is under contract with a private entity on May 7, 2018, and the contract includes terms prohibited by Subsection (1)(b).
(ii) A political subdivision may not renew a contract described in Subsection (1)(c)(i).
(d) This Subsection (1) does not prohibit a political subdivision from using a private entity's retention or redaction service if the private entity does not have authority to:
(i) withhold the recording; or
(ii) prevent the political subdivision from accessing or disclosing the recording.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(e), a release of a recording made by an officer while on duty or acting in the officer's official capacity as a law enforcement officer is subject to Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.
(b) Notwithstanding any other provision in state or local law, a person who requests access to a recording may immediately appeal to a district court, as provided in Section 63G-2-404, any denial of access to a recording based solely on Subsection 63G-2-305(10)(b) or (c) due to a pending criminal action that has been filed in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(a) A person may request from a law enforcement agency the release of a recording of an incident between an officer and an individual that results in death or serious bodily injury, or during which an officer fires a weapon.
(b) A person shall make a request under Subsection (3)(a) to the law enforcement agency responsible for creating the recording described in Subsection (3)(a).
(c) The law enforcement agency described in Subsection (3)(b) shall direct a records custodian in possession of a recording described in Subsection (3)(a) to release the recording to the requesting party under Subsection (3)(a) within 10 days after the day on which one of the following occurs:
(i) the prosecuting agency declines to file a criminal action related to the incident;
(ii)

(A) the prosecuting agency files a criminal action related to the incident;
(B) the judge adjudicating the criminal action is notified by the prosecutor or the defendant of the request to release the recording; and
(C) the judge determines that the release of the recording would not have a substantial likelihood of prejudicing a finder of fact in the criminal action; or
(iii) if more than 10 days have passed since the day on which the events described in Subsection (3)(c)(i) or (3)(c)(ii) occurred, the day on which the law enforcement agency described in Subsection (3)(b) receives the request under Subsection (3)(a).
(d) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a) or (c), a law enforcement agency may not, in response to a request under Subsection (3)(a), direct a records custodian in possession of a recording to release the recording if the law enforcement agency is notified that one of the following individuals has requested that the recording not be publicly distributed:
(i) an individual injured in the incident described in Subsection (3)(a); or
(ii) an immediate family member of an individual injured or killed in the incident described in Subsection (3)(a).
(e) The provisions of Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, do not apply to this Subsection (3).

Lineups

77-8-1 Order of magistrate -- Grounds -- Arrested suspect's appearance without order.
(1) A magistrate may issue an order requiring a suspect to appear in a lineup when probable cause exists to believe a crime has been committed and there is reason to believe the suspect committed it.
(2) A suspect who has been arrested, and is in custody, may be required by a peace officer to appear in a lineup without a court order.
(3) Upon application of any suspect and a showing of good cause, a magistrate may order a lineup.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-8-2 Suspect's right to have attorney present.
A suspect has the right to have an attorney present at any lineup. The magistrate or party in charge of the lineup shall notify the suspect of this right. Every suspect unable to employ counsel shall be entitled to representation by an attorney appointed by a magistrate for a lineup either before or after an arrest.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-8-3 Conduct of peace officer.
The peace officers conducting a lineup shall not attempt to influence the identification of any particular suspect.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-8-4 Record of proceedings -- Access by suspect.

The entire lineup procedure shall be recorded, including all conversations between the witnesses and the conducting peace officers. The suspect shall have access to and may make copies of the record and any photographs taken of the suspect or any other persons in connection with the lineup.

Criminal Offense Charges

77-8a-1 Joinder of offenses and of defendants.

(1) Two or more felonies, misdemeanors, or both, may be charged in the same indictment or information if each offense is a separate count and if the offenses charged are:
  (a) based on the same conduct or are otherwise connected together in their commission; or
  (b) alleged to have been part of a common scheme or plan.

  (a) When a felony and misdemeanor are charged together the defendant is afforded a preliminary hearing with respect to both the misdemeanor and felony offenses.
  (b) Two or more defendants may be charged in the same indictment or information if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or conduct or in the same criminal episode.
  (c) The defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately and all of the defendants need not be charged in each count.
  (d) When two or more defendants are jointly charged with any offense, they shall be tried jointly unless the court in its discretion on motion or otherwise orders separate trials consistent with the interests of justice.

(3)
  (a) The court may order two or more indictments or informations or both to be tried together if the offenses, and the defendants, if there is more than one, could have been joined in a single indictment or information.
  (b) The procedure shall be the same as if the prosecution were under a single indictment or information.

(4)
  (a) If the court finds a defendant or the prosecution is prejudiced by a joinder of offenses or defendants in an indictment or information or by a joinder for trial together, the court shall order an election of separate trials of separate counts, grant a severance of defendants, or provide other relief as justice requires.
  (b) A defendant's right to severance of offenses or defendants is waived if the motion is not made at least five days before trial. In ruling on a motion by defendant for severance, the court may order the prosecutor to disclose any statements made by the defendants which the prosecutor intends to introduce in evidence at the trial.

Uniform Act on Fresh Pursuit

77-9-1 Authority of peace officer of another state.

A peace officer of another state or the District of Columbia who enters this state in fresh pursuit and continues in fresh pursuit of a person in order to make an arrest on the ground that the person is reasonably believed to have committed a felony in another state, has the same authority to arrest and hold a person in custody as a peace officer of this state. Fresh pursuit does not require instant action, but pursuit without unreasonable delay.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-9-2 Procedure after arrest.

An officer who has made an arrest pursuant to Section 77-9-1 shall without unnecessary delay take the person arrested before a magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made. The magistrate shall conduct a hearing to determine the lawfulness of the arrest. If the magistrate finds the arrest was lawful, the magistrate may commit the person arrested for a reasonable time or may admit the person to bail pending extradition proceedings.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-9-3 Authority of peace officer of this state beyond normal jurisdiction.

(1) Any peace officer authorized by any governmental entity of this state may exercise a peace officer's authority beyond the limits of such officer's normal jurisdiction as follows:
  (a) when in fresh pursuit of an offender for the purpose of arresting and holding that person in custody or returning the suspect to the jurisdiction where the offense was committed;
  (b) when a public offense is committed in such officer's presence;
  (c) when participating in an investigation of criminal activity which originated in the officer's normal jurisdiction in cooperation with the local authority; or
  (d) when called to assist peace officers of another jurisdiction.

  (a) Any peace officer, prior to taking any action authorized by Subsection (1), shall notify and receive approval of the local law enforcement authority, or if the prior contact is not reasonably possible, notify the local law enforcement authority as soon as reasonably possible.
  (b) Unless specifically requested to aid a peace officer of another jurisdiction or otherwise as provided for by law, no legal responsibility for a peace officer's action outside the peace officer's normal jurisdiction, except as provided in this section, shall attach to the local law enforcement authority.

Grand Jury Reform

77-10a-1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Clerk of the court" means the state court administrator or the state court administrator's designee.

(2) "Managing judge" means the supervising judge when the supervising judge retains authority to manage a grand jury, or the district court judge to whom the supervising judge delegates management of a grand jury.

(3) "Presiding officer" means the presiding officer of the Judicial Council.

(4) "Subject" means a person whose conduct is within the scope of the grand jury's investigation, and that conduct exposes the person to possible criminal prosecution.

(5) "Supervising judge" means the district court judge appointed by the presiding officer to supervise the five-judge grand jury panel.

(6) "Target" means a person regarding whom the attorney for the state, the special prosecutor, or the grand jury has substantial evidence that links that person to the commission of a crime and who could be indicted or charged with that crime.

(7) "Witness" means a person who appears before the grand jury either voluntarily or pursuant to subpoena for the purpose of providing testimony or evidence for the grand jury's use in discharging its responsibilities.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-10a-2 Panel of judges -- Appointment -- Membership -- Ordering of grand jury.

(a) The presiding officer of the Judicial Council shall appoint a panel of five judges from the district courts of the state to hear in secret all persons claiming to have information that would justify the calling of a grand jury. The presiding officer may appoint senior status district court judges to the panel. The presiding officer shall designate one member of the panel as supervising judge to serve at the pleasure of the presiding officer. The panel has the authority of the district court.

(b) To ensure geographical diversity on the panel one judge shall be appointed from the first or second district for a five-year term, one judge shall be appointed from the third district for a four-year term, one judge shall be appointed from the fourth district for a three-year term, one judge shall be appointed from the fifth, sixth, seventh, or eighth districts for a two-year term, and one judge shall be appointed from the third district for a one-year term. Following the first term, all terms on the panel are for five years.

(c) The panel shall schedule hearings in each judicial district at least once every three years and may meet at any location within the state. Three members of the panel constitute a quorum for the transaction of panel business. The panel shall act by the concurrence of a majority of members present and may act through the supervising judge or managing judge. The schedule for the hearings shall be set by the panel and published by the Administrative Office of the Courts. Persons who desire to appear before the panel shall schedule an appointment with the Administrative Office of the Courts at least 10 days in advance. If no appointments are scheduled, the hearing may be canceled. Persons appearing before the panel shall be placed under oath and examined by the judges conducting the hearings. Hearsay evidence may be presented at the hearings only under the same provisions and limitations that apply to preliminary hearings.

(a) If the panel finds good cause to believe a grand jury is necessary, the panel shall make its findings in writing and may order a grand jury to be summoned.
(b) The panel may refer a matter to the attorney general, county attorney, district attorney, or city attorney for investigation and prosecution. The referral shall contain as much of the information presented to the panel as the panel determines relevant. The attorney general, county attorney, district attorney, or city attorney shall report to the panel the results of any investigation and whether the matter will be prosecuted by a prosecutor's information. The report shall be filed with the panel within 120 days after the referral unless the panel provides for a different amount of time. If the panel is not satisfied with the action of the attorney general, county attorney, district attorney, or city attorney, the panel may order a grand jury to be summoned.

(3) When the attorney general, a county attorney, a district attorney, municipal attorney, or a special prosecutor appointed under Section 77-10a-12 certifies in writing to the supervising judge that in his judgment a grand jury is necessary because of criminal activity in the state, the panel shall order a grand jury to be summoned if the panel finds good cause exists.
(4) In determining whether good cause exists under Subsection (3), the panel shall consider, among other factors, whether a grand jury is needed to help maintain public confidence in the impartiality of the criminal justice process.
(5) A written certification under Subsection (3) shall contain a statement that in the prosecutor's judgement a grand jury is necessary, but the certification need not contain any information which if disclosed may create a risk of:
(a) destruction or tainting of evidence;
(b) flight or other conduct by the subject of the investigation to avoid prosecution;
(c) damage to a person's reputation or privacy;
(d) harm to any person; or
(e) a serious impediment to the investigation.
(6) A written certification under Subsection (3) shall be accompanied by a statement of facts in support of the need for a grand jury.
(7) The supervising judge shall seal any written statement of facts submitted under Subsection (6).
(8) The supervising judge may at the time the grand jury is summoned:
(a) order that it be drawn from the state at large as provided in this chapter or from any district within the state; and
(b) retain authority to supervise the grand jury or delegate the supervision of the grand jury to any judge of any district court within the state.
(9) If after the certification under Subsection (3) the panel does not order the summoning of a grand jury or the grand jury does not return an indictment regarding the subject matter of the certification, the prosecuting attorney may release to the public a copy of the written certification if in the prosecutor's judgment the release does not create a risk as described in Subsection (5).

Amended by Chapter 25, 2018 General Session

77-10a-3 Scope of grand jury inquiry.

Any grand jury summoned under this chapter may inquire into and indict for any criminal activity occurring within the state.

Enacted by Chapter 318, 1990 General Session

77-10a-4 Number of members -- Number required for indictment.

(1) Any grand jury summoned under this chapter shall consist of not fewer than nine or more than 15 members.

(2) The grand jury may return an indictment only if at least three-fourths of the members, or the next highest whole number, vote in favor of the indictment.

Enacted by Chapter 318, 1990 General Session

77-10a-5 Grand jurors -- Qualification and selection -- Limits on disclosure.

(1) Grand jurors shall meet the qualifications provided for jurors generally in Title 78B, Chapter 1, Part 1, Jury and Witness Act. Grand jurors shall be selected from the prospective jury list as provided in Section 78B-1-107.

(2) The names of grand jurors are classified as protected records under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.

Amended by Chapter 115, 2017 General Session

77-10a-7 Selection of grand jurors -- Notice -- Examination -- Qualification -- Alternates.

(1) When the supervising judge orders that a grand jury be summoned, the managing judge shall direct the clerk to select at random from the master list the number of names determined by the managing judge to ensure that the required number of grand jurors under this chapter may be qualified to constitute the grand jury.

(2)

(a) The managing judge may direct the clerk to draw additional names from the master list so alternate grand jurors may be designated at the time the grand jury is selected.

(b) Alternate grand jurors shall be drawn in the same manner and have the same qualifications as the regular grand jurors. If impanelled, they are subject to the same challenges, shall take the same oath, and have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the regular jurors.

(3) The clerk shall cause each person drawn for service on the grand jury or as an alternate to be notified of when and where to report for service. Notice may be given by telephone or by service of a summons, either personally or by first class mail addressed to the prospective juror's current residence, place of business, or post office box.

(4) The names of those drawn for service on the grand jury or as alternates and the contents of all grand juror questionnaires may not be made available to the public.

(5)

(a) At the time and place specified for the appearance of the persons summoned to serve as grand jurors and alternates, the managing judge shall examine the prospective grand jurors and alternates. Before accepting any person as a grand juror or alternate, the managing judge shall be satisfied that the person has no bias or prejudice that would prevent the person from fairly and dispassionately considering the matters presented to the grand jury.

(b) When drawn and qualified, the person shall be accepted for service unless, in the managing judge's discretion and on the application of the juror, the managing judge excuses the person from service before the person is sworn.

(6) The managing judge may dismiss the grand jury panel if the managing judge finds there has been a material departure from the methods prescribed for the selecting, drawing, and return of the grand jury, or if there has been an intentional omission by the proper officer to summon one or more of the grand jurors drawn.

(7) When 15 of the persons summoned as grand jurors who are qualified and not excused remain, they are the grand jury. If more than 15 qualified persons remain, their names shall be written by the clerk on separate slips, folded to conceal the names, and placed in a box. The clerk shall then draw 15 slips, and the persons whose names are drawn are the grand jury.

(a) When the number of persons to be designated as alternate grand jurors who are qualified and not excused remain, they are the alternate grand jurors.

(b) If more than the number of alternate grand jurors designated by the managing judge remain, their names shall be written by the clerk on separate slips, folded to conceal the names, and placed in a box. The clerk shall then draw slips until the designated number of alternate grand jurors are selected.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-10a-8 Challenge of prospective grand jurors -- Failure to comply in selection of jurors -- Remedies.

(1) The attorney general, county attorney, district attorney, or special prosecutor may challenge:

(a) the array of grand jurors on the ground the grand jury was not selected, drawn, or summoned in accordance with law; and

(b) an individual juror on the ground the juror is not legally qualified.

(2) Challenges shall be made before the administration of the oath to the jurors and shall be tried to the court managing the grand jury.

(3) A motion to dismiss the indictment may be based on objections to the array or on the lack of legal qualification of an individual juror, if not previously determined upon challenge.

(4) In criminal cases the defendant or attorney for the state may move to dismiss the indictment or stay the proceedings on the ground of substantial failure to comply with this chapter in selecting the grand jury. However, the defendant or attorney for the state must do so before the voir dire examination begins or within seven days after the defendant or attorney for the state discovered or could have discovered the grounds by the exercise of diligence, whichever is earlier, or the motion is considered waived.

(a) Any motion filed under Subsection (1), (3), or (4) must contain a sworn statement of facts which, if true, would constitute a substantial failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter. The moving party may present in support of the motion the testimony of the clerk if the clerk is available, any relevant records and papers used by the clerk that were not made public or otherwise available, and any other relevant evidence.

(b) If the managing judge determines there has been a substantial failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter in selecting the grand jury, the managing judge shall stay the proceedings pending the selection of a grand jury in conformity with this chapter or dismiss the indictment, whichever is appropriate.

(a) The procedures prescribed by this section are the exclusive means by which a party accused of a crime or an attorney for the state may challenge any grand jury on the ground it was not selected in conformity with this chapter.

(b) An indictment may not be dismissed in any case on the ground that one or more members of the grand jury that returned the indictment were not legally qualified if it appears from the record kept by the grand jury that eight or more jurors, after deducting the number not qualified, concurred in finding the indictment.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-10a-9 Oath for grand jurors.

Grand jurors and those selected as alternates shall take the following oath:

"Do you, and each of you, solemnly swear that you will diligently inquire into and make true presentment or indictment of all matters and things as are given you in charge or otherwise come to your knowledge, touching upon your grand jury service; to keep secret the counsel of the state, your fellows, and yourselves; to not present or indict any person through hatred, malice, or ill will; to not leave any person unpresented or unindicted through fear, favor, or affection, nor for any reward, or hope or promise thereof; but in all your investigations, presentments, and indictments to seek and present the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, to the best of your skill and understanding? If so, answer 'I do.'"

Enacted by Chapter 318, 1990 General Session

77-10a-10 Charge of grand jury -- Rights and duties.

Upon impanelment of each grand jury, the judge managing the grand jury shall charge the grand jury and inform it of:

(1) its duty to inquire into offenses against the criminal laws alleged to have been committed within the jurisdiction;
(2) its independent right to call and interrogate witnesses;
(3) its right to request the production of documents or other evidence, including exculpatory evidence;
(4) the necessity of finding credible evidence of each material element of any crime charged before returning an indictment;
(5) the need to be satisfied that clear and convincing evidence exists that tends to show that a crime was committed by the person or persons accused before returning an indictment;
(6) its right to have the prosecutor present it with draft indictments for less serious charges than those originally requested by the prosecutor;
(7) the obligation of secrecy; and
(8) other duties and rights as the court finds advisable.

Enacted by Chapter 318, 1990 General Session

77-10a-11 Jury foreman -- Compensation of grand jurors.

(1) The managing judge shall appoint one of the jurors to be foreman and another to be deputy foreman. The foreman may administer oaths and affirmations and shall sign all indictments. The foreman or another juror designated by the foreman shall keep record of the number of jurors concurring in the finding of every indictment and shall file the record with the clerk of the court. The record may not be made public except on order of the managing judge.
(2) During the absence of the foreman the deputy foreman shall act as foreman.
(3) A grand juror shall be compensated at the same rate as a juror in a state district court for each day of service.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-10a-12 Representation of state -- Appointment and compensation of special prosecutor.

(1) The state may be represented before any grand jury summoned in the state by:
(a) the attorney general or any assistant attorney general;
(b) a county attorney or any deputy county attorney;
(c) a district attorney or any deputy district attorney;
(d) a municipal attorney or any deputy municipal attorney; or
(e) special prosecutors appointed under this chapter and their assistants.
(2) The supervising judge shall determine if a special prosecutor is necessary. A special prosecutor may be appointed only upon good cause shown and after the supervising judge makes a written finding that a conflict of interest exists in the Office of the Attorney General, the office of the county attorney, district attorney, or municipal attorney who would otherwise represent the state before the grand jury.
(3) In selecting a special prosecutor, the supervising judge shall give preference to the attorney general and assistant attorneys general, county attorneys, district attorneys, or municipal attorneys and their deputies.
(4)
(a) The compensation of a special prosecutor appointed under this chapter who is an employee of the Office of the Attorney General, the office of a county attorney, district attorney, or municipal attorney is only the current compensation received in that office.
(b) The compensation for an appointed special prosecutor who is not an employee of a prosecutorial office under Subsection (4)(a) shall be comparable to the compensation of a deputy or assistant attorney general having similar experience to that of the special prosecutor.
(5) The attorney general, county attorney, district attorney, or municipal attorney may elect to have a special prosecutor appointed by the supervising judge at the expense of the governmental entity supporting the electing prosecutor. Upon receipt of written notice from the prosecutor of that election, the supervising judge shall appoint a special prosecutor in accordance with this section. The electing prosecutor's supporting governmental entity shall reimburse the state for expenses incurred in appointment and compensation of the special prosecutor.

Amended by Chapter 258, 2015 General Session

77-10a-13 Location -- Who may be present -- Witnesses -- Witnesses who are subjects -- Evidence -- Contempt -- Notice -- Record of proceedings -- Disclosure.

(1) The managing judge shall designate the place where the grand jury meets. The grand jury may, upon request and with the permission of the managing judge, meet and conduct business any place within the state. Subject to the approval of the managing judge the grand jury shall determine the times at which it meets.
(2)
(a) Attorneys representing the state, special prosecutors appointed under Section 77-10a-12, the witness under examination, interpreters when needed, counsel for a witness, and a court reporter or operator of a recording device to record the proceedings may be present while the grand jury is in session.
(b) No person other than the jurors may be present while the grand jury is deliberating.
(3)
(a) The attorneys representing the state and the special prosecutors may subpoena witnesses to appear before the grand jury and may subpoena evidence in the name of the grand jury without the prior approval or consent of the grand jury or the court. The jury may request that other witnesses or evidence be subpoenaed.

(b) Subpoenas may be issued in the name of the grand jury to any person located within the state and for any evidence located within the state or as otherwise provided by law.
(c) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(d), a subpoena requiring a minor, who is a victim of a crime, to testify before a grand jury may not be served less than 72 hours before the victim is required to testify.
(d) A subpoena may be served upon a minor less than 72 hours before the minor is required to testify if the managing judge makes a factual finding that the minor was intentionally concealed to prevent service or that a shorter period is reasonably necessary to prevent:
(i) a risk to the minor's safety;
(ii) the concealment or removal of the minor from the jurisdiction;
(iii) intimidation or coercion of the minor or a family member of the minor; or
(iv) undue influence on the minor regarding the minor's testimony.
(e) The service requirement in Subsection (3)(c) may be asserted only by or on behalf of the minor and is not a basis for invalidation of the minor's testimony or any indictment issued by the grand jury.
(f) The service requirement of Subsection (3)(d) may be asserted by a parent or legal guardian of the minor on the minor's behalf.
(g) If the managing judge finds it necessary to prevent any of the actions enumerated in Subsections (3)(d)(i) through (iv) or to otherwise protect the minor, the judge may appoint a guardian ad litem to receive service on behalf of the minor, to represent the minor, and to protect the interests of the minor.
(h) If the minor served under Subsection (3)(d) has no parent, legal guardian, or guardian ad litem with whom to confer prior to the grand jury hearing, the managing judge shall appoint legal counsel to represent the minor at the hearing.
(i) For any minor served with a subpoena under this section, attorneys representing the state, or special prosecutors appointed under Section 77-10a-12, shall interview and prepare the minor in the presence of the minor's parent or legal guardian and their attorney, or a guardian ad litem at least 24 hours prior to the time the minor is required to testify. The provisions of this subsection requiring the presence of the minor's parent do not apply if:
(i) the parent is the subject of the grand jury investigation; or
(ii) the parent is engaged in frustrating, or conspires with another to frustrate, the protections and purposes of Subsection (3)(d).
(j) The managing judge may enter any order necessary to secure compliance with any subpoena issued in the name of the grand jury.

(4)
(a) Any witness who appears before the grand jury shall be advised, by the attorney for the state or the special prosecutor, of his right to be represented by counsel.
(b) A witness who is also a subject as defined in Section 77-10a-1 shall, at the time of appearance as a witness, be advised:
(i) of his right to be represented by counsel;
(ii) that he is a subject;
(iii) that he may claim his privilege against self-incrimination; and
(iv) of the general scope of the grand jury's investigation.
(c) A witness who is also a target as defined in Section 77-10a-1 shall, at the time of appearance as a witness, be advised:
(i) of his right to be represented by counsel;
(ii) that he is a target;
(iii) that he may claim his privilege against self-incrimination;

(iv) that the attorney for the state, the special prosecutor, or the grand jury is in possession of substantial evidence linking him to the commission of a crime for which he could be charged; and

(v) of the general nature of that charge and of the evidence that would support the charge.

(d) This Subsection (4) does not require the attorney for the state, the special prosecutor, or the grand jury to disclose to any subject or target the names or identities of witnesses, sources of information, or informants, or disclose information in detail or in a fashion that would jeopardize or compromise any ongoing criminal investigation or endanger any person or the community.

(5)

(a) The grand jury shall receive evidence without regard for the formal rules of evidence, except the grand jury may receive hearsay evidence only under the same provisions and limitations that apply to preliminary hearings.

(b) Any person, including a witness who has previously testified or produced books, records, documents, or other evidence, may present exculpatory evidence to the attorney representing the state or the special prosecutor and request that it be presented to the grand jury, or request to appear personally before the grand jury to testify or present evidence to that body. The attorney for the state or the special prosecutor shall forward the request to the grand jury.

(c) When the attorney for the state or the special prosecutor is personally aware of substantial and competent evidence negating the guilt of a subject or target that might reasonably be expected to lead the grand jury not to indict, the attorney or special prosecutor shall present or otherwise disclose the evidence to the grand jury before the grand jury is asked to indict that person.

(a) The managing judge has the contempt power and authority inherent in the court over which the managing judge presides and as provided by statute.

(b) When a witness in any proceeding before or ancillary to any grand jury appearance refuses to comply with an order from the managing judge to testify or provide other information, including any book, paper, document, record, recording, or other material without having a recognized privilege, the attorney for the state or special prosecutor may apply to the managing judge for an order directing the witness to show cause why the witness should not be held in contempt.

(c) After submission of the application and a hearing at which the witness is entitled to be represented by counsel, the managing judge may hold the witness in contempt and order that the witness be confined, upon a finding that the refusal was not privileged.

(d) A hearing may not be held under this part unless 72 hours' notice is given to the witness who has refused to comply with the order to testify or provide other information, except a witness may be given a shorter notice if the managing judge upon a showing of special need so orders.

(e) Any confinement for refusal to comply with an order to testify or produce other information shall continue until the witness is willing to give the testimony or provide the information. A period of confinement may not exceed the term of the grand jury, including extensions, before which the refusal to comply with the order occurred. In any event the confinement may not exceed one year.

(f) A person confined under this Subsection (6) for refusal to testify or provide other information concerning any transaction, set of transactions, event, or events may not be again confined under this Subsection (6) or for criminal contempt for a subsequent refusal to testify or provide other information concerning the same transaction, set of transactions, event, or events.

(g) Any person confined under this section may be admitted to bail or released in accordance with local procedures pending the determination of an appeal taken by the person from the order of the person's confinement unless the appeal affirmatively appears to be frivolous or taken for delay. Any appeal from an order of confinement under this section shall be disposed of as soon as practicable, pursuant to an expedited schedule and in no event more than 30 days from the filing of the appeal.

(a) All proceedings, except when the grand jury is deliberating or voting, shall be recorded stenographically or by an electronic recording device. An unintentional failure of any recording to reproduce all or any portion of a proceeding does not affect the validity of any prosecution or indictment. The recording or reporter's notes or any transcript prepared from them shall remain in the custody or control of the attorney for the state or the special prosecutor unless otherwise ordered by the managing judge in a particular case.

(b) A grand juror, an interpreter, a court reporter, an operator of a recording device, a typist who transcribes recorded testimony, an attorney for the state or special prosecutor, or any person to whom disclosure is made under the provisions of this section may not disclose matters occurring before the grand jury except as otherwise provided in this section. A knowing violation of this provision may be punished as a contempt of court.

(c) Disclosure otherwise prohibited by this section of matters occurring before the grand jury, other than its deliberations and the vote of any grand juror, may be made to:

(i) an attorney for the state or a special prosecutor for use in the performance of that attorney's duty; and

(ii) government personnel, including those of state, local, and federal entities and agencies, as are considered necessary by the attorney for the state or special prosecutor to assist the attorney in the performance of the attorney's duty to enforce the state's criminal laws.

(d) Any person to whom matters are disclosed under this section may not utilize that grand jury material for any purpose other than assisting the attorney for the state or the special prosecutor in performance of that attorney's duty to enforce the state's criminal laws. An attorney for the state or the special prosecutor shall promptly provide the managing judge with the names of the persons to whom the disclosure has been made and shall certify that the attorney has advised the person of the person's obligation of secrecy under this section.

(e) Disclosure otherwise prohibited by this section of matters occurring before the grand jury may also be made when:

(i) directed by the managing judge or by any court before which the indictment that involves matters occurring before the grand jury that are subject to disclosure is to be tried, preliminary to or in connection with a judicial proceeding;

(ii) permitted by the managing judge at the request of the defendant, upon a showing that grounds may exist for a motion to dismiss the indictment because of matters occurring before the grand jury;

(iii) the disclosure is made by an attorney for the state or the special prosecutor to another state or local grand jury or a federal grand jury;

(iv) permitted by the managing judge at the request of an attorney for the state or the special prosecutor, upon a showing that the matters may disclose a violation of federal criminal law, to an appropriate official of the federal government for the purpose of enforcing federal law; or

(v) showing of special need is made and the managing judge is satisfied that disclosure of the information or matters is essential for the preparation of a defense.

(f) When the matters are transcripts of testimony given by witnesses the state or special prosecutor intends to call in the state's case in chief in any trial upon an indictment returned by the grand jury before which the witnesses testified, the attorney for the state or the special prosecutor shall, no later than 30 days before trial, provide the defendant with access to the transcripts. The attorney for the state or the special prosecutor shall at the same time provide the defendant with access to all exculpatory evidence presented to the grand jury prior to indictment.

(g) When the managing judge orders disclosure of matters occurring before the grand jury, disclosure shall be made in a manner, at a time, and under conditions the managing judge directs.

(h) A petition for disclosure made under Subsection (7)(e)(ii) shall be filed with the managing judge. Unless the hearing is ex parte, the petitioner shall serve written notice upon the attorney for the state or the special prosecutor, the parties to the judicial proceeding if disclosure is sought in connection with the proceeding, and other persons as the managing judge directs. The managing judge shall afford those persons a reasonable opportunity to appear and be heard.

(8) Records, orders, and subpoenas relating to grand jury proceedings shall be kept under seal to the extent and so long as necessary to prevent disclosure of matters occurring before the grand jury other than as provided in this section.

(9) Subject to any right to an open hearing in contempt proceedings, the managing judge shall order a hearing on matters affecting a grand jury proceeding to be closed to the extent necessary to prevent disclosure of matters occurring before a grand jury.

Amended by Chapter 281, 2018 General Session

77-10a-14 Concurrence for indictment -- Proof -- Validity -- Disclosure.

(1) An indictment may be found only upon the concurrence of at least three-fourths, or the next highest whole number, of the grand jurors.

(2) An indictment may not be found unless the grand jurors who vote in favor of the indictment find there is clear and convincing evidence to believe the crime to be charged was committed and the person to be indicted committed the crime. An indictment may not be returned solely on the basis of incompetent hearsay.

(3) To be valid, the indictment shall be signed by the foreman and then returned to the managing judge in open court. The clerk of the managing court shall file the indictment upon receipt.

(a) The managing judge who takes the return of the indictment may direct that the indictment be kept secret until the defendant is in custody or has been released pending trial.

(b) The clerk shall then seal the indictment and, except for transferring the indictment to the appropriate court for trial as provided by this chapter, may not permit any person to disclose the return of the indictment except when necessary for the issuance and execution of a warrant or summons.

Amended by Chapter 30, 2018 General Session

77-10a-15 Return and transfer of indictment.

Immediately upon the return of an indictment the managing judge shall enter an order transferring the indictment to a court with appropriate jurisdiction and proper venue under Section 76-1-202 to try the matter.

Enacted by Chapter 318, 1990 General Session

77-10a-16 Return of indictment -- Warrant of arrest -- Bail.

(1) The managing judge may upon return of an indictment, when the defendant is not in custody, cause a warrant to be issued for the arrest of the defendant charged and shall fix an appropriate bail.
(2) Return of any warrant of arrest shall be in the court to which the indictment is transferred for trial. The court to which the return is made may review bail and any conditions of detention or release.

Enacted by Chapter 318, 1990 General Session

77-10a-17 Grand jury report on noncriminal misconduct -- Action on the report.

(1) A grand jury may upon completion of its original term or each extension, with the concurrence of a majority of its members, submit to the managing judge a report concerning noncriminal misconduct, malfeasance, or misfeasance in office as a basis for a recommendation of removal or disciplinary action against a public officer or employee.
(2) The judge to whom the report is submitted shall examine it and the minutes of the grand jury. The judge shall make an order accepting and filing the report as a public record, but only if the judge is satisfied that it complies with Subsection (1) and:
  (a) the report is based on facts revealed during the grand jury's investigation and is supported by a preponderance of evidence; and
  (b) each person named and any reasonable number of witnesses on the named person's behalf as designated by the named person to the foreman of the grand jury were afforded an opportunity to testify before the grand jury prior to the filing of the report.
(3) An order accepting a report made under this section and the report itself shall be sealed by the managing judge and may not be filed as a public record or be subject to subpoena or otherwise made public until:
  (a) at least 31 days after a copy of the order and report are served on each public officer or employee named and an answer has been filed;
  (b) the time for filing an answer has expired; or
  (c) an appeal is taken or until all rights of review of the public officer or employee named have expired or terminated in an order accepting the report.
(4)
  (a) An order accepting the report may not be entered until 30 days after the delivery of the report to the public officer or body having jurisdiction, responsibility, or authority over each public officer or employee named in the report.
  (b) The managing judge may issue orders it finds necessary and appropriate to prevent unauthorized publication of a report. Unauthorized publication of a report may be punished as contempt of court.
(5)
  (a) A public officer or employee named in a report may file with the clerk a verified answer to the report not later than 20 days after service of the order and report upon the public officer or employee. Upon a showing of good cause, the managing judge may grant the public officer or employee an extension of time to file an answer and may authorize limited publication of the report as necessary to prepare an answer.

(b) The answer shall plainly and concisely state the facts and law constituting the defense of the public officer or employee to the charges in the report. Except for those parts the managing judge determines have been inserted scandalously, prejudiciously, or unnecessarily, the answer becomes an appendix to the report.

(6) Upon the submission of a report made under this section the managing judge shall order the report sealed if the managing judge finds the filing of the report as a public record may prejudice fair consideration of a pending criminal matter. The report may not be subject to subpoena or public inspection during the pendency of the criminal matter except upon order of the managing judge.

(a) When the managing judge to whom a report is submitted is not satisfied that the report complies with the provisions of this section, the managing judge may direct that additional testimony be taken before the same grand jury or the managing judge shall make an order sealing the report.

(b) If the report is sealed, it may not be filed as a public record or be subject to subpoena or otherwise made public until the provisions of this section are met.

(8) A grand jury's term may be extended by the managing judge so additional testimony may be taken or the provisions of this section met.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-10a-18 Grand jury term of service -- Excusing a juror.

(1) A grand jury shall serve until discharged by the managing judge. However, a grand jury may not serve more than 18 months unless the managing judge extends the service of the grand jury, upon determining an extension is in the public interest. The extension may be no longer than a period of six months.

(2) The managing judge may at any time excuse a juror either temporarily or permanently for cause shown. If a juror is excused permanently, the managing judge may impanel another juror in that juror's place.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-10a-19 Compensation for special prosecutors.

(1) Compensation for special prosecutors under this section shall be paid by the Judicial Council. For this purpose, there is appropriated from the General Fund to the Judicial Council $50,000 as a separate line item in the budget of the Judicial Council for the fiscal year 1989-1990. The line item shall be nonlapsing.

(a) If during the fiscal year compensation of special prosecutors under this chapter exceeds $50,000, additional compensation shall be requested as a supplemental appropriation from the Legislature.

(b) If during the fiscal year compensation of special prosecutors under this chapter is less than $50,000, the balance carries over to the next fiscal year, and the appropriation for that next fiscal year for prosecutor compensation shall be no more than the amount necessary to total $50,000 when added to the nonlapsing balance carried over from the prior fiscal year.

Enacted by Chapter 318, 1990 General Session

77-10a-20 Expenses of grand jury -- Appropriation -- Payment by state or county.

(a) The expenses of operation of a grand jury summoned under this chapter shall be paid by the Judicial Council, except under Subsection (2).
(b) Expenses include grand juror fees, rental of a facility, cost of transcripts, payment for a court reporter or electronic recording device, secretarial services, and investigation and recorder staff.
(c) For this purpose, an appropriation of $25,000 is made from the General Fund to the Judicial Council as a separate line item in the budget of the Judicial Council.
(d) Any amount of this appropriation remaining at the end of the fiscal year lapses into the General Fund.

(a) When a grand jury is summoned to investigate an allegation that is determined to be primarily a county-related issue, the expenses of the grand jury shall be paid by the county or counties involved.
(b) The supervising judge shall determine before the grand jury is called if the allegations involve primarily the state or a county or counties for purposes of determining payment of expenses under this section.

(3) The expenses of any grand jury and the compensation for any special prosecutor appointed under this chapter shall be reviewed and approved or disapproved by the clerk of the court under the direction of the managing judge.

Amended by Chapter 372, 1997 General Session

Chapter 11a
Seizure of Property and Contraband

Part 1
General Provisions

77-11a-101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1)
(a) "Agency" means an agency of this state or a political subdivision of this state.
(b) "Agency" includes a law enforcement agency or a multijurisdictional task force.

(2) "Claimant" means:
(a) an owner of property;
(b) an interest holder; or
(c) an individual or entity who asserts a claim to any property for which an agency seeks to forfeit.

(3)
(a) "Computer" means, except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), an electronic, magnetic, optical, electrochemical, or other high-speed data processing device that performs logical, arithmetic, and storage functions.

(b) "Computer" includes any device that is used for the storage of digital or electronic files, flash memory, software, or other electronic information.

(c) "Computer" does not mean a computer server of an Internet or electronic service provider, or the service provider's employee, if used to comply with the requirements under 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2258A.

(4)

(a) "Contraband" means any property, item, or substance that is unlawful to produce or to possess under state or federal law.

(b) "Contraband" includes:

(i) a controlled substance that is possessed, transferred, distributed, or offered for distribution in violation of Title 58, Chapter 37, Utah Controlled Substances Act; or

(ii) a computer that:

Part 2
Seizure of Property and Contraband

77-11a-201 Grounds for seizing property and contraband.

A peace officer may seize property or contraband:
(1) upon a search warrant or administrative warrant that is issued in accordance with the Utah Code and the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure;
(2) when the seizure is incident to an arrest;
(3) when the property seized is the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding under Chapter 11b, Forfeiture of Seized Property; or
(4) when the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the property or contraband:
(a) is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety;
(b) is evidence of an offense;
(c) has been used or was intended to be used to commit an offense; or
(d) is proceeds of an offense.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11a-202 Ownership interest in property or contraband seized by a peace officer.

(1) To disclaim an ownership interest in property at the time of seizure, a person's disclaimer of the property must be knowing and voluntary.
(2) A person may not assert an ownership interest in contraband seized by a peace officer.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11a-203 Procedure after seizure of property or contraband.

(1) If a peace officer seizes property or contraband under Section 77-11a-201, the property and contraband:
  (a) is not recoverable by replevin; and
  (b) is considered in the custody of the agency that employed the peace officer.
(2) If a peace officer seizes property under Section 77-11a-201, the peace officer or the peace officer's employing agency shall provide a receipt to the person from which the property is seized.
(3) The receipt shall describe the:
  (a) property seized;
  (b) date of seizure; and
  (c) name and contact information of the peace officer's employing agency.
(4) In addition to the receipt, the peace officer or agency shall provide the person with:
  (a) information on:
    (i) the time periods for the forfeiture of property; and
    (ii) what happens to property upon a conviction or acquittal of the offense subjecting the property to seizure; and
  (b) a web link or referral to the self-help webpage of the Utah Courts' website for resources that may assist the person in making a claim for the return of seized property.
(5) The agency shall maintain a copy of the receipt provided in accordance with Subsection (2).
(6) If a peace officer seizes property that, at the time of seizure, is held by a pawn or secondhand business in the course of the pawn or secondhand business's business, the provisions of Section 13-32a-109.5 shall apply to the seizure of the property.
(7) If custody of the property is transferred to another agency, the transferring agency shall provide the other agency a copy of the receipt under Subsection (2) and the name of the person from which the property was seized.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11a-204 Custody of seized property and contraband.

(1) An agency with custody of seized property or contraband shall:
  (a) hold the property or contraband in safe custody until the property or contraband is returned or disposed of in accordance with:
    (i) this chapter; and
    (ii) Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence; and
  (b) maintain a record of the property or contraband, including:
    (i) a detailed inventory of all property or contraband seized;
    (ii) the name of the person from which the property or contraband was seized; and
    (iii) the agency's case number.
  (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), no later than 30 days after the day on which a peace officer seizes property in the form of cash or other readily negotiable instruments, an agency shall deposit the property into a separate, restricted, interest-bearing account maintained by the agency solely for the purpose of managing and protecting the property from commingling, loss, or devaluation.

(b) A prosecuting attorney may authorize one or more written extensions of the 30-day period under Subsection (2)(a) if the property needs to maintain the form in which the property was seized for evidentiary purposes or other good cause.

(3) An agency shall:

(a) have written policies for the identification, tracking, management, and safekeeping of seized property and contraband; and

(b) shall have a written policy that prohibits the transfer, sale, or auction of seized property and contraband to an employee of the agency.

Amended by Chapter 150, 2024 General Session

77-11a-205 Transfer or release of seized property to another governmental entity -- Requirements.

(1) Except as provided in Subsections (3)(a) through (c), upon the seizure of property by a peace officer, the property is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of a district court of this state.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), a peace officer, agency, or prosecuting attorney may not directly or indirectly transfer or release seized property to a federal agency or to a governmental entity not created or subject to the laws of this state.

(3) An agency or prosecuting attorney may transfer or release seized property to a federal agency or to a governmental entity not created or subject to the laws of this state if:

(a)

(i) the property is cash or another readily negotiable instrument; and

(ii) the property is evidence in, or subject to, a federal criminal indictment, a federal criminal information, or a federal criminal complaint that is filed before the property is seized;

(b)

(i) the property is not cash or another readily negotiable instrument; and

(ii) the property is evidence in, or subject to, a federal criminal indictment, a federal criminal information, or a federal criminal complaint that is filed before the day on which the agency with custody of the property is required to return the property if no criminal or civil action is filed by the prosecuting attorney or a federal prosecutor in accordance with Section 77-11b-203;

(c)

(i) the property was used in the commission of an offense in another state; and

(ii) an agency of that state requests the transfer of the property before the day on which the agency with custody of the property is required to return the property if no criminal or civil action is filed by the prosecuting attorney or a federal prosecutor in accordance with Section 77-11b-203; or

(d) a district court authorizes, in accordance with Subsection (5), the transfer or release of the property to an agency of another state or a federal agency upon a petition by a prosecuting attorney or a federal prosecutor.

(4)

(a) A prosecuting attorney, or a federal prosecutor, may file a petition in the district court for the transfer or release of seized property.

(b) If a prosecuting attorney, or a federal prosecutor, files a petition under Subsection (4)(a), the petition shall include:

(i) a detailed description of the property seized;

(ii) the location where the property was seized;

(iii) the date the property was seized;

(iv) the case number assigned by the agency; and
(v) a declaration that:
(A) states the basis for relinquishing jurisdiction to a federal agency or an agency of another state;
(B) contains the names and addresses of any known claimant; and
(C) is signed by the prosecuting attorney or federal prosecutor.
(5) A district court may not authorize the transfer or release of seized property under Subsection (3)(d), unless the district court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence:
(a) the property is evidence in, or subject to, a federal criminal indictment, a federal criminal information, or a federal criminal complaint after the property is seized;
(b) the property may only be forfeited under federal law;
(c) forfeiting the property under state law would unreasonably burden the prosecuting attorney or agency; or
(d) the property was subject to a federal criminal investigation before the property was seized.
(6)
(a) Before a district court may order the transfer of seized property in accordance with this section, the court, the prosecuting attorney, or the federal prosecutor shall mail a notice to:
(i) each address contained in the declaration under Subsection (4)(b)(v) to give a claimant the right to be heard with regard to the transfer; and
(ii)
(A) if a federal prosecutor files the petition under Subsection (4), the prosecuting attorney that is representing the agency with custody of the property; or
(B) if a prosecuting attorney files the petition under Subsection (4), the federal prosecutor who will receive the property upon the transfer or release of the property.
(b) If a claimant, or the party under Subsection (6)(a)(i), does not object to the petition to transfer the property within 10 days after the day on which the notice is mailed, the district court shall issue the district court's order in accordance with this section.
(c) If the declaration does not include an address for a claimant, the district court shall delay the district court's order under this section for 20 days to allow time for the claimant to appear and make an objection.
(d)
(i) If a claimant, or a party under Subsection (6)(a)(i), contests a petition to transfer the property to a federal agency or to another governmental entity not created or subject to the laws of this state, the district court shall promptly set the matter for hearing.
(ii) In making a determination under Subsection (5), the district court shall consider evidence regarding hardship, complexity, judicial and law enforcement resources, protections afforded under state and federal law, pending state or federal investigations, and any other relevant matter.
(7) If an agency receives property, money, or other things of value under a federal law that authorizes the sharing or transfer of all or a portion of forfeited property, or the proceeds from the sale of forfeited property, the agency:
(a) shall use the property, money, or other things of value in compliance with federal laws and regulations relating to equitable sharing;
(b) may use the property, money, or other things of value for a law enforcement purpose described in Subsection 77-11b-403(10); and
(c) may not use the property, money, or other thing of value for a law enforcement purpose prohibited in Subsection 77-11b-403(11).

(8) An agency awarded an equitable share of property forfeited by the federal government may use the award money only after approval of the use by the agency's legislative body.
(9) If a district court exercises exclusive jurisdiction over seized property, the district court's exclusive jurisdiction is terminated if the agency with custody of the property returns the property to a claimant under:
(a) Part 3, Return of Seized Property to Claimant; or
(b) Section 77-11b-203.

Amended by Chapter 150, 2024 General Session

Part 3
Return of Seized Property to Claimant

77-11a-301 Return of seized property to claimant -- Generally.
(1)
(a) An agency with custody of seized property, or the prosecuting attorney, may return the property to a claimant if the agency or the prosecuting attorney:
(i) determines that the agency does not need to retain or preserve the property as evidence under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence; or
(ii) seeks to return the property to the claimant because the agency or prosecuting attorney determines that the claimant is an innocent owner or an interest holder.
(b) An agency with custody of seized property, or the prosecuting attorney, may not return property under this Subsection (1) if the property is subject to retention or preservation under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence.
(2) An agency with custody of the seized property, or the prosecuting attorney, shall return the property to a claimant if:
(a) the claimant posts a surety bond or cash with the court in accordance with Section 77-11a-302;
(b) the court orders the return of property to the claimant for hardship purposes under Section 77-11a-303;
(c) a claimant establishes that the claimant is an innocent owner or an interest holder under Section 77-11a-304; or
(d) the court orders property retained as evidence to be returned to the claimant under Section 77-11a-305.
(3)
(a) For a computer determined to be contraband, a court may order the reasonable extraction and return of specifically described personal digital data to the owner of the computer.
(b) The agency shall determine a reasonable cost to extract the data.
(c) At the time of the request to extract the data, the owner of the computer shall pay the agency the cost to extract the data.
(4) If a natural resources officer for the Division of Law Enforcement seizes a vehicle, the Division of Law Enforcement shall return the vehicle to a claimant in accordance with Section 23A-5-201.
(5) If an agency is not required, or is no longer required, to retain or preserve property as evidence under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence, and the agency seeks to return or dispose of the property, the agency shall exercise due diligence in attempting to notify the claimant of the property to advise the claimant that the property is to be returned.

(6)

(a) Before an agency may return seized property to a person claiming ownership of the property, the person shall establish that the person:

(i) is the owner of the property; and

(ii) may lawfully possess the property.

(b) The person shall establish ownership under Subsection (6)(a) by providing to the agency:

(i) identifying proof or documentation of ownership of the property; or

(ii) a notarized statement if proof or documentation is not available.

(c) When seized property is returned to the owner, the owner shall sign a receipt listing in detail the property that is returned.

(d) The agency shall:

(i) retain a copy of the receipt; and

(ii) provide a copy of the receipt to the owner.

Amended by Chapter 80, 2024 General Session

77-11a-302 Return of seized property to claimant by surety bond or cash.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a claimant may obtain the return of seized property by posting a surety bond or cash with the court that is in an amount equal to the current fair market value of the property as determined by the court or a stipulation by the parties.

(2) A court may refuse to order the return of property under Subsection (1) if:

(a) the bond tendered for the property is inadequate;

(b) the property is subject to the retention or preservation requirements under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence;

(c) the property is particularly altered or designed for use in the commission of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Section 77-11b-102; or

(d) the property is contraband.

(3) If a surety bond or cash is posted and the court later determines that the property is forfeited, the court shall order the forfeiture of the surety bond or cash in lieu of the property.

Amended by Chapter 150, 2024 General Session

77-11a-303 Return of seized property subject to forfeiture to claimant for hardship.

(1) A claimant is entitled to the immediate return of seized property for which the agency has filed a notice of intent to forfeit under Section 77-11b-201 if:

(a) the claimant had a possessory interest in the property at the time of seizure;

(b) continued possession by the agency pending a forfeiture proceeding will cause substantial hardship to the claimant, including:

(i) preventing the functioning of a legitimate business;

(ii) preventing any individual from working;

(iii) preventing any child from attending elementary or secondary school;

(iv) preventing or hindering an individual from receiving necessary medical care;

(v) preventing the care of a dependent child or adult who is elderly or disabled;

(vi) leaving an individual homeless; or

(vii) any other condition that the court determines causes a substantial hardship;

(c) the hardship from the continued possession of the property by the agency outweighs the risk that the property will be destroyed, damaged, lost, concealed, or transferred if the property is returned to the claimant during the pendency of the proceeding; and
(d) the determination of substantial hardship under this Subsection (1) is based upon the property's use before the seizure.
(2) A claimant may file a motion or petition for hardship release under this section:
(a) in the court in which forfeiture proceedings have commenced; or
(b) in a district court where there is venue under Section 77-11a-102 if a forfeiture proceeding has not yet commenced.
(3) The motion or petition for hardship release shall be served upon the agency with custody of the property within five days after the day on which the motion or petition is filed.
(4) The court shall:
(a) schedule a hearing on the motion or petition within 14 days after the day on which the motion or petition is filed; and
(b) render a decision on a motion or petition for hardship filed under this section no later than 20 days after the day of the hearing, unless this period is extended by the agreement of both parties or by the court for good cause shown.
(5) If the claimant demonstrates substantial hardship under Subsection (1), the court shall order the agency to immediately return the property to the claimant pending completion of any forfeiture proceeding.
(6) The court may place conditions on the return of the property as the court finds necessary and appropriate to preserve the availability of the property or the property's equivalent for forfeiture.
(7) The hardship release under this section does not apply to:
(a) contraband;
(b) property that is subject to the retention or preservation requirements under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence; or
(c) property that is likely to be used to commit additional offenses if returned to the claimant.

Amended by Chapter 150, 2024 General Session

77-11a-304 Release of seized property to innocent owner or interest holder.
(1)
(a) Except for property required to be retained or preserved under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence, a claimant alleged to be an innocent owner or an interest holder may recover possession of seized property by:
(i) submitting a written request with the seizing agency before the later of:
(A) the commencement of a civil forfeiture proceeding under Section 77-11b-302; or
(B) 30 days after the day on which the property was seized; and
(ii) providing the seizing agency with:
(A) evidence that establishes proof of ownership; and
(B) a brief description of the date, time, and place that the claimant mislaid or relinquished possession of the seized property, or any evidence that the claimant is an innocent owner or an interest holder.
(b) If a seizing agency receives a claim under Subsection (1)(a), the seizing agency shall issue a written response to the claimant within 30 days after the day on which the seizing agency receives the claim.

(c) A response under Subsection (1)(b) from the seizing agency shall indicate whether the claim has been granted, denied on the merits, or denied for failure to provide the information required by Subsection (1)(a)(ii).

(i) If a seizing agency denies a claim for failure to provide the information required by Subsection (1)(a)(ii), the claimant has 15 days after the day on which the claim is denied to submit additional information.

(ii) If a prosecuting attorney has not filed a civil action seeking to forfeit the property under Section 77-11b-302, and a seizing agency has denied a claim for failure to provide the information required by Subsection (1)(a)(ii), the prosecuting attorney may not commence a civil action until:

(A) the claimant has submitted information under Subsection (1)(d)(i); or

(B) the deadline for the claimant to submit information under Subsection (1)(d)(i) has passed.

(e) If a seizing agency fails to issue a written response within 30 days after the day on which the seizing agency receives the response, the seizing agency shall return the property.

(2) If a claim under Subsection (1)(a) is granted, or the property is returned because the seizing agency fails to respond within 30 days, a claimant may not receive any expenses, costs, or attorney fees for the returned property.

(3) A claimant may collect reasonable attorney fees and court costs if:

(a) a claimant filed a claim under Subsection (1)(a);

(b) the seizing agency denies the claim on the merits; and

(c) a court determines that the claimant is an innocent owner or an interest holder in a civil asset forfeiture proceeding.

(4) If a court grants reasonable attorney fees and court costs, the amount of the attorney fees begins to accrue from the day on which the seizing agency denied the claim.

(5) If the court grants reasonable attorney fees and court costs under Subsection (3), the attorney fees and court costs are not subject to the 50% cap under Subsection 77-11b-305(2).

(6) A communication between parties regarding a claim submitted under Subsection (3) and any evidence provided to the parties in connection with a claim is subject to the Utah Rules of Evidence, Rules 408 and 410.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11a-305 Release of seized property to claimant when seized property is retained as evidence.

(1)

(a) A claimant may file a petition with the court for the return of the property that is being retained as evidence in accordance with Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence.

(b) The claimant may file the petition in:

(i) the court in which criminal proceedings have commenced regarding the offense for which the property is being retained as evidence; or

(ii) the district court with venue under Section 77-11a-102 if there are no pending criminal proceedings.

(c) A claimant shall serve a copy of the petition on the prosecuting attorney or federal prosecutor and the agency with custody of the property.

(2)

(a) The court shall provide an opportunity for an expedited hearing.

(b) After the opportunity for an expedited hearing, the court may order that the property is:

(i) returned to the claimant if the claimant is the owner as determined by the court;
(ii) if the offense subjecting the property to seizure results in a conviction, applied directly or by proceeds of the sale of the property toward restitution, fines, or fees owed by the claimant in an amount set by the court;
(iii) converted to a public interest use;
(iv) held for further legal action;
(v) sold at public auction and the proceeds of the sale applied to a public interest use; or
(vi) destroyed.

(3) Before the court can order property be returned to a claimant, the claimant shall establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that the claimant:
(a) is the owner of the property; and
(b) may lawfully possess the property.

(4) If the court orders the property to be returned to the claimant, the agency with custody of the property shall return the property to the claimant as expeditiously as possible.

Part 4
Disposal of Seized Property and Contraband

77-11a-401 Applicability of this part.

The provisions of this part do not apply to property or contraband:

(1) for which an agency has filed a notice of intent to seek forfeiture under Chapter 11b, Forfeiture of Seized Property; or

(2) until the property or contraband is no longer subject to the retention or preservation requirements under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11a-402 Disposition of seized property and contraband -- Return of seized property.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), if a prosecuting attorney determines that seized property no longer needs to be retained as evidence under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence, the prosecuting attorney may:
(a) petition the court to apply the property that is money towards restitution, fines, fees, or monetary judgments owed by the owner of the property;
(b) petition the court for an order transferring ownership of weapons to the agency with custody for the agency's use and disposal in accordance with Section 77-11a-403 if the owner:
(i) is the individual who committed the offense for which the weapon was seized; or
(ii) may not lawfully possess the weapon; or
(c) notify the agency with custody of the property or contraband that:
(i) the property may be returned to the owner in accordance with Section 77-11a-301 if the owner may lawfully possess the property; or
(ii) the contraband may be disposed of or destroyed.

(a) If an individual is charged with a crime that would not make the individual a restricted person under Section 76-11-302 or 76-11-303 or federal law if convicted and the prosecuting attorney determines that any firearm seized from the individual as a result of the offense allegedly committed by the individual no longer needs to be retained for court proceedings, the prosecuting attorney shall notify the agency with custody of the firearm that the firearm shall be returned to the individual if the individual may lawfully possess the firearm.

(b) This Subsection (2) does not prohibit a law enforcement agency from performing a background check on an individual described in Subsection (2)(a) to determine if the individual may lawfully possess firearms.

(3) Before returning a firearm to an individual, the agency returning the firearm shall confirm, through the Bureau of Criminal Identification, that the individual is eligible to lawfully possess and receive firearms.

(4)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), if the agency is unable to locate the owner of the property or the owner is not entitled to lawfully possess the property, the agency may:

(i) apply the property to a public interest use;

(ii) sell the property at public auction and apply the proceeds of the sale to a public interest use; or

(iii) destroy the property if the property is unfit for a public interest use or for sale.

(b) If the property described in Subsection (4)(a) is a firearm, the agency shall dispose of the firearm in accordance with Section 77-11a-403.

(5) Before applying the property or the proceeds from the sale of the property to a public interest use, the agency shall obtain from the legislative body of the agency's jurisdiction:

(a) permission to apply the property or the proceeds to public interest use; and

(b) the designation and approval of the public interest use of the property or the proceeds.

(6) If a peace officer seizes property that at the time of seizure is held by a pawn or secondhand business in the course of the pawn or secondhand business's business, the provisions of Section 13-32a-116 shall apply to the disposition of the property.

77-11a-403 Disposition of firearms no longer needed as evidence.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Confiscated or unclaimed firearm" means a firearm that is subject to disposal by an agency under Section 53-5a-503 or 77-11a-402.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Public Safety created in Section 53-1-103.

(c) "Federally licensed firearms dealer" means a person:

(i) licensed as a dealer under 18 U.S.C. Sec. 923; and

(ii) engaged in the business of selling firearms.

(d) "State-approved dealer" means the federally licensed firearms dealer that contracts with the department under Subsection (4).

(2) An agency shall dispose of a confiscated or unclaimed firearm by:

(a) selling or destroying the confiscated or unclaimed firearm in accordance with Subsection (3);

(b) giving the confiscated or unclaimed firearm to the state-approved dealer to sell or destroy in accordance with Subsection (4) and the agreement between the state-approved dealer and the department; or

(c) after the agency obtains approval from the legislative body of the agency's jurisdiction, transferring the confiscated or unclaimed firearm to the Bureau of Forensic Services, created in Section 53-10-401, or another public forensic laboratory for testing.

(3)

(a) An agency that elects to dispose of a confiscated or unclaimed firearm under Subsection (2)(a) shall:

(i) sell the confiscated or unclaimed firearm to a federally licensed firearms dealer and apply the proceeds from the sale to a public interest use; or

(ii) destroy the firearm, if the agency determines that:

(A) the condition of a confiscated or unclaimed firearm makes the firearm unfit for sale; or

(B) the confiscated or unclaimed firearm is associated with a notorious crime.

(b) Before an agency applies the proceeds of a sale of a confiscated or unclaimed firearm to a public interest use, the agency shall obtain from the legislative body of the agency's jurisdiction:

(i) permission to apply the proceeds of the sale to a public interest use; and

(ii) the designation and approval of the public interest use to which the agency applies the proceeds.

(4)

(i) The department shall, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code, contract with a federally licensed firearms dealer to sell or destroy all confiscated or unclaimed firearms in the state.

(ii) The term of an agreement executed in accordance with this Subsection (4) may not exceed five years.

(iii) Nothing in this Subsection (4) prevents the department from contracting with the same federally licensed firearms dealer more than once.

(b) An agreement executed in accordance with Subsection (4)(a) shall:

(i) address the amount of money that the federally licensed firearms dealer is entitled to retain from the sale of each confiscated or unclaimed firearm as compensation for the federally licensed firearms dealer's performance under the agreement;

(ii) require the federally licensed firearms dealer to donate, on behalf of the state, all proceeds from the sale of a confiscated or unclaimed firearm, except the amount described in Subsection (4)(b)(i), to an organization that:

(A) is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code;

(B) complies with any applicable licensing or registration requirements in the state;

(C) primarily helps the families of law enforcement officers in the state who die in the line of duty;

(D) gives financial assistance to the families of law enforcement officers in the state who die in the line of duty; and

(E) provides other assistance to children of active law enforcement officers, including scholarships;

(iii) state that if the federally licensed firearms dealer determines that the condition of a confiscated or unclaimed firearm makes the firearm unfit for sale, the federally licensed firearms dealer shall destroy the firearm; and

(iv) provide a procedure by which the department can ensure that the federally licensed firearms dealer complies with the provisions of the agreement and applicable law.

Enacted by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-102 Property subject to forfeiture.

(1)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (2), (3), (4), or (5), an agency may seek to forfeit:

(i) seized property that was used to facilitate the commission of an offense that is a violation of federal or state law; or

(ii) seized proceeds.

(b) An agency, or the prosecuting attorney, may not forfeit the seized property of an innocent owner or an interest holder.

(2) If seized property is used to facilitate an offense that is a violation of Section 76-5c-202, 76-5c-203, 76-5c-204, 76-5c-205, 76-5c-206, or 76-5c-305, an agency may not forfeit the property if the forfeiture would constitute a prior restraint on the exercise of an affected party's rights under the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 15, or would otherwise unlawfully interfere with the exercise of the party's rights under the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 15.

(3) If a motor vehicle is used in an offense that is a violation of Section 41-6a-502, 41-6a-517, a local ordinance that complies with the requirements of Subsection 41-6a-510(1), Subsection 76-5-102.1(2)(b), or Section 76-5-207, an agency may not seek forfeiture of the motor vehicle, unless:

(a) the operator of the vehicle has previously been convicted of an offense committed after May 12, 2009, that is:

(i) a felony driving under the influence violation under Section 41-6a-502 or Subsection 76-5-102.1(2)(a);

(ii) a felony violation under Subsection 76-5-102.1(2)(b);

(iii) a violation under Section 76-5-207; or

(iv) operating a motor vehicle with any amount of a controlled substance in an individual's body and causing serious bodily injury or death, as codified before May 4, 2022, Laws of Utah 2021, Chapter 236, Section 1, Subsection 58-37-8(2)(g); or

(b) the operator of the vehicle was driving on a denied, suspended, revoked, or disqualified license and:

(i) the denial, suspension, revocation, or disqualification under Subsection (3)(b)(ii) was imposed because of a violation under:

(A) Section 41-6a-502;

(B) Section 41-6a-517;

(C) a local ordinance that complies with the requirements of Subsection 41-6a-510(1);

(D) Section 41-6a-520.1;

(E) operating a motor vehicle with any amount of a controlled substance in an individual's body and causing serious bodily injury or death, as codified before May 4, 2022, Laws of Utah 2021, Chapter 236, Section 1, Subsection 58-37-8(2)(g);

(F) Section 76-5-102.1;

(G) Section 76-5-207; or

(H) a criminal prohibition as a result of a plea bargain after having been originally charged with violating one or more of the sections or ordinances described in Subsections (3)(b)(i)(A) through (G); or

(ii) the denial, suspension, revocation, or disqualification described in Subsection (3)(b)(i):

(A) is an extension imposed under Subsection 53-3-220(2) of a denial, suspension, revocation, or disqualification; and

(B) the original denial, suspension, revocation, or disqualification was imposed because of a violation described in Subsection (3)(b)(i).

(4) If a peace officer seizes property incident to an arrest solely for possession of a controlled substance under Subsection 58-37-8(2)(a)(i) but not Subsection 58-37-8(2)(b)(i), an agency may not seek to forfeit the property that was seized in accordance with the arrest.
(5) If a peace officer seizes an individual's firearm as the result of an offense under Section 76-11-218, an agency may not seek to forfeit the individual's firearm if the individual may lawfully possess the firearm.

Amended by Chapter 208, 2025 General Session

77-11b-103 Trial by jury.

The right to trial by jury applies to forfeiture proceedings under this chapter.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-104 Venue.

Notwithstanding Title 78B, Chapter 3a, Venue for Civil Actions, or any other provision of law, a person may bring an action or proceeding under this chapter in the judicial district in which:
(1) the property is seized;
(2) any part of the property is found; or
(3) a civil or criminal action could be maintained against a claimant for the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under this chapter.

Amended by Chapter 277, 2025 General Session

77-11b-105 Training requirements.

(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Council" means the Utah Prosecution Council created in Section 67-5a-1.
(b) "Division" means the Peace Officers Standards and Training Division created in Section 53-6-103.
(2) To participate in the program, an agency shall have at least one employee who is certified by the division as an asset forfeiture specialist through the completion of an online asset forfeiture course by the division.
(3) The division shall:
(a) develop an online asset forfeiture specialist course that is available to an agency for certification purposes;
(b) certify an employee of an agency who meets the course requirements to be an asset forfeiture specialist;
(c) recertify, every 36 months, an employee who is designated as an asset forfeiture specialist by an agency;
(d) submit annually a report to the commission no later than April 30 that contains a list of the names of the employees and agencies participating in the certification courses;
(e) review and update the asset forfeiture specialist course each year to comply with state and federal law; and
(f) provide asset forfeiture training to all peace officers in basic training programs.
(4) To be reimbursed for costs under Subsection 77-11b-401(3)(b), a prosecuting agency shall have at least one employee who is certified by the council as an asset forfeiture specialist through the completion of an online asset forfeiture course.

(5) The council shall:
(a) develop an online asset forfeiture specialist course that is available to a prosecuting agency for certification purposes;
(b) certify an employee of a prosecuting agency who meets the course requirements to be an asset forfeiture specialist;
(c) submit annually a report to the commission no later than April 30 that contains a list of the names of the employees and prosecuting agencies participating in certification courses by the council; and
(d) review and update the asset forfeiture specialist course each year to comply with state and federal law.

Part 2
Initiating Forfeiture of Seized Property

77-11b-201 Initiating forfeiture proceedings -- Notice of intent to seek forfeiture.
(1)
(a) If an agency seeks to forfeit seized property, the agency shall serve a notice of intent to seek forfeiture to any known claimant within 30 days after the day on which the property is seized.
(b) The notice of intent to seek forfeiture shall describe:
(i) the date of the seizure;
(ii) the property seized;
(iii) the claimant's rights and obligations under this chapter and Chapter 11a, Seizure of Property and Contraband, including the availability of hardship relief in appropriate circumstances; and
(iv) the statutory basis for the forfeiture, including the judicial proceedings by which the property may be forfeited under this chapter.
(c) The agency shall serve the notice of intent to seek forfeiture by:
(i) certified mail, with a return receipt requested, to the claimant's known address; or
(ii) personal service.
(d) A court may void a forfeiture made without notice under Subsection (1)(a), unless the agency demonstrates:
(i) good cause for the failure to give notice to the claimant; or
(ii) that the claimant had actual notice of the seizure.
(2) Before an agency serves a notice of intent to forfeit seized property under Subsection (1)(a), the agency shall conduct a search of public records applicable to the seized property, including county records or records of the Division of Corporations and Commercial Code, the Division of Motor Vehicles, or other state or federal licensing agencies, in order to obtain the name and address of each interest holder of the property.
(3) If an agency serves a notice of intent to forfeit seized property under Subsection (1)(a), an individual or entity may not alienate, convey, sequester, or attach the property until a court:
(a) issues a final order to dismiss an action under this chapter; or
(b) orders the forfeiture of the property.
(4)

(ii) The agency shall provide the request under Subsection (4)(a)(i) no later than 45 days after the day on which the property is seized.
(b) The written request described in Subsection (4)(a) shall:
(i) describe the property that the agency is seeking to forfeit; and
(ii) include a copy of all reports, supporting documents, and other evidence that is necessary for the prosecuting attorney to determine the legal sufficiency for filing a forfeiture action.
(c) The prosecuting attorney shall:
(i) review the written request described in Subsection (4)(a)(i); and
(ii) within 75 days after the day on which the property is seized, decline or accept, in writing, the agency's written request for the prosecuting attorney to initiate a proceeding to forfeit the property.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-202 Sale of seized property subject to forfeiture.

(a) Except for property that is required to be retained or preserved under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence, the court may order seized property for which a forfeiture proceeding is pending to:
(i) be sold, leased, rented, or operated to satisfy a specified interest of any claimant; or
(ii) preserve the interests of any party on motion of that party.
(b) The court may only enter an order under Subsection (1)(a) after:
(i) written notice to any person known to have an interest in the property has been given; and
(ii) an opportunity for a hearing for any person known to have an interest in the property has occurred.

(2)
(a) A court may order a sale of property under Subsection (1) when:
(i) the property is liable to perish, waste, or be significantly reduced in value; or
(ii) the expenses of maintaining the property are disproportionate to the property's value.
(b) A third party designated by the court shall:
(i) dispose of the property by a commercially reasonable public sale; and
(ii) distribute the proceeds in the following order of priority:
(A) first, for the payment of reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the sale;
(B) second, for the satisfaction of an interest, including an interest of an interest holder, in the order of an interest holder's priority as determined by Title 70A, Uniform Commercial Code; and
(C) third, any balance of the proceeds shall be preserved in the actual or constructive custody of the court, in an interest-bearing account, subject to further proceedings under this chapter.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-203 Mandatory return of seized property subject to forfeiture.

(1) Except for property that is required to be retained or preserved under Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence, an agency shall promptly return seized property to a claimant and the prosecuting attorney may take no further action to forfeit the property, unless within 75 days after the day on which the property is seized:

(a) the prosecuting attorney:

(i) files a criminal indictment or information under Subsection 77-11b-301(3);

(ii) files a petition to transfer the property to another agency in accordance with Section 77-11a-205; or

(iii) files a civil forfeiture complaint under Section 77-11b-302; or

(b) the prosecuting attorney or a federal prosecutor obtains a restraining order under Subsection 77-11b-301(4).

(a) The prosecuting attorney may file a petition to extend the deadline under Subsection (1) by 21 days.

(b) If a prosecuting attorney files a petition under Subsection (2)(a) and the prosecuting attorney provides good cause for extending the deadline, a court shall grant the petition.

(c) The prosecuting attorney may not file more than one petition under this Subsection (2).

(3) If a prosecuting attorney is unable to file a civil forfeiture complaint under Subsection (1)(a)(iii) because a claimant has filed a claim under Section 77-11a-304 and the claimant has an extension to provide additional information on the claim under Subsection 77-11a-304(1)(d), the deadline under Subsection (1) may be extended by 15 days.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-204 Compensation for damaged property subject to forfeiture.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Damage or other injury" does not mean normal depreciation, deterioration, or ordinary wear and tear of the property.

(b) "Wildlife" means the same as that term is defined in Section 23A-1-101.

(2) If seized property is returned under this chapter, a claimant has a civil right of action against an agency for a claim based upon the negligent destruction, loss, or damage or other injury to seized property while in the possession or custody of the agency.

(3) This section does not apply to wildlife or parts of wildlife that are seized for an offense under Title 23A, Wildlife Resources Act.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

Part 3
Forfeiture Proceedings

77-11b-301 Forfeiture of seized property through the criminal case.

(1) As used in this section, "defendant" means a claimant who is criminally prosecuted for the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1).

(2) A prosecuting attorney may seek forfeiture of the defendant's interest in seized property through the criminal case.

(3) If the prosecuting attorney seeks forfeiture of a defendant's interest in seized property through the criminal case, the prosecuting attorney shall state in the information or indictment the grounds for which the agency seeks to forfeit the property.

(i) A court may enter a restraining order or injunction or take any other reasonable action to preserve property being forfeited under this section.
(ii) Before a court's decision under Subsection (4)(a)(i), a known claimant, who can be identified after due diligence, shall be:
(A) provided notice; and
(B) given an opportunity for a hearing.
(iii) A court shall grant an order under Subsection (4)(a)(i) if:
(A) there is a substantial probability that the state will prevail on the issue of forfeiture and that failure to enter the order will result in the property being sold, transferred, destroyed, or removed from the jurisdiction of the court or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture; and
(B) the need to preserve the availability of the property or prevent the property's sale, transfer, destruction, or removal through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship against a claimant against which the order is to be entered.
(b) A court may enter a temporary restraining order ex parte upon application of the prosecuting attorney or a federal prosecutor before or after an information or indictment has been filed, with respect to the property, if the prosecuting attorney or federal prosecutor demonstrates that:
(i) there is probable cause to believe that the property with respect to which the order is sought would, in the event of a conviction, be forfeited under this section; and
(ii) providing notice to a claimant would jeopardize the availability of the property for forfeiture or would jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation.
(c) The temporary order expires no more than 10 days after the day on which the order is entered unless extended for good cause shown or unless the claimant against whom the temporary order is entered consents to an extension.
(d) After service of the temporary order upon a claimant known to the prosecuting attorney or federal prosecutor, the court shall hold a hearing on the order as soon as practicable and before the expiration of the temporary order.
(e) The court is not bound by the Utah Rules of Evidence regarding evidence the court may receive and consider at a hearing under this section.
(5) Upon conviction of a defendant for the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture, a court or jury shall find property forfeited to the state if the prosecuting attorney establishes, beyond a reasonable doubt, that:
(a) the defendant:
(i) committed the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1);
(ii) knew of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1) and allowed the property to be used in furtherance of the offense; or
(iii) acquired the property at the time of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1), or within a reasonable time after the offense occurred; or
(b) there is no likely source for the purchase or acquisition of the property other than the commission of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1).
(6)
(a) Upon conviction of a defendant for the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture and a finding by a court or jury that the property is forfeited, the court shall enter a judgment and order the property forfeited to the state upon the terms stated by the court in the court's order.

(b) Following the entry of an order declaring the property forfeited under Subsection (6)(a), and upon application by the prosecuting attorney, the court may:
(i) enter a restraining order or injunction;
(ii) require the execution of satisfactory performance bonds;
(iii) appoint a receiver, conservator, appraiser, accountant, or trustee; or
(iv) take any other action to protect the state's interest in property ordered forfeited.

(7)
(i) After property is ordered forfeited under this section, the agency shall direct the disposition of the property under Section 77-11b-401.
(ii) If property under Subsection (7)(a)(i) is not transferrable for value to the agency, or the agency is not able to exercise an ownership interest in the property, the property may not revert to the defendant.
(iii) A defendant, or a person acting in concert with or on behalf of the defendant, is not eligible to purchase forfeited property at any sale held by the agency unless approved by the judge.
(b) A court may stay the sale or disposition of the property pending the conclusion of any appeal of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture if the claimant demonstrates that proceeding with the sale or disposition of the property may result in irreparable injury, harm, or loss.

(8) If a defendant is acquitted of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under this section on the merits:
(a)
(i) the property for which forfeiture is sought shall be returned to the claimant; or
(ii) the open market value of the property for the property for which forfeiture is sought shall be awarded to the claimant if the property has been disposed of under Section 77-11b-202; and
(b) any payment requirement under this chapter related to the holding of property shall be paid to the claimant.

(9) Except as provided under Subsection (4) or (12), a claimant claiming an interest in property that is being forfeited under this section:
(a) may not intervene in a trial or appeal of a criminal case involving the forfeiture of the property; and
(b) may not commence an action at law or equity concerning the validity of the claimant's alleged interests in the property subsequent to the filing of an indictment or an information alleging that the property is being forfeited under this section.

(10) A court that has jurisdiction of a case under this part may enter orders under this section without regard to the location of any property that is or has been ordered forfeited under this section.

(11) To facilitate the identification or location of property forfeited under this section, and to facilitate the disposition of a petition for remission or mitigation of forfeiture after the entry of an order declaring property forfeited to the agency, the court may, upon application of the prosecuting attorney, order:
(a) the testimony of any witness relating to the forfeited property be taken by deposition; and
(b) any book, paper, document, record, recording, or other material is produced in accordance with the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

(12)
(a) If a court orders property forfeited under this section, the prosecuting attorney shall publish notice of the intent to dispose of the property.

(b) Service by publication shall be by publication of two notices, in two successive weeks, of the forfeiture proceeding:
(i) in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the seizure of the property occurred; and
(ii) on Utah's Public Legal Notice Website established in Subsection 45-1-101(2)(b).
(c) The prosecuting attorney shall also send written notice to any claimants, other than the defendant, known to the prosecuting attorney to have an interest in the property, at the claimant's known address.

(a) A claimant, other than the defendant, may petition the court for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the claimant's alleged interest in property forfeited under this section.
(b) A claimant shall file a petition within 30 days after the earlier of the day on which a notice is published or the day on which the claimant receives written notice under Subsection (12)(a).

(14) The petition under Subsection (13) shall:
(a) be in writing and signed by the claimant under penalty of perjury;
(b) set forth the nature and extent of the claimant's right, title, or interest in the property, the time and circumstances of the claimant's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property; and
(c) set forth any additional facts supporting the claimant's claim and the relief sought.

(15)
(a) The court shall expedite the trial or hearing under this Subsection (15) to the extent practicable.
(b) Any party may request a jury to decide any genuine issue of material fact.
(c) The court may consolidate a trial or hearing on the petition under Subsection (11)(b) and any other petition filed by a claimant, other than the defendant, under this section.
(d) For a petition under this section, the court shall permit the parties to conduct pretrial discovery in accordance with the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.
(e)
(i) At the trial or hearing, the claimant may testify and present evidence and witnesses on the claimant's own behalf and cross-examine witnesses who appear at the hearing.
(ii) The prosecuting attorney may present evidence and witnesses in rebuttal and in defense of the claim to the property and cross-examine witnesses who appear.
(f) In addition to testimony and evidence presented at the trial or hearing, the court may consider the relevant portion of the record of the criminal case that resulted in the order of forfeiture.
(g) A trial or hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the Utah Rules of Evidence.

(16) The court shall amend the order of forfeiture in accordance with the court's determination, if after the trial or hearing under Subsection (15), the court or jury determines that the claimant has established, by a preponderance of the evidence, that:
(i) the claimant has a legal right, title, or interest in the property; and
(ii) the claimant's right, title, or interest renders the order of forfeiture invalid in whole or in part because the right, title, or interest was vested in the claimant rather than the defendant, or was superior to any right, title, or interest of the defendant at the time of the commission of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1); or
(b) the claimant acquired the right, title, or interest in the property in a bona fide transaction for value, and, at the time of acquisition, the claimant did not know that the property could be forfeited under this chapter.

(17) An agency has clear title to the property and may transfer title to a purchaser or transferee if:

(a) the court issued a disposition on all petitions under Subsection (13) denying any claimant's right, title, or interest to the property; or
(b) a petition was not filed under the timelines provided in Subsection (13)(b).
(18) If the prosecuting attorney seeks to discontinue a forfeiture proceeding under this section and transfer the action to another state or federal agency that has initiated a civil or criminal proceeding involving the same property, the prosecuting attorney shall file a petition to transfer the property in accordance with Section 77-11a-205.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-302 Civil forfeiture of seized property.
(1)
(a) A prosecuting attorney may commence a civil action to forfeit seized property by filing a complaint.
(b) The complaint under Subsection (1)(a) shall describe with reasonable particularity:
(i) the property that the agency is seeking to forfeit;
(ii) the date and place of seizure; and
(iii) the factual allegations that constitute a basis for forfeiture.
(2)
(a) After a complaint is filed, the prosecuting attorney shall serve a copy of the complaint and summons upon each claimant known to the prosecuting attorney within 30 days after the day on which the complaint is filed.
(b) The prosecuting attorney is not required to serve a copy of the complaint or the summons upon a claimant which has disclaimed, in writing, an ownership interest in the seized property.
(c) Service of the complaint and summons shall be by:
(i) personal service;
(ii) certified mail, with a return receipt requested, to the claimant's known address; or
(iii) service by publication, if the prosecuting attorney demonstrates to the court that service cannot reasonably be made by personal service or certified mail.
(d) Service by publication shall be by publication of two notices, in two successive weeks, of the forfeiture proceeding:
(i) in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the seizure occurred; and
(ii) on Utah's Public Legal Notice Website established in Subsection 45-1-101(2)(b).
(e) Service is effective upon the earlier of:
(i) personal service;
(ii) certified mail; or
(iii) publication in accordance with Subsection (2)(d).
(f) The court may extend the period to complete service under this section for an additional 60 days if the prosecuting attorney:
(i) moves the court to extend the period to complete service; and
(ii) has shown good cause for extending service.
(3)
(a) If a prosecuting attorney files a complaint for forfeiture as described in Subsection (1), a claimant may file an answer to the complaint.
(b) If a claimant files an answer in accordance with Subsection (3)(a), the claimant shall file the answer within 30 days after the day on which the complaint is served upon the claimant.
(c) If an agency is seeking to forfeit property that is valued at less than $10,000, the agency shall return the property to the claimant if:

(i)
(A) the prosecuting attorney has filed a forfeiture complaint, and the claimant has filed an answer, in accordance with Subsections (3)(a) and (b); and
(B) the prosecuting attorney has not filed an information or indictment for the offense for which the property is seized within 60 days after the day on which the prosecuting attorney served the claimant with the complaint, or the prosecuting attorney has not timely moved a court and demonstrated reasonable cause for extending the time to file the information or indictment; or
(ii) the information or indictment for the offense for which the property was seized was dismissed and the prosecuting attorney has not refiled the information or indictment within seven days after the day on which the information or indictment was dismissed.
(d) A claimant is not entitled to any expenses, costs, or attorney fees for the return of property to the claimant under Subsection (3)(c).
(i) The time limitations in Subsection (3)(c)(i) may be extended for up to 15 days if a claimant timely seeks to recover possession of seized property in accordance with Section 77-11a-304.
(ii) If the time limitations are extended under Subsection (3)(c)(i), the time limitations in Subsection (3)(c)(i) shall resume immediately upon the agency's or prosecuting attorney's timely denial of a claim under Section 77-11a-304 on the merits.
(4) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a civil action for a forfeiture proceeding is governed by the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.
(5) The court shall:
(a) take all reasonable steps to expedite a civil forfeiture proceeding; and
(b) give a civil forfeiture proceeding the same priority as a criminal case.
(6) A claimant may file an answer to a complaint for civil forfeiture without posting bond with respect to the property that the agency seeks to forfeit.
(7) A court shall grant an agency's request to forfeit property if the prosecuting attorney establishes, by clear and convincing evidence, that:
(a) the claimant:
(i) committed the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1);
(ii) knew of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1)(a) and allowed the property to be used in furtherance of the offense; or
(iii) acquired the property at the time of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1), or within a reasonable time after the offense occurred; or
(b) there is no likely source for the purchase or acquisition of the property other than the commission of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1).
(8) If a court finds that the property is the proceeds of an offense that subjects the proceeds to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1), the prosecuting attorney does not need to prove that the property was the proceeds of a particular exchange or transaction.
(9) If a claimant is acquitted of the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under this section:
(a)
(i) the property for which forfeiture is sought shall be returned to the claimant; or
(ii) the open market value of the property for the property for which forfeiture is sought shall be awarded to the claimant if the property has been disposed of under Section 77-11b-202; and

(b) any payment requirement under this chapter related to the holding of property shall be paid to the claimant.

(10) If the prosecuting attorney seeks to discontinue a forfeiture proceeding under this section and transfer the action to another state or federal agency that has initiated a civil or criminal proceeding involving the same property, the prosecuting attorney shall file a petition to transfer the property in accordance with Section 77-11a-205.

(11) A civil forfeiture action under this section may be converted to a criminal forfeiture action at any time after a prosecuting attorney files a criminal complaint, information, or indictment for the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1).

77-11b-303 Proportionality of forfeiture.

(a) A claimant's interest in property that is used to facilitate an offense may not be forfeited under any provision of state law if the forfeiture is substantially disproportionate to the use of the property in committing or facilitating an offense that is a violation of state law and the value of the property.

(b) If property is used solely in a manner that is merely incidental and not instrumental to the commission or facilitation of an offense, a forfeiture of the property is not proportional.

(a) In determining proportionality, the court shall consider:

(i) the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1);

(ii) what portion of the forfeiture, if any, is remedial in nature;

(iii) the gravity of the conduct for which the claimant is responsible in light of the offense; and

(iv) the value of the property.

(b) If the court finds that the forfeiture is substantially disproportional to an offense for which the claimant is responsible, the court shall reduce or eliminate the forfeiture as the court finds appropriate.

(3) A prosecuting attorney has the burden of demonstrating that a forfeiture is proportional to the offense subjecting the property to forfeiture under Subsection 77-11b-102(1).

(4) In all cases, the court shall decide questions of proportionality.

(5) A forfeiture of any proceeds used to facilitate the commission of an offense that is a violation of federal or state law is proportional.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-304 Postjudgment interest to prevailing party in forfeiture proceeding.

In a proceeding to forfeit currency or other negotiable instruments under this chapter, the court shall award postjudgment interest to a prevailing party on the currency or negotiable instruments at the interest rate established under Section 15-1-4.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-305 Attorney fees and costs for forfeiture proceeding.

(1) In a forfeiture proceeding under this chapter, a court shall award reasonable legal costs and attorney fees to a prevailing claimant.

(2) If a court awards legal costs and attorney fees to a prevailing claimant under Subsection (1), the award may not exceed 50% of the value of the seized property.
(3) A claimant who prevails only in part is entitled to recover reasonable legal costs and attorney fees only on an issue on which the party prevailed.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-306 Limitation on fees for holding seized property subject to forfeiture.

In any civil or criminal proceeding under this part in which a judgment is entered in favor of a claimant, or where a forfeiture proceeding against a claimant is voluntarily dismissed by the prosecuting attorney, an agency may not charge a claimant any fee or cost for holding seized property.

Part 4
Disposal and Allocation of Forfeited Property

77-11b-401 Disposition and allocation of forfeited property.

(1) If a court finds that property is forfeited under this chapter, the court shall order the property forfeited to the state.
(2)
  (a) If the property is not currency, the agency shall authorize a public or otherwise commercially reasonable sale of that property if the property is not required by law to be destroyed and is not harmful to the public.
  (b) If the property forfeited is an alcoholic product as defined in Section 32B-1-102, the property shall be disposed of as follows:
    (i) an alcoholic product shall be sold if the alcoholic product is:
      (A) unadulterated, pure, and free from any crude, unrectified, or impure form of ethylic alcohol, or any other deleterious substance or liquid; and
      (B) otherwise in saleable condition; or
    (ii) an alcoholic product and the alcoholic product's package shall be destroyed if the alcoholic product is impure, adulterated, or otherwise unfit for sale.
  (c) If the property forfeited is a cigarette or other tobacco product as defined in Section 59-14-102, the property shall be destroyed, except that the lawful holder of the trademark rights in the cigarette or tobacco product brand is permitted to inspect the cigarette before the destruction of the cigarette or tobacco product.
  (d) The proceeds of the sale of forfeited property shall remain segregated from other property, equipment, or assets of the agency until transferred in accordance with this chapter.
(3) Before transferring currency and the proceeds or revenue from the sale of the property in accordance with this chapter, the agency shall:
  (a) deduct the agency's direct costs, expense of reporting under Section 77-11b-404, and expense of obtaining and maintaining the property pending a forfeiture proceeding; and
  (b) if the prosecuting agency that employed the prosecuting attorney has met the requirements of Subsection 77-11b-105(3), pay the prosecuting attorney the legal costs associated with the litigation of the forfeiture proceeding, and up to 20% of the value of the forfeited property in attorney fees.

(4) If the forfeiture arises from a violation relating to wildlife resources, the agency shall deposit any remaining currency and the proceeds or revenue from the sale of the property into the Wildlife Resources Account created in Section 23A-3-201.

(5) The agency shall transfer any remaining currency, the proceeds, or revenue from the sale of the property to the commission and deposited into the Criminal Forfeiture Restricted Account created in Section 77-11b-402.

77-11b-402 Criminal Forfeiture Restricted Account.

(1) There is created within the General Fund a restricted account known as the "Criminal Forfeiture Restricted Account."

(2) Except as provided in Section 77-11b-401, the commission shall deposit any proceeds from property forfeited through a forfeiture proceeding under this chapter into the Criminal Forfeiture Restricted Account.

(3) The Legislature shall appropriate money in the Criminal Forfeiture Restricted Account to the commission for the purpose of implementing the State Asset Forfeiture Grant Program described in Section 77-11b-403.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-403 State Asset Forfeiture Grant Program.

(1) There is created the State Asset Forfeiture Grant Program.

(2) The program shall fund crime prevention, crime victim reparations, and law enforcement activities that have the purpose of:

(a) deterring crime by depriving criminals of the profits and proceeds of their illegal activities;

(b) weakening criminal enterprises by removing the instrumentalities of crime;

(c) reducing crimes involving substance abuse by supporting the creation, administration, or operation of drug court programs throughout the state;

(d) encouraging cooperation between agencies;

(e) allowing the costs and expenses of law enforcement to be defrayed by the forfeited proceeds of crime;

(f) increasing the equitability and accountability of the use of forfeited property used to assist agencies in reducing and preventing crime; and

(g) providing aid to victims of criminally injurious conduct, as defined in Section 63M-7-502, who may be eligible for assistance under Title 63M, Chapter 7, Part 5, Utah Office for Victims of Crime.

(3)

(a) Upon appropriation of funds from the Criminal Forfeiture Restricted Account, the commission shall allocate and administer grants to an agency or political subdivision of the state in compliance with this section and Subsection 77-11b-105(2) and to further the program purposes under Subsection (2).

(b) The commission may retain up to 3% of the annual appropriation from the Criminal Forfeiture Restricted Account to pay for administrative costs incurred by the commission, including salary and benefits, equipment, supplies, or travel costs that are directly related to the administration of the program.

(4) An agency or political subdivision shall apply for an award from the program by completing and submitting forms specified by the commission.

(5) In granting the awards, the commission shall ensure that the amount of each award takes into consideration the:

(a) demonstrated needs of the agency or political subdivision;

(b) demonstrated ability of the agency or political subdivision to appropriately use the award;

(c) degree to which the agency's or political subdivision's need is offset through the agency's or political subdivision's participation in federal equitable sharing or through other federal and state grant programs; and

(d) agency's or political subdivision's cooperation with other state and local agencies and task forces.

(6) The commission may award a grant to any agency or political subdivision engaged in activities associated with Subsection (2) even if the agency has not contributed to the fund.

(7) An applying agency or political subdivision shall demonstrate compliance with all reporting and policy requirements applicable under this chapter and under Title 63M, Chapter 7, Criminal Justice and Substance Abuse, in order to qualify as a potential award recipient.

(8)

(a) A recipient agency may only use award money after approval by the agency's legislative body.

(b) The award money is nonlapsing.

(9) A recipient agency or political subdivision shall use an award:

(a) only for law enforcement purposes described in this section, or for victim reparations as described in Subsection (2)(g); and

(b) for the purposes specified by the agency or political subdivision in the agency's or political subdivision's application for the award.

(10) A permissible law enforcement purpose for which award money may be used includes:

(a) controlled substance interdiction and enforcement activities;

(b) drug court programs;

(c) activities calculated to enhance future law enforcement investigations;

(d) law enforcement training that includes:

(i) implementation of the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 7, and that addresses the protection of the individual's right of due process;

(ii) protection of the rights of innocent property holders; and

(iii) the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution regarding states' sovereignty and the states' reserved rights;

(e) law enforcement or detention facilities;

(f) law enforcement operations or equipment that are not routine costs or operational expenses;

(g) drug, gang, or crime prevention education programs that are sponsored in whole or in part by the law enforcement agency or its legislative body;

(h) matching funds for other state or federal law enforcement grants; and

(i) the payment of legal costs, attorney fees, and postjudgment interest in forfeiture actions.

(11) A law enforcement purpose for which award money may not be granted or used includes:

(a) payment of salaries, retirement benefits, or bonuses to any individual;

(b) payment of expenses not related to law enforcement;

(c) uses not specified in the agency's award application;

(d) uses not approved by the agency's legislative body;
(e) payments, transfers, or pass-through funding to an entity other than an agency; or
(f) uses, payments, or expenses that are not within the scope of the agency's functions.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11b-404 Forfeiture reporting requirements.

(1) An agency shall provide all reasonably available data described in Subsection (5):
(a) if transferring the forfeited property resulting from the final disposition of any civil or criminal forfeiture matter to the commission as required under Subsection 77-11b-401(5); or
(b) if the agency has been awarded an equitable share of property forfeited by the federal government.
(2) The commission shall develop a standardized report format that each agency shall use in reporting the data required under this section.
(3) The commission shall annually, on or before April 30, prepare a summary report of the case data submitted by each agency under Subsection (1) during the prior calendar year.
(4)
(a) If an agency does not comply with the reporting requirements under this section, the commission shall contact the agency and request that the agency comply with the required reporting provisions.
(b) If an agency fails to comply with the reporting requirements under this section within 30 days after receiving the request to comply, the commission shall report the noncompliance to the attorney general, the speaker of the House of Representatives, and the president of the Senate.
(5) The data for any civil or criminal forfeiture matter for which final disposition has been made under Subsection (1) shall include:
(a) the agency that conducted the seizure;
(b) the case number or other identification;
(c) the date or dates on which the seizure was conducted;
(d) the number of individuals having a known property interest in each seizure of property;
(e) the type of property seized;
(f) the alleged offense that was the cause for seizure of the property;
(g) whether any criminal charges were filed regarding the alleged offense, and if so, the final disposition of each charge, including the conviction, acquittal, or dismissal, or whether action on a charge is pending;
(h) the type of enforcement action that resulted in the seizure, including an enforcement stop, a search warrant, or an arrest warrant;
(i) whether the forfeiture procedure was civil or criminal;
(j) the value of the property seized, including currency and the estimated market value of any tangible property;
(k) the final disposition of the matter, including whether final disposition was entered by stipulation of the parties, including the amount of property returned to any claimant, by default, by summary judgment, by jury award, or by guilty plea or verdict in a criminal forfeiture;
(l) if the property was forfeited by the federal government, the amount of forfeited money awarded to the agency;
(m) the agency's direct costs, expense of reporting under this section, and expenses for obtaining and maintaining the seized property, as described in Subsection 77-11b-401(3)(a);

(n) the legal costs and attorney fees paid to the prosecuting attorney, as described in Subsection 77-11b-401(3)(b); and

(o) if the property was transferred to a federal agency or any governmental entity not created under and subject to state law:

(i) the date of the transfer;

(ii) the name of the federal agency or entity to which the property was transferred;

(iii) a reference to which reason under Subsection 77-11a-205(3) justified the transfer;

(iv) the court or agency where the forfeiture case was heard;

(v) the date of the order of transfer of the property; and

(vi) the value of the property transferred to the federal agency, including currency and the estimated market value of any tangible property.

(6) An agency shall annually on or before April 30 submit a report for the prior calendar year to the commission that states:

(a) whether the agency received an award from the State Asset Forfeiture Grant Program under Section 77-11b-403 and, if so, the following information for each award:

(i) the amount of the award;

(ii) the date of the award;

(iii) how the award was used or is planned to be used; and

(iv) a statement signed by both the agency's executive officer or designee and by the agency's legal counsel, that:

(A) the agency has complied with all inventory, policy, and reporting requirements under Section 77-11b-403; and

(B) all awards were used for crime reduction or law enforcement purposes as specified in the application and that the awards were used only upon approval by the agency's legislative body; and

(b) whether the agency received any property, money, or other things of value in accordance with federal law as described in Subsection 77-11a-205(7) and, if so, the following information for each piece of property, money, or other thing of value:

(i) the case number or other case identification;

(ii) the value of the award and the property, money, or other things of value received by the agency;

(iii) the date of the award;

(iv) the identity of any federal agency involved in the forfeiture;

(v) how the awarded property has been used or is planned to be used; and

(vi) a statement signed by both the agency's executive officer or designee and by the agency's legal counsel, that the agency has only used the award for crime reduction or law enforcement purposes authorized under Section 77-11b-403, and that the award was used only upon approval by the agency's legislative body.

(7)

(a) On or before July 1 of each year, the commission shall submit notice of the annual reports in Subsection (3) and Subsection (6), in electronic format, to:

(i) the attorney general;

(ii) the speaker of the House of Representatives, for referral to any House standing or interim committees with oversight over law enforcement and criminal justice;

(iii) the president of the Senate, for referral to any Senate standing or interim committees with oversight over law enforcement and criminal justice; and

(iv) each law enforcement agency.

(b) The reports described in Subsection (3) and Subsection (6), as well as the individual case data described in Subsection (1) for the previous calendar year, shall be published on the Utah Open Government website at open.utah.gov on or before July 15 of each year.

Amended by Chapter 291, 2025 General Session

77-11c-102 Retention of evidence as an exhibit.

(1) If evidence is admitted as an exhibit for a court proceeding, the clerk of the court shall:
  (a) retain the evidence; or
  (b) return the evidence to the custody of the agency.
(2) Rule 4-206 of the Utah Code of Judicial Administration applies to evidence that is admitted as an exhibit in a court proceeding.

Enacted by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11c-103 Disposal or return of evidence.

When evidence is no longer subject to retention under this chapter, the agency shall:
(1) return evidence that is property to a claimant under Chapter 11a, Part 3, Return of Seized Property to Claimant; or
(2) dispose of evidence that is property or contraband in accordance with Chapter 11a, Part 4, Disposal of Seized Property and Contraband.

Amended by Chapter 150, 2024 General Session

Part 2
Retention of Evidence for Misdemeanor Offenses

77-11c-201 Retention of evidence of misdemeanor offenses.

(1) An agency shall retain evidence of a misdemeanor offense for the longer of:
  (a) the length of the statute of limitations for the offense if:
    (i) no charges are filed for the offense; or
    (ii) the offense remains unsolved;
  (b) 60 days after the day on which any individual charged with the offense is acquitted if each individual charged with the offense is acquitted;
  (c) 90 days after the day on which any individual is adjudicated for the offense if:
    (i) each individual charged with the offense has been adjudicated;
    (ii) there is no appeal pending in:
      (A) an appellate court for any individual adjudicated for the offense; or
      (B) the district court for a trial de novo for any individual adjudicated by a justice court for the offense; and
    (iii) there is no post-trial motion pending in the court:
      (A) for a new trial under Rule 24 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure;
      (B) to amend or make additional findings of fact under Rule 52(b) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure; or
      (C) for relief under Rule 60(b) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure;
  (d) 30 days after the day on which any individual is adjudicated by a district court for the offense on a trial de novo from the justice court if:
    (i) each individual charged with the offense has been adjudicated by a justice court or a district court on a trial de novo from the justice court; and

(ii) there is no appeal pending in:
(A) an appellate court for any individual adjudicated for the offense; or
(B) the district court for a trial de novo for any individual adjudicated by a justice court for the offense;
(e) 30 days after the day on which an appellate court issues a remittitur for an appeal of any individual adjudicated for the offense if:
(i) the appellate court's final decision upholds the individual's adjudication;
(ii) each individual charged with the offense has been adjudicated; and
(iii) there is no appeal pending in:
(A) an appellate court for any individual adjudicated for the offense; or
(B) the district court for a trial de novo for any individual adjudicated by a justice court for the offense; or
(f) 20 years from the day on which the evidence is collected if the evidence is a sexual assault kit.
(2) Subsection (1) does not require an agency to return or dispose of evidence of a misdemeanor offense.
(3) An agency shall ensure that evidence of a misdemeanor offense is subject to a continuous chain of custody.

Amended by Chapter 164, 2024 General Session

77-11c-202 Requirements for not retaining evidence of a misdemeanor offense -- Preservation of sufficient evidence.
(1) An agency is not required to retain evidence of a misdemeanor offense under Section 77-11c-201 if:
(a)
(i) the agency determines that:
(A) the size, bulk, or physical character of the evidence renders retention impracticable; or
(B) the evidence poses a security or safety problem for the agency;
(ii) the agency preserves sufficient evidence of the property, contraband, item, or substance for use as evidence in a prosecution of the offense;
(iii) the agency sends a written request under Subsection 77-11c-203(1) to the prosecuting attorney for permission to return or dispose of the evidence; and
(iv) the prosecuting attorney grants the agency's written request in accordance with Section 77-11c-203;
(b) a court orders the agency to return evidence that is property to a claimant under Section 77-11a-305; or
(c) the evidence is wildlife or parts of wildlife.
(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), the agency may not dispose of evidence of a misdemeanor offense that is a sexual assault kit before the day on which the time period described in Section 77-11c-201 expires if:
(a) the agency sends a notice to the victim as described in Section 53-10-905; and
(b) the victim submits a written request for retention of the evidence within the 180-day period described in Section 53-10-905.
(3)
(a) Subsection (1) does not require an agency to return or dispose of evidence of a misdemeanor offense.

(b) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply when the return or disposal of evidence of a misdemeanor offense is in compliance with a memorandum of understanding between the agency and the prosecuting attorney.

(4) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a controlled substance, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the controlled substance by:

(a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance for independent testing and use as evidence;

(b) taking a photographic or video record of the controlled substance with identifying case numbers;

(c) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the controlled substance if a chemical analysis was performed by the agency; and

(d) if the controlled substance exceeds 10 pounds, retain at least one pound of the controlled substance that is randomly selected from the controlled substance.

(5) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is drug paraphernalia, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the drug paraphernalia by:

(a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance from the drug paraphernalia for independent testing and use as evidence;

(b) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the drug paraphernalia if a chemical analysis was performed by the agency; and

(c) taking a photographic or video record of the drug paraphernalia with identifying case numbers.

(6) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a computer, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the computer by:

(a) extracting all data from the computer that would be evidence in a prosecution of an individual for the offense; and

(b) taking a photographic or video record of the computer with identifying case numbers.

(7) For any other type of evidence, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the property, contraband, item, or substance bytaking a photographic or video record of the property, contraband, item, or substance with identifying case numbers.

77-11c-203 Request to prosecuting attorney by agency -- Notification to defendant.

(1) If an agency determines that the agency is not required to retain evidence of a misdemeanor offense under Subsection 77-11c-202(1)(a)(i) and the agency seeks to return or dispose of the evidence, the agency shall send a written request to the prosecuting attorney that:

(a) identifies the evidence;

(b) explains the reason for which the agency is not required to retain the evidence under Subsection 77-11c-202(1)(a)(i); and

(c) explains the steps that the agency will take, or has taken, to preserve sufficient evidence of the property, contraband, item, or substance for use as evidence in a prosecution of the offense.

(2) If the prosecuting attorney receives a written request under Subsection (1) and determines that the agency needs to retain the evidence for a prosecution of the misdemeanor offense, the prosecuting attorney shall send a written notification to the agency that explains the reason for which the prosecuting attorney is denying the agency's request.

(3) If the prosecuting attorney receives a written request under Subsection (1) and determines that the agency does not need to retain the evidence for a prosecution of the misdemeanor offense, the prosecuting attorney shall provide written notice of the intent to not retain the evidence that:
  (a) is sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, or a delivery service that provides proof of delivery, to:
    (i) any individual charged with or adjudicated for the offense; and
    (ii) the individual's most recent attorney of record; and
  (b) explains that the individual receiving the notice may submit a written objection to the prosecuting attorney.
(4)
  (a) An individual, who is charged with or adjudicated for the offense, may submit a written objection to the return or disposal of the evidence by the agency no later than 30 days after the day on which the prosecuting attorney receives proof of delivery under Subsection (3).
  (b) If an individual submits a written objection under Subsection (4)(a), the prosecuting attorney shall send a written notification to the agency that explains the reason for which the prosecuting attorney is denying the agency's request.
  (c) If the prosecuting attorney does not receive a written objection within the time period described in Subsection (4)(a), the prosecuting attorney shall send a written notification to the agency that grants the agency's request to return or dispose of the evidence.
(5)
  (a) If a prosecuting attorney receives a written request from an agency seeking to return or dispose of evidence, the prosecuting attorney shall:
    (i) provide a notice of receipt to the agency within 15 days after the day on which the prosecuting attorney receives the written request; and
    (ii) send a written notification to the agency of the prosecuting attorney's decision to deny or grant an agency's written request within 60 days after the day on which the prosecuting attorney receives the agency's written request.
  (b) If an agency does not receive a notice of receipt under Subsection (5)(a)(i) or a written notification under Subsection (5)(a)(ii), the agency may send the written request to the district attorney, county attorney, attorney general, or other prosecuting attorney who directly oversees and supervises the prosecuting attorney.
(6) If a prosecuting attorney denies an agency's written request to return or dispose of evidence under this section, the agency shall retain the evidence in accordance with Section 77-11c-201.
(7) The requirements of this section do not apply when the return or disposal of evidence of a misdemeanor offense is in compliance with a memorandum of understanding between the agency and the prosecuting attorney.

Part 3
Retention of Evidence for Felony Offenses

77-11c-301 Retention of evidence for felony offenses.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (4), an agency shall retain evidence of a felony offense:
  (a) for the longer of:
    (i) the length of the statute of limitations for the felony offense if:

(A) charges are not filed for the felony offense; or
(B) the felony offense remains unsolved;
(ii) the length of time that any individual convicted of the felony offense, or a lesser included offense, remains in custody;
(iii) one year after the day on which all direct appeals of the final judgment for any individual convicted of the felony offense, or a lesser included offense, are exhausted; or
(iv) the length of time that a petition for postconviction relief, and any appeal of the petition, is pending if an individual convicted of the felony offense files the petition within the one-year time period described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii); or
(v) 20 years from the day on which the evidence is collected if the evidence is the contents of a sexual assault kit; or
(b) at the discretion of the prosecuting attorney or federal prosecutor if the prosecution of the felony offense resulted in an acquittal or dismissal.
(2) An agency shall ensure that evidence of a felony offense is subject to a continuous chain of custody.
(3) Subsection (1) does not require an agency to return or dispose of evidence of a felony offense.
(4) An agency shall retain and preserve biological evidence of a violent felony offense in accordance with Part 4, Preservation of Biological Evidence for Violent Felony Offenses.

77-11c-302 Requirements for not retaining evidence of felony offense -- Preservation of sufficient evidence.

(1) An agency is not required to retain evidence of a felony offense under Section 77-11c-301 if:
(a)
(i) the agency determines that:
(A) the size, bulk, or physical character of the evidence renders retention impracticable or the evidence poses a security or safety problem for the agency; and
(B) the evidence no longer has any significant evidentiary value;
(ii) the agency preserves sufficient evidence from the property, contraband, item, or substance for use as evidence in a prosecution of the offense; and
(iii) a prosecuting attorney or a court authorizes the agency to return or dispose of the evidence as described in Subsection 77-11c-303;
(b) a court orders the agency to return evidence that is property to a claimant under Section 77-11a-305; or
(c) the evidence is wildlife or parts of wildlife.
(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), the agency may not dispose of evidence of a felony offense that is a sexual assault kit before the day on which the time period described in Section 77-11c-301 expires if:
(a) the agency sends a notice to the victim in accordance with Section 53-10-905; and
(b) the victim submits a written request for retention of the evidence within the 180-day period described in Section 53-10-905.
(3) Subsection (1) does not require an agency to return or dispose of evidence of a felony offense.
(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to biological evidence of a violent felony offense because an agency is required to retain biological evidence of a violent felony offense as described in Part 4, Preservation of Biological Evidence for Violent Felony Offenses.

(5) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a controlled substance, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the controlled substance by:
(a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance for independent testing and use as evidence;
(b) taking a photographic or video record of the controlled substance with identifying case numbers;
(c) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the controlled substance if a chemical analysis was performed by the agency;
(d) if the controlled substance exceeds 10 pounds, retaining at least one pound of the controlled substance that is randomly selected from the controlled substance; and
(e) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence from the controlled substance as described in Section 77-11c-401.
(6) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is drug paraphernalia, an agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the drug paraphernalia by:
(a) collecting and preserving a sample of the controlled substance from the drug paraphernalia for independent testing and use as evidence;
(b) maintaining a written report of a chemical analysis of the drug paraphernalia if a chemical analysis was performed by the agency;
(c) taking a photographic or video record of the drug paraphernalia with identifying case numbers; and
(d) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence from the drug paraphernalia as described in Section 77-11c-401.
(7) If the evidence described in Subsection (1) is a computer, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the computer by:
(a) extracting all data from the computer that would be evidence in a prosecution of an individual for the offense;
(b) taking a photographic or video record of the computer with identifying case numbers; and
(c) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence from the computer as described in Section 77-11c-401.
(8) For any other type of evidence, the agency shall preserve sufficient evidence under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) of the property, contraband, item, or substance by:
(a) taking a photographic or video record of the property, contraband, item, or substance with identifying case numbers; and
(b) for a violent felony offense, collecting and preserving biological evidence as described in Section 77-11c-401.

Enacted by Chapter 150, 2024 General Session

77-11c-303 Procedure for authorizing the return or disposal of evidence of a felony offense.
(1) If an agency determines that the agency is not required to retain evidence of a felony offense under Subsection 77-11c-302(1)(a)(i), and the agency seeks to return or dispose of the evidence, the agency shall send a written request to the prosecuting attorney that:
(a) identifies the evidence;
(b) explains the reason that the agency is not required to retain the evidence under Subsection 77-11c-302(1)(a)(i); and
(c) explains the steps that the agency will take, or has taken, to preserve sufficient evidence from the property, contraband, item, or substance for use as evidence in a prosecution of the offense.

(2) If a prosecuting attorney receives a written request described in Subsection (1), the prosecuting attorney shall:
  (a) provide a notice of receipt to the agency within 15 days after the day on which the prosecuting attorney receives the written request; and
  (b) send a written notification to the agency of the prosecuting attorney's decision to deny or grant an agency's written request within 60 days after the day on which the prosecuting attorney receives the agency's written request.
(3) If an agency sends a written request described in Subsection (1) to the prosecuting attorney, the agency shall also send the written request by certified mail, return receipt requested, or a delivery service that provides proof of delivery, to:
  (a) any individual who remains in custody based on a conviction related to the evidence;
  (b) the private attorney or public defender of record for each individual described in Subsection (3)(a);
  (c) the entity that employed the private attorney or public defender described in Subsection (3)(b) at the time of the criminal conviction;
  (d) if applicable, the prosecuting agency responsible for the prosecution of each individual described in Subsection (3)(a); and
  (e) the Utah attorney general.
(4)
  (a) If a person described in Subsection (3) receives a written request from an agency seeking to return or dispose of evidence of the felony offense, the person may object to the agency's written request to return or dispose of evidence of the felony offense.
  (b) To object to an agency's request under Subsection (4)(a), the person must send a written objection to the agency and prosecuting attorney within 60 days after the day on which the person receives the agency's written request.
(5) If the prosecuting attorney receives a written request under Subsection (2) and determines that the agency needs to retain the evidence for a prosecution of the felony offense, the prosecuting attorney shall send a written notification to the agency that explains the reason for which the prosecuting attorney is denying the agency's request.
(6) The agency may petition the court for an order granting the agency's request to return or dispose of the evidence of a felony offense if:
  (a) the prosecuting attorney denies the agency's written request or does not respond to an agency's written request within the time periods described in Subsection (2); or
  (b) a person described in Subsection (3) objects to the agency's written request.
(7) The court shall hold a hearing on the agency's petition to determine whether an agency's request to return or dispose of evidence should be granted.
(8) After a hearing on the agency's petition, the court shall grant an agency's request to return or dispose of evidence of a felony offense if the court determines, by a preponderance of the evidence, that:
  (a) the size, bulk, or physical character of the evidence renders retention impracticable or the evidence poses a security or safety problem for the agency;
  (b) the evidence no longer has any significant evidentiary value; and
  (c) the agency will take, or has taken, steps to preserve sufficient evidence from the property, contraband, item, or substance for use as evidence in a prosecution of the offense.
(9) If the court determines that a prosecuting attorney, or a person described in Subsection (3), objects to an agency's request to dispose or return of physical evidence of a felony offense because the physical evidence contains biological evidence that would be evidence in a prosecution of the offense, the court may require the agency to collect and preserve biological evidence from the physical evidence before the agency returns or disposes of the evidence.

(10) If a prosecuting attorney denies the agency's written request or a person described in Subsection (3) objects to the agency's written request, the agency shall retain the evidence of a felony offense as described in Section 77-11c-301 until:

(a) the agency obtains a court order granting the agency's request to return or dispose of the evidence as described in Subsection (8); or

(b) the time periods described in Section 77-11c-301 have expired.

Part 4
Preservation of Biological Evidence for Violent Felony Offenses

77-11c-401 Preservation of biological evidence -- Procedures -- Inventory request.

(1) Except as provided in Section 77-11c-402, an evidence collecting or retaining entity shall preserve biological evidence of a violent felony offense in accordance with this part.

(2) An evidence collecting or retaining entity shall preserve biological evidence of a violent felony offense:

(a) for the longer of:

(i) the length of the statute of limitations for the violent felony offense if:

(A) no charges are filed for the violent felony offense; or

(B) the violent felony offense remains unsolved;

(ii) the length of time that any individual convicted of the violent felony offense, or a lesser included offense, remains in custody;

(iii) one year after the day on which all direct appeals of the judgment for any individual convicted of the violent felony offense, or a lesser included offense, are exhausted;

(iv) the length of time that a petition for postconviction relief, and any appeal of the petition, is pending if an individual convicted of the violent felony offense files the petition within the one-year time period described in Subsection (2)(a)(iii); or

(v) 20 years from the day on which the biological evidence is collected if the biological evidence is the contents of a sexual assault kit; or

(b) at the discretion of the prosecuting attorney or federal prosecutor if the prosecution of the violent felony offense resulted in an acquittal or dismissal.

(3) An evidence collecting or retaining entity shall ensure that biological evidence under Subsection (2) is:

(a) preserved in an amount and manner sufficient to:

(i) develop a DNA profile; and

(ii) if practicable, allow for independent testing of the biological evidence by a defendant; and

(b) subject to a continuous chain of custody.

(4)

(a) Upon request by a defendant under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, the evidence collecting or retaining entity shall prepare an inventory of the biological evidence preserved in connection with the defendant's criminal case.

(b) If the evidence collecting or retaining entity cannot locate biological evidence requested under Subsection (4)(a), the custodian for the entity shall provide a sworn affidavit to the defendant that:
(i) describes the efforts taken to locate the biological evidence; and
(ii) affirms that the biological evidence could not be located.

(5)
(a) If the evidence collecting or retaining entity intends to dispose of biological evidence of a violent felony offense before the day on which the period described in Subsection (2) expires, the evidence collecting or retaining entity shall send a notice of intent to dispose of the biological evidence that:
(i) is sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, or a delivery service that provides proof of delivery, to:
(A) an individual who remains in custody based on a criminal conviction related to the biological evidence;
(B) the private attorney or public defender of record for each individual described in Subsection (5)(a)(i)(A);
(C) the entity that employed the private attorney or public defender at the time of the criminal conviction;
(D) if applicable, the prosecuting agency responsible for the prosecution of each individual described in Subsection (5)(a)(i)(A); and
(E) the Utah attorney general; and
(ii) explains that the party receiving the notice may:
(A) file a motion for testing of biological evidence under Section 78B-9-301 if the party is the individual convicted of the violent felony offense; or
(B) submit a written request that the evidence collecting or retaining entity retain the biological evidence.
(b) An individual must file a motion, or submit a written request, described in Subsection (5)(a)(ii) within 180 days after the day on which the evidence collecting or retaining entity receives proof of delivery under Subsection (5)(a).
(c) An evidence collecting or retaining entity shall send a notice of intent to dispose of biological evidence that is the contents of a sexual assault kit to a victim in accordance with Section 53-10-905.

(6) The evidence collecting or retaining entity may not dispose of biological evidence of a violent felony offense before the day on which the time period described in Subsection (2) expires if:
(a) the evidence collecting or retaining entity is required by federal or state law to preserve the biological evidence; or
(b)
(i) the evidence collecting or retaining entity sends notice in accordance with:
(A) Subsection (5); and
(B) Section 53-10-905 if the biological evidence is the contents of a sexual assault kit; and
(ii) an individual notified under Subsection (5)(a) or Section 53-10-905:
(A) files a motion for testing of the biological evidence under Section 78B-9-301 within the 180-day period described in Subsection (5)(b); or
(B) submits a written request for retention of the biological evidence within the 180-day period described in Subsection (5)(b) or Section 53-10-905.

(7)

(a) Subject to Subsections (7)(b) and (c), if the evidence collecting or retaining entity receives a written request to retain the biological evidence, the evidence collecting or retaining entity shall retain the biological evidence for the time period described in Subsection (2).
(b) Subject to Subsection (7)(c), the evidence collecting or retaining entity may only return or dispose of physical evidence as described in Part 3, Retention of Evidence for Felony Offenses.
(c) If the evidence collecting or retaining entity is not required to retain physical evidence of the violent felony offense under Part 3, Retention of Evidence for Felony Offenses, before returning or disposing of the physical evidence, the evidence collecting or retaining entity shall:
(i) remove the portions of the physical evidence likely to contain biological evidence related to the violent felony offense; and
(ii) preserve the removed biological evidence in a quantity sufficient to permit future DNA testing.
(8) To comply with the preservation requirements described in this section, a law enforcement agency or a court may:
(a) retain the biological evidence; or
(b) if a continuous chain of custody can be maintained, return the biological evidence to the custody of the other law enforcement agency that originally provided the biological evidence to the law enforcement agency.

77-11c-402 Exceptions to preservation of biological evidence.
(1) As used in this section, "offense concerning driving under the influence" means:
(a) Section 41-6a-502;
(b) Section 41-6a-502.5;
(c) Section 41-6a-517;
(d) Section 41-6a-530;
(e) Section 76-5-102.1;
(f) Section 76-5-207; and
(g) a local ordinance similar to the offenses described in this Subsection (1).
(2) Section 77-11c-401 does not apply to biological evidence obtained during an investigation or prosecution for an offense concerning driving under the influence solely for toxicology purposes.

Amended by Chapter 277, 2025 General Session

77-11c-403 Remedies for failure to preserve biological evidence.
(1)
(a) Except as provided in Subsections (1)(b) and (2), if a court finds that biological evidence that reasonably could have been found to be exculpatory in a defendant's criminal case was not preserved in accordance with this chapter, the court may impose sanctions and remedies at the court's discretion, including:
(i) the grant of a new trial;
(ii) an instruction to the jury that evidence was not preserved as required by law;
(iii) the reduction of the sentence;

(iv) the dismissal of the criminal charge;
(v) the vacation of the conviction; or
(vi) the entry of a finding that because the evidence was not preserved in accordance with this chapter, a presumption exists that the evidence would have been exculpatory to the defendant.
(b) The provisions in Subsection (1)(a) apply only if:
(i) a defendant's appeal has not concluded;
(ii) a defendant's time for appeal has not expired; or
(iii) a defendant has received a new trial in accordance with Subsection (2)(b).
(2)
(a) A defendant shall seek relief under Title 78B, Chapter 9, Postconviction Remedies Act, if:
(i) the defendant alleges that the biological evidence that is the basis for the defendant's claim was not preserved in accordance with this chapter; and
(ii)
(A) the defendant's appeal has concluded; or
(B) the time for the defendant's appeal has expired.
(b) If a defendant obtains relief under Title 78B, Chapter 9, Postconviction Remedies Act, the provisions in Subsection (1) apply to the defendant's new trial.

Lost or Mislaid Property

77-11d-101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:
(1) "Interest holder" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-11a-101.
(2)
(a) "Lost or mislaid property":
(i) means any property that comes into the possession of a peace officer or law enforcement agency:
(A) that is not claimed by anyone who is identified as the owner of the property; or
(B) for which no owner or interest holder can be found after a reasonable and diligent search;
(ii) includes any property received by a peace officer or law enforcement agency from a person claiming to have found the property; and
(iii) does not include property seized by a peace officer in accordance with Chapter 11a, Seizure of Property and Contraband.
(b) "Lost or mislaid property" includes a firearm or other dangerous weapon received by a law enforcement agency at an airport under Subsection 76-11-218(7).
(3) "Owner" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-11a-101.
(4) "Public interest use" means:
(a) use by a governmental agency as determined by the agency's legislative body; or
(b) donation to a nonprofit charity registered with the state.

77-11d-103 Statement of finder of property.

(1) A person who finds lost or mislaid property and delivers it to a local law enforcement agency shall sign a statement included in a form provided by the agency, stating:
  (a) the manner in which the property came into the person's possession, including the time, date, and place;
  (b) that the person does not know who owns the property;
  (c) that, to the person's knowledge, the property was not stolen;
  (d) that the person's possession of the property is not unlawful; and
  (e) any information the person is aware of which could lead to a determination of the owner.
(2) Additional information may be requested by the agency receiving the property, as necessary.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11d-104 Locating owner of property.

(1) The local law enforcement agency shall take reasonable steps to determine the identity and location of the owner, and notify the owner that the property is in custody.
(2) The owner may obtain the property only by providing personal identification, identifying the property, and paying any costs incurred by the agency, including costs for advertising or storage.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 448, 2023 General Session

77-11d-105 Disposition of unclaimed property.

  (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6), if the owner of any lost or mislaid property cannot be determined or notified, or if the owner of the property is determined and notified, and fails to appear and claim the property after three months of the property's receipt by the local law enforcement agency, the agency shall:
    (i) publish notice of the intent to dispose of the unclaimed property on Utah's Public Legal Notice Website established in Subsection 45-1-101(2)(b);
    (ii) post a similar notice on the public website of the political subdivision within which the law enforcement agency is located; and
    (iii) post a similar notice in a public place designated for notice within the law enforcement agency.
  (b) The notice shall:
    (i) give a general description of the item; and
    (ii) the date of intended disposition.
  (c) The agency may not dispose of the lost or mislaid property until at least eight days after the date of publication and posting.

(a) If no claim is made for the lost or mislaid property within nine days of publication and posting, the agency shall notify the person who turned the property over to the local law enforcement agency, if it was turned over by a person under Section 77-11d-103.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection (4), if that person has complied with the provisions of this chapter, the person may take the lost or mislaid property if the person:
(i) pays the costs incurred for advertising and storage; and
(ii) signs a receipt for the item.
(3) If the person who found the lost or mislaid property fails to take the property under the provisions of this chapter, the agency shall:
(a) apply the property to a public interest use as provided in Subsection (4);
(b) sell the property at public auction and apply the proceeds of the sale to a public interest use; or
(c) destroy the property if it is unfit for a public interest use or sale.
(4)
(a) Before applying the lost or mislaid property to a public interest use, the agency having possession of the property shall obtain from the agency's legislative body:
(i) permission to apply the property to a public interest use; and
(ii) the designation and approval of the public interest use of the property.
(b) If the agency is a private law enforcement agency as defined in Subsection 53-19-102(4), the agency may apply the lost or mislaid property to a public interest use as provided in Subsection (4)(a) after obtaining the permission, designation, and approval of the legislative body of the municipality in which the agency is located.
(5) Any person employed by a law enforcement agency who finds property may not claim or receive property under this section.
(6)
(a) If the lost or mislaid property is a firearm or other dangerous weapon received by a law enforcement agency under Subsection 76-11-218(7), the law enforcement agency may dispose of the firearm or other dangerous weapon three months after the property's receipt by the law enforcement agency if the owner of the firearm or other dangerous weapon, or the owner's agent:
(i) fails to retrieve the firearm or other dangerous weapon; or
(ii) is legally prohibited from possessing the firearm or other dangerous weapon.
(b) A law enforcement agency may dispose of a firearm under Subsection (6)(a) by following the procedures described in Section 77-11a-403, disposition of firearms no longer needed as evidence.

Pleas

77-13-1 Kinds of pleas.
(1) There are five kinds of pleas to an indictment or information:
(a) not guilty;

(b) guilty;
(c) no contest;
(d) not guilty by reason of insanity; and
(e) guilty with a mental condition at the time of the offense.
(2) An alternative plea of not guilty or not guilty by reason of insanity may be entered.

Amended by Chapter 184, 2023 General Session

77-13-2 Record of plea -- Effect of each kind of plea.

Every plea shall be entered upon the record of the court and shall have the following effect:
(1) A plea of not guilty is a denial of the guilt of the accused and puts in issue every material allegation of the information or indictment;
(2) A plea of guilty is an acknowledgment that the accused is guilty of the offense charged; and
(3) A plea of no contest indicates the accused does not challenge the charges in the information or indictment and if accepted by the court shall have the same effect as a plea of guilty and imposition of sentence may be rendered in the same manner as if a plea of guilty had been entered.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-13-3 Court approval of no contest plea required.

A plea of no contest may be entered by the accused only upon approval of the court and only after due consideration of the views of the parties and the interest of the public in the effective administration of justice.

77-13-4 Felonies -- Entry in open court.

All pleas in felony cases shall be entered by the defendant in open court and the proceedings recorded.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-13-5 Failure to plead -- Not guilty entered.

When a defendant does not enter a plea, the court shall enter a plea of not guilty for the defendant.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-13-6 Withdrawal of a plea.

(1) A defendant may withdraw a plea of not guilty at any time before conviction.
(2) A defendant may only withdraw a plea of guilty or no contest upon:
(a) a leave of the court; and
(b) a showing that the defendant did not knowingly or voluntarily make the plea.
(3) A defendant shall make a motion to withdraw a plea of guilty or no contest in accordance with Rule 11 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Amended by Chapter 358, 2025 General Session

Chapter 14
Defenses

77-14-1 Time and place of alleged offense -- Specification.

The prosecuting attorney, on timely written demand of the defendant, shall within 10 days, or such other time as the court may allow, specify in writing as particularly as is known to the prosecuting attorney the place, date and time of the commission of the offense charged.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-14-2 Alibi -- Notice requirements -- Witness lists.

(1) A defendant, whether or not written demand has been made, who intends to offer evidence of an alibi shall, not less than 10 days before trial or at such other time as the court may allow, file and serve on the prosecuting attorney a notice, in writing, of the defendant's intention to claim alibi. The notice shall contain specific information as to the place where the defendant claims to have been at the time of the alleged offense and, as particularly as is known to the defendant or the defendant's attorney, the names and addresses of the witnesses by whom the defendant proposes to establish alibi. The prosecuting attorney, not more than five days after receipt of the list provided herein or at such other time as the court may direct, shall file and serve the defendant with the addresses, as particularly as are known to the prosecuting attorney, of the witnesses the state proposes to offer to contradict or impeach the defendant's alibi evidence.

(2) The defendant and prosecuting attorney shall be under a continuing duty to disclose the names and addresses of additional witnesses which come to the attention of either party after filing their alibi witness lists.

(3) If a defendant or prosecuting attorney fails to comply with the requirements of this section, the court may exclude evidence offered to establish or rebut alibi. However, the defendant may always testify on the defendant's own behalf concerning alibi.

(4) The court may, for good cause shown, waive the requirements of this section.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-14-3 Testimony regarding mental state of defendant or another -- Notice requirements -- Right to examination.

(1)

(a) If the prosecution or the defense intends to call any expert to testify at trial or at any hearing regarding the mental state of the defendant or another, the party intending to call the expert shall give notice to the opposing party as soon as practicable but not less than 30 days before trial or 10 days before any hearing at which the testimony is offered. Notice shall include the name and address of the expert, the expert's curriculum vitae, and a copy of the expert's report.

(b) The expert shall prepare a written report relating to the proposed testimony. If the expert has not prepared a report or the report does not adequately inform concerning the substance of the expert's proposed testimony including any opinion and the bases and reasons of that opinion, the party intending to call the expert shall provide a written explanation of the expert's anticipated testimony sufficient to give the opposing party adequate notice to prepare to meet the testimony, followed by a copy of any report prepared by the expert when available.

(2) As soon as practicable after receipt of the expert's report, the party receiving notice shall provide notice to the other party of witnesses whom the party anticipates calling to rebut the expert's testimony, including the name and address of any expert witness and the expert's curriculum vitae. If available, a report of any rebuttal expert shall be provided. If the rebuttal expert has not prepared a report or the report does not adequately inform concerning the substance of the expert's proposed rebuttal testimony, or in the event the witness is not an expert, the party intending to call the rebuttal witness shall provide a written explanation of the witness's anticipated rebuttal testimony sufficient to give the opposing party adequate notice to prepare to meet the testimony, followed by a copy of any report prepared by any rebuttal expert when available.

(3) If the prosecution or the defense proposes to introduce testimony of an expert which is based upon personal contact, interview, observation, or psychological testing of the defendant, testimony of an expert involving a mental diagnosis of the defendant, or testimony of an expert that the defendant does or does not fit a psychological or sociological profile, the opposing party shall have a corresponding right to have its own expert examine and evaluate the defendant.

(4) This section applies to any trial, sentencing hearing, and other hearing, excluding a preliminary hearing, whether or not the defendant proposes to offer evidence of the defense of insanity or diminished mental capacity.

(5) If the defendant or the prosecution fails to meet the requirements of this section, the opposing party shall be entitled to a continuance of the trial or hearing sufficient to allow preparation to meet the testimony. If the court finds that the failure to comply with this section is the result of bad faith on the part of any party or attorney, the court shall impose appropriate sanctions.

(6) This section may not require the admission of evidence not otherwise admissible.

Amended by Chapter 139, 1994 General Session

77-14-4 Insanity or diminished mental capacity -- Notice requirement.

(1) If a defendant intends to offer evidence that the defendant is not guilty as a result of insanity or that the defendant had diminished mental capacity, or intends to offer evidence in mitigation of a criminal homicide or attempted criminal homicide offense under Subsection 76-5-205.5(2)(a), the defendant shall file and serve the prosecuting attorney with written notice of the intention to claim the defense at the time of arraignment or as soon afterward as practicable, but not less than 30 days before the trial.

(2) If the court receives notice that a defendant intends to claim that the defendant is not guilty by reason of insanity or that the defendant had diminished mental capacity, the court shall proceed in accordance with the requirements described in Section 77-16a-301.

Amended by Chapter 312, 2019 General Session

77-14-6 Entrapment -- Notice of claim required.

Notice of a claim of entrapment shall be given by the defendant in accord with Section 76-2-303.

Amended by Chapter 194, 1986 General Session

Chapter 15
Defendant's Competency to Proceed

77-15-1 Incompetent individual not to be tried for public offense.

An individual who is incompetent to proceed may not be tried for a public offense.

Amended by Chapter 147, 2018 General Session

77-15-2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Competency evaluation" means an evaluation conducted by a forensic evaluator to determine if an individual is competent to stand trial.

(2) "Competent to stand trial" means that a defendant has:

(a) a rational and factual understanding of the criminal proceedings against the defendant and of the punishment specified for the offense charged; and

(b) the ability to consult with the defendant's legal counsel with a reasonable degree of rational understanding in order to assist in the defense.

(3) "Department" means the Department of Health and Human Services.

(4) "Forensic evaluator" means a licensed mental health professional who:

(a) is not involved in the defendant's treatment;

(b) is trained and qualified by the department to conduct a competency evaluation, a restoration screening, and a progress toward competency evaluation, based on knowledge, experience, or education relating to:

(i) intellectual functioning or psychopathology; and

(ii) the legal system and the rights of a defendant in a criminal trial; and

(c) if under contract with the department, demonstrates ongoing education and training relating to forensic mental health in accordance with rules established by the department in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(5) "Incompetent to proceed" means that a defendant is not competent to stand trial as a result of:

(a) mental illness; or

(b) intellectual disability.

(6) "Mental illness" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-5-301.

(7) "Petition" means a petition to request a court to determine whether a defendant is competent to stand trial.

(8) "Progress toward competency evaluation" means an evaluation to determine whether an individual who is receiving restoration treatment is:

(a) competent to stand trial;

(b) incompetent to proceed but has a substantial probability of becoming competent to stand trial in the foreseeable future; or

(c) incompetent to proceed and does not have a substantial probability of becoming competent to stand trial in the foreseeable future.

(9) "Restoration treatment" means training and treatment that is:

(a) provided to an individual who is incompetent to proceed;

(b) tailored to the individual's particular impairment to competency; and

(c) limited to the purpose of restoring the individual to competency.

Amended by Chapter 46, 2025 General Session

77-15-3 Petition for inquiry regarding defendant -- Filing -- Contents.

(1) When a defendant charged with a public offense is incompetent to proceed, an individual described in Subsection (2)(b) may file a petition in the district court of the county where the charge is pending or where the defendant is confined.

(2)

(i) The petition shall contain a certificate that it is filed in good faith and on reasonable grounds to believe the defendant is incompetent to proceed.

(ii) The petition shall contain a recital of the facts, observations, and conversations with the defendant that have formed the basis for the petition.

(iii) If filed by defense counsel, the petition may not disclose information in violation of the attorney-client privilege.

(b) The petition may be based upon knowledge or information and belief and may be filed by the defendant, any person acting on behalf of the defendant, the prosecuting attorney, or any person having custody or supervision over the defendant.

Amended by Chapter 145, 2024 General Session

77-15-3.5 Incompetent to proceed in misdemeanor cases.

(1) When a defendant charged with a misdemeanor may be incompetent to proceed, any petition shall be filed in accordance with Section 77-15-3.

(2) If the most severe charge against a defendant is a misdemeanor and the defendant is adjudicated by a court as incompetent to proceed:

(a) the department shall provide restoration treatment to the defendant; and

(b) the court may refer the defendant to pretrial diversion services, upon agreement of the prosecution and defense counsel.

(3) Unless the prosecutor or another individual indicates that civil commitment proceedings will be initiated under Subsection 77-15-6(5)(c), a court shall release a defendant who is incompetent to proceed if:

(a) the most severe charge against the defendant is a class B misdemeanor;

(b) more than 60 days have passed after the day on which the court adjudicated the defendant incompetent to proceed; and

(c) the defendant is not restored to competency.

(4) The department shall provide restoration treatment to the defendant within the timeframe described in Subsection (3)(b).

(5) The court may, but is not required to, dismiss the charges against a defendant who was released under Subsection (3).

Amended by Chapter 171, 2023 General Session

77-15-4 Court may raise issue of competency at any time.

The court in which a charge is pending may raise the issue of a defendant's competency at any time. If raised by the court, the court shall permit counsel for each party to address the issue of competency.

Amended by Chapter 147, 2018 General Session

77-15-5 Order for hearing -- Stay of other proceedings -- Examinations of defendant -- Scope of examination and report.

(1) A court in which criminal proceedings are pending shall stay all criminal proceedings, if:
  (a) a petition is filed under Section 77-15-3 or 77-15-3.5; or
  (b) the court raises the issue of the defendant's competency under Section 77-15-4.

(2) The court in which the petition described in Subsection (1)(a) is filed:
  (a) shall inform the court in which criminal proceedings are pending of the petition, if the petition is not filed in the court in which criminal proceedings are pending;
  (b) shall review the allegations of incompetency;
  (c) may hold a limited hearing solely for the purpose of determining the sufficiency of the petition, if the court finds the petition is not clearly sufficient on its face;
  (d) shall hold a hearing, if the petition is opposed by either party; and
  (e) may not order an examination of the defendant or order a hearing on the mental condition of the defendant unless the court finds that the allegations in the petition raise a bona fide doubt as to the defendant's competency to stand trial.

(3)
  (a) If the court finds that there is a bona fide doubt as to the defendant's competency to stand trial, the court shall order the department to have one or two forensic evaluators complete a competency evaluation for the defendant in accordance with Subsection (3)(b) and provide a report to the court regarding the competency of the defendant to stand trial.
  (b) The court shall order the department to have the defendant evaluated by one forensic evaluator unless:
    (i) the defendant is charged with a capital felony; or
    (ii) the defendant is charged with a felony that is not a capital felony, and the court determines, based on the allegations in the petition, that good cause exists to order two competency evaluations.
  (c)
    (i) This section does not prohibit a party from seeking an additional forensic evaluator to conduct a competency evaluation of the defendant.
    (ii) If a party seeks an additional competency evaluation under this Subsection (3)(c), the party shall:
      (A) select the additional forensic evaluator; and
      (B) pay the costs of the additional forensic evaluator.
  (d) The stipulation by parties to a bona fide doubt as to the defendant's competency to stand trial alone may not take the place of a competency evaluation ordered under this Subsection (3).
  (e) In accordance with state licensing laws, the court may only order the department to provide an initial evaluation and progress toward competency evaluation for a defendant who is located within the state.

  (a) If the petition or other information sufficiently raises concerns that the defendant may have an intellectual disability, at least one forensic evaluator who is experienced in assessments of intellectual disabilities shall conduct a competency evaluation.
  (b) The petitioner or other party, as directed by the court or requested by the department, shall provide to the forensic evaluator nonmedical information and materials relevant to a determination of the defendant's competency, including the charging document, arrest or incident reports pertaining to the charged offense, known criminal history information, and known prior mental health evaluations and treatments.

(c) For purposes of a competency evaluation, a custodian of mental health records pertaining to the defendant, including the defendant's prior mental health evaluations or records relating to the defendant's substance use disorder, may provide the records to:
(i) with the defendant's consent, a forensic evaluator or the department on the department's request; or
(ii) a forensic evaluator by court order.
(d) A court order under Subsection (4)(c) shall include a protective order that expires 180 days after the day on which:
(i) the defendant is found guilty;
(ii) the defendant enters a guilty plea;
(iii) the court sentences the defendant; or
(iv) if the case is appealed, the day on which the final appeal is resolved.
(e)
(i) Except as otherwise provided by law and in Subsections (4)(e)(ii) and (4)(f), the court shall order the forensic evaluator to destroy all records subject to the protective order within the 180 day period described in Subsection (4)(d).
(ii) A forensic evaluator is not required to destroy the records subject to the protective order if destroying the records is a violation of ethical standards to which the forensic evaluator is subject for occupational licensing.
(f) The court may extend the protective order described in Subsection (4)(d) if:
(i) the court finds the defendant incompetent to proceed without a substantial probability that the defendant will become competent in the foreseeable future;
(ii) the prosecutor or another individual indicates to the court that the prosecutor or other individual will seek civil commitment of the defendant under Section 77-15-6; and
(iii) the court orders the records be maintained and used only for the purposes of examining the defendant in connection with the petition for civil commitment.
(g) An order for a competency evaluation may not contain an order for any other inquiry into the mental state of the defendant that is not described in this Subsection (4).
(5) Pending a competency evaluation, unless the court or the department directs otherwise, the defendant shall be retained in the same custody or status that the defendant was in at the time the examination was ordered.
(6) In the conduct of a competency evaluation and in a report to the court, a forensic evaluator shall consider and address, in addition to any other factors determined to be relevant by the forensic evaluator:
(a) the impact of the defendant's mental illness or intellectual disability on the defendant's present ability to:
(i) rationally and factually understand the criminal proceedings against the defendant; and
(ii) consult with the defendant's legal counsel with a reasonable degree of rational understanding in order to assist in the defense;
(b) in making the determinations described in Subsection (6)(a), the forensic evaluator shall consider, as applicable the defendant's present ability to:
(i) understand the charges or allegations against the defendant;
(ii) communicate facts, events, and states of mind;
(iii) understand the range of possible penalties associated with the charges or allegations against the defendant;
(iv) engage in reasoned choice of legal strategies and options;
(v) understand the adversarial nature of the proceedings against the defendant;
(vi) manifest behavior sufficient to allow the court to proceed; and

(vii) testify relevantly, if applicable; and

(c) whether the defendant is exhibiting false or exaggerated physical or psychological symptoms relevant to the defendant's capacity to stand trial.

(7) Upon a determination that the defendant is incompetent to proceed, the forensic evaluator shall indicate in the report to the court:

(a) the factors that contribute to the defendant's incompetency, including the nature of the defendant's mental illness or intellectual disability, if any, and its relationship to the factors contributing to the defendant's incompetency;

(b) whether there is a substantial probability that:

(i) restoration treatment may bring the defendant to competency to stand trial in the foreseeable future; or

(ii) the defendant cannot become competent to stand trial in the foreseeable future;

(c) whether the defendant would benefit from restoration treatment; and

(d) if the forensic evaluator makes the determination under Subsection (7)(b)(i) or (7)(c), an explanation of the reason for the determination and a summary of the treatment provided to the defendant in the past.

(8)

(a) A forensic evaluator shall provide an initial report to the court and the prosecuting and defense attorneys within 30 days of the receipt of the court's order. The report shall inform the court of the examiner's opinion concerning the competency of the defendant to stand trial.

(b)

(i) If the forensic evaluator is unable to complete the report in the time specified in Subsection (8)(a), the forensic evaluator shall give written notice to the court.

(ii) A forensic evaluator who provides the notice described in Subsection (8)(b)(i) shall receive a 15-day extension, giving the forensic evaluator a total of 45 days after the day on which the forensic evaluator received the court's order to conduct a competency evaluation and file a report.

(iii) The court may further extend the deadline for completion of the evaluation and report if the court determines that there is good cause for the extension.

(iv) Upon receipt of an extension described in Subsection (8)(b)(iii), the forensic evaluator shall file the report as soon as reasonably possible.

(9) Any written report submitted by a forensic evaluator shall:

(a) identify the case ordered for evaluation by the case number;

(b) describe the procedures, techniques, and tests used in the examination and the purpose or purposes for each, the time spent by the forensic evaluator with the defendant for purposes of the examination, and the compensation to be paid to the evaluator for the report;

(c) state the forensic evaluator's clinical observations, findings, and opinions on each factor described in Subsection (6); and

(d) identify the sources of information used by the forensic evaluator and present the basis for the forensic evaluator's clinical findings and opinions.

(10)

(a) Any statement made by the defendant in the course of any competency examination, whether the examination is with or without the consent of the defendant, any testimony by a forensic evaluator based upon the statement, and any other fruits of the statement may not be admitted in evidence against the defendant in any criminal proceeding except on an issue respecting mental condition on which the defendant has introduced evidence, unless the evidence is relevant to a determination of the defendant's competency.

(b) Before examining the defendant, the forensic evaluator shall specifically advise the defendant of the limits of confidentiality as provided under Subsection (10)(a).

(11)

(a) Upon receipt of the forensic evaluators' reports, the court shall set a date for a competency hearing. The hearing shall be held not less than five and not more than 15 days after the day on which the court received the forensic evaluators' reports, unless for good cause the court sets a later date.

(b) Any person directed by the department to conduct the competency evaluation may be subpoenaed to testify at the hearing.

(c) The court may call any forensic evaluator to testify at the hearing who is not called by the parties. If the court calls a forensic evaluator, counsel for the parties may cross-examine the forensic evaluator.

(d)

(i) If the forensic evaluators are in conflict as to the competency of the defendant, all forensic evaluators should be called to testify at the hearing if reasonably available.

(ii) A conflict in the opinions of the forensic evaluators does not require the appointment of an additional forensic evaluator unless the court finds good cause for the appointment.

(iii) If a party seeks an additional competency evaluation under this Subsection (11), that party shall:

(A) select the additional forensic evaluator; and

(B) pay the costs of the additional forensic evaluator.

(12)

(i) A defendant shall be presumed competent to stand trial unless the court, by a preponderance of the evidence, finds the defendant incompetent to proceed.

(ii) The burden of proof is upon the proponent of incompetency at the hearing.

(b) An adjudication of incompetent to proceed does not operate as an adjudication of incompetency to give informed consent for medical treatment or for any other purpose, unless specifically set forth in the court order.

(13) In determining the defendant's competency to stand trial, the court shall consider the totality of the circumstances, including:

(a) the petition;

(b) the defendant's criminal and arrest history;

(c) prior mental health evaluations and treatments provided to the court by the defendant;

(d) subject to Subsection (15), whether the defendant was found incompetent to proceed in a criminal action unrelated to the charged offense for which the petition is filed;

(e) the testimony of lay witnesses, if any;

(f) the forensic evaluator's testimony and report;

(g) the materials on which the forensic evaluator's report is based; and

(h) any other relevant evidence or consideration bearing on the competency of the defendant.

(14) If the court finds the defendant incompetent to proceed:

(a) the court shall issue the order described in Subsection 77-15-6(1), which shall:

(i) include findings addressing each of the factors in Subsection (6)(a);

(ii) include a transportation order, if necessary;

(iii) be accompanied by the forensic evaluators' reports, any psychiatric, psychological, or social work reports submitted to the court relative to the mental condition of the defendant, and any other documents made available to the court by either the defense or the prosecution, pertaining to the defendant's current or past mental condition; and

(iv) be sent by the court to the department; and
(b) the prosecuting attorney shall provide to the department:
(i) the charging document and probable cause statement, if any;
(ii) arrest or incident reports prepared by law enforcement and pertaining to the charged offense; and
(iii) additional supporting documents.
(15) The court may not find the defendant incompetent to proceed based solely on a court having ordered the release of the defendant under Section 77-15-3.5 or Section 77-15-6 in an unrelated criminal action if the court in the unrelated criminal action ordered the release more than one year before the day on which the petition described in Subsection (13)(a) is filed.
(16) The court may make any reasonable order to ensure compliance with this section.
(17) Failure to comply with this section does not result in the dismissal of criminal charges.

Amended by Chapter 46, 2025 General Session

77-15-6 Commitment on finding of incompetency to stand trial -- Subsequent hearings -- Notice to prosecuting attorneys.
(1)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (5), if after a hearing a court finds a defendant to be incompetent to proceed, the court shall order the defendant committed to the department for restoration treatment.
(b)
(i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(ii), the court may recommend but may not order placement of a defendant who is found incompetent to proceed.
(ii) The court may order that the defendant be placed in a secure setting rather than a nonsecure setting.
(c) Following restoration screening, the department's designee shall designate and inform the court of the specific placement and restoration treatment program for the defendant.
(d) Restoration treatment shall be of sufficient scope and duration to:
(i) restore the defendant to competency; or
(ii) determine whether the defendant can be restored to competency in the foreseeable future.
(e) A defendant who a court determines is incompetent to proceed may not be held for restoration treatment longer than:
(i) the time reasonably necessary to determine that the defendant cannot become competent to stand trial in the foreseeable future; and
(ii) the maximum period of incarceration that the defendant could receive if the defendant were convicted of the most severe offense of the offenses charged.
(2)
(a) A defendant who is receiving restoration treatment shall receive a progress toward competency evaluation, by:
(i) a forensic evaluator, designated by the department; and
(ii) an additional forensic evaluator, if requested by a party and paid for by the requesting party.
(b) A forensic evaluator shall complete a progress toward competency evaluation and submit a report within 90 days after the day on which the forensic evaluator receives the commitment order from the department.
(c) The report shall:
(i) assess whether the defendant is exhibiting false or exaggerated physical or psychological symptoms;

(ii) describe any diagnostic instruments, methods, and observations used by the evaluator to make the determination;
(iii) describe the defendant's current mental illness or intellectual disability, if any;
(iv) state the forensic evaluator's opinion as to the effect of any false or exaggerated symptoms on the defendant's competency to stand trial;
(v) assess the facility's or program's capacity to provide appropriate restoration treatment for the defendant;
(vi) assess the nature of restoration treatment provided to the defendant;
(vii) assess what progress the defendant has made toward competency restoration, with respect to the factors identified by the court in its initial order;
(viii) assess whether the defendant can reasonably be restored to competency in the foreseeable future given the restoration treatment currently being provided and the facility's or program's capacity to provide appropriate restoration treatment for the defendant;
(ix) assess the likelihood of restoration to competency, the amount of time estimated to achieve competency, or the amount of time estimated to determine whether restoration to competency may be achieved; and
(x) include a statement by the facility's treating physician regarding:
(A) whether the defendant is taking any antipsychotic medication as prescribed;
(B) whether ongoing administration of antipsychotic medication is necessary to maintain the defendant's competency to stand trial;
(C) whether antipsychotic medication is substantially likely to maintain the defendant's competency to stand trial;
(D) whether antipsychotic medication is substantially unlikely to produce side effects which would significantly interfere with the defendant's ability to assist in the defendant's defense;
(E) that no less intrusive means are available, and whether any of those means have been attempted to render the defendant competent; and
(F) whether antipsychotic medication is medically appropriate and in the defendant's best medical interest in light of the defendant's medical condition.

(3)
(a) The court on its own motion or upon motion by either party or the department may appoint an additional forensic evaluator to conduct a progress toward competency evaluation.
(b) If the court appoints an additional forensic evaluator upon motion of a party, that party shall pay the costs of the additional forensic evaluator.

(4)
(a) Within 15 days after the day on which the court receives the forensic evaluator's report of the progress toward competency evaluation, the court shall hold a hearing to review the defendant's competency.
(b) At the hearing, the burden of proving that the defendant is competent to stand trial is on the proponent of competency.
(c) Following the hearing, the court shall determine by a preponderance of evidence whether the defendant:
(i) is competent to stand trial;
(ii) is competent, but requires the ongoing administration of antipsychotic medication in order to maintain the defendant's competency to stand trial;
(iii) is incompetent to proceed, with a substantial probability that the defendant may become competent in the foreseeable future; or

(iv) is incompetent to proceed, without a substantial probability that the defendant may become competent in the foreseeable future.

(5)

(a) If at any time the court determines that the defendant is competent to stand trial, the court shall:

(i) proceed with the trial or other procedures as may be necessary to adjudicate the charges;

(ii) order that the defendant be returned to the placement and status that the defendant was in at the time when the petition for the adjudication of competency was filed or raised by the court, unless the court determines that placement of the defendant in a less restrictive environment is more appropriate;

(iii) order the ongoing administration of antipsychotic medication to the defendant for the purpose of maintaining the defendant's competency to stand trial, if the court finds that the administration of antipsychotic medication is necessary to maintain the defendant's competency to stand trial under Subsection (4)(c)(ii); and

(iv) require the agency, jail, or prison with custody over the defendant to report to the court any noncompliance with the court's orders under this Subsection (5) within 48 hours of the noncompliance.

(b) If the court determines that the defendant is incompetent to proceed with a substantial probability that the defendant may become competent in the foreseeable future, the court may order that the defendant remain committed to the department or the department's designee for the purpose of restoration treatment.

(c)

(i) If the court determines that the defendant is incompetent to proceed without a substantial probability that the defendant may become competent in the foreseeable future, the court shall order the defendant released from commitment to the department, unless the prosecutor or another individual informs the court that civil commitment proceedings pursuant to Title 26B, Chapter 5, Health Care - Substance Use and Mental Health, or Title 26B, Chapter 6, Part 4, Division of Services for People with Disabilities, will be initiated.

(ii) The commitment proceedings must be initiated by a petition filed within seven days after the day on which the court makes the determination described in Subsection (4)(c)(iv), unless the court finds that there is good cause to delay the initiation of the civil commitment proceedings.

(iii) The court may order the defendant to remain committed to the department until the civil commitment proceedings conclude.

(iv) If the defendant is civilly committed and admitted to a secure setting, the department shall provide notice to the court that adjudicated the defendant incompetent to proceed and to the prosecution agency that prosecuted the case at least 15 days before any proposed release of the committed individual from the secure setting.

(v) If the prosecution agency that prosecuted the case intends to refile charges against the committed individual:

(A) the prosecution agency shall provide written notice of that intent to the department within 15 days after the department provides the notice described in Subsection (5)(c)(iv); and

(B) the department shall postpone release of the committed individual for at least 30 days after the day on which the department receives the written notice of intent from the prosecution agency.

(vi) If the prosecution agency that prosecuted the case refiles charges against the committed individual and the individual's competency is raised, the department shall postpone release of the individual until the competency proceedings conclude.

(a) At any time following the court's order under Subsection (5)(a)(iii), the defendant, the prosecuting attorney, the department, the treating physician, or the agency, jail, or prison with custody over the defendant, may notify the court of the need to review the medication order under Subsection (5)(a)(iii) for continued appropriateness and feasibility.
(b) The court shall set the matter for a hearing if the notification under Subsection (6)(a) establishes good cause to review the matter.
(7) If a court, under Subsection (5)(b), extends a defendant's commitment, the court shall schedule a competency review hearing for the earlier of:
(a) the department's best estimate of when the defendant may be restored to competency; or
(b) three months after the day on which the court determined under Subsection (5)(b) to extend the defendant's commitment.
(8) Unless the defendant is charged with a crime listed in Subsection (9), if a defendant is incompetent to proceed by the day of the competency review hearing that follows the extension of a defendant's commitment, the court shall:
(a) order the defendant be:
(i) released or temporarily detained pending civil commitment proceedings as described in Subsection (5)(c); and
(ii) terminate the defendant's commitment to the department for restoration treatment; or
(b) if the forensic evaluator reports to the court that there is a substantial probability that restoration treatment will bring the defendant to competency to stand trial in the foreseeable future, extend the defendant's commitment for restoration treatment up to 45 additional days.
(9) If the defendant is charged with aggravated murder, murder, attempted murder, manslaughter, or a first degree felony and the court determines that the defendant is making reasonable progress towards restoration of competency at the time of the hearing held pursuant to Subsection (7), the court may extend the commitment for a period not to exceed nine months for the purpose of restoration treatment, with a mandatory review hearing at the end of the nine-month period.
(10) Unless the defendant is charged with aggravated murder or murder, if, at the nine-month review hearing described in Subsection (9), the court determines that the defendant is incompetent to proceed, the court shall:
(a)
(i) order the defendant be released or temporarily detained pending civil commitment proceedings as provided in Subsection (5)(c); and
(ii) terminate the defendant's commitment to the department for restoration treatment; or
(b) if the forensic evaluator reports to the court that there is a substantial probability that restoration treatment will bring the defendant to competency to stand trial in the foreseeable future, extend the defendant's commitment for restoration treatment for up to 135 additional days.
(11) If the defendant is charged with aggravated murder or murder and the court determines that the defendant is making reasonable progress towards restoration of competency at the time of the nine-month review hearing described in Subsection (9), the court may extend the commitment for a period not to exceed 24 months for the purpose of restoration treatment.
(12) If the court extends the defendant's commitment term under Subsection (11), the court shall hold a hearing no less frequently than at 12-month intervals following the extension for the purpose of determining the defendant's competency status.
(13) If, at the end of the 24-month commitment period described in Subsection (11), the court determines that the defendant is incompetent to proceed, the court shall:

(a)
(i) order the defendant be released or temporarily detained pending civil commitment proceedings as provided in Subsection (5)(c); and
(ii) terminate the defendant's commitment to the department for restoration treatment; or
(b) if the forensic evaluator reports to the court that there is a substantial probability that restoration treatment will bring the defendant to competency to stand trial in the foreseeable future, extend the defendant's commitment for restoration treatment for up to 12 additional months.
(14)
(a) Neither release from a pretrial incompetency commitment under the provisions of this section nor civil commitment requires dismissal of criminal charges.
(b) The court may retain jurisdiction over the criminal case and may order periodic reviews.
(15) A defendant who is civilly committed pursuant to Title 26B, Chapter 5, Health Care - Substance Use and Mental Health, or Title 26B, Chapter 6, Part 4, Division of Services for People with Disabilities, may still be adjudicated competent to stand trial under this chapter.
(16)
(a) The remedy for a violation of the time periods specified in this section, other than those specified in Subsection (5)(c), (8), (10), or (13), shall be a motion to compel the hearing, or mandamus, but not release from detention or dismissal of the criminal charges.
(b) The remedy for a violation of the time periods specified in Subsection (5)(c), (8), (9), or (13), or is not dismissal of the criminal charges.
(17) In cases in which the treatment of the defendant is precluded by court order for a period of time, that time period may not be considered in computing time limitations under this section.
(18)
(a) If, at any time, the defendant becomes competent to stand trial while the defendant is committed to the department, the clinical director of the Utah State Hospital, the department, or the department's designee shall certify that fact to the court.
(b) The court shall conduct a competency review hearing:
(i) within 15 working days after the day on which the court receives the certification described in Subsection (18)(a); or
(ii) within 30 working days after the day on which the court receives the certification described in Subsection (18)(a), if the court determines that more than 15 working days are necessary for good cause related to the defendant's competency.
(19) The court may order a hearing at any time on the court's own motion or upon recommendations of the clinical director of the Utah State Hospital or other facility or the department.
(20) Notice of a hearing on competency to stand trial shall be given to the prosecuting attorney and all counsel of record.

Amended by Chapter 46, 2025 General Session

77-15-6.5 Petition for involuntary medication of incompetent defendant.
(1) As used in this section, "final order" means a court order that determines the rights of the parties and concerning which appellate remedies have been exhausted or the time for appeal has expired.
(2)
(a) At any time after a defendant has been found incompetent to proceed and has been committed to the department under Section 77-15-6 for restoration treatment, the department shall notify the court, prosecuting attorney, and attorney for the defendant if the department determines that the defendant is not responding to restoration treatment and is unlikely to be restored to competency without the involuntary administration of antipsychotic medication.

(b) The department shall provide the notification under Subsection (2)(a) only if there is no basis for involuntarily medicating the defendant for reasons other than to restore the defendant's competency.

(3) In the notice under Subsection (2)(a), the department shall state whether:

(a) medication is necessary to render the defendant competent;

(b) medication is substantially likely to render the defendant competent;

(c) medication is substantially unlikely to produce side effects which would significantly interfere with the defendant's ability to assist in the defendant's defense;

(d) no less intrusive means are available, and whether any of those means have been attempted to render the defendant competent; and

(e) medication is medically appropriate and is in the defendant's best medical interest in light of the defendant's medical condition.

(4)

(a) The court shall conduct a hearing within 15 days, or, for good cause, within 30 days after the day on which the court receives the notice described in Subsection (2)(a), regarding the involuntary medication of the defendant.

(b) The prosecuting attorney shall represent the state at any hearing under this section.

(c) The court shall consider whether the following factors apply in determining whether the defendant should be involuntarily medicated:

(i) important state interests are at stake in restoring the defendant's competency;

(ii) involuntary medication will significantly further the important state interests, in that the medication proposed:

(A) is substantially likely to render the defendant competent to stand trial; and

(B) is substantially unlikely to produce side effects which would significantly interfere with the defendant's ability to assist in the defendant's defense;

(iii) involuntary medication is necessary to further important state interests, because any less intrusive treatments are unlikely to achieve substantially the same results; and

(iv) the administration of the proposed medication is medically appropriate, as it is in the defendant's best medical interest in light of the defendant's medical condition.

(5) In determining whether the proposed treatment is medically appropriate and is in the defendant's best medical interest, the potential penalty the defendant may be subject to, if the defendant is convicted of any charged offense, is not a relevant consideration.

(a) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the involuntary administration of antipsychotic medication is appropriate, it shall make findings addressing each of the factors in Subsection (4)(c) and shall issue an order authorizing the department to involuntarily administer antipsychotic medication to the defendant in order to restore the defendant's competency, subject to the periodic reviews and other procedures provided in Section 77-15-6.

(b) When issuing an order under Subsection (6)(a), the court shall consider ordering less intrusive means for administering the drugs, such as a court order to the defendant enforceable by the contempt power, before ordering more intrusive methods of involuntary medication.

(7) The provisions in Section 77-15-6 establishing time limitations for treatment of incompetent defendants before they must be either released or civilly committed are tolled from the time the department gives notice to the court and the parties under Subsection (2) until:
(a) the court has issued a final order for the involuntary medication of the defendant, and the defendant has been medicated under that order; or
(b) the court has issued a final order that the defendant will not be involuntarily medicated.
(8) This section applies only when an order of involuntary medication is sought solely for the purpose of rendering a defendant competent to stand trial.

Amended by Chapter 147, 2018 General Session

77-15-7 Statute of limitations and speedy trial -- Effect of incompetency of defendant.
(1) The statute of limitations is tolled during any period in which the defendant is adjudicated incompetent to proceed.
(2) Any period of time during which the defendant has been adjudicated incompetent to proceed and any period during which the defendant is being evaluated for competency may not be computed in determining the defendant's speedy trial rights.

Amended by Chapter 147, 2018 General Session

77-15-8 Bail exonerated on commitment of defendant.
When a defendant awaiting trial is committed to a mental health facility, bail shall be exonerated.

77-15-9 Expenses.
(1) In determining the competence of a defendant to proceed, expenses of examination, observation, or treatment, excluding travel to and from any mental health facility, shall be charged to the department when the offense is a state offense. Travel expenses incurred by the defendant shall be charged to the county where prosecution is commenced. Examination of a defendant on local ordinance violations shall be charged by the department to the municipality or county commencing the prosecution.
(2) When examination is initiated by the court or on motion of the prosecutor, expenses of commitment and treatment of the defendant, if the defendant is determined to be incompetent to proceed, shall also be charged to the department.
(3) Expenses of examination, treatment, or confinement in a mental health facility for any individual who has been convicted of a crime and placed in a state correctional facility shall be charged to the Department of Corrections.
(4) If, after evaluation, the court determines that a defendant is competent to stand trial, all subsequent costs are charged to the county commencing prosecution. If the defendant requested the examination and is found to be competent to stand trial by the court, the department may recover the expenses of the examination from the defendant.

Chapter 15a
Exemptions From Death Penalty In Capital Cases

77-15a-101 Intellectually disabled defendant not subject to death penalty -- Defendant with subaverage functioning not subject to death penalty if confession not corroborated.

(1) A defendant who is found by the court to be intellectually disabled as defined in Section 77-15a-102 is not subject to the death penalty.

(2) A defendant who does not meet the definition of intellectually disabled under Section 77-15a-102 is not subject to the death penalty if:

(a) the defendant has significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning that exists concurrently with significant deficiencies in adaptive functioning;

(b) the functioning described in Subsection (2)(a) is manifested prior to age 22; and

(c) the state intends to introduce into evidence a confession by the defendant which is not supported by substantial evidence independent of the confession.

Amended by Chapter 115, 2016 General Session

77-15a-102 "Intellectually disabled" defined.

As used in this chapter, a defendant is " intellectually disabled" if:

(1) the defendant has significant subaverage general intellectual functioning that results in and exists concurrently with significant deficiencies in adaptive functioning that exist primarily in the areas of reasoning or impulse control, or in both of these areas; and

(2) the subaverage general intellectual functioning and the significant deficiencies in adaptive functioning under Subsection (1) are both manifested prior to age 22.

Amended by Chapter 115, 2016 General Session

77-15a-103 Court may raise issue of intellectual disability at any time.

The court in which a capital charge is pending may raise the issue of the defendant's intellectual disability at any time. If raised by the court, counsel for each party shall be allowed to address the issue of intellectual disability.

Amended by Chapter 115, 2016 General Session

77-15a-104 Hearing -- Notice -- Stay of proceeding -- Examinations of defendant -- Scope of examination -- Report -- Procedures.

(1)

(a) If a defendant proposes to offer evidence concerning or argue that he qualifies for an exemption from the death penalty under Subsection 77-15a-101(1) or (2), the defendant shall file and serve the prosecuting attorney with written notice of his intention as soon as practicable, but not fewer than 60 days before trial.

(b) If the defendant wishes to claim the exemption provided in Subsection 77-15a-101(2), the defendant shall file and serve the prosecuting attorney with written notice of his intention as soon as practicable, but not fewer than 60 days before trial.

(2) When notice is given under Subsection (1), the court raises the issue, or a motion is filed regarding Section 77-15a-101, the court may stay all proceedings in order to address the issue.

(3)

(a) The court shall order the Department of Health and Human Services to appoint at least two mental health experts to examine the defendant and report to the court. The experts:
(i) may not be involved in the current treatment of the defendant; and
(ii) shall have expertise in intellectual disability assessment.
(b) Upon appointment of the experts, the defendant or other party as directed by the court shall provide information and materials to the examiners relevant to a determination of the defendant's intellectual disability, including copies of the charging document, arrest or incident reports pertaining to the charged offense, known criminal history information, and known prior mental health evaluations and treatments.
(c) The court may make the necessary orders to provide the information listed in Subsection (3)(b) to the examiners.
(d) The court may provide in its order appointing the examiners that custodians of mental health records pertaining to the defendant shall provide those records to the examiners without the need for consent of the defendant or further order of the court.
(e) Prior to examining the defendant, examiners shall specifically advise the defendant of the limits of confidentiality as provided under Section 77-15a-106.

(4) During any examinations under Subsection (3), unless the court directs otherwise, the defendant shall be retained in the same custody or status he was in at the time the examination was ordered.

(5) The experts shall in the conduct of their examinations and in their reports to the court consider and address:
(a) whether the defendant is intellectually disabled as defined in Section 77-15a-102;
(b) the degree of any intellectual disability the expert finds to exist;
(c) whether the defendant is intellectually disabled as specified in Subsection 77-15a-101(2); and
(d) the degree of any intellectual disability the expert finds to exist.

(6)
(a) The experts examining the defendant shall provide written reports to the court, the prosecution, and the defense within 60 days of the receipt of the court's order, unless the expert submits to the court a written request for additional time in accordance with Subsection (6)(c).
(b) The reports shall provide to the court and to prosecution and defense counsel the examiners' written opinions concerning the intellectual disability of the defendant.
(c) If an examiner requests of the court additional time, the examiner shall provide the report to the court and counsel within 90 days from the receipt of the court's order unless, for good cause shown, the court authorizes an additional period of time to complete the examination and provide the report.

(7) Any written report submitted by an expert shall:
(a) identify the specific matters referred for evaluation;
(b) describe the procedures, techniques, and tests used in the examination and the purpose or purposes for each;
(c) state the expert's clinical observations, findings, and opinions; and
(d) identify the sources of information used by the expert and present the basis for the expert's clinical findings and opinions.

(8) Within 30 days after receipt of the report from the Department of Health and Human Services, but not later than five days before hearing, or at any other time the court directs, the prosecuting attorney shall file and serve upon the defendant a notice of witnesses the prosecuting attorney proposes to call in rebuttal.

(9)

(a) Except pursuant to Section 77-15a-105, this chapter does not prevent any party from producing any other testimony as to the mental condition of the defendant.
(b) Expert witnesses who are not appointed by the court are not entitled to compensation under Subsection (10).

(10)
(a) Expenses of examinations of the defendant ordered by the court under this section shall be paid by the Department of Health and Human Services.
(b) Travel expenses associated with any court-ordered examination that are incurred by the defendant shall be charged by the Department of Health and Human Services to the county where prosecution is commenced.

(11)
(a) When the report is received, the court shall set a date for a hearing to determine if the exemption under Section 77-15a-101 applies. The hearing shall be held and the judge shall make the determination within a reasonable time prior to jury selection.
(b) Prosecution and defense counsel may subpoena to testify at the hearing any person or organization appointed by the Department of Health and Human Services to conduct the examination and any independent examiner.
(c) The court may call any examiner to testify at the hearing who is not called by the parties. If the court calls an examiner, counsel for the parties may cross-examine that examiner.

(12)
(a) A defendant is presumed not to be intellectually disabled unless the court, by a preponderance of the evidence, finds the defendant to be intellectually disabled. The burden of proof is upon the proponent of intellectual disability at the hearing.
(b) A finding of intellectual disability does not operate as an adjudication of intellectual disability for any purpose other than exempting the person from a sentence of death in the case before the court.

(a) The defendant is presumed not to possess the mental deficiencies listed in Subsection 77-15a-101(2) unless the court, by a preponderance of the evidence, finds that the defendant has significant subaverage general intellectual functioning that exists concurrently with significant deficiencies in adaptive functioning and that this functioning was manifested prior to age 22. The burden of proof is upon the proponent of that proposition.
(b) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has significant subaverage general intellectual functioning that exists concurrently with significant deficiencies in adaptive functioning and that this functioning was manifested prior to age 22, then the burden is upon the state to establish that any confession by the defendant which the state intends to introduce into evidence is supported by substantial evidence independent of the confession.

(a) If the court finds the defendant intellectually disabled, it shall issue an order:
(i) containing findings of fact and conclusions of law, and addressing each of the factors in Subsections (5)(a) and (b); and
(ii) stating that the death penalty is not a sentencing option in the case before the court.
(b) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant possesses the mental deficiencies listed in Subsection 77-15a-101(2) and that the state fails to establish that any confession is supported by substantial evidence independent of the confession, the state may proceed with its case and:

(i) introduce the confession into evidence, and the death penalty will not be a sentencing option in the case; or

(ii) not introduce into evidence any confession or the fruits of a confession that the court has found is not supported by substantial evidence independent of the confession, and the death penalty will be a sentencing option in the case.

(c)

(i) A finding by the court regarding whether the defendant qualifies for an exemption under Section 77-15a-101 is a final determination of that issue for purposes of this chapter.

(ii) The following questions may not be submitted to the jury by instruction, special verdict, argument, or other means:

(A) whether the defendant is intellectually disabled for purposes of this chapter; and

(B) whether the defendant possesses the mental deficiencies specified in Subsection 77-15a-101(2).

(iii) This chapter does not prevent the defendant from submitting evidence of intellectual disability or other mental deficiency to establish a mental condition as a mitigating circumstance under Section 76-3-207.

(15) A ruling by the court that the defendant is exempt from the death penalty may be appealed by the state pursuant to Section 77-18a-1.

(16) Failure to comply with this section does not result in the dismissal of criminal charges.

Amended by Chapter 330, 2023 General Session

77-15a-105 Defendant's wilful failure to cooperate -- Expert testimony regarding intellectual disability is barred.

(1) If the defendant files notice, raises the issue, or intends to present evidence or make an argument that the defendant is exempt from the death penalty under this chapter, the defendant shall make himself available and fully cooperate in any examination by mental health experts appointed by the Department of Health and Human Services and any other independent examiners for the defense or the prosecution.

(2) If the defendant wilfully fails to make himself available and fully cooperate in the examination, and that failure is established to the satisfaction of the court, the defendant is barred from presenting expert testimony relating to any exemption from the death penalty under this chapter.

Amended by Chapter 330, 2023 General Session

77-15a-106 Limitations on admitting intellectual disability examination evidence.

(1) The following may not be admitted into evidence against the defendant in any criminal proceeding, except as provided in Subsection (2):

(a) any statement made by the defendant in the course of any mental examination conducted under this chapter, whether the examination is with or without the consent of the defendant, and any testimony by the expert based upon the defendant's statement; and

(b) any other fruits of the defendant's statement under Subsection (1)(a).

(2) Evidence under Subsection (1) may be admitted on an issue regarding a mental condition on which the defendant has introduced evidence.

Commitment and Treatment of Individuals with a Mental Condition

Part 1
Plea and Verdict of Guilty with a Mental Condition

77-16a-101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Board" means the Board of Pardons and Parole established under Section 77-27-2.

(2) "Department" means the Department of Health and Human Services.

(3) "Executive director" means the executive director of the Department of Health and Human Services.

(4) "Forensic evaluator" means a licensed mental health professional who is:

(a) not involved in the defendant's treatment; and

(b) trained and qualified to conduct a guilty with a mental condition evaluation.

(5) "Mental condition" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-2-305.

(6) "Mental disability" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-2-305.

(7) "Mental health facility" means the Utah State Hospital or other facility that provides mental health services under contract with the division, a local mental health authority, or organization that contracts with a local mental health authority.

(8) "Mental health supervision" includes regular and periodic activities including:

(a) the review of a defendant's assessment, diagnostic formulation, individual service plan development, and progress toward completion of care;

(b) identification of barriers to a defendant's care, assistance in removing barriers to a defendant's care, continuation of services to a defendant, authorization of care for a defendant, and the observation of the delivery of clinical care to a defendant; and

(c) the provision of an update report to a court as required under Subsection 77-16a-103(5)(g).

(9) "Mental illness" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-2-305.

(10) "Offender with a mental condition" means an individual who has been adjudicated guilty with a mental condition.

(11) "Secure setting" means a jail, prison, or locked inpatient medical facility approved by the department.

(12) "UDC" means the Department of Corrections.

Amended by Chapter 177, 2024 General Session

77-16a-102 Jury instructions.

(1) If a defendant asserts a defense of not guilty by reason of insanity, the court shall instruct the jury that the jury may find the defendant:

(a) guilty;

(b) guilty with a mental condition at the time of the offense;

(c) guilty of a lesser offense;

(d) guilty of a lesser offense with a mental condition at the time of the offense;

(e) not guilty by reason of insanity; or

(f) not guilty.

(a) When a defendant asserts a mental defense pursuant to Section 76-2-305 or asserts special mitigation reducing the level of an offense pursuant to Subsection 76-5-205.5(2)(a), or when the evidence raises the issue and either party requests the instruction, the court shall instruct the jury that if the jury finds a defendant guilty by proof beyond a reasonable doubt of a charged offense or lesser included offense, the jury shall also return a special verdict indicating whether the jury finds that the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the offense.

(b) If the jury finds the defendant guilty of the charged offense by proof beyond a reasonable doubt, and by special verdict finds the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the offense, the jury shall return the general verdict of "guilty with a mental condition at the time of the offense."

(c) If the jury finds the defendant guilty of a lesser offense by proof beyond a reasonable doubt, and by special verdict finds the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the offense, the jury shall return the general verdict of "guilty of a lesser offense with a mental condition at the time of the offense."

(d) If the jury finds the defendant guilty of the charged offense or a lesser included offense and does not find that the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the offense, the jury shall return a verdict of "guilty" of the offense, along with the special verdict form indicating that the jury did not find that the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the offense.

(e) The special verdict shall be returned by the jury at the same time as the general verdict, to indicate the basis for the jury's general verdict.

(a) In determining whether a defendant should be found guilty with a mental condition at the time of the offense, the court shall instruct the jury that the standard of proof applicable to a finding of mental condition is by a preponderance of the evidence.

(b) The court shall also instruct the jury that the standard of preponderance of the evidence does not apply to the elements establishing a defendant's guilt, and that the proof of the elements establishing a defendant's guilt of an offense must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

(4)

(a) When special mitigation based on extreme emotional distress is at issue pursuant to Subsection 76-5-205.5(2)(b), the jury shall, in addition to the jury's general verdict, return a special verdict.

(b) The special verdict shall be returned by the jury at the same time as the general verdict, to indicate the basis for the jury's general verdict.

Amended by Chapter 184, 2023 General Session

77-16a-103 Plea of guilty with a mental condition-- Procedures -- Sentencing -- Reduction -- Costs.

(1)

(i) If a defendant wishes to enter a plea of guilty with a mental condition, the parties may stipulate as to:

(A) whether the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the commission of the offense; and

(B) whether the defendant could benefit from supervision or treatment.

(ii) If the parties stipulate as described in Subsection (1)(a)(i), the court shall enter findings consistent with the parties' stipulation if the stipulation is supported by sufficient evidence.

(b) If the parties do not stipulate to Subsection (1)(a)(i), the court shall hold a hearing and determine, by clear and convincing evidence:
(i) whether the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the commission of the offense; and
(ii) whether the defendant could benefit from supervision or treatment.
(c) After reviewing the stipulation described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) or conducting a hearing under Subsection (1)(b):
(i) if the court finds that the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the offense, the court shall accept the defendant's plea of guilty with a mental condition; or
(ii) if the court finds that the defendant did not have a mental condition at the time of the offense, the court may not accept the defendant's plea of guilty with a mental condition.
(2)
(a) If a defendant wishes to enter a plea of guilty with a mental condition for a felony offense and the parties do not stipulate to Subsection (1)(a)(i), before holding the hearing described in Subsection (1)(b), the court may order the defendant to submit to an examination, which may be conducted only by a forensic evaluator appointed by the department, to determine:
(i) whether the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the commission of the offense;
(ii) whether the defendant could benefit from supervision or treatment; or
(iii) whether the defendant currently is competent to enter a plea.
(b)
(i) If a defendant wishes to enter a plea of guilty with a mental condition for a misdemeanor offense and the parties do not stipulate to Subsection (1)(a)(i), before holding the hearing described in Subsection (1)(b), the court may order the defendant to submit to an examination by a forensic evaluator.
(ii) The examination shall determine:
(A) whether the defendant had a mental condition at the time of the commission of the offense;
(B) whether the defendant could benefit from supervision or treatment; or
(C) whether the defendant currently is competent to enter a plea.
(c) Before an examination is conducted pursuant to Subsection (1)(b) or this Subsection (2):
(i) the petitioner or other party, as directed by the court or requested by the department, shall provide to the forensic evaluation provider nonmedical information and materials relevant to a treatment assessment, including the charging document, arrest or incident reports pertaining to the charged offense, known criminal history information, and known prior mental health evaluations and treatments; and
(ii) for purposes of a guilty with a mental condition evaluation, a custodian of mental health records pertaining to the defendant, including the defendant's prior mental health evaluations or records relating to the defendant's substance use disorder, may provide the records to:
(A) with the defendant's consent, a forensic evaluation provider or the department on the department's request; or
(B) pursuant to an order of the court, a forensic evaluation provider.
(3)
(a) If a defendant relies on a private mental health evaluation in support of the defendant's plea of guilty with a mental condition and the parties do not stipulate to Subsection (1)(a)(i), upon the request of the prosecutor before the hearing described in Subsection (1)(b), the court shall order the defendant to submit to an examination by:
(i) the department if the offense is a felony; or

(ii) the department or a forensic evaluator if the offense is a misdemeanor.

(b) The petitioner or other party, as directed by the court or requested by the department, shall provide to the private mental health evaluation provider nonmedical information and materials relevant to a treatment assessment, including the charging document, arrest or incident reports pertaining to the charged offense, known criminal history information, and known prior mental health evaluations and treatments.

(c) For purposes of a guilty with a mental condition evaluation, a custodian of mental health records pertaining to the defendant, including the defendant's prior mental health evaluations or records relating to the defendant's substance use disorder, may provide the records to:

(i) with the defendant's consent, a private mental health evaluation provider or the department on the department's request; or

(ii) pursuant to an order of the court, a private mental health evaluation provider.

(4) If a court finds that a defendant was guilty with a mental condition at the time of the offense in accordance with Subsection (1)(c)(i) but would not benefit from available supervision or treatment, the court shall hold a sentencing hearing within 45 days of the entry of the defendant's plea of guilty with a mental condition.

(5)

(a) If a court finds that a defendant had a mental condition at the time of the commission of the offense, the defendant could benefit from supervision or treatment, and has entered a plea of guilty with a mental condition in accordance with Subsection (1)(c)(i), the court:

(i) shall order:

(A) the department to provide a treatment assessment of the defendant and to submit to the court treatment recommendations for the defendant; or

(B) the defendant to arrange for a treatment assessment of the defendant with a private provider and for the private provider to submit to the court treatment recommendations for the defendant;

(ii) shall schedule a treatment review hearing within 30 days after the day on which the court entered the plea of guilty with a mental condition; and

(iii) may defer sentencing for up to one year in accordance with Subsection (6), if the defendant consents to a deferred sentence.

(b) The petitioner or other party, as directed by the court or requested by the department, shall provide to the treatment assessment provider nonmedical information and materials relevant to a treatment assessment, including the charging document, arrest or incident reports pertaining to the charged offense, known criminal history information, and known prior mental health evaluations and treatments.

(c) For purposes of a guilty with a mental condition treatment assessment, a custodian of mental health records pertaining to the defendant, including the defendant's prior mental health evaluations or records relating to the defendant's substance use disorder, may provide the records to:

(i) with the defendant's consent, a treatment assessment provider or the department on the department's request; or

(ii) pursuant to an order of the court, a treatment assessment provider.

(d) At the treatment review hearing described in Subsection (5)(a)(ii), the court shall:

(i) consider all available diagnosis, treatment, and supervision recommendations;

(ii) if a party does not agree with treatment recommendations issued by the department under Subsection (5)(a)(i)(A), hold a hearing on the issue of the department's recommendations and make appropriate modifications to the recommendations if necessary; and

(iii) order the defendant to comply with all treatment and supervision recommendations that are in the best interest of the defendant and public safety.

(e)

(i) In determining treatment and supervision recommendations under Subsection (5)(d), the court may order the defendant to be placed in a secure setting as described in Subsections (5)(e)(ii) and (iii) if the court finds that the placement would be in the best interest of the defendant, a victim of the defendant, or public safety.

(ii)

(A) If the offense is a class C misdemeanor, the court may not place the defendant in a secure setting for more than 90 days.

(B) If the offense is a class B misdemeanor, the court may not place the defendant in a secure setting for more than six months.

(C) If the offense is a class A misdemeanor or a felony, the court may place the defendant in a secure setting for up to one year.

(iii) The court shall, before making a determination as to a secure setting placement, notify the executive director of the proposed placement and provide the department with an opportunity to:

(A) evaluate the defendant; and

(B) make a recommendation regarding placement to the court.

(f) If the court determines that the defendant is eligible for supervised release as part of the defendant's treatment and supervision recommendations under Subsection (5)(d), except as provided in Section 76-3-406, the court may order:

(i) if the offense is a felony:

(A) supervision by the Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202, or a third party that is approved by the Division of Adult Probation and Parole, for a period of up to one year in accordance with the applicable supervision provisions described in Title 64, Chapter 13, Department of Corrections - State Prison, and Title 64, Chapter 14, Adult Probation and Parole; and

(B) mental health supervision by:

(I) the department or a local mental health authority; or

(II) if the court determines that it is appropriate, a public or private entity that provides mental or behavioral health services and is approved by the; or

(ii) if the offense is a misdemeanor, mental health supervision by:

(A) a local mental health authority; or

(B) if the court determines that it is appropriate, a public or private entity that provides mental or behavioral health services and is approved by the department.

(g)

(i) After the initial review hearing described in Subsection (5)(a), the court shall hold periodic review hearings approximately every 90 days, the frequency of which may be modified by the court.

(ii) At a review hearing described in Subsection (5)(g)(i):

(A) the department or the department's designee shall report on the progress of the defendant, provide recommendations for the defendant's future care, treatment, and secure or unsecure placement, and advise the court on the medical necessity of treatments for the defendant;

(B) the court shall review the status of the defendant and determine whether any changes are needed to the defendant's supervision or treatment plan; and

(C) a party may request, if the party has a good faith basis, that the court review or change the defendant's placement within a secure or non-secure setting.

(h) If a defendant is willfully non-compliant with the treatment or supervision ordered by the court under this Subsection (5), the court shall hold an order to show cause hearing to determine whether the court should:

(i) proceed with sentencing under Subsection (6);

(ii) change the defendant's placement to a secure setting;

(iii) impose another sanction; or

(iv) take no action.

(6)

(a) The court shall defer sentencing for a defendant who has pleaded guilty with a mental condition as described in Subsection (5) until:

(i) the court determines, after an order to show cause hearing or a review hearing as described in Subsection (5), that:

(A) the defendant is willfully non-compliant with treatment or supervision and is unlikely to become compliant with further ordered treatment or supervision; or

(B) the defendant has reached the maximum benefit of treatment and supervision; or

(ii) one year has elapsed after the day on which the court entered the defendant's plea of guilty with a mental condition.

(b) At the sentencing hearing, the court shall:

(i) consider all treatment and supervision that has occurred before the sentencing hearing in the defendant's case;

(ii) credit any time the defendant has spent in a mental health facility or other residential treatment facility or a secure facility against the defendant's sentence;

(iii) consider victim input;

(iv) consider the best interests of the defendant, including which sentence will help prevent the defendant:

(A) from losing the defendant's ability to control the defendant's state of mental health; and

(B) from committing additional criminal conduct related to the defendant's mental condition;

(v) consider the best interest of public safety; and

(vi) consider any other relevant factor or circumstance.

(7)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(b), after a defendant who has been sentenced under Subsection (6) has completed the defendant's sentence and any probation or parole:

(i) notwithstanding the contrary provisions in Subsection 76-3-402(4) or 76-3-406(1), the court has jurisdiction to enter a judgment of conviction and shall reduce the judgment of conviction for the offense by two degrees from the original offense; and

(ii) notwithstanding the contrary provisions in Subsection 76-3-402(4) or 76-3-406(1), if the prosecuting attorney specifically agrees in writing or on the court record at any time, the court has jurisdiction to consider and enter a judgment of conviction and may enter a judgment of conviction for the offense that is reduced by up to three degrees from the original offense.

(b) If a defendant's probation is revoked and any suspended sentence is imposed, the defendant may not receive a reduction under this Subsection (7).

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (8)(a)(iv), when the offense is a state offense, expenses of examination, observation, and treatment for the defendant shall be paid by the department when not paid for by the defendant's insurance.
(ii) Travel expenses shall be paid by the county where prosecution is commenced.
(iii) Expenses of examination for a defendant charged with a violation of a municipal or county ordinance shall be paid by the municipality or county that commenced the prosecution.
(iv) The department is not responsible for payment for an evaluation described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii) that is conducted by a forensic evaluator who is privately retained by a party.

(b)
(i) Provisions in this part for the support at public expense of a defendant with a mental condition do not release an insurer of a defendant with a mental condition from liability for the care or treatment of the defendant with a mental condition.
(ii) The department is authorized to collect amounts spent on a defendant with a mental condition from an insurer of the defendant with a mental condition.
(iii) A health insurance company may not deny coverage for court-ordered treatment or supervision of a defendant with a mental condition solely based on the fact that the treatment or supervision is ordered by a court if the treatment or supervision is medically necessary and would otherwise be a covered benefit under the defendant's insurance plan.

(9) A guilty with a mental condition evaluation conducted under this section is also subject to the procedural requirements of Subsections 77-15-5(8) through (11) and 77-15-6(4)(a).

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-16a-104 Verdict of guilty with a mental condition -- Hearing to determine present mental state.

(1) Upon a verdict of guilty with a mental condition for the offense charged, or any lesser offense, the court shall conduct a hearing to determine the defendant's present mental state.

(a) The court may order the department to examine the defendant to determine the defendant's mental condition, and may receive the evidence of any public or private expert witness offered by the defendant or the prosecutor.
(b) The defendant may be placed in the Utah State Hospital for the examination described in Subsection (2)(a) only upon approval of the executive director.

(3) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant currently has a mental condition, the court shall impose any sentence that could be imposed under law upon a defendant who does not have a mental condition and who is convicted of the same offense, and:
(a) commit the defendant to the department, in accordance with the provisions of Section 77-16a-202, if:
(i) the court gives the department the opportunity to provide an evaluation and recommendation under Subsection (4); and
(ii) the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that:
(A) because of the defendant's mental condition the defendant poses an immediate physical danger to self or others, including jeopardizing the defendant's own or others' safety, health, or welfare if placed in a correctional or probation setting, or lacks the ability to provide the basic necessities of life, such as food, clothing, and shelter, if placed on probation; and

(B) the department is able to provide the defendant with treatment, care, custody, and security that is adequate and appropriate to the defendant's conditions and needs;

(b) order probation in accordance with Section 77-16a-201; or

(c) if the court determines that commitment to the department under Subsection (3)(a) or probation under Subsection (3)(b) is not appropriate, the court shall place the defendant in the custody of UDC or a county jail as allowed by law.

(4) In order to ensure that the requirements of Subsection (3)(a) are met, the court shall, before making a determination, notify the executive director of the proposed placement and provide the department with an opportunity to evaluate the defendant and make a recommendation to the court regarding placement prior to commitment.

(5) If the court finds that the defendant does not currently have a mental condition, the court shall sentence the defendant as it would any other defendant.

(6) Expenses for examinations ordered under this section shall be paid in accordance with Subsection 77-16a-103(8).

Part 2
Disposition of Defendants Found Guilty with a Mental Condition

77-16a-201 Probation.

(a) In felony cases, when the court proposes to place on probation a defendant who has pled or is found guilty with a mental condition at the time of the offense, it shall request UDC to provide a presentence investigation report regarding whether probation is appropriate for that defendant and, if so, recommending a specific treatment program. If the defendant is placed on probation, that treatment program shall be made a condition of probation, and the defendant shall remain under the jurisdiction of the sentencing court.

(b) The court may not place an offender who has been convicted of the felony offenses listed in Section 76-3-406 on probation, regardless of whether the offender has, or had, a mental condition.

(2) The period of probation for a felony offense committed by a defendant who has been found guilty with a mental condition at the time of the offense may not be subsequently reduced by the sentencing court without consideration of an updated report on the mental health status of the defendant.

(3)

(a) Treatment ordered by the court under this section may be provided by or under contract with the department, a mental health facility, a local mental health authority, or, with the approval of the sentencing court, any other public or private mental health provider.

(b) The entity providing treatment under this section shall file a report with the defendant's probation officer at least every six months during the term of probation.

(c) Any request for termination of probation regarding a defendant who is receiving treatment under this section shall include a current mental health report prepared by the treatment provider.

(4) Failure to continue treatment or any other condition of probation, except by agreement with the entity providing treatment and the sentencing court, is a basis for initiating probation violation hearings.
(5) The court may not release an offender with a mental condition into the community, as a part of probation, if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that the offender:
  (a) poses an immediate physical danger to self or others, including jeopardizing the offender's own or others' safety, health, or welfare if released into the community; or
  (b) lacks the ability to provide the basic necessities of life, such as food, clothing, and shelter, if released into the community.
(6) An offender with a mental condition who is not eligible for release into the community under the provisions of Subsection (5) may be placed by the court, on probation, in an appropriate mental health facility.

77-16a-202 Person found guilty with a mental condition-- Commitment to department -- Admission to Utah State Hospital.
(1) In sentencing and committing an offender with a mental condition to the department under Subsection 77-16a-104(3)(a) or in a felony case under Subsection 77-16a-103(6), the court shall:
  (a) sentence the offender to a term of imprisonment and order that the offender be committed to the department and admitted to the Utah State Hospital for care and treatment until transferred to UDC in accordance with Sections 77-16a-203 and 77-16a-204, making provision for readmission to the Utah State Hospital whenever the requirements and conditions of Section 77-16a-204 are met; or
  (b) order that the offender be committed to the department for care and treatment for no more than 18 months, or until the offender's condition has been stabilized to the point that commitment to the department and admission to the Utah State Hospital is no longer necessary to ensure adequate mental health treatment, whichever occurs first. At the expiration of that time, the court shall sentence the offender. A retention of jurisdiction under this Subsection (1)(b) shall be specified in a court order.
(2) The court may not retain jurisdiction, under Subsection (1)(b), over the sentence of an offender with a mental condition who has been convicted of a capital felony. In capital cases, the court shall make the findings required by this section after the capital sentencing proceeding mandated by Section 76-3-207.
(3) When an offender is committed to the department and admitted to the Utah State Hospital under Subsection (1)(b), the department shall provide the court with reports of the offender's mental health status every six months. Those reports shall be prepared in accordance with the requirements of Section 77-16a-203. Additionally, the court may appoint an independent examiner to assess the mental health status of the offender.
(4) The period of commitment to the department and admission to the Utah State Hospital, and any subsequent retransfers to the Utah State Hospital made pursuant to Section 77-16a-204 may not exceed the maximum sentence imposed by the court. Upon expiration of that sentence, the administrator of the facility where the offender is located may initiate civil proceedings for involuntary commitment in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 5, Health Care - Substance Use and Mental Health, or Title 26B, Chapter 6, Part 4, Division of Services for People with Disabilities.

77-16a-203 Review of offenders with a mental condition committed to department -- Recommendations for transfer to Department of Corrections.

(a) The executive director shall designate a review team of at least three qualified staff members, including at least one licensed psychiatrist, to evaluate the mental condition of each offender with a mental condition committed to it in accordance with Section 77-16a-202, at least once every six months.
(b) If the offender has an intellectual disability, the review team shall include at least one individual who is a designated intellectual disability professional, as defined in Section 26B-6-401.

(2) At the conclusion of the review team's evaluation, the review team described in Subsection (1) shall make a report to the executive director:
(a) regarding the offender's:
(i) current mental condition;
(ii) progress since commitment; and
(iii) prognosis; and
(b) that includes a recommendation regarding whether the offender with a mental condition should be:
(i) transferred to UDC; or
(ii) remain in the custody of the department.

(3)
(a) The executive director shall notify the UDC medical administrator and the board's mental health adviser that an offender with a mental condition is eligible for transfer to UDC if the review team finds that the offender:
(i) no longer has a mental condition; or
(ii) has a mental condition and may continue to be a danger to self or others, but can be controlled if adequate care, medication, and treatment are provided by UDC; and
(iii) the offender's condition has been stabilized to the point that commitment to the department and admission to the Utah State Hospital are no longer necessary to ensure adequate mental health treatment.
(b) The administrator of the mental health facility where the offender is located shall provide the UDC medical administrator with a copy of the reviewing staff's recommendation and:
(i) all available clinical facts;
(ii) the diagnosis;
(iii) the course of treatment received at the mental health facility;
(iv) the prognosis for remission of symptoms;
(v) the potential for recidivism;
(vi) an estimation of the offender's dangerousness, either to self or others; and
(vii) recommendations for future treatment.

77-16a-204 UDC acceptance of transfer of persons found guilty with a mental condition -- Retransfer from UDC to department for admission to the Utah State Hospital.

(1) The UDC medical administrator shall designate a transfer team of at least three qualified staff members, including at least one licensed psychiatrist, to evaluate the recommendation made by the department's review team pursuant to Section 77-16a-203. If the offender has an intellectual disability, the transfer team shall include at least one person who has expertise in testing and diagnosis of people with intellectual disabilities.
(2) The transfer team shall concur in the recommendation if the transfer team determines that UDC can provide the offender with a mental condition with adequate mental health treatment.
(3) The UDC transfer team and medical administrator shall recommend the facility in which the offender should be placed and the treatment to be provided in order for the offender's mental condition to remain stabilized to the director of the Division of Institutional Operations, within the Department of Corrections.
(4) In the event that the department and UDC do not agree on the transfer of an offender with a mental condition, the administrator of the mental health facility where the offender is located shall notify the mental health adviser for the board, in writing, of the dispute. The mental health adviser shall be provided with copies of all reports and recommendations. The board's mental health adviser shall make a recommendation to the board on the transfer and the board shall issue its decision within 30 days.
(5) UDC shall notify the board whenever an offender with a mental condition is transferred from the department to UDC.
(6) When an offender with a mental condition sentenced under Section 77-16a-202, who has been transferred from the department to UDC, and accepted by UDC, is evaluated and it is determined that the offender's mental condition has deteriorated or that the offender has become mentally unstable, the offender may be readmitted to the Utah State Hospital in accordance with the findings and procedures described in Section 26B-5-372.
(7) Any individual readmitted to the Utah State Hospital pursuant to Subsection (6) shall remain in the custody of UDC, and the state hospital shall act solely as the agent of UDC.
(8) An offender with a mental condition who has been readmitted to the Utah State Hospital pursuant to Subsection (6) shall be transferred back to UDC in accordance with the provisions of Section 77-16a-203.

77-16a-205 Parole.

(1) When an offender with a mental condition who has been committed to the department becomes eligible to be considered for parole, the board shall request a recommendation from the executive director and from UDC before placing the offender on parole.
(2) Before setting a parole date, the board shall request that its mental health adviser prepare a report regarding the offender with a mental condition, including:
  (a) all available clinical facts;
  (b) the diagnosis;
  (c) the course of treatment received at the mental health facility;
  (d) the prognosis for remission of symptoms;
  (e) potential for recidivism;
  (f) an estimation of the dangerousness of the offender with a mental condition either to self or others; and
  (g) recommendations for future treatment.

(3) Based on the report described in Subsection (2), the board may place the offender with a mental condition on parole. The board may require mental health treatment as a condition of parole. If treatment is ordered, failure to continue treatment, except by agreement with the treatment provider, and the board, is a basis for initiation of parole violation hearings by the board.

(4)

(a) The Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202 shall monitor the status of an offender with a mental condition who has been placed on parole.

(b) UDC may provide treatment by contracting with the department, a local mental health authority, any other public or private provider, or in-house staff.

(5) The board may not subsequently reduce the period of parole without considering an updated report on the offender's current mental condition.

Part 3
Defendants Pleading Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity

77-16a-301 Mental examination of defendant.

(a) When the court receives notice that a defendant intends to claim that the defendant is not guilty by reason of insanity or that the defendant had diminished mental capacity, or that the defendant intends to assert special mitigation under Subsection 76-5-205.5(2)(a), the court shall order the department to examine the defendant and investigate the defendant's mental condition.

(b) The person or organization directed by the department to conduct the examination shall testify at the request of the court or either party in a proceeding in which the testimony is otherwise admissible.

(c) Pending trial, unless the court or the executive director directs otherwise, the defendant shall be retained in the same custody or status the defendant was in at the time the examination was ordered.

(a) The defendant shall be available and shall fully cooperate in the examination by the department and other independent examiners for the defense and the prosecuting attorney.

(b) If the defendant fails to be available and to fully cooperate, and that failure is established to the satisfaction of the court at a hearing prior to trial, the defendant is barred from presenting expert testimony relating to the defendant's defense of a mental condition at the trial of the case.

(c) The department shall complete the examination within 30 days after the court's order, and shall prepare and provide to the court prosecutor and defense counsel a written report concerning the condition of the defendant.

(3) Within 10 days after receipt of the report described in Subsection (2)(c) from the department, but not later than five days before the trial of the case, or at any other time the court directs, the prosecuting attorney shall file and serve upon the defendant a notice of rebuttal of the defense of a mental condition, which shall contain the names of witnesses the prosecuting attorney proposes to call in rebuttal.

(4) The report of another independent examiner is admissible as evidence upon stipulation of the prosecution and defense.
(5)
  (a) This section does not prevent a party from producing other testimony as to the mental condition of the defendant.
  (b) An expert witness who is not appointed by the court is not entitled to compensation under Subsection (7).
(6) This section does not require the admission of evidence not otherwise admissible.
(7)
  (a) The department shall pay the expenses of an examination ordered by the court under this section.
  (b) The department shall charge the county where the prosecution is commenced for travel expenses associated with an examination incurred by a defendant.
  (c) The department shall charge the entity commencing the prosecution for an examination of a defendant charged with a violation of a municipal or county ordinance.

Amended by Chapter 184, 2023 General Session

77-16a-302 Persons found not guilty by reason of insanity -- Disposition.
(1) Upon a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity, the court shall conduct a hearing within 10 days to determine whether the defendant currently has a mental condition. The defense counsel and prosecutors may request further evaluations and present testimony from those examiners.
(2) After the hearing and upon consideration of the record, the court shall order the defendant committed to the department if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that:
  (a) the defendant has a mental condition; and
  (b) because of that mental condition the defendant presents a substantial danger to self or others.
(3) The period of commitment described in Subsection (2) may not exceed the period for which the defendant could be incarcerated had the defendant been convicted and received the maximum sentence for the crime of which the defendant was accused. At the time that period expires, involuntary civil commitment proceedings may be instituted in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 5, Health Care -- Substance Use and Mental Health.

77-16a-303 Court determinations.
After entry of judgment of not guilty by reason of insanity, the court shall:
(1) determine on the record the offense of which the person otherwise would have been convicted and the maximum sentence the person could have received; and
(2) make specific findings regarding whether there is a victim of the crime for which the defendant has been found not guilty by reason of insanity and, if so, whether the victim wishes to be notified of any conditional release, discharge, or escape of the defendant.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-16a-304 Review after commitment.

(1)
(a) The executive director, or the executive director's designee, shall establish a review team of at least three qualified staff members to review the defendant's mental condition at least every six months.
(b) The team described in Subsection (1)(a) shall include:
(i) at least one psychiatrist; and
(ii) if the defendant has an intellectual disability, at least one staff member who is a designated intellectual disability professional.
(2) If the review team described in Subsection (1) finds that the defendant has recovered from the defendant's mental condition, or, that the defendant still has a mental condition but does not present a substantial danger to self or others, the executive director, or the executive director's designee, shall:
(a) notify the court that committed the defendant that the defendant is a candidate for discharge; and
(b) provide the court with a report stating the facts that form the basis for the recommendation.
(3)
(a) The court shall conduct a hearing within 10 business days after receipt of the executive director's, or the executive director's designee's, notification.
(b) The court clerk shall provide notice of the date and time of the hearing to:
(i) the prosecuting attorney;
(ii) the defendant's attorney; and
(iii) any victim of the crime for which the defendant was found not guilty by reason of insanity.
(4)
(a) The court shall order that the defendant be discharged from commitment if the court finds that the defendant:
(i) no longer has a mental condition; or
(ii) has a mental condition, but no longer presents a substantial danger to self or others.
(b) The court shall order the person conditionally released in accordance with Section 77-16a-305 if the court finds that the defendant:
(i) has a mental condition;
(ii) is a substantial danger to self or others; and
(iii) can be controlled adequately if conditionally released with treatment as a condition of release.
(c) The court shall order that the commitment be continued if the court finds that the defendant:
(i) has not recovered from the defendant's mental condition;
(ii) is a substantial danger to self or others; and
(iii) cannot adequately be controlled if conditionally released on supervision.
(d)
(i) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(d)(ii), the court may not discharge a defendant whose mental condition is in remission as a result of medication or hospitalization if it can be determined within reasonable medical probability that without continued medication or hospitalization the defendant's mental condition will reoccur, making the defendant a substantial danger to self or others.
(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (4)(d)(i), the defendant described in Subsection (4)(d)(i) may be a candidate for conditional release, in accordance with Section 77-16a-305.

Amended by Chapter 184, 2023 General Session

77-16a-305 Conditional release.

(1) If the review team finds that a defendant is not eligible for discharge, in accordance with Section 77-16a-304, but that the defendant's mental condition and dangerousness can be controlled with proper care, medication, supervision, and treatment if the defendant is conditionally released, the review team shall prepare a report and notify the executive director, or the executive director's designee, that the defendant is a candidate for conditional release.

(2) The executive director, or the executive director's designee, shall prepare a conditional release plan, listing the type of care and treatment that the individual needs and recommending a treatment provider.

(3) The executive director, or the executive director's designee, shall provide the court, the defendant's attorney, and the prosecuting attorney with a copy of the report issued by the review team under Subsection (1), and the conditional release plan. The court shall conduct a hearing on the issue of conditional release within 30 days after receipt of those documents.

(4) The court may order that a defendant be conditionally released if it finds that, even though the defendant presents a substantial danger to self or others, the defendant can be adequately controlled with supervision and treatment that is available and provided for in the conditional release plan.

(5) The department may provide treatment or contract with a local mental health authority or other public or private provider to provide treatment for a defendant who is conditionally released under this section.

Amended by Chapter 184, 2023 General Session

77-16a-306 Continuing review -- Discharge.

(1) Each entity that provides treatment for a defendant committed to the department as not guilty by reason of insanity under this part shall review the status of each defendant at least once every six months. If the treatment provider finds that a defendant has recovered from the defendant's mental condition, or, if the defendant has a mental condition, no longer presents a substantial danger to self or others, the treatment provider shall notify the executive director of the treatment provider's findings.

(2) Upon receipt of notification under Subsection (1), the executive director shall designate a review team, in accordance with Section 77-16a-304, to evaluate the defendant. If that review team concurs with the treatment provider's assessment, the executive director shall notify the court, the defendant's attorney, and the prosecuting attorney that the defendant is a candidate for discharge. The court shall conduct a hearing, in accordance with Section 77-16a-302, within 10 business days after receipt of that notice.

(3) The court may not discharge an individual whose mental condition is in remission as a result of medication or hospitalization if it can be determined within reasonable medical probability that without continued medication or hospitalization the defendant's mental condition will reoccur, making the defendant a substantial danger to self or others.

Amended by Chapter 240, 2024 General Session

77-16b-103 Involuntary feeding or hydration of prisoners -- Petition procedures, venue -- Prisoner rights.

(1) A correctional facility administrator may petition the district court where the correctional facility is located for an order permitting the involuntary feeding or hydration of any prisoner who is likely to suffer severe harm or death by refusing to accept sufficient nutrition or hydration.

(2) Prior to the filing of a petition under this section, a mental health therapist who is designated by the correctional facility administrator shall conduct a mental health evaluation of the subject prisoner.

(3) Upon the filing of a petition, the district court shall hold a hearing within two working days. The court:
- (a) shall confidentially review the prisoner's medical and mental health records as they are available;
- (b) may hear testimony or receive evidence, subject to the Utah Rules of Evidence, concerning the circumstances of the prisoner's lack of nutrition or hydration; and
- (c) may exclude from the hearing any person whose presence is not necessary for the purposes of the hearing, due to the introduction of personal medical and mental health evidence.

(4) After conducting the hearing under Subsection (3), the district court shall issue an order to involuntarily feed or hydrate the prisoner, if the court finds by a preponderance of evidence that:
- (a)
  - (i) the prisoner is likely to suffer severe harm or death by refusing to accept sufficient nutrition or hydration; and

(ii) the correctional facility's medical or penological objectives are valid and outweigh the prisoner's right to refuse treatment; or

(b) the prisoner is refusing sufficient nutrition or hydration with the intent to obstruct or delay any judicial or administrative proceeding pending against the prisoner.

(5) The district court shall state its findings of fact and conclusions of law on the record.

(6) The correctional facility administrator shall serve copies of the petition and a notice of the district court hearing on the prisoner and the prisoner's counsel, if the prisoner is represented by counsel, at least 24 hours in advance of the hearing under Subsection (3).

(7) The prisoner has the right to attend the hearing, testify, present evidence, and cross-examine witnesses.

Enacted by Chapter 355, 2012 General Session

77-16b-104 Involuntary feeding or hydration of prisoners -- Standards, continuing jurisdiction, and records.

(1) Any involuntary nutrition or hydration of a prisoner pursuant to this chapter shall be conducted under immediate medical supervision and in a medically recognized and acceptable manner.

(2) Upon the filing of a petition pursuant to Section 77-16b-102, the court has the continuing jurisdiction to review the prisoner's need for involuntary nutrition or hydration as long as the prisoner remains in custody of the correctional facility.

(3) A correctional facility shall maintain records of any involuntary feeding or hydration of prisoners under this chapter.

(a) The records are classified as "controlled" under Section 63G-2-304.

(b) All medical or mental health records submitted to the court under this chapter shall be kept under seal.

Enacted by Chapter 355, 2012 General Session

77-16b-105 Involuntary feeding or hydration of prisoners -- Exceptions.

This chapter does not apply to medically imposed fasts for the purpose of conducting medical procedures or tests, or to religious fasts of reasonable duration.

Chapter 17
The Trial

77-17-1 Doubt as to degree -- Conviction only on lowest.

When it appears the defendant has committed a public offense and there is reasonable doubt as to which of two or more degrees the defendant is guilty, the defendant shall be convicted only of the lower degree.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-17-2 Discharging one of several defendants -- To testify for state.

When two or more persons are included in the same charge, the court may at any time, on the application of the prosecuting attorney, direct any defendant to be discharged or the defendant's case severed so that the defendant may be a witness for the prosecution.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-17-3 Discharge for insufficient evidence.

When it appears to the court that there is not sufficient evidence to put a defendant to the defendant's defense, it shall forthwith order the defendant discharged.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-17-4 Conspiracy -- Pleading -- Evidence -- Proof necessary.

On a trial for conspiracy in a case where an overt act is necessary to constitute the offense, the defendant shall not be convicted unless one or more overt acts are expressly alleged in the information or indictment, and unless one of the acts alleged has been proved. However, proof of overt acts not alleged may be given in evidence.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-17-5 Proof of corporate existence or powers generally.

In a criminal case the existence, constitution or powers of any corporation may be proved by general reputation, or by the printed statutes of the state, government or country by which this corporation was created.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-17-6 Lottery tickets -- Evidence.

(1) On a trial for violation of any of the lottery provisions of the Utah Criminal Code, it is not necessary to prove:
  (a) The existence of any lottery in which any lottery tickets shall purport to have been issued;
  (b) The actual signing of any ticket or share, or pretended share of any pretended lottery; or
  (c) That any lottery ticket, share or interest was signed or issued by the authority of any manager, or of any person assuming to have authority as manager.
(2) In all cases, proof of the sale, furnishing, bartering or procuring of any lottery ticket, share or interest therein, or of any instrument purporting to be a ticket, or part or share of any ticket shall be evidence that the share or interest was signed and issued according to its purport.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-17-7 Conviction on testimony of accomplice -- Instruction to jury.

(1) A conviction may be had on the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice.
(2) In the discretion of the court, an instruction to the jury may be given to the effect that such uncorroborated testimony should be viewed with caution, and such an instruction shall be given if the trial judge finds the testimony of the accomplice to be self contradictory, uncertain or improbable.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-17-8 Mistake in charging offense -- Procedure -- Witnesses.

(1) If, at any time before verdict or judgment, a mistake is made in charging the proper offense, and there is probable cause to believe that the defendant is chargeable with another offense, the court may:
  (a) release the individual on the individual's own recognizance, as defined in Section 77-20-102, during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges;
  (b) designate a condition, or a combination of conditions, described in Subsection 77-20-205(4), to be imposed upon the individual's release during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges; or
  (c) order the individual be detained during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges.
(2) A court may require a witness to post monetary bail, as defined in Section 77-20-102, to ensure that the witness appears in court.

Amended by Chapter 4, 2021 Special Session 2

77-17-9 Separation or sequestration of jurors -- Oath of officer having custody.

(1) The court, at any time before the submission of the case to the jury, may permit the jury to separate or order that it be sequestered in charge of a proper officer.
(2) If the jury is sequestered, the officer:
  (a) shall be sworn to keep the jurors together until the next meeting of the court, to prevent any person from speaking or communicating with them;
  (b) may not communicate with the jurors on any subject connected with the trial; and
  (c) shall return the jury to the court pursuant to its order.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-17-10 Court to determine law; the jury, the facts.

(1) In a jury trial, questions of law are to be determined by the court, questions of fact by the jury.
(2) The jury may find a general verdict which includes questions of law as well as fact but they are bound to follow the law as stated by the court.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-17-11 Jury to retire for deliberation -- Oath of officer having custody.

(1) After hearing the court's instructions and arguments of counsel, the jury shall retire for deliberation.
(2) An officer shall:
  (a) be sworn to keep the jury together in some private and convenient place;
  (b) not permit any person to speak to or communicate with the jury;
  (c) not communicate with the jury except:
    (i) upon the order of the court; or
    (ii) to ask the jury whether the jury has agreed on a verdict; and
  (d) return the jury to court when the jury has agreed and the court has so ordered, or when otherwise ordered by the court.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-17-12 Defendant on bail appearing for trial may be committed.

When a defendant who has given bail appears for trial, the court may, at any time after the defendant's appearance for trial, order the defendant to be committed to the custody of the proper officer to await the judgment or further order of the court.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-17-13 Expert testimony generally -- Notice requirements.

(1)
(a) If the prosecution or the defense intends to call any expert to testify in a felony case at trial or any hearing, excluding a preliminary hearing held pursuant to Rule 7 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure, the party intending to call the expert shall give notice to the opposing party as soon as practicable but not less than 30 days before trial or 10 days before the hearing.
(b) Notice shall include the name and address of the expert, the expert's curriculum vitae, and one of the following:
(i) a copy of the expert's report, if one exists; or
(ii) a written explanation of the expert's proposed testimony sufficient to give the opposing party adequate notice to prepare to meet the testimony; and
(iii) a notice that the expert is available to cooperatively consult with the opposing party on reasonable notice.
(c) The party intending to call the expert is responsible for any fee charged by the expert for the consultation.
(2) If an expert's anticipated testimony will be based in whole or part on the results of any tests or other specialized data, the party intending to call the witness shall provide to the opposing party the information upon request.
(3) As soon as practicable after receipt of the expert's report or the information concerning the expert's proposed testimony, the party receiving notice shall provide to the other party notice of witnesses whom the party anticipates calling to rebut the expert's testimony, including the information required under Subsection (1)(b).
(4)
(a) If the defendant or the prosecution fails to substantially comply with the requirements of this section, the opposing party shall, if necessary to prevent substantial prejudice, be entitled to a continuance of the trial or hearing sufficient to allow preparation to meet the testimony.
(b) If the court finds that the failure to comply with this section is the result of bad faith on the part of any party or attorney, the court shall impose appropriate sanctions. The remedy of exclusion of the expert's testimony will only apply if the court finds that a party deliberately violated the provisions of this section.
(5)
(a) For purposes of this section, testimony of an expert at a preliminary hearing held pursuant to Rule 7 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure constitutes notice of the expert, the expert's qualifications, and a report of the expert's proposed trial testimony as to the subject matter testified to by the expert at the preliminary hearing.
(b) Upon request, the party who called the expert at the preliminary hearing shall provide the opposing party with a copy of the expert's curriculum vitae as soon as practicable prior to trial or any hearing at which the expert may be called as an expert witness.

(6) This section does not apply to the use of an expert who is an employee of the state or its political subdivisions, so long as the opposing party is on reasonable notice through general discovery that the expert may be called as a witness at trial, and the witness is made available to cooperatively consult with the opposing party upon reasonable notice.

Amended by Chapter 243, 2025 General Session

77-18-103 Presentence investigation report -- Classification of presentence investigation report -- Evidence or other information at sentencing.

(1) Before the imposition of a sentence, the court may:
(a) upon agreement of the defendant, continue the date for the imposition of the sentence for a reasonable period of time for the purpose of obtaining a presentence investigation report from the department or a law enforcement agency, or information from any other source about the defendant; and
(b) if the defendant is convicted of a felony or a class A misdemeanor, request that the department or a law enforcement agency prepare a presentence investigation report for the defendant.
(a) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), if a defendant is convicted of an offense and the defendant is a habitual offender, the prosecuting attorney shall notify the court that the defendant is a habitual offender.
(b) Upon a notification under Subsection (2)(a), the court may not impose a sentence for the conviction without ordering and obtaining a presentence investigation report, unless the court finds good cause to proceed with sentencing without the presentence investigation report.
(3) If a presentence investigation report is required under Subsection (2) or the standards established by the department described in Section 77-18-109, the presentence investigation report under Subsection (1) shall include:
(a) any impact statement provided by a victim as described in Subsection 77-38b-203(3)(c);
(b) information on restitution as described in Subsections 77-38b-203(3)(a) and (b);
(c) recommendations for treatment for the defendant; and
(d) the number of days since the commission of the offense that the defendant has spent in the custody of the jail and the number of days, if any, the defendant was released to a supervised release program or an alternative incarceration program under Section 17-72-402.
(4) The department or law enforcement agency shall provide the presentence investigation report to the defendant's attorney, or the defendant if the defendant is not represented by counsel, the prosecuting attorney, and the court for review within three working days before the day on which the defendant is sentenced.
(5)

(i) If there is an alleged inaccuracy in the presentence investigation report that is not resolved by the parties and the department or law enforcement agency before sentencing:
(A) the alleged inaccuracy shall be brought to the attention of the court at sentencing; and
(B) the court may grant an additional 10 working days after the day on which the alleged inaccuracy is brought to the court's attention to allow the parties and the department to resolve the alleged inaccuracy in the presentence investigation report.
(ii) If the court does not grant additional time under Subsection (5)(a)(i)(B), or the alleged inaccuracy cannot be resolved after 10 working days, and if the court finds that there is an inaccuracy in the presentence investigation report, the court shall:
(A) enter a written finding as to the relevance and accuracy of the challenged portion of the presentence investigation report; and
(B) provide the written finding to the department or the law enforcement agency.
(b) The department shall attach the written finding to the presentence investigation report as an addendum.
(c) If a party fails to challenge the accuracy of the presentence investigation report at the time of sentencing, the matter shall be considered waived.
(6) The contents of the presentence investigation report are protected and not available except by court order for purposes of sentencing as provided by rule of the Judicial Council or for use by the department or law enforcement agency.
(7)
(a) A presentence investigation report is classified as protected in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.
(b) Notwithstanding Sections 63G-2-403 and 63G-2-404, the director of the State Records Office, created in Section 63A-12-202, may not order the disclosure of a presentence investigation report.
(8) Except for disclosure at the time of sentencing in accordance with this section, the department or law enforcement agency may disclose a presentence investigation only when:
(a) ordered by the court in accordance with Subsection 63G-2-202(7);
(b) requested by a law enforcement agency or other agency approved by the department for purposes of supervision, confinement, and treatment of a defendant;
(c) requested by the board;
(d) requested by the subject of the presentence investigation report or the subject's authorized representative;
(e) requested by the victim of the offense discussed in the presentence investigation report, or the victim's authorized representative, if the disclosure is only information relating to:
(i) statements or materials provided by the victim;
(ii) the circumstances of the offense, including statements by the defendant; or
(iii) the impact of the offense on the victim or the victim's household; or
(f) requested by a sex offender treatment provider:
(i) who is certified to provide treatment under the certification program established in Subsection 64-13-25(2);
(ii) who is providing, at the time of the request, sex offender treatment to the offender who is the subject of the presentence investigation report; and
(iii) who provides written assurance to the department that the report:
(A) is necessary for the treatment of the defendant;
(B) will be used solely for the treatment of the defendant; and
(C) will not be disclosed to an individual or entity other than the defendant.
(9)

(a) At the time of sentence, the court shall receive any testimony, evidence, or information that the defendant or the prosecuting attorney desires to present concerning the appropriate sentence.
(b) Testimony, evidence, or information under Subsection (9)(a) shall be presented in open court on record and in the presence of the defendant.
(10) The court may not rely solely on an algorithm or a risk assessment tool score in determining the appropriate sentence for a defendant.

Amended by Chapter 17, 2025 Special Session 1

77-18-105 Pleas held in abeyance -- Suspension of a sentence -- Probation -- Supervision -- Terms and conditions of probation -- Time periods for probation -- Bench supervision for payments on criminal accounts receivable.

(1) If a defendant enters a plea of guilty or no contest in conjunction with a plea in abeyance agreement, the court may hold the plea in abeyance:
(a) in accordance with Chapter 2a, Pleas in Abeyance; and
(b) under the terms of the plea in abeyance agreement.
(2) If a defendant is convicted, the court:
(a) shall impose a sentence in accordance with Section 76-3-201; and
(b) subject to Subsection (5), may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the defendant:
(i) on probation under the supervision of the division;
(ii) on probation under the supervision of an agency of a local government or a private organization; or
(iii) on court probation under the jurisdiction of the sentencing court.
(3)
(a) The legal custody of all probationers under the supervision of the division is with the department.
(b) The legal custody of all probationers under the jurisdiction of the sentencing court is vested as ordered by the court.
(c) The court has continuing jurisdiction over all probationers.
(4)
(a) Court probation may include an administrative level of services, including notification to the sentencing court of scheduled periodic reviews of the probationer's compliance with conditions.
(b) Supervised probation services provided by the division, an agency of a local government, or a private organization shall specifically address the defendant's risk of reoffending as identified by a screening or an assessment.
(c) If a court orders supervised probation and determines that a public probation provider is unavailable or inappropriate to supervise the defendant, the court shall make available to the defendant the list of private probation providers prepared by a criminal justice coordinating council under Section 17E-2-201.
(5)
(a) Before ordering supervised probation, the court shall consider the supervision costs to the defendant for each entity that can supervise the defendant.
(b)
(i) A court may order an agency of a local government to supervise the probation for an individual convicted of any crime if:

(A) the agency has the capacity to supervise the individual; and
(B) the individual's supervision needs will be met by the agency.
(ii) A court may only order:
(A) the division to supervise the probation for an individual convicted of a class A misdemeanor or any felony; or
(B) a private organization to supervise the probation for an individual convicted of a class A, B, or C misdemeanor or an infraction.
(c) A court may not order a specific private organization to supervise an individual unless there is only one private organization that can provide the specific supervision services required to meet the individual's supervision needs.
(6)
(a) If a defendant is placed on probation, the court may order the defendant as a condition of the defendant's probation:
(i) to provide for the support of persons for whose support the defendant is legally liable;
(ii) to participate in available treatment programs, including any treatment program in which the defendant is currently participating if the program is acceptable to the court;
(iii) be voluntarily admitted to the custody of the Division of Substance Use and Mental Health for treatment at the Utah State Hospital in accordance with Section 77-18-106;
(iv) if the defendant is on probation for a felony offense, to serve a period of time as an initial condition of probation that does not exceed one year in a county jail designated by the department, after considering any recommendation by the court as to which jail the court finds most appropriate;
(v) to serve a term of home confinement in accordance with Section 77-18-107;
(vi) to participate in compensatory service programs, including the compensatory service program described in Section 76-3-410;
(vii) to pay for the costs of investigation, probation, or treatment services;
(viii) to pay restitution to a victim with interest in accordance with Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act; or
(ix) to comply with other terms and conditions the court considers appropriate to ensure public safety or increase a defendant's likelihood of success on probation.
(b) If a defendant is placed on probation and a condition of the defendant's probation is routine or random drug testing, the defendant shall sign a waiver consistent with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1320d et seq., allowing the treatment provider conducting the drug testing to notify the defendant's supervising probation officer regarding the results of the defendant's drug testing.
(c)
(i) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a)(iv), the court may modify the probation of a defendant to include a period of time that is served in a county jail immediately before the termination of probation as long as that period of time does not exceed one year.
(ii) If a defendant is ordered to serve time in a county jail as a sanction for a probation violation, the one-year limitation described in Subsection (6)(a)(iv) or (6)(c)(i) does not apply to the period of time that the court orders the defendant to serve in a county jail under this Subsection (6)(c)(ii).
(7)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(b), probation of an individual placed on probation after December 31, 2018:
(i) may not exceed the individual's maximum sentence;

(ii) shall be for a period of time that is in accordance with the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1, to the extent the guidelines are consistent with the requirements of the law; and

(iii) shall be terminated in accordance with the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1, to the extent the guidelines are consistent with the requirements of the law.

(b) Probation of an individual placed on probation after December 31, 2018, whose maximum sentence is one year or less, may not exceed 36 months.

(c) Probation of an individual placed on probation on or after October 1, 2015, but before January 1, 2019, may be terminated at any time at the discretion of the court or upon completion without violation of 36 months probation in felony or class A misdemeanor cases, 12 months in cases of class B or C misdemeanors or infractions, or as allowed in accordance with Section 64-13-21 regarding earned credits.

(d) This Subsection (7) does not apply to the probation of an individual convicted of an offense for criminal nonsupport under Section 76-7-201.

(8)

(a) Notwithstanding Subsection (7), if there is an unpaid balance of the criminal accounts receivable for the defendant upon termination of the probation period for the defendant under Subsection (7), the court may require the defendant to continue to make payments towards the criminal accounts receivable in accordance with the payment schedule established by the court under Section 77-32b-103.

(b) A court may not require the defendant to make payments as described in Subsection (8)(a) beyond the expiration of the defendant's sentence.

(c) If the court requires a defendant to continue to pay in accordance with the payment schedule for the criminal accounts receivable under this Subsection (8) and the defendant defaults on the criminal accounts receivable, the court shall proceed with an order for a civil judgment of restitution and a civil accounts receivable for the defendant as described in Section 77-18-114.

(d)

(i) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney, the victim, or upon the court's own motion, the court may require a defendant to show cause as to why the defendant's failure to pay in accordance with the payment schedule should not be treated as contempt of court.

(ii) A court may hold a defendant in contempt for failure to make payments for a criminal accounts receivable in accordance with Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 3, Contempt.

(e) This Subsection (8) does not apply to the probation of an individual convicted of an offense for criminal nonsupport under Section 76-7-201.

(9) When making any decision regarding probation:

(a) the court shall consider information provided by the Department of Corrections regarding a defendant's individual case action plan, including any progress the defendant has made in satisfying the case action plan's completion requirements; and

(b) the court may not rely solely on an algorithm or a risk assessment tool score.

Amended by Chapter 17, 2025 Special Session 1

77-18-106 Treatment at the Utah State Hospital -- Condition of probation or stay of sentence.

The court may order as a condition of probation, or a stay of sentence, that the defendant be voluntarily admitted to the custody of the Office of Substance Use and Mental Health for treatment at the Utah State Hospital only if the superintendent of the Utah State Hospital, or the superintendent's designee, certifies to the court that:

(1) the defendant is appropriate for, and can benefit from, treatment at the Utah State Hospital;
(2) there is space at the Utah State Hospital for treatment of the defendant; and
(3) individuals described in Subsection 26B-5-306(2)(g) are receiving priority for treatment over the defendant.

Amended by Chapter 330, 2023 General Session

77-18-107 Home confinement -- Electronic monitoring for home confinement.
(1) The court may order home confinement as a condition of probation under the supervision of the division, except as provided in Sections 76-3-406 and 76-5-406.5.
(2) The department shall establish procedures and standards for home confinement for all defendants supervised by the division for home confinement.
(3) If the court places the defendant on probation and orders the defendant to participate in home confinement under Subsection (1), the court may order the defendant to participate in home confinement through the use of electronic monitoring until further order of the court.
(4) The electronic monitoring of a defendant shall alert the division and the appropriate law enforcement agency of the defendant's whereabouts.
(5) An electronic monitoring device shall be used under conditions that require:
  (a) the defendant to wear an electronic monitoring device at all times; and
  (b) the device be placed in the home of the defendant to monitor the defendant's compliance with the court's order.
(6) If a court orders a defendant to participate in home confinement through electronic monitoring as a condition of probation under Subsection (3), the court shall:
  (a) place the defendant on probation under the supervision of the division;
  (b) order the division to place an electronic monitoring device on the defendant and install electronic monitoring equipment in the residence of the defendant; and
  (c) order the defendant to pay the costs associated with home confinement to the department or the program provider.
(7) The department shall pay the costs of home confinement through electronic monitoring only for an individual who is determined to be indigent by the court.
(8) The department may provide the electronic monitoring described in this section directly or by contract with a private provider.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-18-108 Termination, revocation, modification, or extension of probation -- Violation of probation -- Hearing on violation.
(1)
  (a) The division shall send a written notice to the court:
    (i) when the division is recommending termination of supervision for a defendant; or
    (ii) before a defendant's supervision will be terminated by law.
  (b) The written notice under this Subsection (1) shall include:
    (i) a probation progress report; and

(ii) if the department is responsible for the collection of the defendant's criminal accounts receivable, a summary of the criminal accounts receivable, including the amount of restitution ordered and the amount of restitution that has been paid.

(c)

(i) Upon receipt of the written notice under Subsection (1)(a), the court shall:

(A) file the written notice on the docket; and

(B) provide notice to all parties in the criminal case.

(ii) A party shall have a reasonable opportunity to respond to the written notice under Subsection (1)(a).

(d) If a defendant's probation is being terminated, and the defendant's criminal accounts receivable has an unpaid balance or there is any outstanding debt with the department, the department shall send a written notice to the Office of State Debt Collection with a summary of the defendant's criminal accounts receivable, including the amount of restitution ordered and the amount of restitution that has been paid.

(a) The court may modify the defendant's probation in accordance with the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1.

(b) The court may not:

(i) extend the length of a defendant's probation, except upon:

(A) waiver of a hearing by the defendant; or

(B) a hearing and a finding by the court that the defendant has violated the terms of probation;

(ii) revoke a defendant's probation, except upon a hearing and a finding by the court that the terms of probation have been violated; or

(iii) terminate a defendant's probation before expiration of the probation period until the court:

(A) reviews the docket to determine whether the defendant owes a balance on the defendant's criminal accounts receivable; and

(B) enters a finding of whether the defendant owes restitution under Section 77-38b-205.

(c) The court may find under Subsection (2)(b)(iii)(B) that the defendant does not owe restitution if no request for restitution has been filed with the court.

(3)

(a) Upon the filing of an affidavit, or an unsworn written declaration executed in substantial compliance with Title 78B, Chapter 18a, Uniform Unsworn Declarations Act, alleging with particularity facts asserted to constitute violation of the terms of a defendant's probation, the court shall determine if the affidavit or unsworn written declaration establishes probable cause to believe that revocation, modification, or extension of the defendant's probation is justified.

(b)

(i) If the court determines there is probable cause, the court shall order that the defendant be served with:

(A) a warrant for the defendant's arrest or a copy of the affidavit or unsworn written declaration; and

(B) an order to show cause as to why the defendant's probation should not be revoked, modified, or extended.

(ii) The order under Subsection (3)(b)(i)(B) shall:

(A) be served upon the defendant at least five days before the day on which the hearing is held;

(B) specify the time and place of the hearing; and

(C) inform the defendant of the right to be represented by counsel at the hearing, the right to have counsel appointed if the defendant is indigent, and the right to present evidence at the hearing.

(iii) The defendant shall show good cause for a continuance of the hearing.

(c) At the hearing, the defendant shall admit or deny the allegations of the affidavit or unsworn written declaration.

(d)

(i) If the defendant denies the allegations of the affidavit or unsworn written declaration, the prosecuting attorney shall present evidence on the allegations.

(ii) If the affidavit, or unsworn written declaration, alleges that a defendant is delinquent, or in default, on a criminal accounts receivable, the prosecuting attorney shall present evidence to establish, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the defendant:

(A) was aware of the defendant's obligation to pay the balance of the criminal accounts receivable;

(B) failed to pay on the balance of the criminal accounts receivable as ordered by the court; and

(C) had the ability to make a payment on the balance of the criminal accounts receivable if the defendant opposes an order to show cause, in writing, and presents evidence that the defendant was unable to make a payment on the balance of the criminal accounts receivable.

(e) The persons who have given adverse information on which the allegations are based shall be presented as witnesses subject to questioning by the defendant, unless the court for good cause otherwise orders.

(f) At the hearing, the defendant may:

(i) call witnesses;

(ii) appear and speak in the defendant's own behalf; and

(iii) present evidence.

(g)

(i) After the hearing, the court shall make findings of fact.

(ii) Upon a finding that the defendant violated the terms of the defendant's probation, the court may order the defendant's probation terminated, revoked, modified, continued, or reinstated for all or a portion of the original term of probation.

(i) Except as provided in Subsection 77-18-105(7), the court may not require a defendant to remain on probation for a period of time that exceeds the length of the defendant's maximum sentence.

(ii) Except as provided in Subsection 77-18-105(7), if a defendant's probation is revoked and later reinstated, the total time of all periods of probation that the defendant serves, in relation to the same sentence, may not exceed the defendant's maximum sentence.

(b) If the court orders a sanction for a defendant who violated terms of probation, the court may:

(i) order a period of incarceration that is consistent with the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1;

(ii) order a period of incarceration that deviates from the guidelines with an explanation for the deviation on the record;

(iii) order treatment services that are immediately available in the community for a defendant that needs substance abuse or mental health treatment, as determined by a screening and assessment;

(iv) execute the sentence previously imposed; or
(v) order any other appropriate sanction.
(c) If the defendant had, before the imposition of a term of incarceration or the execution of the previously imposed sentence under this section, served time in jail as a term of probation or due to a violation of probation, the time that the defendant served in jail constitutes service of time toward the sentence previously imposed.
(5)
(a) Any time served by a defendant:
(i) outside of confinement after having been charged with a probation violation, and before a hearing to revoke probation, does not constitute service of time toward the total probation term, unless the defendant is exonerated at a hearing to revoke the defendant's probation;
(ii) in confinement awaiting a hearing or a decision concerning revocation of the defendant's probation does not constitute service of time toward the total probation term, unless the defendant is exonerated at the hearing to revoke probation; or
(iii) in confinement awaiting a hearing or a decision concerning revocation of the defendant's probation constitutes service of time toward a term of incarceration imposed as a result of the revocation of probation or a graduated and evidence-based response imposed under the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1.
(b) The running of the probation period is tolled upon:
(i) the filing of a report with the court alleging a violation of the terms of the defendant's probation; or
(ii) the issuance of an order or a warrant under Subsection (3).

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-18-109 Standards for supervision and presentence investigation.
(1) The department shall establish supervision and presentence investigation standards for all individuals referred to the division based on:
(a) the type of offense;
(b) the results of a screening and an assessment;
(c) the demand for services;
(d) the availability of agency resources;
(e) public safety; and
(f) other criteria established by the department to determine what level of services shall be provided.
(2) The department shall submit proposed supervision and presentence investigation standards annually to the Judicial Council and the board for review and comment before the department adopts the standards.
(3) The Judicial Council and the department shall establish procedures for the division to implement the supervision and presentence investigation standards.
(4) The Judicial Council and the department shall annually consider modifications to the standards based upon criteria in Subsection (1) and other criteria as the Judicial Council and the department consider appropriate.
(5) The Judicial Council and the department shall:
(a) annually prepare an impact report; and
(b) submit the impact report to the appropriate legislative appropriations subcommittee.

77-18-111 Sentence -- Term -- Construction.

(1) If an individual is convicted of a crime and the judgment provides for a commitment to the state prison, the court shall not fix a definite term of imprisonment unless otherwise provided by law.
(2) The sentence and judgment of imprisonment shall be for an indeterminate term of not less than the minimum and not to exceed the maximum term provided by law for the particular crime.
(3) Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, every sentence, regardless of the sentence's form or terms, which purports to be for a shorter or different period of time, shall be construed to be a sentence for the term between the minimum and maximum periods of time provided by law and shall continue until the maximum period has been reached unless sooner terminated or commuted by authority of the board.
(4)
  (a) A court may not order that a term of imprisonment commences before the day upon which the sentence of imprisonment is imposed, except to correct a sentence consistent with Rule 22(e) or 30(b) of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure.
  (b) The board may grant an individual credit for time served or other credit against a sentence, including as provided in Subsection 76-3-208(1)(b) or Section 76-3-403 or 77-27-5.4.

Amended by Chapter 145, 2024 General Session

77-18-112 Reports by courts and prosecuting attorneys to Board of Pardons and Parole.

In cases where an indeterminate sentence is imposed, the court and prosecuting attorney may, within 30 days, mail a statement to the board setting forth the term for which the prisoner ought to be imprisoned together with any information which might aid the board in passing on the application for termination or commutation of the sentence or for parole or pardon.

77-18-113 Judgment of death -- Method is lethal injection -- Exceptions for use of firing squad.

  (a) When a defendant is convicted of a capital felony and the judgment of death has been imposed, lethal intravenous injection is the method of execution.
  (b) Subsection (1)(a) applies to any defendant sentenced to death on or after May 3, 2004, except under Subsections (2), (3), and (4).
(2)
  (a) If a court holds that a defendant has a right to be executed by a firing squad, the method of execution for that defendant shall be a firing squad.
  (b) This Subsection (2) applies to any defendant whose right to be executed by a firing squad is preserved by that judgment.
(3)
  (a) If a court holds that execution by lethal injection is unconstitutional on its face, the method of execution shall be a firing squad.

(b) If a court holds that execution by lethal injection is unconstitutional as applied, the method of execution for that defendant shall be a firing squad.

(4) The method of execution for the defendant is the firing squad if the sentencing court determines the state is unable to lawfully obtain the substance or substances necessary to conduct an execution by lethal intravenous injection 30 or more days before the date specified in the warrant issued upon a judgment of death under Section 77-19-6.

77-18-114 Unpaid balance at termination of sentence -- Transfer of collection responsibility -- Past due account -- Notice -- Account or judgment paid in full -- Effect of civil accounts receivable and civil judgment of restitution.

(1) When a defendant's sentence is terminated by law or by the decision of the court or the board:

(a) the board shall provide notice to the Office of State Debt Collection, and the Office of State Debt Collection shall provide an accounting of the unpaid balance of the defendant's criminal accounts receivable to the court if the defendant was on parole or incarcerated at the time of termination; and

(b) except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(iv), Subsection 77-18-118(1)(g), and Subsection 77-27-6.1(2)(f), within 90 days after the day on which a defendant's sentence is terminated, the court shall:

(i) enter an order for a civil accounts receivable and a civil judgment of restitution for a defendant on the civil judgment docket;

(ii) transfer the responsibility of collecting the civil accounts receivable and the civil judgment of restitution to the Office of State Debt Collection;

(iii) identify in the order under this Subsection (1):

(A) the Office of State Debt Collection as a judgment creditor for the civil accounts receivable and the civil judgment of restitution; and

(B) the victim as a judgment creditor for the civil judgment of restitution; and

(iv) if the restitution is owed to the Department of Workforce Services or the Department of Health and Human Services, upon request by the prosecutor or victim:

(A) enter an order for the civil accounts receivable and a civil judgment of restitution for a defendant on the civil judgment docket;

(B) transfer the responsibility of collecting the civil judgment of restitution to each entity described in this Subsection (1)(b)(iv) that is owed restitution, with the balance owed to each entity assigned to each entity respectively if applicable;

(C) identify each entity that is assigned responsibility for collecting a civil judgment of restitution under Subsection (1)(b)(iv)(B) as a judgment creditor for the civil judgment of restitution; and

(D) identify the Office of State Debt Collection as a judgment creditor for any civil accounts receivable and transfer the responsibility of collecting the civil accounts receivable to the Office of State Debt Collection.

(2) If a criminal accounts receivable for the defendant is more than 90 days past due and the court has ordered that a defendant does not owe restitution to any victim, or the time period for entering an order for restitution has expired under Section 77-38b-205 and the court has not ordered restitution, the court may:

(a) enter an order for a civil accounts receivable for the defendant on the civil judgment docket;

(b) identify, in the order under Subsection (2)(a), the Office of State Debt Collection as a judgment creditor for the civil accounts receivable; and

(c) transfer the responsibility of collecting the civil accounts receivable to the Office of State Debt Collection.

(3) An order for a criminal accounts receivable is no longer in effect after the court enters an order for a civil accounts receivable or a civil judgment of restitution under Subsection (1) or (2).

(4) The court shall provide notice to the Office of State Debt Collection and the prosecuting attorney of any hearing that affects an order for the civil accounts receivable or the civil judgment of restitution.

(5) The Office of State Debt Collection shall notify the court when a civil judgment of restitution or a civil accounts receivable is satisfied.

(6) When a fine, forfeiture, surcharge, cost, or fee is recorded in an order for a civil accounts receivable on the civil judgment docket, or when restitution is recorded as an order for a civil judgment of restitution on the civil judgment docket, the order:

(a) constitutes a lien on the defendant's real property until the judgment is satisfied; and

(b) may be collected by any means authorized by law for the collection of a civil judgment.

(7) A criminal accounts receivable, a civil accounts receivable, and a civil judgment of restitution are not subject to the civil statutes of limitation and expire only upon payment in full.

(8)

(a) If a defendant asserts that a payment was made to a victim or third party for a civil judgment of restitution, or enters into any other transaction that does not involve the Office of State Debt Collection, and the defendant asserts that the payment results in a credit toward the civil judgment of restitution for the defendant:

(i) the defendant shall provide notice to the Office of State Debt Collection and the prosecuting attorney within 30 days after the day on which the payment or other transaction is made; and

(ii) the payment may only be credited towards the civil judgment of restitution and does not affect any other amount owed to the Office of State Debt Collection under Section 63A-3-502.

(b) Nothing in this Subsection (8) shall be construed to prevent a victim or a third party from providing notice of a payment towards a civil judgment of restitution to the Office of State Debt Collection.

77-18-115 Liability of rescued person for costs of emergency response.

(1) Any person who violates Section 76-6-206.1 and whose conduct required emergency care, rescue, assistance, or recovery services at the scene of an abandoned or inactive mine may be charged with the expenses incurred in meeting the emergency.

(2)

(a) The court's order shall be a judgment that orders the payment of reimbursement to any public agency or private body that incurred the expenses.

(b) The judgment shall constitute a lien when recorded in the judgment docket and shall have the same effect and is subject to the same rules as a judgment for money in a civil action.

(3) The liability imposed under this section is in addition to and not in limitation of any other liability that may be imposed.

77-18-118 Continuing jurisdiction of a sentencing court.
(1) A sentencing court shall retain jurisdiction over a defendant's criminal case:
  (a) if the defendant is on probation as described in Subsection 77-18-105(3)(c);
  (b) if the defendant is on probation and the probation period has terminated under Subsection 77-18-105(7), to require the defendant to continue to make payments towards a criminal accounts receivable until the defendant's sentence expires;
  (c) within the time periods described in Section 77-38b-205, to enter or modify an order for a criminal accounts receivable in accordance with Section 77-32b-103;
  (d) within the time periods described in Section 77-38b-205, to enter or modify an order for restitution in accordance with Section 77-38b-205;
  (e) until a defendant's sentence is terminated, to correct an error for a criminal accounts receivable in accordance with Subsection 77-32b-105(1)(a);
  (f) until a defendant's sentence is terminated, to modify a payment schedule for a criminal accounts receivable in accordance with Subsection 77-32b-105(1)(b);
  (g) if a defendant files a petition for remittance under Subsection 77-32b-106(1) within 90 days from the day on which the defendant's sentence is terminated, to determine whether to remit, in whole or in part, the defendant's criminal accounts receivable; and
  (h) to enter an order for a civil accounts receivable and a civil judgment of restitution in accordance with Section 77-18-114.
(2) This section does not prevent a court from exercising jurisdiction over:
  (a) a contempt proceeding for a defendant under Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 3, Contempt; or
  (b) enforcement of a civil accounts receivable or a civil judgment of restitution.

The Appeal

77-18a-1 Appeals -- When proper.

(1) A defendant may, as a matter of right, appeal from:
  (a) a final judgment of conviction, whether by verdict or plea;
  (b) an order made after judgment that affects the substantial rights of the defendant;
  (c) an order adjudicating the defendant's competency to proceed further in a pending prosecution; or
  (d) an order denying bail under Chapter 20, Bail.
(2) In addition to any appeal permitted by Subsection (1), a defendant may seek discretionary appellate review of any interlocutory order.
(3) The prosecution may, as a matter of right, appeal from:
  (a) a final judgment of dismissal, including a dismissal of a felony information following a refusal to bind the defendant over for trial;
  (b) a pretrial order dismissing a charge on the ground that the court's suppression of evidence has substantially impaired the prosecution's case;
  (c) an order granting a motion to withdraw a plea of guilty or no contest;
  (d) an order arresting judgment or granting a motion for merger;
  (e) an order terminating the prosecution because of a finding of double jeopardy or denial of a speedy trial;
  (f) an order granting a new trial;
  (g) an order holding a statute or any part of it invalid;
  (h) an order adjudicating the defendant's competency to proceed further in a pending prosecution;
  (i) an order finding, pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 19, Part 2, Competency for Execution, that an inmate sentenced to death is incompetent to be executed;
  (j) an order reducing the degree of offense pursuant to Section 76-3-402;
  (k) an illegal sentence; or
  (l) an order dismissing a charge pursuant to Subsection 76-2-309(3).
(4) In addition to any appeal permitted by Subsection (3), the prosecution may seek discretionary appellate review of any interlocutory order entered before jeopardy attaches.

Amended by Chapter 4, 2021 Special Session 2

77-18a-2 Capital cases.

After the resolution of an initial appeal of a capital case when the sentence of death has been imposed, a subsequent appeal may not be entertained by any court and a stay of execution of the sentence may not be granted when the appeal does not raise any new matter not previously resolved or when the new matter could have been raised at the previous appeal.

Chapter 19
The Execution

Part 1
Judgment Provisions

77-19-1 Judgment for fine or costs -- Enforcement.

If the judgment is for a fine or costs when allowed by statute and the fine is not paid as ordered by the court, execution or garnishment may be issued as on a judgment in a civil action. The prosecuting attorney, upon written request of the court clerk, shall effectuate collection through execution or garnishment when the fine or costs have not been paid as ordered by the court.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-19-2 Judgment of imprisonment -- Commitment.

If the judgment is for imprisonment, the sheriff of the county or other appropriate custodial officer designated by the court shall, upon receipt of a certified copy of the judgment, deliver the defendant to the warden of the state prison or keeper of the jail. Such custodial officer shall also deliver a certified copy of the judgment and take a receipt from the warden or keeper of the jail for the defendant and return it to the court.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-19-3 Special release from city or county jail -- Purposes.

(1) Any person incarcerated in any city or county jail may, in accordance with the release policy of the facility, be released from jail during those hours which are reasonable and necessary to accomplish any of the purposes under Subsection (2) if:
  (a) the offense is not one for which release is prohibited under state law; and
  (b) the judge has not entered an order prohibiting a special release.
(2) The custodial authority at the jail may release an inmate who qualifies under Subsection (1) for:
  (a) working at his employment;
  (b) seeking employment;
  (c) attending an educational institution;
  (d) obtaining necessary medical treatment; or
  (e) any other reasonable purpose as determined by the custodial authority of the jail.

Amended by Chapter 148, 2007 General Session

77-19-4 Special release from city or county jail -- Conditions and limitations.

(1) All released prisoners under Section 77-19-3 are in the custody of the custodial authority and are subject at any time to being returned to jail, for good cause.
(2) The judge may order that the prisoner:
  (a) pay money earned from employment during the jail term to those persons he is legally responsible to support; or
  (b) retain sufficient money to pay his costs of transportation, meals, and other incidental and necessary expenses related to his special release.
(3) The custodial authority of the jail shall establish all other conditions of special release.
(4) During all hours when the prisoner is not serving the function for which he is awarded release time, he shall be confined to jail.
(5) The prisoner shall obtain his own transportation to and from the place where he performs the function for which he is released.

Amended by Chapter 148, 2007 General Session

Amended by Chapter 306, 2007 General Session

77-19-5 Special release from city or county jail -- Revocation.

The judge may, for good cause, revoke any release time previously awarded, and shall notify the prisoner that, if the prisoner makes written request, a hearing shall be afforded to the prisoner to challenge the revocation.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-19-6 Judgment of death -- Warrant -- Delivery of warrant -- Determination of execution time.

(1)

(a) When judgment of death is rendered, a warrant, signed by the judge and attested by the clerk under the seal of the court, shall be drawn and delivered to the sheriff of the county where the conviction is had.

(b) The sheriff shall deliver the warrant and a certified copy of the judgment to the executive director of the Department of Corrections or the executive director's designee at the time of delivering the defendant to the custody of the Department of Corrections.

(2) The warrant shall state the conviction, the judgment, the method of execution, and the appointed day the judgment is to be executed, which may not be fewer than 30 days nor more than 60 days from the date of issuance of the warrant, and may not be a Sunday, Monday, or a legal holiday, as defined in Section 63G-1-301.

(3) The Department of Corrections shall determine the hour, within the appointed day, at which the judgment is to be executed.

Amended by Chapter 382, 2008 General Session

77-19-7 Judgment of death -- Statement to Board of Pardons and Parole.

The judge of a court where a judgment of death was had shall, immediately after the conviction, transmit to the chair of the Board of Pardons and Parole a statement of the conviction and judgment and a summary of the evidence given at trial.

Amended by Chapter 13, 1994 General Session

77-19-8 Judgment of death, when suspended, and by whom.

(1) Except as stated in Subsection (2), a judge, tribunal, or officer, other than the governor or the Board of Pardons and Parole, may not stay or suspend the execution of a judgment of death.

(2)

(a) A court of competent jurisdiction shall issue a temporary stay of judgment of death when:

(i) the judgment is appealed;

(ii) the judgment is automatically reviewed;

(iii) the person sentenced to death files a first petition for postconviction relief after the direct appeal under Title 78B, Chapter 9, Postconviction Remedies Act;

(iv) the person sentenced to death requests counsel under Subsection 78B-9-202(2)(a) to represent the person in a first action for postconviction relief under Title 78B, Chapter 9, Postconviction Remedies Act; or

(v) counsel enters an appearance to represent the person sentenced to death in a first action for postconviction relief under Title 78B, Chapter 9, Postconviction Remedies Act.

(b) A court may not issue a temporary stay of judgment of death when the person sentenced to death files a petition for postconviction relief under Title 78B, Chapter 9, Postconviction Remedies Act, after a first petition has been denied or dismissed, unless the court first finds all of the following:
(i) the claims would not be barred under Section 78B-9-106;
(ii) the claims are potentially meritorious; and
(iii) the petition may not be reasonably disposed of before the execution date.
(c)
(i) The executive director of the Department of Corrections or a designee under Section 77-19-202 may temporarily suspend the execution if the person sentenced to death appears to be incompetent or pregnant.
(ii) A temporary suspension under Subsection (2)(c)(i) shall end if the person is determined to be:
(A) competent;
(B) not pregnant; or
(C) no longer incompetent or pregnant.
(3)
(a) The court must vacate a stay issued pursuant to Subsection (2)(a) when the appeal, automatic review, or action under Title 78B, Chapter 9, Postconviction Remedies Act is concluded.
(b) A request for counsel under Section 78B-9-202 does not constitute an application for postconviction or other collateral review and does not toll the statute of limitations under Section 78B-9-107.

Amended by Chapter 165, 2011 General Session

77-19-9 Judgment of death not executed -- Order for execution.
(1) If for any reason a judgment of death has not been executed and remains in force, the court where the conviction was had, on application of the prosecuting attorney, shall order the defendant to be brought before it or, if the defendant is at large, issue a warrant for the defendant's apprehension.
(2) When the defendant is brought before the court, it shall inquire into the facts and, if no legal reason exists against the execution of judgment, the court shall make an order requiring the executive director of the Department of Corrections or the executive director's designee to ensure that the judgment is executed on a specified day, which may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the court's order, and may not be a Sunday, Monday, or a legal holiday, as defined in Section 63G-1-301. The court shall also draw and have delivered another warrant under Section 77-19-6.
(3) The Department of Corrections shall determine the hour, within the appointed day, at which the judgment is to be executed.

Amended by Chapter 382, 2008 General Session

77-19-10 Judgment of death -- Location and procedures for execution.
(1) The executive director of the Department of Corrections or a designee shall ensure that the method of judgment of death specified in the warrant or as required under Section 77-18-113 is carried out at a secure correctional facility operated by the department and at an hour determined by the department on the date specified in the warrant.

(2) When the judgment of death is to be carried out by lethal intravenous injection, the executive director of the department or a designee shall select two or more persons trained in accordance with accepted medical practices to administer intravenous injections, who shall each administer a continuous intravenous injection, consisting of one or more substances of a type and amount that is sufficiently effective to cause death without a substantial risk of severe pain.
(3) If the judgment of death is to be carried out by firing squad under Subsection 77-18-113(2), (3), or (4) the executive director of the department or a designee shall select a five-person firing squad of peace officers.
(4) Compensation for persons administering intravenous injections and for members of a firing squad under Subsection 77-18-113(2), (3), or (4) shall be in an amount determined by the director of the Division of Finance.
(5) Death under this section shall be certified by a physician.
(6) The department shall adopt and enforce rules governing procedures for the execution of judgments of death.

Amended by Chapter 299, 2025 General Session

77-19-11 Who may be present -- Photographic and recording equipment.

(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Close relative of the deceased victim" means:
(i) the spouse of the victim;
(ii) a parent or stepparent of the victim;
(iii) a brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, child, or stepchild of the victim; and
(iv) any person who had a close relationship with the deceased victim, or with a close relative of the victim, upon the recommendation of the victim assistance coordinator for the Department of Corrections or for the Office of the Attorney General.
(b) "Director" means the executive director of the Department of Corrections, or the director's designee.
(2) At the discretion of the director, the following persons may attend the execution:
(a) the prosecuting attorney, or a designated deputy, of the county in which the defendant committed the offense for which the defendant is being executed;
(b) no more than two law enforcement officials from the county in which the defendant committed the offense for which the defendant is being executed;
(c) the attorney general or a designee;
(d) religious representatives, friends, or relatives designated by the defendant, not exceeding a total of five persons; and
(e) unless approved by the director, no more than five close relatives of the deceased victim, as selected by the director, but giving priority in the order listed in Subsection (1)(a).
(3) The persons listed in Subsection (2) may not be required to attend, nor may any of them attend as a matter of right.
(4) The director shall permit the attendance at the execution of members of the press and broadcast news media:
(a) as named by the director in accordance with rules of the department; and
(b) with the agreement of the selected news media members that they serve as a pool for other members of the news media.
(5)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), photographic or recording equipment is not permitted at the execution site until the execution is completed, the body is removed, and the site has been restored to an orderly condition. However, the physical arrangements for the execution may not be disturbed.

(b) Audio recording equipment may be used by the department for the purpose of recording the defendant's last words.

(c) The department shall permanently destroy the recording made under Subsection (5)(b) not later than 24 hours after the completion of the execution.

(d) A violation of this subsection is a class B misdemeanor.

(6) All persons in attendance are subject to reasonable search as a condition of attendance.

(7)

(a) The following persons may also attend the execution:

(i) staff as determined by the director; and

(ii) no more than three correctional officials from other states that are preparing for executions, but no more than two correctional officials may be from any one state, as designated by the director.

(b) A person younger than 18 years old may not attend.

(8) The department shall adopt rules governing the attendance of persons, including the number of media representatives, at the execution. These rules shall be in accordance with this section.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-19-12 Return upon death warrant.

After the execution, the executive director of the Department of Corrections or the executive director's designee shall make a return upon the death warrant, showing the time, place, and manner in which it was executed.

Part 2
Competency for Execution

77-19-201 Definition.

As used in this part, "incompetent to be executed" means that, due to mental condition, an inmate is unaware of either the punishment he is about to suffer or why he is to suffer it.

Amended by Chapter 71, 2005 General Session

77-19-202 Incompetency or pregnancy of person sentenced to death -- Procedures.

(1) If, after judgment of death, the executive director of the Department of Corrections has good reason to believe that an inmate sentenced to death is pregnant, or has good reason to believe that an inmate's competency to be executed under this chapter should be addressed by a court, the executive director of the Department of Corrections or the executive director's designee shall immediately give written notice to the court in which the judgment of death was rendered, to the prosecuting attorney, and counsel for the inmate. The judgment shall be stayed pending further order of the court.

(a) On receipt of the notice under Subsection (1) of good reason for the court to address an inmate's competency to be executed, the court shall order that the mental condition of the inmate shall be examined under the provisions of Section 77-19-204.
(b) If the inmate is found incompetent, the court shall immediately transmit a certificate of the findings to the Board of Pardons and Parole and continue the stay of execution pending further order of the court.
(c) If the inmate is subsequently found competent at any time, the judge shall immediately transmit a certificate of the findings to the Board of Pardons and Parole, and shall draw and have delivered another warrant under Section 77-19-6, together with a copy of the certificate of the findings. The warrant shall state an appointed day on which the judgment is to be executed, which may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days from the date of the drawing of the warrant, and which may not be a Sunday, Monday, or a legal holiday, as defined in Section 63G-1-301.

(a) If the court finds the inmate is pregnant, it shall immediately transmit a certificate of the finding to the Board of Pardons and Parole and to the executive director of the Department of Corrections or the executive director's designee, and the court shall issue an order staying the execution of the judgment of death during the pregnancy.
(b) When the court determines the inmate is no longer pregnant, it shall immediately transmit a certificate of the finding to the Board of Pardons and Parole and draw and have delivered another warrant under Section 77-19-6, with a copy of the certificate of the finding. The warrant shall state an appointed day on which the judgment is to be executed, which may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days from the date of the drawing of the warrant, and which may not be a Sunday, Monday, or a legal holiday, as defined in Section 63G-1-301.

(4) The Department of Corrections shall determine the hour, within the appointed day, at which the judgment is to be executed.

Amended by Chapter 382, 2008 General Session

77-19-203 Petition for inquiry as to competency to be executed -- Filing -- Contents -- Successive petitions.

(1) If an inmate who has been sentenced to death is or becomes incompetent to be executed, a petition under Subsection (2) may be filed in the district court of the county where the inmate is confined.
(2) The petition shall:
(a) contain a certificate stating that it is filed in good faith and on reasonable grounds to believe the inmate is incompetent to be executed; and
(b) contain a specific recital of the facts, observations, and conversations with the inmate that form the basis for the petition.
(3) The petition may be based upon knowledge or information and belief and may be filed by the inmate alleged to be incompetent, legal counsel for the inmate, or by an attorney representing the state.
(4) Before ruling on a petition filed by an inmate or his counsel alleging that the inmate is incompetent to be executed, the court shall give the state and the Department of Corrections an opportunity to respond to the allegations of incompetency.
(5) If a petition is filed after an inmate has previously been found competent under either this chapter or under Chapter 15, Defendant's Competency to Proceed, no further hearing on competency may be granted unless the successive petition:

(a) alleges with specificity a substantial change of circumstances subsequent to the previous determination of competency; and
(b) is sufficient to raise a significant question about the inmate's competency to be executed.

Amended by Chapter 46, 2025 General Session

77-19-204 Order for hearing -- Examinations of inmate -- Scope of examination and report.

(1) When a court has good reason to believe an inmate sentenced to death is incompetent to be executed, it shall stay the execution and shall order the Department of Health and Human Services to examine the inmate and report to the court concerning the inmate's mental condition.

(a) The inmate subject to examination under Subsection (1) shall be examined by at least two mental health experts who are not involved in the inmate's current treatment.
(b) The Department of Corrections shall provide information and materials to the examiners relevant to a determination of the inmate's competency to be executed.

(3) The inmate shall make himself available and fully cooperate in the examination by the Department of Health and Human Services and any other independent examiners for the defense or the state.

(4) The examiners shall in the conduct of their examinations and in their reports to the court consider and address, in addition to any other factors determined to be relevant by the examiners:
(a) the inmate's awareness of the fact of the inmate's impending execution;
(b) the inmate's understanding that the inmate is to be executed for the crime of murder;
(c) the nature of the inmate's mental disorder, if any, and its relationship to the factors relevant to the inmate's competency; and
(d) whether psychoactive medication is necessary to maintain or restore the inmate's competency.

(5) The examiners who are examining the inmate shall each provide an initial report to the court and the attorneys for the state and the inmate within 60 days of the receipt of the court's order. The report shall inform the court of the examiner's opinion concerning the competency of the inmate to be executed, or, in the alternative, the examiner may inform the court in writing that additional time is needed to complete the report. If the examiner informs the court that additional time is needed, the examiner shall have up to an additional 30 days to provide the report to the court and counsel. The examiner shall provide the report within 90 days from the receipt of the court's order unless, for good cause shown, the court authorizes an additional period of time to complete the examination and provide the report.

(a) All interviews with the inmate conducted by the examiners shall be videotaped, unless otherwise ordered by the court for good cause shown. The Department of Corrections shall provide the videotaping equipment and facilitate the videotaping of the interviews.
(b) Immediately following the videotaping, the videotape shall be provided to the attorney for the state, who shall deliver it as soon as practicable to the judge in whose court the competency determination is pending.
(c) The court shall grant counsel for the state and for the inmate, and examiners who are examining the inmate under this part access to view the videotape at the court building where the court is located that is conducting the competency determination under this part.

(7) Any written report submitted by an examiner shall:

(a) identify the specific matters referred for evaluation;
(b) describe the procedures, techniques, and tests used in the examination and the purpose or purposes for each;
(c) state the examiner's clinical observations, findings, and opinions on each issue referred for examination by the court, and indicate specifically those issues, if any, on which the examiner could not give an opinion; and
(d) identify the sources of information used by the examiner and present the basis for the examiner's clinical findings and opinions.

(8)
(a) When the reports are received, the court shall set a date for a competency hearing, which shall be held within not less than five and not more than 15 days, unless the court extends the time for good cause.
(b) Any examiner directed by the Department of Health and Human Services to conduct the examination may be subpoenaed to provide testimony at the hearing. If the examiners are in conflict as to the competency of the inmate, all of them should be called to testify at the hearing if they are reasonably available.
(c) The court may call any examiner to testify at the hearing who is not called by the parties. An examiner called by the court may be cross-examined by counsel for the parties.

(9)
(a) An inmate shall be presumed competent to be executed unless the court, by a preponderance of the evidence, finds the inmate incompetent to be executed. The burden of proof is upon the proponent of incompetency at the hearing.
(b) An adjudication of incompetency to be executed does not operate as an adjudication of the inmate's incompetency to give informed consent for medical treatment or for any other purpose, unless specifically set forth in the court order.

(10)
(a) If the court finds the inmate incompetent to be executed, its order shall contain findings addressing each of the factors in Subsections (4)(a) through (d).
(b) The order finding the inmate incompetent to be executed shall be delivered to the Department of Health and Human Services, and shall be accompanied by:
(i) copies of the reports of the examiners filed with the court pursuant to the order of examination, if not provided previously;
(ii) copies of any of the psychiatric, psychological, or social work reports submitted to the court relative to the mental condition of the inmate; and
(iii) any other documents made available to the court by either the defense or the state, pertaining to the inmate's current or past mental condition.
(c) A copy of the order finding the inmate incompetent to be executed shall be delivered to the Department of Corrections.

Amended by Chapter 330, 2023 General Session

77-19-205 Procedures on finding of incompetency to be executed -- Subsequent hearings -- Notice to attorneys.

(i) If after the hearing under Section 77-19-204 the inmate is found to be incompetent to be executed, the court shall continue the stay of execution and the inmate shall receive appropriate mental health treatment.

(ii) Appropriate mental health treatment under Subsection (1)(a)(i) does not include the forcible administration of psychoactive medication for the sole purpose of restoring the inmate's competency to be executed.

(b) The court shall order the executive director of the Department of Health and Human Services to provide periodic assessments to the court regarding the inmate's competency to be executed.

(c) The inmate shall be held in secure confinement, either at the prison or the State Hospital, as agreed upon by the executive director of the Department of Corrections and the executive director of the Department of Health and Human Services. If the inmate remains at the prison, the Department of Health and Human Services shall consult with the Department of Corrections regarding the inmate's mental health treatment.

(a) The examiner or examiners designated by the executive director of the Department of Health and Human Services to assess the inmate's progress toward competency may not be involved in the routine treatment of the inmate.

(b) The examiner or examiners shall each provide a full report to the court and counsel for the state and the inmate within 90 days of receipt of the court's order. If any examiner is unable to complete the assessment within 90 days, that examiner shall provide to the court and counsel for the state and the inmate a summary progress report which informs the court that additional time is necessary to complete the assessment, in which case the examiner has up to an additional 90 days to provide the full report, unless the court enlarges the time for good cause. The full report shall assess:

(i) the facility's or program's capacity to provide appropriate treatment for the inmate;

(ii) the nature of treatments provided to the inmate;

(iii) what progress toward restoration of competency has been made;

(iv) the inmate's current level of mental disorder and need for treatment, if any; and

(v) the likelihood of restoration of competency and the amount of time estimated to achieve it.

(3) The court on its own motion or upon motion by either party may order the Department of Health and Human Services to appoint additional mental health examiners to examine the inmate and advise the court on the inmate's current mental status and progress toward competency restoration.

(4)

(a) Upon receipt of the full report, the court shall hold a hearing to determine the inmate's current status. At the hearing, the burden of proving that the inmate is competent is on the proponent of competency.

(b) Following the hearing, the court shall determine by a preponderance of evidence whether the inmate is competent to be executed.

(5)

(a) If the court determines that the inmate is competent to be executed, it shall enter findings and shall proceed under Subsection 77-19-202(2)(c).

(b)

(i) If the court determines the inmate is still incompetent to be executed, the inmate shall continue to receive appropriate mental health treatment, and the court shall hold hearings no less frequently than at 18-month intervals for the purpose of determining the defendant's competency to be executed.

(ii) Continued appropriate mental health treatment under Subsection (1)(a)(i) does not include the forcible administration of psychoactive medication for the sole purpose of restoring the inmate's competency to be executed.

(a) If at any time the clinical director of the Utah State Hospital or the primary treating mental health professional determines that the inmate has been restored to competency, he shall notify the court.
(b) The court shall conduct a hearing regarding the inmate's competency to be executed within 30 working days of the receipt of the notification under Subsection (6)(a), unless the court extends the time for good cause. The court may order a hearing or rehearing at any time on its own motion.
(7) Notice of a hearing on competency to be executed shall be given to counsel for the state and for the inmate, as well as to the office of the prosecutor who prosecuted the inmate on the original capital charge.

Amended by Chapter 330, 2023 General Session

77-19-206 Expenses -- Allocation.

The Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Corrections shall each pay 1/2 of the costs of any examination of the inmate conducted pursuant to Sections 77-19-204 and 77-19-205 to determine if an inmate is competent to be executed.

(c) denies pretrial release and orders that the individual be detained until a pretrial status order is issued.
(23) "Unsecured bond" means an individual's promise to pay a financial condition if the individual fails to appear for any required court appearance.

Amended by Chapter 526, 2025 General Session

77-20-103 Release data requirements.
(1) The Administrative Office of the Courts shall submit the following data on cases involving individuals for whom the Administrative Office of the Courts has a state identification number broken down by judicial district to the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice before July 1 of each year:
(a) for the preceding calendar year:
(i) the number of individuals charged with a criminal offense who failed to appear at a required court preceding while on pretrial release under each of the following categories of release, separated by each type of release:
(A) the individual's own recognizance;
(B) a financial condition; and
(C) a release condition other than a financial condition;
(ii) the number of offenses that carry a potential penalty of incarceration an individual committed while on pretrial release under each of the following categories of release, separated by each type of release:
(A) the individual's own recognizance;
(B) a financial condition; and
(C) a release condition other than a financial condition; and
(iii) the total amount of fees and fines, including bond forfeiture, collected by the court from an individual for the individual's failure to comply with a condition of release under each of the following categories of release, separated by each type of release:
(A) an individual's own recognizance;
(B) a financial condition; and
(C) a release condition other than a financial condition; and
(b) at the end of the preceding calendar year:
(i) the total number of outstanding warrants of arrest for individuals who were released from law enforcement custody on pretrial release under each of the following categories of release, separated by each type of release:
(A) the individual's own recognizance;
(B) a financial condition; and
(C) a release condition other than a financial condition;
(ii) for each of the categories described in Subsection (1)(b)(i), the average length of time that the outstanding warrants had been outstanding; and
(iii) for each of the categories described in Subsection (1)(b)(i), the number of outstanding warrants for arrest for crimes of each of the following categories:
(A) a first degree felony;
(B) a second degree felony;
(C) a third degree felony;
(D) a class A misdemeanor;

(E) a class B misdemeanor; and
(F) a class C misdemeanor.
(2) The data described in Subsection (1) shall include cases involving pretrial release by a temporary pretrial status order and a pretrial release order.
(3) Each county jail shall submit the following data, based on the preceding calendar year, to the Commission of Criminal and Juvenile Justice before July 1 of each year:
(a) the number of individuals released upon payment of monetary bail before appearing before a court;
(b) the number of individuals released on the individual's own recognizance before appearing before a court;
(c) the amount of monetary bail, any fees, and any other money paid by or on behalf of individuals collected by the county jail;
(d) the number of individuals released as a result of overcrowding; and
(e) the number of individuals released on pretrial release.
(4) The Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice shall compile the data collected under this section and shall submit the compiled data in an electronic report to the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Interim Committee before November 1 of each year.

Amended by Chapter 243, 2025 General Session

Part 2
Preconviction Bail

77-20-201 Right to bail -- Capital felony.
(1) An individual charged with, or arrested for, a criminal offense shall be admitted to bail as a matter of right, except if the individual is charged with:
(a) a capital felony when there is substantial evidence to support the charge;
(b) a felony committed while on parole or on probation for a felony conviction, or while free on bail awaiting trial on a previous felony charge, when there is substantial evidence to support the current felony charge;
(c) a felony when there is substantial evidence to support the charge and the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that:
(i) the individual would constitute a substantial danger to any other individual or to the community after considering available conditions of release that the court may impose if the individual is released on bail; or
(ii) the individual is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court if the individual is released on bail;
(d) a felony when there is substantial evidence to support the charge and the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that the individual violated a material condition of release while previously on bail;
(e) a domestic violence offense if:
(i) there is substantial evidence to support the charge; and
(ii) the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that the individual would constitute a substantial danger to an alleged victim of domestic violence after considering available conditions of release that the court may impose if the individual is released on bail;
(f) the offense of driving under the influence or driving with a measurable controlled substance in the body if:

(i) the offense results in death or serious bodily injury to an individual;
(ii) there is substantial evidence to support the charge; and
(iii) the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that the individual would constitute a substantial danger to the community after considering available conditions of release that the court may impose if the individual is released on bail;
(g) a felony violation of Section 76-9-101 if:
(i) there is substantial evidence to support the charge; and
(ii) the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that the individual is not likely to appear for a subsequent court appearance; or
(h) except as provided in Subsection (4), the offense of driving under the influence or driving with a measurable controlled substance in the body:
(i) if committed while on parole or on probation for a driving under the influence or driving with a measurable controlled substance in the body conviction; or
(ii) while the individual is out of custody awaiting trial on a previous driving under the influence or driving with a measurable controlled substance in the body charge, when the court finds there is substantial evidence to support the current charge.
(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, there is a rebuttable presumption that an individual is a substantial danger to the community under Subsection (1)(f)(iii):
(a) as long as the individual has a blood or breath alcohol concentration of .05 grams or greater if the individual is arrested for, or charged with, the offense of driving under the influence and the offense resulted in death or serious bodily injury to an individual; or
(b) if the individual has a measurable amount of controlled substance in the individual's body, the individual is arrested for, or charged with, the offense of driving with a measurable controlled substance in the body and the offense resulted in death or serious bodily injury to an individual.
(3) For purposes of Subsection (1)(a), any arrest or charge for a violation of Section 76-5-202, aggravated murder, is a capital felony unless:
(a) the prosecuting attorney files a notice of intent to not seek the death penalty; or
(b) the time for filing a notice to seek the death penalty has expired and the prosecuting attorney has not filed a notice to seek the death penalty.
(4) For purposes of Subsection (1)(h), there is a rebuttable presumption that an individual would not constitute a substantial danger to any other person or the community if:
(a) the court orders the person to participate in an inpatient drug and alcohol treatment program; or
(b) the court orders the person to participate in home confinement through the use of electronic monitoring as described in Section 41-6a-506.
(5) For purposes of a determination under Subsection (1)(c)(ii), there is a rebuttable presumption that an individual is at risk of fleeing the jurisdiction if the individual is not lawfully present in the United States.

Amended by Chapter 227, 2025 General Session

77-20-202 Collection of pretrial information.

(1) When an individual is arrested without a warrant for an offense and booked at a jail facility, an employee at the jail facility, or an employee of a pretrial services program, shall submit the following information to the court with the probable cause statement:
(a) identification information for the individual, including:
(i) the individual's legal name and any known aliases;

(ii) the individual's date of birth;
(iii) the individual's state identification number;
(iv) the individual's mobile phone number;
(v) the individual's email address; and
(vi) the individual's immigration status, if the individual is not a United States citizen or national;
(b) the individual's residential address;
(c) any pending criminal charge or warrant for the individual, including the offense tracking number of the current offense for which the individual is booked;
(d) the individual's probation or parole supervision status;
(e) whether the individual was on pretrial release for another criminal offense prior to the booking of the individual for the current criminal offense if the employee knows that the individual was on pretrial release for a prior criminal offense;
(f) the individual's financial circumstances to the best of the individual's knowledge at the time of booking, including:
(i) the individual's current employer;
(ii) the individual's monthly income, including any alimony or child support that contributes to the individual's monthly income;
(iii) the individual's monthly expenses, including any alimony or child support obligation that the individual is responsible for paying;
(iv) the individual's ownership of, or any interest in, personal or real property, including any savings or checking accounts or cash;
(v) the number, ages, and relationships of any dependents;
(vi) any financial support or benefit that the individual receives from a state or federal government; and
(vii) any other information about the individual's financial circumstances that may be relevant;
(g) any ties the individual has to the community, including:
(i) the length of time that the individual has been at the individual's residential address;
(ii) any enrollment in a local college, university, or trade school; and
(iii) the name and contact information for any family member or friend that the individual believes would be willing to provide supervision of the individual;
(h) the results of a lethality assessment completed in accordance with Section 77-36-2.1, if any; and
(i) whether the individual is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance to a degree that would endanger the individual or another individual if the individual is released.
(2) Upon request, the jail facility, or the pretrial services program, shall provide the information described in Subsection (1) to the individual, the individual's attorney, or the prosecuting attorney.
(3) Any information collected from an individual under Subsection (1) is inadmissible in any court proceeding other than:
(a) a criminal proceeding addressing the individual's pretrial release or indigency for the offense, or offenses, for which the individual was arrested or charged with; or
(b) another criminal proceeding regarding prosecution for providing a false statement under Subsection (1).
(4) Nothing in this section prohibits a court and a county from entering into an agreement regarding information to be submitted to the court with a probable cause statement.

Amended by Chapter 227, 2025 General Session

77-20-203 County sheriff authority to release an individual from jail on own recognizance.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Division" means the Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202.

(b)

(i) "Qualifying domestic violence offense" means the same as that term is defined in Subsection 77-36-1.1(4).

(ii) "Qualifying domestic violence offense" does not include criminal mischief as described in Section 76-6-106.

(c) "Qualifying offense" means the same as that term is defined in Section 78B-7-801.

(d) "Violent felony" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-3-203.5.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), a county jail official may release an individual from a jail facility on the individual's own recognizance if:

(a) the individual was arrested without a warrant;

(b) the individual was not:

(i) arrested for a violent offense as defined in Section 76-3-201.10;

(ii) arrested for a qualifying offense;

(iii) arrested for the offense of driving under the influence or driving with a measurable controlled substance in the body if the offense results in death or serious bodily injury to an individual;

(iv) arrested for an offense described in Subsection 76-9-101(3)(b);

(v) arrested for possession of any composition or mixture, including pills, that contains 100 grams or more of fentanyl or a fentanyl-related substance; or

(vi) previously booked into the same jail within the immediately preceding 12-month period;

(c) law enforcement has not submitted a probable cause statement to a court or magistrate;

(d) the individual agrees in writing to appear for any future criminal proceedings related to the arrest; and

(e) the individual qualifies for release under the written policy described in Subsection (4) for the county.

(3) A county jail official may not release an individual from a jail facility if the individual is subject to a 72-hour hold placed on the individual by the Department of Corrections as described in Section 64-14-205.

(4)

(a) A county sheriff shall create and approve a written policy for the county that governs the release of an individual on the individual's own recognizance.

(b) The written policy shall describe the criteria an individual shall meet to be released on the individual's own recognizance.

(c) A county sheriff may include in the written policy the criteria for release relating to:

(i) criminal history;

(ii) prior instances of failing to appear for a mandatory court appearance;

(iii) current employment;

(iv) residency, including immigration status;

(v) ties to the community;

(vi) an offense for which the individual was arrested;

(vii) any potential criminal charges that have not yet been filed;

(viii) the individual's health condition;

(ix) any potential risks to a victim, a witness, or the public; and

(x) any other similar factor a sheriff determines is relevant.

(5)

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b)(ii), a jail facility shall detain an individual for no fewer than eight hours and up to 24 hours from booking if the individual is on supervised probation or parole and that information is reasonably available.
(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (5)(a)(i), an individual may be released earlier than eight hours if:
(A) the entity supervising the individual on probation or parole informs the jail that the supervising entity does not intend to place a hold on the individual; and
(B) a court or magistrate has ordered a release.
(b) Before any release, a jail facility shall:
(i) notify the entity supervising the individual's probation or parole that the individual is being detained and provide that entity an opportunity to place a hold on the individual; and
(ii) only release the individual:
(A) to the division if the division supervises the individual and requests the individual's release; or
(B) if a court or magistrate orders release.
(c) This Subsection (5) does not prohibit a jail facility from holding the individual in accordance with this chapter for a new criminal offense.
(6) This section does not prohibit a court and a county from entering into an agreement regarding release, except that any such agreement shall apply only to an individual who meets the criteria in an agreement as those criteria existed as of January 1, 2025.

77-20-204 County jail authority to release an individual from jail on monetary bail.
(1) As used in this section, "eligible felony offense" means a third degree felony violation under:
(a) Section 23A-4-501 or 23A-4-502;
(b) Section 23A-5-311;
(c) Section 23A-5-313;
(d) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 4, Theft;
(e) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 5, Fraud;
(f) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 6, Retail Theft;
(g) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 7, Utah Computer Crimes Act;
(h) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 8, Library Theft;
(i) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 9, Cultural Sites Protection;
(j) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 10, Mail Box Damage and Mail Theft;
(k) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 11, Identity Fraud Act;
(l) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 12, Utah Mortgage Fraud Act;
(m) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 13, Utah Automated Sales Suppression Device Act;
(n) Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 14, Regulation of Metal Dealers;
(o) Title 76, Chapter 7, Offenses Against the Family;
(p) Title 76, Chapter 7a, Abortion Prohibition;
(q) Title 76, Chapter 12, Part 2, Electronic Communication Abuse;
(r) Title 76, Chapter 12, Part 3, Privacy Offenses;
(s) Title 76, Chapter 13, Offenses Involving Cruelty to Animals; or
(t) Title 76, Chapter 17, Part 3, Offenses Concerning Pyramid Schemes.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(a), a county jail official may fix a financial condition for an individual if:

(i) the individual is ineligible to be released on the individual's own recognizance under Section 77-20-203;
(ii) the individual is arrested for, or charged with:
(A) a misdemeanor offense under state law, excluding a misdemeanor offense:
(I) for domestic violence as defined in Section 77-36-1; or
(II) for driving under the influence under Title 41, Chapter 6, Part 5, Driving Under the Influence and Reckless Driving, or Section 76-5-102.1; or
(B) a violation of a city or county ordinance that is classified as a class B or C misdemeanor offense;
(iii) the individual agrees in writing to appear for any future criminal proceedings related to the arrest; and
(iv) law enforcement has not submitted a probable cause statement to a magistrate; or
(b)
(i) the individual is arrested for, or charged with, an eligible felony offense;
(ii) the individual is not on pretrial release for a separate criminal offense;
(iii) the individual is not on probation or parole;
(iv) the primary risk posed by the individual is the risk of failure to appear;
(v) the individual agrees in writing to appear for any future criminal proceedings related to the arrest; and
(vi) law enforcement has not submitted a probable cause statement to a magistrate.

(3) A county jail official may not fix a financial condition at a monetary amount that exceeds:
(a) $5,000 for an eligible felony offense;
(b) $1,950 for a class A misdemeanor offense;
(c) $680 for a class B misdemeanor offense;
(d) $340 for a class C misdemeanor offense;
(e) $150 for a violation of a city or county ordinance that is classified as a class B misdemeanor; or
(f) $80 for a violation of a city or county ordinance that is classified as a class C misdemeanor.

(4) If an individual is arrested for more than one offense, and the county jail official fixes a financial condition for release:
(a) the county jail official shall fix the financial condition at a single monetary amount; and
(b) the single monetary amount may not exceed the monetary amount under Subsection (3) for the highest level of offense for which the individual is arrested.

(5) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(b), an individual shall be released if the individual posts a financial condition fixed by a county jail official in accordance with this section.

(6) If a county jail official fixes a financial condition for an individual, law enforcement shall submit a probable cause statement in accordance with Rule 9 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure after the county jail official fixes the financial condition.

(7) Once a magistrate begins a review of an individual's case under Rule 9 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure:
(a) a county jail official may not fix or modify a financial condition for an individual; and
(b) if a county jail official fixed a financial condition for the individual before the magistrate's review, the individual may no longer be released on the financial condition.

(8) A jail facility may not release an individual subject to a 72-hour hold placed on the individual by the Department of Corrections as described in Section 64-14-205.

(9) This section does not prohibit a court and a county from entering into an agreement regarding release, except that any such agreement shall apply only to an individual who meets the criteria in an agreement as those criteria existed as of January 1, 2025.

Amended by Chapter 243, 2025 General Session

77-20-205 Pretrial release by a magistrate or judge.

(a) At the time that a magistrate issues a warrant of arrest, or finds there is probable cause to support the individual's arrest under Rule 9 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure, the magistrate shall issue a temporary pretrial status order that:

(i) releases the individual on the individual's own recognizance during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges;

(ii) designates a condition, or a combination of conditions, to be imposed upon the individual's release during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges; or

(iii) orders the individual be detained during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges, subject to the requirements of Subsection (1)(c).

(b) At the time that a magistrate issues a summons, the magistrate may issue a temporary pretrial status order that:

(i) releases the individual on the individual's own recognizance during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges; or

(ii) designates a condition, or a combination of conditions, to be imposed upon the individual's release during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges, subject to the requirements of Subsection (1)(c).

(c)

(i) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a) or (b), a magistrate shall issue a temporary pretrial status order of detention under Subsection (1)(a)(iii) if the individual is arrested for a felony offense and the magistrate finds:

(A) there is substantial evidence to support the individual's arrest for the felony offense;

(B) the individual committed the felony offense while:

(I) the individual was on parole or probation for a conviction of a felony offense; or

(II) the individual was released and awaiting trial on a previous charge for a felony offense; and

(C) based on information reasonably available to the magistrate, the individual:

(I) is a habitual offender as defined in Section 77-18-102; or

(II) will be a habitual offender as defined in Section 77-18-102 if the individual is convicted of the felony offense.

(ii) This Subsection (1)(c) does not limit or prohibit a magistrate's authority to detain an individual who does not meet the requirements described in this Subsection (1)(c).

(2)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the magistrate or judge shall issue a pretrial status order at an individual's first appearance before the court.

(b) The magistrate or judge may delay the issuance of a pretrial status order at an individual's first appearance before the court:

(i) until a pretrial detention hearing is held if a prosecuting attorney makes a motion for pretrial detention as described in Section 77-20-206;

(ii) if a party requests a delay; or

(iii) if there is good cause to delay the issuance.

(c) If a magistrate or judge delays the issuance of a pretrial status order under Subsection (2)(b), the magistrate or judge shall extend the temporary pretrial status order until the issuance of a pretrial status order.

(d) A request for a pretrial release that has not been fully presented to and ruled upon by the magistrate or judge at an initial appearance does not constitute a pretrial detention hearing under Section 77-20-206.

(3)

(a) When a magistrate or judge issues a pretrial status order, the pretrial status order shall:

(i) release the individual on the individual's own recognizance during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges;

(ii) designate a condition, or a combination of conditions, to be imposed upon the individual's release during the time the individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges; or

(iii) subject to the requirements of Subsection (10), order the individual to be detained during the time that individual awaits trial or other resolution of criminal charges.

(b) In making a determination about pretrial release in a pretrial status order, the magistrate or judge may not give any deference to a magistrate's decision in a temporary pretrial status order.

(4) In making a determination about pretrial release, a magistrate or judge shall impose:

(a) only conditions of release that are reasonably available; and

(b) conditions of release that reasonably ensure:

(i) the individual's appearance in court when required;

(ii) the safety of any witnesses or victims of the offense allegedly committed by the individual;

(iii) the safety and welfare of the public; and

(iv) that the individual will not obstruct, or attempt to obstruct, the criminal justice process.

(5) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(c) or (6), a magistrate or judge may impose a condition, or combination of conditions, for pretrial release that requires an individual to:

(a) not commit a federal, state, or local offense during the period of pretrial release;

(b) avoid contact with a victim of the alleged offense;

(c) avoid contact with a witness who:

(i) may testify concerning the alleged offense; and

(ii) is named in the pretrial status order;

(d) not consume alcohol or any narcotic drug or other controlled substance unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner;

(e) submit to drug or alcohol testing;

(f) complete a substance abuse evaluation and comply with any recommended treatment or release program;

(g) submit to electronic monitoring or location device tracking;

(h) participate in inpatient or outpatient medical, behavioral, psychological, or psychiatric treatment;

(i) maintain employment or actively seek employment if unemployed;

(j) maintain or commence an education program;

(k) comply with limitations on where the individual is allowed to be located or the times that the individual shall be, or may not be, at a specified location;

(l) comply with specified restrictions on personal associations, place of residence, or travel;

(m) report to a law enforcement agency, pretrial services program, or other designated agency at a specified frequency or on specified dates;

(n) comply with a specified curfew;

(o) forfeit or refrain from possession of a firearm or other dangerous weapon;

(p) if the individual is charged with an offense against a child, limit or prohibit access to any location or occupation where children are located, including any residence where children are on the premises, activities where children are involved, locations where children congregate, or where a reasonable person would know that children congregate;
(q) comply with requirements for house arrest;
(r) return to custody for a specified period of time following release for employment, schooling, or other limited purposes;
(s) remain in custody of one or more designated individuals who agree to:
(i) supervise and report on the behavior and activities of the individual; and
(ii) encourage compliance with all court orders and attendance at all required court proceedings;
(t) comply with a financial condition; or
(u) comply with any other condition that is reasonably available and necessary to ensure compliance with Subsection (4).

(6)
(a) If a county or municipality has established a pretrial services program, the magistrate or judge shall consider the services that the county or municipality has identified as available in determining what conditions of release to impose.
(b) The magistrate or judge may not order conditions of release that would require the county or municipality to provide services that are not currently available from the county or municipality.
(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a), the magistrate or judge may impose conditions of release not identified by the county or municipality so long as the condition does not require assistance or resources from the county or municipality.

(7)
(a) If the magistrate or judge determines that a financial condition, other than an unsecured bond, is necessary to impose as a condition of release, the magistrate or judge shall, when determining the amount of the financial condition, refer to the financial condition schedule in Section 77-20-205.5 and consider the individual's risk of failing to appear and ability to pay.
(b) If the magistrate or judge determines that a financial condition is necessary to impose as a condition of release, and a county jail official fixed a financial condition for the individual under Section 77-20-204, the magistrate or judge may not give any deference to:
(i) the county jail official's action to fix a financial condition; or
(ii) the amount of the financial condition that the individual was required to pay for pretrial release.
(c) If a magistrate or judge orders a financial condition as a condition of release, the judge or magistrate shall set the financial condition at a single amount per case.

(8) In making a determination about pretrial release, the magistrate or judge may:
(a) rely upon information contained in:
(i) the indictment or information;
(ii) any sworn or probable cause statement or other information provided by law enforcement;
(iii) a pretrial risk assessment;
(iv) an affidavit of indigency described in Section 78B-22-201.5;
(v) witness statements or testimony;
(vi) the results of a lethality assessment completed in accordance with Section 77-36-2.1; or
(vii) any other reliable record or source, including proffered evidence; and
(b) consider:

(i) the nature and circumstances of the offense, or offenses, that the individual was arrested for, or charged with, including:
(A) whether the offense is a violent offense; and
(B) the vulnerability of a witness or alleged victim;
(ii) the nature and circumstances of the individual, including the individual's:
(A) character;
(B) physical and mental health;
(C) family and community ties;
(D) employment status or history;
(E) financial resources;
(F) past criminal conduct;
(G) history of drug or alcohol abuse; and
(H) history of timely appearances at required court proceedings;
(iii) the potential danger to another individual, or individuals, posed by the release of the individual;
(iv) whether the individual was on probation, parole, or release pending an upcoming court proceeding at the time the individual allegedly committed the offense or offenses;
(v) the availability of:
(A) other individuals who agree to assist the individual in attending court when required; or
(B) supervision of the individual in the individual's community;
(vi) the eligibility and willingness of the individual to participate in various treatment programs, including drug treatment; or
(vii) other evidence relevant to the individual's likelihood of fleeing or violating the law if released.
(9) The magistrate or judge may not base a determination about pretrial release solely:
(a) on the seriousness or type of offense that the individual is arrested for or charged with, unless the individual is arrested for or charged with a capital felony; or
(b) on an algorithm or a risk assessment tool score.
(10) If the magistrate or judge issues an order pursuant to Subsection 77-20-205(3)(a)(iii), the magistrate or judge shall make sufficiently detailed findings of fact on the risk of substantial danger or flight from the court's jurisdiction to enable a reviewing court to ensure that the magistrate's or judge's determination reasonably considered all of the evidence presented to the court.
(11) An individual arrested for violation of a jail release agreement, or a jail release court order, issued in accordance with Section 78B-7-802:
(a) may not be released before the individual's first appearance before a magistrate or judge; and
(b) may be denied pretrial release by the magistrate or judge.

Amended by Chapter 243, 2025 General Session

77-20-205.5 Financial condition schedule.
(1) For a felony, the default amount for a financial condition is:
(a) $25,000 for a first degree felony with a minimum mandatory sentence;
(b) $20,000 for a first degree felony without a minimum mandatory sentence;
(c) $10,000 for a second degree felony; and
(d) $5,000 for a third degree felony.
(2) For a misdemeanor or infraction other than a local ordinance, the default amount for a financial condition is:

(a) $2,000 for a class A misdemeanor;
(b) $700 for a class B misdemeanor;
(c) $350 for a class C misdemeanor; and
(d) $130 for an infraction.
(3) For a violation of a local ordinance, the default amount for a financial condition is:
(a) $150 for a class B violation;
(b) $80 for a class C violation; and
(c) $25 for an infraction.

77-20-206 Motion for pretrial detention -- Pretrial detention hearing -- Requirements for no bail holds.

(1)
(a) If the criminal charges filed against an individual include one or more offenses eligible for detention under Subsection 77-20-201(1) or Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 8, the prosecuting attorney may make a motion for pretrial detention.
(b) A prosecuting attorney shall not omit from the prosecuting attorney's motion for pretrial detention any material information that is known to the prosecuting attorney to be favorable to the individual.
(c) The motion for pretrial detention may include proposed factual findings for the court to adopt.
(d) Upon receiving a motion for pretrial detention under Subsection (1)(a), the judge shall set a pretrial detention hearing in accordance with Subsection (2).
(2)
(a) If a pretrial status order is not issued at an individual's first appearance and the individual remains detained, a pretrial detention hearing shall be held at the next available court hearing that is:
(i) no sooner than seven days from the day on which the defendant was arrested; and
(ii) no later than fourteen days from the day on which the defendant was arrested.
(b) A judge who is unable to hold a detention hearing within 14 days of the date of an individual's first appearance shall make a good faith effort to identify another judge who has the ability to conduct the detention hearing within 14 days of the date of the individual's first appearance.
(3)
(a) An individual, who is the subject of a pretrial detention hearing, has the right to be represented by counsel at the pretrial detention hearing.
(b) If a judge finds the individual is indigent under Section 78B-22-202, the judge shall appoint counsel to represent the individual in accordance with Section 78B-22-203.
(4) At the pretrial detention hearing:
(a) the judge shall give both parties the opportunity to make arguments and to present relevant evidence or information;
(b) the prosecuting attorney and the defendant have a right to subpoena witnesses to testify; and
(c) the judge shall issue a pretrial status order in accordance with Subsection (5) and Section 77-20-205.
(5) After hearing evidence on a motion for pretrial detention, and based on the totality of the circumstances, a judge may order detention if:
(a) the individual is accused of committing an offense that qualifies for detention of the individual under Subsection 77-20-201(1) or Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 8; and

(b) the prosecuting attorney demonstrates substantial evidence to support the charge, and meets all additional evidentiary burdens required under Subsection 77-20-201(1) or Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 8.

(6) An alleged victim has the right to be heard at a pretrial detention hearing on a motion for pretrial detention.

(7) If a defendant seeks to subpoena an alleged victim who did not willingly testify at the pretrial detention hearing, a defendant may issue a subpoena, at the conclusion of the pretrial detention hearing, compelling the alleged victim to testify at a subsequent hearing only if the judge finds that the testimony sought by the subpoena:

(a) is material to the substantial evidence or clear and convincing evidence determinations described in Section 77-20-201 in light of all information presented to the court; and

(b) would not unnecessarily intrude on the rights of the victim or place an undue burden on the victim.

Amended by Chapter 526, 2025 General Session

77-20-207 Modification of pretrial status order -- Failure to appear.

(1) A party may move to modify a pretrial status order:

(a) at any time after a pretrial status order is issued; and

(b) only upon a showing that there has been a material change in circumstances.

(2)

(a) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), a defendant may move to modify a pretrial status order if:

(i) the magistrate or judge imposed a financial condition as a condition of release in the pretrial status order; and

(ii) the defendant is unable to pay the financial condition within seven days after the day on which the pretrial status order is issued.

(b) For a motion under Subsection (2)(a), there is a rebuttable presumption that the defendant does not have the ability to pay the financial condition.

(3)

(a) If a party makes a motion to modify the pretrial status order, the party shall provide notice to the opposing party sufficient to permit the opposing party to prepare for a hearing and to permit each alleged victim to be notified and be present.

(b) A hearing on a motion to modify a pretrial status order may be held in conjunction with a preliminary hearing or any other pretrial hearing.

(4) In ruling upon a motion to modify a pretrial status order, the judge may:

(a) rely on information as provided in Subsection 77-20-205(8);

(b) base the judge's ruling on evidence provided at the hearing so long as each party is provided an opportunity to present additional evidence or information relevant to pretrial release; and

(c)

(i) for a motion to modify a pretrial status order under Subsection (1), modify the pretrial status order, including the conditions of release, upon a finding that there has been a material change in circumstances; or

(ii) for a motion to modify a pretrial status order under Subsection (2), modify the pretrial status order by reducing the amount of the financial condition or imposing nonfinancial conditions of release upon a finding that the defendant is unable to pay the amount of the financial condition in the pretrial status order.

(5) In modifying a pretrial status order upon a motion by a party or on the court's own motion, the court shall consider whether imposing a bail bond as a condition of release in a modified pretrial status order will increase the likelihood of the defendant's appearance when:
  (a) the defendant was previously released on the defendant's own recognizance or on nonfinancial conditions;
  (b) the defendant willfully failed to appear at a required court appearance or has failed to appear at a required court appearance more than once; and
  (c) a bench warrant was issued.
(6) A court may not modify a pretrial status order to a no bail hold solely on the basis of a failure to appear.
(7) Subsections 77-20-205(3) through (11) apply to a determination about pretrial release in a modified pretrial status order.

77-20-208 Release from conditions when charges not filed in specified time period.
(1) If a prosecuting attorney does not file an information, indictment, or a request to extend time under Subsection (2), within 120 days after the day on which a county jail official released the individual on a financial condition under Section 77-20-203 or within 120 days after the day on which a temporary pretrial status order was issued for the individual:
  (a) the individual shall be relieved from any condition of pretrial release;
  (b) the court shall refund any monetary bail in accordance with Subsection 77-20-402(5); and
  (c) if a bail bond was used to post monetary bail, the bail bond shall be exonerated without further order of the court.
(2) A request to extend time shall:
  (a) be served on:
    (i) the individual and the individual's attorney; and
    (ii) if a bail bond was used to post monetary bail, the surety; and
  (b) except as provided in Subsection (3), be granted for a period of up to 60 days.
(3) The magistrate may grant a request to extend time for a period of up to 120 days upon a showing of good cause.
(4) Nothing in this section prohibits the filing of charges against an individual at any time.

Part 3
Postconviction Bail

77-20-301 Grounds for detaining or releasing defendant on conviction and prior to sentence.

(1) Upon conviction, by plea or trial, the court shall order that the convicted defendant who is waiting imposition or execution of sentence be detained, unless the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, presented by the defendant that the defendant:
  (a) is not likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court if released; and
  (b) will not pose a danger to the physical, psychological, or financial and economic safety or well-being of any other person or the community if released.
(2) If the court finds the defendant does not need to be detained, the court shall order the release of the defendant on suitable conditions, including conditions of release described in Subsection 77-20-205(5).

Amended by Chapter 408, 2023 General Session

77-20-302 Grounds for detaining defendant while appealing the defendant's conviction -- Conditions for release while on appeal.

(1) The court shall order that a defendant who has been found guilty of an offense in a court of record and sentenced to a term of imprisonment in jail or prison, and who has filed an appeal or a petition for a writ of certiorari, be detained, unless the court finds:
  (a) the appeal raises a substantial question of law or fact likely to result in:
    (i) reversal;
    (ii) an order for a new trial; or
    (iii) a sentence that does not include a term of imprisonment in jail or prison;
  (b) the appeal is not for the purpose of delay; and
  (c) by clear and convincing evidence presented by the defendant, that the defendant:
    (i) is not likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court if released; and
    (ii) will not pose a danger to the physical, psychological, or financial and economic safety or well-being of any other person or the community if released.
(2)
  (a) If the court makes a finding under Subsection (1) that justifies not detaining the defendant, the court shall order the release of the defendant, subject to only conditions of release that are reasonably available and necessary to reasonably ensure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other individual, property, and the community.
  (b) The conditions under Subsection (2)(a) may include conditions described in Subsection 77-20-205(5).
  (c) The court may, in the court's discretion, amend an order granting release to impose additional or different conditions of release.
(3) If the defendant is found guilty of an offense in a court not of record and files a timely notice of appeal in accordance with Subsection 78A-7-118(2) for a trial de novo, the court shall stay all terms of a sentence, unless at the time of sentencing the judge finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant poses a danger to another person or the community.
(4) If a stay is ordered, the court may order postconviction restrictions on the defendant's conduct as appropriate, including:
  (a) continuation of any pretrial restrictions or orders;
  (b) sentencing protective orders under Section 78B-7-804;
  (c) drug and alcohol use;
  (d) use of an ignition interlock; and
  (e) posting appropriate monetary bail.

(5) The provisions of Subsections (3) and (4) do not apply to convictions for an offense under Title 41, Chapter 6a, Part 5, Driving Under the Influence and Reckless Driving.
(6) Any stay authorized by Subsection (3) is lifted upon the dismissal of the appeal by the district court.

Monetary Bail

77-20-401 Payment of monetary bail to sheriff -- Specific payment methods.
(1) Subject to Subsection 77-20-402(2), if an individual has been required by a county jail official, or ordered by a magistrate or judge, to post monetary bail as a condition of pretrial release, the individual may post the amount of monetary bail with the county jail official:
  (a) in money, by cash, certified or cashier's check, personal check with check guarantee card, money order, or credit card, if the county jail official has chosen to establish any of those options; or
  (b) by a bail bond issued by a surety.
(2) A county jail official shall deliver any monetary bail received under Subsection (1) to the appropriate court within three days after the day on which the monetary bail is received by the county jail official.

Amended by Chapter 408, 2023 General Session

77-20-402 Payment of monetary bail to court -- Specific payment methods -- Refund of monetary bail.
(1) Subject to Subsection (2), a defendant may choose to post the amount of monetary bail imposed by a judge or magistrate by any of the following methods:
  (a) in cash;
  (b) by a bail bond with a surety;
  (c) by an unsecured bond, at the discretion of the judge or magistrate; or
  (d) by credit or debit card, at the discretion of the judge or magistrate.
(2) A judge or magistrate may limit a defendant to a specific method of posting monetary bail described in Subsection (1):
  (a) if, after charges are filed, the defendant fails to appear in the case on a bail bond and the case involves a violent offense;
  (b) in order to allow the defendant to voluntarily remit the fine in accordance with Section 77-7-21 and the offense with which the defendant is charged is listed in the shared master offense table as one for which an appearance is not mandatory;
  (c) if the defendant has failed to respond to a citation or summons and the offense with which the defendant is charged is listed in the shared master offense table as one for which an appearance is not mandatory;
  (d) if a warrant is issued for the defendant solely for failure to pay a criminal accounts receivable, as defined in Section 77-32b-102, and the defendant's monetary bail is limited to the amount owed; or

(e) if a court has entered a judgment of bail bond forfeiture under Section 77-20-505 in any case involving the defendant.
(3) Monetary bail may not be accepted without receiving in writing at the time the bail is posted the current mailing address, telephone number, and email address of the surety.
(4) Monetary bail posted by debit or credit card, less the fee charged by the financial institution, shall be tendered to the courts.
(5)
(a) Monetary bail refunded by the court may be refunded by credit to the debit or credit card or in cash.
(b) The amount refunded shall be the full amount received by the court under Subsection (4), which may be less than the full amount of the monetary bail set by the judge or magistrate.
(c) Before refunding monetary bail that is posted by the defendant in cash, by credit card, or by debit card, the court may apply the amount posted toward a criminal accounts receivable, as defined in Section 77-32b-102, that is owed by the defendant in the priority set forth in Section 77-38b-304.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 4, 2021 Special Session 2

77-20-403 Disposition of forfeited monetary bail.

If money deposited as a financial condition or money paid by a surety on a bail bond is forfeited and the forfeiture is not discharged or remitted, the clerk with whom the money is deposited or paid shall, immediately after final adjournment of the court, pay over the money forfeited as follows:
(1) the forfeited amount in cases in precinct justice courts or in municipal justice courts shall be distributed as provided in Sections 78A-7-120 and 78A-7-121; and
(2) in all other cases:
(a) where the financial condition was paid by a surety:
(i) 60% of the forfeited amount shall be paid to the Pretrial Release Programs Special Revenue Fund established in Section 63M-7-215;
(ii) 20% of the forfeited amount shall be paid to the General Fund; and
(iii) 20% of the forfeited amount shall be paid to the prosecuting agency that brings an action to collect under Section 77-20-505; and
(b) where the financial condition was paid without the assistance of a surety:
(i) 75% of the forfeited amount shall be paid to the Pretrial Release Programs Special Revenue Fund established in Section 63M-7-215; and
(ii) 25% of the forfeited amount shall be paid to the General Fund.

Part 5
Bail Surety

77-20-501 Liability on a bail bond -- Failure to appear -- Notice to surety.
(1)
(a) Unless exonerated under Subsection 77-20-504(5), the principal and the surety on a bail bond are liable on the bail bond during all proceedings and for all court appearances required of the defendant up to and including the surrender of the defendant for sentencing, regardless of any contrary provision in the bail bond agreement.

(b) Any failure of the defendant to appear when required is a breach of the conditions of the bail bond and subjects the bail bond to forfeiture regardless of whether notice of the required appearance was given to the surety.

(a) If a defendant, who has posted monetary bail by a bail bond, fails to appear before the appropriate court as required, the court shall:

(i) within 28 days after the day on which the defendant fails to appear, issue a bench warrant that includes the original case number; and

(ii) direct the clerk of the court to notify the surety of the defendant's failure to appear.

(b) The clerk of the court shall:

(i) email notice of the defendant's failure to appear to the surety at the email address provided on the bond;

(ii) notify the surety as listed on the bail bond of the name, address, and telephone number of the prosecuting attorney;

(iii) email a copy of the notice sent under Subsection (2)(b)(i) to the prosecuting attorney's office at the same time notice is sent under Subsection (2)(b)(i); and

(iv) ensure that the name, address, business email address, and telephone number of the surety or the surety's agent as listed on the bail bond is stated on the bench warrant.

(3) The prosecuting attorney may email notice of the defendant's failure to appear to the address of the surety as listed on the bail bond within 35 days after the day on which the defendant fails to appear.

(i) If a defendant appears in court within seven days after a missed, scheduled court appearance, the court may reinstate the bail bond without further notice to the surety.

(ii) If the defendant, while in custody, appears on the case for which the bail bond was posted, the court may not reinstate the bail bond without the consent of the bail bond company.

(b) If a defendant fails to appear within seven days after a scheduled court appearance, the court may not reinstate the bail bond without the consent of the surety.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 4, 2021 Special Session 2

77-20-502 Time for bringing defendant to court -- Defendant in custody in another jurisdiction -- Notice to prosecuting attorney.

(1)

(a) If notice of a defendant's failure to appear is emailed to a surety under Section 77-20-501, the surety may bring the defendant before the court, or surrender the defendant into the custody of a county sheriff within the state, within 180 days after the day on which the defendant failed to appear in court as required.

(b) A forfeiture action may not be brought during the 180-day time period described in Subsection (1)(a).

(2) A surety may request an extension of the 180-day time period in Subsection (1) if the surety within that time:

(a) files a motion for extension with the court; and

(b) mails the motion for extension and a notice of hearing on the motion to the prosecuting attorney.

(3) The court may extend the 180-day time period in Subsection (1) for no more than 30 days if:
(a) the surety has complied with Subsection (2); and
(b) the court finds good cause.
(4) If a surety is unable to bring a defendant to the court because the defendant is and will be in the custody of authorities of another jurisdiction, the surety shall:
(a) notify the court and the prosecuting attorney; and
(b) provide the name, address, and telephone number of the custodial authority.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 4, 2021 Special Session 2

77-20-503 Surrender of defendant by surety -- Arrest of defendant.
(1)
(i) A surety may at any time prior to a defendant's failure to appear, surrender the defendant and obtain an exoneration of the bail bond by notifying the clerk of the court in which the bail bond was posted of the defendant's surrender and requesting exoneration.
(ii) Notification shall be made immediately following the surrender by mail, email, or fax.
(b) To effect surrender of the defendant, a certified copy of the surety's bail bond from the court in which the bail bond was posted or a copy of the bail bond agreement with the defendant shall be delivered to the on-duty jailer, who shall:
(i) detain the defendant in the on-duty jailer's custody as upon a commitment; and
(ii) in writing acknowledge the surrender upon the copy of the bail bond or bail bond agreement.
(c) The certified copy of the bail bond or copy of the bail bond agreement upon which the acknowledgment of surrender is endorsed shall be filed with the court.
(d) Upon a filing described in Subsection (1)(c), the court, upon proper application, may:
(i) exonerate the bail bond; and
(ii) order a refund of any paid premium, or part of a premium, as the court finds just.
(2) For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the surety may:
(a) arrest the defendant:
(i) at any time before the defendant is finally exonerated; and
(ii) at any place within the state; and
(b) surrender the defendant to any county jail booking facility in Utah.
(3) An arrest under this section is not a basis for exoneration of the bail bond under Section 77-20-504.
(4) A surety acting under this section is subject to Title 53, Chapter 11, Bail Bond Recovery Act.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 4, 2021 Special Session 2

77-20-504 Exoneration of a bail bond.
(1) The court shall exonerate a bail bond if:
(a)
(i) a defendant, who has posted monetary bail by a bail bond, fails to appear before the appropriate court as required;
(ii) notice of the defendant's failure to appear is not emailed to the surety as listed on the bail bond as described in Subsection 77-20-501(2) or (3); and
(iii) the surety's current name and email address, or the bail bond agency's current name and email address, are listed on the bail bond in the court's file;

(b) the defendant is arrested and booked into a county jail booking facility pursuant to a warrant for failure to appear on the original charges for which the bail bond was issued and the surety provides written proof of the arrest and booking to the court and the prosecuting attorney;
(c) the court recalls a warrant for failure to appear due to the defendant's having paid the fine and before entry of a judgment of forfeiture of the bail bond;
(d) the surety provides written proof to the court and the prosecuting attorney that the defendant is in custody and the surety has served the defendant's bail bond revocation on the custodial authority; or
(e) unless the court makes a finding of good cause why the bail bond should not be exonerated:
(i) the surety has delivered the defendant to the county jail booking facility in the county where the original charge or charges are pending;
(ii) the defendant has been released on a bail bond secured from a subsequent surety for the original charge and the failure to appear;
(iii) after an arrest, the defendant has escaped from jail or has been released on the defendant's own recognizance under a court order regulating jail capacity or by a sheriff's release under Section 17-72-402;
(iv) the surety has transported or agreed to pay for the transportation of the defendant from a location outside of the county back to the county where the original charge is pending and the payment is in an amount equal to the cost of government transportation under Section 76-3-201; or
(v) the surety demonstrates, by a preponderance of the evidence, that:
(A) at the time the surety issued the bail bond, the surety made reasonable efforts to determine that the defendant was legally present in the United States;
(B) a reasonable person would have concluded, based on the surety's determination, that the defendant was legally present in the United States; and
(C) the surety has failed to bring the defendant before the court because the defendant is in federal custody or has been deported.

(2) Under circumstances not otherwise provided for in Subsection (1), the court may exonerate the bail bond if the court finds:
(a) that the prosecuting attorney has been given reasonable notice of a surety's motion to exonerate the bail bond; and
(b) there is good cause for the bail bond to be exonerated.

(3) If a surety's bail bond has been exonerated under Subsection (1) or (2) and the surety remains liable for the cost of transportation of the defendant, the surety may take custody of the defendant for the purpose of transporting the defendant to the jurisdiction where the charge is pending.

(4) If the defendant is subject to extradition or other means by which the state can return the defendant to law enforcement custody within the court's jurisdiction, and the surety gives notice under Subsection 77-20-502(4)(a), the surety's bail bond shall be exonerated:
(a) if the prosecuting attorney elects in writing not to extradite the defendant immediately; and
(b) if the prosecuting attorney elects in writing to extradite the defendant, to the extent the bail bond exceeds the reasonable, actual, or estimated costs to extradite and return the defendant to law enforcement custody within the court's jurisdiction, upon the occurrence of the earlier of:
(i) the prosecuting attorney's lodging a detainer on the defendant; or
(ii) 60 days after the day on which the surety gives notice to the prosecuting attorney under Subsection 77-20-502(4)(a) if the defendant remains in custody of the same authority during that 60-day time period.

(5)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (6), the court shall exonerate the bail bond, without motion, upon sentencing the defendant.
(b) If the defendant's sentence includes commitment to a jail or prison, the court shall exonerate the bail bond when the defendant appears at the appropriate jail or prison, unless the judge does not require the defendant to begin the commitment within seven days, in which case the bail bond is exonerated upon sentencing.
(c) For purposes of this Subsection (5), an order of the court accepting a plea in abeyance agreement and holding that plea in abeyance in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 2a, Pleas in Abeyance, is considered to be the same as a sentencing upon a guilty plea.
(d) Any suspended or deferred sentencing is not the responsibility of the surety and the bail bond is exonerated without any motion, upon acceptance of the court and the defendant of a plea in abeyance, probation, fine payments, post sentencing reviews, or any other deferred sentencing reviews or any other deferred sentencing agreement.
(6) If a surety issues a bail bond after sentencing, the surety is liable on the bail bond during all proceedings and for all court appearances required of the defendant up to and including the defendant's appearance to commence serving the sentence imposed under Subsection (5).

Amended by Chapter 17, 2025 Special Session 1

77-20-505 Forfeiture of a bail bond.
(1) If a surety fails to bring the defendant before the court within the time period described in Section 77-20-502, the prosecuting attorney may request the forfeiture of the bail bond by:
(a) filing a motion for bail bond forfeiture with the court, supported by proof of notice to the surety of the defendant's failure to appear; and
(b) emailing a copy of the motion to the surety.
(2) A court shall enter judgment of bail bond forfeiture without further notice if the court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence:
(a) the defendant failed to appear as required;
(b) the surety was given notice of the defendant's failure to appear in accordance with Section 77-20-501;
(c) the surety failed to bring the defendant to the court within the 180-day time period under Section 77-20-502; and
(d) the prosecuting attorney has complied with the notice requirements under Subsection (1).
(3) If the surety shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the surety has failed to bring the defendant before the court because the defendant is deceased through no act of the surety, the court may not enter judgment of bail bond forfeiture and the bail bond is exonerated.
(4)
(a) The amount of bail forfeited is the face amount of the bail bond, but if the defendant is in the custody of another jurisdiction and the state extradites or intends to extradite the defendant, the court may reduce the amount forfeited to the actual or estimated costs of returning the defendant to the court's jurisdiction.
(b) A judgment under Subsection (5) shall:
(i) identify the surety against whom judgment is granted;
(ii) specify the amount of monetary bail forfeited;
(iii) grant the forfeiture of the bail bond; and
(iv) be docketed by the clerk of the court in the civil judgment docket.

(5) A prosecuting attorney may immediately commence collection proceedings to execute a judgment of bail bond forfeiture against the assets of the surety.

Chapter 21
Uniform Act to Secure the Attendance of Witnesses from Without a State in Criminal Proceedings

77-21-1 Short title -- Construction.

This chapter may be cited as the "Uniform Act to Secure the Attendance of Witnesses from Without a State in Criminal Proceedings." It shall be interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of the states which enact it.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-21-2 Procedure to secure attendance in another state.

If a judge of a court of record in any state, which by its laws has made provisions for commanding persons within that state to attend and testify in this state, certifies under the seal of the court that there is a criminal prosecution pending in the court, or that a grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence, that a person being within this state is a material witness in the prosecution or grand jury investigation and that his presence will be required for a specified number of days, upon presentation of the certificate to any judge of a court of record within this state in the county in which the person is found, the judge shall fix a time and place for a hearing and make an order directing the witness to appear at a time and place certain for the hearing.

If at a hearing the judge determines that the witness is material and necessary, that it will not cause undue hardship to the witness to be compelled to attend and testify in the prosecution or grand jury investigation in the other state, and that the laws of the state in which the prosecution is pending, or grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence, and of any other state through which the witness may be required to pass by ordinary course of travel, will give him protection from arrest and the service of civil and criminal process, he shall issue a summons, with a copy of the certificate attached, directing the witness to attend and testify in the court where the prosecution is pending, or where a grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence at a time and place specified in the summons. In any such hearing the certificate shall be prima facie evidence of all the facts stated therein.

If the certificate recommends that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state to assure his attendance in the requesting state, the judge may, in lieu of notification of the hearing, direct the witness to be immediately brought before him for the hearing, and the judge at the hearing being satisfied of the desirability of custody and delivery, for which determination the certificate shall be prima facie proof of desirability, may, in lieu of issuing subpoena or summons, order the witness to be immediately taken into custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state.

If the witness who is summoned as above provided, after being paid or tendered by some properly authorized person the sum of 20 cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the prosecution is pending and $30 for each day he is required to travel and attend as a witness, fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a summons issued from a court of record in this state.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-21-3 Procedure to secure attendance of witness from without state.

If a person in any state, which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within its borders to attend and testify in criminal prosecutions, or grand jury investigations commenced or about to commence, in this state, is a material witness in a prosecution pending in a court of record in this state, or in a grand jury investigation which has commenced or is about to commence, a judge of the court may issue a certificate under the seal of the court stating these facts and specifying the number of days the witness will be required. The certificate may include a recommendation that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of this state to assure his attendance in this state. This certificate shall be presented to a judge of a court of record in the county in which the witness is found.

If the witness is summoned to attend and testify in this state he shall be tendered such sum as may be required by the laws of the state in which the witness is found, not exceeding the sum of 20 cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the prosecution is pending and $30 for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness. A witness who has appeared in accordance with the provisions of the summons shall not be required to remain within this state a longer period of time than the period mentioned in the certificate unless otherwise ordered by the court. If the witness, after coming into this state, fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a summons issued from a court of record in this state.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-21-4 Fees.

Whenever a judge of a court of record of this state issues a certificate under the provisions of this chapter to obtain the attendance of a witness for the prosecution from without the state in a criminal prosecution or grand jury investigation commenced or about to commence he shall designate therein a suitable peace officer of this state to present the certificate to the proper officer or tribunal of the state wherein the witness is found and to tender to the witness his per diem and mileage fees.

The officer shall exhibit the certificate to the county auditor of the county in which the criminal proceeding is pending and the auditor shall draw his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of the officer in the amount to be tendered the witness. The officer shall be liable upon his official bond for the proper disposition of the money received.

In all cases in which the officer is required to travel in order to present the certificate and tender fees, his actual and necessary traveling expenses shall be paid out of the fund from which witnesses for the prosecution in the criminal proceeding are paid.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-21-5 Witnesses not subject to arrest or service of process.

If a person comes into this state in obedience to a summons directing him to attend and testify in this state he shall not, while in this state pursuant to such summons, be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons.

If a person passes through this state while going to another state in obedience to a summons to attend and testify in that state or while returning therefrom he shall not, while so passing through this state, be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

Chapter 22
Subpoena Powers for Aid of Criminal Investigation and Grants of Immunity

77-22-1 Declaration of necessity.

It is declared, as a matter of legislative determination, that it is necessary to grant subpoena powers in aid of criminal investigations and to provide a method of keeping information gained from investigations secret both to protect the innocent and to prevent criminal suspects from having access to information prior to prosecution.

Amended by Chapter 296, 1997 General Session

77-22-2 Investigations -- Right to subpoena witnesses and require production of evidence -- Contents of subpoena -- Rights of witnesses -- Interrogation before closed court -- Disclosure of information.

(1) As used in this section, "prosecutor" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-22-4.5.

(2)

(a) In any matter involving the investigation of a crime or malfeasance in office, or any criminal conspiracy or activity, the prosecutor may, upon application and approval of the district court and for good cause shown, conduct a criminal investigation.

(b) The application and statement of good cause shall state whether another investigative order related to the investigation at issue has been filed in another court.

(3)

(a) Subject to the conditions established in Subsection (3)(b), the prosecutor may:

(i) subpoena witnesses;

(ii) compel their attendance and testimony under oath to be recorded by a suitable electronic recording device or to be given before any certified court reporter; and

(iii) require the production of books, papers, documents, recordings, and any other items that are evidence or may be relevant to the investigation.

(b) The prosecutor shall:

(i) apply to the district court for each subpoena; and

(ii) show that the requested information is reasonably related to the criminal investigation authorized by the court.

(4)

(a) The prosecutor shall state in each subpoena:

(i) the time and place of the examination;
(ii) that the subpoena is issued in aid of a criminal investigation; and
(iii) the right of the person subpoenaed to have counsel present.
(b) The examination may be conducted anywhere within the jurisdiction of the prosecutor issuing the subpoena.
(c) The subpoena need not disclose the names of possible defendants.
(d) Witness fees and expenses shall be paid as in a civil action.
(5)
(a) At the beginning of each compelled interrogation, the prosecutor shall personally inform each witness:
(i) of the general subject matter of the investigation;
(ii) of the privilege to, at any time during the proceeding, refuse to answer any question or produce any evidence of a communicative nature that may result in self-incrimination;
(iii) that any information provided may be used against the witness in a subsequent criminal proceeding; and
(iv) of the right to have counsel present.
(b) If the prosecutor has substantial evidence that the subpoenaed witness has committed a crime that is under investigation, the prosecutor shall:
(i) inform the witness in person before interrogation of that witness's target status; and
(ii) inform the witness of the nature of the charges under consideration against the witness.
(6)
(a)
(i) The prosecutor may make written application to any district court showing a reasonable likelihood that publicly releasing information about the identity of a witness or the substance of the evidence resulting from a subpoena or interrogation would pose a threat of harm to a person or otherwise impede the investigation.
(ii) Upon a finding of reasonable likelihood, the court may order the:
(A) interrogation of a witness be held in secret;
(B) occurrence of the interrogation and other subpoenaing of evidence, the identity of the person subpoenaed, and the substance of the evidence obtained be kept secret; and
(C) record of testimony and other subpoenaed evidence be kept secret unless the court for good cause otherwise orders.
(b) After application, the court may by order exclude from any investigative hearing or proceeding any persons except:
(i) the attorneys representing the state and members of their staffs;
(ii) persons who, in the judgment of the attorneys representing the state, are reasonably necessary to assist in the investigative process;
(iii) the court reporter or operator of the electronic recording device; and
(iv) the attorney for the witness.
(c) This chapter does not prevent attorneys representing the state or members of their staff from disclosing information obtained pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of furthering any official governmental investigation.
(d)
(i) If a secrecy order has been granted by the court regarding the interrogation or disclosure of evidence by a witness under this subsection, and if the court finds a further restriction on the witness is appropriate, the court may order the witness not to disclose the substance of the witness's testimony or evidence given by the witness to others.
(ii) Any order to not disclose made under this subsection shall be served with the subpoena.

(iii) In an appropriate circumstance the court may order that the witness not disclose the existence of the investigation to others.
(iv) Any order under this Subsection (6)(d) must be based upon a finding by the court that one or more of the following risks exist:
(A) disclosure by the witness would cause destruction of evidence;
(B) disclosure by the witness would taint the evidence provided by other witnesses;
(C) disclosure by the witness to a target of the investigation would result in flight or other conduct to avoid prosecution;
(D) disclosure by the witness would damage a person's reputation; or
(E) disclosure by the witness would cause a threat of harm to any person.
(e)
(i) If the court imposes an order under Subsection (6)(d) authorizing an instruction to a witness not to disclose the substance of testimony or evidence provided and the prosecuting agency proves by a preponderance of the evidence that a witness has violated that order, the court may hold the witness in contempt.
(ii) An order of secrecy imposed on a witness under this Subsection (6)(e) may not infringe on the attorney-client relationship between the witness and the witness's attorney or on another legally recognized privileged relationship.
(7)
(i) The prosecutor may submit to any district court a separate written request that the application, statement of good cause, and the court's order authorizing the investigation be kept secret.
(ii) The request for secrecy is a public record under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, but need not contain any information that would compromise any of the interest listed in Subsection (7)(c).
(b) With the court's permission, the prosecutor may submit to the court, in camera, any additional information to support the request for secrecy if necessary to avoid compromising the interests listed in Subsection (7)(c).
(c) The court shall consider all information in the application and order authorizing the investigation and any information received in camera and shall order that all information be placed in the public file except information that, if disclosed, would pose:
(i) a substantial risk of harm to a person's safety;
(ii) a clearly unwarranted invasion of or harm to a person's reputation or privacy; or
(iii) a serious impediment to the investigation.
(d) Before granting an order keeping secret documents and other information received under this section, the court shall narrow the secrecy order as much as reasonably possible in order to preserve the openness of court records while protecting the interests listed in Subsection (7)(c).

Amended by Chapter 420, 2019 General Session

77-22-2.5 Court orders for criminal investigations for records concerning an electronic communications system or service or remote computing service -- Content -- Fee for providing information.

(1) As used in this section:
(a)

(i) "Electronic communication" means any transfer of signs, signals, writing, images, sounds, data, or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or in part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic, photoelectronic, or photooptical system.

(b) "Electronic communications service" means a service which provides for users the ability to send or receive wire or electronic communications.

(c) "Electronic communications system" means a wire, radio, electromagnetic, photooptical, or photoelectronic facilities for the transmission of wire or electronic communications, and a computer facilities or related electronic equipment for the electronic storage of the communication.

(d) "Internet service provider" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5c-401.

(e) "Prosecutor" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-22-4.5.

(f) "Remote computing service" means the provision to the public of computer storage or processing services by means of an electronic communications system.

(g)

(i) "Sexual offense against a minor" means:

(A) sexual exploitation of a minor or attempted sexual exploitation of a minor in violation of Section 76-5b-201;

(B) aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor or attempted aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor in violation of Section 76-5b-201.1;

(C) a sexual offense or attempted sexual offense committed against a minor in violation of Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses;

(D) dealing in or attempting to deal in material harmful to a minor in violation of Section 76-5c-205 or 76-5c-206;

(E) human trafficking of a child in violation of Section 76-5-308.5; or

(F) aggravated sexual extortion of a child in violation of Section 76-5b-204.

(ii) "Sexual offense against a minor" does not include an offense described in Section 76-5-418, 76-5-419, or 76-5-420.

(2) When a law enforcement agency is investigating a sexual offense against a minor, an offense of stalking under Section 76-5-106.5, or an offense of child kidnapping under Section 76-5-301.1, and has reasonable suspicion that an electronic communications system or service or remote computing service has been used in the commission of a criminal offense, a law enforcement agent shall:

(a) articulate specific facts showing reasonable grounds to believe that the records or other information sought, as designated in Subsections (2)(c)(i) through (v), are relevant and material to an ongoing investigation;

(b) present the request to a prosecutor for review and authorization to proceed; and

(c) submit the request to a magistrate for a court order, consistent with 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2703 and 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2702, to the electronic communications system or service or remote computing service provider that owns or controls the Internet protocol address, websites, email address, or service to a specific telephone number, requiring the production of the following information, if available, upon providing in the court order the Internet protocol address, email address, telephone number, or other identifier, and the dates and times the address, telephone number, or other identifier is suspected of being used in the commission of the offense:

(i) names of subscribers, service customers, and users;

(ii) addresses of subscribers, service customers, and users;

(iii) records of session times and durations;

(iv) length of service, including the start date and types of service utilized; and

(v) telephone or other instrument subscriber numbers or other subscriber identifiers, including a temporarily assigned network address.

(3) A court order issued under this section shall state that the electronic communications system or service or remote computing service provider shall produce a record under Subsections (2)(c)(i) through (v) that is reasonably relevant to the investigation of the suspected criminal activity or offense as described in the court order.

(4)

(a) An electronic communications system or service or remote computing service provider that provides information in response to a court order issued under this section may charge a fee, not to exceed the actual cost, for providing the information.

(b) The law enforcement agency conducting the investigation shall pay the fee.

(5) The electronic communications system or service or remote computing service provider served with or responding to the court order may not disclose the court order to the account holder identified pursuant to the court order for a period of 90 days.

(6) If the electronic communications system or service or remote computing service provider served with the court order does not own or control the Internet protocol address, websites, or email address, or provide service for the telephone number that is the subject of the court order, the provider shall notify the investigating law enforcement agency that the provider does not have the information.

(7) There is no cause of action against a provider or wire or electronic communication service, or the provider or service's officers, employees, agents, or other specified persons, for providing information, facilities, or assistance in accordance with the terms of the court order issued under this section or statutory authorization.

(8)

(a) A court order issued under this section is subject to the provisions of Title 77, Chapter 23b, Access to Electronic Communications.

(b) Rights and remedies for providers and subscribers under Title 77, Chapter 23b, Access to Electronic Communications, apply to providers and subscribers subject to a court order issued under this section.

(9) A prosecutorial agency shall annually on or before February 15 report to the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice:

(a) the number of requests for court orders authorized by the prosecutorial agency;

(b) the number of orders issued by the court and the criminal offense, pursuant to Subsection (2), each order was used to investigate; and

(c) if the court order led to criminal charges being filed, the type and number of offenses charged.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

77-22-4 Investigation records to be filed with court.

In all investigations under Section 77-22-2, the attorney general, county attorney, or district attorney shall maintain and file with the district court the following records of the criminal investigation, unless otherwise ordered by the court:

(1) a copy of the good cause statement and application for the authorization of the criminal investigation;
(2) a copy of all motions made to the court by the attorney general, the county attorney, or the district attorney;
(3) a copy of all court orders;
(4) a copy of all subpoenas issued;
(5) detailed descriptions of all documents and other evidence produced in response to subpoenas;
(6) a copy of all transcripts of testimony taken pursuant to the subpoena; and
(7) a copy of all written communications between the court and the attorney general, county attorney, or district attorney, and staff.

Amended by Chapter 38, 1993 General Session

77-22-4.5 Prosecutorial authority to compromise an offense regarding a witness.
(1) As used in this section, "prosecutor" includes the state attorney general and any assistant, a district attorney and any deputy, a county attorney and any deputy, and a municipal prosecutor and any deputy.
(2) This chapter does not prohibit or limit the authority of a prosecutor to divert, reduce, or compromise any criminal charge against a witness or other party when the witness voluntarily enters into an agreement to provide testimony or other evidence against himself or herself or another accused in consideration for the diversion, reduction, or compromise if:
  (a) the prosecutor holds authority to prosecute the offense against the witness or other party; and
  (b) the complete agreement with the witness is in writing and a copy of the agreement is given to the witness.
(3) Any agreement under Subsection (2) is subject to discovery by counsel for the accused in any prosecution in which the witness with whom the agreement is made has agreed to testify.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-22-5 Prosecutorial powers.
The powers of this chapter are in addition to any other powers granted to the attorney general or county attorneys.

Chapter 22a
Administrative Subpoenas in Controlled Substances Investigations

77-22a-1 Administrative subpoenas -- Controlled substances investigations -- Procedures -- Witness fees.
(1)
  (a) The administrative subpoena process of this chapter may be used only to obtain third party information under circumstances where it is clear that the subpoenaed information is not subject to a claim of protection under the Fourth, Fifth, or Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution, or a similar claim under Utah Constitution, Article I, Sec. 12 and Sec. 14.

(b) A party subpoenaed under this chapter shall be advised by the subpoena that the party has a right to challenge the subpoena by motion to quash filed in the appropriate district court named in the subpoena before compliance is required.

(a) In any investigation relating to an attorney's functions under this chapter regarding controlled substances, the attorney general or a deputy or assistant attorney general, the county attorney or a deputy county attorney, or the district attorney or deputy district attorney may subpoena witnesses, compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, or require the production of any records including books, papers, documents, and other tangible things that constitute or contain evidence found by the attorney general or a deputy or assistant attorney general or the county attorney or district attorney, as provided under Sections 17-68-302 and 17-68-303, or the county attorney's or district attorney's deputy under Section 17-68-305, to be relevant or material to the investigation.

(b) The attendance of witnesses or the production of records may be required from any place within the state.

(3) Witnesses subpoenaed under this section shall be paid the same fees and mileage costs as witnesses in the state district courts.

(4) If the attorney general, a deputy or assistant attorney general, or the county attorney or district attorney, or a deputy attorney determines that disclosure of the existence of an administrative subpoena or of the information sought or of the existence of the investigation under which it is issued would pose a threat of harm to a person or otherwise impede the investigation, the subpoena shall contain language on its face directing that the witness not disclose to any person the existence or service of the subpoena, the information being sought, or the existence of an investigation.

77-22a-2 Service of administrative subpoena.

(1) A subpoena issued under this section may be served by any person designated in the subpoena for that purpose. Service upon a natural person may be made by personal delivery of the subpoena to the natural person. Service may be made upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association subject to suit under a common name by delivering the subpoena to an officer, managing or general agent, or other agent authorized by appointment or law to receive service of process.

(2) The affidavit of the person serving the subpoena, when entered on a copy of the subpoena by the person serving it, is proof of service.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-22a-3 Compliance with administrative subpoena.

(1) In the case of contumacy by or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the attorney general or a deputy or assistant attorney general or the county attorney or district attorney or the district attorney's deputy may compel compliance with the subpoena through the district court:

(a) in the jurisdiction where the investigation is carried on;

(b) where the subpoenaed person is an inhabitant;

(c) where the subpoenaed person carries on business; or

(d) where the subpoenaed person may be found.

(2) The court may issue an order requiring the person subpoenaed to produce records or to appear before the attorney general or deputy or assistant attorney general, or the county attorney or district attorney or the district attorney's deputy who issued the subpoena testimony touching the matter under investigation.
(3) Any failure to obey the court order may be punished by the court as contempt. All process in the case may be served in any judicial district in which the person may be found within the state.
(4) A witness may not be held liable in any civil or criminal proceeding for producing records or disclosing information to the person issuing the administrative subpoena as commanded by the subpoena.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

Chapter 22b
Grants of Immunity

77-22b-1 Immunity granted to witness.

(1)
(a) A witness who refuses, or is likely to refuse, on the basis of the witness's privilege against self-incrimination to testify or provide evidence or information in a criminal investigation, including a grand jury investigation or prosecution of a criminal case, or in aid of an investigation or inquiry being conducted by a government agency or commission, or by either house of the Legislature, a joint committee of the two houses, or a committee or subcommittee of either house, may be compelled to testify or provide evidence or information by any of the following, after being granted use immunity with regards to the compelled testimony or production of evidence or information:
(i) the attorney general or any assistant attorney general authorized by the attorney general;
(ii) a district attorney or any deputy district attorney authorized by a district attorney;
(iii) in a county not within a prosecution district, a county attorney or any deputy county attorney authorized by a county attorney;
(iv) a special counsel for the grand jury;
(v) a prosecutor pro tempore appointed under the Utah Constitution, Article VIII, Sec. 16; or
(vi) legislative general counsel in the case of testimony pursuant to subpoena before:
(A) the Legislature;
(B) either house of the Legislature; or
(C) a committee of the Legislature, including a joint committee, a committee of either house, a subcommittee, or a special investigative committee.
(b)
(i) If any prosecutor authorized under Subsection (1)(a) intends to compel a witness to testify or provide evidence or information under a grant of use immunity, the prosecutor shall notify the witness by written notice.
(ii) The notice described in Subsection (1)(b)(i):
(A) shall include the information contained in Subsection (2);
(B) shall advise the witness that the witness may not refuse to testify or provide evidence or information on the basis of the witness's privilege against self-incrimination; and

(C) need not be in writing when the grant of use immunity occurs on the record in the course of a preliminary hearing, grand jury proceeding, or trial.

(2) Testimony, evidence, or information compelled under Subsection (1) may not be used against the witness in any criminal or quasi-criminal case, nor any information directly or indirectly derived from this testimony, evidence, or information, unless the testimony, evidence, or information is volunteered by the witness or is otherwise not responsive to a question. Immunity does not extend to prosecution or punishment for perjury or to giving a false statement in connection with any testimony.

(3)

(a) If a witness is granted immunity under Subsection (1) and is later prosecuted for an offense that was part of the transaction or events about which the witness was compelled to testify or produce evidence or information under a grant of immunity, the burden is on the prosecution to show by a preponderance of the evidence that no use or derivative use was made of the compelled testimony, evidence, or information in the subsequent case against the witness, and to show that any proffered evidence was derived from sources totally independent of the compelled testimony, evidence, or information.

(b) The remedy for not establishing that any proffered evidence was derived from sources totally independent of the compelled testimony, evidence, or information is suppression of that evidence only.

(4) Nothing in this section prohibits or limits prosecutorial authority granted in Section 77-22-4.5.

(5) A county attorney within a prosecution district shall have the authority to grant immunity only as provided in Subsection 17-68-503(3).

(6) For purposes of this section, "quasi-criminal" means only those proceedings that are determined by a court to be so far criminal in their nature that a defendant has a constitutional right against self-incrimination.

Amended by Chapter 17, 2025 Special Session 1

77-22b-2 Refusal of witness to testify or produce evidence or information.

(1) A witness who has been served with notice under Section 77-22b-1 and refuses to comply with the notice may be required to show cause before the district court why the witness should not be compelled to testify or otherwise produce evidence or information.

(2) If, after notice and hearing, the court finds that the witness should be compelled to testify or otherwise produce evidence or information, it shall order the witness to comply. If the witness then refuses to comply, the witness may be held in contempt of court.

Chapter 23
Search and Administrative Warrants

Part 1
Administrative Traffic Checkpoint Act

77-23-101 Title of act.

Sections 77-23-101 through 77-23-105 may be cited as the "Administrative Traffic Checkpoint Act."

Enacted by Chapter 72, 1992 General Session

77-23-102 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Administrative traffic checkpoint" means a roadblock procedure where enforcement officers stop all, or a designated sequence of, motor vehicles traveling on highways and roads and subject those vehicles to inspection or testing and the drivers or occupants to questioning or the production of documents.

(2) "Command level officer" includes all sheriffs, heads of law enforcement agencies, and all supervisory enforcement officers of sergeant rank or higher.

(3) "Emergency circumstances" means circumstances where enforcement officers reasonably believe road conditions, weather conditions, or persons present a significant hazard to persons or the property of other persons.

(4) "Enforcement officer" includes:

(a) peace officers as defined in Title 53, Chapter 13, Peace Officer Classifications;

(b) correctional officers as defined in Title 53, Chapter 13, Peace Officer Classifications;

(c) special function officers as defined and under the restrictions of Title 53, Chapter 13, Peace Officer Classifications; and

(d) federal officers as defined in Title 53, Chapter 13, Peace Officer Classifications.

(5) "Magistrate" includes all judicial officers enumerated in Subsection 77-1-3(4).

(6) "Motor vehicle" includes all vehicles as defined in Title 41, Chapter 1a, Motor Vehicle Act.

Amended by Chapter 282, 1998 General Session

77-23-103 Circumstances permitting an administrative traffic checkpoint.

A motor vehicle may be stopped and the occupants detained by an enforcement officer when the enforcement officer:

(1) is acting pursuant to a duly authorized search warrant or arrest warrant;

(2) has probable cause to arrest or search;

(3) has reasonable suspicion that criminal activity has occurred or is occurring;

(4) is acting under emergency circumstances; or

(5) is acting pursuant to duly authorized administrative traffic checkpoint authority granted by a magistrate in accordance with Section 77-23-104.

Enacted by Chapter 72, 1992 General Session

77-23-104 Written plan -- Approval of magistrate.

(1) An administrative traffic checkpoint may be established and operated upon written authority of a magistrate.

(2) A magistrate may issue written authority to establish and operate an administrative traffic checkpoint if:

(a) a command level officer submits to the magistrate a written plan signed by the command level officer describing:

(i) the location of the checkpoint including geographical and topographical information;

(ii) the date, time, and duration of the checkpoint;

(iii) the sequence of traffic to be stopped;
(iv) the purpose of the checkpoint, including the inspection or inquiry to be conducted;
(v) the minimum number of personnel to be employed in operating the checkpoint, including the rank of the officer or officers in charge at the scene;
(vi) the configuration and location of signs, barriers, and other means of informing approaching motorists that they must stop and directing them to the place to stop;
(vii) any advance notice to the public at large of the establishment of the checkpoint; and
(viii) the instructions to be given to the enforcement officers operating the checkpoint;
(b) the magistrate makes an independent judicial determination that the plan appropriately:
(i) minimizes the length of time the motorist will be delayed;
(ii) minimizes the intrusion of the inspection or inquiry;
(iii) minimizes the fear and anxiety the motorist will experience;
(iv) minimizes the degree of discretion to be exercised by the individual enforcement officers operating the checkpoint; and
(v) maximizes the safety of the motorist and the enforcement officers; and
(c) the administrative traffic checkpoint has the primary purpose of inspecting, verifying, or detecting:
(i) drivers that may be under the influence of alcohol or drugs;
(ii) license plates, registration certificates, insurance certificates, or driver licenses;
(iii) violations of Title 23A, Wildlife Resources Act; or
(iv) other circumstances that are specifically distinguishable by the magistrate from a general interest in crime control.
(3) Upon determination by the magistrate that the plan meets the requirements of Subsection (2), the magistrate shall sign the authorization and issue it to the command level officer, retaining a copy for the court's file.
(4) A copy of the plan and signed authorization shall be issued to the checkpoint command level officer participating in the operation of the checkpoint.
(5) Any enforcement officer participating in the operation of the checkpoint shall conform the enforcement officer's activities as nearly as practicable to the procedures outlined in the plan.
(6) The checkpoint command level officer shall be available to exhibit a copy of the plan and signed authorization to any motorist who has been stopped at the checkpoint upon request of the motorist.

Amended by Chapter 34, 2023 General Session

77-23-104.5 Signs -- Prohibitions.

An enforcement officer may not display a sign that notifies motorists of an administrative traffic checkpoint unless the checkpoint is being operated under the authority of a magistrate as provided in Section 77-23-104.

Enacted by Chapter 168, 2001 General Session

77-23-105 Failure to stop -- Criminal liability.

Any person who intentionally and knowingly passes, without stopping as required, any administrative traffic checkpoint operated under the authority of a magistrate as provided in Section 77-23-104 is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

Enacted by Chapter 72, 1992 General Session

Part 2
Search Warrants

77-23-205 Officer may request assistance.

An officer who is serving a search warrant may request other persons to assist in conducting the search.

Amended by Chapter 153, 2007 General Session

77-23-210 Force used in executing a search warrant -- When notice of authority is required as a prerequisite.

(1)
(a) No later than July 1, 2015, any law enforcement agency that seeks a warrant under this section shall comply with guidelines and procedures which are, at a minimum, in accordance with state law and model guidelines and procedures recommended by the Utah Peace Officer Standards and Training Council created in Section 53-6-106.
(b) Written policies adopted pursuant to this section shall be subject to public disclosure and inspection, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.

(2) When a search warrant has been issued authorizing entry into any building, room, conveyance, compartment, or other enclosure, the officer executing the warrant may enter:
(a) if, after giving notice of the officer's authority and purpose, there is no response or the officer is not admitted with reasonable promptness; or
(b) without notice of the officer's authority and purpose as provided in Subsection (3).

(3)
(a) The officer may enter without notice only if:
(i) there is reasonable suspicion to believe that the notice will endanger the life or safety of the officer or another person;
(ii) there is probable cause to believe that evidence may be easily or quickly destroyed; or
(iii) the magistrate, having found probable cause based upon proof provided under oath that the object of the search may be easily or quickly destroyed, or having found reason to believe that physical harm may result to any person if notice were given, has directed that the officer need not give notice of authority and purpose before entering the premises to be searched under the Rules of Criminal Procedure; or
(iv) the officer physically observes and documents a previously unknown event or circumstance at the time the warrant is being executed which creates probable cause to believe the object of the search is being destroyed, or creates reasonable suspicion to believe that physical harm may result to any person if notice were given.
(b) The officer shall identify himself or herself and state the purpose for entering the premises as soon as practicable after entering.

(4) An officer executing a warrant under this section may use only that force which is reasonable and necessary to execute the warrant.

(5) An officer executing a warrant under this section shall wear readily identifiable markings, including a badge and vest or clothing with a distinguishing label or other writing which indicates that he or she is a law enforcement officer.

(a) An officer executing a warrant under this section shall comply with the officer's employing agency's body worn camera policy when the officer is equipped with a body-worn camera.
(b) The employing agency's policy regarding the use of body-worn cameras shall include a provision that an officer executing a warrant under this section shall wear a body-worn camera when a camera is available, except in exigent circumstances where it is not practicable to do so.
(7)
(a) The officer shall take reasonable precautions in execution of any search warrant to minimize the risks of unnecessarily confrontational or invasive methods which may result in harm to any person.
(b) The officer shall minimize the risk of searching the wrong premises by verifying that the premises being searched is consistent with a particularized description in the search warrant, including such factors as the type of structure, the color, the address, and orientation of the target property in relation to nearby structures as is reasonably necessary.
(8) Notwithstanding any provision in this chapter, a warrant authorizing forcible entry without prior announcement may not be issued under this section, solely for:
(a) the alleged possession or use of a controlled substance; or
(b) the alleged possession of drug paraphernalia as provided in Section 58-37a-3.

Amended by Chapter 281, 2018 General Session

77-23-213 Blood testing.
(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Law enforcement purpose" means duties that consist primarily of the prevention and detection of crime and the enforcement of criminal statutes or ordinances of this state or any of this state's political subdivisions.
(b) "Peace officer" means those persons specified in Title 53, Chapter 13, Peace Officer Classifications.
(2) A peace officer may require an individual to submit to a blood test for a law enforcement purpose only if:
(a) the individual or legal representative of the individual with authority to give consent gives oral or written consent to the blood test;
(b) the peace officer obtains a warrant to administer the blood test; or
(c) a judicially recognized exception to obtaining a warrant exists as established by the Utah Court of Appeals, Utah Supreme Court, Court of Appeals of the Tenth Circuit, or the Supreme Court of the United States.
(3)
(a) Only the following, acting at the request of a peace officer, may draw blood to determine the blood's alcohol or drug content:
(i) a physician;
(ii) a physician assistant;
(iii) a registered nurse;
(iv) a licensed practical nurse;
(v) a paramedic;
(vi) as provided in Subsection (3)(b), emergency medical service personnel other than a paramedic; or

(vii) a person with a valid permit issued by the Department of Public Safety under Section 53-2d-103.

(b) The Department of Public Safety may designate by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, which emergency medical service personnel, as defined in Section 53-2d-101, are authorized to draw blood under Subsection (3)(a)(vi), based on the type of license under Section 53-2d-402.

(c) The following are immune from civil or criminal liability arising from drawing a blood sample from a person who a peace officer requests, for law enforcement purposes, if the sample is drawn in accordance with standard medical practice:

(i) a person authorized to draw blood under Subsection (3)(a); and

(ii) if the blood is drawn at a hospital or other medical facility, the medical facility.

Amended by Chapter 340, 2025 General Session

Part 3
Warrantless Searches

77-23-301 Warrantless searches regarding persons on parole.

(1) An inmate who is eligible for release on parole shall, as a condition of parole, sign an agreement as described in Subsection (2) that the inmate, while on parole, is subject to search or seizure of the inmate's person, property, place of temporary or permanent residence, vehicle, or personal effects while on parole:

(a) by a parole officer at any time, with or without a search warrant, and with or without cause; and

(b) by a law enforcement officer at any time, with or without a search warrant, and with or without cause, but subject to Subsection (3).

(2)

(a) The terms of the agreement under Subsection (1) shall be stated in clear and unambiguous language.

(b) The agreement shall be signed by the parolee, indicating the parolee's understanding of the terms of searches as allowed by Subsection (1).

(3)

(a) In order for a law enforcement officer to conduct a search of a parolee's residence under Subsection (1) or a seizure pursuant to the search, the law enforcement officer shall have obtained prior approval from a parole officer or shall have a warrant for the search.

(b) If a law enforcement officer conducts a search of a parolee's person, personal effects, or vehicle pursuant to a stop, the law enforcement officer shall notify a parole officer as soon as reasonably possible after conducting the search.

(4) A search conducted under this section may not be for the purpose of harassment.

(5) Any inmate who does not agree in writing to be subject to search or seizure under Subsection (1) may not be paroled until the inmate enters into the agreement under Subsection (1).

(6) This section applies only to an inmate who is eligible for release on parole on or after May 5, 2008.

Enacted by Chapter 357, 2008 General Session

Chapter 23a
Interception of Communications Act

77-23a-1 Short title.

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Interception of Communications Act."

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-23a-2 Legislative findings.

The Legislature finds and determines that:

(1) Wire communications are normally conducted through facilities which form part of an interstate network. The same facilities are used for interstate and intrastate communications.

(2) In order to protect effectively the privacy of wire and oral communications, to protect the integrity of court and administrative proceedings, and to prevent the obstruction of intrastate commerce, it is necessary for the legislature to define the circumstances and conditions under which the interception of wire and oral communications may be authorized and to prohibit any unauthorized interception of these communications and the use of the contents thereof in evidence in courts and administrative proceedings.

(3) Organized criminals make extensive use of wire and oral communications in their criminal activities. The interception of such communications to obtain evidence of the commission of crimes or to prevent their commission is an indispensable aid to law enforcement and the administration of justice.

(4) To safeguard the privacy of innocent persons, the interception of wire or oral communications when none of the parties to the communication has consented to the interception should be allowed only when authorized by a court of competent jurisdiction and should remain under the control and supervision of the authorizing court. Interception of wire and oral communications should further be limited to certain major types of offenses and specific categories of crime with assurance that the interception is justified and that the information obtained thereby will not be misused.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-23a-3 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Aggrieved person" means a person who was a party to any intercepted wire, electronic, or oral communication, or a person against whom the interception was directed.

(2) "Aural transfer" means any transfer containing the human voice at any point between and including the point of origin and the point of reception.

(3) "Communications common carrier" means any person engaged as a common carrier for hire in intrastate, interstate, or foreign communication by wire or radio, including a provider of electronic communication service. However, a person engaged in radio broadcasting is not, when that person is so engaged, a communications common carrier.

(4) "Contents" when used with respect to any wire, electronic, or oral communication includes any information concerning the substance, purport, or meaning of that communication.

(5) "Electronic communication" means any transfer of signs, signals, writings, images, sounds, data, or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or in part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic, photoelectronic, or photo-optical system, but does not include:
(a) the radio portion of a cordless telephone communication that is transmitted between the cordless telephone handset and the base unit;
(b) any wire or oral communications;
(c) any communication made through a tone-only paging device; or
(d) any communication from an electronic or mechanical device that permits the tracking of the movement of a person or object.
(6) "Electronic communications service" means any service that provides for users the ability to send or receive wire or electronic communications.
(7) "Electronic communications system" means any wire, radio, electromagnetic, photoelectronic, or photo-optical facilities for the transmission of electronic communications, and any computer facilities or related electronic equipment for the electronic storage of the communication.
(8) "Electronic, mechanical, or other device" means any device or apparatus that may be used to intercept a wire, electronic, or oral communication other than:
(a) any telephone or telegraph instrument, equipment or facility, or a component of any of them:
(i) furnished by the provider of wire or electronic communications service or by the subscriber or user, and being used by the subscriber or user in the ordinary course of its business; or
(ii) being used by a provider of wire or electronic communications service in the ordinary course of its business, or by an investigative or law enforcement officer in the ordinary course of the officer's duties; or
(b) a hearing aid or similar device being used to correct subnormal hearing to not better than normal.
(9) "Electronic storage" means:
(a) any temporary intermediate storage of a wire or electronic communication incident to the electronic transmission of it; and
(b) any storage of the communication by an electronic communications service for the purposes of backup protection of the communication.
(10) "Intercept" means the acquisition of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communication through the use of any electronic, mechanical, or other device.
(11) "Investigative or law enforcement officer" means any officer of the state or of a political subdivision, who by law may conduct investigations of or make arrests for offenses enumerated in this chapter, or any federal officer as defined in Section 53-13-106, and any attorney authorized by law to prosecute or participate in the prosecution of these offenses.
(12) "Judge of competent jurisdiction" means a judge of a district court of the state.
(13) "Oral communication" means any oral communication uttered by a person exhibiting an expectation that the communication is not subject to interception, under circumstances justifying that expectation, but does not include any electronic communication.
(14) "Pen register" means a device that records or decodes electronic or other impulses that identify the numbers dialed or otherwise transmitted on the telephone line to which the device is attached. "Pen register" does not include any device used by a provider or customer of a wire or electronic communication service for billing or recording as an incident to billing, for communications services provided by the provider, or any device used by a provider or customer of a wire communications service for cost accounting or other like purposes in the ordinary course of its business.
(15) "Person" means any employee or agent of the state or a political subdivision, and any individual, partnership, association, joint stock company, trust, or corporation.

(16) "Readily accessible to the general public" means, regarding a radio communication, that the communication is not:
(a) scrambled or encrypted;
(b) transmitted using modulation techniques with essential parameters that have been withheld from the public with the intention of preserving the privacy of the communication;
(c) carried on a subcarrier or signal subsidiary to a radio transmission;
(d) transmitted over a communications system provided by a common carrier, unless the communication is a tone-only paging system communication; or
(e) transmitted on frequencies allocated under Part 25, Subpart D, E, or F of Part 74, or Part 94, Rules of the Federal Communications Commission unless, in the case of a communication transmitted on a frequency allocated under Part 74 that is not exclusively allocated to broadcast auxiliary services, the communication is a two-way voice communication by radio.
(17) "Trap and trace device" means a device, process, or procedure that captures the incoming electronic or other impulses that identify the originating number of an instrument or device from which a wire or electronic communication is transmitted.
(18) "User" means any person or entity who:
(a) uses an electronic communications service; and
(b) is authorized by the provider of the service to engage in the use.
(19)
(a) "Wire communication" means any aural transfer made in whole or in part through the use of facilities for the transmission of communications by the aid of wire, cable, or other like connection between the point of origin and the point of reception, including the use of the connection in a switching station, furnished or operated by any person engaged as a common carrier in providing or operating these facilities for the transmission of intrastate, interstate, or foreign communications.
(b) "Wire communication" includes the electronic storage of the communication, but does not include the radio portion of a cordless telephone communication that is transmitted between the cordless telephone handset and the base unit.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-23a-4 Offenses -- Criminal and civil -- Lawful interception.
(1)
(a) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, any person who violates Subsection (1)(b) is guilty of an offense and is subject to punishment under Subsection (10), or when applicable, the person is subject to civil action under Subsection (11).
(b) A person commits a violation of this subsection who:
(i) intentionally or knowingly intercepts, endeavors to intercept, or procures any other person to intercept or endeavor to intercept any wire, electronic, or oral communication;
(ii) intentionally or knowingly uses, endeavors to use, or procures any other person to use or endeavor to use any electronic, mechanical, or other device to intercept any oral communication, when the device is affixed to, or otherwise transmits a signal through a wire, cable, or other like connection used in wire communication or when the device transmits communications by radio, or interferes with the transmission of the communication;
(iii) intentionally or knowingly discloses or endeavors to disclose to any other person the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communication, knowing or having reason to know that the information was obtained through the interception of a wire, electronic, or oral communication in violation of this section; or

(iv) intentionally or knowingly uses or endeavors to use the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communication, knowing or having reason to know that the information was obtained through the interception of a wire, electronic, or oral communication in violation of this section.

(2) The operator of a switchboard, or an officer, employee, or agent of a provider of wire or electronic communication service whose facilities are used in the transmission of a wire communication may intercept, disclose, or use that communication in the normal course of his employment while engaged in any activity which is a necessary incident to the rendition of his service or to the protection of the rights or property of the provider of that service. However, a provider of wire communications service to the public may not utilize service observing or random monitoring except for mechanical or service quality control checks.

(3)

(a) Providers of wire or electronic communications service, their officers, employees, or agents, and any landlords, custodians, or other persons may provide information, facilities, or technical assistance to persons authorized by law to intercept wire, oral, or electronic communications or to conduct electronic surveillance if the provider and its officers, employees, or agents, and any landlords, custodians, or other specified persons have been provided with:

(i) a court order directing the assistance signed by the authorizing judge; or

(ii) a certification in writing by a person specified in Subsection 77-23a-10(7), or by the attorney general or an assistant attorney general, or by a county attorney or district attorney or his deputy that no warrant or court order is required by law, that all statutory requirements have been met, and that the specified assistance is required.

(b) The order or certification under this subsection shall set the period of time during which the provision of the information, facilities, or technical assistance is authorized and shall specify the information, facilities, or technical assistance required.

(4)

(a) The providers of wire or electronic communications service, their officers, employees, or agents, and any landlords, custodians, or other specified persons may not disclose the existence of any interception or surveillance or the device used to accomplish the interception or surveillance regarding which the person has been furnished an order or certification under this section except as is otherwise required by legal process, and then only after prior notification to the attorney general or to the county attorney or district attorney of the county in which the interception was conducted, as is appropriate.

(b) Any disclosure in violation of this subsection renders the person liable for civil damages under Section 77-23a-11.

(5) A cause of action does not lie in any court against any provider of wire or electronic communications service, its officers, employees, or agents, or any landlords, custodians, or other specified persons for providing information, facilities, or assistance in accordance with the terms of a court order or certification under this chapter.

(6) Subsections (3), (4), and (5) supersede any law to the contrary.

(7)

(a) A person acting under color of law may intercept a wire, electronic, or oral communication if that person is a party to the communication or one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to the interception.

(b) A person not acting under color of law may intercept a wire, electronic, or oral communication if that person is a party to the communication or one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to the interception, unless the communication is intercepted for the purpose of committing any criminal or tortious act in violation of state or federal laws.

(c) An employee of a telephone company may intercept a wire communication for the sole purpose of tracing the origin of the communication when the interception is requested by the recipient of the communication and the recipient alleges that the communication is obscene, harassing, or threatening in nature. The telephone company and its officers, employees, and agents shall release the results of the interception, made under this subsection, upon request of the local law enforcement authorities.

(8) A person may:

(a) intercept or access an electronic communication made through an electronic communications system that is configured so that the electronic communication is readily accessible to the general public;

(b) intercept any radio communication transmitted by:

(i) any station for the use of the general public, or that relates to ships, aircraft, vehicles, or persons in distress;

(ii) any government, law enforcement, civil defense, private land mobile, or public safety communications system, including police and fire, readily accessible to the general public;

(iii) a station operating on an authorized frequency within the bands allocated to the amateur, citizens' band, or general mobile radio services; or

(iv) by a marine or aeronautics communications system;

(c) intercept any wire or electronic communication, the transmission of which is causing harmful interference to any lawfully operating station or consumer electronic equipment, to the extent necessary to identify the source of the interference; or

(d) as one of a group of users of the same frequency, intercept any radio communication made through a system that utilizes frequencies monitored by individuals engaged in the provision or the use of the system, if the communication is not scrambled or encrypted.

(9)

(a) Except under Subsection (9)(b), a person or entity providing an electronic communications service to the public may not intentionally divulge the contents of any communication, while in transmission of that service, to any person or entity other than an addressee or intended recipient of the communication or his agent.

(b) A person or entity providing electronic communications service to the public may divulge the contents of any communication:

(i) as otherwise authorized under this section or Section 77-23a-9;

(ii) with lawful consent of the originator or any addressee or intended recipient of the communication;

(iii) to a person employed or authorized or whose facilities are used to forward the communication to its destination; or

(iv) that is inadvertently obtained by the service provider and appears to pertain to the commission of a crime, if the divulgence is made to a law enforcement agency.

(10)

(a) Except under Subsection (10)(b) or (11), a violation of Subsection (1) is a third degree felony.

(b) If the offense is a first offense under this section and is not for a tortious or illegal purpose or for purposes of direct or indirect commercial advantage or private commercial gain, and the wire or electronic communication regarding which the offense was committed is a radio communication that is not scrambled or encrypted:

(i) if the communication is not the radio portion of a cellular telephone communication, a public land mobile radio service communication, or paging service communication, and the conduct is not under Subsection (11), the offense is a class A misdemeanor; and

(ii) if the communication is the radio portion of a cellular telephone communication, a public land mobile radio service communication, or a paging service communication, the offense is a class B misdemeanor.

(c) Conduct otherwise an offense under this section is not an offense if the conduct was not done for the purpose of direct or indirect commercial advantage or private financial gain, and consists of or relates to the interception of a satellite transmission that is not encrypted or scrambled, and is either transmitted:

(i) to a broadcasting station for purposes of retransmission to the general public; or

(ii) as an audio subcarrier intended for redistribution to facilities open to the public, but in any event not including data transmissions or telephone calls.

(11)

(a) A person is subject to civil suit initiated by the state in a court of competent jurisdiction when his conduct is prohibited under Subsection (1) and the conduct involves a:

(i) private satellite video communication that is not scrambled or encrypted, and the conduct in violation of this chapter is the private viewing of that communication and is not for a tortious or illegal purpose or for purposes of direct or indirect commercial advantage or private commercial gain; or

(ii) radio communication that is transmitted on frequencies allocated under Subpart D, Part 74, Rules of the Federal Communication Commission, that is not scrambled or encrypted and the conduct in violation of this chapter is not for a tortious or illegal purpose or for purposes of direct or indirect commercial advantage or private commercial gain.

(b) In an action under Subsection (11)(a):

(i) if the violation of this chapter is a first offense under this section and the person is not found liable in a civil action under Section 77-23a-11, the state may seek appropriate injunctive relief; or

(ii) if the violation of this chapter is a second or subsequent offense under this section, or the person has been found liable in any prior civil action under Section 77-23a-11, the person is subject to a mandatory $500 civil penalty.

(c) The court may use any means within its authority to enforce an injunction issued under Subsection (11)(b)(i), and shall impose a civil fine of not less than $500 for each violation of the injunction.

77-23a-4.5 Implanting an electronic identification device -- Penalties.

(1) A person may not require, coerce, or compel any other individual to undergo or submit to the subcutaneous implanting of a radio frequency identification tag.

(2) Any person who violates Subsection (1) is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

(3)

(a) A person who is implanted with a subcutaneous identification device in violation of Subsection (1) may bring a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction for actual damages, compensatory damages, punitive damages, injunctive relief, or any combination of these.

(b) The initial civil penalty may not be more than $10,000, and no more than $1,000 for each day the violation continues until the electronic identification device is removed or disabled.

77-23a-5 Traffic in intercepting devices -- Offenses -- Lawful activities.

(1) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, any person is guilty of a third degree felony who intentionally:

(a) sends through the mail, or sends or carries in intrastate, interstate, or foreign commerce any electronic, mechanical, or other device, knowing or having reason to know that the design of the device renders it primarily useful for the purpose of the surreptitious interception of wire, electronic, or oral communications;

(b) manufactures, assembles, possesses, or sells any electronic, mechanical, or other device, knowing or having reason to know that the design of the device renders it primarily useful for the purpose of the surreptitious interception of wire, electronic, or oral communications; or

(c) places in any newspaper, magazine, handbill, or other publication any advertisement of:

(i) any electronic, mechanical, or other device knowing or having reason to know that the design of the device renders it primarily useful for the purpose of the surreptitious interception of wire, electronic, or oral communications; or

(ii) any other electronic, mechanical, or other device, where the advertisement promotes the use of the device for the purpose of the surreptitious interception of wire, electronic, or oral communications.

(2) The following persons may send through the mail, send or carry in intrastate, interstate, or foreign commerce, or manufacture, assemble, possess, or sell any electronic, mechanical, or other device knowing or having reason to know that the design of the device renders it primarily useful for the purpose of surreptitious interception of wire, electronic, or oral communication:

(a) a provider in the normal course of the business of providing that wire or electronic communications service; or

(b) an officer, agent, or employee of, or a person under contract with, the United States, a state, or a political subdivision, in the normal course of the activities of the United States, a state, or a political subdivision.

77-23a-6 Seizure and forfeiture of intercepting devices.

Any electronic, mechanical or other device used, sent, carried, manufactured, assembled, possessed, sold, or advertised in violation of Sections 77-23a-4 and 77-23a-5, may be seized and forfeited to the State of Utah.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-23a-7 Evidence -- Exclusionary rule.

When any wire, electronic, or oral communication has been intercepted, no part of the contents of the communication and no evidence derived from it may be received in evidence in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in or before any court, grand jury, department, officer, agency, regulatory body, legislative committee, or other authority of the state, or a political subdivision of the state, if the disclosure of that information would be in violation of this chapter.

Amended by Chapter 251, 1988 General Session

77-23a-8 Court order to authorize or approve interception -- Procedure.

(1) The attorney general of the state, any assistant attorney general specially designated by the attorney general, any county attorney, district attorney, deputy county attorney, or deputy district attorney specially designated by the county attorney or by the district attorney, may authorize an application to a judge of competent jurisdiction for an order for an interception of wire, electronic, or oral communications by any law enforcement agency of the state, the federal government or of any political subdivision of the state that is responsible for investigating the type of offense for which the application is made.

(2) The judge may grant the order in conformity with the required procedures when the interception sought may provide or has provided evidence of the commission of:

77-23a-9 Disclosure or use of intercepted information.

(1) Any investigative or law enforcement officer who, by any means authorized by this chapter, has obtained knowledge of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communication, or evidence derived from any of these, may disclose those contents to another investigative or law enforcement officer to the extent that the disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the officer making or receiving the disclosure.
(2) Any investigative or law enforcement officer who, by any means authorized by this chapter, has obtained knowledge of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communication or evidence derived from any of them may use those contents to the extent the use is appropriate to the proper performance of the officer's official duties.
(3) Any person who has received, by any means authorized by this chapter, any information concerning a wire, electronic, or oral communication or evidence derived from any of them intercepted in accordance with this chapter may disclose the contents of that communication or the derivative evidence while giving testimony under oath or affirmation in any proceeding held under the authority of the United States or of any state or political subdivision.
(4) An otherwise privileged wire, electronic, or oral communication intercepted in accordance with, or in violation of, the provisions of this chapter does not lose its privileged character.
(5) When an investigative or law enforcement officer, while engaged in intercepting wire, electronic, or oral communications in the manner authorized, intercepts wire, electronic, or oral communications relating to offenses other than those specified in the order of authorization or approval, the contents, and evidence derived from the contents, may be disclosed or used as provided in Subsections (1) and (2). The contents and any evidence derived from them may be used under Subsection (3) when authorized or approved by a judge of competent jurisdiction, if the judge finds on subsequent application that the contents were otherwise intercepted in accordance with this chapter. The application shall be made as soon as practicable.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-23a-10 Application for order -- Authority of order -- Emergency action -- Application -- Entry -- Conditions -- Extensions -- Recordings -- Admissibility or suppression -- Appeal by state.

(1) Each application for an order authorizing or approving the interception of a wire, electronic, or oral communication shall be made in writing, upon oath or affirmation to a judge of competent jurisdiction, and shall state the applicant's authority to make the application. Each application shall include:
(a) the identity of the investigative or law enforcement officer making the application, and the officer authorizing the application;
(b) a full and complete statement of the facts and circumstances relied upon by the applicant to justify the applicant's belief that an order should be issued, including:
(i) details regarding the particular offense that has been, is being, or is about to be committed;
(ii) except as provided in Subsection (12), a particular description of the nature and location of the facilities from which, or the place where, the communication is to be intercepted;
(iii) a particular description of the type of communication sought to be intercepted; and
(iv) the identity of the person, if known, committing the offense and whose communication is to be intercepted;
(c) a full and complete statement as to whether other investigative procedures have been tried and failed or why they reasonably appear to be either unlikely to succeed if tried or too dangerous;
(d) a statement of the period of time for which the interception is required to be maintained, and if the investigation is of a nature that the authorization for interception should not automatically terminate when the described type of communication has been first obtained, a particular description of facts establishing probable cause to believe that additional communications of the same type will occur thereafter;
(e) a full and complete statement of the facts concerning all previous applications known to the individual authorizing and the individual making the application, made to any judge for authorization to intercept, or for approval of interceptions of wire, electronic, or oral communications involving any of the same persons, facilities, or places specified in the application, and the action taken by the judge on each application;
(f) when the application is for the extension of an order, a statement setting forth the results so far obtained from the interception, or a reasonable explanation of the failure to obtain results; and
(g) additional testimony or documentary evidence in support of the application as the judge may require.
(2) Upon application the judge may enter an ex parte order, as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving interception of wire, electronic, or oral communications within the territorial jurisdiction of the state if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the applicant that:
(a) there is probable cause for belief that an individual is committing, has committed, or is about to commit a particular offense under Section 77-23a-8;
(b) there is probable cause for belief that particular communications concerning that offense will be obtained through the interception;
(c) normal investigative procedures have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to be either unlikely to succeed if tried or too dangerous; and
(d) except as provided in Subsection (12), there is probable cause for belief that the facilities from which or the place where the wire, electronic, or oral communications are to be intercepted are being used, or are about to be used, in connection with the commission of the offense, or are leased to, listed in the name of, or commonly used by that person.
(3) Each order authorizing or approving the interception of any wire, electronic, or oral communications shall specify:

(a) the identity of the person, if known, whose communications are to be intercepted;
(b) except as provided in Subsection (12), the nature and location of the communications facilities as to which, or the place where, authority to intercept is granted;
(c) a particular description of the type of communication sought to be intercepted and a statement of the particular offense to which it relates;
(d) the identity of the agency authorized to intercept the communications and of the persons authorizing the application; and
(e) the period of time during which the interception is authorized, including a statement as to whether the interception shall automatically terminate when the described communications has been first obtained.

(4)
(a) An order authorizing the interception of a wire, electronic, or oral communications shall, upon request of the applicant, direct that a provider of wire or electronic communications service, landlord, custodian, or other person shall furnish the applicant forthwith all information, facilities, and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the interception unobtrusively and with a minimum of interference with the services that the provider, landlord, custodian, or person is according the person whose communications are to be intercepted.
(b) Any provider of wire or electronic communications service, landlord, custodian, or other person furnishing the facilities or technical assistance shall be compensated by the applicant for reasonable expenses involved in providing the facilities or systems.

(ii) The 30-day period described in Subsection (5)(a)(i) begins on the day the investigative or law enforcement officer first begins to conduct an interception under the order, or 10 days after the order is entered, whichever is earlier.
(b) Extensions of an order may be granted, but only upon application for an extension made under Subsection (1) and if the court makes the findings required by Subsection (2). The period of extension may be no longer than the authorizing judge considers necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was granted, but in no event for longer than 30 days.
(c) Every order and extension shall contain a provision that the authorization to intercept shall be executed as soon as practicable, shall be conducted so as to minimize the interception of communications not otherwise subject to interception under this chapter, and must terminate upon attainment of the authorized objective, or in any event within 30 days.
(d) If the intercepted communication is in a code or foreign language, and an expert in that foreign language or code is not reasonably available during the interception period, the minimizing of the interception may be accomplished as soon as practicable after the interception.
(e) An interception under this chapter may be conducted in whole or in part by government personnel or by an individual under contract with the government and acting under supervision of an investigative or law enforcement officer authorized to conduct the interception.

(a) When an order authorizing interception is entered under this chapter, the order may require reports to be made to the judge who issued the order, showing what progress has been made toward achievement of the authorized objective and the need for continued interception.

(b) The reports described in Subsection (6)(a) shall be made at intervals the judge may require.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any investigative or law enforcement officer who is specially designated by either the attorney general or a county attorney or district attorney, as provided under Sections 17-68-302 and 17-68-303, may intercept wire, electronic, or oral communications if an application for an order approving the interception is made in accordance with this section and within 48 hours after the interception has occurred or begins to occur, when the investigative or law enforcement officer reasonably determines that:

(a) an emergency situation exists that involves:

(i) immediate danger of death or serious physical injury to any person;

(ii) conspiratorial activities threatening the national security interest; or

(iii) conspiratorial activities characteristic of organized crime, that require a wire, electronic, or oral communications to be intercepted before an order authorizing interception can, with diligence, be obtained; and

(b) there are grounds upon which an order could be entered under this chapter to authorize the interception.

(8)

(a) In the absence of an order under Subsection (7), the interception immediately terminates when the communication sought is obtained or when the application for the order is denied, whichever is earlier.

(b) If the application for approval is denied, or in any other case where the interception is terminated without an order having been issued, the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communications intercepted shall be treated as having been obtained in violation of this chapter, and an inventory shall be served as provided for in Subsection (9)(d) on the person named in the application.

(9)

(i) The contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communications intercepted by any means authorized by this chapter shall, if possible, be recorded on tape or wire or other comparable device.

(ii) The recording of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communications under this Subsection (9)(a) shall be done so as to protect the recording from editing or other alterations.

(iii) Immediately upon the expiration of the period of an order or extension, the recordings shall be made available to the judge issuing the order and sealed under his directions.

(iv) Custody of the recordings shall be where the judge orders.

(v) The recordings:

(A) may not be destroyed, except upon an order of the issuing or denying judge; and

(B) shall be kept for 10 years.

(vi) Duplicate recordings may be made for use or disclosure under Subsections 77-23a-9(1) and (2) for investigations.

(vii) The presence of the seal provided by this Subsection (9)(a), or a satisfactory explanation for the absence of one, is a prerequisite for the use or disclosure of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communications or evidence derived from it under Subsection 77-23a-9(3).

(b) Applications made and orders granted under this chapter shall be sealed by the judge. Custody of the applications and orders shall be where the judge directs. The applications and orders shall be disclosed only upon a showing of good cause before a judge of competent jurisdiction and may not be destroyed, except on order of the issuing or denying judge. But in any event they shall be kept for 10 years.

(c) Any violation of any provision of this Subsection (9) may be punished as contempt of the issuing or denying judge.

(d) Within a reasonable time, but not later than 90 days after the filing of an application for an order of approval under Subsection 77-23a-10(7) that is denied or the termination of the period of an order or extensions, the issuing or denying judge shall cause to be served on the persons named in the order or the application, and other parties to the intercepted communications as the judge determines in his discretion is in the interest of justice, an inventory, which shall include notice:

(i) of the entry of the order or application;

(ii) of the date of the entry and the period of authorization, approved or disapproved interception, or the denial of the application; and

(iii) that during the period, wire, electronic, or oral communications were or were not intercepted.

(e)

(i) The judge, upon filing of a motion, may in the judge's discretion, make available to the person or the person's counsel for inspection the portions of the intercepted communications, applications, and orders the judge determines to be in the interest of justice.

(ii) On an ex parte showing of good cause to a judge of competent jurisdiction, the serving of the inventory required by this Subsection (9)(e) may be postponed.

(10)

(a) The contents of any intercepted wire, electronic, or oral communications, or evidence derived from any of these, may not be received in evidence or otherwise disclosed in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in a federal or state court unless each party, not less than 10 days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding, has been furnished with a copy of the court order, and accompanying application, under which the interception was authorized or approved.

(b) The ten-day period described in Subsection (10)(a) may be waived by the judge if the judge finds that:

(i) it was not possible to furnish the party with the information 10 days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding; and

(ii) the party will not be prejudiced by the delay in receiving the information.

(11)

(a) Any aggrieved person in any trial, hearing, or proceeding in or before any court, department, officer, agency, regulatory body, or other authority of the United States, the state, or a political subdivision may move to suppress the contents of any intercepted wire, electronic, or oral communications, or evidence derived from any of them, on the grounds that:

(i) the communication was unlawfully intercepted;

(ii) the order of authorization or approval under which it was intercepted is insufficient on its face; or

(iii) the interception was not made in conformity with the order of authorization or approval.

(b)

(i) The motion described in Subsection (11)(a) shall be made before the trial, hearing, or proceeding, unless there was no opportunity to make the motion or the person was not aware of the grounds of the motion.

(ii) If the motion is granted, the contents of the intercepted wire, electronic, or oral communications, or evidence derived from any of these, shall be treated as having been obtained in violation of this chapter.

(iii) The judge, upon the filing of the motion by the aggrieved person, may in the judge's discretion make available to the aggrieved person or the aggrieved person's counsel for inspection portions of the intercepted communication or evidence derived from the intercepted communication as the judge determines to be in the interests of justice.

(c)

(i) In addition to any other right to appeal, the state or its political subdivision may appeal from an order granting a motion to suppress made under Subsection (11)(a), or the denial of an application for an order of approval, if the attorney bringing the appeal certifies to the judge or other official granting the motion or denying the application that the appeal is not taken for the purposes of delay.

(ii) The appeal described in Subsection (11)(c)(i) shall be taken within 30 days after the date the order was entered and shall be diligently prosecuted.

(12) The requirements of Subsections (1)(b)(ii), (2)(d), and (3)(b) relating to the specification of the facilities from which, or the place where, the wire, electronic, or oral communications are to be intercepted do not apply if:

(a) in the case of an applicant regarding the interception of oral communications:

(i) the application is by a law enforcement officer and is approved by the state attorney general, a deputy attorney general, a county attorney or district attorney, or a deputy county attorney or deputy district attorney;

(ii) the application contains a full and complete statement of why the specification is not practical, and identifies the person committing the offense and whose communications are to be intercepted; or

(iii) the judge finds that the specification is not practical; and

(b) in the case of an application regarding wire or electronic communications:

(i) the application is by a law enforcement officer and is approved by the state attorney general, a deputy attorney general, a county attorney or district attorney, or a deputy county attorney or deputy district attorney;

(ii) the application identifies the person believed to be committing the offense and whose communications are to be intercepted, and the applicant makes a showing of a purpose, on the part of that person, to thwart interception by changing facilities; and

(iii) the judge finds that the purpose has been adequately shown.

(13)

(a) An interception of a communication under an order regarding which the requirements of Subsections (1)(b)(ii), (2)(d), and (3)(b) do not apply by reason of Subsection (12) does not begin until the facilities from which, or the place where, the communications are to be intercepted is ascertained by the person implementing the interception order.

(b)

(i) A provider of wire or electronic communications service that has received an order under Subsection (12)(b) may move the court to modify or quash the order on the ground that its assistance with respect to the interception cannot be performed in a timely or reasonable fashion.

(ii) The court, upon notice to the government, shall decide a motion filed under Subsection (13)(b)(i) expeditiously.

77-23a-11 Civil remedy for unlawful interception -- Action for relief.

(1) Except under Subsections 77-23a-4(3), (4), and (5), a person whose wire, electronic, or oral communication is intercepted, disclosed, or intentionally used in violation of this chapter may in a civil action recover relief as appropriate from the person or entity that engaged in the violation.

(2) In an action under this section appropriate relief includes:

(a) preliminary and other equitable or declaratory relief as is appropriate;

(b) damages under Subsection (3) and punitive damages in appropriate cases; and

(c) a reasonable attorney's fee and reasonably incurred litigation costs.

(3)

(a) In an action under this section, if the conduct in violation of this chapter is the private viewing of a private satellite video communication that is not scrambled or encrypted, or if the communication is a radio communication that is transmitted on frequencies allocated under Subpart (D), Part 74, Rules of the Federal Communications Commission, that is not scrambled or encrypted, and the conduct is not for a tortious or illegal purpose or for purposes of direct or indirect commercial advantage or private commercial gain, the court shall assess damages as follows:

(i) if the person who engaged in the conduct has not previously been enjoined under Subsection 77-23a-4(11) and has not been found liable in a prior civil action under this section, the court shall assess the greater of the sum of actual damages suffered by the plaintiff, or the statutory damages of not less than $50 nor more than $500;

(ii) if on one prior occasion the person who engaged in the conduct has been enjoined under Subsection 77-23a-4(11) or has been liable in a civil action under this section, the court shall assess the greater of the sum of actual damages suffered by the plaintiff, or statutory damages of not less than $100 and not more than $1,000;

(b) in any other action under this section, the court may assess as damages whichever is the greater of:

(i) the sum of the actual damages suffered by the plaintiff and any profits made by the violator as a result of the violations; or

(ii) statutory damages of $100 a day for each day of violation, or $10,000, whichever is greater.

(4) A good faith reliance on any of the following is a complete defense against any civil or criminal action brought under this chapter or any other law:

(a) a court order, a warrant, a grand jury subpoena, a legislative authorization, or a statutory authorization;

(b) a request of an investigative or law enforcement officer under Subsection 77-23a-10(7); or

(c) a good faith determination that Section 77-23a-4 permitted the conduct complained of.

(5) A civil action under this section may not be commenced later than two years after the date upon which the claimant first has a reasonable opportunity to discover the violation.

(6) The remedies and sanctions described in this chapter regarding the interception of electronic communications are the only judicial remedies and sanctions for nonconstitutional violations of this chapter involving these communications.

Amended by Chapter 122, 1989 General Session

77-23a-12 Enjoining a violation -- Civil action by attorney general.

(1) When it appears that a person is engaged or is about to engage in any act that constitutes or will constitute a felony violation of this chapter or is otherwise prohibited by this chapter, the attorney general may initiate a civil action in a district court of the state to enjoin the violation.
(2) The court shall proceed as soon as practicable to the hearing and determination of the action and may at any time before final determination enter a restraining order or prohibition, or take other action as warranted to prevent a continuing and substantial injury to the state or to any person or class of persons for whose protection the action is brought.
(3) A proceeding under this section is governed by the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, except if an information has been filed or an indictment has been returned against the respondent, discovery is governed by the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Amended by Chapter 122, 1989 General Session

77-23a-13 Installation of device when court order required -- Penalty.

(1) Except as provided in this section, a person may not install or use a pen register or trap or trace device without previously obtaining a court order under Section 77-23a-15, or under federal law.
(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the use of a pen register or trap and trace device by a provider of electronic or wire communications services:
  (a) relating to the operation, maintenance, and testing of a wire or electronic communications service or to the protection of the rights or property of the provider, or to the protection of users of that service from abuse of service or unlawful use of service; or
  (b) to record that a wire or electronic communication was initiated or completed to protect the provider, another provider furnishing service toward the completion of the wire communication, or a user of that service from fraudulent, unlawful, or abusive use of that service; or
  (c) when the consent of the user of that service has been obtained.
(3) A knowing or intentional violation of Subsection (1) is a class B misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 241, 1991 General Session

77-23a-14 Court order for installation -- Application.

(1) The attorney general, a deputy attorney general, a county attorney or district attorney, a deputy county attorney or deputy district attorney, or a prosecuting attorney for a political subdivision of the state, or a law enforcement officer, may make application for an order or extension of an order under Section 77-23a-15 authorizing or approving the installation and use of a pen register or trap and trace device, in writing and under oath or equivalent affirmation, to a court of competent jurisdiction.
(2) An application under Subsection (1) shall include:
  (a) the identity of the attorney for the government or the law enforcement or investigative officer making the application and the identity of the law enforcement agency conducting the investigation; and
  (b) a certification by the applicant that the information likely to be obtained is relevant to an ongoing criminal investigation being conducted by that agency.

Amended by Chapter 38, 1993 General Session

77-23a-15 Order for installation -- Contents -- Duration -- Extension -- Disclosure.

(1) In general, upon an application made under Section 77-23a-14, the court shall enter an ex parte order authorizing the installation and use of a pen register or trap and trace device within the jurisdiction of the court, if the court finds that the attorney for the government or the law enforcement or investigative officer has certified to the court that the information likely to be obtained by the installation and use is relevant to an ongoing criminal investigation.
(2)
(a) An order issued under this section shall specify:
(i) the identity, if known, of the person to whom is leased or in whose name is listed the telephone line to which the pen register or trap and trace device is to be attached;
(ii) the identity, if known, of the person who is the subject of the criminal investigation;
(iii) the number and, if known, physical location of the telephone line to which the pen register or trap and trace device is to be attached and, in the case of a trap and trace device, the geographical limits of the trap and trace order; and
(iv) a statement of the offense to which the information likely to be obtained by the pen register or trap and trace device relates.
(b) The order shall direct, upon the request of the applicant, the furnishing of information, facilities, and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the installation of the pen register or trap and trace device under Section 77-23a-16.
(3)
(a) An order issued under this section may authorize the installation and use of a pen register or trap and trace device for a period not to exceed 60 days.
(b) Extensions of an order may be granted, but only upon an application for an order under Section 77-23a-14 and upon the judicial finding required by Subsection (1). The period of extension shall be for a period not to exceed 60 days.
(4) An order authorizing or approving the installation and use of a pen register or trap and trace device shall direct that:
(a) the order be sealed until otherwise ordered by the court; and
(b) the person owning or leasing the line to which the pen register or trap and trace device is attached, or who has been ordered by the court to provide assistance to the applicant, not disclose the existence of the pen register or trap and trace device or the existence of the investigation to the listed subscriber, or to any other person, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Enacted by Chapter 251, 1988 General Session

77-23a-16 Communications provider -- Cooperation and support services -- Compensation -- Liability defense.

(1) Upon the request of an attorney for the government or an officer of a law enforcement agency authorized to install and use pen registers under this chapter, a provider of wire or electronic communications service, landlord, custodian, or other person shall furnish investigative or law enforcement officers forthwith all information, facilities, and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the installation of the pen register unobtrusively and with a minimum of interference with the services the person ordered by the court accords the party regarding whom the installation and use is to take place, if such assistance is directed by a court order as provided in Subsection 77-23a-15(2)(b) of this chapter.
(2)

(a) Upon request of an attorney for the government or an officer of a law enforcement agency authorized to receive the results of a trap and trace device under this chapter, a provider of wire or electronic communications service, landlord, custodian, or other person shall:
(i) install the device forthwith on the appropriate line; and
(ii) furnish the investigative or law enforcement officer all additional information, facilities, and technical assistance, including installation and operation of the device unobtrusively and with a minimum of interference with the services that the person so ordered by the court accords the party with respect to whom the installation and use is to take place, if the installation and assistance is directed by a court order under Subsection 77-23a-15(2)(b).
(b) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the results of the trap and trace device shall be furnished to the officer of the law enforcement agency designated by the court, at reasonable intervals and during regular business hours, for the duration of the order.
(3) A provider of wire or electronic communications service, landlord, custodian, or other person who furnishes facilities or technical assistance under this section shall be reasonably compensated for reasonable expenses incurred in providing the facilities and assistance.
(4) A cause of action does not lie in any court against the provider of wire or electronic communications service, its officers, employees, agents, or other specified persons, for providing information, facilities, or assistance in accordance with the terms of a court order under this chapter.
(5) A good faith reliance on a court order, a legislative authorization, or a statutory authorization, is a complete defense against any civil or criminal action brought under this chapter or any other law.

Chapter 23b
Access to Electronic Communications

77-23b-1 Definitions.
(1) As used in this chapter, "remote computing service" means provision to the public of computer storage or processing services by means of an electronic communications system.
(2) The definitions of terms in Section 77-23a-3 apply to this chapter.

Amended by Chapter 122, 1989 General Session

77-23b-2 Interference with access to stored communication -- Offenses -- Penalties.
(1) Except under Subsection (3), a person who obtains, alters, or prevents authorized access to a wire or electronic communication while it is in electronic storage in the system shall be punished under Subsection (2) if the person:
(a) intentionally accesses without authorization a facility through which an electronic communications service is provided; or
(b) intentionally exceeds an authorization to access that facility.
(2) A person who commits a violation of Subsection (1) is:
(a) if the offense is committed for purposes of commercial advantage, malicious destruction, or damage, or private commercial gain, guilty of a:
(i) third degree felony for the first offense under this subsection; and

(ii) second degree felony for any subsequent offense; and
(b) class B misdemeanor in any other case.
(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to conduct authorized:
(a) by the person or entity providing a wire or electronic communications service;
(b) by a user of that service with respect to a communication of or intended for that user; or
(c) under Sections 77-23a-10, 77-23b-4, and 77-23b-5.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-23b-3 Revealing stored electronic communication -- Prohibitions -- Penalties.
(1) Except under Subsection (2):
(a) the person or entity providing an electronic communications service to the public may not knowingly divulge to any person or entity the contents of a communication while in electronic storage by that service; and
(b) a person or entity providing a remote computing service to the public may not knowingly divulge to any person or entity the contents of any communication that is carried or maintained on that service:
(i) on behalf of and received by means of electronic transmission from or created by means of computer processing of communications received by means of electronic transmission from a subscriber or customer of the service; and
(ii) solely for the purpose of providing storage or computer processing services to the subscriber or customer, if the provider is not authorized to access the contents of any communications for the purpose of providing any services other than storage or computer processing.
(2) A person or entity may divulge the contents of a communication:
(a) to an addressee or intended recipient of the communication or an agent of the addressee or intended recipient;
(b) as otherwise authorized under Section 77-23a-4, 77-23a-8, or 77-23b-4;
(c) with the lawful consent of the originator or addressee or intended recipient of the communication, or the subscriber in the case of remote computing service;
(d) to a person employed or authorized, or whose facilities are used to forward the communication to its destination;
(e) as may be necessarily incident to the rendition of the service or the protection of the rights or property of the provider of that service; or
(f) to a law enforcement agency, if the contents:
(i) were inadvertently obtained by the service provider; and
(ii) appear to pertain to the commission of a criminal offense.

Amended by Chapter 122, 1989 General Session

77-23b-4 Disclosure by a provider -- Grounds for requiring disclosure -- Court order.
(1) A government entity may only require the disclosure by a provider of electronic communication services of the contents of an electronic communication that is in electronic storage in an electronic communication system pursuant to a warrant issued under the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure or an equivalent federal warrant.
(2) Subsection (1) applies to any electronic communication that is held or maintained on that service:

(a) on behalf of and received by means of electronic transmission from or created by means of computer processing of communications received by means of electronic transmission from a subscriber or customer of the remote computing service; and
(b) solely for the purpose of providing storage or computer processing services to the subscriber or customer, if the provider is not authorized to access the contents of any communication for purposes of providing any services other than storage or computer processing.
(i) Except under Subsection (3)(a)(ii), a provider of electronic communication services or remote computing services may disclose a record or other information pertaining to a subscriber to or customer of the service, not including the contents of communication covered by Subsection (1), to any person other than a governmental agency.
(ii) A provider of electronic communication services or remote computing services shall disclose a record or other information pertaining to a subscriber to or customer of the service, not including the contents of communication covered by Subsection (1), to a governmental entity only when the entity:
(A) uses an administrative subpoena authorized by a state or federal statute or a state or federal grand jury subpoena;
(B) obtains a warrant issued under the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure or an equivalent federal warrant;
(C) obtains a court order for the disclosure under Subsection (4); or
(D) has the consent of the subscriber or customer to the disclosure.
(b) A governmental entity receiving records or information under this subsection is not required to provide notice to a subscriber or customer.
(4)
(a) A court order for disclosure under this section may be issued only if the governmental entity shows there is reason to believe the contents of a wire or electronic communication, or the records or other information sought, are relevant to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry.
(b) A court issuing an order under this section, on a motion made promptly by the service provider, may quash or modify the order, if the information or records requested are unusually voluminous in nature or compliance with the order otherwise would cause an undue burden on the provider.
(5) A cause of action may not be brought in any court against any provider of wire or electronic communications services, its officers, employees, agents, or other specified persons, for providing information, facilities, or assistance in accordance with the terms of a court order, warrant, subpoena, or certification under this chapter.

Amended by Chapter 115, 2012 General Session

77-23b-5 Backup copy of communications -- When required of provider -- Court order -- Procedures.
(1)
(a) A governmental entity acting under Subsection 77-23b-4(2)(b) may include in its subpoena or court order a requirement that the service provider to whom the request is directed create a backup copy of the contents of the electronic communications sought in order to preserve those communications. Without notifying the subscriber or customer of the subpoena or court order, the service provider shall create the backup as soon as practicable, consistent with its regular business practices. The provider shall also confirm to the governmental entity that the backup copy has been made. The backup copy shall be created within two business days after receipt by the service provider of the subpoena or court order.

(b) Notice to the subscriber or customer shall be made by the governmental entity within three days after receipt of confirmation, unless the notice is delayed under Subsection 77-23b-6(1).

(c) The service provider may not destroy the backup copy until the later of:

(i) the delivery of the information; or

(ii) the resolution of any proceedings, including appeals of any proceeding, concerning the government's subpoena or court order.

(d) The service provider shall release the backup copy to the requesting governmental entity no sooner than 14 days after the governmental entity's notice to the subscriber or customer, if the service provider:

(i) has not received notice from the subscriber or customer that the subscriber or customer has challenged the governmental entity's request; and

(ii) has not initiated proceedings to challenge the request of the governmental entity.

(e) A governmental entity may seek to require the creation of a backup copy under Subsection (1)(a) if in its sole discretion the entity determines that there is reason to believe that notification under Section 77-23b-4 of the existence of the subpoena or court order may result in destruction of or tampering with evidence. This determination is not subject to challenge by the subscriber, customer, or service provider.

(a) Within 14 days after notice by the governmental entity to the subscriber or customer under Subsection (1)(b), the subscriber or customer may file a motion to quash the subpoena or vacate the court order, with copies served upon the governmental entity, and with written notice of the challenge to the service provider. A motion to vacate a court order shall be filed in the court that issues the order. A motion to quash a subpoena shall be filed in the appropriate district court. The motion or application shall contain an affidavit or sworn statement:

(i) that the applicant is a customer or subscriber to the service from which the contents of electronic communications maintained for the applicant have been sought; and

(ii) that the applicant's reason for believing the records sought are not relevant to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry or that there has not been substantial compliance with the provisions of this chapter in some other respect.

(b) Service shall be made under this section upon a governmental entity by delivering or mailing by registered or certified mail a copy of the papers to the person, office, or department specified in the notice the customer received under this chapter. For purposes of this subsection, "deliver" has the same meaning as under the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(c) If the court finds that the customer has complied with Subsections (2)(a) and (b), the court shall order the governmental entity to file a sworn response, that may be filed in camera if the governmental entity includes in its response the reasons making in camera review appropriate. If the court is unable to determine the motion or application on the basis of the parties' initial allegations and response, the court may conduct additional proceedings as it considers appropriate. All proceedings shall be completed, and the motion or application decided, as soon as practicable after the filing of the governmental entity's response.

(d) If the court finds that the applicant is not the subscriber or customer for whom the communications sought by the governmental entity are maintained, or that there is a reason to believe that the law enforcement inquiry is legitimate and that the communications sought are relevant to that inquiry, it shall deny the motion or application and order the process enforced. If the court finds that the applicant is the subscriber or customer for whom the communications sought by the governmental entity are maintained, and that there is no reason to believe that the communications sought are relevant to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry, or that there has not been substantial compliance with this chapter, it shall order the process quashed.

(e) A court order denying a motion or application under this section is not considered a final order, and no interlocutory appeal may be taken from it by the customer or subscriber.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-23b-6 Notifying subscriber or customer of court order -- Requested delay -- Grounds -- Limits.

(a) The governmental entity acting under Section 77-23b-4 may:

(i) if a court order is sought, include in the application a request for an order delaying notification to the subscriber for not to exceed 90 days and, if the court determines there is reason to believe that notification of existence of the court order may have an adverse result, the court shall grant the order; or

(ii) if an administrative subpoena authorized by a state or federal statute or a state or federal grand jury subpoena is obtained, delay notification to the subscriber for not to exceed 90 days, upon the execution of a written certification of a supervisory official that there is reason to believe that the notification of the existence of the subpoena may have an adverse result.

(b) An adverse result is:

(i) endangering the life or physical safety of an individual;

(ii) flight from prosecution;

(iii) destruction of or tampering with evidence;

(iv) intimidation of potential witnesses; or

(v) otherwise seriously jeopardizing an investigation or unduly delaying a trial.

(c) The governmental entity shall maintain a true copy of certification under Subsection (1)(a)(ii).

(d) Extensions of the delay of notification under Section 77-23b-4 of up to 90 days each, may be granted by the court upon application, or by certification by a governmental entity, but only in accordance with Subsection (2).

(e) On expiration of the period of delay of notification under Subsection (1)(a) or (d), the governmental entity shall serve upon, or deliver by registered or first class mail, to the customer or subscriber a copy of the process or request together with a notice:

(i) stating with reasonable specificity the nature of the law enforcement inquiry; and

(ii) informing the customer or subscriber:

(A) that information maintained for the customer or subscriber by the service provider named in the process or request was supplied to or requested by that governmental authority and the date the supplying or request took place;

(B) that notification of the customer or subscriber was delayed;

(C) which governmental entity or court made the certification or determination pursuant to which that delay was made; and

(D) which provision of this chapter allows the delay.

(f) As used in this subsection, "supervisory official" means the investigative agent in charge or assistant investigative agent in charge or an equivalent of an investigative agency's headquarters or regional office; a county sheriff or chief deputy sheriff, or police chief or assistant police chief; the officer in charge of an investigative task force or the assistant officer in charge; or the attorney general, an assistant attorney general, a county attorney or district attorney, a deputy county attorney or deputy district attorney, or the chief prosecuting attorney of any political subdivision of the state.

(2) A governmental entity acting under Section 77-23b-4, when not required to notify the subscriber or customer, or to the extent that it may delay notice under Subsection (1), may apply to a court for an order commanding the provider of electronic communications service or remote computing service to whom a warrant, subpoena, or court order is directed, for a period of time the court considers appropriate, to not notify any other person of the existence of the warrant, subpoena, or court order. The court shall enter the order if it determines that there is reason to believe that notification of the existence of the warrant, subpoena, or court order will result in:
  (a) endangering the life or physical safety of an individual;
  (b) flight from prosecution;
  (c) destruction of or tampering with evidence;
  (d) intimidation of potential witnesses; or
  (e) otherwise seriously jeopardizing an investigation or unduly delaying a trial.

77-23b-7 Fee for services of provider of information.

(1)
  (a) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3), a governmental entity obtaining the contents of communications, records, or other information under Section 77-23b-4 or 77-23b-5 shall pay to the person or entity assembling or providing the information a reimbursement fee for the costs reasonably necessary and directly incurred in searching for, assembling, reproducing, or otherwise providing the information.
  (b) The reimbursement costs shall include any costs due to the necessary disruption of normal operations of any electronic communications service or remote computing service in which the information may be stored.

(2) The fee amount under Subsection (1) shall be mutually agreed upon by the governmental entity and the person or entity providing the information, or in the absence of agreement, shall be as determined by the court:
  (a) that issued the order for production of the information; or
  (b) before which a criminal prosecution relating to the information would be brought, if no court order was issued for production of the information.

(3) The requirement of Subsection (1) does not apply to records or other information maintained by a communications common carrier that relate to telephone toll records and telephone listings obtained under Section 77-23b-4. However, the court may order a payment as described under Subsection (1) if the court determines the information required is unusually voluminous in nature or otherwise causes an undue burden on the provider.

77-23b-8 Violation of chapter -- Civil action by provider or subscriber -- Good faith defense -- Limitation of action.

(1) Except under Subsection 77-23b-4(5), any provider of electronic communications service, subscriber, or customer aggrieved by any violation of this chapter in which the conduct constituting the violation is engaged in with a knowing or intentional state of mind may in a civil action recover from the person or entity that engaged in that violation relief as is appropriate.

(2) In a civil action under this section, appropriate relief includes:
(a) preliminary and other equitable or declaratory relief as is appropriate;
(b) damages under Subsection (3); and
(c) a reasonable attorney's fee and other litigation costs reasonably incurred.
(3) The court may assess as damages in a civil action under this section the sum of the actual damages suffered by the plaintiff and any profits made by the violator as a result of the violation, but in no case is a person entitled to recover less than $1,000.
(4) A good faith reliance on any of the following is a complete defense to any civil or criminal action brought under this chapter or any other law:
(a) a court warrant or order, a grand jury subpoena, legislative authorization, or a statutory authorization;
(b) a request of an investigative or law enforcement officer under Subsection 77-23a-10(7); or
(c) a good faith determination that Subsection 77-23a-4(9) permitted the conduct complained of.
(5) A civil action under this section may not be commenced later than two years after the date the claimant first discovered or had a reasonable opportunity to discover the violation.

Chapter 23c
Electronic Information Privacy Act

77-23c-101.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:
(1) "Electronic communication service" means a service that provides to users of the service the ability to send or receive wire or electronic communications.
(2) "Electronic device" means a device that enables access to or use of an electronic communication service, remote computing service, or location information service.
(3)
(a) "Electronic information" means information or data including a sign, signal, writing, image, sound, or intelligence of any nature transmitted or stored in whole or in part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic, photoelectronic, or photooptical system.
(b) "Electronic information" includes the location information, stored data, or transmitted data of an electronic device.
(c) "Electronic information" does not include:
(i) a wire or oral communication;
(ii) a communication made through a tone-only paging device; or
(iii) electronic funds transfer information stored by a financial institution in a communications system used for the electronic storage and transfer of money.
(4) "Law enforcement agency" means:

(a) an entity of the state or a political subdivision of the state that exists to primarily prevent, detect, or prosecute crime and enforce criminal statutes or ordinances; or
(b) an individual or entity acting for or on behalf of an entity described in Subsection (4)(a).
(5)
(a) "Location information" means information concerning the geographical location of an electronic device that, in whole or in part, is generated or derived from or obtained by the operation of an electronic device or the operation of a software application on an electronic device.
(b) "Location information" includes past, current, and future location information.
(6) "Location information service" means the provision of a global positioning service or other mapping, location, or directional information service.
(7) "Oral communication" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-23a-3.
(8) "Remote computing service" means the provision to the public of computer storage or processing services by means of an electronic communications system.
(9) "Transmitted data" means electronic information that is transmitted wirelessly:
(a) from an electronic device to another electronic device without the use of an intermediate connection or relay; or
(b) from an electronic device to a nearby antenna or from a nearby antenna to an electronic device.
(10) "Wire communication" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-23a-3.

77-23c-102 Electronic information privacy -- Warrant required for disclosure -- Exceptions.
(1)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (2) or (4), for a criminal investigation or prosecution, a law enforcement agency may not obtain, without a search warrant issued by a court upon probable cause:
(i) the location information, stored data, or transmitted data of an electronic device; or
(ii) electronic information transmitted by the owner of the electronic information:
(A) to a provider of a remote computing service; or
(B) through a provider of an electronic communication service.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(c), a law enforcement agency may not use, copy, or disclose, for any purpose, the location information, stored data, or transmitted data of an electronic device, or electronic information provided by a provider of a remote computing service or an electronic communication service, that:
(i) is not the subject of the warrant; and
(ii) is collected as part of an effort to obtain the location information, stored data, or transmitted data of an electronic device, or electronic information provided by a provider of a remote computing service or an electronic communication service that is the subject of the warrant in Subsection (1)(a).
(c) A law enforcement agency may use, copy, or disclose the transmitted data of an electronic device used to communicate with the electronic device that is the subject of the warrant if the law enforcement agency reasonably believes that the transmitted data is necessary to achieve the objective of the warrant.
(d) The electronic information described in Subsection (1)(b) shall be destroyed in an unrecoverable manner by the law enforcement agency as soon as reasonably possible after the electronic information is collected.

(a) A law enforcement agency may obtain location information without a warrant for an electronic device:
(i) in accordance with Section 53-10-104.5;
(ii) if the device is reported stolen by the owner;
(iii) with the informed, affirmative consent of the owner or user of the electronic device;
(iv) except for the automobile exception to the warrant requirement, in accordance with a judicially recognized exception to warrant requirements;
(v) if the owner has voluntarily and publicly disclosed the location information; or
(vi) from a provider of a remote computing service or an electronic communications service if the provider voluntarily discloses the location information:
(A) under a belief that an emergency exists involving an imminent risk to an individual of death, serious physical injury, sexual abuse, live-streamed sexual exploitation, kidnapping, or human trafficking; or
(B) that is inadvertently discovered by the provider and appears to pertain to the commission of a felony, or of a misdemeanor involving physical violence, sexual abuse, or dishonesty.
(b) A law enforcement agency may obtain stored data or transmitted data from an electronic device or electronic information transmitted by the owner of the electronic information to a provider of a remote computing service or through a provider of an electronic communication service, without a warrant:
(i) with the informed consent of the owner of the electronic device or electronic information;
(ii) except for the automobile exception to the warrant requirement, in accordance with a judicially recognized exception to warrant requirements; or
(iii) subject to Subsection (2)(a)(vi)(B), from a provider of a remote computing service or an electronic communication service if the provider voluntarily discloses the stored or transmitted data as otherwise permitted under 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2702.
(c) A prosecutor may obtain a judicial order as described in Section 77-22-2.5 for the purposes described in Section 77-22-2.5.
(3) A provider of an electronic communication service or a remote computing service, the provider's officers, employees, or agents, or other specified persons may not be held liable for providing information, facilities, or assistance in good faith reliance on the terms of the warrant issued under this section or without a warrant in accordance with Subsection (2).
(4) Nothing in this chapter:
(a) limits or affects the disclosure of public records under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act;
(b) affects the rights of an employer under Subsection 34-48-202(1)(e) or an administrative rule adopted under Section 63A-16-205; or
(c) limits the ability of a law enforcement agency to receive or use information, without a warrant or subpoena, from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children under 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2258A.

77-23c-103 Notification required -- Exceptions -- Delayed notification.
(1)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b) or (2), a law enforcement agency that executes a warrant under Subsection 77-23c-102(1) or 77-23c-104(3) shall serve the owner of the electronic device or electronic information specified in the warrant with a notice described in Subsection (3):

(i) within 90 days after the day on which the electronic device or the electronic information is obtained by the law enforcement agency but in no case more than three days after the day on which the investigation is concluded; or

(ii) if the owner of the electronic device or electronic information specified in the warrant is unknown to the law enforcement agency, within 90 days after the day on which the law enforcement agency identifies, or reasonably could identify, the owner.

(b) A law enforcement agency is not required to serve a notice described in Subsection (1)(a) to the owner of the electronic device or electronic information if the owner is located outside of the United States.

(i) A law enforcement agency seeking a warrant in accordance with Subsection 77-23c-102(1)(a) or 77-23c-104(3) may submit a request, and the court may grant permission, to delay service of the notice required under Subsection (1) for a period not to exceed 30 days, if the court determines that there is reasonable cause to believe that the notification may:

(A) endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;

(B) cause a person to flee from prosecution;

(C) lead to the destruction of or tampering with evidence;

(D) intimidate a potential witness; or

(E) otherwise seriously jeopardize an investigation or unduly delay a trial.

(ii) When a delay of notification is granted under Subsection (2)(a)(i) and upon application by the law enforcement agency, the court may grant additional extensions of up to 30 days each.

(b)

(i) A law enforcement agency that seeks a warrant for an electronic device or electronic information in accordance with Subsection 77-23c-102(1)(a) or 77-23c-104(3) may submit a request to the court, and the court may grant permission, to delay service of the notice required under Subsection (1), if the purpose of delaying the notification is to apprehend an individual:

(A) who is a fugitive from justice under Section 77-30-13; and

(B) for whom an arrest warrant has been issued for a violent felony offense as defined in Section 76-3-203.5.

(ii)

(A) The court may grant the request under Subsection (2)(b)(i) to delay notification until the individual who is a fugitive from justice under Section 77-30-13 is apprehended by the law enforcement agency.

(B) A law enforcement agency shall serve the notice required under Subsection (1) to the owner of the electronic device or electronic information within 14 days after the day on which the law enforcement agency apprehends the individual described in Subsection (2)(b)(i).

(3) A notice required under Subsection (1) shall include:

(a) a copy of the warrant; and

(b) a written statement identifying:

(i) the offense specified in the warrant application;

(ii) the identity of the law enforcement agency that filed the application;

(iii) the date on which the electronic information was obtained; and

(iv) the number and length of any authorized delays in serving the notice required under Subsection (1), including, if applicable, the name of the court that authorized the delay and a reference to the provision of this chapter that permitted the delay.

(4) A law enforcement agency shall serve the notice required under Subsection (1) to the owner of the electronic device or electronic information by:

(a) personal service on the owner;

(b) first-class mail to the owner's last-known address; or

(c) other reasonable means if the owner's last-known address is unknown.

Amended by Chapter 382, 2023 General Session

77-23c-104 Third-party electronic information.

(1) As used in this section, "subscriber record" means a record or information of a provider of an electronic communication service or remote computing service that reveals the subscriber's or customer's:

(a) name;

(b) address;

(c) local and long distance telephone connection record, or record of session time and duration;

(d) length of service, including the start date;

(e) type of service used;

(f) telephone number, instrument number, or other subscriber or customer number or identification, including a temporarily assigned network address; and

(g) means and source of payment for the service, including a credit card or bank account number.

(2) Except as provided in Chapter 22, Subpoena Powers for Aid of Criminal Investigation and Grants of Immunity or Section 77-23f-105, a law enforcement agency may not obtain, use, copy, or disclose a subscriber record.

(3) A law enforcement agency may not obtain, use, copy, or disclose, for a criminal investigation or prosecution, any record or information, other than a subscriber record, of a provider of an electronic communication service or remote computing service related to a subscriber or customer without a warrant.

(4) Notwithstanding Subsections (2) and (3), a law enforcement agency may obtain, use, copy, or disclose a subscriber record, or other record or information related to a subscriber or customer, without an investigative subpoena or a warrant:

(a) with the informed, affirmed consent of the subscriber or customer;

(b) in accordance with a judicially recognized exception to warrant requirements;

(c) if the subscriber or customer voluntarily discloses the record in a manner that is publicly accessible; or

(d) if the provider of an electronic communication service or remote computing service voluntarily discloses the record:

(i) under a belief that an emergency exists involving the imminent risk to an individual of:

(A) death;

(B) serious physical injury;

(C) sexual abuse;

(D) live-streamed sexual exploitation;

(E) kidnapping; or

(F) human trafficking;

(ii) that is inadvertently discovered by the provider, if the record appears to pertain to the commission of:
(A) a felony; or
(B) a misdemeanor involving physical violence, sexual abuse, or dishonesty; or
(iii) subject to Subsection 77-23c-104(4)(d)(ii), as otherwise permitted under 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2702.
(5) A provider of an electronic communication service or remote computing service, or the provider's officers, employees, agents, or other specified persons may not be held liable for providing information, facilities, or assistance in good faith reliance on the terms of a warrant issued under this section, or without a warrant in accordance with Subsection (3).

Amended by Chapter 382, 2023 General Session

77-23c-105 Exclusion of records.

All electronic information or data and records of a provider of an electronic communications service or remote computing service pertaining to a subscriber or customer that are obtained in violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to the rules governing exclusion as if the records were obtained in violation of the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 14.

Surveillance Privacy

77-23d-101 Title.

This chapter is known as "Imaging Surveillance Privacy."

Enacted by Chapter 447, 2015 General Session

77-23d-102 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:
(1) "Airport" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.
(2) "Authorized property" means:
(a) a building or part of a building owned or leased by a law enforcement agency or a correctional facility;
(b) critical infrastructure if owned or operated by a government entity;
(c) an elementary or secondary public or charter school;
(d) a courthouse; or
(e) an airport.
(3) "Biometric surveillance information" means the analysis of surveillance information using biometric software to identify an individual's identity or location using the individual's physical attributes or manner.
(4) "Critical infrastructure" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-6-106.3.
(5)

(a) "Government entity" means the state, a county, a municipality, a higher education institution, a special district, a special service district, charter school, or any other political subdivision of the state or an administrative subunit of a political subdivision.
(b) "Government entity" includes a law enforcement entity or any other investigative entity, agency, department, division, bureau, board, or commission, or an individual acting or purporting to act for or on behalf of a state or local agency.
(6) "Imaging surveillance device" means a device that uses radar, sonar, infrared, or other remote sensing or detection technology used by the individual operating the device to obtain information, not otherwise directly observable, about individuals, items, or activities within a closed structure.
(7) "Public safety threat" means a documented reasonable articulable suspicion of:
(a) a threat to commit a violent felony by a specific individual towards a person, a group of people, or a place; or
(b) a threat by a specific individual to commit an offense under Section 76-5-107, Threat of violence.
(8) "Surveillance information" means future, current, or historical information produced by the digital monitoring of an area that can be used to create biometric surveillance information.
(9) "Target" means a person or a structure upon which a government entity intentionally collects or attempts to collect information using an imaging surveillance device.
(10) "Violent felony" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-3-203.5.

Amended by Chapter 216, 2024 General Session

77-23d-103 Use of imaging surveillance device -- Warrant required -- Exceptions.
(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a government entity may not operate an imaging surveillance device without a search warrant issued upon probable cause.
(2) A government entity may operate an imaging surveillance device without a search warrant:
(a) for testing equipment or training if the testing or training:
(i) is not conducted as part of an investigation or law enforcement activity; and
(ii) is conducted with the knowledge and consent of:
(A) each individual who is imaged; and
(B) an owner of each property that is imaged;
(b) in exigent circumstances; or
(c) in fresh pursuit of a person suspected of committing a felony.

Enacted by Chapter 447, 2015 General Session

77-23d-104 Notification required -- Delayed notification.
(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a government entity that executes a search warrant that authorizes the use of an imaging surveillance device shall, within 14 days after the day on which the warrant is executed, provide notice to the individual who owns, resides in, or rents the structure specified in the warrant that states:
(a) that a warrant was applied for and granted;
(b) the type of warrant issued;
(c) the period of time during which the collection of data from the structure was authorized;
(d) the offense specified in the application for the warrant;
(e) the identity of the government entity that filed the application; and
(f) the name of the court that issued the warrant.

(2) A government entity seeking a warrant described in Subsection 77-23d-103(1) may submit a request, and the court may grant permission, to delay the notification described in Subsection (1) for a period not to exceed 30 days, if the court determines that there is probable cause to believe that the notification may:
  (a) endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
  (b) cause an individual to flee from prosecution;
  (c) lead to the destruction of or tampering with evidence;
  (d) result in the intimidation of a potential witness; or
  (e) otherwise seriously jeopardize an investigation or unduly delay a trial.
(3) When a delay of notification is granted under Subsection (2), and upon application by the government entity, the court may grant additional extensions of up to 30 days each.
(4) Upon expiration of the period of delayed notification granted under Subsection (2) or (3), the government entity shall serve upon or deliver by first-class mail to the individual who owns, resides in, or rents the structure specified in the warrant a copy of the warrant together with a notice that:
  (a) states with reasonable specificity the nature of the law enforcement inquiry; and
  (b) contains:
    (i) the information described in Subsections (1)(a) through (f);
    (ii) a statement that notification of the search was delayed;
    (iii) the name of the court that authorized the delay of notification; and
    (iv) a reference to the provision of this chapter that allowed the delay of notification.
(5) A government entity is not required to notify the owner of a structure if the owner is located outside of the United States.

Enacted by Chapter 447, 2015 General Session

77-23d-105 Data use and retention.
(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a government entity:
  (a) may not use, copy, or disclose data collected using an imaging surveillance device on an individual or structure that is not a target; and
  (b) shall ensure that data described in Subsection (1)(a) is destroyed as soon as reasonably possible after the government entity collects or receives the data.
(2) A government entity is not required to comply with Subsection (1) if:
  (a) deleting the data would also require the deletion of data that:
    (i) relates to the target of the operation; and
    (ii) is requisite for the success of the operation;
  (b) the government entity receives the data:
    (i) through a court order that:
      (A) requires a person to release the data to the government entity; or
      (B) prohibits the destruction of the data; or
    (ii) from a person who is a nongovernment actor;
  (c)
    (i) the data was collected inadvertently; and
    (ii) the data appears to pertain to the commission of a crime; or
  (d)
    (i) the government entity reasonably determines that the data pertains to an emergency situation; and
    (ii) using or disclosing the data would assist in remedying the emergency.

Enacted by Chapter 447, 2015 General Session

77-23d-106 Biometric surveillance information.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a government entity may not obtain biometric surveillance information without:
  (a) a search warrant; and
  (b) an existing written policy that:
    (i) concerns the government entity's use, management, and auditing of biometric surveillance information; and
    (ii) is posted and publicly available on:
      (A) the government entity's website; or
      (B) the Utah Public Notice Website created in Section 63A-16-601, if the government entity does not have a website.

(2) A government entity may obtain biometric surveillance information without a search warrant:
  (a) on authorized property;
  (b) in accordance with a judicially recognized exception to warrant requirements; or
  (c) a public safety threat.

Government Use of Facial Recognition Technology

77-23e-101 Title.

This chapter is known as "Government Use of Facial Recognition Technology."

Enacted by Chapter 200, 2021 General Session

77-23e-102 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Public Safety, created in Section 53-1-103.

(2) "Facial biometric data" means data derived from a measurement, pattern, contour, or other characteristic of an individual's face, either directly or from an image.

(3)
  (a) "Facial recognition comparison" means the process of comparing an image or facial biometric data to an image database.
  (b) "Facial recognition comparison" does not include biometric surveillance information as that term is defined in Section 77-23d-102.

(4)
  (a) "Facial recognition system" means a computer system that, for the purpose of attempting to determine the identity of an unknown individual, uses an algorithm to compare biometric data of the face of the unknown individual to facial biometric data of known individuals.
  (b) "Facial recognition system" does not include:
    (i) a system described in Subsection (4)(a) that is available for use, free of charge, by the general public; or

(ii) a system a consumer uses for the consumer's private purposes.

(5)

(a) "Government entity" means:

(i) an executive department agency of the state;

(ii) the office of:

(A) the governor;

(B) the lieutenant governor;

(C) the state auditor;

(D) the attorney general; or

(E) the state treasurer;

(iii) the Board of Pardons and Parole;

(iv) the Board of Examiners;

(v) the National Guard;

(vi) the Career Service Review Office;

(vii) the State Board of Education;

(viii) the Utah Board of Higher Education;

(ix) the State Archives;

(x) the Office of the Legislative Auditor General;

(xi) the Office of Legislative Fiscal Analyst;

(xii) the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel;

(xiii) the Legislature;

(xiv) a legislative committee of the Legislature;

(xv) a court, the Judicial Council, the Administrative Office of the Courts, and similar administrative units in the judicial branch;

(xvi) an institution of higher education as that term is defined in Section 53H-1-101;

(xvii) an entity within the system of public education that receives funding from the state; or

(xviii) a political subdivision of the state as that term is defined in Section 63G-7-102.

(b) "Government entity" includes:

(i) every office, agency, board, bureau, committee, department, advisory board, or commission of an entity described in Subsection (5)(a) that is funded or established by the government to carry out the public's business; or

(ii) an individual acting as an agent of a government entity or acting on behalf of an entity described in this Subsection (5).

(6)

(a) "Image database" means a database maintained by a government entity that contains images the government entity captures of an individual while the individual interacts with the government entity.

(b) "Image database" does not include publicly available information.

(7) "Law enforcement agency" means a public entity that exists primarily to prevent, detect, or prosecute crime or enforce criminal statutes or ordinances.

(8) "Trained employee" means an individual who is trained to make a facial recognition comparison and identification and who has completed implicit bias training.

Amended by Chapter 9, 2025 Special Session 1

77-23e-103 Government use of facial recognition system with image database -- Restrictions -- Process -- Disclosure.

(1) Except as provided in this section, in Section 77-23e-104, and in Section 77-23e-105, a government entity may not use a facial recognition system on an image database.

(2)

(i) Only a law enforcement agency may make a request for a government entity to conduct a facial recognition comparison using a facial recognition system.

(ii) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(iii), a law enforcement agency shall submit a request for a facial recognition comparison on an image database in writing to the government entity that manages the image database.

(iii) A law enforcement agency shall submit a request for a facial recognition comparison on an image database shared with or maintained by the department in accordance with Section 77-23e-104.

(b) A trained employee who is employed by the government entity that maintains or has access to the image database shall complete the request if the request:

(i) is for a purpose described in Subsection (2)(c);

(ii) includes a case identification number; and

(iii) is, if it is a request made for the purpose of investigating a crime, supported by a statement of the specific crime and factual narrative to support that there is a fair probability that the individual who is the subject of the request is connected to the crime.

(c) An individual described in Subsection (2)(b) shall only comply with requests made for a purpose of:

(i) investigating a felony, a violent crime, or a threat to human life; or

(ii) identifying an individual who is:

(A) deceased;

(B) incapacitated; or

(C) at risk and otherwise unable to provide the law enforcement agency with his or her identity.

(d) The law enforcement agency shall only use the facial recognition comparison:

(i) in accordance with the requirements of law; and

(ii) in relation to a purpose described in Subsection (2)(c).

(3) A government entity may not use a facial recognition system for a civil immigration violation.

(4) To make a facial recognition comparison, a trained employee described in Subsection (2)(b) shall:

(a) use a facial recognition system that, in accordance with industry standards:

(i) makes the comparison using an algorithm that compares only facial biometric data;

(ii) is secure; and

(iii) is produced by a company that is currently in business;

(b) if the facial recognition system indicates a possible match, make an independent visual comparison to determine whether the facial recognition system's possible match is a probable match;

(c) if the trained employee determines that there is a possible match that is a probable match, seek a second opinion from another trained employee or the trained employee's supervisor; and

(d)

(i) if the other trained employee or the trained employee's supervisor agrees that the match is a probable match:

(A) report the result to the requesting law enforcement agency through an encrypted method; and

(B) return to the requesting law enforcement agency only a result that all trained employees agree is a probable match; or

(ii) if the other trained employee or the trained employee's supervisor disagrees that there is a probable match, report the fact that the search returned no results to the requesting law enforcement agency.

(5) When submitting a case to a prosecutor, a law enforcement agency of the state or of a political subdivision shall disclose to the prosecutor, in writing:

(a) whether a facial recognition system was used in investigating the case; and

(b) if a facial recognition system was used:

(i) the information the law enforcement agency received in accordance with Subsection (4)(d)(ii); and

(ii) a description of how the facial recognition comparison was used in the investigation.

Enacted by Chapter 200, 2021 General Session

77-23e-104 Department use of facial recognition system with specific images -- Restrictions.

(1) The department is the only government entity in the state authorized to use a facial recognition system to conduct a facial recognition comparison on an image database that is maintained by or shared with the department.

(2) The department may only use a facial recognition system:

(a) for a purpose authorized in Subsection 77-23e-103(2)(c); or

(b) notwithstanding Subsection 77-23e-103(2)(b), to:

(i) compare an image taken of an applicant for a license certificate or an identification card to determine whether the applicant has submitted a fraudulent or an inaccurate application; or

(ii) provide images for a photo lineup for a purpose authorized in Subsection 77-23e-103(2)(c).

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection 77-23e-103(2)(a)(ii), a law enforcement agency shall submit a request to the department to use a facial recognition system on an image database maintained by the department through the Utah Criminal Justice Information System.

Enacted by Chapter 200, 2021 General Session

77-23e-105 Notice requirement.

(1) When capturing an image of an individual when the individual interacts with the government entity, the government entity shall notify the individual that the individual's image may be used in conjunction with facial recognition technology.

(2) At least 30 days before the day on which a government entity other than the department begins using a facial recognition system to conduct a facial recognition comparison on the government entity's image database, the government entity shall:

(a) publish on the government entity's website:

(i) notice of the proposed use of facial recognition system;

(ii) a description of the image database on which the government entity plans to use the facial recognition system; and

(iii) information about how to provide public comment;

(b) allow the public to submit written comments to the government entity within 15 days after the date of publication;

(c) consider timely submitted public comments and the criteria established in this chapter in determining whether to proceed with the intended use of the facial recognition system; and

(d) post notice of the final decision on the government entity's website.

(3) The process described in Subsection (2) does not create a right of appeal.

Enacted by Chapter 200, 2021 General Session

77-23e-106 Data protection and disclosure.

(1) Notwithstanding Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, data relating to a facial recognition comparison may not be used or shared for any purpose other than a purpose described in this chapter.

(2)

(a) Upon request, a government entity shall release statistical information regarding facial recognition comparisons, including:

(i) the different types of crime for which the government entity received a request;

(ii) how many requests the government entity received for each type of crime; and

(iii) the number of probable matches the government entity provided in response to each request.

(b) In responding to a request for a release of statistical information under Subsection (2)(a), a government entity may not disclose details regarding a pending investigation.

(3)

(a) On or after August 1 but before October 15 of each year, a government entity that uses a facial recognition system to conduct a facial recognition comparison shall provide to the Government Operations Interim Committee a report that discloses:

(i) the different types of crime for which the department received a request;

(ii) how many requests the department received for each type of crime;

(iii) the number of probable matches the department provided in response to each request; and

(iv) the image source from which the department made each match.

(b) In responding to a request for a release of statistical information under Subsection (2)(a), a government entity may not disclose details regarding a pending investigation.

Chapter 23f
Access to Reverse-Location and Reverse-Keyword Information

77-23f-101 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Anonymized" means that the identifying information connected to an electronic device has been rendered anonymous in a manner such that the subject, including an individual, household, device, or Internet protocol address, is not identifiable to a law enforcement agency.

(2) "Cell site" means transmission or reception equipment, including a base-station antenna, that connects an electronic device to a network.

(3) "Cell site record" means the cell site location information of an electronic device that corresponds to a specific cell site and time frame.

(4) "Electronic device" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-23c-101.2.

(5) "Geofence" means a specified geographic area defined by a virtual perimeter or geographic coordinates.

(6) "Identifying information" means information tied to an electronic device that identifies the user's or owner's:
(a) name;
(b) address;
(c) phone number;
(d) email; or
(e) other identifying information that would identify the owner or user of the electronic device.
(7) "Law enforcement agency" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-23c-101.2.
(8) "Location information" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-23c-101.2.
(9)
(a) "Reverse-keyword information" means information that:
(i) identifies an unnamed individual, by name or other unique identifier, who:
(A) electronically searched for a particular word, phrase, character string, or website; or
(B) visited a particular website through a link generated by an electronic search for a particular word, phrase, character string, or website; and
(ii) is or is not limited to a specific geographic area or time frame.
(b) "Reverse-keyword information" does not include keyword information concerning a known individual or a specified electronic device that may be obtained pursuant to Chapter 23c, Electronic Information Privacy Act.
(10) "Reverse-location information" means historical location information for:
(a) a defined time period;
(b) a defined or undefined area; and
(c) a defined or undefined number of electronic devices, for which the identities of the owners or users of the electronic devices are unknown to law enforcement.

Amended by Chapter 235, 2025 General Session

77-23f-102 Obtaining reverse-location information within a geofence -- Warrant required for disclosure -- Procedure.
(1) Except as provided in Section 77-23f-106, for a criminal investigation or prosecution, a law enforcement agency may not obtain reverse-location information for electronic devices within a geofence unless:
(a) the law enforcement agency obtains a search warrant as provided under this section; and
(b)
(i) the investigation or prosecution involves:
(A) a felony;
(B) a class A misdemeanor that involves harm or a risk of harm to a person, a violation of Title 23A, Wildlife Resources Act, or is part of a pattern of criminal activity; or
(C) a class B misdemeanor that involves harm or a risk of harm to a person, the unlawful taking of protected wildlife, or is part of a pattern of criminal activity; or
(ii) the law enforcement agency can demonstrate an imminent, ongoing threat to public safety.
(2) To obtain reverse-location information inside of a geofence, a law enforcement agency shall:
(a) include with the sworn warrant application:
(i) a map or other visual depiction that represents the geofence for which the warrant is seeking information; and
(ii) the following language at the beginning of the application in a legible font no smaller than other text appearing in the application:

"NOTICE: This warrant application seeks judicial authorization for the disclosure of reverse-location information of electronic devices near a crime at or near the time of the crime. If authorized, the warrant allows law enforcement to obtain historical location information of all devices within the area described in the warrant during the specified time from entities in possession of the relevant data. The electronic devices captured in the warrant may be owned or used by both alleged criminal perpetrators and individuals not involved in the commission of a crime. For this reason, any warrant issued must require the anonymization of all devices associated with the reverse-location information."; and

(b) establish probable cause to believe that evidence of a crime will be found within the geofence and within a specified period of time.

(3) If a court grants a warrant under Subsection (2), the court shall require that all electronic device data provided pursuant to the warrant be anonymized before the reverse-location information is released to the law enforcement agency.

Enacted by Chapter 382, 2023 General Session

77-23f-102.2 Obtaining reverse-keyword information -- Warrant required for disclosure -- Procedure.

(1) Except as provided in Section 77-23f-106, for a criminal investigation or prosecution, a law enforcement agency may not obtain reverse-keyword information for electronic devices unless:

(a) the law enforcement agency obtains a search warrant as provided under this section; and

(b)

(i) the investigation or prosecution involves an offense listed in Subsection (4); or

(ii) the law enforcement agency can demonstrate an imminent, ongoing threat to public safety.

(2) To obtain reverse-keyword information, a law enforcement agency shall:

(a) include with the sworn warrant application the following language at the beginning of the application in a legible font no smaller than other text appearing in the application: "NOTICE: This warrant application seeks judicial authorization for the disclosure of reverse-keyword information of electronic devices. If authorized, the warrant allows law enforcement to obtain historical information of all devices that searched for specific terms or visited a particular website through a link generated by an electronic search during the specified time described in the warrant from entities in possession of the relevant data. The electronic devices captured in the warrant may be owned or used by both alleged criminal perpetrators and individuals not involved in the commission of a crime. For this reason, any warrant issued must require the anonymization of all devices associated with the reverse-keyword information."; and

(b) establish probable cause to believe that evidence of a crime will be found based on the reverse-keyword information sought to be searched and within the specified period of time.

(3) If a court grants a warrant under Subsection (2), the court shall require that all electronic device data provided pursuant to the warrant be anonymized before the reverse-keyword information or reverse-location information is released to the law enforcement agency.

(4) The offenses referred to in Subsection (1)(b)(i) are:

(a) a felony offense under Title 76, Chapter 5, Offenses Against the Individual;

(b) a first or second degree felony offense under Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 1, Property Destruction;

(c) a first or second degree felony offense under Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 2, Burglary and Criminal Trespass;

(d) a first or second degree felony offense under Title 76, Chapter 6, Part 3, Robbery;

(e) a first or second degree felony offense under Title 76, Chapter 8, Part 3, Obstructing Governmental Operations;
(f) a first or second degree felony offense under Title 76, Chapter 10, Part 3, Explosives;
(g) a first or second degree felony offense under Title 76, Chapter 10, Part 4, Weapons of Mass Destruction;
(h) a first or second degree felony offense under Title 76, Chapter 10, Part 13, Prostitution; and
(i) a first or second degree felony offense under Title 76, Chapter 10, Part 15, Bus Passenger Safety Act.

Enacted by Chapter 235, 2025 General Session

77-23f-103 Obtaining reverse-location information based on cell site records -- Warrant required for disclosure -- Procedure.

(1) Except as provided in Section 77-23f-106, for a criminal investigation or prosecution, a law enforcement agency may not obtain reverse-location information based on cell site records unless:
(a) the law enforcement agency obtains a search warrant as provided under this section; and
(b)
(i) the investigation or prosecution involves:
(A) a felony;
(B) a class A misdemeanor that involves harm or risk of harm to a person, a violation of Title 23A, Wildlife Resources Act, or is part of a pattern of criminal activity; or
(C) a class B misdemeanor that involves harm or risk of harm to a person, the unlawful taking of protected wildlife, or is part of a pattern of criminal activity; or
(ii) the law enforcement agency can demonstrate an imminent, ongoing threat to public safety.
(2) To obtain cell-site based reverse-location information, a law enforcement agency shall:
(a) include with the sworn warrant application:
(i) a visual depiction or written description that identifies:
(A) the crime scene location and any other areas of interest related to the crime;
(B) the location of cell sites from which the reverse-location information is sought; and
(C) the distance between the locations described in Subsections (2)(a)(i)(A) and (B); and
(ii) the following language at the beginning of the application in a legible font no smaller than other text appearing in the application:

"NOTICE: This warrant application seeks judicial authorization for the disclosure of reverse-location information of electronic devices near a crime at or near the time of the crime. If authorized, the warrant allows law enforcement to obtain historical location information of all devices within the area described in the warrant during the specified time from entities in possession of the relevant data. The electronic devices captured in the warrant may be owned or used by both alleged criminal perpetrators and individuals not involved in the commission of a crime. For this reason, any warrant issued must require the anonymization of all devices associated with the reverse-location information."; and
(b) establish probable cause to believe that evidence of a crime will be found within the cell site records described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) and within a specified period of time.
(3) If a court grants a warrant under Subsection (2), the court shall require that all electronic device data provided pursuant to the warrant be anonymized before the reverse-location information is released to the law enforcement agency.

Enacted by Chapter 382, 2023 General Session

77-23f-104 Obtaining additional reverse-location or reverse-keyword information -- Warrant required for disclosure -- Procedure.

(1) If, after executing a warrant described in Section 77-23f-102, 77-23f-102.2, or 77-23f-103, a law enforcement agency seeks to obtain reverse-keyword information or reverse-location information beyond the parameters of the warrant obtained under Section 77-23f-102, 77-23f-102.2, or 77-23f-103, the law enforcement agency shall:
  (a) include in the sworn warrant application the specific electronic devices identified in the anonymized data for which the law enforcement agency seeks additional reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information;
  (b) establish probable cause to believe that evidence of a crime will be found within a specified period of time; and
  (c) affirm that the crime described in Subsection (1)(b) is:
    (i) the same crime or directly related to the crime that was the subject of the warrant obtained under Section 77-23f-102, 77-23f-102.2, or 77-23f-103; or
    (ii) a crime subject to the judicially recognized plain view exception to the warrant requirement.
(2) If a court grants a warrant under Subsection (1), the court shall require that all electronic device data provided pursuant to the warrant be anonymized before the reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information is released to the law enforcement agency.

Amended by Chapter 235, 2025 General Session

77-23f-105 Obtaining identifying information connected to reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information -- Warrant required for disclosure -- Procedure.

To obtain identifying information for an electronic device identified pursuant to a warrant concerning reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information obtained under Section 77-23f-102, 77-23f-102.2, 77-23f-103, or 77-23f-104, a law enforcement agency shall establish in the sworn warrant application probable cause to believe that the electronic device was used or otherwise implicated in a crime.

Amended by Chapter 235, 2025 General Session

77-23f-106 Exceptions to reverse-location and reverse-keyword warrant requirements.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter, a law enforcement agency may obtain reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information without a warrant:
  (a) in accordance with Section 53-10-104.5; or
  (b) in accordance with a judicially recognized exception to warrant requirements.
(2) Nothing in this chapter:
  (a) limits or affects the disclosure of public records under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act;
  (b) affects the rights of an employer under Subsection 34-48-202(1)(e) or an administrative rule adopted under Section 63A-16-205; or
  (c) limits the ability of a law enforcement agency to receive or use information, without a warrant or subpoena, from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children under 18 U.S.C. Sec. 2258A.

Amended by Chapter 235, 2025 General Session

77-23f-107 Use, disclosure, and destruction of reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information -- Anonymization.

(1)

(a) A law enforcement agency may not use, copy, or disclose, for any purpose, reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information obtained under a warrant under Section 77-23f-102, 77-23f-102.2, 77-23f-103, or 77-23f-104 that:

(i) is not related to the crime that is the subject of the warrant; and

(ii) is collected as part of an effort to obtain the reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information of an electronic device that is related to the crime that is the subject of the warrant obtained under Section 77-23f-102, 77-23f-102.2, 77-23f-103, or 77-23f-104.

(b) The law enforcement agency shall destroy in an unrecoverable manner the reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information described in Subsection (1)(a) as soon as reasonably possible after the criminal case is declined for prosecution or, if criminal charges are filed, the final disposition of the criminal case.

(a) Reverse-location information obtained under Section 77-23f-102, 77-23f-103, or 77-23f-104 may not be:

(i) compared with, merged with, linked to, or in any way electronically or otherwise connected to a source of electronic data, including a database or file, containing one or more points of data that includes the location information provided by an electronic device; or

(ii) used in any other criminal investigation or prosecution.

(b) Subsection (2)(a)(i) does not apply if all the electronic data, including the reverse-location information, is obtained for the purpose of investigating the same criminal incident.

(3) A person or entity that provides reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information under this chapter shall ensure that the reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information is anonymized before the reverse-location information or reverse-keyword information is provided to a law enforcement agency.

Amended by Chapter 235, 2025 General Session

77-23f-108 Notifications required -- Exceptions --Delayed notification.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b) or (2), a law enforcement agency that executes a warrant under Section 77-23f-105 shall serve a notice described in Subsection (3) on the owner of the electronic device for which identifying information was obtained:

(i) within 90 days after the day on which the identifying information is obtained by the law enforcement agency, but in no case more than three days after the day on which the investigation is concluded; or

(ii) if the owner of the electronic device for which the identifying information specified in the warrant is unknown to the law enforcement agency, within 90 days after the day on which the law enforcement agency identifies, or reasonably could identify, the owner.

(b) A law enforcement agency is not required to serve a notice described in Subsection (1)(a) to the owner of the electronic device for which identifying information was obtained if the owner is located outside of the United States.

(2)

(i) A law enforcement agency seeking a warrant in accordance with Section 77-23f-105 may submit a request, and the court may grant permission, to delay service of the notice required under Subsection (1) for a period not to exceed 30 days, if the court determines that there is reasonable cause to believe that the notification may:

(A) endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;

(B) cause a person to flee from prosecution;

(C) lead to the destruction of or tampering with evidence;

(D) intimidate a potential witness; or

(E) otherwise seriously jeopardize an investigation or unduly delay a trial.

(ii) When a delay of notification is granted under Subsection (2)(a)(i) and upon application by the law enforcement agency, the court may grant additional extensions of up to 30 days each.

(b)

(i) A law enforcement agency that seeks a warrant in accordance with Section 77-23f-105 may submit a request to the court, and the court may grant permission, to delay service of the notice required under Subsection (1), if the purpose of delaying the notification is to apprehend an individual:

(A) who is a fugitive from justice under Section 77-30-13; and

(B) for whom an arrest warrant has been issued for a violent felony offense as defined in Section 76-3-203.5.

(ii)

(A) The court may grant the request under Subsection (2)(b)(i) to delay notification until the individual who is a fugitive from justice under Section 77-30-13 is apprehended by the law enforcement agency.

(B) A law enforcement agency shall serve the notice required under Subsection (1) to the owner of the electronic device within 14 days after the day on which the law enforcement agency apprehends the individual described in Subsection (2)(b)(i).

(3) A notice required under Subsection (1) shall include:

(a) a copy of the warrant; and

(b) a written statement identifying:

(i) the offense specified in the warrant application;

(ii) the identity of the law enforcement agency that filed the application;

(iii) the date on which the location information or identifying information was obtained; and

(iv) the number and length of any authorized delays in serving the notice required under Subsection (1), including, if applicable, the name of the court that authorized the delay and a reference to the provision of this chapter that permitted the delay.

(4) A law enforcement agency shall serve the notice required under Subsection (1) to the owner of the electronic device by:

(a) personal service on the owner;

(b) first-class mail to the owner's last-known address; or

(c) other reasonable means if the owner's last-known address is unknown.

77-27-2 Board of Pardons and Parole -- Creation -- Compensation -- Functions.

(1)
(a) There is created the Board of Pardons and Parole.
(b) The board shall consist of five full-time members and not more than five pro tempore members to be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 24, Part 2, Vacancies, and as provided in this section.
(c) The members of the board shall be resident citizens of the state.
(d) The governor shall establish salaries for the members of the board within the salary range fixed by the Legislature in Title 67, Chapter 22, State Officer Compensation.

(2)
(i)
(A) The full-time board members shall serve terms of five years.
(B) The terms of the full-time members shall be staggered so one board member is appointed for a term of five years on March 1 of each year.
(ii)
(A) The pro tempore members shall serve terms of five years, beginning on March 1 of the year of appointment, with no more than one pro tempore member term beginning or expiring in the same calendar year.
(B) If a pro tempore member vacancy occurs, the board may submit the names of not fewer than three or more than five persons to the governor for appointment to fill the vacancy.
(b) All vacancies occurring on the board for any cause shall be filled by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate in accordance with this section for the unexpired term of the vacating member.
(c) The governor may at any time remove any member of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty, malfeasance or malfeasance in office, or for cause upon a hearing.
(d)
(i) A member of the board may not hold any other office in the government of the United States, this state or any other state, or of any county government or municipal corporation within a state.
(ii) A member may not engage in any occupation or business inconsistent with the member's duties.
(e)
(i) A majority of the board constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business, including the holding of hearings at any time or any location within or without the state, or for the purpose of exercising any duty or authority of the board.
(ii) An action is deemed the action of the board if the action is taken by a majority of the board regarding whether:

(A) parole, pardon, commutation, or termination of a sentence is granted in an offender's case;
(B) remission of a criminal accounts receivable, or a fines or forfeiture, is granted in an offender's case; or
(C) an offender's payment schedule for a criminal accounts receivable is modified.
(iii) A majority vote of the five full-time members of the board is required for adoption of rules or policies of general applicability as provided by statute.
(iv) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(e)(iii), a vacancy on the board does not impair the right of the remaining board members to exercise any duty or authority of the board as long as a majority of the board remains.
(v) A board member shall comply with the conflict of interest provisions described in Title 63G, Chapter 24, Part 3, Conflicts of Interest.
(f)
(i) Any investigation, inquiry, or hearing that the board has authority to undertake or hold may be conducted by any board member or an examiner appointed by the board.
(ii) When an action under Subsection (2)(f)(i) is approved and confirmed by the board and filed in the board's office, the action is considered to be the action of the board and has the same effect as if originally made by the board.
(g)
(i) When a full-time board member is absent or in other extraordinary circumstances, the chair may, as dictated by public interest and efficient administration of the board, assign a pro tempore member to act in the place of a full-time member.
(ii) Pro tempore members shall receive a per diem rate of compensation as established by the Division of Finance and all actual and necessary expenses incurred in attending to official business.
(h) The chair may request staff and administrative support as necessary from the department.
(3)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), the commission shall:
(i) recommend five applicants to the governor for a full-time member appointment to the board; and
(ii) consider applicants' knowledge of the criminal justice system, state and federal criminal law, judicial procedure, corrections policies and procedures, and behavioral sciences.
(b) The procedures and requirements of Subsection (3)(a) do not apply if the governor appoints a sitting board member to a new term of office.
(4)
(i) The board shall appoint an individual to serve as the board's mental health adviser and may appoint other staff necessary to aid the board in fulfilling the board's responsibilities under Title 77, Chapter 16a, Commitment and Treatment of Individuals with a Mental Condition.
(ii) The adviser shall prepare reports and recommendations to the board on all persons adjudicated as guilty with a mental condition, in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 16a, Commitment and Treatment of Individuals with a Mental Condition.
(b) The mental health adviser shall possess the qualifications necessary to carry out the duties imposed by the board and may not be employed by the department or the Utah State Hospital.
(i) The board may review outside employment by the mental health advisor.
(ii) The board shall develop rules governing employment with entities other than the board by the mental health advisor for the purpose of prohibiting a conflict of interest.

(c) The mental health adviser shall:
(i) act as liaison for the board with the Department of Health and Human Services and local mental health authorities;
(ii) educate the members of the board regarding the needs and special circumstances of persons with a mental condition in the criminal justice system;
(iii) in cooperation with the department, monitor the status of persons in the prison who have been found guilty with a mental condition;
(iv) monitor the progress of other persons under the board's jurisdiction who have a mental condition;
(v) conduct hearings as necessary in the preparation of reports and recommendations; and
(vi) perform other duties as assigned by the board.

Amended by Chapter 184, 2023 General Session

77-27-4 Chairperson and vice chairperson.
(1) The governor shall select one of the members of the board to serve as chairperson and board administrator at the governor's pleasure. The chairperson may exercise the duties and powers, in addition to those established by this chapter, necessary for the administration of daily operations of the board, including personnel, budgetary matters, panel appointments, and scheduling of hearings.
(2) The chairperson shall appoint a vice chairperson to act in the absence of the chairperson.

77-27-5 Board of Pardons and Parole authority.
(1)
(a) Subject to this chapter and other laws of the state, and except for a conviction for treason or impeachment, the board shall determine by majority decision when and under what conditions an offender's conviction may be pardoned or commuted.
(b) The board shall determine by majority decision when and under what conditions an offender committed to serve a sentence at a penal or correctional facility, which is under the jurisdiction of the department, may:
(i) be released upon parole;
(ii) have a fine or forfeiture remitted;
(iii) have the offender's criminal accounts receivable remitted in accordance with Section 77-32b-105 or 77-32b-106;
(iv) have the offender's payment schedule modified in accordance with Section 77-32b-103; or
(v) have the offender's sentence terminated.
(c) The board shall prioritize public safety when making a determination under Subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b).
(d)
(i) The board may sit together or in panels to conduct hearings.
(ii) The chair shall appoint members to the panels in any combination and in accordance with rules made by the board in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.
(iii) The chair may participate on any panel and when doing so is chair of the panel.
(iv) The chair of the board may designate the chair for any other panel.
(e)

(i) Except after a hearing before the board, or the board's appointed examiner, in an open session, the board may not:
(A) remit a fine or forfeiture for an offender or the offender's criminal accounts receivable;
(B) release the offender on parole; or
(C) commute, pardon, or terminate an offender's sentence.
(ii) An action taken under this Subsection (1) other than by a majority of the board shall be affirmed by a majority of the board.
(f) A commutation or pardon may be granted only after a full hearing before the board.
(2)
(a) In the case of a hearing, timely prior notice of the time and location of the hearing shall be given to the offender.
(b) The county or district attorney's office responsible for prosecution of the case, the sentencing court, and law enforcement officials responsible for the defendant's arrest and conviction shall be notified of any board hearings through the board's website.
(c) Whenever possible, the victim or the victim's representative, if designated, shall be notified of original hearings and any hearing after that if notification is requested and current contact information has been provided to the board.
(d)
(i) Notice to the victim or the victim's representative shall include information provided in Section 77-27-9.5, and any related rules made by the board under that section.
(ii) The information under Subsection (2)(d)(i) shall be provided in terms that are reasonable for the lay person to understand.
(3)
(a) A decision by the board is final and not subject for judicial review if the decision is regarding:
(i) a pardon, parole, commutation, or termination of an offender's sentence;
(ii) restitution, the modification of an offender's payment schedule for restitution, or an order for costs; or
(iii) the remission of an offender's criminal accounts receivable or a fine or forfeiture.
(b) Deliberative processes are not public and the board is exempt from Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act, when the board is engaged in the board's deliberative process.
(c) Pursuant to Subsection 63G-2-103(25)(b)(xii), records of the deliberative process are exempt from Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.
(d) Unless it will interfere with a constitutional right, deliberative processes are not subject to disclosure, including discovery.
(e) Nothing in this section prevents the obtaining or enforcement of a civil judgment.
(4)
(a) This chapter may not be construed as a denial of or limitation of the governor's power to grant respite or reprieves in all cases of convictions for offenses against the state, except treason or conviction on impeachment.
(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (4)(a), respites or reprieves may not extend beyond the next session of the board.
(c) At the next session of the board, the board:
(i) shall continue or terminate the respite or reprieve; or
(ii) may commute the punishment or pardon the offense as provided.
(d) In the case of conviction for treason, the governor may suspend execution of the sentence until the case is reported to the Legislature at the Legislature's next session.
(e) The Legislature shall pardon or commute the sentence or direct the sentence's execution.
(5)

(a) In determining when, where, and under what conditions an offender serving a sentence may be paroled or pardoned, have a fine or forfeiture remitted, have the offender's criminal accounts receivable remitted, or have the offender's sentence commuted or terminated, the board shall:
(i) consider whether the offender has made restitution ordered by the court under Section 77-38b-205, or is prepared to pay restitution as a condition of any parole, pardon, remission of a criminal accounts receivable or a fine or forfeiture, or a commutation or termination of the offender's sentence;
(ii) except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), develop and use a list of criteria for making determinations under this Subsection (5);
(iii) consider information provided by the department regarding an offender's individual case action plan; and
(iv) review an offender's status within 60 days after the day on which the board receives notice from the department that the offender has completed all of the offender's case action plan components that relate to activities that can be accomplished while the offender is imprisoned.
(b) The board shall determine whether to remit an offender's criminal accounts receivable under this Subsection (5) in accordance with Section 77-32b-105 or 77-32b-106.
(6) In determining whether parole may be terminated, the board shall consider:
(a) the offense committed by the parolee; and
(b) the parole period under Section 76-3-202, and in accordance with Section 77-27-13.
(7) For an offender placed on parole after December 31, 2018, the board shall terminate parole in accordance with the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1, to the extent the guidelines are consistent with the requirements of the law.
(8) The board may not rely solely on an algorithm or a risk assessment tool score in determining whether parole should be granted or terminated for an offender.
(9) The board may intervene as a limited-purpose party in a judicial or administrative proceeding, including a criminal action, to seek:
(a) correction of an order that has or will impact the board's jurisdiction; or
(b) clarification regarding an order that may impact the board's jurisdiction.
(10) A motion to intervene brought under Subsection (9)(a) shall be raised within 60 days after the day on which a court enters the order that impacts the board's jurisdiction.

77-27-5.1 Board authority to order expungement.

(1) Upon granting a pardon, the board shall issue an expungement order, directing any criminal justice agency to remove the recipient's identifying information relating to the expunged convictions from its records.
(a) When a pardon has been granted, employees of the Board of Pardons and Parole may not divulge any identifying information regarding the pardoned person to any person or agency, except for the pardoned person.
(b) The Bureau of Criminal Identification may not count pardoned convictions against any future expungement eligibility.
(2) An expungement order, issued by the board, has at least the same legal effect and authority as an order of expungement issued by a court, pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 40a, Expungement of Criminal Records.

(3) The board shall provide clear written directions to the recipient along with a list of agencies known to be affected by the expungement order.

Amended by Chapter 194, 2024 General Session

77-27-5.2 Board authority to order removal from Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry.

(1) If the board grants a pardon for a conviction described in Section 53-29-202 that is the basis for an individual's registration on the Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry, the board shall issue an order directing the Department of Public Safety to remove the individual's name and personal information relating to the pardoned conviction from the Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry.
(2) An order described in Subsection (1), issued by the board, satisfies the notification requirement described in Subsection 53-29-405(1)(b).

Amended by Chapter 291, 2025 General Session

77-27-5.3 Meritless and bad faith litigation.

(1) For purposes of this section:
  (a) "Convicted" means a conviction by entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, guilty with a mental condition, no contest, and conviction of any crime or offense.
  (b) "Prisoner" means a person who has been convicted of a crime and is incarcerated for that crime or is being held in custody for trial or sentencing.
(2) In any case filed in state or federal court in which a prisoner submits a claim that the court finds to be without merit and brought or asserted in bad faith, the Board of Pardons and Parole and any county jail administrator may consider that finding in any early release decisions concerning the prisoner.

Amended by Chapter 184, 2023 General Session

77-27-5.4 Earned time program.

(1) The board shall establish an earned time program that reduces the period of incarceration for offenders who successfully complete specified programs, the purpose of which is to reduce the risk of recidivism.
(2) The earned time program shall:
  (a) provide not less than four months of earned time credit each for the completion of up to two programs that:
    (i) are approved by the board in collaboration with the department; and
    (ii) are recommended programs that are part of the offender's case action plan; and
  (b) allow the board to grant in the board's discretion earned time credit in addition to the earned time credit provided under Subsection (2)(a).
(3) The earned time program may not provide earned time credit for an offender:
  (a) whose previously ordered release date does not provide enough time, including time for transition services, for the board to grant the earned time credit;
  (b) who has been sentenced by the court to a term of life without the possibility of parole;
  (c) who has been ordered by the board to serve until the expiration of the offender's sentence, including a life sentence;
  (d) who does not have a current release date;

(e) who has not met a contingency requirement for release that has been ordered by the board; or
(f) who has been given a termination date by the board.
(4) The board may order the forfeiture of earned time credits under this section if the board determines a rescission hearing is necessary.
(5) The department shall notify the board not more than 30 days after an offender completes a program as defined in Subsection (2)(a).
(6) The board shall collect data for the fiscal year regarding the operation of the earned time credit program, including:
(a) the number of offenders who have earned time credit under this section in the prior year;
(b) the amount of time credit earned in the prior year;
(c) the number of offenders who forfeited earned time credit; and
(d) additional related information as requested by the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice.
(7) The board shall collaborate with the department in the establishment of the earned time credit program.
(8) To the extent possible, programming and hearings shall be provided early enough in an offender's incarceration to allow the offender to earn time credit.

Amended by Chapter 145, 2024 General Session

77-27-5.5 Review procedure -- Commutation.
(1) The Board of Pardons and Parole may consider the commutation of a death sentence only to life without parole.
(2) Only the person who has been sentenced to death or the sentenced person's counsel may petition the Board of Pardons and Parole for commutation.
(3) The petition shall be in writing, signed personally by the person sentenced to death, and shall include a statement of the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks review.
(4) The state shall be permitted to respond in writing to the petition as may be established by board rules.
(5) The board shall review the petition and determine whether the petition presents a substantial issue which has not been reviewed in the judicial process.
(6) The board shall not consider legal issues, including constitutional issues, which:
(a) have been reviewed previously by the courts;
(b) should have been raised during the judicial process; or
(c) if based on new information, are subject to judicial review.
(7)
(a) If the board does not find a substantial issue, the board shall deny the hearing to the petitioner.
(b) If the board finds a substantial issue, the board shall conduct a hearing in which the petitioner and the state may present evidence and argument as may be provided by board rules.

77-27-6.1 Payment of a criminal accounts receivable -- Failure to enter an order for restitution or create a criminal accounts receivable -- Modification of a criminal accounts receivable -- Order for recovery of costs or pecuniary damages.
(1) For an offender sentenced on or after July 1, 2021:

(a) when an offender is committed to prison, the board may require the offender to pay the offender's criminal accounts receivable ordered by the court during the period of incarceration or parole supervision;

(b) if the board orders the release of an offender on parole and there is an unpaid balance on the offender's criminal accounts receivable, the board may modify the payment schedule entered by the court for the offender's criminal accounts receivable in accordance with Section 77-32b-105;

(c)

(i) if the sentencing court has not entered an order of restitution for an offender who is under the jurisdiction of the board, the board shall refer the offender's case to the sentencing court, within the time periods described in Section 77-38b-205, to enter an order for restitution for the offender in accordance with Section 77-38b-205; and

(ii) if the sentencing court has not entered an order to establish a criminal accounts receivable for an offender who is under the jurisdiction of the board, the board shall refer the offender's case to the sentencing court, within the time periods described in Section 77-38b-205, to enter an order to establish a criminal accounts receivable for the offender in accordance with Section 77-32b-103; and

(i) if there is a challenge to an offender's criminal accounts receivable, the board shall refer the offender's case to the sentencing court, within the time periods described in Section 77-38b-205, to resolve the challenge to the criminal accounts receivable; and

(ii) if a sentencing court modifies a criminal accounts receivable after the offender is committed to prison, the sentencing court shall provide notice to the board of the modification.

(2) For an offender sentenced before July 1, 2021:

(a) the board may impose any court order for restitution;

(b) the board may order that a defendant make restitution for pecuniary damages that were not determined by the court, unless the board determines that restitution is inappropriate based upon application of the following criteria:

(i) if the offense resulted in damage to or loss or destruction of property of a victim of the offense, the cost of the damage or loss;

(ii) the cost of necessary medical and related professional services and devices relating to physical or mental health care, including nonmedical care and treatment rendered in accordance with a method of healing recognized by the law of the place of treatment;

(iii) the cost of necessary physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation;

(iv) the income lost by the victim as a result of the offense;

(v) the individual victim's reasonable determinable wages lost due to theft of or damage to tools or equipment items of a trade that were owned by the victim and were essential to the victim's current employment at the time of the offense;

(vi) the cost of necessary funeral and related services if the offense resulted in the death of a victim; and

(vii) expenses incurred by a victim in implementing reasonable security measures in response to the offense;

(c) except as provided in Subsection (2)(d), the board shall make all orders of restitution within 60 days after the termination or expiration of the defendant's sentence;

(d) if, upon termination or expiration of a defendant's sentence, the board has continuing jurisdiction over the defendant for a separate criminal offense, the board may defer making an order of restitution until 60 days after termination or expiration of all sentences for that defendant;

(e) if, upon termination or expiration of a defendant's sentence, the defendant owes outstanding fines, restitution, or other assessed costs, or if the board makes an order of restitution within 60 days after the termination or expiration of the defendant's sentence:
(i) the matter shall be referred to the district court for civil collection remedies;
(ii) the Board of Pardons and Parole shall forward a restitution order to the sentencing court to be entered on the judgment docket as a civil judgment of restitution; and
(iii) the judgment docket entry shall constitute a lien and is subject to the same rules as a judgment for money in a civil judgment; and
(f) if the board makes an order of restitution within 60 days after termination or expiration of the defendant's sentence, a defendant shall have 90 days after the board makes the order to file a petition for remittance in accordance with Section 77-32b-106;
(i) if a defendant timely files a petition for remittance, the board shall forward any unpaid amount of the restitution to the trial court to be entered on the judgment docket as a civil judgment of restitution within 30 days of resolving the defendant's petition; and
(ii) if the defendant does not timely file a petition for remittance, the board shall forward the unpaid amount of restitution to the trial court to be entered on the judgment docket as a civil judgment of restitution within 30 days of the expiration of the time for the defendant to file the petition.
(3) The board may enter an order to recover any cost or fee incurred by the department, or the state or any other agency, arising out of the offender's needs or conduct.

Amended by Chapter 526, 2025 General Session

77-27-7 Parole or hearing dates -- Interview -- Hearings -- Report of alienists -- Mental competency.licensed mental health professional -- Mental competency -- Rulemaking authority.
(1)
(a) For an offender serving a sentence upon conviction of a felony or class A misdemeanor offense, the board shall:
(i) within six months after the day on which the offender is committed to the custody of the department, set a hearing date to establish the offender's release date or date for rehearing; and
(ii) promptly notify the offender of the date described in Subsection (1)(a)(i).
(b)
(i) The board may delay setting the hearing date described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) if the offender has an additional pending criminal case at the time of the offender's commitment to the custody of the department.
(ii) For purposes of Subsection (1)(b)(i), a pending criminal case includes:
(A) uncharged conduct that is being screened for prosecution, unless one year has passed since the day on which the board was notified of the screening and no charge has been filed within that time period; and
(B) charged conduct that has not reached resolution.
(c) If the board delays setting the hearing date as described in Subsection (1)(b), the board shall set a hearing date no later than six months after the day on which the final criminal case described in Subsection (1)(b) has been resolved.
(d)

(i) If the board delays setting the hearing date as described in Subsection (1)(b), the board shall establish and use a process to monitor the progress of the pending criminal action by seeking or obtaining updates no less frequently than every six months.

(ii) The board shall establish the process described in Subsection (1)(d)(i) by creating rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(e) When determining the hearing date under Subsection (1)(a), the board shall consider:

(i) the type and severity of offenses;

(ii) prior criminal history;

(iii) criminogenic risk factors; and

(iv) evidence-based assessments.

(2)

(a) Before reaching a final decision to release an offender under this chapter, the chair shall cause the offender to appear before the board, the board's panel, or an appointed hearing officer, who shall personally interview the offender to consider the offender's fitness for release and verify as far as possible information furnished from other sources.

(b) An offender may waive a personal appearance before the board.

(c)

(i) An offender outside of the state shall, if ordered by the board, submit to a courtesy hearing to be held by the appropriate authority in the jurisdiction in which the offender is housed in lieu of an appearance before the board.

(ii) The offender shall be promptly notified in writing of the board's decision.

(3)

(a) In the case of an offender convicted of violating or attempting to violate any of the provisions of Section 76-5-301.1, Subsection 76-5-302(2)(b)(vi), Section 76-5-402, 76-5-402.1, 76-5-402.2, 76-5-402.3, 76-5-403, 76-5-403.1, 76-5-404, 76-5-404.1, 76-5-404.3, or 76-5-405, the chair may appoint one or more licensed mental health professionals who shall examine the offender within six months prior to a hearing at which an original parole date is granted on any offense listed in this Subsection (3).

(b)

(i) The licensed mental health professional shall report in writing the results of the examination to the board prior to the hearing.

(ii) The report of the appointed licensed mental health professional shall specifically address the question of the offender's current mental condition and attitudes as they relate to any danger the offender may pose to children or others if the offender is released on parole.

(4) A parolee may petition the board for termination of lifetime parole as provided in Section 76-3-202 in the case of a parolee convicted of a first degree felony violation, or convicted of attempting to violate Section 76-5-301.1, Subsection 76-5-302(2)(b)(vi), Section 76-5-402, 76-5-402.1, 76-5-402.2, 76-5-402.3, 76-5-403, 76-5-403.1, 76-5-404.1, 76-5-404.3, or 76-5-405, and released on parole before January 1, 2019.

(5) In a case in which an offender's mental competency is questioned by the board, the chair may appoint one or more licensed mental health professionals to examine the offender and report in writing to the board, specifically addressing the issue of competency.

(6) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the board shall make rules governing:

(a) the hearing process;

(b) licensed mental health professional examinations; and

(c) parolee petitions for termination of parole.

77-27-7.1 Appointment of counsel or lay representative -- Procedures.

(1) If the board in the board's discretion determines that an offender within the board's jurisdiction is unable, due to physical, mental, or other circumstances, to meaningfully participate in a board hearing or other board proceeding, the board may appoint, at the board's own expense, legal counsel or a lay representative to assist the offender.
(2) The board shall determine the scope of the representation described in Subsection (1) based on a review of the totality of the circumstances.
(3) This section does not prevent the board from:
  (a) appointing a licensed mental health professional in accordance with Section 77-27-7; or
  (b) otherwise seeking information concerning the offender from the department or another entity.

Enacted by Chapter 145, 2024 General Session

77-27-8 Record of hearing.

(1) A verbatim record of proceedings before the Board of Pardons and Parole shall be maintained by a suitable electronic recording device, except when the board dispenses with a record in a particular hearing or a portion of the proceedings.
(2) When the hearing involves the commutation of a death sentence, a certified shorthand reporter, in addition to electronic means, shall record all proceedings except when the board dispenses with a record for the purpose of deliberations in executive session. The compensation of the reporter shall be determined by the board. The reporter shall immediately file with the board the original record and when requested shall with reasonable diligence furnish a transcription or copy of the record upon payment of reasonable fees as determined by the board.
(3) When an inmate or offender affirms by affidavit that he is unable to pay for a copy of the record, the board may furnish a copy of the record, at the expense of the state, to the inmate or offender.

Amended by Chapter 110, 2010 General Session

77-27-9 Parole proceedings.

  (a) The Board of Pardons and Parole may parole any offender or terminate the sentence of any offender committed to a penal or correctional facility under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections except as provided in Subsection (2).
  (b) The board may not release any offender before the minimum term has been served unless the board finds mitigating circumstances which justify the release and unless the board has granted a full hearing, in open session, after previous notice of the time and location of the hearing, and recorded the proceedings and decisions of the board.
  (c) The board may not parole any offender or terminate the sentence of any offender unless the board has granted a full hearing, in open session, after previous notice of the time and location of the hearing, and recorded the proceedings and decisions of the board.
  (d) The release of an offender shall be at the initiative of the board, which shall consider each case as the offender becomes eligible. However, a prisoner may submit the prisoner's own application, subject to the rules of the board promulgated in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(a) An individual sentenced to prison prior to April 29, 1996, for a first degree felony involving child kidnapping, a violation of Section 76-5-301.1; aggravated kidnapping, a violation of Section 76-5-302; rape of a child, a violation of Section 76-5-402.1; object rape of a child, a violation of Section 76-5-402.3; sodomy upon a child, a violation of Section 76-5-403.1; aggravated sexual abuse of a child, a violation of Section 76-5-404.3; aggravated sexual assault, a violation of Section 76-5-405; or a prior offense as described in Section 76-3-407, may not be eligible for release on parole by the Board of Pardons and Parole until the offender has fully completed serving the minimum mandatory sentence imposed by the court. This Subsection (2)(a) supersedes any other provision of law.
(b) The board may not parole any offender or commute or terminate the sentence of any offender before the offender has served the minimum term for the offense, if the offender was sentenced prior to April 29, 1996, and if:
(i) the offender was convicted of forcible sexual abuse, forcible sodomy, rape, aggravated assault, kidnapping, aggravated kidnapping, or aggravated sexual assault as defined in Title 76, Chapter 5, Offenses Against the Individual; and
(ii) the victim of the offense was under 18 years old at the time the offense was committed.
(c) For a crime committed on or after April 29, 1996, but before January 1, 2019, the board may parole any offender under Subsections (2)(b)(i) and (ii) for lifetime parole as provided in this section.
(d) The board may not pardon or parole any offender or commute or terminate the sentence of any offender who is sentenced to life in prison without parole except as provided in Subsection (7).
(e) On or after April 27, 1992, the board may commute a sentence of death only to a sentence of life in prison without parole.
(f) The restrictions imposed in Subsections (2)(d) and (e) apply to all cases that come before the Board of Pardons and Parole on or after April 27, 1992.
(g) The board may not parole any offender convicted of a homicide unless:
(i) the remains of the victim have been recovered; or
(ii) the offender can demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the offender has cooperated in good faith in efforts to locate the remains.
(h) Subsection (2)(g) applies to any offender convicted of a homicide after February 25, 2021, or any offender who was incarcerated in a correctional facility on or after February 25, 2021, for a homicide offense.
(3) The board may rescind:
(a) an inmate's prison release date prior to the inmate being released from custody; or
(b) an offender's termination date from parole prior to the offender being terminated from parole.
(4)
(a) The board may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence, to administer oaths, and to take testimony for the purpose of any investigation by the board or any of the board's members or by a designated hearing examiner in the performance of the board's duties.
(b) A person who willfully disobeys a properly served subpoena issued by the board is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.
(5)
(a) The board may adopt rules consistent with law for the board's government, meetings and hearings, the conduct of proceedings before the board, the parole and pardon of offenders, the commutation and termination of sentences, and the general conditions under which parole may be granted and revoked.

(b) The rules shall ensure an adequate opportunity for victims to participate at hearings held under this chapter, as provided in Section 77-27-9.5.

(c) The rules may allow the board to establish reasonable and equitable time limits on the presentations by all participants in hearings held under this chapter.

(6) The board does not provide counseling or therapy for victims as a part of their participation in any hearing under this chapter.

(7) The board may parole a person sentenced to life in prison without parole if the board finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person is permanently incapable of being a threat to the safety of society.

Amended by Chapter 430, 2022 General Session

77-27-9.5 Victim may attend hearings.

(1) As used in this section, "hearing" means a hearing for a parole grant or revocation, or a rehearing of either of these if the offender is present.

(2)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), when a hearing is held regarding any offense committed by the defendant that involved the victim, the victim may attend the hearing to present the victim's views concerning the decisions to be made regarding the defendant.

(b)

(i) The victim may not attend a redetermination or special attention hearing if the offender is not present.

(ii) At that redetermination or special attention hearing, the board shall give consideration to any presentation previously given by the victim regarding that offender.

(3)

(a) The board shall send timely notice of the hearing to the victim as provided in Subsection (3)(c).

(b) The notice shall include:

(i) the date, time, and location of the hearing;

(ii) a clear statement of the reason for the hearing, including all offenses involved;

(iii) the statutes and rules applicable to the victim's participation in the hearing;

(iv) the address and telephone number of an office or person the victim may contact for further explanation of the procedure regarding victim participation in the hearing; and

(v) specific information about how, when, and where the victim may obtain the results of the hearing.

(c) The board may notify a victim through the board's website or through the mail or other electronic means available to the board.

(d) If the victim requests that a notification occur using a specific method offered by the board, the board shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate that request.

(e) If the victim is deceased, or the board is otherwise unable to contact the victim, the board shall make reasonable efforts to notify the victim's immediate family of the hearing.

(f) The victim may communicate with the board for consideration of continuance of the hearing if travel or other significant conflict prohibits the victim's attendance at the hearing.

(4) The victim, or family members if the victim is deceased or unable to attend due to physical incapacity, may:

(a) attend the hearing to observe;

(b) make a statement to the board, or the board's appointed examiner, in person or through a representative appointed by the victim or the victim's family; and
(c) remain present for the hearing if the victim appoints another to make a statement on the victim's behalf.
(5) The statement may be presented:
(a) as a written statement, which may also be read aloud, if the presenter desires; or
(b) as an oral statement presented by the person selected under Subsection (4).
(6) The victim may be accompanied by a member of his family or another individual, present to provide emotional support to the victim.
(7) The victim may, upon request, testify outside the presence of the defendant but a separate hearing may not be held for this purpose.
(8)
(a) If a victim does not attend a hearing, the victim may provide a written statement that complies with board rules.
(b) If the victim does not offer a verbal or written statement at the time of the hearing, the board shall consider any statement from the victim that was previously provided to the board.
(c) The board may not afford a written statement provided by a victim less weight than a verbal statement solely because the statement is written.

77-27-9.7 Victim right to notification of release -- Notice by board.

(1)
(a) In accordance with Subsection 77-38-104(1)(p), the board shall notify a victim of the victim's right to be informed, upon request, of other releases of the offender under Section 64-13-14.7.
(b) The board may provide the notification to the victim as described in Subsection 77-27-9.5(3)(c).
(2) The board may include the notification under Subsection (1) with the notification sent under Subsection 77-27-9.5(3).
(3) The board shall coordinate with the Department of Corrections to ensure notice under this section is provided to a victim.

Amended by Chapter 434, 2024 General Session

77-27-10 Conditions of parole -- Inmate agreement to warrant -- Rulemaking -- Intensive early release parole program.
(1)
(a) When the Board of Pardons and Parole releases an offender on parole, it shall, in accordance with Section 64-14-204, issue to the parolee a certificate setting forth the conditions of parole, including the graduated and evidence-based responses to a violation of a condition of parole established in the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1, which the offender shall accept and agree to as evidenced by the offender's signature affixed to the agreement.
(b) The parole agreement shall require that the inmate agree in writing that the board may issue a warrant and conduct a parole revocation hearing if:

(i) the board determines after the grant of parole that the inmate willfully provided to the board false or inaccurate information that the board finds was significant in the board's determination to grant parole; or

(ii)

(A) the inmate has engaged in criminal conduct prior to the granting of parole; and

(B) the board did not have information regarding the conduct at the time parole was granted.

(c)

(i) A copy of the agreement shall be delivered to the Department of Corrections and a copy shall be given to the parolee.

(ii) The original agreement shall remain with the board's file.

(a) If an offender convicted of violating or attempting to violate Section 76-5-301.1, 76-5-302, 76-5-402, 76-5-402.1, 76-5-402.2, 76-5-402.3, 76-5-403, 76-5-403.1, 76-5-404, 76-5-404.1, 76-5-404.3, or 76-5-405, is released on parole, the board shall order outpatient mental health counseling and treatment as a condition of parole.

(b) The board shall develop standards and conditions of parole under this Subsection (2) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(c) This Subsection (2) does not apply to intensive early release parole.

(3)

(i) In addition to the conditions set out in Subsection (1), the board may place offenders in an intensive early release parole program.

(ii) The board shall determine the conditions of parole which are reasonably necessary to protect the community as well as to protect the interests of the offender and to assist the offender to lead a law-abiding life.

(b) The offender is eligible for this program only if the offender:

(i) has not been convicted of a sexual offense; or

(ii) has not been sentenced pursuant to Section 76-3-406.

(c) The department shall:

(i) make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, for operation of the program;

(ii) adopt and implement internal management policies for operation of the program;

(iii) determine whether or not to refer an offender into this program within 120 days from the date the offender is committed to prison by the sentencing court; and

(iv) make the final recommendation to the board regarding the placement of an offender into the program.

(d) The department may not consider credit for time served in a county jail awaiting trial or sentencing when calculating the 120-day period.

(e) The prosecuting attorney or sentencing court may refer an offender for consideration by the department for participation in the program.

(f) The board shall determine whether or not to place an offender into this program within 30 days of receiving the department's recommendation.

(4) This program shall be implemented by the department within the existing budget.

(5) In addition to the conditions of parole described in this section, and if a condition of the offender's parole is routine or random drug testing, the board shall order the offender to sign a waiver consistent with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1320d et seq., allowing the treatment provider conducting the drug testing to notify the offender's supervising parole officer regarding the results of the offender's drug testing.

(6) During the time the offender is on parole, the department shall collect from the offender the monthly supervision fee authorized by Section 64-14-204.
(7) When a parolee commits a violation of the parole agreement, the department may:
(a) respond in accordance with the graduated and evidence-based responses established in accordance with Section 64-14-204; or
(b) when the graduated and evidence-based responses established in accordance with Section 64-14-204 indicate, refer the parolee to the Board of Pardons and Parole for revocation of parole.

77-27-10.5 Special condition of parole -- Penalty.
(1) In accordance with Section 77-27-5, the Board of Pardons and Parole may release the defendant on parole and as a condition of parole, the board may order the defendant to be prohibited from directly or indirectly engaging in any profit or benefit generating activity relating to the publication of facts or circumstances pertaining to the defendant's involvement in the criminal act for which the defendant is convicted.
(2) The order may prohibit the defendant from contracting with any person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, or other legal entity with respect to the commission and reenactment of the defendant's criminal conduct, by way of a movie, book, magazine article, tape recording, phonograph record, radio, or television presentations, live entertainment of any kind, or from the expression of the defendant's thoughts, feelings, opinions, or emotions regarding the criminal conduct.
(3) The board may order that the prohibition includes any event undertaken and experienced by the defendant while avoiding apprehension from the authorities or while facing criminal charges.
(4) The board may order that any action taken by the defendant by way of execution of power of attorney, creation of corporate entities, or other action to avoid compliance with the board's order shall be grounds for revocation of parole as provided in Section 77-27-11.
(5) The Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202 shall notify the board of any alleged violation of the board's order under this section.
(6) The violation of the board's order shall be considered a violation of parole.
(7) For purposes of this section:
(a) "convicted" means a conviction by entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, guilty with a mental condition, no contest, and conviction of any crime or offense; and
(b) "defendant" means the convicted defendant, the defendant's assignees, and representatives acting on the defendant's authority.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-27-11 Revocation of parole.
(1) The board may revoke the parole of any individual who is found to have violated any condition of the individual's parole.
(2)
(a) If a parolee is confined by the department or any law enforcement official for a suspected violation of parole, the department:

(i) shall immediately report the alleged violation to the board, by means of an incident report; and
(ii) make any recommendation regarding the incident.
(b) A parolee may not be held for a period longer than 72 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, without first obtaining a warrant.
(c) The board shall expeditiously consider warrant requests from the department under Section 64-14-205.
(3) Any member of the board may:
(a) issue a warrant based upon a certified warrant request to a peace officer or other persons authorized to arrest, detain, and return to actual custody a parolee; and
(b) upon arrest of the parolee, determine, or direct the department to determine, if there is probable cause to believe that the parolee has violated the conditions of the parolee's parole.
(4) Upon a finding of probable cause, a parolee may be further detained or imprisoned again pending a hearing by the board or the board's appointed examiner.
(5)
(a) The board or the board's appointed examiner shall conduct a hearing on the alleged violation, and the parolee shall have written notice of the time and location of the hearing, the alleged violation of parole, and a statement of the evidence against the parolee.
(b) The board or the board's appointed examiner shall provide the parolee the opportunity:
(i) to be present;
(ii) to be heard;
(iii) to present witnesses and documentary evidence;
(iv) to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, absent a showing of good cause for not allowing the confrontation; and
(v) to be represented by counsel when the parolee is mentally incompetent or pleading not guilty.
(c)
(i) If heard by an appointed examiner, the examiner shall make a written decision which shall include a statement of the facts relied upon by the examiner in determining the guilt or innocence of the parolee on the alleged violation and a conclusion as to whether the alleged violation occurred.
(ii) The appointed examiner shall then refer the case to the board for disposition.
(d)
(i) A final decision shall be reached by a majority vote of the sitting members of the board.
(ii) A parolee shall be promptly notified in writing of the board's findings and decision.
(6)
(a) If a parolee is found to have violated the terms of parole, the board, at the board's discretion, may:
(i) return the parolee to parole;
(ii) modify the payment schedule for the parolee's criminal accounts receivable in accordance with Section 77-32b-105;
(iii) order the parolee to pay pecuniary damages that are proximately caused by a defendant's violation of the terms of the defendant's parole;
(iv) order the parolee to be imprisoned, but not to exceed the maximum term of imprisonment for the parolee's sentence; or
(v) order any other conditions for the parolee.
(b) If the board returns the parolee to parole, the length of parole may not be for a period of time that exceeds the length of the parolee's maximum sentence.

(c) If the board revokes parole for a violation and orders incarceration, the board may impose a period of incarceration:
(i) consistent with the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1; or
(ii) subject to Subsection (6)(a)(iv), impose a period of incarceration that differs from the guidelines.
(d) The following periods of time constitute service of time toward the period of incarceration imposed under Subsection (6)(c):
(i) time served in jail by a parolee awaiting a hearing or decision concerning revocation of parole; and
(ii) time served in jail by a parolee due to a violation of parole under Subsection 64-13-6(2).

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-27-12 Parole discharge--Sentence termination.

Any person released on parole shall be discharged from parole or have the person's sentence terminated subject to the conditions and limitations contained in Section 76-3-202.

77-27-13 Board of Pardons and Parole -- Duties of the judiciary, the Department of Corrections, and law enforcement -- Removal of material from files.

(1) The chief executive officer and employees of each penal or correctional institution shall cooperate fully with the board, permit board members free access to offenders, and furnish the board with pertinent information regarding an offender's physical, mental, and social history and his institutional record of behavior, discipline, work, efforts of self-improvement, and attitude toward society.
(2)
(a) The department shall:
(i) furnish any pertinent information , within the department's possession, to the board; and
(ii) provide a copy of the presentence report, any available information within the department's possession concerning the impact a crime may have had upon the victim or the victim's family, and any other investigative reports to the board.
(b) In all cases where a presentence report has not been completed, the department shall:
(i) make a postsentence report ; and
(ii) provide a copy of the postsentence report to the board as soon as possible.
(c) The department shall provide the board, upon request, any additional investigations or information needed by the board to reach a decision or conduct a hearing.
(3) The department shall make the department's facilities available to the board to carry out the board's functions.
(4) Law enforcement officials responsible for the offender's arrest, conviction, and sentence shall furnish all pertinent data requested by the board.
(5)
(a) If an indeterminate sentence is imposed in a case, the court shall forward, within 30 days after the day on which the sentence was imposed, to the board:
(i) a record of the judgment and commitment;
(ii) if available and in the court's possession, a victim impact statement referring to any loss suffered by a victim; and

(iii) any other record that the court believes will be relevant to the board, including a statement:
(A) proposing the term for which, in the court's opinion, the offender should be imprisoned;
(B) any information the court may have regarding the character of the offender; and
(C) any mitigating or aggravating circumstances connected with the offense for which the offender has been convicted.
(b) If the court amends an order for a judgment and commitment, the court shall forward the amended order to the board within 30 days after the day on which the amended order is entered.
(6) If an indeterminate sentence is imposed in a case and the offender is committed to prison, the prosecuting attorney shall forward, in writing and within 30 days after the day on which the sentence was imposed, to the board:
(a) a victim impact statement referring to any loss suffered by a victim; and
(b) any other information the prosecuting attorney believes will be relevant to the board, including a summary and recommendations related to the case.
(7) Notwithstanding Subsection (5) or (6), the board may remove from the board's files any:
(a) statement that the board is not going to rely on in the board's decision-making process;
(b) information found to be incorrect by a court, the board, or an administrative agency; or
(c) duplicative materials.
(8) The chief executive officer of any penal or correctional institution shall permit offenders to send mail to the board without censorship.

77-27-24 Out-of-state supervision of probationers and parolees -- Compacts.

The governor of this state is authorized to execute a compact on behalf of the State of Utah with any other state legally joining therein. "State," as used in this section, includes any state, territory or possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia. The compact shall be in substantially the following form:
(1) A compact entered into by and among the contracting states, signatories thereto, with the consent of the Congress of the United States of America, granted by an act entitled An Act Granting the Consent of Congress to any two or more States to enter into Agreements or Compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes.
(2) The contracting states solemnly agree:
(a) That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called sending state) to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called receiving state) while on probation or parole, if:
(i) such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there; or
(ii) though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there, the receiving state consents to such person being sent there.
(A) Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person.
(B) A resident of the receiving state, within the meaning of this section, is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than one year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state more than six continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

(b) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.

(c) That duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole from such sending state. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are expressly waived on the part of states party hereto as to such persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation (or parole) shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state; provided if at the time when a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.

(d) That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all states parties to this compact without interference.

(e) That the governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact.

(f) That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

(g) That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. That duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, on sending six months' notice in writing of intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party thereto.

Amended by Chapter 306, 2007 General Session

77-27-25 Amendments to interstate compact -- Transfer of prisoners -- Costs -- Supplementary agreements.

The governor is authorized, on behalf of the state, to execute amendments to the compacts provided for in Section 77-27-24, with any other state legally joined therein. "State," as used in this section, includes any state, territory or possession of the United States and the District of Columbia. The amendments to the compact shall be in form substantially as follows:

(a) Whenever the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities in a sending state shall determine incarceration of a probationer or reincarceration of a parolee is necessary or desirable, said officials may direct that the incarceration or reincarceration be in a prison or other correctional institution within the territory of the receiving state, such receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

(b) As used in this amendment, the term "receiving state" shall be construed to mean any state, other than the sending state, in which a parolee or probationer may be found, provided that said state is a party to this amendment.

(c) Every state which adopts this amendment shall designate at least one of its correctional institutions as a "Compact Institution" and shall incarcerate persons therein as provided in (a) hereof unless the sending and receiving state in question shall make specific contractual arrangements to the contrary. All states party to this amendment shall have access to "Compact Institutions" at all reasonable hours for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and for the purpose of visiting such of said state's prisoners as may be confined in the institution.

(d) Persons confined in "Compact Institutions" pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed from said "Compact Institution" for transfer to a prison or other correctional institution within the sending state, for return to probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state.

(e) All persons who may be confined in a "Compact Institution" pursuant to the provisions of this amendment shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner. The fact of incarceration or reincarceration in a receiving state shall not deprive any person so incarcerated or reincarcerated of any rights which said person would have had if incarcerated or reincarcerated in an appropriate institution of the sending state; nor shall any agreement to submit to incarceration or reincarceration pursuant to the terms of this amendment be construed as a waiver of any rights which the prisoner would have had if he had been incarcerated or reincarcerated in an appropriate institution of the sending state, except that the hearing or hearings, if any, to which a parolee or probationer may be entitled, (prior to incarceration or reincarceration) by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate judicial or administrative officers of the receiving state. In this event, said judicial and administrative officers shall act as agents of the sending state after consultation with appropriate officers of the sending state.

(f) Any receiving state incurring costs or other expenses under this amendment shall be reimbursed in the amount of such costs or other expenses by the sending state unless the states concerned shall specifically otherwise agree. Any two or more states party to this amendment may enter into supplementary agreements determining a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

(g) This amendment shall take effect when ratified by any two or more states party to the compact and shall be effective as to those states which have specifically ratified this amendment. Rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the terms of this amendment may be promulgated by the appropriate officers of those states which have ratified this amendment.

77-27-26 Deputization of agents to effect return of parole and probation violators.

(a) The official administrator of the interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers is authorized and empowered to deputize any person to act as an officer and agent of this state in carrying out the return of any person who has violated the terms and conditions of parole or probation as granted by this state.

(b) In any matter relating to the return of a violator described in Subsection (1)(a), any deputized agent shall have all the powers of a peace officer of this state.

(2) Any deputization of any person pursuant to this section shall be in writing and the deputized agent shall:

(a) carry formal evidence of deputization; and
(b) produce the evidence of deputization upon demand.
(3) The official administrator of the interstate compact is authorized, subject to the approval of the governor, to enter into contracts with similar officials of any other state or states for the purpose of sharing an equitable portion of the cost of effecting the return of any person who has violated the terms and conditions of parole or probation as granted by this state.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-27-27 Retaking or reincarceration for parole or probation violations -- Hearing and notice to sending state -- Detention of parolee or probationer.

Where supervision of a parolee or probationer is being administered pursuant to the interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers, the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities in this state shall notify the compact administrator of the sending state whenever, in their view, consideration should be given to retaking or reincarceration for a parole or probation violation. Prior to the giving of any such notification, a hearing shall be held in accordance with this act within a reasonable time, unless such hearing is waived by the parolee or probationer. The appropriate officer or officers of this state shall as soon as practicable, following termination of any hearing, report to the sending state, furnish a copy of the hearing record, and make recommendations regarding the disposition to be made of the parolee or probationer by the sending state. Pending any proceeding pursuant to this section, the appropriate officers of this state may take custody of and detain the parolee or probationer involved for a period not to exceed 15 days prior to the hearing and, if it appears to the hearing officer or officers that retaking or reincarceration is likely to follow, for such reasonable period after the hearing or waiver as may be necessary to arrange for the retaking or reincarceration.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-27-28 Hearing officer.

Any hearing pursuant to this act shall be heard by the administrator of the interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers, a deputy of the administrator, or any other person authorized pursuant to the laws of this state to hear cases of alleged parole or probation violation, except that no hearing officer shall be the person making the allegation of violation.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-27-29 Rights of parolee or probationer -- Record of proceedings.

(1) With respect to any hearing pursuant to the Uniform Act for Out-of-State Supervision, the parolee or probationer shall have the following rights:
(a) reasonable notice in writing of the nature and content of the allegations to be made, including notice that its purpose is to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that he has committed a violation that may lead to a revocation of parole or probation;
(b) be permitted to advise with any persons whose assistance he reasonably desires, prior to the hearing;
(c) to confront and examine any persons who have made allegations against him, unless the hearing officer determines that such confrontation would present a substantial present or subsequent danger of harm to such person or persons; and

(d) may admit, deny, or explain the violation alleged and may present proof, including affidavits and other evidence, in support of his contentions.
(2) A record of the proceedings shall be made and preserved.

Amended by Chapter 306, 2007 General Session

77-27-30 Violation by parolee or probationer supervised in another state -- Hearing in other state -- Procedure upon receipt of record from other state.

In any case of alleged parole or probation violation by a person being supervised in another state pursuant to the interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers, any appropriate judicial or administrative officer or agency in another state is authorized to hold a hearing on the alleged violation. Upon receipt of the record of a parole or probation violation hearing held in another state pursuant to a statute substantially similar to this act, the record shall have the same standing and effect as though the proceeding of which it is a record was had before the appropriate officer or officers in this state, and any recommendations contained in or accompanying the record shall be fully considered by the appropriate officer or officers of this state in making disposition of the matter.

77-27-32 Reporting requirements.

(1) The board shall publicly display metrics on the board's website, including:
(a) a measure of recidivism;
(b) a measure of time under board jurisdiction;
(c) a measure of prison releases by category;
(d) a measure of parole revocations;
(e) a measure of alignment of board decisions with the adult sentencing and supervision length guidelines, as defined in Section 63M-7-401.1; and
(f) a measure of the aggregate reasons for departing from the guidelines described in Subsection (1)(e).
(2) On or before September 30 of each year, the board shall submit to the commission and the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Interim Committee a report for the previous fiscal year that summarizes the metrics in Subsection (1).

Chapter 28
Western Interstate Corrections Compact

77-28-1 Compact enacted into law -- Text of compact.

The Western Interstate Corrections Compact as contained herein is enacted into law and entered into on behalf of this state with any and all other states legally joining therein in a form substantially as follows:

ARTICLE I
PURPOSE AND POLICY

The party states, desiring by common action to improve their institutional facilities and provide programs of sufficiently high quality for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of cooperation with one another, thereby serving the best interests of such offenders and of society. The purpose of this compact is to provide for the development and execution of such programs of cooperation for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of offenders.

ARTICLE II
DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "State" means a state of the United States or, subject to the limitation contained in Article VII, Guam.

(b) "Sending state" means a state party to this compact in which conviction was had.

(c) "Receiving state" means a state party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction was had.

(d) "Inmate" means a male or female offender who is under sentence to or confined in a prison or other correctional institution.

(e) "Institution" means any prison, reformatory or other correctional facility (including but not limited to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective) in which inmates may lawfully be confined.

ARTICLE III
CONTRACTS

(a) Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:

(1) Its duration.

(2) Payments to be made to the receiving state by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance.

(3) Participation in programs of inmate employment, if any; the disposition or crediting of any payments received by inmates on account thereof; and the crediting of proceeds from or disposal of any products resulting therefrom.

(4) Delivery and retaking of inmates.

(5) Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities and rights of the sending and receiving states.

(b) Prior to the construction or completion of construction of any institution or addition thereto by a party state, any other party state or states may contract therewith for the enlargement of the planned capacity of the institution or addition thereto, or for the inclusion therein of particular equipment or structures, and for the reservation of a specific percentum of the capacity of the institution to be kept available for use by inmates of the sending state or states so contracting. Any sending state so contracting may, to the extent that money is legally available therefor, pay to the receiving state, a reasonable sum as consideration for such enlargement of capacity, or provision of equipment or structures, and reservation of capacity. Such payment may be in a lump sum or in installments as provided in the contract.

(c) The terms and provisions of this compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto, and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.

ARTICLE IV

PROCEDURE AND RIGHTS

(a) Whenever the duly constituted judicial or administrative authorities in a state party to this compact, and which has entered into a contract pursuant to Article III, shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary in order to provide adequate quarters and care or desirable in order to provide an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution within the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

(b) The appropriate officials of any state party to this compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institutions in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.

(c) Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state; provided that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of Article III.

(d) Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this compact including a conduct record of each inmate and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have the benefit of his or her record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.

(e) All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be cared for and treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.

(f) Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state, or of the receiving state if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record together with any recommendations of the hearing officials shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state. Costs of records made pursuant to this subdivision shall be borne by the sending state.

(g) Any inmate confined pursuant to this compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.

(h) Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or his status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which he could have participated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state.

(i) The parent, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise, or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in his exercise of any powers in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact.

ARTICLE V

ACTS NOT REVIEWABLE IN RECEIVING STATE -- EXTRADITION

(a) Any decision of the sending state in respect of any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this compact shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if at any time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge or if the inmate is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact without interference.

(b) An inmate who escapes from an institution in which he is confined pursuant to this compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee.

ARTICLE VI

FEDERAL AID

Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant hereto and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.

ARTICLE VII

ENTRY INTO FORCE

This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two contiguous states from among the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming. For the purposes of this article, Alaska and Hawaii shall be deemed contiguous to each other; to any and all of the states of California, Oregon and Washington; and to Guam. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states, or any other state contiguous to at least one party state upon similar action by such state. Guam may become party to this compact by taking action similar to that provided for joinder by any other eligible party state and upon the consent of congress to such joinder. For the purpose of this article, Guam shall be deemed contiguous to Alaska, Hawaii, California, Oregon and Washington.

ARTICLE VIII

WITHDRAWAL AND TERMINATION

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate officials of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until two years after the notices provided in said statute have been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before the effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE IX

OTHER ARRANGEMENTS UNAFFECTED

Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a non-party state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of cooperative institutional arrangements.

ARTICLE X

CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

Amended by Chapter 342, 2011 General Session

77-28-2 Department of Corrections -- Authority to transfer inmates.

The Department of Corrections may transfer an inmate (as defined in Article II (d) of the Western Interstate Corrections Compact) to any institution within or without this state if this state has entered into a contract or contracts for the confinement of inmates in said institutions pursuant to Article III of the Western Interstate Corrections Compact.

Amended by Chapter 212, 1985 General Session

77-28-3 Duties and powers of courts, departments, agencies and officers in enforcing and effecting compact.

The courts, departments, agencies and officers of this state and its subdivisions shall enforce this compact and shall do all things appropriate to the effectuation of its purposes and intent which may be within their respective jurisdictions including but not limited to the making and submission of such reports as are required by the compact.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-28-4 Board of Pardons and Parole -- Authority to hold hearings.

The Board of Pardons and Parole is hereby authorized and directed to hold such hearings as may be requested by any other party state pursuant to Article IV (f) of the Western Interstate Corrections Compact. The board is further authorized to travel to any state who is a party to the compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement, for the purpose of holding any hearing to which an inmate is entitled by the laws of Utah.

Amended by Chapter 13, 1994 General Session

77-28-5 Governor -- Power to enter into contracts.

The governor is empowered to enter into such contracts on behalf of this state as may be appropriate to implement the participation of this state in the Western Interstate Corrections Compact pursuant to Article III thereof.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

Chapter 28a
Interstate Corrections Compact

77-28a-1 Compact entered into law -- Text of compact.

The interstate compact on corrections as contained herein is enacted into law and entered into on behalf of this state with any and all other states legally joining therein in a form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE CORRECTIONS COMPACT

ARTICLE I

PURPOSE AND POLICY

The party states, desiring by common action to fully utilize and improve their institutional facilities and provide adequate programs for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of co-operation with one another, thereby serving the best interests of such offenders and of society and effecting economies in capital expenditures and operational costs. The purpose of this Compact is to provide for the mutual development and execution of such programs of co-operation for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of offenders with the most economical use of human and material resources.

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

As used in this Compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "State" means a state of the United States, the United States of America, a Territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico;

(b) "Sending state" means a state party to this Compact in which conviction or court commitment was had;

(c) "Receiving state" means a state party to this Compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction or court commitment was had;

(d) "Inmate" means a male or female offender who is committed, under sentence to or confined in a penal or correctional institution;

(e) "Institution" means any penal or correctional facility, including but not limited to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective, in which inmates as defined in (d) above may lawfully be confined.

ARTICLE III

CONTRACTS

(a) Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:

(1) Its duration;

(2) Payments to be made to the receiving state by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance;

(3) Participation in programs of inmate employment, if any, the disposition or crediting of any payments received by inmates on account thereof, and the crediting of proceeds from or disposal of any products resulting therefrom;

(4) Delivery and retaking of inmates;

(5) Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities and rights of the sending and receiving states.

(b) The terms and provisions of this Compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto, and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.

ARTICLE IV

PROCEDURES AND RIGHTS

(a) Whenever the duly constituted authorities in a state party to this Compact, and which has entered into a contract pursuant to Article III, shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary or desirable in order to provide adequate quarters and care of an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution with the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

(b) The appropriate officials of any state party to this Compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institution in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.

(c) Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this Compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state; provided, that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of Article III.

(d) Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this Compact including a conduct record of each inmate and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have official review of his or her record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.

(e) All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this Compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.

(f) Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this Compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state, or of the receiving state, if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record together with any recommendations of the hearing officials shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state.

(g) Any inmate confined pursuant to this Compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.

(h) Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this Compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or his status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which he could have participated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state.

(i) The parent, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise, or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in his exercise of any powers in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this Compact.

ARTICLE V

ACTS NOT REVIEWABLE IN RECEIVING STATE: EXTRADITION

(a) Any decision of the sending state in respect of any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this Compact shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if at the time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge or if the inmate is formally accused of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this Compact through any and all states party to this Compact without interference.

(b) An inmate who escapes from an institution in which he is confined pursuant to this Compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition or rendition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee.

ARTICLE VI

FEDERAL AID

Any state party to this Compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this Compact or any contract pursuant hereto and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this Compact may participate in any such federally aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision; provided, that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.

ARTICLE VII

ENTRY INTO FORCE

This Compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this Compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.

ARTICLE VIII

WITHDRAWAL AND TERMINATION

This Compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the Compact to the appropriate officials of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until one year after the notices provided in said statute have been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before the effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this Compact.

ARTICLE IX

OTHER ARRANGEMENTS UNAFFECTED

Nothing contained in this Compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a non-party state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of co-operative institutional arrangements.

ARTICLE X

CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this Compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this Compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this Compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this Compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the Compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

ARTICLE XI

An inmate must request a transfer in writing before such a transfer can be made pursuant to Article IV.

Enacted by Chapter 38, 1982 General Session

77-28a-2 Department of Corrections -- Authority to transfer inmates.

The Department of Corrections may transfer an inmate, as defined in Subparagraph (d) of Article II of the Interstate Corrections Compact, to any institution within or without this state if this state has entered into any contracts for the confinement of inmates in said institutions pursuant to Article III of that Compact.

Amended by Chapter 212, 1985 General Session

77-28a-3 Duties and powers of courts, departments, agencies and officers in enforcing and effecting compact.

The courts, departments, agencies and officers of this state and its political subdivisions shall enforce this Compact and shall do all things necessary and appropriate to the effectuation of the purposes and intent of this Compact which may be within their respective jurisdictions including, but not limited to, the making and submission of any reports required by that Compact.

Enacted by Chapter 38, 1982 General Session

77-28a-4 Board of Pardons and Parole -- Authority to hold hearings.

The Board of Pardons and Parole is hereby authorized and directed to hold such hearings as may be requested by any other party state pursuant to Article IV (a) of the Interstate Corrections Compact. The board is further authorized to travel to any state which is a party to that Compact and to which an inmate is sent for confinement, for the purpose of holding any hearing to which that inmate is entitled by the laws of Utah.

Amended by Chapter 13, 1994 General Session

77-28a-5 Governor -- Power to enter into contracts.

The governor is empowered to enter into such contracts on behalf of this state as may be appropriate to implement its participation in the Interstate Corrections Compact pursuant to Article III thereof.

Amended by Chapter 320, 1983 General Session

77-28b-1 Definitions.

(1) "Assurance" means a special condition concerning the confinement or release of an offender which must be met prior to the release of the offender.
(2) "Offender" means a juvenile certified to be tried as an adult or an adult convicted of any criminal offense under Utah law.
(3) "Receiving country" means the jurisdiction to which the offender is to be transferred.
(4) "Sending state" means the jurisdiction from which the offender is to be transferred.

Enacted by Chapter 324, 1990 General Session

77-28b-2 Director's authority.

The director of the Department of Corrections may transfer offenders having foreign citizenship status to countries of citizenship under this chapter if a treaty exists between the United States and the foreign country.

Enacted by Chapter 324, 1990 General Session

77-28b-3 Eligibility criteria for international transfer.

An offender must meet the following criteria before being considered for an international transfer:

(1) the offender is a citizen of the receiving country;
(2) the offender consents to transfer to the offender's country of citizenship;
(3) the offense committed by the offender constitutes a criminal offense under the laws of the receiving state;
(4) the offender does not have fewer than 12 months remaining on the offender's sentence at the time of the application for transfer;
(5) the offender is not under a sentence of death;
(6) the offender does not have collateral attacks or appeals on either the sentence or conviction pending;
(7) all other provisions of the imposed sentence such as fines, restitution, and penalties are paid in full;
(8) there are no detainers, wanted notices based on criminal convictions, indictments, informations, complaints, or parole or probation violation allegations pending against the offender; and
(9) the offender meets all of the eligibility requirements of the treaty with the offender's country.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-28b-4 Role of the classification officer.

(1) The classification officer of each correctional institution shall be provided with the eligibility requirements of each prisoner transfer treaty.
(2) The classification officer shall forward Form I, Transfer Inquiry, to all offenders identified as having national or citizenship status in a party nation.
(3) Upon receipt of Form I, Transfer Inquiry, the offender may indicate that the offender is:
  (a) interested in pursuing a transfer by signing Form I and returning it to the classification officer along with proof of citizenship; or
  (b) not interested in pursuing a transfer by returning Form I to the classification officer without proof of citizenship.
(4) If the offender indicates on Form I, Transfer Inquiry, that the offender is interested in pursuing a transfer, the institution classification officer shall complete Form II, Inmate Information Provided to Treaty Nation, and Form III, Notice Regarding International Prisoner Transfer.
(5) The following forms, provided by the federal government, shall be completed and forwarded in triplicate by the classification officer to the superintendent of the institution:
  (a) Form I, Transfer Inquiry;
  (b) Form II, Inmate Information Provided to Treaty Nation;
  (c) Form III, Notice Regarding International Prisoner Transfer;
  (d) proof of citizenship;
  (e) statement of offender's eligibility;

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-28b-5 Role of institution warden.

The warden shall sign Form III, Notice Regarding International Prisoner Transfer, and forward the application and the material required in Section 77-28b-4 in triplicate to the Department of Corrections Inmate Placement Program Bureau.

Enacted by Chapter 324, 1990 General Session

77-28b-6 Role of Inmate Placement Program Bureau.

(1) The Department of Corrections Inmate Placement Program Bureau shall:
(a) investigate the request to ensure that all eligibility requirements are met;
(b) request a records check to verify records listed in Section 77-28b-3;
(c) review application and materials for completeness and compliance with treaty terms;
(d) develop and recommend assurances, where indicated; and
(e) provide written notification of the transfer request to the following entities and receive objections or other comments for 15 business days after sending the notification:
(i) attorney general;
(ii) prosecuting law enforcement agency;
(iii) prosecutor; and
(iv) sentencing court.
(2) If the Inmate Placement Program Bureau investigation determines that the application and materials are incomplete or do not comply with the terms of the treaty, the application shall be rejected and returned to the institution in which the inmate is incarcerated.
(3) If the investigation of the bureau determines the application and materials are complete and in compliance with the terms of the treaty, the application and materials shall be forwarded to the director of the Department of Corrections.

Enacted by Chapter 324, 1990 General Session

77-28b-7 Role of director.

(1) The director of the Department of Corrections shall review the application and materials. Upon the director's approval the application and materials shall be forwarded to the governor for authorization to transfer.
(2) Applications that are not approved by the director shall be returned to the sending institution and the inmate shall be notified.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-28b-8 Referral to the United States Department of Justice, Office of International Affairs.

(1) Upon receipt of the governor's authorization for international transfer, the application and materials shall be forwarded to the United States Department of Justice, Office of International Affairs, by the Inmate Placement Program Bureau.
(2) The bureau shall notify the inmate and the warden of the sending institution of the decision of the application for international transfer.
(3) All arrangements regarding the treaty process and proposed assurances shall be negotiated between the bureau and the United States Department of Justice, Office of International Affairs.

Enacted by Chapter 324, 1990 General Session

77-28b-9 Transfer of offender.
(1) If the inmate is accepted for international transfer by the United States Department of Justice, Office of International Affairs, the offender shall be transported by the Department of Corrections to the federal district court for a verification hearing to ensure the offender consents to the international transfer.
(2) The Department of Corrections shall then relinquish jurisdiction over the offender to the United States Department of Justice.

Chapter 28c
Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision

Part 1
Purpose and Functions

77-28c-101 Title.
This chapter is known as the "Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision."

Enacted by Chapter 45, 2001 General Session

77-28c-102 Preamble.

PREAMBLE

Whereas: The Interstate Compact for the supervision of Parolees and Probationers was established in 1937, it is the earliest corrections "compact" established among the states and has not been amended since its adoption over 62 years ago;

Whereas: This compact is the only vehicle for the controlled movement of adult parolees and probationers across state lines, and it currently has jurisdiction over more than a quarter of a million offenders;

Whereas: The complexities of the compact have become more difficult to administer, and many jurisdictions have expanded supervision expectations to include currently unregulated practices such as victim input, victim notification requirements, and sex offender registration;

Whereas: After hearings, national surveys, and a detailed study by a task force appointed by the National Institute of Corrections, the overwhelming recommendation has been to amend the document to bring about an effective management capacity that addresses public safety concerns and offender accountability;

Whereas: Upon the adoption of this Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision, it is the intention of the legislature to repeal the previous Interstate Compact for the Supervision of Parolees and Probationers on the effective date of this Compact.

Enacted by Chapter 45, 2001 General Session

77-28c-103 Compact.

ARTICLE I PURPOSE

(a) The compacting states to this Interstate Compact recognize that each state is responsible for the supervision of adult offenders in the community who are authorized pursuant to the by-laws and rules of this compact to travel across state lines both to and from each compacting state in such a manner as to track the location of offenders, transfer supervision authority in an orderly and efficient manner, and when necessary, return offenders to the originating jurisdictions. The compacting states also recognize that Congress, by enacting the Crime Control Act, 4 U.S.C. Section 112 (1965), has authorized and encouraged compacts for cooperative efforts and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime.

(b) It is the purpose of this compact and the Interstate Commission created hereunder, through means of joint and cooperative action among the compacting states: To provide the framework for the promotion of public safety and protect the rights of victims through the control and regulation of the interstate movement of offenders in the community; to provide for the effective tracking, supervision, and rehabilitation of these offenders by the sending and receiving states; and to equitably distribute the costs, benefits, and obligations of the compact among the compacting states.

(c) In addition, this compact will: Create an Interstate Commission which will establish uniform procedures to manage the movement between states of adults placed under community supervision and released to the community under the jurisdiction of courts, paroling authorities, corrections, or other criminal justice agencies which will promulgate rules to achieve the purpose of this compact; ensure an opportunity for input and timely notice to victims and to jurisdictions where defined offenders are authorized to travel or to relocate across state lines; establish a system of uniform data collection, access to information on active cases by authorized criminal justice officials, and regular reporting of compact activities to heads of state councils, state executive, judicial, and legislative branches, and criminal justice administrators; monitor compliance with rules governing interstate movement of offenders and initiate interventions to address and correct noncompliance; and coordinate training and education regarding regulations of interstate movement of offenders for officials involved in such activity.

(d) The compacting states recognize that there is no "right" of any offender to live in another state and that duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any offender under supervision subject to the provisions of this compact and by-laws and rules promulgated hereunder. It is the policy of the compacting states that the activities conducted by the Interstate Commission created herein are the formation of public policies and are therefore public business.

ARTICLE II
DEFINITIONS

(a) As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires a different construction:

(1) "Adult" means both individuals legally classified as adults and juveniles treated as adults by court order, statute, or operation of law.

(2) "By-laws" mean those by-laws established by the Interstate Commission for its governance, or for directing or controlling the Interstate Commission's actions or conduct.

(3) "Compact administrator" means the individual in each compacting state appointed pursuant to the terms of this compact responsible for the administration and management of the state's supervision and transfer of offenders subject to the terms of this compact, the rules adopted by the Interstate Commission and policies adopted by the state council under this compact.

(4) "Compacting state" means any state which has enacted the enabling legislation for this compact.

(5) "Commissioner" means the voting representative of each compacting state appointed pursuant to Article III of this compact.

(6) "Interstate Commission" means the Interstate Commission for Adult Offender Supervision established by this compact.

(7) "Member" means the commissioner of a compacting state or designee, who shall be a person officially connected with the commissioner.

(8) "Noncompacting state" means any state which has not enacted the enabling legislation for this compact.

(9) "Offender" means an adult placed under or subject to supervision as the result of the commission of a criminal offense and released to the community under the jurisdiction of courts, paroling authorities, corrections, or other criminal justice agencies.

(10) "Person" means any individual, corporation, business enterprise, or other legal entity, either public or private.

(11) "Rules" means acts of the Interstate Commission, duly promulgated pursuant to Article VIII of this compact, substantially affecting interested parties in addition to the Interstate Commission, which shall have the force and effect of law in the compacting states.

(12) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, and any other territorial possessions of the United States.

(13) "State council" means the resident members of the State Council for Interstate Adult Offender Supervision created by each state under Article IV of this compact.

ARTICLE III
THE COMPACT COMMISSION

(a) The compacting states hereby create the "Interstate Commission for Adult Offender Supervision." The Interstate Commission shall be a body corporate and joint agency of the compacting states. The Interstate Commission shall have all the responsibilities, powers, and duties set forth herein; including the power to sue and be sued, and such additional powers as may be conferred upon it by subsequent action of the respective legislatures of the compacting states in accordance with the terms of this compact.

(b) The Interstate Commission shall consist of Commissioners selected and appointed by resident members of a State Council for Interstate Adult Offender Supervision for each state. In addition to the commissioners who are the voting representatives of each state, the Interstate Commission shall include individuals who are not commissioners but who are members of interested organizations. Such noncommissioner members must include a member of the national organizations of governors, legislators, state chief justices, attorneys general, and crime victims. All noncommissioner members of the Interstate Commission shall be ex-officio (nonvoting) members. The Interstate Commission may provide in its by-laws for such additional, ex-officio, nonvoting members as it deems necessary.

(c) Each compacting state represented at any meeting of the Interstate Commission is entitled to one vote. A majority of the compacting states shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, unless a larger quorum is required by the by-laws of the Interstate Commission.

(d) The Interstate Commission shall meet at least once each calendar year. The chairperson may call additional meetings and, upon the request of 27 or more compacting states, shall call additional meetings. Public notice shall be given of all meetings and meetings shall be open to the public.

(e) The Interstate Commission shall establish an executive committee which shall include commission officers, members, and others as shall be determined by the by-laws. The Executive Committee shall have the power to act on behalf of the Interstate Commission during periods when the Interstate Commission is not in session, with the exception of rulemaking and/or amendment to the Compact. The Executive Committee oversees the day-to-day activities managed by the Executive Director and Interstate Commission staff; administers enforcement and compliance with the provisions of the compact, its by-laws, and as directed by the Interstate Commission; and performs other duties as directed by the Commission or set forth in the by-laws.

ARTICLE IV

THE STATE COUNCIL

(a) Each member state shall create a State Council for Interstate Adult Offender Supervision which shall be responsible for the appointment of the commissioner who shall serve on the Interstate Commission from that state. Each state council shall appoint as its commissioner the Compact Administrator from that state to serve on the Interstate Commission in such capacity under or pursuant to applicable law of the member state. While each member state may determine the membership of its own state council, its membership must include at least one representative from the legislative, judicial, and executive branches of government, victims groups, and compact administrators.

(b) Each compacting state retains the right to determine the qualifications of the compact administrator, who shall be appointed by the state council or by the Governor in consultation with the legislature and the judiciary.

(c) In addition to appointment of its commissioner to the National Interstate Commission, each state council shall exercise oversight and advocacy concerning its participation in Interstate Commission activities and other duties as may be determined by each member state including, but not limited to, development of policy concerning operations and procedures of the compact within that state.

ARTICLE V

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION

(a) The Interstate Commission shall have the following powers:

(1) To adopt a seal and suitable by-laws governing the management and operation of the Interstate Commission.

(2) To promulgate rules which shall have the force and effect of statutory law and shall be binding in the compacting states to the extent and in the manner provided in this compact.

(3) To oversee, supervise, and coordinate the interstate movement of offenders subject to the terms of this compact and any by-laws adopted and rules promulgated by the compact commission.

(4) To enforce compliance with compact provisions, Interstate Commission rules, and by-laws, using all necessary and proper means including, but not limited to, the use of judicial process.

(5) To establish and maintain offices.

(6) To purchase and maintain insurance and bonds.

(7) To borrow, accept, or contract for services of personnel including, but not limited to, members and their staffs.

(8) To establish and appoint committees and hire staff which it deems necessary for the carrying out of its functions including, but not limited to, an executive committee as required by Article III which shall have the power to act on behalf of the Interstate Commission in carrying out its powers and duties hereunder.

(9) To elect or appoint such officers, attorneys, employees, agents, or consultants, and to fix their compensation, define their duties, and determine their qualifications; and to establish the Interstate Commission's personnel policies and programs relating to, among other things, conflicts of interest, rates of compensation, and qualifications of personnel.

(10) To accept any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials, and services, and to receive, utilize, and dispose of same.

(11) To lease, purchase, accept contributions or donations of, or otherwise to own, hold, improve, or use any property, real, personal, or mixed.

(12) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, abandon, or otherwise dispose of any property, real, personal, or mixed.

(13) To establish a budget and make expenditures and levy dues as provided in Article X of this compact.

(14) To sue and be sued.

(15) To provide for dispute resolution among compacting states.

(16) To perform such functions as may be necessary or appropriate to achieve the purposes of this compact.

(17) To report annually to the legislatures, governors, judiciary, and state councils of the compacting states concerning the activities of the Interstate Commission during the preceding year. Such reports shall also include any recommendations that may have been adopted by the Interstate Commission.

(18) To coordinate education, training, and public awareness regarding the Interstate movement of offenders for officials involved in such activity.

(19) To establish uniform standards for the reporting, collecting, and exchanging of data.

ARTICLE VI

ORGANIZATION AND OPERATION OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION

(a) By-laws. The Interstate Commission shall, by a majority of the members, within 12 months of the first Interstate Commission meeting, adopt by-laws to govern its conduct as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of the compact including, but not limited to:

(1) Establishing the fiscal year of the Interstate Commission;

(2) Establishing an executive committee and such other committees as may be necessary, providing reasonable standards and procedures:

(i) For the establishment of committees, and

(ii) Governing any general or specific delegation of any authority or function of the Interstate Commission;

(3) Providing reasonable procedures for calling and conducting meetings of the Interstate Commission, and ensuring reasonable notice of each such meeting;

(4) Establishing the titles and responsibilities of the officers of the Interstate Commission;

(5) Providing reasonable standards and procedures for the establishment of the personnel policies and programs of the Interstate Commission. Notwithstanding any civil service or other similar laws of any compacting state, the by-laws shall exclusively govern the personnel policies and programs of the Interstate Commission; and

(6) Providing a mechanism for winding up the operations of the Interstate Commission and the equitable return of any surplus funds that may exist upon the termination of the compact after the payment and/or reserving of all of its debts and obligations;

(7) Providing transition rules for "start up" administration of the compact;

(8) Establishing standards and procedures for compliance and technical assistance in carrying out the compact.

(b) Officers and Staff.

(1) The Interstate Commission shall, by a majority of the members, elect from among its members a chairperson and a vice chairperson, each of whom shall have such authorities and duties as may be specified in the by-laws. The chairperson or, in his or her absence or disability, the vice chairperson, shall preside at all meetings of the Interstate Commission. The officers so elected shall serve without compensation or remuneration from the Interstate Commission; provided that subject to the availability of budgeted funds, the officers shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties and responsibilities as officers of the Interstate Commission.

(2) The Interstate Commission shall, through its executive committee, appoint or retain an executive director for such period, upon such terms and conditions and for such compensation as the Interstate Commission may deem appropriate. The executive director shall serve as secretary to the Interstate Commission, and hire and supervise such other staff as may be authorized by the Interstate Commission, but shall not be a member.

(c) Corporate Records of the Interstate Commission. The Interstate Commission shall maintain its corporate books and records in accordance with the by-laws.

(d) Qualified Immunity, Defense, and Indemnification.

(1) The members, officers, executive director, and employees of the Interstate Commission shall be immune from suit and liability, either personally or in their official capacity, for any claim for damage to or loss of property or personal injury or other civil liability caused or arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities; provided, that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to protect any such person from suit and/or liability for any damage, loss, injury, or liability caused by the intentional or willful and wanton misconduct of any such person.

(2) The Interstate Commission shall defend the commissioner of a compacting state, or his or her representatives or employees, or the Interstate Commission's representatives or employees, in any civil action seeking to impose liability, arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, or that the defendant had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities; provided, that the actual or alleged act, error, or omission did not result from intentional wrongdoing on the part of such person.

(3) The Interstate Commission shall indemnify and hold the commissioner of a compacting state, the appointed designee, or employees, or the Interstate Commission's representatives or employees, harmless in the amount of any settlement or judgement obtained against such persons arising out of any actual or alleged act, error, or omission that occurred within the scope of Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, or that such persons had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of Interstate Commission employment, duties, or responsibilities, provided, that the actual or alleged act, error, or omission did not result from gross negligence or intentional wrongdoing on the part of such person.

ARTICLE VII
ACTIVITIES OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION

(a) The Interstate Commission shall meet and take such actions as are consistent with the provisions of this compact.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this compact and unless a greater percentage is required by the by-laws, in order to constitute an act of the Interstate Commission, such act shall have been taken at a meeting of the Interstate Commission and shall have received an affirmative vote of a majority of the members present.

(c) Each member of the Interstate Commission shall have the right and power to cast a vote to which that Compacting State is entitled and to participate in the business and affairs of the Interstate Commission. A member shall vote in person on behalf of the state and shall not delegate a vote to another member state. However, a state council shall appoint another authorized representative, in the absence of the commissioner from that state, to cast a vote on behalf of the member state at a specified meeting. The by-laws may provide for members' participation in meetings by telephone or other means of telecommunication or electronic communication. Any voting conducted by telephone, or other means of telecommunication or electronic communication, shall be subject to the same quorum requirements of meetings where members are present in person.

(d) The Interstate Commission shall meet at least once during each calendar year. The chairperson of the Interstate Commission may call additional meetings at any time and, upon the request of a majority of the members, shall call additional meetings.

(e) The Interstate Commission's by-laws shall establish conditions and procedures under which the Interstate Commission shall make its information and official records available to the public for inspection or copying. The Interstate Commission may exempt from disclosure any information or official records to the extent they would adversely affect personal privacy rights or proprietary interests. In promulgating such rules, the Interstate Commission may make available to law enforcement agencies records and information otherwise exempt from disclosure, and may enter into agreements with law enforcement agencies to receive or exchange information or records subject to nondisclosure and confidentiality provisions.

(f) Public notice shall be given of all meetings and all meetings shall be open to the public, except as set forth in the rules or as otherwise provided in the compact. The Interstate Commission shall promulgate rules consistent with the principles contained in the "Government in Sunshine Act," 5 U.S.C. Section 552(b), as may be amended. The Interstate Commission and any of its committees may close a meeting to the public where it determines by two-thirds vote that an open meeting would be likely to:

(1) Relate solely to the Interstate Commission's internal personnel practices and procedures;

(2) Disclose matters specifically exempted from disclosure by statute;

(3) Disclose trade secrets or commercial or financial information which is privileged or confidential;

(4) Involve accusing any person of a crime, or formally censuring any person;

(5) Disclose information of a personal nature where disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(6) Disclose investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes;

(7) Disclose information contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, or on behalf of or for the use of, the Interstate Commission with respect to a regulated entity for the purpose of regulation or supervision of such entity;

(8) Disclose information, the premature disclosure of which would significantly endanger the life of a person or the stability of a regulated entity;

(9) Specifically relate to the Interstate Commission's issuance of a subpoena, or its participation in a civil action or proceeding.

(g) For every meeting closed pursuant to this provision, the Interstate Commission's chief legal officer shall publicly certify that, in his or her opinion, the meeting may be closed to the public, and shall reference each relevant provision authorizing closure of the meeting. The Interstate Commission shall keep minutes which shall fully and clearly describe all matters discussed in any meeting and shall provide a full and accurate summary of any actions taken, and the reasons therefor, including a description of each of the views expressed on any item and the record of any roll call vote (reflected in the vote of each member on the question). All documents considered in connection with any action shall be identified in such minutes.

(h) The Interstate Commission shall collect standardized data concerning the Interstate movement of offenders as directed through its by-laws and rules which shall specify the data to be collected, the means of collection, and data exchange and reporting requirements.

ARTICLE VIII

RULEMAKING FUNCTIONS OF THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION

(a) The Interstate Commission shall promulgate rules in order to effectively and efficiently achieve the purposes of the compact, including transition rules governing administration of the compact during the period in which it is being considered and enacted by the states.

(b) Rulemaking shall occur pursuant to the criteria set forth in this article and the by-laws and rules adopted pursuant thereto. Such rulemaking shall substantially conform to the principles of the federal Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C.S. Section 551 et seq., and the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C.S. App. 2, Section 1 et seq., as may be amended (hereinafter "APA"). All rules and amendments shall become binding as of the date specified in each rule or amendment.

(c) If a majority of the legislatures of the compacting states rejects a rule, by enactment of a statute or resolution in the same manner used to adopt the compact, then such rule shall have no further force and effect in any compacting state.

(d) When promulgating a rule, the Interstate Commission shall:

(1) Publish the proposed rule, stating with particularity the text of the rule which is proposed and the reason for the proposed rule;

(2) Allow persons to submit written data, facts, opinions, and arguments, which information shall be publicly available;

(3) Provide an opportunity for an informal hearing; and

(4) Promulgate a final rule and its effective date, if appropriate, based on the rulemaking record. Not later than 60 days after a rule is promulgated, any interested person may file a petition in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or in the Federal District Court where the Interstate Commission's principal office is located for judicial review of such rule. If the court finds that the Interstate Commission's action is not supported by substantial evidence, (as defined in the APA), in the rulemaking record, the court shall hold the rule unlawful and set it aside.

(e) Subjects to be addressed within 12 months after the first meeting must at a minimum include:

(i) notice to victims and opportunity to be heard;

(ii) offender registration and compliance;

(iii) violations/returns;

(iv) transfer procedures and forms;

(v) eligibility for transfer;

(vi) collection of restitution and fees from offenders;

(vii) data collection and reporting;

(viii) the level of supervision to be provided by the receiving state;

(ix) transition rules governing the operation of the compact and the Interstate Commission during all or part of the period between the effective date of the compact and the date on which the last eligible state adopts the compact; and

(x) mediation, arbitration, and dispute resolution.

(f) The existing rules governing the operation of the previous compact superceded by this act shall be null and void 12 months after the first meeting of the Interstate Commission created hereunder.

(g) Upon determination by the Interstate Commission that an emergency exists, it may promulgate an emergency rule which shall become effective immediately upon adoption, provided that the usual rulemaking procedures provided hereunder shall be retroactively applied to said rule as soon as reasonably possible, in no event later than 90 days after the effective date of the rule.

ARTICLE IX

OVERSIGHT, ENFORCEMENT, AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION BY THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION

(a) Oversight.

(1) The Interstate Commission shall oversee the Interstate movement of adult offenders in the compacting states and shall monitor such activities being administered in noncompacting states which may significantly affect compacting states.

(2) The courts and executive agencies in each compacting state shall enforce this compact and shall take all actions necessary and appropriate to effectuate the compact's purposes and intent. In any judicial or administrative proceeding in a compacting state pertaining to the subject matter of this compact which may affect the powers, responsibilities, or actions of the Interstate Commission, the Interstate Commission shall be entitled to receive all service of process in any such proceeding, and shall have standing to intervene in the proceeding for all purposes.

(b) Dispute Resolution.

(1) The compacting states shall report to the Interstate Commission on issues or activities of concern to them, and cooperate with and support the Interstate Commission in the discharge of its duties and responsibilities.

(2) The Interstate Commission shall attempt to resolve any disputes or other issues which are subject to the compact and which may arise among compacting states and noncompacting states.

(3) The Interstate Commission shall enact a by-law or promulgate a rule providing for both mediation and binding dispute resolution for disputes among the compacting states.

(c) Enforcement. The Interstate Commission, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, shall enforce the provisions of this compact using any or all means set forth in Article XII (b) of this compact.

ARTICLE X

FINANCE

(a) The Interstate Commission shall pay or provide for the payment of the reasonable expenses of its establishment, organization, and ongoing activities.

(b) The Interstate Commission shall levy on and collect an annual assessment from each compacting state to cover the cost of the internal operations and activities of the Interstate Commission and its staff which must be in a total amount sufficient to cover the Interstate Commission's annual budget as approved each year. The aggregate annual assessment amount shall be allocated based upon a formula to be determined by the Interstate Commission, taking into consideration the population of the state and the volume of interstate movement of offenders in each compacting state and shall promulgate a rule binding upon all compacting states which governs said assessment.

(c) The Interstate Commission shall not incur any obligations of any kind prior to securing the funds adequate to meet the same; nor shall the Interstate Commission pledge the credit of any of the compacting states, except by and with the authority of the compacting state.

(d) The Interstate Commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the Interstate Commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its by-laws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the Interstate Commission shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the Interstate Commission.

ARTICLE XI

COMPACTING STATES, EFFECTIVE DATE, AND AMENDMENT

(a) Any state, as defined in Article II of this compact, is eligible to become a compacting state.

(b) The compact shall become effective and binding upon legislative enactment of the compact into law by no less than 35 of the states. The initial effective date shall be the later of July 1, 2001, or upon enactment into law by the thirty-fifth jurisdiction. Thereafter it shall become effective and binding, as to any other compacting state, upon enactment of the compact into law by that state. The governors of nonmember states or their designees will be invited to participate in Interstate Commission activities on a nonvoting basis prior to adoption of the compact by all states and territories of the United States.

(c) Amendments to the compact may be proposed by the Interstate Commission for enactment by the compacting states. No amendment shall become effective and binding upon the Interstate Commission and the compacting states unless and until it is enacted into law by unanimous consent of the compacting states.

ARTICLE XII

WITHDRAWAL, DEFAULT, TERMINATION, AND JUDICIAL ENFORCEMENT

(a) Withdrawal.

(1) Once effective, the compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each and every compacting state; provided, that a compacting state may withdraw from the compact ("withdrawing state") by enacting a statute specifically repealing the statute which enacted the compact into law.

(2) The effective date of withdrawal is the effective date of the repeal.

(3) The withdrawing state shall immediately notify the chairperson of the Interstate Commission in writing upon the introduction of legislation repealing this compact in the withdrawing state. The Interstate Commission shall notify the other compacting states of the withdrawing state's intent to withdraw within 60 days of its receipt thereof.

(4) The withdrawing state is responsible for all assessments, obligations, and liabilities incurred through the effective date of withdrawal, including any obligations, the performance of which extend beyond the effective date of withdrawal.

(5) Reinstatement following withdrawal of any compacting state shall occur upon the withdrawing state reenacting the compact or upon such later date as determined by the Interstate Commission.

(b) Default.

(1) If the Interstate Commission determines that any compacting state has at any time defaulted ("defaulting state") in the performance of any of its obligations or responsibilities under this compact, the by-laws, or any duly promulgated rules, the Interstate Commission may impose any or all of the following penalties:

(i) Fines, fees, and costs in such amounts as are deemed to be reasonable as fixed by the Interstate Commission;

(ii) Remedial training and technical assistance as directed by the Interstate Commission;

(iii) Suspension and termination of membership in the compact. Suspension shall be imposed only after all other reasonable means of securing compliance under the by-laws and rules have been exhausted. Immediate notice of suspension shall be given by the Interstate Commission to the governor, the chief justice or chief judicial officer of the state, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature, and the state council.

(2) The grounds for default include, but are not limited to, failure of a compacting state to perform such obligations or responsibilities imposed upon it by this compact, Interstate Commission by-laws, or duly promulgated rules. The Interstate Commission shall immediately notify the defaulting state in writing of the penalty imposed by the Interstate Commission on the defaulting state pending a cure of the default. The Interstate Commission shall stipulate the conditions and the time period within which the defaulting state must cure its default. If the defaulting state fails to cure the default within the time period specified by the Interstate Commission, in addition to any other penalties imposed herein, the defaulting state may be terminated from the compact upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the compacting states and all rights, privileges, and benefits conferred by this compact shall be terminated from the effective date of suspension. Within 60 days of the effective date of termination of a defaulting state, the Interstate Commission shall notify the governor, the chief justice or chief judicial officer, and the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature and the state council of such termination.

(3) The defaulting state is responsible for all assessments, obligations, and liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination including any obligations, the performance of which extends beyond the effective date of termination.

(4) The Interstate Commission shall not bear any costs relating to the defaulting state unless otherwise mutually agreed upon between the Interstate Commission and the defaulting state. Reinstatement following termination of any compacting state requires both a reenactment of the compact by the defaulting state and the approval of the Interstate Commission pursuant to the rules.

(c) Judicial Enforcement. The Interstate Commission may, by majority vote of the members, initiate legal action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or, at the discretion of the Interstate Commission, in the federal district where the Interstate Commission has its offices, to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact and its duly promulgated rules and by-laws, against any compacting state in default. In the event judicial enforcement is necessary the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of such litigation including reasonable attorneys' fees.

(d) Dissolution of Compact.

(1) The compact dissolves effective upon the date of the withdrawal or default of the compacting state which reduces membership in the compact to one compacting state.

(2) Upon the dissolution of this compact, the compact becomes null and void and shall be of no further force or effect, and the business and affairs of the Interstate Commission shall be wound up and any surplus funds shall be distributed in accordance with the by-laws.

ARTICLE XIII

SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

(a) The provisions of this compact shall be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision is deemed unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the compact shall be enforceable.

(b) The provisions of this compact shall be liberally constructed to effectuate its purposes.

ARTICLE XIV

BINDING EFFECT OF COMPACT AND OTHER LAWS

(a) Other Laws.

(1) Nothing herein prevents the enforcement of any other law of a compacting state that is not inconsistent with this compact.

(2) All compacting states' laws conflicting with this compact are superseded to the extent of the conflict.

(b) Binding Effect of the Compact.

(1) All lawful actions of the Interstate Commission, including all rules and by-laws promulgated by the Interstate Commission, are binding upon the compacting states.

(2) All agreements between the Interstate Commission and the compacting states are binding in accordance with their terms.

(3) Upon the request of a party to a conflict over meaning or interpretation of Interstate Commission actions, and upon a majority vote of the compacting states, the Interstate Commission may issue advisory opinions regarding such meaning or interpretation.

(4) In the event any provision of this compact exceeds the constitutional limits imposed on the legislature of any compacting state, the obligations, duties, powers, or jurisdiction sought to be conferred by such provision upon the Interstate Commission shall be ineffective and such obligations, duties, powers, or jurisdiction shall remain in the compacting state and shall be exercised by the agency thereof to which such obligations, duties, powers, or jurisdiction are delegated by law in effect at the time this compact becomes effective.

Enacted by Chapter 45, 2001 General Session

77-28c-104 Definitions -- Compact transfer application fee.

Amended by Chapter 46, 2025 General Session

77-29-5 Interstate agreement on detainers -- Enactment into law -- Text of agreement.

The interstate agreement on detainers is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

ARTICLE I

The party states find that charges outstanding against a prisoner, detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints, and difficulties in securing speedy trial of persons already incarcerated in other jurisdictions, produce uncertainties which obstruct programs of prisoner treatment and rehabilitation. Accordingly, it is the policy of the party states and the purpose of this agreement to encourage the expeditious and orderly disposition of such charges and determination of the proper status of any and all detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints. The party states also find that proceedings with reference to such charges and detainers, when emanating from another jurisdiction, cannot properly be had in the absence of co-operative procedures. It is the further purpose of this agreement to provide such co-operative procedures.

ARTICLE II

As used in this agreement:

(a) "State" shall mean a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(b) "Sending state" shall mean a state in which a prisoner is incarcerated at the time that he initiates a request for final dispositions pursuant to Article III hereof or at the time that a request for custody or availability is initiated pursuant to Article IV hereof.

(c) "Receiving state" shall mean the state in which trial is to be had on an indictment, information or complaint pursuant to Article III or Article IV hereof.

ARTICLE III

(a) Whenever a person has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a penal or correctional institution of a party state, and whenever during the continuance of the term of imprisonment there is pending in any other party state any untried indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which a detainer has been lodged against the prisoner, he shall be brought to trial within 180 days after he shall have caused to be delivered to the prosecuting officer and the appropriate court of the prosecuting officer's jurisdiction written notice of the place of his imprisonment and his request for a final disposition to be made of the indictment, information or complaint; provided that for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance. The request of the prisoner shall be accompanied by a certificate of the appropriate official having custody of the prisoner, stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner.

(b) The written notice and request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (a) hereof shall be given or sent by the prisoner to the warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of him, who shall promptly forward it together with the certificate to the appropriate prosecuting official and court by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

(c) The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall promptly inform him of the source and contents of any detainer lodged against him and shall also inform him of his right to make a request for final disposition of the indictment, information or complaint on which the detainer is based.

(d) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof shall operate as a request for final disposition of all untried indictments, informations or complaints on the basis of which detainers have been lodged against the prisoner from the state to whose prosecuting official the request for final disposition is specifically directed. The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall forthwith notify all appropriate prosecuting officers and courts in the several jurisdictions within the state to which the prisoner's request for final disposition is being sent of the proceeding being initiated by the prisoner. Any notification sent pursuant to this paragraph shall be accompanied by copies of the prisoner's written notice, request, and the certificate. If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the return of the prisoner to the original place of imprisonment, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

(e) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to a paragraph (a) hereof shall also be deemed to be a waiver of extradition with respect to any charge or proceeding contemplated thereby or included therein by reason of paragraph (d) hereof, and a waiver of extradition to the receiving state to serve any sentence there imposed upon him, after completion of his term of imprisonment in the sending state. The request for final disposition shall also constitute a consent by the prisoner to the production of his body in any court where his presence may be required in order to effectuate the purposes of this agreement and a further consent voluntarily to be returned to the original place of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of this agreement. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the imposition of a concurrent sentence if otherwise permitted by law.

(f) Escape from custody by the prisoner subsequent to his execution of the request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (a) hereof shall void the request.

ARTICLE IV

(a) The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with Article V (a) hereof upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of the state in which the prisoner is incarcerated; provided that the court having jurisdiction of such indictment, information or complaint shall have duly approved, recorded and transmitted the request; and provided further that there shall be a period of 30 days after receipt by the appropriate authorities before the request be honored, within which period the governor of the sending state may disapprove the request for temporary custody or availability, either upon his own motion or upon motion of the prisoner.

(b) Upon receipt of the officer's written request as provided in paragraph (a) hereof, the appropriate authorities having the prisoner in custody shall furnish the officer with a certificate stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner. Said authorities simultaneously shall furnish all other officers and appropriate courts in the receiving state who have lodged detainers against the prisoner with similar certificates and with notices informing them of the request for custody or availability and of the reasons therefor.

(c) In respect of any proceeding made possible by this article, trial shall be commenced within 120 days of the arrival of the prisoner in the receiving state, but for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance.

(d) Nothing contained in the article shall be construed to deprive any prisoner of any right which he may have to contest the legality of his delivery as provided in paragraph (a) hereof, but such delivery may not be opposed or denied on the ground that the executive authority of the sending state has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.

(e) If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the prisoner's being returned to the original place of imprisonment pursuant to Article V (e) hereof, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

ARTICLE V

(a) In response to a request made under Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate authority in a sending state shall offer to deliver temporary custody of such prisoner to the appropriate authority in the state where such indictment, information or complaint is pending against such person in order that speedy and efficient prosecution may be had. If the request for final disposition is made by the prisoner, the offer of temporary custody shall accompany the written notice provided for in Article III of this agreement. In the case of a federal prisoner, the appropriate authority in the receiving state shall be entitled to temporary custody as provided by this agreement or to the prisoner's presence in federal custody at the place for trial, whichever custodial arrangement may be approved by the custodian.

(b) The officer or other representative of a state accepting an offer of temporary custody shall present the following upon demand:

(1) Proper identification and evidence of his authority to act for the state into whose temporary custody the prisoner is to be given.

(2) A duly certified copy of the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged and on the basis of which the request for temporary custody of the prisoner has been made.

(c) If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate court of the jurisdiction where the indictment, information or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice, and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect.

(d) The temporary custody referred to in this agreement shall be only for the purpose of permitting prosecution on the charge or charges contained in one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints which form the basis of the detainer or detainers or for prosecution on any other charge or charges arising out of the same transaction. Except for his attendance at court and while being transported to or from any place at which his presence may be required, the prisoner shall be held in a suitable jail or other facility regularly used for persons awaiting prosecution.

(e) At the earliest practicable time consonant with the purposes of this agreement, the prisoner shall be returned to the sending state.

(f) During the continuance of temporary custody or while the prisoner is otherwise being made available for trial as required by this agreement, time being served on the sentence shall continue to run but good time shall be earned by the prisoner only if, and to the extent that, the law and practice of the jurisdiction which imposed the sentence may allow.

(g) For all purposes other than that for which temporary custody as provided in this agreement is exercised, the prisoner shall be deemed to remain in the custody of and subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and any escape from temporary custody may be dealt with in the same manner as an escape from the original place of imprisonment or in any other manner permitted by law.

(h) From the time that a party state receives custody of a prisoner pursuant to this agreement until such prisoner is returned to the territory and custody of the sending state, the state in which the one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints are pending or in which trial is being had shall be responsible for the prisoner and shall also pay all costs of transporting, caring for, keeping and returning the prisoner. The provisions of this paragraph shall govern unless the states concerned shall have entered into a supplementary agreement providing for a different allocation of costs and responsibilities as between or among themselves. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

ARTICLE VI

(a) In determining the duration and expiration dates of the time periods provided in Articles III and IV of this agreement, the running of said time periods shall be tolled whenever and for as long as the prisoner is unable to stand trial, as determined by the court having jurisdiction of the matter.

(b) No provision of this agreement, and no remedy made available by this agreement, shall apply to any person who is adjudged to be mentally ill.

ARTICLE VII

Each state party to this agreement shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this agreement, and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

This agreement shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this agreement may withdraw herefrom enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated by inmates or by state officers at the time such withdrawal takes effect, nor shall it affect their rights in respect thereof.

ARTICLE IX

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state party hereto, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-29-6 Interstate agreement -- "Appropriate court" defined.

The phrase "appropriate court" as used in the agreement on detainers shall, with reference to the courts of this state, mean any court with criminal jurisdiction in the matter involved.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-29-7 Interstate agreement -- Duty of state agencies and political subdivisions to cooperate.

All courts, departments, agencies, officers and employees of this state and its political subdivisions are hereby directed to enforce the agreement on detainers and to cooperate with one another and with other party states in enforcing the agreement and effectuating its purpose.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-29-8 Interstate agreement -- Application of habitual criminal law.

Nothing in the agreement on detainers shall be construed to require the application of the habitual criminal law of this state to any person as a result of any conviction had in a proceeding brought to final disposition by reason of the use of said agreement.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-29-9 Interstate agreement -- Escape of prisoner while in temporary custody.

Escape or attempt to escape from custody, whether within or without this state, while in the temporary custody of an authority of another state acting pursuant to the agreement on detainers shall constitute an offense against this state. Such escape or attempt to escape shall constitute an offense to the same extent and degree as an escape from the institution in which the prisoner was confined immediately prior to having been released to temporary custody, and shall be punishable in the same manner as an escape or attempt to escape from said institution.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-29-10 Interstate agreement -- Duty of warden.

It shall be lawful and mandatory upon the warden or other official in charge of a penal or correctional institution in this state to deliver any inmate thereof whenever so required by the operation of the agreement on detainers.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-29-11 Interstate agreement -- Attorney general as administrator and information agent.

The attorney general is hereby designated as the officer who shall be the central administrator of and information agent for the agreement on detainers as provided in Article VII of the agreement.

Chapter 30
Extradition

77-30-1 Definitions.

Where appearing in this act, the term "governor" includes any person performing the functions of governor by authority of the law of this state. The term "executive authority" includes the governor and any person performing the functions of governor in a state other than this state. The term "state," referring to a state other than this state, includes any other state or territory, organized or unorganized, of the United States of America.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-30-2 Duty of governor to deliver person charged with crime upon demand by other state.

Subject to the provisions of this act, the provisions of the Constitution of the United States controlling, and any and all Acts of Congress enacted in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the governor of this state to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony or other crime who has fled from justice and is found in this state.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-30-3 Form of demand -- What documents presented must show.

No demand for the extradition of a person charged with a crime in another state shall be recognized by the governor unless in writing alleging, except in cases arising under Section 77-30-6, that the accused was present in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, and that thereafter the accused fled from the state, and accompanied by a copy of an indictment found or by information supported by affidavit in the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or by a copy of an affidavit made before a magistrate there, together with a copy of any warrant which was issued thereupon or by a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence composed in execution, together with a statement by the executive authority of the demanding state that the person claimed has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of the person's bail, probation or parole. The indictment, information or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that state and the copy of the indictment, information, affidavit, judgment of conviction or sentence must be authenticated by the executive authority making the demand.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-4 Governor may investigate demand.

When a demand shall be made upon the governor of this state by the executive authority of another state for the surrender of a person so charged with a crime, the governor may call upon the attorney general or any prosecuting officer in this state to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to the governor the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and whether the person ought to be surrendered.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-5 Extradition for prosecution before conclusion of trial or term in other state -- Return of person involuntarily leaving demanding state.

(1) When it is desired to have returned to this state a person charged in this state with a crime, and such person is imprisoned or is held under criminal proceedings then pending against the person in another state, the governor of this state may agree with the executive authority of such other state for the extradition of such person before the conclusion of such proceedings or the person's term of sentence in such other state, upon condition that such person be returned to such other state at the expense of this state as soon as the prosecution in this state is terminated

(2) The governor of this state may also surrender on demand of the executive authority of any other state any person in this state who is charged in the manner provided in Section 77-30-23 with having violated the laws of the state whose executive authority is making the demand, even though such person left the demanding state involuntarily.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-6 Extradition for crime committed in another state by person while in this state.

The governor of this state may also surrender, on demand of the executive authority of any other state, any person in this state charged in such other state, in the manner provided in section 77-30-3, with committing an act in this state, or in a third state, intentionally resulting in a crime in the state whose executive authority is making the demand, and the provisions of this act not otherwise inconsistent shall apply to such cases even though the accused was not in that state at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-30-7 Governor's warrant of arrest -- Recitals.

If the governor decides that the demand should be complied with, the governor shall sign a warrant of arrest, which shall be sealed with the state seal, directed to any peace officer or other person whom the governor may think fit to entrust with the execution thereof. The warrant must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-8 Execution of warrant of arrest.

Such warrant shall authorize the peace officer or other person to whom directed to arrest the accused at any time and any place where the accused may be found within the state and to command the aid of all peace officers or other persons in the execution of the warrant, and to deliver the accused, subject to the provisions of this act, to the duly authorized agent of the demanding state.

Amended by Chapter 281, 2018 General Session

77-30-9 Authority of officers under warrant of arrest.

Every such peace officer or other person empowered to make the arrest shall have the same authority in arresting the accused, to command assistance therein, as peace officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them, with like penalties against those who refuse their assistance.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-30-10 Time to apply for habeas corpus allowed.

No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the executive authority demanding the arrested person shall have appointed to receive the arrested person unless the arrested person shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this state who shall inform the arrested person of the demand made for the arrested person's surrender and of the crime with which the arrested person is charged and that the arrested person has the right to demand and procure legal counsel and if the prisoner or the prisoner's counsel shall state that the prisoner or the prisoner's counsel desires to test the legality of the prisoner's arrest, the judge of such court of record shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed the prisoner within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When such writ is applied for, notice thereof and the time and place of hearing thereon shall be given to the prosecuting officer of the county in which the arrest is made and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding state.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-11 Penalty for disobedience of habeas corpus.

Any officer who shall deliver to the agent for extradition of the demanding state a person in the officer's custody under the governor's warrant, in willful disobedience to Section 77-30-10, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined not more than $1,000 or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than six months, or both.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-12 Officers entitled to use local jails.

(1) The officer or persons executing the governor's warrant of arrest or the agent of the demanding state to whom the prisoner may have been delivered may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which the officer or person having charge of the prisoner may pass and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or person having charge of the prisoner is ready to proceed, such officer or person being chargeable with the expense of keeping.
(2) The officer or agent of a demanding state to whom a prisoner may have been delivered following extradition proceedings in another state, or to whom a prisoner may have been delivered after waiving extradition in such other state, and who is passing through this state with such a prisoner for the purpose of immediately returning such prisoner to the demanding state may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which the officer or person having charge of the prisoner may pass, and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or agent having charge of the prisoner is ready to proceed, such officer or agent being chargeable with the expense of keeping; provided, such officer or agent shall produce and show to the keeper of such jail satisfactory written evidence of the fact that the officer or agent is actually transporting such prisoner to the demanding state after a requisition by the executive authority of such demanding state. Such prisoner shall not be entitled to demand a new requisition while in this state.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-13 Fugitives from justice -- Warrant of arrest.

Whenever any person within this state shall be charged on the oath of any credible person before any judge or magistrate of this state with the commission of any crime in any other state, and, except in cases arising under Section 77-30-6, that the person charged has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of the person's bail, probation or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or magistrate in this state setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another state that a crime has been committed in such other state and that the person has been charged in such state with the commission of the crime, and except in cases arising under Section 77-30-6, has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of the person's bail, probation or parole, and is believed to be in this state, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to any peace officer commanding the officer to apprehend the person named therein, wherever the named person may be found in this state, and to bring the named person before the same or any judge, magistrate or court who or which may be available in or convenient of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the charge or complaint and affidavit, and a certified copy of the sworn charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-14 Arrest without warrant.

The arrest of a person may be lawfully made also by any peace officer or a private person without a warrant upon reasonable information that the accused stands charged in the courts of a state with a crime punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, but when so arrested the accused person must be taken before a judge or magistrate with all practicable speed and complaint must be made against the accused person under oath setting forth the ground for the arrest as in Section 77-30-13, and thereafter the accused person's answer shall be heard as if the accused person had been arrested on a warrant.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-15 Commitment pending arrest under warrant of governor.

If from the examination before the judge or magistrate it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged, and, except in cases arising under Section 77-30-6, that the accused person has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate must, by a warrant reciting the accusation, commit the accused person to the county jail for such a time not exceeding 30 days and specified in the warrant as will enable the arrest of the accused person to be made under a warrant of the governor on a requisition of the executive authority of the state having jurisdiction of the offense, unless the accused person gives bail as provided in the next section or until the accused person shall be legally discharged.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-16 Amount of bail.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a judge or magistrate in this state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond with sufficient sureties and in an amount the judge or magistrate considers proper, conditioned for the arrested person's appearance before the judge or magistrate at a time specified in the bond and for the arrested person's surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the governor of this state.
(2) A person arrested under Section 77-30-13 shall be admitted to bail as a matter of right, except the court has discretion to deny bail as provided in Utah Constitution Article I, Section 8, and when a judge or magistrate in the demanding state has ordered that the person charged be held without bail or the person has waived extradition.
(3) There is a rebuttable presumption that the bail set by the court or magistrate in the demanding state is the proper amount of bail in this state.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-17 Procedure when no arrest made under warrant of governor.

If the accused person is not arrested under warrant of the governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant or bond, a judge or magistrate may discharge the accused person or may recommit the accused person for a further period not to exceed 60 days, or a judge or magistrate may again take bail for the accused person's appearance and surrender, as provided in Section 77-30-16, but within a period not to exceed 60 days after the date of such new bond.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-18 Forfeiture of bail.

If the prisoner is admitted to bail and fails to appear and surrender according to the conditions of the prisoner's bond, the judge or magistrate by proper order shall declare the bond forfeited and order the prisoner's immediate arrest without warrant if the prisoner is within this state. Recovery may be had on such bond in the name of the state as in the case of other bonds given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this state.

Amended by Chapter 281, 2018 General Session

77-30-19 Procedure if prosecution pending in this state.

(1) If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against a defendant under the laws of this state and is still pending, the governor may either surrender the defendant on demand of the executive authority of another state or hold the defendant until the defendant has been tried and either convicted and sentenced, acquitted, or otherwise discharged in this state.
(2) Unless tolling is contrary to state or federal law, the period of time for extradition shall be tolled when local charges are pending in this state.

Amended by Chapter 192, 2023 General Session

77-30-20 Governor not to inquire into guilt or innocence.

The guilt or innocence of the accused person as to the crime of which the accused person is charged in another state may not be inquired into by the governor or in any proceeding after the demand for extradition accompanied by a charge of crime in legal form as above provided shall have been presented to the governor, except as it may be involved in identifying the accused person held as the person charged with the crime.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-21 Governor's warrant of arrest recalled or another issued.

The governor may recall the governor's warrant of arrest or may issue another warrant whenever the governor deems proper.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-22 Fugitives from this state -- Issuance of governor's warrant.

Whenever the governor of this state shall demand a person charged with a crime or with escaping from confinement or breaking the terms of bail, probation, or parole in this state from the executive authority of any other state or from the chief justice or an associate justice of the superior court of the District of Columbia authorized to receive such demand under the laws of the United States, the governor shall issue a warrant under the seal of this state to some agent, commanding the agent to receive the person so charged if delivered to the agent and convey the charged person to the proper officer of the county in this state in which the offense was committed.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-23 Fugitives from this state -- Applications for requisition for return.

(1) When the return to this state of a person charged with a crime in this state is required, the prosecuting attorney shall present to the governor his written application for a requisition for the return of the person charged, in which application shall be stated the name of the person so charged, the crime charged against him, the approximate time, place, and circumstances of its commission, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein at the time the application is made, and certifying that in the opinion of the said prosecuting attorney the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to this state for trial and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim.

(2) When the return to this state is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in this state and has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the parole board, or the warden of the institution or sheriff of the county from which escape was made shall present to the governor a written application for a requisition for the return of such person, in which application shall be stated the name of the person, the crime of which he was convicted, the circumstances of his escape from confinement, or of the breach of the terms of his bail, probation, or parole, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the person therein at the time application is made.
(3) The application shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the indictment returned, or information and affidavit filed, or of the complaint made to the judge or magistrate stating the offense with which the accused is charged, or of the judgment or conviction, or of the sentence.
(4) The prosecuting officer, parole board, warden, or sheriff may also attach such further affidavits and other documents in duplicate as he shall deem proper to be submitted with such application. One copy of the application with the action of the governor indicated by endorsement thereon and one of the certified copies of the indictment, complaint, information, and affidavits or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence shall be filed in the office of the governor to remain of record in that office. The other copies of all papers shall be forwarded with the governor's requisition.

Amended by Chapter 306, 2007 General Session

77-30-24 Payment of expenses -- Extradition costs.

(1)
(a) When the punishment of an offense is the confinement of the defendant in prison, the expenses shall be paid out of the state treasury on the certificate of the governor and warrant of the auditor.
(b) In all other cases, the expenses for confinement shall be paid out of the treasury of the county where the offense is alleged to have been committed.
(c) The expenses shall be the fees paid to the officers of the state on whose governor the requisition is made.
(2) If a defendant is returned to the state under this chapter and the defendant is convicted of, or pleads guilty or no contest to, the offense or to a lesser offense, the defendant may be required to pay the costs of extradition to the appropriate governmental entity as described in Subsection 76-3-201(4)(b).

Amended by Chapter 497, 2023 General Session

77-30-25 Individual brought into state on extradition exempt from civil process -- Waiver of extradition proceedings -- Nonwaiver by this state.

(1) An individual brought into this state by or after waiver of extradition based on a criminal charge is not subject to service of personal process in a civil action arising out of the same facts as the criminal proceedings to answer which the individual is being or has been returned until the individual has been convicted in the criminal proceedings, or, if acquitted, until the individual has had reasonable opportunity to return to the state from which the individual was extradited.

(a) An individual arrested in this state charged with having committed any crime in another state or alleged to have escaped from confinement or broken the terms of the individual's bail, probation, or parole may waive the issuance and service of the warrant provided for in Sections 77-30-7 and 77-30-8, and a procedure incidental to extradition proceedings, by executing or subscribing in the presence of a judge of any court of record within this state a writing that states that the individual consents to return to the demanding state, except that before the waiver is executed or subscribed by the individual, it shall be the duty of the judge to inform the individual of the individual's rights to the issuance and service of a warrant of extradition and to obtain a writ of habeas corpus as provided for in Section 77-30-10.

(b) The judge shall direct the officer having an individual in custody to deliver forthwith the individual to the accredited agent or agents of the demanding state and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the accredited agent or agents a copy of the consent except that nothing in this section may be considered to limit the rights of the accused individual to return voluntarily and without formality to the demanding state, nor shall this waiver procedure be considered to be an exclusive procedure or to limit the powers, rights, or duties of the officers of the demanding state or of this state.

(3) Nothing in this chapter may be considered to constitute a waiver by this state of its right, power, or privilege to try the demanded individual for a crime committed within this state, or of its right, power, or privilege to regain custody of the individual by extradition proceedings or otherwise for the purpose of trial, sentence, or punishment for any crime committed within this state, nor shall any proceedings had under this chapter, which result in or fail to result in extradition, be considered a waiver by this state of any of its rights, privileges or jurisdiction in any way whatsoever.

Amended by Chapter 429, 2019 General Session

77-30-26 Prosecution not limited to crime specified in requisition.

After a person has been brought back to this state by or after waiver of extradition proceedings, the person may be tried in this state for other crimes which the person may be charged with having committed here as well as that specified in the requisition for the person's extradition.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-30-26.5 Person who has violated parole or probation agreement with demanding state.

(1) A law enforcement agency that is holding a person subject to extradition based on having allegedly violated the terms of the person's probation, parole, bail, or other terms of release in the demanding state shall immediately release the person to the authorized agent of the demanding state. A governor's warrant is not required in order to return the person if:

(a) the person has previously signed a waiver of extradition as a term of the person's probation, parole, bail, or other terms of release in the demanding state;

(b) the law enforcement agency holding the person has received:

(i) an authenticated copy of the prior waiver of extradition signed by the person; and

(ii) a photograph and fingerprints identifying the person as the person who signed the waiver.

(2) Utah may, prior to releasing a person to the authorized agent of the demanding state, prosecute the person for any criminal offense committed in Utah.

(3) This section does not affect or limit:

(a) the right of the person sought by the demanding state to return to the demanding state voluntarily and without governmental action;

(b) the authority of the law enforcement or parole officers of Utah or the demanding state; or
(c) any procedures regarding waiver of extradition under Title 77, Chapter 30, Extradition.

Enacted by Chapter 156, 2007 General Session

77-30-27 Uniformity of interpretation.

The provisions of this act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purposes to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

Chapter 32b
Criminal Accounts Receivable and Costs

77-32b-101 Title.

This chapter is known as "Criminal Accounts Receivable and Costs."

Enacted by Chapter 260, 2021 General Session

77-32b-102 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:
(1) "Board" means the Board of Pardons and Parole.
(2)
(a) "Civil accounts receivable" means any amount of the criminal accounts receivable that is owed by the defendant that has not been paid on or before the day on which:
(i) the defendant's sentence is terminated; or
(ii) the court enters an order for a civil accounts receivable under Subsection 77-18-114(1) or (2).
(b) "Civil accounts receivable" does not include any amount of the criminal accounts receivable that is owed by the defendant for restitution.
(3) "Civil judgment of restitution" means any amount of the criminal accounts receivable that is owed by the defendant for restitution that has not been paid on or before the day on which the defendant's sentence is terminated.
(4)
(a) "Criminal accounts receivable" means any amount owed by a defendant that arises from a criminal judgment until:
(i) the defendant's sentence terminates;
(ii) the court enters an order for a civil accounts receivable under Subsection 77-18-114(1) or (2); or

(iii) if the court requires the defendant, upon termination of the probation period for the defendant, to continue to make payments on the criminal accounts as described in Subsection 77-18-105(8), the defendant's sentence expires.

(b) "Criminal accounts receivable" includes any unpaid:

(i) fee, including the monthly supervision fee described in Subsection 64-14-204(6);

(ii) forfeiture;

(iii) surcharge;

(iv) cost;

(v) interest;

(vi) penalty;

(vii) restitution;

(viii) third party claim;

(ix) reimbursement of a reward; and

(x) damages.

(5) "Default" means a civil accounts receivable, a civil judgment of restitution, or a criminal accounts receivable that is overdue by at least 90 days.

(6) "Delinquent" means a civil accounts receivable, a civil judgment of restitution, or a criminal account receivable that is overdue by more than 28 days but less than 90 days.

(7) "Payment schedule" means the amount that is be paid by a defendant in installments, or by a certain date, to satisfy a criminal accounts receivable for the defendant.

(8) "Remit" or "remission" means to forgive or to excuse, in whole or in part, any unpaid amount of a criminal accounts receivable.

(9) "Restitution" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38b-102.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-32b-103 Establishment of a criminal accounts receivable -- Responsibility -- Payment schedule -- Delinquency or default.

(1)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b) and (c), at the time of sentencing or acceptance of a plea in abeyance, the court shall enter an order to establish a criminal accounts receivable for the defendant.

(b) The court is not required to create a criminal accounts receivable for the defendant under Subsection (1)(a) if the court finds that the defendant does not owe restitution and there are no other fines or fees to be assessed against the defendant.

(c) If the court does not create a criminal accounts receivable for a defendant under Subsection (1)(a), the court shall enter an order to establish a criminal accounts receivable for the defendant at the time the court enters an order for restitution under Section 77-38b-205.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (7), after establishing a criminal accounts receivable for a defendant, the court shall:

(a) if a prison sentence is imposed and not suspended for the defendant:

(i) accept any payment for the criminal accounts receivable that is tendered on the date of sentencing; and

(ii) transfer the responsibility of receiving, distributing, and processing payments for the criminal accounts receivable to the Office of State Debt Collection; and

(b) for all other cases:

(i) retain the responsibility for receiving, processing, and distributing payments for the criminal accounts receivable until the court enters a civil accounts receivable or civil judgment of restitution on the civil judgment docket under Subsection 77-18-114(1) or (2); and

(ii) record each payment by the defendant on the case docket.

(c) For a criminal accounts receivable that a court retains responsibility for receiving, processing, and distributing payments under Subsection (2)(b)(i), the Judicial Council may establish rules to require a defendant to pay the cost, or a portion of the cost, for an electronic payment fee that is charged by a financial institution for the use of a credit or debit card to make payments towards the criminal accounts receivable.

(3)

(a) Upon entering an order for a criminal accounts receivable, the court shall establish a payment schedule for the defendant to make payments towards the criminal accounts receivable.

(b) In establishing the payment schedule for the defendant, the court shall consider:

(i) the needs of the victim if the criminal accounts receivable includes an order for restitution under Section 77-38b-205;

(ii) the financial resources of the defendant, as disclosed in the financial declaration under Section 77-38b-204 or in evidence obtained by subpoena under Subsection 77-38b-402(1)(b);

(iii) the burden that the payment schedule will impose on the defendant regarding the other reasonable obligations of the defendant;

(iv) the ability of the defendant to pay restitution on an installment basis or on other conditions fixed by the court;

(v) the rehabilitative effect on the defendant of the payment of restitution and method of payment; and

(vi) any other circumstance that the court determines is relevant.

(c) If the court is unable to determine the appropriate amount for the payment schedule or does not set an amount for the payment schedule, the defendant is required to pay $50 per month toward the criminal accounts receivable.

(4) A payment schedule for a criminal accounts receivable does not limit the ability of a judgment creditor to pursue collection by any means allowable by law.

(5) If the court orders restitution under Section 77-38b-205, or makes another financial decision, after sentencing that increases the total amount owed in a defendant's case, the defendant's criminal accounts receivable balance shall be adjusted to include any new amount ordered by the court.

(a) If a defendant is incarcerated in a county jail or a secure correctional facility, as defined in Section 64-13-1, or the defendant is involuntarily committed under Section 26B-5-332:

(i) all payments for a payment schedule shall be suspended for the period of time that the defendant is incarcerated or involuntarily committed, unless the court, or the board if the defendant is under the jurisdiction of the board, expressly orders the defendant to make payments according to the payment schedule; and

(ii) the defendant shall provide the court with notice of the incarceration or involuntary commitment.

(b) A suspension under Subsection (6)(a) shall remain in place for 60 days after the day in which the defendant is released from incarceration or commitment.

(7)

(a) If the defendant owes restitution to the Department of Workforce Services or Department of Health and Human Services, the court may order that all or a portion of criminal accounts receivable be paid directly to the governmental agency or entity.
(b) If the authority to collect all or a portion of the criminal accounts receivable is given to a governmental agency or entity under this Subsection (7), the governmental agency or entity shall maintain an accounting of all payments made or credits toward reduction of the balance of the criminal accounts receivable.
(c) The governmental entity or agency shall provide a copy of the accounting upon filing an order to show cause in the criminal case to the court or upon request to the court, Board of Pardons and Parole, Department of Corrections, private probation provider, prosecutor, defendant, or other victim.

Amended by Chapter 526, 2025 General Session

77-32b-104 Costs -- What constitute costs -- Ability to pay.

(1) Except for a cost described in Subsection 76-3-201(4), a court may order a defendant under Section 76-3-201 to pay costs for expenses incurred by the state or any political subdivision of the state for investigating, searching for, apprehending, and prosecuting the defendant, including:
(a) attorney fees of counsel assigned to represent the defendant;
(b) investigators' fees; or
(c) except for a monetary reward that is paid to a codefendant, an accomplice, or a bounty hunter, a monetary reward that is:
(i) offered to the public in exchange for information that would lead to the apprehension and conviction of the defendant; and
(ii) paid to a person who provided information that led to the apprehension and conviction of the defendant.
(2) A cost under Subsection (1) may not include:
(a) expenses inherent in providing a constitutionally guaranteed trial;
(b) expenditures in connection with the maintenance and operation of government agencies that must be made by the public irrespective of specific violations of law;
(c) attorney fees for prosecuting attorneys; or
(d) expenses for government transportation to and from court proceedings related to the prosecution of the offense for which the defendant is convicted.
(3) The court may not order a defendant to pay a cost, unless there is evidence that the defendant is, or will be, able to pay the cost.
(4) In determining the amount of a cost that a defendant is ordered to pay, the court shall take into account:
(a) the financial resources of the defendant;
(b) the nature of the burden that payment of the cost will impose; and
(c) that restitution is prioritized over any cost.

Amended by Chapter 497, 2023 General Session

77-32b-105 Petition for remittance or modification of a criminal accounts receivable before termination of a sentence.

(1) At any time before a defendant's sentence terminates, the defendant may petition the sentencing court to:

(a) correct an error in a criminal accounts receivable;
(b) modify the payment schedule for the defendant's criminal accounts receivable in accordance with this section if the defendant is not under the jurisdiction of the board; or
(c) remit, in whole or in part, an unpaid amount of the defendant's criminal accounts receivable that is not the principal or interest amount owed for restitution in accordance with this section.
(2) If a defendant files a petition under Subsection (1), and it appears to the satisfaction of the sentencing court that payment of an unpaid amount of a criminal accounts receivable will impose manifest hardship on the defendant, or the defendant's family, the court may:
(a) if the criminal accounts receivable is not delinquent or in default, remit, in whole or in part, the unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable that is not the principal or interest amount owed for restitution; or
(b) regardless of whether the criminal accounts receivable is delinquent or in default:
(i) require the defendant to pay the criminal accounts receivable, or a specified amount of the criminal accounts receivable, by a certain date;
(ii) modify the payment schedule for the criminal accounts receivable in accordance with the factors described in Subsection 77-32b-103(3)(b) if the defendant has demonstrated that the criminal accounts receivable will impose a manifest hardship due to changed circumstances or new evidence that justifies modifying the payment schedule; or
(iii)
(A) allow the defendant to satisfy an unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable, that is not the principal or interest amount owed for restitution, with proof of compensatory service completed by the defendant at a rate of credit not less than $10 for each hour of compensatory service; and
(B) allow the defendant to reduce the unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable, that is not the principal or interest amount owed for restitution, in the amount of the cost of any treatment or course if:
(I) the treatment or course was ordered by the court as part of the case;
(II) the defendant has completed the court's requirements related to the treatment or course; and
(III) the defendant provides proof that the defendant completed the court's requirements and paid the cost of the treatment or course.
(3)
(a) If a defendant is under the jurisdiction of the board, the defendant may petition the board, at any time before the defendant's sentence terminates, to modify the payment schedule for the defendant's criminal accounts receivable.
(b) If a defendant files a petition under Subsection (3)(a), the board may modify the payment schedule for the criminal accounts receivable in accordance with the factors described in Subsection 77-32b-103(3)(b) if the defendant has demonstrated that the criminal accounts receivable will impose a manifest hardship to the defendant, or the defendant's family, due to changed circumstances or new evidence that justifies modifying the payment schedule.

Amended by Chapter 259, 2025 General Session

77-32b-106 Petition for remittance of an unpaid balance of a criminal accounts receivable upon termination of a sentence.
(1)
(a) If a defendant is not under the jurisdiction of the board, and if any amount of a defendant's criminal accounts receivable is unpaid at the termination of the defendant's sentence, the defendant may petition the sentencing court, within 90 days after the day on which the sentence is terminated, to remit, in whole or in part, the unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable.

(b)

(i) If a defendant is under the jurisdiction of the board, and if any amount of the defendant's criminal accounts receivable is unpaid at the termination of the defendant's sentence, the defendant may petition the board within 90 days after the day on which the sentence is terminated, to remit, in whole or in part, the unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable.

(ii) If a defendant files a petition for remittance under Subsection (1)(b)(i) within 90 days from the day on which the defendant's sentence is terminated, the board retains jurisdiction over the defendant's case beyond the termination of the defendant's sentence to determine whether to remit, in whole or in part, the defendant's criminal accounts receivable.

(a) If a petition is filed under Subsection (1), a hearing shall be held, unless the court or the board determines that the petition under Subsection (1) is frivolous or the petition is uncontested.

(b) If a hearing is held under Subsection (2)(a), and the court, or the board, finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the factors listed in Subsection (3) weigh in favor of remitting, in whole or in part, the unpaid amount of a criminal accounts receivable, the court or the board may remit:

(i) any of the unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable that is not the principal amount owed for restitution; or

(ii) if the victim consents to remittance of the unpaid amount of the criminal accounts receivable that is restitution that the defendant owes to the victim, any of the unpaid amount of restitution that defendant owes to the victim.

(c) The court, or the board, shall give the prosecuting attorney and the victim:

(i) notice of a hearing on the remittance of a criminal accounts receivable; and

(ii) an opportunity to be heard at the hearing.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a victim from pursuing a private action against a defendant, even if the victim consents to the remission of restitution.

(3) In making a determination to remit an unpaid amount of a criminal accounts receivable, the court, or the board, shall consider:

(a) whether the defendant has made substantial and good faith efforts to make payments on the criminal accounts receivable;

(b) the needs of the victim;

(c) whether the remission would further the rehabilitation of the defendant;

(d) the ability of the defendant to continue to make payments on a civil accounts receivable; and

(e) any other factor that the court or the board determines is relevant.

(4) If any unpaid amount of a criminal accounts receivable is not remitted by the court or the board upon termination of the defendant's sentence, the court shall proceed with an order for a civil judgment of restitution and a civil accounts receivable as described in Section 77-18-114.

Enacted by Chapter 260, 2021 General Session

77-32b-107 Verified statement of time and expenses of counsel for indigent defendants.

The court may require a verified statement of time and expenses from appointed counsel, or the nonprofit legal aid or other association providing counsel, for a convicted indigent defendant in order to establish any cost under Section 77-32b-104 that will be included in the judgment.

Chapter 33
Uniform Rendition of Prisoners as Witnesses in Criminal Proceedings Act

77-33-1 Definitions.

As used in this act:

(1) "Witness" means a person who is confined in a penal institution in any state and whose testimony is desired in another state in any criminal proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or in any criminal action before a court.

(2) "Penal institution" includes a jail, prison, penitentiary, house of correction, or other place of penal detention; and

(3) "State" includes any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any territory of the United States.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-33-2 Summoning prisoner in this state to testify in another state -- Certificate of out-of-state judge.

A judge of a state court of record in another state, which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons confined in penal institutions within that state to attend and testify in this state, may certify (1) that there is a criminal proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or a criminal action pending in the court, (2) that a person who is confined in a penal institution in this state may be a material witness in the proceeding, investigation, or action, and (3) that his presence will be required during a specified time. Upon presentation of the certificate to any judge having jurisdiction over the person confined, and upon notice to the attorney general, the judge in this state shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall make an order directed to the person having custody of the prisoner requiring that the prisoner be produced before him at the hearing.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-33-3 Summoning prisoner in this state to testify in another state -- Hearing -- Issuance of order to attend.

If at the hearing the judge determines:

(1) that the witness may be material and necessary;

(2) that his attending and testifying are not adverse to the interest of this state or to the health or legal rights of the witness;

(3) that the laws of the state in which he is requested to testify will give him protection from arrest and the service of civil and criminal process because of any act committed prior to his arrival in the state under the order; and

(4) that as a practical matter the possibility is negligible that the witness may be subject to arrest or to the service of civil or criminal process in any state through which he will be required to pass, the judge shall issue an order, with a copy of the certificate attached:

(a) directing the witness to attend and testify;

(b) directing the person having custody of the witness to produce him, in the court where the criminal action is pending, or where the grand jury investigation is pending, at a time and place specified in the order; and
(c) prescribing such conditions as the judge shall determine.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-33-4 Summoning prisoner in this state to testify in another state -- Order to provide for return, safeguards on custody, and payment of expenses.

The order to the witness and to the person having custody of the witness shall provide for the return of the witness at the conclusion of his testimony, proper safeguards on his custody, and proper financial reimbursement or prepayment by the requesting jurisdiction for all expenses incurred in the production and return of the witness, and may prescribe such other conditions as the judge thinks proper or necessary. The order shall not become effective until the judge of the state requesting the witness enters an order directing compliance with the conditions prescribed.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-33-5 Rendition procedure inapplicable to person confined as insane or having a mental illness or under sentence of death.

This act does not apply to any person in this state confined as insane or as having a mental illness or under sentence of death.

Amended by Chapter 366, 2011 General Session

77-33-6 Prisoner in another state summoned to testify in this state -- Certificate of judge.

If a person confined in a penal institution in any state may be a material witness in a criminal action pending in a court of record or in a grand jury investigation in this state, a judge of the court may certify (1) that there is a criminal proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or a criminal action pending in the court, (2) that a person who is confined in a penal institution in another state may be a material witness in the proceeding, investigation, or action, and (3) that his presence will be required during a specified time. The certificate shall be presented to a judge of a court of record in the other state having jurisdiction over the prisoner confined, and a notice shall be given to the attorney general of the state in which the prisoner is confined.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-33-7 Prisoner in another state summoned to testify in this state -- Order of compliance with terms and conditions prescribed by out-of-state judge.

The judge of the court in this state may enter an order directing compliance with the terms and conditions prescribed by the judge of the state in which the witness is confined.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-33-8 Exemption of prisoner from another state from arrest or service of process.

If a witness from another state comes into or passes through this state under an order directing him to attend and testify in this or another state, he shall not while in this state pursuant to the order be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, because of any act committed prior to his arrival in this state under the order.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-33-9 Uniformity of interpretation.

This act shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

Uniform Interstate Furlough Compact

77-34-1 Citation -- Utah Interstate Furlough Compact.

This chapter may be cited as the "Utah Interstate Furlough Compact."

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-34-2 Definitions.

As used in this compact:

(1) "State" means a state in the United States, the United States of America, a territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico;
(2) "Sending state" means a state which is party to this compact in which conviction or commitment was had except if confinement be in another state, pursuant to the Interstate Corrections Compact, in which event the sending state shall be determined by contract between the parties of the Interstate Corrections Compact agreement;
(3) "Receiving state" means a state which is party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for furlough;
(4) "Institution" means a penal or correctional facility, including all those facilities normally used by adult correctional agencies for the care and custody of inmates whether or not such facilities are owned or operated by the agencies;
(5) "Relative" means spouse, child (including stepchild, adopted child, or foster child), parents (including stepparents, adoptive parents, or foster parents), brothers, sisters, and grandparents;
(6) "Interstate furlough" means any out-of-state leave of an inmate for a designated period in accordance with the requirements established by the appropriate officials of the sending state;
(7) "Appropriate official" means a person designated by the sending state to grant furloughs or by the receiving state to accept or reject furloughs pursuant to this compact;

(8) "Authorized person" means a person designated by law or appointment for purposes of escorting, transferring, or retaining a furloughed inmate;
(9) "Medical emergency" means any illness, injury, incapacity, or condition, physical or mental, of such a nature and gravity that timely and immediate treatment of and attention to the illness is required to prevent permanent injury, substantial harm, or death, and which cannot be adequately treated or attended to, in a timely manner, by the sending state;
(10) "Escorted interstate furlough" means the transference of an inmate in emergency situations, who does not meet the furlough requirements of the sending state to a state which is party to the compact under escort or guard of an authorized person of the sending state;
(11) "Escapee" means an inmate who is on interstate furlough, pursuant to this compact, and fails to return at the prescribed time to the sending state or becomes a known absconder during the period of his furlough; and
(12) "Violator" means an inmate who is on interstate furlough in the receiving state, pursuant to this compact, and fails to abide by the conditions of the furlough as established by the sending state.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-34-3 Reasons for granting furlough pursuant to compact -- Period of furlough -- Escorted furloughs -- Waiver of extradition -- Termination of furlough -- Laws and regulations applicable to inmates.

(1) A furlough pursuant to this compact may be granted to an inmate for the following reasons:
  (a) To visit a critically ill relative;
  (b) To attend a funeral of a relative;
  (c) To obtain medical services of both a physiological and psychiatric nature;
  (d) To contact prospective employers;
  (e) To secure a suitable residence for use upon discharge or upon parole; if in the latter event, the inmate qualifies for the Interstate Parole and Probation Compact;
  (f) For any other reason which, in the opinion of the appropriate official of the sending state, is consistent with the rehabilitation of the inmate.
(2) A furlough among states which are party to the compact shall be granted for a period not to exceed 15 days, including travel time; however, for emergency or other exigent circumstances and at the written request of the furloughee, an extension may be granted by the appropriate official of the sending state upon the consent of the receiving state.
(3) For those inmates ineligible for an unescorted furlough, the sending state, in emergency situations, as defined below, may furlough those inmates under escort to a state which is party to this compact. All inmates on escorted furlough shall be under the guard and jurisdiction of an authorized person from the sending state and shall be under the continuous supervision of that person as consistent with Section 77-34-6.
  (a) An emergency situation shall apply only to visit a critically ill relative, to attend a funeral of a relative, or if a medical emergency exists. In all such instances, the sending state shall first verify the legitimacy of the request and if verified shall request the receiving state to approve or reject the proposed furlough.
  (b) Escorted furloughs granted for these reasons shall not exceed four days including travel time; however for emergency or other exigent circumstances and at the written request of the inmate, an extension may be granted by the appropriate official of the sending state upon the verification and consent of the appropriate official of the receiving state.

(4) Prior to the authorization for an inmate to go beyond the limits of the state, the appropriate official shall obtain a written waiver of extradition from the inmate waiving his right to be extradited from any state to which he is furloughed or from any state where he was apprehended.
(5) The grant of a stipulated period of furlough may be terminated by either the sending or receiving state upon written showing of cause. In some instances, the furloughed inmate shall be given reasonable opportunity to obtain the information, including written statements of witnesses and other documentation, which may be of assistance to him in subsequent disciplinary hearings by the sending state for those events or violations that caused termination of his furlough. Reasonable costs of gathering of the information shall be chargeable to the furloughee or to the sending state in the event of the furloughed inmate's inability to pay.
(6) Inmates from the sending state, who are on interstate furlough in the receiving state, shall be subject to all the provisions of laws and regulations applicable to those on interstate furlough status within the receiving state, not inconsistent with the sentence imposed.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-34-4 Duties of officials in nonemergency and emergency cases.
(1) In nonemergency situations, the appropriate official of the sending state shall notify the appropriate official of the receiving state in writing 30 days prior to the granting of the furlough, requesting the receiving state to investigate the circumstances of the proposed furlough plan. In these circumstances, the receiving state shall respond in writing within 10 days prior to the proposed furlough either accepting the inmate or stating the reasons for the rejection.
(2) In emergency circumstances, as defined in Subsection 77-34-3(3)(a), the appropriate official of the sending state shall, prior to granting such furlough:
  (a) verify the legitimacy of the request; and
  (b) upon verification, immediately notify and secure the consent of the receiving state.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-34-5 Contracts supplemental to compact authorized.
The appropriate official of a party state may supplement but in no way abrogate the provisions of this compact through one or more contracts with any other party state for the furlough of inmates. The contracts may provide for:
(1) Duration;
(2) Terms and conditions of the furlough;
(3) Report of violations and escapes by furloughees;
(4) Costs, if any, to be incurred;
(5) Delivery and retaining of furloughees; and
(6) Other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the jurisdictions, obligations, responsibilities, liabilities, and rights of the sending and receiving states.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-34-6 Jurisdiction and duties of authorized persons of sending and receiving states.
(1) As provided for by the laws, rules, and regulations of the sending state, the furloughee will at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the appropriate officials and authorized persons of the sending state who shall retain the powers over the furloughee that they would normally exercise over the inmate were he on intrastate furlough.

(2) The authorized person of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on furlough. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of that person and the identity of the furloughee to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are hereby expressly waived on the part of the states party hereto as to such persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on furlough shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state; provided, however, that if at the time when a state seeks to retake a furloughee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or should he be suspected of having committed within that state a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for the offense.

(3) The authorized person of the sending state or the receiving state acting as agent for the sending state will be permitted to transport inmates being retaken through any or all states party to this compact without interference.

(4) The governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact.

(5) Appropriate officials and authorized persons of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state with respect to jurisdiction over and liability for the furloughees. The jurisdiction and liability of the sending and receiving states may be subject to further contractual specifications by the sending and receiving states as may be deemed necessary.

(6) The receiving state shall, upon a furlough violation of which it has knowledge, promptly notify the sending state. The notification should specify the nature of the violation and, if a crime has been committed, shall, whenever possible, give the official and furloughee's version of the act. If the grant of furlough is terminated due to the violation, the right and responsibility to retake the furloughee shall be that of the sending state but nothing contained herein shall prevent the receiving state from assisting the sending state toward retaking and returning the furloughee except in instances where the receiving state shall subject the furloughee to confinement for a crime allegedly committed during the furlough within its boundaries. All costs in connection therewith shall be chargeable to the sending state unless costs arise from an escape from confinement in the receiving state.

(7) In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the right and responsibility to retake the escapee shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee, except in instances where the receiving state shall subject the furloughee to confinement for a crime allegedly committed during furlough within its boundaries.

(8) The receiving state shall make all necessary arrangements to secure overnight lodging in a state, county, or municipal facility for escorted furloughees or, in exceptional circumstances, for unescorted furloughees when they would not have the availability of overnight lodging.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-34-7 Costs and expenses.

(1) Costs arising out of a grant of a furlough for transportation, lodgings, meals, and other related expenses shall be the sole responsibility of the furloughee; however, in the event that the furloughee is financially unable to pay for these expenses, such costs may be assumed by the sending state.

(2) Extraordinary costs, other than those specified in Subsection (1) arising from the grant of furlough among party states shall be the sole responsibility of the sending state. Such costs will generally be confined to emergency medical and special confinement and transportation needs.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session

77-34-8 Effect of execution of compact between states -- Renunciation of compact.

The contracting states solemnly agree:
(1) That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state; and
(2) That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to furloughees residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending a six-month notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto.

77-36-2.1 Duties of law enforcement officers -- Notice to victims -- Lethality assessments.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Criminal justice system victim advocate" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38-403.

(b)

(i) "Dating relationship" means a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature, or a relationship which has romance or intimacy as a goal by one or both parties, regardless of whether the relationship involves sexual intimacy.

(ii) "Dating relationship" does not include casual fraternization in a business, educational, or social context.

(c) "Intimate partner" means an emancipated individual under Section 15-2-1 or an individual who is 16 years old or older who:

(i) is or was a spouse of the other party;

(ii) is or was living as if a spouse of the other party;

(iii) has or had one or more children in common with the other party;

(iv) is the biological parent of the other party's unborn child;

(v) is or was in a consensual sexual relationship with the other party; or

(vi) is or was in a dating relationship with the other party.

(d) "Nongovernment organization victim advocate" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-38-403.

(e) "Primary purpose domestic violence organization" means a contract provider of domestic violence services as described in Section 80-2-301.

(2) A law enforcement officer who responds to an allegation of domestic violence shall:

(a) use all reasonable means to protect the victim and prevent further violence, including:

(i) taking the action that, in the officer's discretion, is reasonably necessary to provide for the safety of the victim and any family or household member;

(ii) confiscating the weapon or weapons involved in the alleged domestic violence;

(iii) making arrangements for the victim and any child to obtain emergency housing or shelter;

(iv) providing protection while the victim removes essential personal effects;

(v) arrange, facilitate, or provide for the victim and any child to obtain medical treatment;

(vi) arrange, facilitate, or provide the victim with immediate and adequate notice of the rights of victims and of the remedies and services available to victims of domestic violence, in accordance with Subsection (3); and

(vii) providing the pamphlet created by the department under Section 53-5a-502 to the victim if the allegation of domestic violence:
(A) includes a threat of violence as described in Section 76-5-107;
(B) results, or would result, in the owner cohabitant becoming a restricted person under Section 76-11-302 or 76-11-303; or
(C) is accompanied by a completed lethality assessment that demonstrates the cohabitant is at high risk of being further victimized; and
(b) if the allegation of domestic violence is against an intimate partner, complete the lethality assessment protocols described in this section.
(3)
(a) A law enforcement officer shall give written notice to the victim in simple language, describing the rights and remedies available under this chapter, Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 6, Cohabitant Abuse Protective Orders, and Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 2, Child Protective Orders.
(b) The written notice shall include:
(i) a statement that the forms needed in order to obtain an order for protection are available from the court clerk's office in the judicial district where the victim resides or is temporarily domiciled;
(ii) a list of shelters, services, and resources available in the appropriate community, together with telephone numbers, to assist the victim in accessing any needed assistance; and
(iii) the information required to be provided to both parties in accordance with Subsections 78B-7-802(8) and (9) .
(4) If a weapon is confiscated under this section, the law enforcement agency shall return the weapon to the individual from whom the weapon is confiscated if a domestic violence protective order is not issued or once the domestic violence protective order is terminated.
(5) A law enforcement officer shall complete a lethality assessment form by asking the victim:
(a) if the aggressor has ever used a weapon against the victim or threatened the victim with a weapon;
(b) if the aggressor has ever threatened to kill the victim or the victim's children;
(c) if the victim believes the aggressor will try to kill the victim;
(d) if the aggressor has ever tried to choke the victim;
(e) if the aggressor has a gun or could easily get a gun;
(f) if the aggressor is violently or constantly jealous, or controls most of the daily activities of the victim;
(g) if the victim left or separated from the aggressor after they were living together or married;
(h) if the aggressor is unemployed;
(i) if the aggressor has ever attempted suicide, to the best of the victim's knowledge;
(j) if the victim has a child that the aggressor believes is not the aggressor's biological child;
(k) if the aggressor follows or spies on the victim, or leaves threatening messages for the victim; and
(l) if there is anything else that worries the victim about the victim's safety and, if so, what worries the victim.
(6) A law enforcement officer shall comply with Subsection (7) if:
(a) the victim answers affirmatively to any of the questions in Subsections (5)(a) through (d);
(b) the victim answers negatively to the questions in Subsections (5)(a) through (d), but affirmatively to at least four of the questions in Subsections (5)(e) through (k); or
(c) as a result of the victim's response to the question in Subsection (5)(l), the law enforcement officer believes the victim is in a potentially lethal situation.
(7) If the criteria in Subsections (6)(a), (b), or (c) are met, the law enforcement officer shall:

(a) advise the victim of the results of the assessment;
(b) refer the victim to a nongovernment organization victim advocate at a primary purpose domestic violence organization; and
(c) refer the victim to a criminal justice system victim advocate if the responding law enforcement agency has a criminal justice system victim advocate available.

(8) If a victim does not or is unable to provide information to a law enforcement officer sufficient to allow the law enforcement officer to complete a lethality assessment form, or does not speak or is unable to speak with a nongovernment organization victim advocate, the law enforcement officer shall document this information on the lethality assessment form and submit the information to the Department of Public Safety under Subsection (9).

(9)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (9)(b), a law enforcement officer shall submit the results of a lethality assessment to the Department of Public Safety while on scene.
(b) If a law enforcement officer is not reasonably able to submit the results of a lethality assessment while on scene, the law enforcement officer shall submit the results of the lethality assessment to the Department of Public Safety as soon as practicable.
(c)
(i) Before the reporting mechanism described in Subsection (10)(a) is developed, a law enforcement officer shall submit the results of a lethality assessment to the Department of Public Safety using means prescribed by the Department of Public Safety.
(ii) After the reporting mechanism described in Subsection (10)(a) is developed, a law enforcement officer shall submit the results of a lethality assessment to the Department of Public Safety using that reporting mechanism.

(10) The Department of Public Safety shall:
(a) as soon as practicable, develop and maintain a reporting mechanism by which a law enforcement officer will submit the results of a lethality assessment as required by Subsection (9);
(b) provide prompt analytical support to a law enforcement officer who submits the results of a lethality assessment using the reporting mechanism described in Subsection (10)(a); and
(c) create and maintain a database of lethality assessment data provided under this section.

(11)
(a) Subject to Subsection (11)(b), a law enforcement officer shall include the results of a lethality assessment and any related, relevant analysis provided by the Department of Public Safety under Subsection (10), with:
(i) a probable cause statement submitted in accordance with Rule 9 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure; and
(ii) an incident report prepared in accordance with Section 77-36-2.2.
(b) In a probable cause statement or incident report, a law enforcement officer may not include information about how or where a victim was referred under Subsection (7)(b).

77-36-2.2 Powers and duties of law enforcement officers to arrest -- Reports of domestic violence cases -- Reports of parties' marital status.

(1) The primary duty of law enforcement officers responding to a domestic violence call is to protect the victim and enforce the law.

(2)

(a) In addition to the arrest powers described in Section 77-7-2, when a peace officer responds to a domestic violence call and has probable cause to believe that an act of domestic violence has been committed, the peace officer shall arrest without a warrant or shall issue a citation to any person that the peace officer has probable cause to believe has committed an act of domestic violence.

(b)

(i) If the peace officer has probable cause to believe that there will be continued violence against the alleged victim, or if there is evidence that the perpetrator has either recently caused serious bodily injury or used a dangerous weapon in the domestic violence offense, the officer shall arrest and take the alleged perpetrator into custody, and may not utilize the option of issuing a citation under this section.

(ii) For purposes of Subsection (2)(b)(i), "serious bodily injury" and "dangerous weapon" mean the same as those terms are defined in Section 76-1-101.5.

(c) If a peace officer does not immediately exercise arrest powers or initiate criminal proceedings by citation or otherwise, the officer shall notify the victim of the right to initiate a criminal proceeding and of the importance of preserving evidence, in accordance with the requirements of Section 77-36-2.1.

(3) If a law enforcement officer receives complaints of domestic violence from two or more opposing persons, the officer shall evaluate each complaint separately to determine who the predominant aggressor was. If the officer determines that one person was the predominant physical aggressor, the officer need not arrest the other person alleged to have committed domestic violence. In determining who the predominant aggressor was, the officer shall consider:

(a) any prior complaints of domestic violence;

(b) the relative severity of injuries inflicted on each person;

(c) the likelihood of future injury to each of the parties; and

(d) whether one of the parties acted in self defense.

(4) A law enforcement officer may not threaten, suggest, or otherwise indicate the possible arrest of all parties in order to discourage any party's request for intervention by law enforcement.

(5)

(a) A law enforcement officer who does not make an arrest after investigating a complaint of domestic violence, or who arrests two or more parties, shall submit a detailed, written report specifying the grounds for not arresting any party or for arresting both parties.

(b) A law enforcement officer who does not make an arrest shall notify the victim of the right to initiate a criminal proceeding and of the importance of preserving evidence.

(6)

(a) A law enforcement officer responding to a complaint of domestic violence shall prepare an incident report that includes:

(i) the officer's disposition of the case; and

(ii) the results of any lethality assessment completed in accordance with Section 77-36-2.1.

(b) From January 1, 2009, until December 31, 2013, any law enforcement officer employed by a city of the first or second class responding to a complaint of domestic violence shall also report, either as a part of an incident report or on a separate form, the following information:

(i) marital status of each of the parties involved;

(ii) social, familial, or legal relationship of the suspect to the victim; and

(iii) whether or not an arrest was made.

(c) The information obtained in Subsection (6)(b):

(i) shall be reported monthly to the department;

(ii) shall be reported as numerical data that contains no personal identifiers; and
(iii) is a public record as defined in Section 63G-2-103.
(d) The incident report shall be made available to the victim, upon request, at no cost.
(e) The law enforcement agency shall forward a copy of the incident report to the appropriate prosecuting attorney within five days after the complaint of domestic violence occurred.
(7) The department shall compile the information described in Subsections (6)(b) and (c) into a report and present that report to the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Interim Committee during the 2013 interim, no later than May 31, 2013.
(8) Each law enforcement agency shall, as soon as practicable, make a written record and maintain records of all incidents of domestic violence reported to it, and shall be identified by a law enforcement agency code for domestic violence.

Amended by Chapter 447, 2023 General Session

77-36-2.3 Law enforcement officer's training.

All training of law enforcement officers relating to domestic violence shall stress protection of the victim, enforcement of criminal laws in domestic situations, and the availability of community shelters, services, and resources. Law enforcement agencies and community organizations with expertise in domestic violence shall cooperate in all aspects of that training.

Enacted by Chapter 300, 1995 General Session

77-36-2.4 Violation of a protective order -- Mandatory arrest -- Penalties.

(1) A law enforcement officer shall arrest an alleged perpetrator for a violation of any of the provisions of an ex parte protective order or protective order in accordance with Section 78B-7-119.
(2) A violation of a protective order is punishable in accordance with Section 76-5-108.

Amended by Chapter 142, 2020 General Session

77-36-2.6 Appearance required -- Considerations by court.

(1) An alleged perpetrator who is arrested for an offense involving domestic violence shall appear in person or by video before the court or a magistrate within one judicial day after the day on which the arrest is made.
(2) An alleged perpetrator who is charged by citation, indictment, or information with an offense involving domestic violence but has not been arrested, shall appear before the court in person for arraignment or initial appearance as soon as practicable, but no later than 14 days after the next day on which court is in session following the issuance of the citation or the filing of the indictment or information.
(3) At the time of an appearance under Subsection (1) or (2), the court shall consider imposing a pretrial protective order in accordance with Section 78B-7-803.
(4) Appearances required by this section are mandatory and may not be waived.

Amended by Chapter 159, 2021 General Session

77-36-2.7 Dismissal -- Diversion prohibited -- Plea in abeyance -- Pretrial protective order.

(1) Because of the serious nature of domestic violence, the court, in domestic violence actions:

(a) may not dismiss any charge or delay disposition because of concurrent divorce or other civil proceedings;
(b) may not require proof that either party is seeking a dissolution of marriage before instigation of criminal proceedings;
(c) shall waive any requirement that the victim's location be disclosed other than to the alleged perpetrator's attorney and order the alleged perpetrator's attorney not to disclose the victim's location to the client;
(d) shall identify, on the docket sheets, the criminal actions arising from acts of domestic violence; and
(e) may hold a plea in abeyance, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 2a, Pleas in Abeyance, making treatment or any other requirement for the alleged perpetrator a condition of that status.

(2) When the court holds a plea in abeyance in accordance with Subsection (1)(e), the case against a perpetrator of domestic violence may be dismissed only if the perpetrator successfully completes all conditions imposed by the court. If the perpetrator fails to complete any condition imposed by the court under Subsection (1)(e), the court may accept the perpetrator's plea.

(3) When an alleged perpetrator is charged with a crime involving a qualifying offense, as defined in Section 78B-7-801, the court may, during any court hearing where the alleged perpetrator is present, issue a pretrial protective order in accordance with Section 78B-7-803.

(4)
(a) When a court dismisses criminal charges or a prosecutor moves to dismiss charges against an alleged perpetrator of a domestic violence offense, the specific reasons for dismissal shall be recorded in the court file and made a part of any related order or agreement on the statewide domestic violence network described in Section 78B-7-113.
(b) The court shall transmit the dismissal to the statewide domestic violence network.
(c) Any pretrial protective orders, including jail release court orders and jail release agreements, related to the dismissed domestic violence criminal charge shall also be dismissed.

(5) The court may not approve diversion for a perpetrator of domestic violence.

Amended by Chapter 159, 2021 General Session

77-36-5 Sentencing -- Restricting contact with victim -- Electronic monitoring -- Counseling -- Cost assessed against perpetrator -- Sentencing protective order -- Continuous protective order.

(1) When a perpetrator is found guilty of a crime involving domestic violence and a condition of the sentence restricts the perpetrator's contact with the victim, a sentencing protective order may be issued under Section 78B-7-804 for the length of the perpetrator's probation or a continuous protective order may be issued under Section 78B-7-804.

(2) In determining the court's sentence, the court, in addition to penalties otherwise provided by law, may require the perpetrator to participate in an electronic or other type of monitoring program.

(3) The court may also require the perpetrator to pay all or part of the costs of counseling incurred by the victim and any children affected by or exposed to the domestic violence offense, as well as the costs for the perpetrator's own counseling.

(4) The court shall:
(a) assess against the perpetrator, as restitution, any costs for services or treatment provided to the victim and affected child of the victim or the perpetrator by the Division of Child and Family Services under Section 80-2-301; and

(b) order those costs to be paid directly to the division or its contracted provider.

(5) The court may order the perpetrator to obtain and satisfactorily complete treatment or therapy in a domestic violence treatment program, as defined in Section 26B-2-101, that is licensed by the Department of Human Services.

Amended by Chapter 335, 2022 General Session

77-36-5.1 Conditions of probation for domestic violence offense.

(1) Before a perpetrator who is convicted or adjudicated of a domestic violence offense may be placed on probation, the court shall consider the safety and protection of the victim and any member of the victim's family or household.

(2) The court may condition probation or a plea in abeyance on the perpetrator's compliance with one or more orders of the court, which may include:

(a) a sentencing protective order issued under Section 78B-7-804;

(b) prohibiting the perpetrator from possessing or consuming alcohol or controlled substances;

(c) prohibiting the perpetrator from purchasing, using, or possessing a firearm or other specified weapon;

(d) directing the perpetrator to surrender any weapons the perpetrator owns or possesses;

(e) directing the perpetrator to participate in and complete, to the satisfaction of the court, a program of intervention for perpetrators, treatment for alcohol or substance abuse, or psychiatric or psychological treatment;

(f) directing the perpetrator to pay restitution to the victim, enforcement of which shall be in accordance with Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act; and

(g) imposing any other condition necessary to protect the victim and any other designated family or household member or to rehabilitate the perpetrator.

(3) The perpetrator is responsible for the costs of any condition of probation, according to the perpetrator's ability to pay.

(4)

(a) The Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202, or other provider, shall immediately report to the court and notify the victim of any offense involving domestic violence committed by the perpetrator, the perpetrator's failure to comply with any condition imposed by the court, and any violation of a sentencing protective order issued by the court under Section 78B-7-804.

(b) Notification of the victim under Subsection (4)(a) shall consist of a good faith reasonable effort to provide prompt notification, including mailing a copy of the notification to the last-known address of the victim.

(5) In addition to a protective order issued under this section, the court may issue a separate order relating to the transfer of a wireless telephone number in accordance with Section 78B-7-117.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-36-6 Enforcement of orders.

(1) Each law enforcement agency in this state shall enforce all orders of the court issued under the requirements and procedures described in this chapter, and shall enforce:

(a) all protective orders and ex parte protective orders issued under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 6, Cohabitant Abuse Protective Orders;

(b) pretrial protective orders issued under Section 78B-7-803 and sentencing protective orders and continuous protective orders issued under Section 78B-7-804; and

(c) all foreign protection orders enforceable under Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 3, Uniform Interstate Enforcement of Domestic Violence Protection Orders Act.

(2) The requirements of this section apply statewide, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the order was issued or the location of the victim or the perpetrator.

Amended by Chapter 142, 2020 General Session

77-36-7 Prosecutor to notify victim of decision as to prosecution.

(1) The prosecutor who is responsible for making the decision of whether to prosecute a case shall advise the victim, if the victim has requested notification, of the status of the victim's case and shall notify the victim of a decision within five days after the decision has been made.

(2) Notification to the victim that charges will not be filed against an alleged perpetrator shall include a description of the procedures available to the victim in that jurisdiction for initiation of criminal and other protective proceedings.

Amended by Chapter 244, 1996 General Session

77-36-8 Peace officers' immunity from liability.

A peace officer may not be held liable in any civil action brought by a party to an incident of domestic violence for making or failing to make an arrest or for issuing or failing to issue a citation in accordance with this chapter, for enforcing in good faith an order of the court, or for acting or omitting to act in any other way in good faith under this chapter, in situations arising from an alleged incident of domestic violence.

Amended by Chapter 300, 1995 General Session

77-36-9 Severability clause.

If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Chapter 37
Victims' Rights

77-37-1 Legislative findings.

(1)

(a) The Legislature recognizes the duty of victims and witnesses of crime to fully and voluntarily cooperate with law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies, the essential nature of citizen cooperation to state and local law enforcement efforts, and the general effectiveness and well-being of the criminal justice system of this state.

(b) The state shall ensure that all victims and witnesses of crime are treated with dignity, respect, courtesy, and sensitivity, and that the rights extended in this chapter to victims and witnesses of crime are honored and protected by law in a manner no less vigorous than protections afforded criminal defendants.

(a) The Legislature finds it is necessary to provide child victims and child witnesses with additional consideration and different treatment than that usually afforded to adults.

(b) The treatment should ensure that children's participation in the criminal justice process be conducted in the most effective and least traumatic, intrusive, or intimidating manner.

Amended by Chapter 261, 2025 General Session

77-37-2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Alleged sexual offender" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-10-801.

(2) "Child" means a person who is younger than 18 years old, unless otherwise specified in statute. The rights to information as extended in this chapter also apply to the parents, custodian, or legal guardians of children.

(3) "Family member" means spouse, child, sibling, parent, grandparent, or legal guardian.

(4) "HIV infection" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-10-801.

(5) "Sexual assault kit" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-10-902.

(6)

(a) "Sexual offense" means any conduct described in:

(i) Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses;

(ii) Title 76, Chapter 5b, Sexual Exploitation Act; or

(iii) Section 76-7-102, incest.

(b) "Sexual offense" does not include conduct described in:

(i) Section 76-5-417, enticing a minor;

(ii) Section 76-5-420, lewdness involving a child; or

(iii) Section 76-5b-206, failure to report child sexual abuse material by a computer technician.

(7) "Victim" means an individual, including a minor, against whom an offense has been allegedly committed.

(8) "Witness" means any person who has been subpoenaed or is expected to be summoned to testify for the prosecution or who by reason of having relevant information is subject to call or likely to be called as a witness for the prosecution, whether any action or proceeding has commenced.

Amended by Chapter 173, 2025 General Session

77-37-3 Bill of rights.

(1) The bill of rights for victims and witnesses is:

(a) Victims and witnesses have a right to be informed as to the level of protection from intimidation and harm available to them, and from what sources, as they participate in criminal justice proceedings as designated by Section 76-8-508, regarding tampering with a witness, and Section 76-8-509, regarding extortion or bribery to dismiss a criminal proceeding. Law enforcement, prosecution, and corrections personnel have the duty to timely provide this information in a form which is useful to the victim.

(b) Victims and witnesses, including children and their guardians, have a right to be informed and assisted as to their role in the criminal justice process. All criminal justice agencies have the duty to provide this information and assistance.

(c) Victims and witnesses have a right to clear explanations regarding relevant legal proceedings; these explanations shall be appropriate to the age of child victims and witnesses. All criminal justice agencies have the duty to provide these explanations.

(d) Victims and witnesses should have a secure waiting area that does not require them to be in close proximity to defendants or the family and friends of defendants. Agencies controlling facilities shall, whenever possible, provide this area.

(e) Victims may seek restitution or reparations, including medical costs, as provided in Title 63M, Chapter 7, Criminal Justice and Substance Abuse, Title 77, Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act, and Section 80-6-710. State and local government agencies that serve victims have the duty to have a functional knowledge of the procedures established by the Utah Office for Victims of Crime and to inform victims of these procedures.

(f) Victims and witnesses have a right to have any personal property returned as provided in Chapter 11a, Seizure of Property and Contraband, and Chapter 11d, Lost or Mislaid Property. Criminal justice agencies shall expeditiously return the property when it is no longer needed for court law enforcement or prosecution purposes.

(g) Victims and witnesses have the right to reasonable employer intercession services, including pursuing employer cooperation in minimizing employees' loss of pay and other benefits resulting from their participation in the criminal justice process. Officers of the court shall provide these services and shall consider victims' and witnesses' schedules so that activities which conflict can be avoided. Where conflicts cannot be avoided, the victim may request that the responsible agency intercede with employers or other parties.

(h) Victims and witnesses, particularly children, should have a speedy disposition of the entire criminal justice process. All involved public agencies shall establish policies and procedures to encourage speedy disposition of criminal cases.

(i) Victims and witnesses have the right to timely notice of judicial proceedings they are to attend and timely notice of cancellation of any proceedings. Criminal justice agencies have the duty to provide these notifications. Defense counsel and others have the duty to provide timely notice to prosecution of any continuances or other changes that may be required.

(2) In addition to the rights of a victim described in Subsection (1), a victim of a sexual offense has the right to:

(a) request voluntary testing for themselves for HIV infection as described in Section 53-10-803;

(b) request mandatory testing of the alleged sexual offender for HIV infection as described in Section 53-10-802;

(c) not to be prevented from, or charged for, a medical forensic examination;

(d) have the evidence from a sexual assault kit, or the contents of the sexual assault kit, preserved for the time periods described in Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence, without any charge to the victim;

(e) be informed whether a DNA profile was obtained from the testing of the evidence in a sexual assault kit or from other crime scene evidence;

(f) be informed whether a DNA profile developed from the evidence in a sexual assault kit, or from other crime scene evidence, has been entered into the Utah Combined DNA Index System;

(g) be informed of any result from a sexual assault kit or from other crime scene evidence if that disclosure would not impede or compromise an ongoing investigation, including:
(i) whether there is a match between a DNA profile developed from the evidence in a sexual assault kit, or from other crime scene evidence, and a DNA profile contained in the Utah Combined DNA Index System; and
(ii) a toxicology result or other information that is collected from a sexual assault kit as part of a medical forensic examination of the victim;
(h) be informed in writing of policies governing the collection and preservation of a sexual assault kit;
(i) be informed of the status and location of a sexual assault kit;
(j) upon written request by the victim, receive a notice of intent from an agency, as defined in Section 53-10-905, if the agency intends to destroy or dispose of evidence from a sexual assault kit;
(k) be granted further preservation of the sexual assault kit if the agency, as defined in Section 53-10-905, intends to destroy or dispose of evidence from a sexual assault kit and the victim submits a written request as described in Section 53-10-905;
(l) designate a person of the victim's choosing to act as a recipient of the information provided under this Subsection (2) or Subsections (3) and (4); and
(m) be informed of all the enumerated rights in this Subsection (2).
(3) Subsections (2)(e) through (g) do not require that the law enforcement agency communicate with the victim or the victim's designee regarding the status of DNA testing, absent a specific request received from the victim or the victim's designee.
(4) A law enforcement agency investigating a sexual offense may:
(a) release the information indicated in Subsections (2)(e) through (g) upon the request of the victim of the sexual offense, or the victim's designee and is the designated agency to provide that information to the victim or the victim's designee;
(b) require that the victim's request be in writing; and
(c) respond to the victim's request with verbal communication, written communication, or by email if an email address is available.
(5) A law enforcement agency investigating a sexual offense shall:
(a) notify the victim of the sexual offense, or the victim's designee, if the law enforcement agency determines that DNA evidence will not be analyzed in a case where the identity of the perpetrator has not be confirmed;
(b) provide the information described in this section in a timely manner; and
(c) upon request of the victim or the victim's designee, advise the victim or the victim's designee of any significant changes in the information of which the law enforcement agency is aware.
(6) The law enforcement agency investigating the sexual offense is responsible for informing the victim of the sexual offense, or the victim's designee, of the rights established under this section.
(7) Informational rights of the victim under this chapter are based upon the victim providing the current name, address, telephone number, and email address, if an email address is available, of the person to whom the information should be provided to the criminal justice agencies involved in the case.

Amended by Chapter 11, 2025 Special Session 1

77-37-4 Additional rights -- Children.

In addition to all rights afforded to victims and witnesses under this chapter, child victims and witnesses shall be afforded these rights:

(1) Children have the right to protection from physical and emotional abuse during their involvement with the criminal justice process.

(2) Children are not responsible for inappropriate behavior adults commit against them and have the right not to be questioned, in any manner, nor to have allegations made, implying this responsibility. Those who interview children have the responsibility to consider the interests of the child in this regard.

(3) Child victims and witnesses have the right to have interviews relating to a criminal prosecution kept to a minimum. All agencies shall coordinate interviews and ensure that they are conducted by persons sensitive to the needs of children.

(4) Child victims have the right to be informed of available community resources that might assist them and how to gain access to those resources. Law enforcement and prosecutors have the duty to ensure that child victims are informed of community resources, including counseling prior to the court proceeding, and have those services available throughout the criminal justice process.

(5)

(a) Child victims have the right, once an investigation has been initiated by law enforcement or the Division of Child and Family Services, to keep confidential their interviews that are conducted at a Children's Justice Center, including video and audio recordings, and transcripts of those recordings. Except as provided in Subsection (6), recordings and transcripts of interviews may not be distributed, released, or displayed to anyone without a court order.

(b) A court order described in Subsection (5)(a):

(i) shall describe with particularity to whom the recording or transcript of the interview may be released and prohibit further distribution or viewing by anyone not named in the order; and

(ii) may impose restrictions on access to the materials considered reasonable to protect the privacy of the child victim.

(c) A parent or guardian of the child victim may petition a juvenile or district court for an order allowing the parent or guardian to view a recording or transcript upon a finding of good cause. The order shall designate the agency that is required to display the recording or transcript to the parent or guardian and shall prohibit viewing by anyone not named in the order.

(d) Following the conclusion of any legal proceedings in which the recordings or transcripts are used, the court shall order the recordings and transcripts in the court's file sealed and preserved.

(a) The following offices and their designated employees may distribute and receive a recording or transcript to and from one another without a court order:

(i) the Division of Child and Family Services;

(ii) administrative law judges employed by the Department of Human Services;

(iii) Department of Human Services investigators investigating the Division of Child and Family Services or investigators authorized to investigate under Section 80-2-703;

(iv) an office of the city attorney, county attorney, district attorney, or attorney general;

(v) a law enforcement agency;

(vi) a Children's Justice Center established under Section 67-5b-102; or

(vii) the attorney for the child who is the subject of the interview.

(b) In a criminal case or in a juvenile court in which the state is a party:

(i) the parties may display and enter into evidence a recording or transcript in the course of a prosecution;
(ii) the state's attorney may distribute a recording or transcript to the attorney for the defendant, pro se defendant, respondent, or pro se respondent pursuant to a valid request for discovery;
(iii) the attorney for the defendant or respondent may do one or both of the following:
(A) release the recording or transcript to an expert retained by the attorney for the defendant or respondent if the expert agrees in writing that the expert will not distribute, release, or display the recording or transcript to anyone without prior authorization from the court; or
(B) permit the defendant or respondent to view the recording or transcript, but may not distribute or release the recording or transcript to the defendant or respondent; and
(iv) the court shall advise a pro se defendant or respondent that a recording or transcript received as part of discovery is confidential and may not be distributed, released, or displayed without prior authorization from the court.
(c) A court's failure to advise a pro se defendant or respondent that a recording or transcript received as part of discovery is confidential and may not be used as a defense to prosecution for a violation of the disclosure rule.
(d) In an administrative case, pursuant to a written request, the Division of Child and Family Services may display, but may not distribute or release, a recording or transcript to the respondent or to the respondent's designated representative.
(e)
(i) Within two business days of a request from a parent or guardian of a child victim, an investigative agency shall allow the parent or guardian to view a recording after the conclusion of an interview, unless:
(A) the suspect is a parent or guardian of the child victim;
(B) the suspect resides in the home with the child victim; or
(C) the investigative agency determines that allowing the parent or guardian to view the recording would likely compromise or impede the investigation.
(ii) If the investigative agency determines that allowing the parent or guardian to view the recording would likely compromise or impede the investigation, the parent or guardian may petition a juvenile or district court for an expedited hearing on whether there is good cause for the court to enter an order allowing the parent or guardian to view the recording in accordance with Subsection (5)(c).
(iii) A Children's Justice Center shall coordinate the viewing of the recording described in this Subsection (6)(e).
(f) A multidisciplinary team assembled by a Children's Justice Center or an interdisciplinary team assembled by the Division of Child and Family Services may view a recording or transcript, but may not receive a recording or transcript.
(g) A Children's Justice Center:
(i) may distribute or display a recording or transcript to an authorized trainer or evaluator for purposes of training or evaluation; and
(ii) may display, but may not distribute, a recording or transcript to an authorized trainee.
(h) An authorized trainer or instructor may display a recording or transcript according to the terms of the authorized trainer's or instructor's contract with the Children's Justice Center or according to the authorized trainer's or instructor's scope of employment.
(i)
(i) In an investigation under Section 53E-6-506, in which a child victim who is the subject of the recording or transcript has alleged criminal conduct against an educator, a law enforcement agency may distribute or release the recording or transcript to an investigator operating under State Board of Education authorization, upon the investigator's written request.

(ii) If the respondent in a case investigated under Section 53E-6-506 requests a hearing authorized under that section, the investigator operating under State Board of Education authorization may display, release, or distribute the recording or transcript to the prosecutor operating under State Board of Education authorization or to an expert retained by an investigator.

(iii) Upon request for a hearing under Section 53E-6-506, a prosecutor operating under State Board of Education authorization may display the recording or transcript to a pro se respondent, to an attorney retained by the respondent, or to an expert retained by the respondent.

(iv) The parties to a hearing authorized under Section 53E-6-506 may display and enter into evidence a recording or transcript in the course of a prosecution.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision in this section, a law enforcement agency shall provide an investigative report to the Utah Office for Victims of Crime as provided under Section 63M-7-529.

(7) Except as otherwise provided in this section, it is a class B misdemeanor for any individual to distribute, release, or display any recording or transcript of an interview of a child victim conducted at a Children's Justice Center.

Chapter 38
Crime Victims

Part 1
General Provisions

77-38-2 Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter and the Utah Constitution:

(1) "Abuse" means treating the crime victim in a manner so as to injure, damage, or disparage.

(2) "Dignity" means treating the crime victim with worthiness, honor, and esteem.

(3) "Fairness" means treating the crime victim reasonably, even-handedly, and impartially.

(4) "Harassment" means treating the crime victim in a persistently annoying manner.

(5) "Important criminal justice hearings" or "important juvenile justice hearings" means the following proceedings in felony criminal cases or cases involving a minor's conduct which would be a felony if committed by an adult:

(a) any preliminary hearing to determine probable cause;

(b) any court arraignment where practical;

(c) any court proceeding involving the disposition of charges against a defendant or minor or the delay of a previously scheduled trial date but not including any unanticipated proceeding to take an admission or a plea of guilty as charged to all charges previously filed or any plea taken at an initial appearance;

(d) any court proceeding to determine whether to release a defendant or minor and, if so, under what conditions release may occur, excluding any such release determination made at an initial appearance;

(e) any criminal or delinquency trial, excluding any actions at the trial that a court might take in camera, in chambers, or at a sidebar conference;
(f) any court proceeding to determine the disposition of a minor or sentence, fine, or restitution of a defendant or to modify any disposition of a minor or sentence, fine, or restitution of a defendant;
(g) a hearing regarding any criminal protective order described in Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 8, Criminal Protective Orders; and
(h) any public hearing concerning whether to grant a defendant or minor parole or other form of discretionary release from confinement.
(6) "Reliable information" means information worthy of confidence, including any information whose use at sentencing is permitted by the United States Constitution.
(7) "Representative of a victim" means a person who is designated by the victim or designated by the court and who represents the victim in the best interests of the victim.
(8) "Respect" means treating the crime victim with regard and value.
(9)
(a) "Victim of a crime" means any natural person against whom the charged crime or conduct is alleged to have been perpetrated or attempted by the defendant or minor personally or as a party to the offense or conduct or, in the discretion of the court, against whom a related crime or act is alleged to have been perpetrated or attempted, unless the natural person is the accused or appears to be accountable or otherwise criminally responsible for or criminally involved in the crime or conduct or a crime or act arising from the same conduct, criminal episode, or plan as the crime is defined under the laws of this state.
(b) For purposes of the right to be present, "victim of a crime" does not mean any person who is in custody as a pretrial detainee, as a prisoner following conviction for an offense, or as a juvenile who has committed an act that would be an offense if committed by an adult, or who is in custody for mental or psychological treatment.
(c) For purposes of the right to be present and heard at a public hearing as provided in Subsection 77-38-2(5)(h) and the right to notice as provided in Subsection 77-38-3(7)(a), "victim of a crime" includes any victim originally named in the allegation of criminal conduct who is not a victim of the offense to which the defendant entered a negotiated plea of guilty.

Amended by Chapter 426, 2023 General Session

77-38-3 Notification to victims -- Initial notice, election to receive subsequent notices -- Form of notice -- Protected victim information -- Pretrial criminal no contact order.
(1) Within seven days after the day on which felony criminal charges are filed against a defendant, the prosecuting agency shall provide an initial notice to reasonably identifiable and locatable victims of the crime contained in the charges, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.
(2) The initial notice to the victim of a crime shall provide information about electing to receive notice of subsequent important criminal justice hearings listed in Subsections 77-38-2(5)(a) through (g) and rights under this chapter.
(3) The prosecuting agency shall provide notice to a victim of a crime:
(a) for the important criminal justice hearings, provided in Subsections 77-38-2(5)(a) through (g), which the victim has requested; and
(b) for a restitution request to be submitted in accordance with Section 77-38b-202.
(4)

(a) The responsible prosecuting agency may provide initial and subsequent notices in any reasonable manner, including telephonically, electronically, orally, or by means of a letter or form prepared for this purpose.

(b) In the event of an unforeseen important criminal justice hearing, described in Subsections 77-38-2(5)(a) through (g) for which a victim has requested notice, a good faith attempt to contact the victim by telephone shall be considered sufficient notice, provided that the prosecuting agency subsequently notifies the victim of the result of the proceeding.

(5)

(a) The court shall take reasonable measures to ensure that its scheduling practices for the proceedings provided in Subsections 77-38-2(5)(a) through (g) permit an opportunity for victims of crimes to be notified.

(b) The court shall consider whether any notification system that the court might use to provide notice of judicial proceedings to defendants could be used to provide notice of judicial proceedings to victims of crimes.

(6) A defendant or, if it is the moving party, the Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202, shall give notice to the responsible prosecuting agency of any motion for modification of any determination made at any of the important criminal justice hearings provided in Subsections 77-38-2(5)(a) through (g) in advance of any requested court hearing or action so that the prosecuting agency may comply with the prosecuting agency's notification obligation.

(7)

(a) Notice to a victim of a crime shall be provided by the Board of Pardons and Parole for the important criminal justice hearing under Subsection 77-38-2(5)(h).

(b) The board may provide notice in any reasonable manner, including telephonically, electronically, orally, or by means of a letter or form prepared for this purpose.

(8) Prosecuting agencies and the Board of Pardons and Parole are required to give notice to a victim of a crime for the proceedings provided in Subsections 77-38-2(5)(a) through (g) only where the victim has responded to the initial notice, requested notice of subsequent proceedings, and provided a current address and telephone number if applicable.

(9) To facilitate the payment of restitution and the notice of hearings regarding restitution, a victim who seeks restitution and notice of restitution hearings shall provide the court with the victim's current address and telephone number.

(10)

(a) Law enforcement and criminal justice agencies shall refer any requests for notice or information about crime victim rights from victims to the responsible prosecuting agency.

(b) In a case in which the Board of Pardons and Parole is involved, the responsible prosecuting agency shall forward any request for notice the prosecuting agency has received from a victim to the Board of Pardons and Parole.

(11) In all cases where the number of victims exceeds 10, the responsible prosecuting agency may send any notices required under this chapter in the prosecuting agency's discretion to a representative sample of the victims.

(12)

(a) A victim's address, telephone number, and victim impact statement maintained by a peace officer, prosecuting agency, Youth Parole Authority, Division of Juvenile Justice and Youth Services, Department of Corrections, Utah State Courts, and Board of Pardons and Parole, for purposes of providing notice under this section, are classified as protected under Subsection 63G-2-305(10).

(b) The victim's address, telephone number, and victim impact statement is available only to the following persons or entities in the performance of their duties:
(i) a law enforcement agency, including the prosecuting agency;
(ii) a victims' right committee as provided in Section 77-37-5;
(iii) a governmentally sponsored victim or witness program;
(iv) the Department of Corrections;
(v) the Utah Office for Victims of Crime;
(vi) the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice;
(vii) the Utah State Courts; and
(viii) the Board of Pardons and Parole.
(13) The notice provisions as provided in this section do not apply to misdemeanors as provided in Section 77-38-5 and to important juvenile justice hearings as provided in Section 77-38-2.
(14)
(a) When a defendant is charged with a felony crime under Sections 76-5-301 through 76-5-310.1 regarding kidnapping, human trafficking, and human smuggling; Sections 76-5-401 through 76-5-413.2 regarding sexual offenses; or Section 76-5d-208 regarding aggravated exploitation of prostitution, the court may, during any court hearing where the defendant is present, issue a pretrial criminal no contact order:
(i) prohibiting the defendant from harassing, telephoning, contacting, or otherwise communicating with the victim directly or through a third party;
(ii) ordering the defendant to stay away from the residence, school, place of employment of the victim, and the premises of any of these, or any specified place frequented by the victim or any designated family member of the victim directly or through a third party; and
(iii) ordering any other relief that the court considers necessary to protect and provide for the safety of the victim and any designated family or household member of the victim.
(b) Violation of a pretrial criminal no contact order issued pursuant to this section is a third degree felony.
(c)
(i) The court shall provide to the victim a certified copy of any pretrial criminal no contact order that has been issued if the victim can be located with reasonable effort.
(ii) The court shall also transmit the pretrial criminal no contact order to the statewide domestic violence network in accordance with Section 78B-7-113.
(15)
(a) When a case involving a victim may resolve before trial with a plea deal, the prosecutor shall notify the victim of that possibility as soon as practicable.
(b) Upon the request of a victim described in Subsection (15)(a), the prosecutor shall explain the available details of an anticipated plea deal.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-38-4 Right to be present, to be heard, and to file an amicus brief on appeal -- Control of disruptive acts or irrelevant statements -- Statements from persons in custody.
(1) The victim of a crime, the representative of the victim, or both shall have the right:
(a) to be present at the important criminal or juvenile justice hearings provided in Subsection 77-38-2(5);

(b) to be heard at the important criminal or juvenile justice hearings provided in Subsections 77-38-2(5)(b), (c), (d), (f), (g), and (h);
(c) to submit a written statement in any action on appeal related to that crime; and
(d) upon request to the judge hearing the matter, to be present and heard at the initial appearance of the person suspected of committing the conduct or criminal offense against the victim on issues relating to whether to release a defendant or minor and, if so, under what conditions release may occur.

(2) This chapter shall not confer any right to the victim of a crime to be heard:
(a) at any criminal trial, including the sentencing phase of a capital trial under Section 76-3-207 or at any preliminary hearing, unless called as a witness; and
(b) at any delinquency trial or at any preliminary hearing in a minor's case, unless called as a witness.

(3) The right of a victim or representative of a victim to be present at trial is subject to Rule 615 of the Utah Rules of Evidence.

(4) Nothing in this chapter shall deprive the court of the right to prevent or punish disruptive conduct nor give the victim of a crime the right to engage in disruptive conduct.

(5) The court shall have the right to limit any victim's statement to matters that are relevant to the proceeding.

(6) In all cases where the number of victims exceeds five, the court may limit the in-court oral statements it receives from victims in its discretion to a few representative statements.

(7) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a victim's right to be heard may be exercised at the victim's discretion in any appropriate fashion, including an oral, written, audiotaped, or videotaped statement or direct or indirect information that has been provided to be included in any presentence report.

(8) If the victim of a crime is a person who is in custody as a pretrial detainee, as a prisoner following conviction for an offense, or as a juvenile who has committed an act that would be an offense if committed by an adult, or who is in custody for mental or psychological treatment, the right to be heard under this chapter shall be exercised by submitting a written statement to the court.

(9) The court may exclude any oral statement from a victim on the grounds of the victim's incompetency as provided in Rule 601(a) of Utah Rules of Evidence.

(10) Except in juvenile court cases, the Constitution may not be construed as limiting the existing rights of the prosecution to introduce evidence in support of a capital sentence.

Amended by Chapter 426, 2023 General Session

77-38-5 Application to felonies and misdemeanors of the declaration of the rights of crime victims.

The provisions of this chapter shall apply to:

(1) any felony filed in the courts of the state;

(2) to any class A and class B misdemeanor filed in the courts of the state; and

(3) to cases in the juvenile court as provided in Section 80-6-604.

Amended by Chapter 262, 2021 General Session

77-38-6 Victim's right to privacy.

(1) The victim of a crime has the right, at any court proceeding, including any juvenile court proceeding, not to testify regarding the victim's address, telephone number, place of employment, or other locating information unless the victim specifically consents or the court orders disclosure on finding that a compelling need exists to disclose the information. A court proceeding on whether to order disclosure shall be in camera.

(2) A defendant may not compel any witness to a crime, at any court proceeding, including any juvenile court proceeding, to testify regarding the witness's address, telephone number, place of employment, or other locating information unless the witness specifically consents or the court orders disclosure on finding that a compelling need for the information exists. A court proceeding on whether to order disclosure shall be in camera.

77-38-7 Victim's right to a speedy trial.

(1) In determining a date for any criminal trial or other important criminal or juvenile justice hearing, the court shall consider the interests of the victim of a crime to a speedy resolution of the charges under the same standards that govern a defendant's or minor's right to a speedy trial.

(2) The victim of a crime has the right to a speedy disposition of the charges free from unwarranted delay caused by or at the behest of the defendant or minor and to prompt and final conclusion of the case after the disposition or conviction and sentence, including prompt and final conclusion of all collateral attacks on dispositions or criminal judgments.

(3)

(a) In ruling on any motion by a defendant or minor to continue a previously established trial or other important criminal or juvenile justice hearing, the court shall inquire into the circumstances requiring the delay and consider the interests of the victim of a crime to a speedy disposition of the case.

(b) If a continuance is granted, the court shall enter in the record the specific reason for the continuance and the procedures that have been taken to avoid further delays.

Amended by Chapter 352, 1995 General Session

77-38-8 Age-appropriate language at judicial proceedings -- Advisor.

(1) In any criminal proceeding or juvenile court proceeding regarding or involving a child, examination and cross-examination of a victim or witness 13 years of age or younger shall be conducted in age-appropriate language.

(2)

(a) The court may appoint an advisor to assist a witness 13 years of age or younger in understanding questions asked by counsel.

(b) The advisor is not required to be an attorney.

Amended by Chapter 352, 1995 General Session

77-38-9 Representative of victim -- Court designation -- Representation in cases involving minors -- Photographs in homicide cases.

(1)

(a) A victim of a crime may designate, with the approval of the court, a representative who may exercise the same rights that the victim is entitled to exercise under this chapter, including pursuing restitution.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the victim may revoke the designation at any time.
(c) In cases where the designation is in question, the court may require that the designation of the representative be made in writing by the victim.
(2) In cases in which the victim is deceased or incapacitated, upon request from the victim's spouse, parent, child, or close friend, the court shall designate a representative or representatives of the victim to exercise the rights of a victim under this chapter on behalf of the victim. The responsible prosecuting agency may request a designation to the court.
(3)
(a) If the victim is a minor, the court in its discretion may allow the minor to exercise the rights of a victim under this chapter or may allow the victim's parent or other immediate family member to act as a representative of the victim.
(b) The court may also, in its discretion, designate a person who is not a member of the immediate family to represent the interests of the minor.
(4) The representative of a victim of a crime shall not be:
(a) the accused or a person who appears to be accountable or otherwise criminally responsible for or criminally involved in the crime or conduct, a related crime or conduct, or a crime or act arising from the same conduct, criminal episode, or plan as the crime or conduct is defined under the laws of this state;
(b) a person in the custody of or under detention of federal, state, or local authorities; or
(c) a person whom the court in its discretion considers to be otherwise inappropriate.
(5) Any notices that are to be provided to a victim pursuant to this chapter shall be sent to the victim or the victim's lawful representative.
(6) On behalf of the victim, the prosecutor may assert any right to which the victim is entitled under this chapter, unless the victim requests otherwise or exercises his own rights.
(7) In any homicide prosecution, the prosecution may introduce a photograph of the victim taken before the homicide to establish that the victim was a human being, the identity of the victim, and for other relevant purposes.

Amended by Chapter 244, 2014 General Session

77-38-10 Victim's discretion.
(1)
(a) The victim may exercise any rights under this chapter at the victim's discretion to be present and to be heard at a court proceeding, including a juvenile delinquency proceeding.
(b) The absence of the victim at the court proceeding does not preclude the court from conducting the proceeding.
(2) A victim shall not refuse to comply with an otherwise lawful subpoena under this chapter.
(3) A victim shall not prevent the prosecution from complying with requests for information within a prosecutor's possession and control under this chapter.

Amended by Chapter 302, 2025 General Session

77-38-11 Enforcement -- Appellate review -- No right to money damages.
(1) If a person acting under color of state law allegedly violates the rights of a victim described in this chapter, Chapter 37, Victims' Rights, or Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 28, the victim, or a representative of a victim, may file a complaint with a victim rights committee as described in Section 63M-7-1003.

(2) If a person acting under color of state law willfully or wantonly fails to perform duties so that the rights in this chapter are not provided, an action for injunctive relief, including prospective injunctive relief, may be brought against the individual and the governmental entity that employs the individual.

(3)

(a) The victim of a crime or representative of a victim of a crime may:

(i) bring an action for declaratory relief or for a writ of mandamus defining or enforcing the rights of victims and the obligations of government entities under this chapter;

(ii) petition to file an amicus brief in any court in any case affecting crime victims; and

(iii) after giving notice to the prosecution and the defense, seek an appropriate remedy for a violation of a victim's right from the court assigned to the case involving the issue.

(b) Adverse rulings on these actions or on a motion or request brought by a victim of a crime or a representative of a victim of a crime may be appealed under the rules governing appellate actions, provided that an appeal may not constitute grounds for delaying any criminal or juvenile proceeding.

(c) An appellate court shall review all properly presented issues, including issues that are capable of repetition but would otherwise evade review.

(4)

(a) Upon a showing that the victim has not unduly delayed in seeking to protect the victim's right, and after hearing from the prosecution and the defense, the court shall determine whether a right of the victim has been violated.

(b) If the court determines that a victim's right has been violated, the court shall:

(i) determine the appropriate remedy for the violation of the victim's right by hearing from the victim and the partiesand considering all factors relevant to the issue; and

(ii) award an appropriate remedy to the victim.

(5)

(a) The court shall:

(i) reconsider any judicial decision or judgment affected by a violation of the victim's right; and

(ii) upon affording the victim the right and further hearing from the prosecution and the defense, determine whether the decision or judgment would have been different.

(b) If the court's decision or judgment would have been different, the court shall enter the new different decision or judgment as the appropriate remedy.

(c) If necessary to protect the victim's right, the court shall enter the new decision or judgment nunc pro tunc to the time the first decision or judgment was reached.

(d) In no event shall the appropriate remedy be a new trial, damages, attorney fees, or costs.

(6)

(a) The appropriate remedy under Subsection (4) or (5) shall include only actions necessary to provide the victim the right to which the victim was entitled.

(b) The appropriate remedy under Subsection (4) or (5) may include reopening previously held proceedings.

(7)

(a) Subject to Subsection (7)(c), the court may reopen a sentence or a previously entered guilty or no contest plea only if reopening the sentence or plea:

(i) would not preclude continued prosecution or sentencing the defendant; and

(ii) would not otherwise permit the defendant to escape justice.

(b) The court shall tailor a remedy to provide the victim with an appropriate remedy without violating any constitutional right of the defendant.

(c) If the court sets aside a previously entered plea of guilty or no contest, and the continued prosecution of the charge is held to be prevented by the defendant's having been previously put in jeopardy, the order setting aside the plea is void and the plea is reinstated as of the date of the plea's original entry.
(d) The court may not award as a remedy the dismissal of any criminal charge.
(e) The court may not award any remedy if the proceeding that the victim is challenging occurred more than 90 days before the day on which the victim filed an action alleging the violation of the right.
(8) The failure to provide the rights in this chapter or Chapter 37, Victims' Rights, shall not constitute cause for a judgment against the state or any government entity, or any individual employed by the state or any government entity, for monetary damages, attorney fees, or the costs of exercising any rights under this chapter.
(9) A defendant convicted of an offense may not bring an action or complaint concerning a violation of this chapter or Chapter 37, Victims' Rights.

Amended by Chapter 160, 2024 General Session

77-38-12 Construction of this chapter -- No right to set aside conviction, adjudication, admission, or plea -- Severability clause.
(1) All of the provisions contained in this chapter shall be construed to assist the victims of crime.
(2) This chapter may not be construed as creating a basis for dismissing any criminal charge or delinquency petition, vacating any adjudication or conviction, admission or plea of guilty or no contest, or for a defendant to obtain appellate, habeas corpus, or other relief from a judgment in any criminal or delinquency case.
(3) This chapter may not be construed as creating any right of a victim to appointed counsel at state expense.
(4) All of the rights contained in this chapter shall be construed to conform to the Constitution of the United States.
(5)
(a) In the event that any portion of this chapter is found to violate the Constitution of the United States, the remaining provisions of this chapter shall continue to operate in full force and effect.
(b) In the event that a particular application of any portion of this chapter is found to violate the Constitution of the United States, all other applications shall continue to operate in full force and effect.
(6) The enumeration of certain rights for crime victims in this chapter shall not be construed to deny or disparage other rights granted by the Utah Constitution or the Legislature or retained by victims of crimes.

Amended by Chapter 120, 2009 General Session

77-38-13 Declaration of legislative authority.
It is the view of the Legislature that the provisions of this chapter, and other provisions enacted simultaneously with it, are substantive provisions within inherent legislative authority. In the event that any of the provisions of this chapter, and other provisions enacted simultaneously with it, are interpreted to be procedural in nature, the Legislature also intends to invoke its powers to modify procedural rules under the Utah Constitution.

Enacted by Chapter 198, 1994 General Session

77-38-14 Notice of expungement petition -- Victim's right to object.

(1)
(a) The Department of Corrections or the Juvenile Probation Department shall prepare a document explaining the right of a victim or a victim's representative to object to a petition for expungement under Section 77-40a-305 or 80-6-1004.1 and the procedures for obtaining notice of the petition.
(b) The department or division shall provide each trial court a copy of the document that has jurisdiction over delinquencies or criminal offenses subject to expungement.

(2) The prosecuting attorney in any case leading to a conviction, a charge dismissed in accordance with a plea in abeyance agreement, or an adjudication subject to expungement, shall provide a copy of the document to each person who would be entitled to notice of a petition for expungement under Sections 77-40a-305 and 80-6-1004.1.

(vii) certify that the commission is the applicant's designated agent for service of process for personal service;

(e) evidence that the applicant, or a minor or an incapacitated individual residing with the applicant, is a victim, including:

(i) a law enforcement, court, or other state, local, or federal government agency record; or

(ii) a document from:

(A) a domestic violence program, facility, or shelter;

(B) a sexual assault program; or

(C) a religious, medical, or other professional from whom the applicant, or the minor or the incapacitated individual residing with the applicant, sought assistance in dealing with alleged abuse, domestic violence, stalking, or a sexual offense;

(f) a statement from the applicant that a disclosure of the applicant's actual address would endanger the applicant, or a minor or an incapacitated individual residing with the applicant;

(g) a statement by the applicant that the applicant:

(i) resides at a residential address that is not known by the assailant;

(ii) has relocated to a different residential address in the past 90 days that is not known by the assailant; or

(iii) will relocate to a different residential address in the state within 90 days that is not known by the assailant;

(h) the actual address that:

(i) the applicant requests that the commission not disclose; and

(ii) is at risk of discovery by the assailant or potential assailant;

(i) a statement by the applicant disclosing:
(i) the existence of a court order or action involving the applicant, or a minor or an incapacitated individual residing with the applicant, related to a divorce proceeding, a child support order or judgment, or the allocation of custody or parent-time; and
(ii) the court that issued the order or has jurisdiction over the action;
(j) the name of any other individual who resides with the applicant who needs to be a program participant to ensure the safety of the applicant, or a minor or an incapacitated individual residing with the applicant;
(k) a statement by the applicant that:
(i) the applicant, or a minor or an incapacitated individual residing at the same address as the applicant, will benefit from participation in the program;
(ii) if the applicant intends to vote, the applicant will register to vote at the office of the clerk in the county in which the applicant actually resides; and
(iii) the applicant does not have a current obligation to register as a sex offender, kidnap offender, or child abuse offender under Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry;
(l) a statement by the applicant, under penalty of perjury, that the information contained in the application is true;
(m) a statement that:
(i) if the applicant intends to use the assigned address for any correspondence with the State Tax Commission, the applicant must provide the State Tax Commission with the applicant's social security number, federal employee identification number, and any other identification number related to a tax, fee, charge, or license administered by the State Tax Commission; and
(ii) if the applicant intends to use the assigned address for correspondence to a state or local government entity for the purpose of titling or registering a motor vehicle or a watercraft that is owned or leased by the applicant, the applicant shall provide to the state or local government entity for each motor vehicle or watercraft:
(A) the motor vehicle or hull identification number;
(B) the license plate or registration number for the motor vehicle or the watercraft; and
(C) the physical address where each motor vehicle or watercraft is stored; and
(n) a statement that any assistance or counseling provided by a program assistant as part of the program does not constitute legal advice or legal services to the applicant.

Amended by Chapter 291, 2025 General Session

77-38-606 Enrollment of a program participant.

(1)
(a) Within five business days after the day on which the commission grants enrollment to a program participant, the commission shall issue the program participant:
(i) an assigned address;
(ii) an authorization card; and
(iii) a notification form.
(b) An authorization card is valid while the program participant is enrolled in the program.
(2) A program participant is enrolled in the program for four years beginning on the day on which the enrollment is granted, unless the enrollment is withdrawn, or is cancelled under Section 77-38-617, before the end of the four-year period.

(3) A program participant may withdraw from the program by filing a request for withdrawal with the commission that is acknowledged before a notary public.
(4)
(a) A program participant may renew enrollment by filing a renewal application with the commission at least 30 days before the day on which enrollment in the program will expire.
(b) The applicant shall date, sign, and verify the renewal application.
(c) The renewal application shall contain:
(i) all statements or information required by Subsection 77-38-605(3) that have changed from the original application or a prior renewal application;
(ii) a statement by the applicant that the applicant, or a minor or an incapacitated individual residing at the same address as the applicant, will continue to benefit from participation in the program; and
(iii) a statement by the applicant, under penalty of perjury, that the information contained in the renewal application is true.

Enacted by Chapter 215, 2022 General Session

77-38-607 Use of assigned address -- Release of information.
(1) The commission shall forward all mail that the office receives at the assigned address for a program participant to the program participant's actual address.
(2) The commission shall provide, at the request of a program participant or a state or local government entity, confirmation of an individual's status as a program participant.
(3) Except as provided in Sections 77-38-611, 77-38-612, and 77-38-613, the commission may not disclose a program participant's actual address to any person.

Amended by Chapter 237, 2023 General Session

77-38-608 Use of assigned address -- Confidentiality.
(1) A program participant may use the assigned address provided to the program participant to receive mail as provided in Subsection 77-38-602(2).
(2)
(a) A state or local government entity may not refuse to use a program participant's assigned address for any official business, unless:
(i) the state or local government entity is statutorily required to use the program participant's actual address; or
(ii) the state or local government entity is permitted or required to use the program participant's actual address under this part.
(b) A state or local government entity may confirm an individual's status as a program participant with the commission.
(3) A state or local government entity, after receiving a copy of the notification form from a program participant or a notification of the program participant's enrollment from the commission, may not:
(a) except as provided in Subsection (2)(a), refuse to use the assigned address for the program participant, or a minor or an incapacitated individual residing with the program participant;
(b) except as provided in Subsection (4), require a program participant to disclose the program participant's actual address; or
(c) except as provided in Section 77-38-611, intentionally disclose to another person or state or local government entity the program participant's actual address.

(4) Notwithstanding Subsections (2) and (3), a county clerk may require a program participant to disclose the program participant's actual address:
  (a) for voter registration; and
  (b) to enroll a program participant in a program designed to protect the confidentiality of a voter's address.
(5) If a program participant is enrolled in a program designed to protect the confidentiality of a voter's address, a county clerk:
  (a) shall classify the program participant's actual address as concealed; and
  (b) may not disclose the program participant's actual address.

Amended by Chapter 237, 2023 General Session

77-38-609 Disclosure of actual address prohibited.
(1)
  (a) The commission may not disclose a program participant's actual address, unless:
    (i) required by a court order; or
    (ii) the commission grants a request from a state or local government entity under Section 77-38-612.
  (b) The commission shall provide a program participant immediate notification of a disclosure of the program participant's actual address if the disclosure is made under Subsection (1)(a)(i) or (ii).
(2) If, at the time of application, an applicant, or a parent or guardian of an applicant, is subject to a court order relating to a divorce proceeding, a child support order or judgment, or an allocation of custody or parent-time, the commission shall provide notice of whether the applicant is enrolled under the program and the assigned address of the applicant to the court that issued the order or has jurisdiction over the action.
(3) A person may not knowingly or intentionally obtain a program participant's actual address from the commission or any state or local government entity if the person is not authorized to obtain the program participant's actual address.
(4) Unless the disclosure is permitted under this part or is otherwise permitted by law, an employee of the commission or a state or local government entity may not knowingly or intentionally disclose a program participant's actual address if:
  (a) the employee obtains a program participant's actual address during the course of the employee's official duties; and
  (b) at the time of disclosure, the employee has specific knowledge that the address is the actual address of the program participant.
(5) A person who intentionally or knowingly obtains or discloses information in violation of this part is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

Amended by Chapter 237, 2023 General Session

77-38-610 Change of name, address, or telephone number.
(1) A program participant shall notify the commission no later than 30 days after the day on which the program participant obtains a legal name change, by providing the commission with a certified copy of a judgment or order establishing the name change, or any other documentation that is sufficient evidence of the name change.

(2) A program participant shall notify the commission no later than 10 business days after the day on which the program participant's actual address or telephone number changes from the actual address or telephone number listed for the program participant.
(3) If a program participant remains enrolled in the program after a change of address, the program participant may not change the program participant's assigned address with the Driver License Division created under Section 53-3-103.

Enacted by Chapter 215, 2022 General Session

77-38-611 Address use by state or local government entities.
(1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (7), a program participant is responsible for requesting that a state or local government entity use the program participant's assigned address as the program participant's residential address.
(2) Except as otherwise provided in this part, if a program participant submits a valid authorization card, or a notification form, to a state or local government entity, the state or local government entity shall accept the assigned address listed on the authorization card or notification form as the program participant's address to be used as the program participant's residential address when creating a record.
(3) The program participant's assigned address shall be listed as the last known address if any last known address requirement is needed by the state or local government entity.
(4) The state or local government entity may photocopy a program participant's authorization card for a record for the state or local government entity, but the state or local government entity shall immediately return the authorization card to the program participant.
(5)
(a) An election official, as defined in Section 20A-1-102, shall:
(i) use a program participant's actual address for precinct designation and all official election-related purposes;
(ii) classify the program participant's actual address as concealed; and
(iii) keep the program participant's actual address confidential from the public.
(b) A program participant may not use the program participant's assigned address for voter registration.
(c) An election official shall use the assigned address for all correspondence and mail for the program participant placed in the United States mail.
(d) A state or local government entity's access to a program participant's voter registration is subject to the request for disclosure process under Section 77-38-612.
(e) This Subsection (5) applies only to a program participant who submits a valid authorization card or a notification form when registering to vote.
(6)
(a) A state or local government entity may not use a program participant's assigned address for the purposes of listing, or appraising a property, or assessing property taxes.
(b) Except as provided by Subsection (6)(c), all property assessments and tax notices, property tax collection notices, and all property related correspondence placed in the United States mail for the program participant shall be addressed to the assigned address.
(c) The State Tax Commission shall use the actual address of a program participant, unless the commission provides the following information to the State Tax Commission:
(i) the full name of the program participant; and

(ii) the program participant's social security number, federal employee identification number, and any other identification number related to a tax, fee, charge, or license administered by the State Tax Commission.

(7)

(a) A state or local government entity may not use a program participant's assigned address for purposes of assessing any taxes or fees on a motor vehicle or a watercraft for titling or registering a motor vehicle or a watercraft.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (7)(c), all motor vehicle and watercraft assessments and tax notices, title registration notices, and all related correspondence placed in the United States mail for the program participant is required to be addressed to the assigned address.

(c) The Motor Vehicle Division shall use the actual address of a program participant, unless the commission provides the following information to the Motor Vehicle Division:

(i) the full name of the program participant;

(ii) the assigned address of the program participant;

(iii) the motor vehicle or hull identification number for each motor vehicle or watercraft that is owned or leased by the program participant;

(iv) the license plate or registration number for each motor vehicle or watercraft that is owned or leased by the program participant; and

(v) the physical address where each motor vehicle or watercraft that is owned or leased by the program participant.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the Motor Vehicle Division may disclose to another state or local government entity all information that is necessary for the state or local government entity to distribute any taxes or fees collected for titling or registering a motor vehicle or a watercraft.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 41-1a-116 or any other provision of this part, the Motor Vehicle Division may not disclose the actual address of a program participant described in Subsection 77-38-605(3)(m)(ii) to:

(i) the Utah Criminal Justice Information System; or

(ii) the title, lien, and registration system that is provided to the Motor Vehicle Division by a third party contractor and is accessed in accordance with Subsection 41-1a-116(4).

(8)

(a) The Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202, or any other entity responsible for supervising a program participant who is on probation or parole as a result of a criminal conviction or an adjudication, may not use the program participant's assigned address if the program participant's actual address is necessary for supervising the program participant.

(b) All written communication delivered through the United States mail to the program participant by the Department of Corrections, or the other entity described in Subsection (8)(a), shall be addressed to the program participant's assigned address.

(9) If a program participant is required by law to swear or affirm to the program participant's address, the program participant may use the program participant's assigned address.

(10)

(a) A school district shall:

(i) accept the assigned address as the address of record; and

(ii) verify student enrollment eligibility with the commission.

(b) The commission shall help facilitate the transfer of student records as needed.

(11)

(a) Notwithstanding Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, a record containing a program participant's address is confidential and, regardless of the record's classification under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Part 3, Classification, may not be disclosed by a state or local government entity, unless otherwise provided under this part.

(b) A program participant's actual address may not be disclosed to a third party by a state or local government entity, except:

(i) in a record created more than 90 days before the date on which the program participant applied for enrollment in the program; or

(ii) if a program participant voluntarily requests, in writing, that the program participant's actual address be disclosed to the third party.

(c) For a record created within 90 days before the date that a program participant applied for enrollment in the program, a state or local government entity shall redact the actual address from the record or change the actual address to the assigned address in the public record if the program participant presents a valid authorization card or a notification form and requests that the state or local government entity use the assigned address instead of the actual address on the record.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-38-612 Request for disclosure.

(1) A state or local government entity requesting disclosure of a program participant's actual address in accordance with this section shall make the request:

(a) in writing;

(b) on the state or local government entity's letterhead; and

(c) with the signature of the head or an executive-level official of the state or local government entity.

(2) In accordance with Subsection (1), a state or local government entity requesting disclosure of a program participant's actual address shall provide the commission with the name of the program participant and a statement:

(a) explaining why the state or local government entity is requesting the program participant's actual address;

(b) explaining why the state or local government entity cannot meet the state or local government entity's statutory or administrative obligations without the disclosure of the program participant's actual address;

(c) of facts showing that:

(i) other methods to locate the program participant's actual address have failed;

(ii) other methods will be unlikely to succeed; or

(iii) other means of contacting the program participant have failed or are unavailable; and

(d) that the state or local government entity has adopted a procedure to protect the confidentiality of the program participant's actual address.

(3) In response to a request for disclosure under Subsection (2), the commission may request additional information from the state or local government entity to help identify the program participant in the records of the office or to assess whether disclosure to the state or local government entity is permitted under this part.

(4)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), after receiving a request for disclosure from a state or local government entity under Subsection (1), the commission shall provide a program participant with written notification:

(i) informing the participant of the request, and to the extent possible, of an opportunity to be heard regarding the request; and
(ii) after a decision is made by the commission, whether the request has been granted or denied.
(b) The commission is not required to provide notice of a request for disclosure to a program participant under Subsection (4)(a) when:
(i) the request is made by a state or local law enforcement agency conducting a criminal investigation involving alleged criminal conduct by the program participant; or
(ii) providing notice to the program participant would jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation or the safety of law enforcement personnel.
(5) The commission shall grant a state or local government entity's request for disclosure and disclose the program participant's actual address if:
(a) the state or local government entity has demonstrated a good faith statutory or administrative need for the actual address;
(b) the actual address will be used only for the purpose stated in the request;
(c) other methods to locate the program participant or the program participant's actual address have failed or are unlikely to succeed;
(d) other means of contacting the program participant have failed or are unavailable; and
(e) the state or local government entity has adopted a procedure to protect the confidentiality of the program participant's actual address.
(6) If the commission grants a request for disclosure under this section, the commission shall provide the state or local government entity with a disclosure that contains:
(a) the program participant's actual address;
(b) a statement of the permitted use of the program participant's actual address;
(c) the names or classes of persons permitted to have access to or use of the program participant's actual address;
(d) a statement that the state or local government entity is required to limit access to and use of the program participant's actual address to the permitted use and to the listed persons or classes of persons; and
(e) if expiration of the disclosure is appropriate, the date on which the permitted use of the program participant's actual address expires.
(7) If a request for disclosure is granted by the commission, a state or local government entity shall:
(a) limit use of the program participant's actual address to the purpose stated in the disclosure;
(b) limit access to the program participant's actual address to the persons or classes of persons stated in the disclosure;
(c) cease use of the program participant's actual address upon the expiration of the permitted use;
(d) dispose of the program participant's actual address upon the expiration of the permitted use; and
(e) except as permitted in the request for disclosure, maintain the confidentiality of the program participant's actual address.
(8) Upon denial of a state or local government entity's request for disclosure, the commission shall promptly provide a written notification to the state or local government entity explaining the specific reasons for denying the request for disclosure.
(9)

(a) A state or local government entity may file a written appeal with the commission no later than 15 days after the day on which the state or local government entity receives the written notification under Subsection (8).
(b) A state or local government entity filing a written appeal under Subsection (9)(a) shall:
(i) restate the information contained in the request for disclosure; and
(ii) respond to the commission's reason for denying the request for disclosure.
(c) The commission shall make a final determination on the appeal within 30 days after the day on which the appeal is received by the commission, unless the state or local government entity and the commission agree to a different deadline.
(d) Before the commission makes a final determination, the commission may conduct a hearing or request additional information from the state or local government entity or the program participant.

Amended by Chapter 237, 2023 General Session

77-38-613 Request for disclosure by law enforcement.
(1) The commission shall establish a process to expedite a request submitted by a law enforcement officer or agency for the disclosure of information regarding a program participant who is involved in a criminal proceeding or investigation within 24 hours of the law enforcement officer or agency submitting the request.
(2) If a law enforcement officer or agency seeks the disclosure of a program participant's actual address from the commission under Subsection (1), the law enforcement officer or agency shall certify to the commission, or the commission's designee, that the official or agency has a system in place to protect the program participant's actual address from disclosure to:
(a) the public; and
(b) law enforcement personnel who are not involved in the criminal proceeding or investigation for which the disclosure is requested.
(3) Upon expiration of the use for the program participant's actual address in a criminal proceeding or investigation, a law enforcement officer or agency shall remove the program participant's actual address from any record system maintained by the law enforcement officer or agency.

Enacted by Chapter 215, 2022 General Session

77-38-614 Service of process at the assigned address.
(1) In accordance with the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4, the commission is the agent authorized to receive process for a program participant.
(2) In accordance with the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 5, the last known address for a program participant is the program participant's assigned address, not the program participant's actual address.

Enacted by Chapter 215, 2022 General Session

77-38-615 Participation in the program -- Orders in relation to allocation of custody or parent-time.
(1) A court may not consider a parent's participation in the program for the purpose of making an order allocating custody or parent-time under Title 81, Chapter 9, Custody, Parent-time, and Visitation.

(2) A court shall take practical measures to keep a program participant's actual address confidential when making an order allocating custody or parent-time.
(3) Nothing in this part affects an order relating to the allocation of custody or parent-time in effect prior to or during a program participant's participation in the program.

Amended by Chapter 366, 2024 General Session

77-38-616 Disclosure of address or identifiable information in a judicial or administrative proceeding.

(1) A program participant may submit the program participant's actual address to the court as a safeguarded record in accordance with the Utah Code of Judicial Administration, Rule 4-202.02.
(2) A person may not compel disclosure of a program participant's actual address or identifying information related to the program participant's residence during a proceeding in a court or administrative proceeding, unless:
  (a) the court orders the disclosure of the program participant's address; or
  (b) an administrative tribunal finds, based on a preponderance of the evidence, that:
    (i) the disclosure is required in the interest of justice;
    (ii) public interest in the disclosure substantially outweighs the potential harm to the program participant; or
    (iii) no other alternative would satisfy the necessity of the disclosure.
(3) If disclosure of a program participant's actual address is required in a proceeding before a court or administrative tribunal, the court or administrative tribunal may safeguard the portion of a record that contains the program participant's actual address.
(4) Nothing in this section prevents a state or local government entity from using a program participant's actual address in filing a document or record with a court or administrative tribunal if, at the time of the filing, the document or record is filed under safeguard or not a public record.

Enacted by Chapter 215, 2022 General Session

77-38-617 Cancellation of enrollment -- Records.

(1) The commission shall cancel a program participant's enrollment in the program if:
  (a) the program participant submits to the commission a written request to withdraw from enrollment in accordance with Section 77-38-606;
  (b) the program participant fails to notify the commission of a change in the program participant's name, actual address, or telephone number that is listed on the application;
  (c) the program participant, or a parent or guardian of the program participant, knowingly submits false information in the program application; or
  (d) mail forwarded to the program participant by the commission is returned as undeliverable.
(2)
  (a) If the commission determines that there are grounds for cancelling a program participant's enrollment in accordance with Subsection (1), the commission shall send notice of the cancellation with the reason for cancellation to the program participant at the program participant's actual address and email address.
  (b) A program participant has 30 days to appeal the cancellation decision in accordance with procedures developed by the commission.

(3) A program participant who receives a notice of cancellation is responsible for notifying a person who uses the program participant's assigned address to communicate with the program participant that the assigned address is no longer valid.
(4) If the commission cancels a program participant's enrollment in the program, the program participant is not eligible to participate in the program for six months after the day on which the commission cancels the program participant's enrollment in the program.

Enacted by Chapter 215, 2022 General Session

77-38-618 Retention and destruction of records.

The commission shall establish policies and procedures regarding the maintenance and destruction of applications, records, and other documents received or generated under this part.

77-38-620 Safe at Home Program Restricted Account -- Report.

(1) There is created a restricted account in the General Fund known as the "Safe at Home Program Restricted Account."
(2) The account shall be funded by:
  (a) private contributions;
  (b) gifts, donations, or grants from public or private entities; and
  (c) interest and earnings on account money.
(3) Upon appropriation by the Legislature, the commission may expend funds from the account to:
  (a) designate, train, and manage program assistants;
  (b) develop, distribute, and process application forms and related materials for the program;
  (c) assist applicants and program participants in enrolling in the program; or
  (d) ensure program participants receive mail forwarded from the program to the program participant's actual address.
(4) No later than December 31 of each year, the commission shall provide to the Criminal Justice Appropriations Subcommittee a written report of the program's activities, including:
  (a) the contributions received under Subsection (2);
  (b) an accounting of the money expended or committed to be expended by the commission under Subsection (3); and
  (c) the balance of the account.

Amended by Chapter 271, 2025 General Session

77-38-621 Rulemaking.

In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may make rules to:

(1) establish a process to expedite requests from law enforcement officers and agencies in accordance with Section 77-38-613;

(2) establish procedures for an appeal process regarding cancellation of enrollment under Section 77-38-617; and

(3) establish the procedures for the retention and destruction of records and other documents in accordance with Section 77-38-618.

Part 2
Determination of Restitution

77-38b-201 Law enforcement responsibility for collecting restitution information.
(1) A law enforcement agency investigating criminal conduct that would constitute a felony or a misdemeanor shall include information about restitution for any potential victim in the investigative report or the citation, including information about whether a claim for restitution may exist.
(2) A law enforcement agency shall also include in the investigative report:

(a) the basis for the claim for restitution; and
(b) the estimated or actual amount of the claim for restitution.

Amended by Chapter 113, 2023 General Session

77-38b-202 Prosecuting attorney responsibility for collecting restitution information -- Depositing restitution on behalf of victim.

(1) If a prosecuting attorney files a criminal charge against a defendant, the prosecuting attorney shall:
(a) contact any known victim of the offense for which the criminal charge is filed, or person asserting a claim for restitution on behalf of the victim; and
(b) gather the following information from the victim or person:
(i) the name of the victim or person; and
(ii) the actual or estimated amount of restitution.

(2)
(a) When a conviction, a diversion agreement, or a plea in abeyance is entered by the court, the prosecuting attorney shall provide the court with the information gathered by the prosecuting attorney under Subsection (1)(b).
(b) If, at the time of the plea disposition or conviction, the prosecuting attorney does not have all the information under Subsection (1)(b), the prosecuting attorney shall provide the defendant with:
(i) at the time of plea disposition or conviction, all information under Subsection (1)(b) that is reasonably available to the prosecuting attorney; and
(ii) any information under Subsection (1)(b) as the information becomes available to the prosecuting attorney.
(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a prosecuting attorney, a victim, or a person asserting a claim for restitution on behalf of a victim from:
(i) submitting information on, or a request for, restitution to the court within the time periods described in Section 77-38b-205; or
(ii) submitting information on, or a request for, restitution for additional or substituted victims within the time periods described in Section 77-38b-205.

(3)
(a) The prosecuting attorney may be authorized by the sentencing court or appropriate public treasurer to deposit restitution collected on behalf of a victim into an interest-bearing account in accordance with Title 51, Chapter 7, State Money Management Act, pending the distribution of the funds to the victim.
(b) If restitution is deposited into an interest-bearing account under Subsection (3)(a), the prosecuting attorney shall:
(i) distribute any interest that accrues in the account to each victim on a pro rata basis; and
(ii) if all victims have been made whole and funds remain in the account, distribute any remaining funds to the Division of Finance, created in Section 63A-3-101, to deposit to the Utah Office for Victims of Crime.
(c) Nothing in this section prevents an independent judicial authority from collecting, holding, and distributing restitution.

Amended by Chapter 526, 2025 General Session

77-38b-203 Department of Corrections responsibility for collecting restitution information -- Presentence investigation report -- In camera review of victim information.

(1) In preparing a presentence investigation report described in Section 77-18-103, the department shall obtain information on restitution from:
  (a) the law enforcement agency and the prosecuting attorney; and
  (b) any victim of the offense or person asserting a claim for restitution on behalf of the victim.
(2) A victim seeking restitution, a prosecuting attorney, or a person asserting a claim for restitution on behalf of a victim, shall provide the department with:
  (a) all invoices, bills, receipts, and any other evidence of pecuniary damages;
  (b) all documentation of any compensation or reimbursement from an insurance company or a local, state, or federal agency that is related to the pecuniary damages for the offense;
  (c) the victim's proof of identification, including the victim's date of birth, social security number, driver license number; and
  (d) the victim's or the person's contact information, including next of kin if available, current home and work address, and telephone number.
(3) In the presentence investigation report, the department shall make every effort to:
  (a) itemize any pecuniary damages suffered by the victim;
  (b) include a specific statement on the amount of restitution that the department recommends for each victim; and
  (c) include a victim impact statement that:
    (i) provides the name of each victim and any person asserting a claim on behalf of a victim;
    (ii) describes the effect of the offense on the victim and the victim's family;
    (iii) describes any physical, mental, or emotional injury suffered by a victim as a result of the offense and the seriousness and permanence of the injury;
    (iv) describes any change in a victim's personal welfare or familial relationships as a result of the offense;
    (v) provides any request for mental health services by a victim or a victim's family member as a result of the offense; and
    (vi) provides any other relevant information regarding the impact of the offense upon a victim or the victim's family.
(4)
  (a) A prosecuting attorney and the department may take steps that are reasonably necessary to protect the identity of a victim and the victim's family in information that is submitted to the court under this section.
  (b) If a defendant seeks to view protected, safeguarded, or confidential information about a victim or a victim's family, the court shall review the information in camera.
  (c) The court may allow the defendant to view the information under Subsection (4)(b) if the court finds that:
    (i) the defendant's interest in viewing the information outweighs the victim's or the victim's family safety and privacy interests; and
    (ii) there are protections in place to safeguard the victim's and the victim's family safety and privacy interests.

Enacted by Chapter 260, 2021 General Session

77-38b-204 Financial declaration by defendant.

(1)

(a) The Judicial Council shall design and publish a financial declaration form to be completed by a defendant before the sentencing court establishes a payment schedule under Section 77-38b-205.
(b) The financial declaration form shall:
(i) require a defendant to disclose all assets, income, and financial liabilities of the defendant, including:
(A) real property;
(B) vehicles;
(C) precious metals or gems;
(D) jewelry with a value of $1,000 or more;
(E) other personal property with a value of $1,000 or more;
(F) the balance of any bank account and the name of the financial institution for the bank account;
(G) cash;
(H) salary, wages, commission, tips, and business income, including the name of any employer or entity from which the defendant receives a salary, wage, commission, tip, or business income;
(I) pensions and annuities;
(J) intellectual property;
(K) accounts receivable;
(L) accounts payable;
(M) mortgages, loans, and other debts; and
(N) restitution that has been ordered, and not fully paid, in other cases; and
(ii) state that a false statement made in the financial declaration form is punishable as a third degree felony under Section 76-8-504.
(2) After a plea disposition or conviction has been entered but before sentencing, a defendant shall complete the financial declaration form described in Subsection (1).
(3) When a civil judgment of restitution or a civil accounts receivable is entered for a defendant on the civil judgment docket under Section 77-18-114, the court shall provide the Office of State Debt Collection with the defendant's financial declaration form.

Amended by Chapter 328, 2022 General Session

77-38b-205 Order for restitution.
(1)
(a) If a defendant is convicted, as defined in Section 76-3-201, the court shall order a defendant, as part of the sentence imposed under Section 76-3-201, to pay restitution to all victims:
(i) in accordance with the terms of any plea agreement in the case; or
(ii) for the entire amount of pecuniary damages that are proximately caused to each victim by the criminal conduct of the defendant.
(b) If a court enters a plea in abeyance or a diversion agreement for a defendant that includes an agreement to pay restitution, the court shall order the defendant to pay restitution to all victims:
(i) in accordance with the terms of the plea in abeyance or the diversion agreement; or
(ii) if the terms of the plea in abeyance include an agreement between the parties that restitution will be determined by the court as described in Section 77-2a-3, for the entire amount of pecuniary damages that are proximately caused to each victim by the criminal conduct of the defendant.

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), in determining the amount of pecuniary damages under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) or (b)(ii), the court shall consider all relevant facts to establish an amount that fully compensates a victim for all pecuniary damages proximately caused by the criminal conduct of the defendant.
(b) If the court determines that the defendant owes pecuniary damages to a dependent for dependent support, the court shall establish the amount of dependent support owed to the dependent as described in Section 77-38b-206.
(c) Subsection (2)(b) does not prohibit the court from also ordering restitution for a victim under Subsection (2)(a) that is not dependent support.
(3) The court shall enter the determination of the amount of restitution under Subsection (1)(a)(ii) or (b)(ii) as a finding on the record.
(4) Upon an order for a defendant to pay restitution under Subsection (1), the court shall:
(a) enter an order to establish a criminal accounts receivable as described in Section 77-32b-103; and
(b) establish a payment schedule for the criminal accounts receivable as described in Section 77-32b-103.
(5) If the defendant objects to a request for restitution, the court shall allow the defendant to have a hearing on the issue, unless the issue is addressed at the sentencing hearing for the defendant.
(6) If a court does not enter an order for restitution at sentencing, the court shall schedule a hearing to enter an order for restitution, unless:
(a) the court finds as a matter of law that there is no victim in the case; or
(b) the prosecuting attorney certifies to the court, on the record, that:
(i) the prosecuting attorney has consulted with all victims, including the Utah Office for Victims of Crime; and
(ii) all victims, including the Utah Office for Victims of Crime, are not seeking restitution.
(7)
(a) A court shall enter an order for restitution in a defendant's case no later than the earlier of:
(i) the termination of the defendant's sentence, including early termination of the defendant's sentence; or
(ii)
(A) if the defendant is convicted and imprisoned for a first degree felony, within seven years after the day on which the court sentences the defendant for the first degree felony conviction; or
(B) except as provided in Subsection (7)(a)(ii)(A), and if the defendant is convicted of a felony, within three years after the day on which the court sentences the defendant for the felony conviction.
(b) A request for restitution that is made within the time period described in Subsection (7)(a) tolls the time for which the court must enter an order for restitution under Subsection (7)(a) but does not extend the term of the defendant's probation or period of incarceration.
(8)
(a) If a court does not order restitution at sentencing or at a hearing described in Subsection (6), the prosecuting attorney or the victim may file a motion for restitution within the time periods described in Subsection (7).
(b) If the defendant receives notice and does not object to a motion for restitution, the court may order restitution without a hearing.

(c) If the defendant receives notice and objects to a motion for restitution, the court may schedule a hearing to determine whether restitution should be ordered if the prosecuting attorney or victim shows good cause.

(9) Upon a motion from the prosecuting attorney or the victim within the time periods described in Subsection (7), the court may modify an existing order of restitution, including the amount of pecuniary damages owed by the defendant in the order for restitution, if the prosecuting attorney or the victim shows good cause for modifying the order.

Amended by Chapter 330, 2024 General Session

77-38b-206 Calculating the amount of restitution owed for dependent support.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Base combined child support obligation table" means the child support table located in Section 78B-12-303.

(b) "Gross income" means the amount of income that would be calculated for a parent for child support purposes as described in Section 78B-12-203.

(c) "Monthly income" means the amount of monthly income established for a deceased victim, or a permanently impaired victim, under Subsection (3).

(2) If a defendant owes pecuniary damages to a dependent under Section 77-38b-205, the court shall determine the entire amount of dependent support that the defendant owes a dependent in accordance with this section.

(3)

(a) For purposes of determining a defendant's monthly obligation under Subsection (4), the court shall establish the monthly income of the deceased victim, or the permanently impaired victim, by:

(i) calculating the deceased or permanently impaired victim's monthly gross income before the victim's death or incapacitation; and

(ii) dividing the deceased or permanently impaired victim's monthly gross income in half.

(b) If the amount calculated under Subsection (3)(a)(ii) is $3,000 or less, the court shall impute a monthly income of $3,001 to the deceased or permanently impaired victim.

(c) If the amount calculated under Subsection (3)(a)(ii) is greater than $3,000, the deceased or permanently impaired victim's monthly income is the amount calculated under Subsection (3)(a)(ii).

(4) To calculate the amount of pecuniary damages that a defendant owes a dependent of a deceased victim for dependent support, the court shall:

(a) locate the monthly dependent support obligation in the base income child support table using:

(i) the deceased victim's monthly income established under Subsection (3)(b) or (c); and

(ii) the total number of dependents for which the defendant owes dependent support; and

(b) multiply the monthly amount established under Subsection (4)(a) for the dependent by:

(i) the number of months until the dependent is 18 years old and is graduated from high school if the dependent is a child; or

(ii) the life expectancy of the dependent if the dependent is an incapacitated individual who is 18 years old or older.

(5) To calculate the amount of pecuniary damages that a defendant owes a dependent of a permanently impaired victim for dependent support, the court shall:

(a) locate the monthly dependent support obligation in the base income child support table using:

(i) the permanently impaired victim's monthly income established under Subsection (3)(b) or (c); and

(ii) the total number of dependents for which the defendant owes dependent support;
(b) multiply the monthly amount established under Subsection (5)(a) by the permanently impaired victim's whole person impairment rating as determined by the most recent edition of the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment; and
(c) multiply the amount established under Subsection (5)(b) for the dependent by:
(i) the number of months until the dependent is 18 years old and is graduated from high school if the dependent is a child who is younger than 18 years old; or
(ii) the life expectancy of the dependent if the dependent is an incapacitated individual who is 18 years old or older.
(6) The deceased or permanently impaired victim's monthly income calculated under Subsection (3) is the only income that may be used when locating the monthly dependent support obligation in the base combined child support obligation table.

Part 3
Civil Accounts Receivables and Civil Judgments for Restitution

77-38b-301 Entry of a civil judgment of restitution and civil accounts receivable -- Continuation of the criminal action -- Interest -- Delinquency.

(1) As used in this section, "civil judgment" means an order for:
(a) a civil judgment of restitution; or
(b) a civil accounts receivable.
(2) If the court has entered a civil judgment on the civil judgment docket under Section 77-18-114, the civil judgment is enforceable under the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.
(3)
(a) Notwithstanding Sections 77-18-114, 78B-2-311, and 78B-5-202, a civil judgment shall expire only upon payment in full, including any applicable interest, collection fees, attorney fees, and liens that directly result from the civil judgment.
(b) Interest on a civil judgment may only accrue from the day on which the civil judgment is entered on the civil judgment docket by the court.
(c) This Subsection (3) applies to all civil judgments that are not paid in full on or before May 12, 2009.
(4) A civil judgment is considered entered on the civil judgment docket when the civil judgment appears on the court docket with:
(a) an amount owed by the defendant;
(b) the name of the defendant as the judgment debtor; and
(c) the name of the judgment creditors described in Subsections 77-18-114(1)(b)(iii) and (2)(b).
(5) If a civil judgment becomes delinquent, or is in default, and upon a motion from a judgment creditor, the court may order the defendant to appear and show cause why the defendant should not be held in contempt under Section 78B-6-317 for the delinquency or the default.
(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law:
(a) a civil judgment is an obligation that arises out of a defendant's criminal case;
(b) a civil judgment is criminal in nature;
(c) the civil enforcement of a civil judgment shall be construed as a continuation of the criminal action for which the civil judgment arises; and

(d) the civil enforcement of a civil judgment does not divest a defendant of an obligation imposed as part of the defendant's punishment in a criminal action.

Amended by Chapter 526, 2025 General Session

77-38b-302 Nondischargability in bankruptcy.

A civil judgment of restitution and a civil accounts receivable are considered a debt from a criminal case that may not be discharged in bankruptcy.

Enacted by Chapter 260, 2021 General Session

77-38b-303 Effect of civil action or settlement for criminal conduct -- Issue preclusion -- Crediting payments.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Civil settlement" or "settlement" means an agreement entered into between a victim and a defendant that settles all the claims that a victim may bring in a civil action against the defendant for the defendant's criminal conduct.

(b) "Civil settlement" or "settlement" does not include an agreement that settles a civil judgment of restitution or a civil accounts receivable for a defendant.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit or impair the right of a victim to sue and recover damages from the defendant in a civil action.

(3)

(a) A court's finding on the amount of restitution owed by a defendant under Subsection 77-38b-205(3) may be used in a civil action pertaining to the defendant's liability to a victim as presumptive proof of the victim's pecuniary damages that are proximately caused by the defendant's criminal conduct.

(b) If a conviction in a criminal trial decides the issue of a defendant's liability for pecuniary damages suffered by a victim, the issue of the defendant's liability for pecuniary damages is conclusively determined as to the defendant if the issue is involved in a subsequent civil action.

(c)

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c)(ii), if a defendant is convicted of a misdemeanor or felony offense, the defendant is precluded from subsequently denying the essential allegations of the offense in a subsequent civil action brought against the defendant for the criminal conduct underlying the offense.

(ii) Subsection (3)(c)(i) does not apply if the offense is a class C misdemeanor under Title 41, Chapter 6a, Traffic Code, or the defendant entered a plea of no contest for the offense.

(4) If a civil action brought by a victim against a defendant results in a civil judgment for the defendant's criminal conduct or there is a civil settlement entered into between a victim and defendant for the defendant's criminal conduct, the civil judgment or settlement does not limit or preclude:

(a) the sentencing court from entering an order of restitution against the defendant in accordance with this chapter; or

(b) the civil enforcement of a civil judgment of restitution by the office or the victim.

(5)

(a) The sentencing court shall credit any payment made to a victim in a civil action for the defendant's criminal conduct toward the amount of restitution owed by the defendant to the victim.

(b) In a civil action, a court shall credit any restitution paid by the defendant to a victim for the defendant's criminal conduct towards the victim against any judgment that is in favor of the victim for the civil action.
(c) If a victim receives payment from the defendant for the civil action, the victim shall provide notice to the sentencing court and the court in the civil action of the payment within 30 days after the day on which the victim receives the payment.
(6)
(a) If a victim prevails in a civil action against a defendant, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees and costs to the victim.
(b) If the defendant prevails in the civil action, the court shall award reasonable costs to the defendant if the court finds that the victim brought the civil action for an improper purpose, including to harass the defendant or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.
(7)
(a) The sentencing court shall credit any payment made to a victim as part of a civil settlement toward the amount of restitution owed by the defendant to the victim if the sentencing court determines that the payment compensates the victim for pecuniary damages proximately caused by the defendant's criminal conduct.
(b) If a victim receives a payment from the defendant as part of a civil settlement, the victim shall provide notice to the sentencing court within 30 days after the day on which the victim receives the payment.
(8) Nothing in this section shall prevent a defendant from providing proof of payment to the court or the office.
(9) Notwithstanding Subsections (5) and (6), if a defendant owes dependent support to a victim in an order for restitution:
(a) the defendant may not use any payment from a motor vehicle insurance policy to satisfy any amount of dependent support owed by the defendant until all persons entitled to recover in a civil action for the defendant's criminal conduct are made whole; and
(b) a court may not credit any payment from the defendant towards the amount of dependent support owed by the defendant against any judgment that is in favor of the victim for a civil action until all persons entitled to recover in a civil action for the defendant's criminal conduct are made whole.

Amended by Chapter 330, 2024 General Session

77-38b-304 Priority of payment disbursement.
(1) The court, or the office, shall disburse a payment for restitution within 60 days after the day on which the payment is received from the defendant if:
(a) the victim has complied with Subsection 77-38b-203(2);
(b) if the defendant has tendered a negotiable instrument, funds from the financial institution are actually received;
(c) the payment to the victim is at least $25, unless the payment is the final payment; and
(d) there is no pending legal issue that would affect an order for restitution or the distribution of restitution.
(2) The court shall disburse money collected from a defendant for a criminal accounts receivable in the following order of priority:
(a) first, and except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), to restitution owed by the defendant in accordance with Subsection (4);

(b) second, to the cost of obtaining a DNA specimen from the defendant as described in Subsection (4)(b);
(c) third, to any criminal fine or surcharge owed by the defendant;
(d) fourth, to the cost owed by the defendant for a reward described in Section 77-32b-104;
(e) fifth, to the cost owed by the defendant for medical care, treatment, hospitalization, and related transportation paid by a county correctional facility under Section 17-63-706; and
(f) sixth, to any other amount owed by the defendant.

(3) When the office collects money from a defendant for a criminal accounts receivable, a civil accounts receivable, or a civil judgment of restitution, the office shall disburse the money in the following order of priority:
(a) first, to any past due amount owed to the department for the monthly supervision fee under Subsection 64-14-204(6);
(b) second, and except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), to restitution owed by the defendant in accordance with Subsection (4);
(c) third, to the cost of obtaining a DNA specimen from the defendant in accordance with Subsection (4)(b);
(d) fourth, to any criminal fine or surcharge owed by the defendant;
(e) fifth, to the cost owed by the defendant for a reward described in Section 77-32b-104;
(f) sixth, to the cost owed by the defendant for medical care, treatment, hospitalization and related transportation paid by a county correctional facility under Section 17-63-706; and
(g) seventh, to any other amount owed by the defendant.

(4)
(a) If a defendant owes restitution to more than one person or government agency at the same time, the court, or the office, shall disburse a payment for restitution in the following order of priority:
(i) first, to the victim of the offense;
(ii) second, to the Utah Office for Victims of Crime;
(iii) third, any other government agency that has provided reimbursement to the victim as a result of the defendant's criminal conduct; and
(iv) fourth, any insurance company that has provided reimbursement to the victim as a result of the defendant's criminal conduct.
(b) If a defendant is required under Section 53-10-404 to reimburse the department for the cost of obtaining the defendant's DNA specimen, the reimbursement for the cost of obtaining the defendant's DNA specimen is the next priority after restitution to the victim of the offense under Subsection (4)(a)(i).
(c) If a defendant is required to pay restitution to more than one victim, the court or the office shall disburse a payment for restitution proportionally to each victim.

(5) Notwithstanding the requirements for the disbursement of a payment under Subsection (3) or (4), the office shall disburse money collected from a defendant to a debt that is a part of a civil accounts receivable or civil judgment of restitution if:
(a) a defendant has provided a written request to the office to apply the payment to the debt; and
(b)
(i) the payment will eliminate the entire balance of the debt, including any interest; or
(ii) after reaching a settlement, the payment amount will eliminate the entire agreed upon balance of the debt, including any interest.

(6) For a criminal accounts receivable, the department shall collect the current and past due amount owed by a defendant for the monthly supervision fee under Subsection 64-14-204(6)

(a) until the court enters a civil accounts receivable on the civil judgment docket under Section 77-18-114.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section:

(a) the office may collect a fee, as described in Subsection 63A-3-502(4), from each payment for a criminal accounts receivable, a civil accounts receivable, or a civil judgment of restitution before disbursing the payment as described in this section; and

(b) the office shall apply any payment collected through garnishment to the case for which the garnishment was issued.

Part 4
Enforcement and Collection of Restitution

77-38b-401 Collection from inmate offenders.

Upon written request of the prosecuting attorney, the victim, or a division agent supervising the defendant, the department shall collect restitution from offender funds held by the department under Section 64-13-23.

Amended by Chapter 214, 2025 General Session

77-38b-402 Preservation of assets.

(1)

(a) Before, or at the time, a criminal information, indictment charging a violation, or a petition alleging delinquency is filed, or at any time during the prosecution of the case, a prosecuting attorney may, if in the prosecuting attorney's best judgment there is a substantial likelihood that a conviction will be obtained and restitution will be ordered in the case, petition the court to:

(i) enter a temporary restraining order, an injunction, or both;

(ii) require the execution of a satisfactory performance bond; or

(iii) take any other action to preserve the availability of property that may be necessary to satisfy an anticipated order for restitution.

(b) A prosecuting attorney may subpoena a document, witness, or other evidence that, in the prosecuting attorney's best judgment, may provide evidence relevant to the property described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii).

(a) Upon receiving a request from a prosecuting attorney under Subsection (1)(a), and after notice to a person appearing to have an interest in the property and affording the person an opportunity to be heard, the court may take action as requested by the prosecuting attorney if the court determines:

(i) there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant committed the offense, and that failure to enter the order will likely result in the property being sold, distributed, exhibited, destroyed, or removed from the jurisdiction of the court, or otherwise be made unavailable for restitution; and

(ii) the need to preserve the availability of the property or prevent the property's sale, distribution, exhibition, destruction, or removal through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship on any party against whom the order is to be entered.

(b) In a hearing conducted in accordance with this section, a court may consider reliable hearsay as defined in Utah Rules of Evidence, Rule 1102.

(c) An order for an injunction entered under this section is effective for the period of time given in the order.

(3)

(a) Upon receiving a request for a temporary restraining order from a prosecuting attorney under this section, a court may enter a temporary restraining order against an owner with respect to specific property without notice or opportunity for a hearing if:

(i) the prosecuting attorney demonstrates that there is a substantial likelihood that the property with respect to which the order is sought appears to be necessary to satisfy an anticipated restitution order under this chapter; and

(ii) provision of notice would jeopardize the availability of the property to satisfy any judgment or order for restitution.

(b) The temporary order in this Subsection (3) expires no later than 10 days after the day on which the temporary order is entered unless extended for good cause shown or the party against whom the temporary order is entered consents to an extension.

(4) A hearing concerning an order entered under this section shall be held as soon as possible, and before the expiration of the temporary order.

Chapter 39
Sale of Tobacco or Alcohol to Under Age Persons

77-39-101 Investigation of sales of alcohol, tobacco products, electronic cigarette products, nicotine products, and cannabinoid products to underage individuals.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Cannabinoid product" means the same as that term is defined in Section 4-41-102.

(b) "Electronic cigarette product" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-9-1101.

(c) "Nicotine product" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-9-1101.

(d) "Peace officer" means the same as the term is described in Section 53-13-109.

(e) "Tobacco product" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-9-1101.

(a) A peace officer may investigate the possible violation of:

(i) Section 32B-4-403 by requesting an individual under 21 years old to enter into and attempt to purchase or make a purchase of alcohol from a retail establishment;

(ii) Section 76-9-1116 by requesting an individual under 21 years old to enter into and attempt to purchase or make a purchase from a retail establishment of:

(A) a tobacco product;

(B) an electronic cigarette product; or

(C) a nicotine product; or

(iii) Subsection 4-41-105(2)(a)(iv) by requesting an individual under 21 years old to enter into and attempt to purchase or make a purchase of a cannabinoid product that contains THC or a THC analog from a retail establishment.

(b) A peace officer who is present at the site of a proposed purchase shall direct, supervise, and monitor the individual requested to make the purchase.

(c) Immediately following a purchase or attempted purchase or as soon as practical the supervising peace officer shall inform the cashier and the proprietor or manager of the retail establishment that the attempted purchaser was under the legal age to purchase:

(i) alcohol;

(ii)

(A) a tobacco product;

(B) an electronic cigarette product; or

(C) a nicotine product; or

(iii) a cannabinoid product that contains THC or a THC analog.

(d) If a citation or information is issued, the citation or information shall be issued within seven days after the day on which the purchase occurs.

(3)

(a) If an individual under 18 years old is requested to attempt a purchase, a written consent of that individual's parent or guardian shall be obtained before the individual participates in any attempted purchase.

(b) An individual requested by the peace officer to attempt a purchase may:

(i) be a trained volunteer; or

(ii) receive payment, but may not be paid based on the number of successful purchases of alcohol, tobacco products, electronic cigarette products, nicotine products, or cannabinoid products that contain THC or a THC analog.

(4) The individual requested by the peace officer to attempt a purchase and anyone accompanying the individual attempting a purchase may use false identification in attempting the purchase if:

(a) the Department of Public Safety created in Section 53-1-103 provides the false identification;

(b) the false identification:

(i) accurately represents the individual's age; and

(ii) displays a current photo of the individual; and

(c) the peace officer maintains possession of the false identification at all times outside the attempt to purchase.

(5) An individual requested to attempt to purchase or make a purchase pursuant to this section is immune from prosecution, suit, or civil liability for the purchase of, attempted purchase of, or possession of alcohol, a tobacco product, an electronic cigarette product, a nicotine product, or a cannabinoid product that contains THC or a THC analog if a peace officer directs, supervises, and monitors the individual.

(6)

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), a purchase attempted under this section shall be conducted within a 12-month period:

(i) on a random basis at any one retail establishment location, not more often than four times for the attempted purchase of alcohol;

(ii) a minimum of two times at a retail establishment that sells tobacco products, electronic cigarette products, or nicotine products for the attempted purchase of a tobacco product, an electronic cigarette product, or a nicotine product; and

(iii) a minimum of one time at a retail establishment that sells a cannabinoid product that contains THC or a THC analog.

(b) This section does not prohibit an investigation or an attempt to purchase alcohol, a tobacco product, an electronic cigarette product, or a nicotine product under this section if:
(i) there is reasonable suspicion to believe the retail establishment has sold alcohol, a tobacco product, an electronic cigarette product, a nicotine product, or a cannabinoid product that contains THC or a THC analog to an individual under the age established by Section 32B-4-403, Section 76-9-1116, or Subsection 4-41-105(2)(d); and
(ii) the supervising peace officer makes a written record of the grounds for the reasonable suspicion.

(7)
(a) The peace officer exercising direction, supervision, and monitoring of the attempted purchase shall make a report of the attempted purchase, whether or not a purchase was made.
(b) The report required by this Subsection (7) shall include:
(i) the name of the supervising peace officer;
(ii) the name of the individual attempting the purchase;
(iii) a photograph of the individual attempting the purchase showing how that individual appeared at the time of the attempted purchase;
(iv) the name and description of the cashier or proprietor from whom the individual attempted the purchase;
(v) the name and address of the retail establishment; and
(vi) the date and time of the attempted purchase.

77-40a-104 Department rulemaking authority.

In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the department may make rules to:

(1) implement procedures for processing an automatic expungement;
(2) implement procedures for applying for certificates of eligibility;
(3) specify procedures for receiving a certificate of eligibility;
(4) specify the procedure for notification of an order of expungement under Subsection 77-40a-306(5)(b);
(5) create forms and determine information necessary to be provided to the bureau; and
(6) implement procedures for the confirmation of an expungement under Subsection 77-40a-401(4).

77-40a-105 Eligibility for removing the link between personal identifying information and court case dismissed.

(1) As used in this section:
  (a) "Domestic violence offense" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-36-1.
  (b) "Personal identifying information" means:
    (i) a current name, former name, nickname, or alias; and
    (ii) date of birth.
(2)
  (a) An individual whose criminal case is dismissed may move the court for an order to remove the link between the individual's personal identifying information from the dismissed case in any publicly searchable database of the Utah state courts.
  (b) If a motion is filed under Subsection (2)(a), the court shall grant the motion if:
    (i) 30 days have passed from the day on which the case is dismissed ;
    (ii) no appeal is filed for the dismissed case within the 30-day period described in Subsection (2)(b)(i); and
    (iii) no charge in the case was a domestic violence offense.
(3) Removing the link to personal identifying information of a court record under Subsection (2) does not affect a prosecuting, arresting, or other agency's records.
(4) A case history, unless expunged under this chapter, remains public and accessible through a search by case number.

77-40a-107 Expungement data requirements -- Report.

(1) No later than November 1 of each year, the Administrative Office of the Courts shall submit a written report to the Criminal Justice Appropriations Subcommittee and the Judiciary Interim Committee regarding expungement data for the preceding fiscal year, including:
  (a) the number of petitions filed for expungement in the district, justice, and juvenile courts;
  (b) the number of petitions granted for expungement in the district, justice, and juvenile courts;
  (c) the number of orders issued for an automatic expungement by the district, justice, and juvenile courts;
  (d) the total number of individuals for whom at least one automatic expungement order was issued by the district, justice, or juvenile court; and

(e) the total number of individuals for whom at least one petition-based expungement order was issued by the district, justice, or juvenile court.
(2) No later than November 1 of each year, the bureau shall submit a written report to the Criminal Justice Appropriations Subcommittee and the Judiciary Interim Committee regarding expungement data for the preceding fiscal year, including:
(a) the number of applications for expungement received by the bureau;
(b) the number of certificates of eligibility issued by the bureau; and
(c) the number of orders for expungement received by the bureau.

Amended by Chapter 271, 2025 General Session

Part 2
Automatic Expungement and Deletion

77-40a-201 General provisions for automatic expungement and deletion.
(1) Nothing in this section precludes an individual from filing a petition for expungement of records that are eligible for automatic expungement or deletion under this section if an automatic expungement or deletion has not occurred pursuant to this section.
(2) An automatic expungement performed under this part does not preclude a person from requesting access to expunged records in accordance with Section 77-40a-403 or 77-40a-404.
(3)
(a) The Judicial Council and the Supreme Court shall make rules to govern the process for automatic expungement.
(b) The rules under Subsection (3)(a) may authorize:
(i) a presiding judge of a district court to issue an expungement order for any case when the requirements for automatic expungement are met; and
(ii) a presiding judge of a justice court to issue an expungement order for any justice court case within the presiding judge's judicial district when the requirements for automatic expungement are met.
(4) An individual does not have a cause of action for damages as a result of the failure to:
(a) identify an individual's case as eligible for automatic expungement or deletion under this part; or
(b) automatically expunge or delete the records of a case that is eligible under this part.

Amended by Chapter 180, 2024 General Session

77-40a-202 Automatic deletion for traffic offense by a court.
(1) A court shall delete all records for the following traffic offenses without a court order or notice to the prosecuting agency:
(a) a traffic offense case that resulted in an acquittal on all charges;
(b) a traffic offense case that is dismissed with prejudice, except for a case that is dismissed with prejudice as a result of successful completion of a plea in abeyance agreement governed by Subsection 77-2a-3(2)(b); or
(c) a traffic offense case for which the following time periods have elapsed from the day on which the case is adjudicated:
(i) at least five years for a class C misdemeanor or an infraction; or

(ii) at least six years for a class B misdemeanor.
(2) For a traffic offense case that results in an acquittal, is dismissed, or is adjudicated on or after May 1, 2020, the court shall delete all records for the traffic offense upon identification.
(3) For a traffic offense case that results in an acquittal, is dismissed, or is adjudicated before May 1, 2020, the court shall delete all records for the traffic offense within one year of the day on which the case is identified as eligible for deletion.

Amended by Chapter 180, 2024 General Session

77-40a-204 Request for automatic expungement of a case -- Automatic expungement before October 1, 2024, and on and after January 1, 2026.

(1)
(a) On and after October 1, 2024, but before January 1, 2026, an individual must submit the necessary form to the court to receive an expungement of a case that is eligible under this part.
(b) If a form is submitted as described in Subsection (1), the court shall determine whether the individual has a case that qualifies for expungement in accordance with Sections 77-40a-205 and 77-40a-206.
(2) A court shall automatically expunge a case in accordance with this part if the court identified the case as being eligible for automatic expungement before October 1, 2024, and the requirements for automatic expungement were met under this part.
(3) On and after January 1, 2026, a court shall automatically expunge a case in accordance with this part if the court identifies the case as being eligible for automatic expungement.
(4) A court shall make reasonable efforts, within available funding, to expunge a case under Subsection (3) as quickly as practicable with the goal of:
(a) expunging a case that resulted in an acquittal on all charges on or after May 1, 2020, 60 days after acquittal;
(b) expunging a case that resulted in a dismissal with prejudice, other than a case that is dismissed with prejudice as a result of successful completion of a plea in abeyance agreement governed by Subsection 77-2a-3(2)(b), on or after May 1, 2020, 180 days after:
(i) for a case in which no appeal was filed, the day on which the entire case against the individual is dismissed with prejudice; or
(ii) for a case in which an appeal was filed, the day on which a court issues a final nonappealable order;
(c) expunging a clean slate eligible case that is adjudicated or dismissed on or after May 1, 2020, and is not a traffic offense within 30 days of the court determining that the requirements for expungement have been satisfied under Section 77-40a-205; and
(d) expunging a case adjudicated or dismissed before May 1, 2020, within one year of the day on which the case is identified as eligible for automatic expungement.

Enacted by Chapter 180, 2024 General Session

77-40a-205 Automatic expungement of state records for a clean slate case.

(1) A court shall issue an order of expungement, without the filing of a petition, for all records of the case that are held by the court and the bureau if:
(a) on and after October 1, 2024, but before January 1, 2026, the individual submitted a form requesting expungement of a case as described in Section 77-40a-204;
(b) the case is eligible for expungement under this section; and

(c) the prosecuting agency does not object to the expungement of the case as described in Subsection (6).

(2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3), a case is eligible for expungement under this section if:

(a)

(i) each conviction within the case is a conviction for:

(A) a misdemeanor offense for possession of a controlled substance in violation of Subsection 58-37-8(2)(a)(i);

(B) a class B misdemeanor offense;

(C) a class C misdemeanor offense; or

(D) an infraction; and

(ii) the following time periods have passed after the day on which the individual is adjudicated:

(A) at least five years for the conviction of a class C misdemeanor offense or an infraction;

(B) at least six years for the conviction of a class B misdemeanor offense; or

(C) at least seven years for the conviction of a class A misdemeanor offense for possession of a controlled substance in violation of Subsection 58-37-8(2)(a)(i); or

(b)

(i) the case is dismissed as a result of a successful completion of a plea in abeyance agreement governed by Subsection 77-2a-3(2)(b) or the case is dismissed without prejudice;

(ii) each charge within the case is:

(A) a misdemeanor offense for possession of a controlled substance in violation of Subsection 58-37-8(2)(a)(i);

(B) a class B misdemeanor offense;

(C) a class C misdemeanor offense; or

(D) an infraction; and

(iii) the following time periods have passed after the day on which the case is dismissed:

(A) at least five years for a charge in the case for a class C misdemeanor offense or an infraction;

(B) at least six years for a charge in the case for a class B misdemeanor offense; or

(C) at least seven years for a charge in the case for a class A misdemeanor offense for possession of a controlled substance in violation of Subsection 58-37-8(2)(a)(i).

(3) A case is not eligible for expungement under this section if:

(a) the individual has a total number of convictions in courts of this state that exceed the limits under Subsection 77-40a-303(4) or (5) without taking into consideration:

(i) the exception in Subsection 77-40a-303(7); or

(ii) any infraction, traffic offense, or minor regulatory offense;

(b) there is a criminal proceeding for a misdemeanor or felony offense pending in a court of this state against the individual, unless the proceeding is for a traffic offense;

(c) for an individual seeking an automatic expungement on and after January 1, 2025, the individual is incarcerated in the state prison or on probation or parole that is supervised by the Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202;

(d) the case resulted in the individual being found not guilty by reason of insanity;

(e) the case establishes a criminal accounts receivable that:

(i) has been entered as a civil accounts receivable or a civil judgment of restitution and transferred to the Office of State Debt Collection under Section 77-18-114; or

(ii) has not been satisfied according to court records; or

(f) the case resulted in a plea held in abeyance or a conviction for the following offenses:

(i) any of the offenses listed in Subsection 77-40a-303(2)(a);
(ii) an offense against the person in violation of Title 76, Chapter 5, Offenses Against the Individual;
(iii) a weapons offense in violation of Title 76, Chapter 11, Weapons;
(iv) sexual battery in violation of Section 76-5-418;
(v) an act of lewdness in violation of Section 76-5-419 or 76-5-420;
(vi) an offense in violation of Title 41, Chapter 6a, Part 5, Driving Under the Influence and Reckless Driving;
(vii) damage to or interruption of a communication device in violation of Section 76-6-108;
(viii) a domestic violence offense as defined in Section 77-36-1;
(ix) driving under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or a combination of both, or with specified or unsafe blood alcohol concentration, as codified before February 2, 2005, Laws of Utah 2005, Chapter 2; or
(x) any other offense classified in the Utah Code as a felony or a class A misdemeanor other than a class A misdemeanor conviction for possession of a controlled substance in violation of Subsection 58-37-8(2)(a)(i).

(4) A prosecuting agency that has complied with Rule 42 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure shall receive notice on a monthly basis for any case prosecuted by that agency that appears to be eligible for automatic expungement under this section.

(5) Within 35 days after the day on which the notice described in Subsection (4) is sent, the prosecuting agency shall provide written notice in accordance with Rule 42 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure if the prosecuting agency objects to an automatic expungement for any of the following reasons:
(a) the prosecuting agency believes that the case is not eligible for expungement under this section after reviewing the agency record;
(b) the individual has not paid restitution to the victim as ordered by the court; or
(c) the prosecuting agency has a reasonable belief, grounded in supporting facts, that an individual involved in the case is continuing to engage in criminal activity within or outside of the state.

(6) If a prosecuting agency provides written notice of an objection for a reason described in Subsection (5) within 35 days after the day on which the notice under Subsection (4) is sent, the court may not proceed with automatic expungement of the case.

(7) If 35 days pass after the day on which the notice described in Subsection (4) is sent without the prosecuting agency providing written notice of an objection under Subsection (5), the court shall proceed with automatic expungement of the case.

(8) If a court issues an order of expungement under Subsection (1), the court shall:
(a) expunge all records of the case held by the court in accordance with Section 77-40a-401; and
(b) notify the bureau and the prosecuting agency identified in the case, based on information available to the court, of the order of expungement.

77-40a-206 Automatic expungement of state records for a case resulting in an acquittal or dismissal with prejudice.

(1) A court shall issue an order of expungement, without the filing of a petition, for all records of the case that are held by the court and the bureau if:
(a) on and after October 1, 2024, but before January 1, 2026, the individual submitted a form requesting expungement of a case as described in Section 77-40a-204; and
(b) the case is eligible for expungement under this section.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), a case is eligible for expungement under this section if:
(a)
(i) the case resulted in an acquittal on all charges; and
(ii) at least 60 days have passed after the day on which the case resulted in an acquittal; or
(b)
(i) the case is dismissed with prejudice; and
(ii) at least 180 days have passed after the day on which:
(A) for a case in which no appeal was filed, the entire case against the individual is dismissed with prejudice; or
(B) for a case in which an appeal was filed, a court issues a final nonappealable order.
(3) A case is not eligible for expungement under Subsection (2) if:
(a) the case resulted in an acquittal because the individual is found not guilty by reason of insanity; or
(b) the case is dismissed with prejudice as a result of successful completion of a plea in abeyance agreement governed by Subsection 77-2a-3(2)(b).
(4) If a court issues an order of expungement under Subsection (1), the court shall:
(a) expunge all records of the case held by the court as described in Section 77-40a-401; and
(b) notify the bureau and the prosecuting agency identified in the case, based on information available to the court, of the order of expungement.

77-40a-207 Automatic expungement by the bureau.
(1) Upon receiving notice from a court of an expungement order under this part, the bureau shall expunge all records of the case in accordance with Section 77-40a-401.
(2)
(a) Notwithstanding Subsection (1) or Section 77-40a-205, the bureau may request that a court vacate an expungement order issued under this part if the bureau determines that:
(i) the order is expunging:
(A) a case that was dismissed as a result of a plea held in abeyance; or
(B) a conviction of an offense; and
(ii) the offense was not eligible for expungement under this part at the time that the court issued the order.
(b) The court shall vacate an expungement order issued under this part if the court determines that the offense was not eligible for expungement under this part at the time the court issued the order.
(3) The bureau shall forward a copy of the expungement order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
(4) Except for the court and the bureau, an agency is not required to expunge all records of a case that is automatically expunged under this part.

Part 3
Petition for Expungement

77-40a-301 Application for certificate of eligibility for expungement -- Penalty for false or misleading information on application.

(1) If an individual seeks to expunge the individual's criminal record in regard to an arrest, investigation, detention, or conviction, the individual shall:
  (a) except as provided in Subsection 77-40a-305(3) or (4), apply to the bureau for a certificate of eligibility for expungement of the criminal record and pay the application fee as described in Section 77-40a-304;
  (b) except as provided in Subsections 77-40a-304(3) and (7), pay the issuance fee for the certificate of eligibility or special certificate as described in Section 77-40a-304 if the individual is eligible to receive a certificate of eligibility or special certificate; and
  (c) file a petition for expungement in accordance with Section 77-40a-305.
  (a) An individual who intentionally or knowingly provides any false or misleading information to the bureau when applying for a certificate of eligibility is guilty of a class B misdemeanor and subject to prosecution under Section 76-8-504.6.
  (b) Regardless of whether the individual is prosecuted, the bureau may deny a certificate of eligibility to anyone who knowingly provides false information on an application.

77-40a-302 Requirements for certificate of eligibility to expunge records of arrest, investigation, and detention.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), if a petitioner is arrested or charged with an offense, the petitioner is eligible to receive a certificate of eligibility from the bureau to expunge records of the arrest, investigation, and detention in the case for the offense if:
  (a) the following time periods have passed:
    (i) at least 30 days have passed after the day on which the petitioner is arrested or charged for the offense;
    (ii) at least three years have passed after the day on which the petitioner was convicted of the traffic offense if there is a conviction in the case for a traffic offense that is a class C misdemeanor or an infraction; and
    (iii) at least four years have passed after the day on which the petitioner was convicted of the traffic offense if there is a conviction in the case for a traffic offense that is a class B misdemeanor; and
  (b) one of the following occurs:
    (i) an investigating law enforcement agency and the prosecuting attorney have screened the case and determined that no charges will be filed against the petitioner;
    (ii) all charges in the case are dismissed with prejudice;
    (iii) if a charge in the case is dismissed without prejudice or without condition:
      (A) the prosecuting attorney consents in writing to the issuance of a certificate of eligibility; or
      (B) at least 180 days have passed after the day on which the charge is dismissed;
    (iv) the petitioner is acquitted at trial on all of the charges in the case; or
    (v) the statute of limitations expires on all of the charges in the case.

(2) A petitioner is not eligible for a certificate of eligibility under Subsection (1) if:
(a) there is a criminal proceeding for a misdemeanor or felony offense pending against the petitioner, unless the criminal proceeding is for a traffic offense;
(b) there is a plea in abeyance for a misdemeanor or felony offense pending against the petitioner, unless the plea in abeyance is for a traffic offense;
(c) the petitioner is currently incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, unless the petitioner is on probation or parole for an infraction, a traffic offense, or a minor regulatory offense; or
(d) there is a criminal protective order or a criminal stalking injunction in effect for the case.

Amended by Chapter 180, 2024 General Session

77-40a-303 Requirements for a certificate of eligibility to expunge records of a conviction.
(1) Except as otherwise provided by this section, a petitioner is eligible to receive a certificate of eligibility from the bureau to expunge the records of a conviction if:
(a) the petitioner has paid in full all fines and interest ordered by the court related to the conviction for which expungement is sought;
(b) the petitioner has paid in full all restitution ordered by the court under Section 77-38b-205; and
(c) the following time periods have passed after the day on which the petitioner was convicted or released from incarceration, parole, or probation, whichever occurred last, for the conviction that the petitioner seeks to expunge:
(i) 10 years for the conviction of a misdemeanor under Subsection 41-6a-501(2);
(ii) 10 years for the conviction of a felony for operating a motor vehicle with any amount of a controlled substance in an individual's body and causing serious bodily injury or death, as codified before May 4, 2022, Laws of Utah 2021, Chapter 236, Section 1, Subsection 58-37-8(2)(g);
(iii) seven years for the conviction of a felony;
(iv) five years for the conviction of a drug possession offense that is a felony;
(v) five years for the conviction of a class A misdemeanor;
(vi) four years for the conviction of a class B misdemeanor; or
(vii) three years for the conviction of a class C misdemeanor or infraction.
(2) A petitioner is not eligible to receive a certificate of eligibility from the bureau to expunge the records of a conviction under Subsection (1) if:
(a) except as provided in Subsection (3), the conviction for which expungement is sought is:
(i) a capital felony;
(ii) a first degree felony;
(iii) a felony conviction of a violent felony as defined in Subsection 76-3-203.5(1)(c)(i);
(iv) a felony conviction described in Subsection 41-6a-501(2); or
(v) an offense, or a combination of offenses, that require registration as a sex offender, kidnap offender, or child abuse offender under Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Registry, at the time of the application for the certificate of eligibility;
(b) there is a criminal proceeding for a misdemeanor or felony offense pending against the petitioner, unless the criminal proceeding is for a traffic offense;
(c) there is a plea in abeyance for a misdemeanor or felony offense pending against the petitioner, unless the plea in abeyance is for a traffic offense;
(d) the petitioner is currently incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, unless the petitioner is on probation or parole for an infraction, a traffic offense, or a minor regulatory offense;

(e) the petitioner intentionally or knowingly provides false or misleading information on the application for a certificate of eligibility;
(f) there is a civil protective order, a criminal protective order, or a criminal stalking injunction against the petitioner that is in effect; or
(g) the bureau determines that the petitioner's criminal history makes the petitioner ineligible for a certificate of eligibility under Subsection (4) or (5).

(3) Subsection (2)(a) does not apply to a conviction for a qualifying sexual offense, as defined in Section 76-3-209, if, at the time of the offense, a petitioner who committed the offense was at least 14 years old but under 18 years old, unless the petitioner was convicted by a district court as an adult in accordance with Title 80, Chapter 6, Part 5, Minor Tried as an Adult.

(4) Subject to Subsections (6), (7), and (8), a petitioner is not eligible to receive a certificate of eligibility if, at the time the petitioner seeks the certificate of eligibility, the bureau determines that the petitioner's criminal history, including previously expunged convictions, contains any of the following:
(a) two or more felony convictions other than for drug possession offenses, each of which is contained in a separate criminal episode;
(b) any combination of three or more convictions other than for drug possession offenses that include two class A misdemeanor convictions, each of which is contained in a separate criminal episode;
(c) any combination of four or more convictions other than for drug possession offenses that include three class B misdemeanor convictions, each of which is contained in a separate criminal episode; or
(d) five or more convictions other than for drug possession offenses of any degree whether misdemeanor or felony, each of which is contained in a separate criminal episode.

(5) Subject to Subsections (7) and (8), a petitioner is not eligible to receive a certificate of eligibility if, at the time the petitioner seeks the certificate of eligibility, the bureau determines that the petitioner's criminal history, including previously expunged convictions, contains any of the following:
(a) three or more felony convictions for drug possession offenses, each of which is contained in a separate criminal episode; or
(b) any combination of five or more convictions for drug possession offenses, each of which is contained in a separate criminal episode.

(6) If the petitioner's criminal history contains convictions for both a drug possession offense and a non-drug possession offense arising from the same criminal episode, the bureau shall count that criminal episode as a conviction under Subsection (4) if any non-drug possession offense in that episode:
(a) is a felony or class A misdemeanor; or
(b) has the same or a longer waiting period under Subsection (1)(c) than any drug possession offense in that episode.

(7) Except as provided in Subsection (8), if at least 10 years have passed after the day on which the petitioner was convicted or released from incarceration, parole, or probation, whichever occurred last, for all convictions:
(a) each numerical eligibility limit under Subsections (4)(a) and (b) shall be increased by one; and
(b) each numerical eligibility limit under Subsections (4)(c) and (d) is not applicable if the highest level of convicted offense in the criminal episode is:
(i) a class B misdemeanor;
(ii) a class C misdemeanor;

(iii) a drug possession offense if none of the non-drug possession offenses in the criminal episode are a felony or a class A misdemeanor; or
(iv) an infraction.
(8) When determining whether a petitioner is eligible for a certificate of eligibility under Subsection (4), (5), or (7), the bureau may not consider a petitioner's pending case or prior conviction for:
(a) an infraction;
(b) a traffic offense;
(c) a minor regulatory offense; or
(d) a clean slate eligible case that was automatically expunged.
(9) If the petitioner received a pardon before May 14, 2013, from the Board of Pardons and Parole, the petitioner is entitled to an expungement order for all pardoned crimes in accordance with Section 77-27-5.1.

77-40a-304 Certificate of eligibility process -- Issuance of certificate -- Fees.
(1)
(a) When a petitioner applies for a certificate of eligibility as described in Subsection 77-40a-301(1):
(i) the petitioner shall pay an application fee at the time the petitioner submits an application for a certificate of eligibility to the bureau; and
(ii) the bureau shall perform a check of records of governmental agencies, including national criminal data bases, to determine whether the petitioner is eligible to receive a certificate of eligibility under this chapter.
(b) For purposes of determining eligibility under this chapter, the bureau may review records of arrest, investigation, detention, and conviction that have been previously expunged, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the expungement occurred.
(c) If a disposition for an arrest on the criminal history file is unobtainable after reasonable research, the bureau may issue a special certificate giving determination of eligibility to the court, except that the bureau may not issue the special certificate if:
(i) there is a criminal proceeding for a misdemeanor or felony offense pending against the petitioner, unless the criminal proceeding is for a traffic offense;
(ii) there is a plea in abeyance for a misdemeanor or felony offense pending against the petitioner, unless the plea in abeyance is for a traffic offense; or
(iii) the petitioner is currently incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, unless the petitioner is on probation or parole for an infraction, a traffic offense, or a minor regulatory offense.
(2)
(a) Once the eligibility process is complete, the bureau shall notify the petitioner.
(b) If the petitioner meets all of the criteria under Section 77-40a-302 or 77-40a-303 and the bureau determines that the issuance of a certificate of eligibility or special certificate is appropriate:
(i) the bureau shall issue a certificate of eligibility or special certificate that is valid for a period of 180 days from the day on which the certificate is issued;
(ii) the bureau shall provide a petitioner with an identification number for the certificate of eligibility or special certificate; and

(iii) except as provided in Subsection (3), the petitioner shall pay an additional fee for the issuance of a certificate of eligibility or special certificate.

(3) The bureau shall issue a certificate of eligibility or special certificate without requiring the payment of the issuance fee if the petitioner:

(a) qualifies for a certificate of eligibility under Section 77-40a-302 unless the charges were dismissed pursuant to a plea in abeyance agreement under Title 77, Chapter 2a, Pleas in Abeyance, or a diversion agreement under Title 77, Chapter 2, Prosecution, Screening, and Diversion; or

(b) indicates on the application for a certificate of eligibility that the petitioner reasonably believes, as of the date of the application, that the fee to file a petition for expungement is likely to be waived by a court because the petitioner is indigent.

(4) The bureau shall include on a certificate of eligibility all information that is needed for the court to issue a valid expungement order.

(5) The bureau shall provide clear written instructions to the petitioner that explain:

(a) the process for a petition for expungement; and

(b) what is required of the petitioner to complete the process for a petition for expungement.

(6) If a petitioner indicates on the application for a certificate of eligibility that a court is likely to waive the fee for a petition for expungement as described in Subsection (3)(b), the bureau shall:

(a) inform the petitioner that the petitioner will be required to pay an issuance fee before an agency will expunge the offense if a court does not waive the fee for a petition for expungement; and

(b) provide the petitioner with the form for waiving a court fee for a petition for expungement.

(7) If the bureau issues a certificate of eligibility or a special certificate without requiring payment of the issuance fee as described in Subsection (3)(b), the bureau shall charge the petitioner the issuance fee upon the bureau's receipt of an order deciding a petition for expungement unless the court communicates to the bureau that the fee to file the petition for expungement was waived because the petitioner is indigent.

(8)

(a) If the petitioner qualifies for a waiver of the issuance fee under Subsection (7) and the expungement order grants the petition for expungement, the bureau shall process the expungement order in accordance with Section 77-40a-401 as if the petitioner paid the issuance fee.

(b) If the petitioner does not qualify for a waiver of the issuance fee under Subsection (7) and the expungement order grants the petition for expungement, the bureau may not process the expungement order as described in Section 77-40a-401, or notify other agencies affected by the expungement order as described in Section 77-40a-307, until the petitioner pays the issuance fee.

(c) If the bureau issues a certificate of eligibility or special certificate without requiring payment of the issuance fee under Subsection (3)(b), the bureau may not charge the petitioner an issuance fee on the grounds that the validity of the certificate described in (2)(b)(i) has expired.

(9) The bureau shall charge application and issuance fees for a certificate of eligibility or special certificate in accordance with the process in Section 63J-1-504.

(10) The department shall deposit funds generated by application and issuance fees under this section into the General Fund as a dedicated credit by the department to cover the costs incurred in determining eligibility for expungement.

Amended by Chapter 180, 2024 General Session

77-40a-305 Petition for expungement -- Prosecutorial responsibility -- Hearing.

(1)
(a) The petitioner shall file a petition for expungement in accordance with Rule 42 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure.
(b) A petitioner shall include the identification number for the certificate of eligibility or special certificate described in Subsection 77-40a-304(2)(b)(ii) in the petition for expungement, unless the petitioner is not required to obtain a certificate of eligibility under Subsection (3) or (4).
(c) Information on a certificate of eligibility is incorporated into a petition by reference to the identification number for the certificate of eligibility.
(d) A petitioner shall bring a petition for expungement, including a petition for expungement for which the petitioner obtained a special certificate:
(i) in the court where the criminal case was filed;
(ii) if the court in which the criminal case was filed no longer exists, in the court that would have jurisdiction over the criminal case if the criminal case were filed on the day on which the petition is brought; or
(iii) if charges were never filed, in the district court in the county in which the arrest occurred or the citation is issued.

(a) If a petition for expungement is filed under Subsection (1)(a), the court shall obtain a certificate of eligibility or special certificate from the bureau.
(b) A court may not accept a petition for expungement if the certificate of eligibility or special certificate is no longer valid as described in Subsection 77-40a-304(2)(b)(i).

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the petitioner may file a petition for expungement of a traffic offense case without obtaining a certificate of eligibility if:
(a)
(i) for a traffic offense case with a class C misdemeanor or infraction, at least three years have passed after the day on which the case was adjudicated or dismissed; or
(ii) for a traffic offense case with a class B misdemeanor, at least four years have passed after the day on which the case was adjudicated or dismissed;
(b) there is no traffic offense case pending against the petitioner;
(c) there is no plea in abeyance for a traffic offense case pending against the petitioner; and
(d) the petitioner is not currently on probation for a traffic offense case.

(4) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), a petitioner may file a petition for expungement of a record for a conviction related to cannabis possession without a certificate of eligibility if the petition demonstrates that:
(a) the petitioner had, at the time of the relevant arrest or citation leading to the conviction, a qualifying condition, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201; and
(b) the possession of cannabis in question was in a form and an amount to medicinally treat the qualifying condition described in Subsection (4)(a).

(5)
(a) The court shall provide notice of a filing of a petition and certificate of eligibility or special certificate to the prosecutorial office that handled the court proceedings within three days after the day on which the petitioner's filing fee is paid or waived.

(b) If there were no court proceedings, the court shall provide notice of a filing of a petition and certificate of eligibility or special certificate to the county attorney's office in the jurisdiction where the arrest occurred.

(c) If the prosecuting agency with jurisdiction over the arrest, investigation, detention, or conviction, was a city attorney's office, the county attorney's office in the jurisdiction where the arrest occurred shall immediately notify the city attorney's office that the county attorney's office has received a notice of a filing of a petition for expungement.

(a) Upon receipt of a notice of a filing of a petition for expungement of a conviction or a charge dismissed in accordance with a plea in abeyance, the prosecuting attorney shall make a reasonable effort to provide notice to any victim of the conviction or charge.

(b) The notice under Subsection (6)(a) shall:

(i) include a copy of the petition, certificate of eligibility or special certificate, statutes, and rules applicable to the petition;

(ii) state that the victim has a right to object to the expungement; and

(iii) provide instructions for registering an objection with the court.

(7)

(a) The prosecuting attorney may respond to the petition by filing a recommendation or objection with the court within 35 days after the day on which the notice of the filing of the petition is sent by the court to the prosecuting attorney.

(b) If there is a victim of the offense for which expungement is sought, the victim may respond to the petition by filing a recommendation or objection with the court within 60 days after the day on which the petition for expungement was filed with the court.

(8)

(a) The court may request a written response to the petition from the Division of Adult Probation and Parole created in Section 64-14-202.

(b) If requested, the response prepared by the Division of Adult Probation and Parole shall include:

(i) the reasons probation was terminated; and

(ii) certification that the petitioner has completed all requirements of sentencing and probation or parole.

(c) The Division of Adult Probation and Parole shall provide a copy of the response to the petitioner and the prosecuting attorney.

(9) The petitioner may respond in writing to any objections filed by the prosecuting attorney or the victim and the response prepared by the Division of Adult Probation and Parole within 14 days after the day on which the objection or response is received.

(10)

(a) If the court receives an objection concerning the petition from any party, the court shall set a date for a hearing and notify the petitioner and the prosecuting attorney of the date set for the hearing.

(b) The prosecuting attorney shall notify the victim of the date set for the hearing.

(c) The petitioner, the prosecuting attorney, the victim, and any other person who has relevant information about the petitioner may testify at the hearing.

(d) The court shall review the petition, the certificate of eligibility or special certificate, and any written responses submitted regarding the petition.

(11) If no objection is received within 60 days from the day on which the petition for expungement is filed with the court, the expungement may be granted without a hearing.

(12)

(a) If the petitioner seeks a waiver of the fee required for a petition for expungement in accordance with Section 78A-2-302, the court shall consider the total number of cases for which the petitioner has received a certificate of eligibility and is seeking expungement in determining whether the petitioner is indigent under Subsection 78A-2-302(3)(e) even if the court does not have jurisdiction over a case for which the petitioner is seeking expungement.

(b) If a court grants a waiver of the fee required for a petition for expungement in accordance with Section 78A-2-302, and only upon a request from the petitioner, a subsequent court shall grant a waiver of a fee for a petition for expungement if the prior court waived the fee for a petition for expungement within 180 days before the day on which the petitioner filed the petition for expungement with the subsequent court.

77-40a-306 Order of expungement.

(1) If a petition for expungement is filed in accordance with Section 77-40a-305, the court shall issue an order of expungement if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (1)(b) and Subsection 77-40a-305(3) or (4):

(i) the certificate of eligibility is valid at the time the petition for expungement was filed with the court and contains the information needed for the court to issue an order for expungement; and

(ii) the statutory requirements for expungement have been met;

(b) if the petitioner obtained a special certificate from the bureau:

(i) the special certificate is valid at the time the petition for expungement was filed with the court; and

(ii) there is sufficient information in the petition for the court to determine that the statutory requirements for expungement have been met;

(c) if the petitioner seeks expungement after a case is dismissed without prejudice or without condition, the prosecuting attorney provided written consent and has not filed and does not intend to refile related charges;

(d) if the petitioner seeks expungement without a certificate of eligibility for expungement under Subsection 77-40a-305(4) for a record of conviction related to cannabis possession:

(i) the petitioner had, at the time of the relevant arrest or citation leading to the conviction, a qualifying condition, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201; and

(ii) the possession of cannabis in question was in a form and an amount to medicinally treat the qualifying condition described in Subsection (1)(d)(i);

(e) if an objection is received, the petition for expungement is for a charge dismissed in accordance with a plea in abeyance agreement, and the charge is an offense eligible to be used for enhancement, there is good cause for the court to grant the expungement; and

(f) the interests of the public would not be harmed by granting the expungement.

(a) If the court denies a petition described in Subsection (1)(c) because the prosecuting attorney intends to refile charges, the petitioner may apply again for a certificate of eligibility if charges are not refiled within 180 days after the day on which the court denies the petition.

(b) A prosecuting attorney who opposes an expungement of a case dismissed without prejudice, or without condition, shall have a good faith basis for the intention to refile the case.

(c) A court shall consider the number of times that good faith basis of intention to refile by the prosecuting attorney is presented to the court in making the court's determination to grant the petition for expungement described in Subsection (1)(c).

(3) If the court grants a petition described in Subsection (1)(e), the court shall make the court's findings in a written order.

(4) A court may not expunge a conviction of an offense for which a certificate of eligibility may not be, or should not have been, issued under Section 77-40a-302 or 77-40a-303.

(5) If the court issues an order of expungement under this section, the court shall:

(a) expunge all records of the case as described in Section 77-40a-401;

(b) notify the bureau of the order of expungement in a manner specified by the department; and

(c) provide the bureau with the order of expungement and all relevant information available to the court that the bureau will need to identify an expunged record.

(6)

(a) The petitioner may request certified copies of an order of expungement within 28 days after the day on which the court issues an order of expungement.

(b) If a petitioner makes a request under Subsection (6)(a), the court shall provide the petitioner with certified copies of the order of expungement.

77-40a-307 Distribution of expungement order based on a petition to all agencies.

(1)

(a) Upon receiving notice from the court of an expungement order as described in Subsection 77-40a-306(5), the bureau shall notify all agencies affected by the expungement order.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (1)(a), the bureau may not notify the Board of Pardons and Parole of an expungement order if the individual has never been:

(i) sentenced to prison in this state; or

(ii) under the jurisdiction of the Board of Pardons and Parole.

(c) The bureau shall forward a copy of the expungement order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(2) A petitioner may deliver copies of the expungement to all agencies affected by the order of expungement.

(3) If an agency receives an expungement order under this part, the agency shall expunge all records for the case in accordance with Section 77-40a-401.

Enacted by Chapter 180, 2024 General Session

Part 4
Expungement of Criminal Records

77-40a-401 Processing of expungement order -- Written confirmation of expungement -- Effect of an expungement.

(1) In processing an expungement order, a court and the bureau shall give priority to:

(a) first, an expungement order granting a petition for expungement under Part 3, Petition for Expungement;

(b) second, an expungement order upon a pardon by the Board of Pardons and Parole as described in Section 77-27-5.1;
(c) third, an expungement order upon a plea in abeyance as described in Section 77-2a-3;
(d) fourth, an expungement order where an individual submitted a form requesting automatic expungement under Part 2, Automatic Expungement and Deletion; and
(e) fifth, an expungement order where the court identified the case as being eligible for automatic expungement under Part 2, Automatic Expungement and Deletion.

(2) An individual, who receives an expungement order under Section 77-27-5.1, shall pay a processing fee to the bureau, established in accordance with the process in Section 63J-1-504, before the bureau's record may be expunged.

(3)
(a) An agency shall:
(i) develop and implement a process to identify an expunged record; and
(ii) keep, index, and maintain all expunged records of arrests and convictions.
(b) Subsection (3)(a) does not prevent an agency from maintaining or destroying a record in accordance with a retention schedule when the record is an expunged record.
(c) An agency is not required to redact an expunged record, or a record referencing an expunged record, that pertains to more than one individual until the agency is required to release the record.

(4)
(a) If an individual who receives an expungement requests confirmation from an agency, the agency shall provide the individual with written confirmation that:
(i) the agency has identified all records subject to expungement; and
(ii) except as otherwise provided by Sections 77-40a-402 and 77-40a-403, the agency will restrict or deny access to all of the expunged records.
(b) The bureau may charge a fee for providing a written confirmation under Subsection (4)(a) in accordance with the process in Section 63J-1-504.

(5) Upon entry of an expungement order, an individual, who received the expungement, may respond to any inquiry as though the arrest, investigation, detention, prosecution, or conviction did not occur unless otherwise provided by law or ordered by a court to respond differently.

(6)
(a) An expungement order may not restrict an agency's use or dissemination of records in the agency's ordinary course of business until the agency has received a copy of the order.
(b) Any action taken by an agency after issuance of the order but prior to the agency's receipt of a copy of the order may not be invalidated by the order.

(7) An expungement order may not:
(a) terminate or invalidate any pending administrative proceedings or actions of which the individual had notice according to the records of the administrative body prior to issuance of the expungement order;
(b) affect the enforcement of any order or findings issued by an administrative body pursuant to the administrative body's lawful authority prior to issuance of the expungement order;
(c) remove any evidence relating to the individual including records of arrest, which the administrative body has used or may use in these proceedings; or
(d) prevent an agency from maintaining, sharing, or distributing any record required by law.

77-40a-402 Distribution for order for vacatur.

(1) An individual who receives an order for vacatur under Subsection 78B-9-108(2) shall be responsible for delivering a copy of the order for vacatur to all affected agencies.
(2) To complete delivery of the order for vacatur to the bureau, the individual shall complete and attach to the order for vacatur an application for a certificate of eligibility for expungement, including identifying information and fingerprints, in accordance with Section 77-40a-301.
(3) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the bureau shall treat the order for vacatur and attached certificate of eligibility for expungement the same as a valid order for expungement under Section 77-40a-401.
(4) Unless otherwise provided by law or ordered by a court to respond differently, an individual who has received a vacatur of conviction under Subsection 78B-9-108(2) may respond to any inquiry as though the conviction did not occur.
(5) The bureau shall forward a copy of the order for vacatur to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
(6) An agency receiving an order for vacatur shall expunge the individual's identifying information contained in records in the agency's possession relating to the incident for which vacatur is ordered.
(7) An agency or official may not divulge information contained in a record of arrest, investigation, detention, or conviction after receiving an order for vacatur to any person or agency, except for:
  (a) the individual for whom vacatur was ordered; or
  (b) Peace Officer Standards and Training, in accordance with Section 53-6-203 and Subsection 77-40a-403(2)(b).
(8) The bureau may not count vacated convictions against any future expungement eligibility.

Amended by Chapter 180, 2024 General Session

77-40a-403 Release and use of expunged records -- Agencies.
(1)
  (a) An agency with an expunged record, or any employee of an agency with an expunged record, may not knowingly or intentionally divulge any information contained in the expunged record to any person, or another agency, without a court order unless:
    (i) specifically authorized by Subsection (4) or Section 77-40a-404; or
    (ii) subject to Subsection (1)(b), the information in an expunged record is being shared with another agency through a records management system that both agencies use for the purpose of record management.
  (b) An agency with a records management system may not disclose any information in an expunged record to another agency or person, or allow another agency or person access to an expunged record, if that agency or person does not use the records management system for the purpose of record management.
(2) The following entities or agencies may receive information contained in expunged records upon specific request:
  (a) the Board of Pardons and Parole;
  (b) Peace Officer Standards and Training;
  (c) federal authorities if required by federal law;
  (d) the State Board of Education;
  (e) the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice, for purposes of investigating applicants for judicial office; and
  (f) a research institution or an agency engaged in research regarding the criminal justice system if:

(i) the research institution or agency provides a legitimate research purpose for gathering information from the expunged records;
(ii) the research institution or agency enters into a data sharing agreement with the court or agency with custody of the expunged records that protects the confidentiality of any identifying information in the expunged records;
(iii) any research using expunged records does not include any individual's name or identifying information in any product of that research; and
(iv) any product resulting from research using expunged records includes a disclosure that expunged records were used for research purposes.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by this section or by court order, a person, an agency, or an entity authorized by this section to view expunged records may not reveal or release any information obtained from the expunged records to anyone outside the specific request, including distribution on a public website.

(4) A prosecuting attorney may communicate with another prosecuting attorney, or another prosecutorial agency, regarding information in an expunged record that includes a conviction, or a charge dismissed as a result of a successful completion of a plea in abeyance agreement, for:
(a) stalking as described in Section 76-5-106.5;
(b) a domestic violence offense as defined in Section 77-36-1;
(c) an offense that would result in the individual being a child abuse offender, a sex offender, or a kidnap offender under Section 53-29-202; or
(d) a weapons offense under Title 76, Chapter 11, Weapons.

(5) Except as provided in Subsection (7), a prosecuting attorney may not use an expunged record for the purpose of a sentencing enhancement or as a basis for charging an individual with an offense that requires a prior conviction.

(6) The bureau may also use the information in the bureau's index as provided in Section 53-5a-303.

(7) If an individual is charged with a felony, or an offense eligible for enhancement based on a prior conviction, after obtaining an order of expungement, the prosecuting attorney may petition the court in which the individual is charged to open the expunged records upon a showing of good cause.

(8)
(a) For judicial sentencing, a court may order any records expunged under this chapter or Section 77-27-5.1 to be opened and admitted into evidence.
(b) The records are confidential and are available for inspection only by the court, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them.
(c) At the end of the action or proceeding, the court shall order the records expunged again.
(d) Any person authorized by this Subsection (8) to view expunged records may not reveal or release any information obtained from the expunged records to anyone outside the court.

(9) Records released under this chapter are classified as protected under Section 63G-2-305 and are accessible only as provided under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Part 2, Access to Records, and Subsection 53-10-108(2)(k) for records held by the bureau.

77-40a-404 Confirmation of expungement -- Access to expunged records by individuals.

(1) An individual who receives an expungement may request a written confirmation from an agency under Subsection 77-40a-401(4) to confirm that the agency has expunged all records of the offense for which the individual received the expungement.
(2) The following individuals may view or obtain an expunged record under this chapter or Section 77-27-5.1:
  (a) the petitioner or an individual who receives an automatic expungement under Part 2, Automatic Expungement and Deletion;
  (b) a law enforcement officer, who was involved in the case, for use solely in the officer's defense of a civil action arising out of the officer's involvement with the petitioner in that particular case; and
  (c) a party to a civil action arising out of the expunged incident if the information is kept confidential and utilized only in the action.

77-42-106 Registration of offenders -- Utah White Collar Crime Offender Registry -- Penalty for failure to register.

(1) An offender who has been convicted of any offense listed in Section 77-42-105 shall be on the Utah White Collar Crime Offender Registry for:
(a) a period of 10 years for a first offense;
(b) a second period of 10 years for a second conviction under this section; and
(c) a lifetime period if convicted a third time under this section.
(2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), an offender who has been convicted of any offense listed in Section 77-42-105 after December 31, 2005, shall register:
(a) with the attorney general to be included in the Utah White Collar Crime Offender Registry; and
(b)
(i) no later than 45 days after the offender is sentenced; and
(ii) in a manner prescribed by the attorney general.
(3) An offender is not required to register as provided in Subsection (2) if the offender:
(a) has complied with all court orders at the time of sentencing;
(b) has paid in full all court-ordered amounts of restitution to victims; and

(c) has not been convicted of any other offense for which registration would be required.
(4) If an offender is in the custody of the Department of Corrections:
(a) the department shall register the offender within 45 days of sentencing; or
(b) at the discretion of the department, provide the offender access to necessary resources so that the offender may register within 45 days of sentencing.
(5)
(a) An offender who knowingly fails to register within 45 days of sentencing is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.
(b) An offender who is found guilty under Subsection (5)(a) shall be sentenced to serve a term of incarceration of 30 days or more.
(c)
(i) The Board of Pardons and Parole or a court may not release an individual who violates this chapter from serving the term required under Subsection (5)(b).
(ii) The provisions of this Subsection (5) supersede any other provision of law.

Amended by Chapter 288, 2019 General Session

77-42-107 Department and agency requirements.
(1) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the attorney general shall make rules necessary to implement this chapter, including:
(a) the method for dissemination of registry information; and
(b) instructions to the public regarding acceptable use of the information.
(2) Any information regarding the identity or location of a victim may be redacted by the attorney general from information provided under Subsection 77-42-104(6).

Enacted by Chapter 131, 2015 General Session

77-42-108 Removal from the Utah White Collar Crime Offender Registry.
(1) An offender may petition the court where the offender was convicted of the offense for which registration with the Utah White Collar Crime Offender Registry is required, for an order to remove the offender from the Utah White Collar Crime Offender Registry, if:
(a) five years have passed since the completion of the offender's sentence;
(b) the offender has successfully completed all treatment ordered by the court or the Board of Pardons and Parole relating to the conviction;
(c)
(i) the offender has not been convicted of any other crime, excluding traffic offenses, as evidenced by a certificate of eligibility issued by the bureau; and
(ii) as used in this section, "traffic offense" does not include a violation of Title 41, Chapter 6a, Part 5, Driving Under the Influence and Reckless Driving;
(d) the offender has paid all restitution ordered by the court;
(e) notice has been delivered to the victims and the office that prosecuted the offender; and
(f) the offender has not been found to be civilly liable in any case in which fraud, misrepresentation, deceit, breach of fiduciary duty, or the misuse or misappropriation of funds is an element.
(2)
(i) An offender seeking removal from the White Collar Crime Offender Registry shall apply for a certificate of eligibility from the bureau.

(ii) An offender who intentionally or knowingly provides any false or misleading information to the bureau when applying for a certificate of eligibility is guilty of a class B misdemeanor and subject to prosecution under Section 76-8-504.6.

(iii) Regardless of whether the offender is prosecuted, the bureau may deny a certificate of eligibility to anyone providing false information on an application under this Subsection (2).

(b)

(i) The bureau shall check the records of governmental agencies, including national criminal databases, to determine whether an offender is eligible to receive a certificate of eligibility under this section.

(ii) If the offender meets all of the criteria under Subsections (1)(a) through (d), the bureau shall issue a certificate of eligibility to the offender which shall be valid for a period of 90 days from the date the certificate is issued.

(c)

(i) The bureau shall charge an application fee for the certificate of eligibility in accordance with the process in Section 63J-1-504.

(ii) The fee shall be paid at the time the offender submits an application for a certificate of eligibility to the bureau.

(iii) If the bureau determines that the issuance of a certificate of eligibility is appropriate, the bureau shall issue to the offender a certificate of eligibility at no additional charge.

(d) Funds generated under this Subsection (2) shall be deposited in the General Fund as a dedicated credit by the department to cover the costs incurred in determining eligibility.

(3) The offender shall:

(a) file with the court the following information:

(i) the petition;

(ii) the original information;

(iii) the court docket; and

(iv) an affidavit certifying that the offender is in compliance with the provisions of Subsection (1); and

(b) deliver a copy of the petition to the office of the prosecutor.

(4)

(a) Upon receipt of a petition for removal from the Utah White Collar Crime Offender Registry, the office of the prosecutor shall provide notice of the petition by first-class mail to the victims at the most recent addresses of record on file.

(b) The notice shall:

(i) include a copy of the petition for removal from the registry;

(ii) state that the victim has a right to object to the removal of the offender from the registry; and

(iii) provide instructions for filing an objection with the court.

(5) The office of the prosecutor shall provide the following, if available, to the court within 30 days after receiving the petition:

(a) a presentence report;

(b) any evaluation done as part of sentencing; and

(c) any other information the office of the prosecutor feels the court should consider.

(6) The victim may respond to the petition by filing a recommendation or objection with the court within 45 days after the mailing of the petition to the victim.

(7) The court shall:

(a) review the petition and all documents submitted with the petition; and

(b) hold a hearing if requested by the office of the prosecutor or the victim.

(8) When considering a petition for removal from the registry, the court shall consider whether the offender has paid all restitution ordered by the court or the Board of Pardons and Parole.
(9) If the court determines that it is not contrary to the interests of the public to do so, the court may grant the petition and order removal of the offender from the registry.
(10) If the court grants the petition, the court shall forward a copy of the order directing removal of the offender from the registry to the attorney general and the office of the prosecutor.
(11) The office of the prosecutor shall notify the victims of the court's decision in the same manner as the notification required in Subsection (3)(a).
(12) The attorney general shall remove an offender from the registry upon the offender providing satisfactory evidence to the attorney general that:
(a) each conviction listed in Section 77-42-105 has either been expunged or reduced in degree below a second degree felony; and
(b) the offender has paid all court-ordered restitution to victims.
