d in this state unless the cigarettes have been tested in accordance with the test method and meet the performance standards specified in this Section, a written certification has been filed by the manufacturer with the state fire marshal in accordance with R.S. 40:1629, and the cigarettes have been marked in accordance with R.S. 40:1630.

(1) Testing of cigarettes shall be conducted in accordance with the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) standard E2187-04, "Standard Test Method for Measuring the Ignition Strength of Cigarettes".

(2) Testing shall be conducted on ten layers of filter paper.

(3) No more than twenty-five percent of the cigarettes tested in a test trial in accordance with this Section shall exhibit full-length burns. Forty replicate tests shall comprise a complete test trial for each cigarette tested.

(4) The performance standard required by this Section shall only be applied to a complete test trial.

(5) Written certifications shall be based upon testing conducted by a laboratory that has been accredited pursuant to standard ISO/IEC 17025 of the International Organization for Standardization (ISO), or other comparable accreditation standard required by the state fire marshal.

C. A manufacturer of a cigarette that the state fire marshal determines cannot be tested in accordance with the test method prescribed in this Section shall propose a test method and performance standards for the cigarette to the state fire marshal. Upon approval of the proposed test method and a determination by the state fire marshal that the performance standard proposed by the manufacturer is equivalent to the performance standard prescribed in this Section, the manufacturer may employ such test method and performance standard to certify such cigarette pursuant to R.S. 40:1629. If the state fire marshal determines that another state has enacted reduced cigarette ignition propensity standards that include a test method and performance standards that are the same as those contained in this Act*, and the state fire marshal finds that the officials responsible for implementing those requirements have approved the proposed alternative test method and performance standards for a particular cigarette proposed by a manufacturer as meeting the fire safety standards of that state's laws or regulations under a legal provision comparable to this Section, then the state fire marshal shall authorize that manufacturer to employ the alternative test method and performance standards to certify that cigarette for sale in this state, unless the state fire marshal demonstrates a reasonable basis why the alternative test should not be accepted under this Act*. All other applicable requirements of this Section shall apply to the manufacturer.

F. The state fire marshal shall review the effectiveness of this Section and report every three years to the legislature its findings and, if appropriate, recommendations for legislation to improve the effectiveness of this Act*. E. For each certification, a manufacturer shall pay to the state fire marshal a maximum fee of two hundred fifty dollars.

F. If a manufacturer has certified a cigarette pursuant to this Section, and thereafter makes any change to such cigarette that is likely to alter its compliance with the reduced cigarette ignition propensity standards required by this Act, that cigarette shall not be sold or offered for sale in this state until the manufacturer retests the cigarette in accordance with the testing standards set forth in R.S. 40:1628 and maintains records of that retesting as required by this Act. res are particularly dangerous due to the fact that present fire fighting apparatus can only reach floor levels below seventy-five feet in height, leaving upper floors in high rise facilities vulnerable to the unchecked spread of fire, thereby endangering the occupants of those upper floor levels.

B. It is therefore the policy of this state in order to protect life and property from the hazards of fire and panic which may arise from fire or from the threat of fire in high rise buildings to require existing high rise buildings to be protected throughout by an approved fire protection sprinkler system.

engineering standards. The system must be supplied from a reliable, constant, and sufficient water supply such as a gravity tank, fire pump, reservoir or pressure tank, or connection by underground piping to a city main or any combination of these. The portion of the sprinkler system above ground is considered the fire protection sprinkler system for purposes of this Subpart and is a network of specially sized or hydraulically designed piping installed in a building, structure, or area, generally overhead, and to which sprinklers are connected in a systematic pattern. The system includes a controlling valve and device for actuating an alarm when the system is in operation. The system is usually activated by heat from a fire and discharges water over the fire area. Fire protection sprinkler system, dry-pipe systems, preaction systems, deluge systems, combined dry-pipe and preaction systems, antifreeze systems, and circulating closed loop systems, have meanings as defined and continuously revised in National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 13, entitled Standard for the Installation of Sprinkler Systems.

C.(1) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, all existing high-rise buildings as defined in this Subpart shall be protected throughout by an approved fire protection sprinkler system by January 1, 1999. However, if the state fire marshal determines that an extension can be granted without creating an undue risk to human safety, the fire marshal may grant a one-year extension to those building owners who have made a good faith effort to comply with the fire protection sprinkler system requirement.

(2) The fire marshal may grant one-year extensions of time to complete the installation of a fire protection sprinkler system to those existing high-rise buildings that were not in compliance with the fire protection sprinkler system requirement on January 1, 1999, but which have a written plan to install such a system that has been approved by the fire marshal including but not limited to shop drawings, contracts, or architectural engineering design documents, provided that the building has sufficient and adequate fire protection systems to assure that undue risk to human life and safety is not created by occupancy above the seventy-five foot level.

(3) The fire marshal may grant a reasonable extension of time for compliance with the fire protection sprinkler system requirement upon a showing of each of the following:

(a) A statement of certification that such building shall be demolished or substantially remodeled within five years after July 14, 1999.

(4) Any state-owned building utilized as a state hospital or parish prison shall have until January 1, 2005, to complete installation of the required fire sprinkler system, provided the building has sufficient and adequate fire protection systems such that human occupancy above the seventy-five foot level does not create an undue risk to human life and safety.

(5) For the purposes of this Subpart, the following shall be sufficient and adequate fire protection systems such that undue risk to human life and safety are not created:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the state fire marshal may authorize alternative approaches for existing high-rise telephone equipment buildings occupied solely by telecommunications service providers which were not, as of September 1, 1988, protected throughout by an approved fire protection sprinkler system but which will provide an equivalent level of safety as provided by an approved automatic sprinkler system. Such alternative approaches shall be implemented on or before January 1, 1999. To obtain such approval, the telecommunications service provider shall submit a written master plan or a completed fire safety evaluation form, as published by the National Fire Protection Association, to the state fire marshal on or before January 1, 1993. from exercising their rights and privileges as citizens. Denial of access further impairs the ability of the disabled community to secure an education, to find and maintain gainful employment, to live independently, and to otherwise participate fully in society. The legislature further finds that a large proportion of the population is disabled and that this state has a moral interest in securing equal rights for all its citizens and an economic interest in the removal of architectural barriers which keep members of the disabled community on public assistance programs and from becoming productive citizens.

B. It is therefore the policy of this state to bring to an end, as quickly as possible, the undue hardship caused by architectural barriers. The state shall enable persons who are disabled to achieve maximum personal independence, to become gainfully employed, and to use and enjoy all buildings and facilities. It is the intent of the legislature to implement the removal of architectural barriers so that members of the disabled community will share equally in the right to use and enjoy the man-made environment, including but not limited to places of employment, recreation, entertainment, shopping, and education.

RS 40:1742 — Parking spaces for certain persons with disabilities

I, in accordance with applicable zoning and building codes, provide and maintain a minimum number of specially designed and marked motor vehicle parking spaces, referred to hereafter in this Chapter as "accessible parking spaces", for the exclusive use of persons whose vehicles are identified by license plates, hang tags, or special parking cards for persons with mobility impairments issued pursuant to R.S. 47:463.4 or 463.4.1. The accessible parking spaces shall adhere to the ADA Standards and shall include accessible loading and unloading areas, access aisles, access ramps, and curb cuts. The minimum number of such parking spaces shall be as established by the ADA Standards. Public building or facility and private building or facility, as the terms are used in this Section, shall be as defined in R.S. 40:1732, and shall include public and private property which is open to the public and to which the public is invited for commercial or governmental purposes.

(2) The fire marshal may, in cases of extreme hardship, waive any provisions of this Section after consultation with Louisiana Rehabilitation Services.

(3) Any owner or lessee of a facility who fails to provide and maintain spaces reserved and designated for the exclusive use of vehicles bearing a special license plate or parking card issued to a driver with a mobility impairment free of obstructions shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars.

(4)(a) In addition to the ADA Standards specifications, each access aisle, or any other area of the pavement adjacent to a parking space reserved for persons with mobility impairments that is designated for the loading and unloading of vehicles parked in the space, shall have the phrase "NO PARKING" written upon the pavement area using letters that are not less than twelve inches tall.

(b) Violations of this Paragraph shall be subject to the penalties provided for in R.S. 40:1743.

(c) The provisions of this Paragraph shall apply to all parking spaces newly constructed or existing parking spaces whose markings are repainted after August 1, 2013.

B.(1) No person shall park any vehicle in an accessible parking space unless such person has a license plate or hang tag for persons with mobility impairments issued pursuant to R.S. 47:463.4 or a properly displayed special parking card issued pursuant to R.S. 47:463.4.1.

(2)(a) The law enforcement officer shall be authorized to issue a citation or take whatever law enforcement action is deemed necessary or both. Furthermore, when an individual found to be in violation of these provisions refuses a request by a law enforcement officer to move the vehicle found in violation, the officer shall be authorized to have such vehicle towed.

(b) The citation shall contain information concerning the nature, date, time, and location of the alleged violation, the state vehicle license plate number, and the make of vehicle. In those cases where a license plate is not visible or legible, the vehicle identification number shall be used in lieu of the state vehicle plate number. The citation shall also contain information advising the person charged of the manner and the time in which he may contest the violation charged in the citation. The citation shall also provide that a failure to timely answer or appear before a court of competent jurisdiction shall be considered a prima facie admission of the violation set forth in the citation, in which the court may assess the appropriate fine or fines and all penalties incidental thereto.

(c) The citation issued pursuant to the provisions of this Subsection shall be personally served upon the operator of the vehicle by affixing the parking citation to the vehicle in a conspicuous place thereon. The original parking citation shall bear the name or initials and identification number of the issuing officer who shall affirm the truth of the facts set forth therein. An operator of a vehicle who is not the owner, but who uses or operates the vehicle with permission of the owner, expressed or implied, shall be considered the agent of the owner to receive the citation required to be served upon the operator or registered owner of a vehicle in accordance with the provisions of this Subsection. When a citation is issued for an alleged violation of the laws governing parking in an accessible parking space, loading and unloading areas, access aisles, access ramps, and curb cuts, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that a person in whose name the vehicle is registered was the operator of the vehicle when the alleged violation was committed.

(d) In the event that the registered owner or operator of a vehicle drives the vehicle away from or in any manner leaves the site of the violation while the issuing officer is preparing the citation, or refuses service of the parking citation and drives away from or in any manner leaves the site of the violation, this fact shall be duly noted on the original and all copies of the parking citation. This original and all copies of a parking citation shall constitute a business record of the law enforcement agency issuing the citation and shall constitute prima facie evidence that the citation was issued and that an attempt at service was made in accordance with the provisions of this Subsection.

(3) The first violation of the provisions of this Subsection shall be punished by a fine of two hundred seventy-five dollars. A subsequent violation shall be punished by a fine of five hundred dollars.

(4) If the violator is other than an individual, a fine of five hundred dollars shall be imposed.

(5) In addition to such fine, the violator may also be required to pay the towing fee and any storage costs which are incurred.

(6) The state of Louisiana shall recognize parking cards or other removable windshield placards and special license plates which have been issued by authorities of other states and countries for the purpose of identifying vehicles permitted to utilize parking spaces reserved for persons with mobility impairments.

(7) No fine issued pursuant to this Section shall be reduced or suspended.

C. Subsection B of this Section shall not be construed to affect or preempt any ordinance of any local governmental subdivision or to prohibit any local governmental subdivision of the state from adopting ordinances regulating accessible parking which ordinances may provide for penalties and enforcement as deemed appropriate by the local governing authority. The governing authorities of local governmental subdivisions may adopt such ordinances pursuant to R.S. 32:41 or 42, R.S. 33:1236(28), any applicable provisions of a home rule charter, or any other applicable provision of law. Except as provided in R.S. 46:2583(A)(2), the provisions of local ordinances shall control in all aspects of enforcement of such ordinances.

RS 40:1742.1 — Additional fine for enforcement of accessible parking regulations city which institutes a formal accessible parking enforcement program to assist the law enforcement agency in enforcing such regulations may, by ordinance, provide for and enforce an additional twenty-five dollar fine for each violation of such regulations. The proceeds of such additional fine shall be used by such parish or municipal governing authority exclusively to fund such program.

RS 40:1742.2 — Local variances in accessible parking restrictions ngs or facilities, as defined in R.S. 40:1732, is essential to protecting the civil rights of persons with disabilities. To this end, the state, through the fire marshal, has insisted on compliance with the ADA Standards, and the legislature has set substantial fines for accessible parking violations.

(2) The legislature recognizes, however, that parking spaces for a facility may not always be used for that facility. Often, a facility is not in use at particular times, and the general parking spaces are available for use by persons visiting other facilities.

(3) The legislature finds that as a matter of policy, there is a clear conceptual distinction between reserving accessible parking spaces for a facility that is in use and reserving such spaces associated with a facility that is not in use and at which the general parking spaces are being used for another facility. This distinction is in part grounded in the logic of the accessibility guidelines themselves. The guidelines relate each reserved parking space to a particular facility in requiring an accessible route from the parking space to the facility. In a case where the facility is not in use, there is no presumption that there is an accessible route from an accessible parking place to any other facility. Thus, if there is no legitimate reason for any person to be visiting a facility, the reservation of parking spaces for visitors with mobility impairments at that facility is unnecessary.

(4) Pursuant to such findings, the legislature hereby establishes the possibility of distinctions in enforcement based on use or nonuse of facilities at certain educational institutions. It is the intent of the legislature that the provisions of this Section are to be narrowly construed. If, because of a variance granted pursuant to this Section, a person with a mobility impairment is denied access to a parking space at a facility at which he has a legitimate reason for visiting, he may initiate an action under the Americans with Disabilities Act against the parish governing authority.

B.(1) The governing authority of any parish or municipality may, by ordinance, provide for time variances applicable to the reservation of parking spaces for persons with mobility impairments at facilities identified in Paragraph (2) of this Subsection. By such a variance, the governing authority may establish times during which particular accessible parking spaces are available for general use and no citations for accessible parking violations shall be issued for use of the parking space. Any such variance shall be indicated by signage displayed at each parking space subject to the variance, and signs indicating the times during which parking is not reserved shall be mounted on the same post or, if not on a post, in the same manner as and in close proximity to the accessible parking sign itself. Different time variances may be applied to different spaces at the same facility.

(2) A parish or municipal governing authority may grant a variance for parking spaces at athletic facilities or stadiums on high school campuses. No such variance shall be granted unless the school administration formally requests such a variance.

RS 40:1749.1 — Asbestos and hazardous component materials detection program established; finding and purpose; rules; duties and responsibilities; definitions; exceptions stos containing materials and other hazardous component materials in any environment occupied by human beings creates a serious hazard to health. The existence of such hazards should not be tolerated in the public buildings in this state, and it is incumbent upon state government to take initiative to see that such hazards are detected and that appropriate abatement actions are taken.

B. It is the purpose of this Section to provide a mechanism by which the presence of friable asbestos containing materials and other hazardous component materials in the public buildings in this state can be detected so that appropriate abatement actions are taken in order that the occupants in those buildings may work and live in an environment which does not threaten their welfare in any manner.

C.(1) The secretary of the Department of Environmental Quality shall establish a program to insure that whatever action as may be necessary is taken for the detection and appropriate abatement of friable asbestos containing materials and other hazardous component materials in public buildings, except those buildings constructed after 1978, unless it is determined that there is a possibility of the presence of these hazardous component materials. The secretary shall promulgate rules and regulations implementing an asbestos and hazardous component materials detection program which shall include but not be limited to visual assessment and air monitoring.

(2) Until the secretary adopts a level by regulation, the maximum allowable asbestos level for the protection of the general public shall be 0.01 fibers per cubic centimeter of air, measured during normal occupancy and calculated as an eight-hour time-weighted average in accord with 29 CFR Part 1910.1001, Appendix A, protocols for phase contrast microscopy (PCM). In the event that airborne asbestos fiber levels exceed such a level, a second test of samples may be collected during normal occupancy, analyzed by transmission electron microscopy (TEM) analysis and calculated as an eight-hour time-weighted average in accord with 29 CFR Part 1910.1001, Appendix A, and that value shall be controlling in determining whether the maximum allowable level is being exceeded.

(3) Such rules and regulations shall be promulgated after public hearing thereon in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, R.S. 49:950 et seq. The secretary shall promulgate rules and regulations as required by this Section no later than January 1, 1989.

D. The secretary may contract with any agencies, individuals, or groups for the provision of necessary services, subject to appropriation, and shall issue and from time to time amend such rules and regulations as may be necessary.

Contracts entered into with individuals or groups shall be subject to the public bid laws.

E. For the purposes of this Section, "friable asbestos" and asbestos containing materials shall have the same meaning as defined in R.S. 30:2343.

F. For the purpose of this Section, "public building" means those buildings owned or leased by the state of Louisiana, except those buildings constructed after 1978, unless it is determined that there is a possibility of the presence of these hazardous component materials.

underground facility or utility, or on the premises of a customer served by an underground facility or utility without having first ascertained, in the manner prescribed in Subsection B of this Section, the specific location as provided in R.S. 40:1749.14(D) of all underground facilities or utilities in the area which would be affected by the proposed excavation or demolition. The marking of an operator's facility or utility shall be provided for excavation or demolition purposes only.

B.(1) Except as provided in R.S. 40:1749.15, prior to any excavation or demolition, each excavator or demolisher shall serve telephonic or electronic notice of the intent to excavate or demolish to the regional notification center or centers serving the area in which the proposed excavation or demolition is to take place. Such notice shall be given to the notification center at least forty-eight hours, but not more than one hundred twenty hours, excluding weekends and holidays, in advance of the commencement of any excavation or demolition activity. If an excavation or demolition does not commence within one hundred twenty hours of the mark-by-time, not counting weekends and holidays, the excavator or demolisher shall be found in violation of this Section, except in the case of mutual agreement with the facility owner or operator to extend the time or extraordinary circumstances.

Extraordinary circumstances are circumstances which make it impractical or impossible for the excavator or demolisher to comply with the provisions of this Part due to weather-related events, equipment malfunction or failure, or unavailability of vital supplies and equipment. Holidays shall consist of the following: New Year's Day; Martin Luther King, Jr. Day; Good Friday; Memorial Day; Independence Day; Labor Day; Thanksgiving Day; Christmas Eve; and Christmas Day.

(2) This notice shall contain the name, address, and telephone number of the person filing the notice of intent, and, if different, the person responsible for the excavation or demolition; the starting date, anticipated duration, and description of the specific type of excavation or demolition operation to be conducted; the specific location of the proposed excavation or demolition; and a statement as to whether directional boring or explosives are to be used. The notice shall be confined to the actual area of proposed excavation or demolition that will occur during the twenty-day time period pursuant to R.S. 40:1749.14(C).

(3) Telephonic notice shall be recorded on tape or stored into an electronic data bank by the regional notification center and a record of the notice shall be retained for a three-year period from the date of notification. A record of an electronic notice shall also be retained by the regional notification center for a three-year period from the date of notification.

(4) The excavator or demolisher shall provide the specific location for excavation or demolition with either telephonic or electronic notice. Telephonic notice shall require the excavator or demolisher to physically mark the proposed route or area of excavation or demolition using white paint, flags, stakes, or similar means under American Public Works Association guidelines prior to submitting notice.

(5) The excavator or demolisher shall wait at least forty-eight hours, beginning at 7:00 a.m. on the next working day, following notification, unless mutually agreed upon and documented by the excavator and operator to extend such time, before commencing any excavation or demolition activity, except in the case of an emergency as defined in the provisions of this Part or if informed by the regional notification center that no operators are to be notified. However, if no agreement for an extension of time can be reached between the excavator and the operator and the excavation or demolition activity could impact a pipeline located on or in water, upon request by the operator, the commissioner may delay the mark-by time prior to the commencement of any excavation or demolition activity in order to allow for the accurate marking of such pipeline.

(6) At least one person on any underground or submerged excavation or demolition site shall have proof of completion of the training and education provided by the Regional Notification Center. Training is required on an annual basis through the Regional Notification Center and shall be available through its website free of charge. Excavators or demolishers certified by an operator qualification program subject to 49 CFR Part 192 or 195 shall be exempt from this requirement.

C. This Part shall not apply to activities by operators or land owners excavating their own underground utilities or facilities on their own property or operators' exclusive right-of-way provided there is no encroachment on the rights-of-way of any operator.

D. For purposes of this Section, any physical markings or electronic drawings identifying a specific location as provided for in Subsection B of this Section shall not exceed the actual area of excavation or demolition.

E.(1) The purpose of this Subsection is to allow for voluntary agreements in writing between operators of underground utilities or facilities and excavators and demolishers in conflict to determine the mark-by time, as well as the duration of excavation and demolition projects that cannot be reasonably completed within the time frame required for routine excavation or demolition.

(2) Unless hereinafter specifically excepted, all other provisions of this Subsection shall apply to large project excavations or demolitions.

(3) Upon an excavator or demolisher contacting the regional notification center to provide notice of excavation or demolition, the excavator or demolisher may request that the excavation or demolition be recognized as a large project excavation or demolition, at which time the regional notification center shall notify all affected underground utility and facility operators that a large project excavation or demolition request has been submitted.

(4) A large project excavation or demolition request shall only be submitted electronically to the regional notification center at least ten business days prior to the commencement of the excavation or demolition.

(5) The submission of a large project excavation or demolition request shall also include the names and contact information of any and all subcontractors of the excavator or demolisher who will be working on the project.

(6) Upon receipt of the large project excavation or demolition notification request, operators of underground utilities or facilities and the requesting excavator or demolisher may attempt to reach a mutual agreement in writing to determine the scope of work, the mark-by-times, and any other details of the project that the operator and excavator or demolisher mutually agree need to be included in the written agreement, such as the marking schedule and additional parties to be included in the notification request. In no event shall an agreement be entered into pursuant to this Subsection for a duration of more than ninety calendar days.

(7) If a mutual agreement between all parties in conflict in an area cannot be reached within thirty calendar days from the date submitted to the Regional Notification Center, the large project excavation or demolition notification request shall be deemed null and void, and the requesting excavator or demolisher shall cancel the large project excavation or demolition notice and request a routine excavation or demolition notice in accordance with this Section.

B. A regional notification center receiving a notice of intent to excavate shall notify all member operators having underground utilities or facilities in or near the site of the proposed excavation, except for the operator who provided the notice of intent and requested not to receive such notification. All member operators shall furnish the regional notification center with current emergency contact or notification information, including twenty-four hour telephone numbers.

C.(1) Each operator of an underground facility or utility, after having received the notification request from the regional notification center of an intent to excavate or an intent to conduct normal commercial farming operations, shall supply, prior to the proposed excavation or normal commercial farming operation, the following information to the person responsible for the excavation or normal commercial farming operation:

(a) The specific location and type of all of its underground utilities or facilities which may be damaged as a result of the excavation or demolition. If the surface over the buried or submerged line is to be removed, supplemental offset markings may be used. Offset markings shall be on a uniform alignment and shall clearly indicate that the actual facility is a specific distance away.

(b)(i) Unless otherwise required by federal or state statutes, the specific location and type of underground utility or facility may, at the operator's option, be marked to locate the utilities or facilities. If the utilities or facilities are visibly marked by the operator, they shall be marked by the operator by color coded paint, flags, or stakes or similar means using the American Public Works Association color code.

(ii) The location of underground fiber optic cables shall be identified in accordance with the provisions of this Subparagraph and such identification shall also include an added special marking that is uniquely associated with fiber optic cables.

(iii) When the utility or facility operator has marked the location of underground facilities or utilities, the marking shall be deemed good as long as visible, but not longer than twenty calendar days, including weekends and holidays, from the mark-by time, unless the notice was designated as a large project excavation or demolition and a written agreement has been reached between the operator and the excavator or demolisher. However, if the proposed excavation or demolition activity could impact a pipeline located on or in water, the commissioner may extend the time period allowed for completion of the excavation or demolition. An additional notice to the regional notification center shall be given by the excavator or demolisher in accordance with the provisions of this Part when the marks are no longer visible or if the excavation or demolition cannot be completed within twenty calendar days from the mark-by time for routine excavation or demolition or ninety calendar days for large project excavation or demolition.

(iv) The excavator shall use all reasonable and prudent means, within common industry practice, to protect and preserve all marks of the underground utility or facility.

(v) In the case whereby a forestry excavator, agricultural excavator, or marine excavator has requested that the utilities and facilities be marked for location, the operator of a utility or facility shall mark the area of their utilities or facilities. The markings provided by the operator shall be deemed good as long as the markings are visible or up to thirty calendar days from the time that the markings were made, whichever is shorter.

(2) If the operator does not visibly mark the location of these utilities or facilities, the operator shall provide information to enable an excavator using reasonable and prudent means to determine the approximate location of the utility or facility. The information provided by the operator shall include a contact person and a specific telephone number for the excavators to call. After the operator has received the notification request, the information on location, size, and type of underground utility or facility must be provided by the operator to the excavator prior to excavation.

(3) In the event of inclement weather as defined in this Part, the mark-by time shall be extended by a duration equal to the duration of the inclement weather. The owner or operator shall notify the excavator or demolisher before the expiration of the mark-by time of the need for such extension.

(4) Should an underground utility or facility operator determine that its underground facilities are not in conflict with the location of the request or determine that its underground facilities are not fully marked for locating purposes, a notification shall be sent to the excavator prior to the mark-by time. A notification to the regional notification center that generated the location request shall suffice for compliance with this Section as it pertains to positive response.

D. For the purpose of this Section, the specific location of the underground facilities is defined as an area not wider than the width of the underground facility or utility as marked plus eighteen inches on either side.

E.(1) An excavator or demolisher who has given notice and otherwise complied with the provisions of this Part shall be immune from civil liability for damages in the area of the proposed excavation or demolition caused by such excavation or demolition to any owner or operator who:

(a) Was required by the provisions of this Part to become a member, participate in, or share the cost of a regional notification center, and failed to do so.

(b) Failed to mark or provide information as required by the provisions of this Part.

(2) The immunity provided by this Subsection shall not apply to civil liability for damages caused by the negligence of the excavator or demolisher.

F. Should an owner or operator file suit against an excavator or demolisher for damages to underground facilities or utilities and the court finds in favor of the owner or operator, in addition to damages provided for by this Part, the owner or operator shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees and costs. If the court finds in favor of the excavator or demolisher, the excavator or demolisher shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees and costs.

RS 40:1749.15 — Emergency excavation; notice required; penalty

B. The excavator shall certify in the notice required in Subsection A of this Section that the situation poses an imminent threat or danger to life, health, or property or is the result of an unplanned utility outage and requires immediate action and that the excavator, owner, or operator has personnel on site.

C. There is a rebuttable presumption that the excavator failed to give notice as required pursuant to this Section if the excavator failed to give any notice to the regional notification center within the following time periods:

- (1) Within two hours from the discovery of the need for an emergency excavation.
- (2) In the case of a gubernatorially declared state of emergency due to a weather or homeland security-related event, within twelve hours of the beginning of the emergency excavation within the parishes to which the emergency declaration applies.
- (3) In the case of a wildfire, within twenty-four hours after control of the emergency.

D. The owner or operator of the underground utilities, facilities, or submerged infrastructure shall respond to an emergency notice as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

E. Emergency excavation notices are valid for as long as the emergency situation exists. The type of work and location shall remain consistent with the work described in the emergency excavation notice. If the type of work and location become inconsistent with the emergency excavation notice, then a new excavation notice is required.

RS 40:1749.16 — Precautions to avoid damage excavation or demolition operation shall do the following:

- (1) Plan the excavation or demolition to avoid damage to or minimize interference with underground facilities in and near the construction area.

- (3) Provide support for underground facilities or utilities in and near the construction area, during excavation and back filling operations, as may be reasonably necessary to protect the utility or facility.
- (4) Potholing to determine the actual location of such facilities or utilities if an excavation or demolition operation could result in damage to underground utilities or facilities handling electricity, gas, natural gas, oil, petroleum products, or other flammable, toxic, or corrosive fluids or gases. For forestry excavation operations that could result in damage to underground utilities or facilities handling electricity, gas, natural gas, oil, petroleum products, or other flammable, toxic, or corrosive fluids or gases, the forestry excavator and the utility or facility owner or operator shall cooperate to determine the actual location of such facilities or utilities.

RS 40:1749.17 — Excavation or demolition; repair of damage damage, notify the owner or operator of the utility or facility of the location and nature of the damage and shall allow the owner or operator reasonable time to accomplish necessary repairs before continuing the excavation, demolition, or back filling in the immediate area of damage.

B. Each person responsible for an excavation or demolition operation or normal commercial farming operation which results in damage to an underground facility or utility permitting the escape of any flammable, toxic, or corrosive fluids/gases shall, immediately upon discovery of that damage:

(1) Notify the owner or operator of the utility or facility as provided in Subsection A, and all other appropriate emergency response personnel, including 911 and the local law enforcement and fire departments and allow the owner or operator reasonable time to accomplish necessary repairs before continuing the excavation, demolition, or back filling in the immediate area of damage.

(2) Take any other action as may be reasonably necessary to protect persons and property and to minimize hazards until arrival of the owner or operator's personnel and police or fire department.

ions of Chapter 13 of Title 49 of the Louisiana

Revised Statutes of 1950, the commission has the power to make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing the storage, sale, and transportation of liquefied petroleum gases over the highways of the state, the installation of tanks or systems for the use of liquefied petroleum gases, and the installation and use of liquefied petroleum gas appliances as the commission may deem necessary in the interest of public safety.

B. In adopting rules and regulations, the commission shall be governed by the following provisions:

(1) The commission may adopt, as its own, the published regulations of the National Fire Protection Association, or any other nationally recognized agency, by reference thereto, or it may adopt any other reasonable rules and regulations it deems necessary in the interest of public safety.

(2) The rules and regulations relating to design and construction of liquefied petroleum gas containers shall be in reasonably substantial conformity with recognized published national standards.

(3) The rules and regulations shall provide that a dealer shall not serve any liquefied petroleum gas system which the dealer knows is improperly installed or in a dangerous condition. The rules and regulations shall require the following provisions relative to liquefied petroleum gas systems:

(a) In the interest of safety and for the protection of life and property, any end user who authorizes the maintenance and/or repair, installation, adjustment, and servicing of a liquefied petroleum gas system in the state of Louisiana shall insure that any person, firm, or corporation that may be employed and/or authorized to make such repairs has a current permit or registration and cards of competency from the Louisiana Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission to perform maintenance and/or repair, installation, adjustment and/or servicing of that system.

(b) Any end user authorizing any action listed in R.S. 40:1846(B)(3)(a), where such actions are completed by any person, firm, or corporation other than the liquefied petroleum gas dealer who normally services the liquefied petroleum gas system, shall notify, as soon as possible, the servicing dealer authorized to service the affected liquefied petroleum gas system. This notification shall include:

(i) Name of the person, firm, or corporation that performed the service.

(ii) Actions taken to the affected liquefied petroleum gas systems such as adding piping, spaceheaters, and other such appliances. The end user shall make the described notification within five working days after completion of the action or before the liquefied petroleum gas system is next serviced with liquefied petroleum gas, whichever occurs first.

(c) It is unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to repair, install, adjust, and/or service any liquefied petroleum gas system without meeting the requirements of the Louisiana Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission.

(d) No person, firm, or corporation, except the owner thereof, or person, firm, or corporation authorized in writing by said owner, shall fill, refill, buy, sell, offer for sale, give, take, loan, dispose of, or traffic in, a liquefied petroleum gas container or tank.

(e) Any person, firm, or corporation convicted of violating any provision of this Paragraph shall be subject to penalties as provided in R.S. 40:1846.1(E).

(f) No person, firm, or corporation shall use, sell, or distribute liquefied petroleum gas for use in mobile air conditioning systems; however, the prohibition shall not apply to a refrigerant included on the list published by the Environmental Protection Agency as a safe, alternative motor vehicle air conditioning substitute for chlorofluorocarbon-12, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 7671k(c). For purposes of this Subparagraph "mobile air conditioning system" means mechanized vapor compression equipment which is used to cool the driver's or passenger's compartment of any motor vehicle. So that it may be determined whether the refrigerant is a liquefied petroleum gas, the proper shipping name shall be used on any product intended for use as a refrigerant in a mobile air conditioning system. Proper shipping names with a U.N. number and a hazard class and division number of liquefied petroleum gas per the United States Department of Transportation hazardous materials tables shall be prima facie evidence that the refrigerant is liquefied petroleum gas and is prohibited. Any advertising or other literature published by the manufacturer of the refrigerant promoting it as a replacement or drop-in for CFR-12 or HFC 134a, or both, shall be prima facie evidence that it is being sold for mobile air conditioning systems.

(4) The rules and regulations shall require each dealer to transmit a notice, once each year, to each customer stating that liquefied petroleum gas systems are potentially dangerous, that a leak in the system could result in a fire or explosion, and that systems should be inspected periodically.

(5) The rules and regulations shall require the following provisions regarding odorization and verification of odorization of liquefied petroleum gases:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph, each refinery, commercial storage facility, natural gas processing plant, pipeline, or other person which sells liquefied petroleum gas to a transporter, dealer, or distributor for distribution into the distribution chain to consumers shall odorize the liquefied petroleum gas in accordance with this Chapter.

(b) Liquefied petroleum gas shall not be required to be odorized if it is to be delivered to a manufacturer of products of which liquefied petroleum gas forms a component part, to any facility for further processing, to a commercial storage facility for storage, a natural gas processing plant, a refinery, a pipeline, or when odorization would be harmful in further use or processing of the gas and would not serve a useful purpose as a warning agent in further use or processing of the gas.

(c) Liquefied petroleum gas which is required to be odorized shall be effectively odorized by an approved agent of such character as to indicate positively, by a distinctive odor, the presence of gas down to concentrations in air of not over one-fifth the lower limit of flammability. The presence of odorization, when required, shall be positively verified by the dealer by a sniff test or other means, and the results shall be documented prior to delivery into his bulk plant or, when a shipment bypasses a bulk plant, prior to the delivery to a consumer. It is the intent of this Paragraph to prohibit the sale or delivery of liquefied petroleum gas by a dealer to a consumer without the required odorization.

(d) The odorization requirements shall be considered to be met by the use of one pound of ethyl mercaptan, one pound of thiophane, or one and four tenths pounds of amyl mercaptan per ten thousand gallons of liquefied petroleum gas, subject to the provisions of Subparagraph (e) of this Paragraph.

(e) In order to maintain the minimum concentration of odorant in the liquefied petroleum gas at the point of use by the consumer, the rules and regulations shall recommend that each person who is required to odorize gas under this Chapter use one and one-half pounds of odorant per ten thousand gallons of liquefied petroleum gas at the point of odorization.

(6) The only approved odorants are those specified in this Chapter; however, the rules and regulations may authorize the use of other odorants which are equal in effectiveness to the odorants specified in this Chapter.

(7) The rules and regulations shall require each person which transports liquefied petroleum gas which is exempt from the odorization requirements of this Chapter to keep records of all purchases of unodorized gas for three years. The records shall include bills of lading, loading tickets, and records of all deliveries of unodorized gas. Each delivery ticket and bill of lading shall be identified by reference to the bill of lading number.

(8) The rules and regulations adopted by the commission shall not be in conflict with the provisions of this Chapter.

C. The rules and regulations adopted by the commission shall be available to the public on the website of the commission. Any applicant, upon filing a formal application for a permit or registration, shall be mailed a copy of these rules and regulations upon receipt of his request. These rules and regulations may be supplemented from time to time in accordance with Administrative Procedure Act, R.S. 49:950 et seq. No other form of promulgation shall be required to make such rules and regulations or supplements thereto effective.

D. The power of regulation vested in the commission shall not extend to the plant site of a manufacturer of liquefied petroleum gases, or to the plant site of a manufacturer of products of which liquefied petroleum gases form a component part, or to installations or storage or delivery of such gases within the plant site of any such manufacturer.

E. This Part does not apply to manufacturers of liquefied petroleum gases, as defined in R.S. 40:1842(10), or to manufacturers of products of which liquefied petroleum gas forms a component part, as defined in R.S. 40:1842(11), who manufacture or purchase liquefied petroleum gases for use or consumption in their operations or who sell all or part of the liquefied petroleum gases so manufactured or purchased exclusively to a manufacturer of liquefied petroleum gases, to a manufacturer of products of which liquefied petroleum gas forms a component part, or to resellers as defined in R.S. 40:1842(12).

F. The commission shall cooperate with the deputy secretary of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections to develop a means of sharing data regarding the location of storage tanks and other relevant data necessary to implement the information management system required to be reported under R.S. 30:2361, et seq. The administrative costs of transferring this data to the information management system shall be paid by the commission out of permit fees presently collected by the commission.

G.(1) Liquefied petroleum gas dealers and resellers, as defined in this Part, shall be subject to the provisions of this Part, including the obtaining of a permit, payment of a permit fee, and obtaining the required insurance. The permit fee amount shall be based on the cost of the liquefied petroleum gases or the sales price of those gases, whichever is greater.

(2) A manufacturer of liquefied petroleum gases or a manufacturer of products of which liquefied petroleum gas forms a component part, who is also a dealer or reseller within the meaning of this Part, shall not include within the term "annual gross sales", for the purpose of computing the permit fee as a dealer or reseller, those sales of liquefied petroleum gas made by such manufacturer to a manufacturer of liquefied petroleum gases, to a manufacturer of products of which liquefied petroleum gas forms a component part, or to resellers.

(3) It is the intent of this Part to make all sales, except those specifically exempted, subject to a permit fee at the reseller's point of sale and at the retail dealer's point of sale.

H. It shall be an affirmative defense to an action against any person engaged in this state in the business of selling at retail, supplying, handling, or transporting liquefied petroleum gas that an alleged injury, damage, or loss was caused by either of the following:

(1) The alteration, modification, or repair of liquefied petroleum gas equipment or a liquefied petroleum gas appliance if the alteration, modification, or repair was done without the knowledge of the liquefied petroleum gas seller, supplier, handler, or transporter.

(2) The use of liquefied petroleum gas equipment or a liquefied petroleum gas appliance in a manner or for a purpose other than that for which the equipment or appliance was intended and that purpose could not reasonably have been expected.

I. The commission or its appointed designee, may suspend any of the commission's rules and regulations in Chapter 1, 2, or 15 of Part IX of Title 55 of the Louisiana Administrative Code that do not materially affect safety during the time period of declaration of an emergency or disaster by the governor. The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act providing for such suspension prior to exercising the authority granted in this Subsection.

C.(1) No individual shall be subject to a criminal fine or imprisonment under this Chapter as a result of any willful and wrongful acts of a fellow employee or subordinate employee whose willful and wrongful act was carried out without the knowledge of the individual.

(2) Whoever is found to be guilty of any of the following acts shall be fined not more than fifty thousand dollars, or imprisoned with hard labor for not more than ten years, or both:

(a) Willful or knowing violation of a rule or regulation of the commission which endangers human life or health.

(b) Failure to properly odorize gas or to verify the presence of odorant as required by this Chapter.

D.(1) Anyone violating this Chapter shall also be liable for all damages resulting from any fire or explosion involving that shipment.

(2) The liability imposed by this Section may not be delegated by contract or practice to any transporter or subcontractor responsible for the transportation of the liquefied petroleum gas.

E.(1) The commission may assess a civil penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each violation of this Chapter or the rules and regulations adopted under the provisions of this Chapter.

(2) Civil penalties may be assessed only by a ruling of the commission based on an adjudicatory hearing held in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

(3) The commission may institute civil proceedings to enforce its rulings in the district court for the parish in which the commission is domiciled or the district court for the parish in which the violation occurred.

The registration applies only to plumbers who hold a masters plumber's license issued by the state of Louisiana, or mechanical contractors who hold a current occupational license from the proper issuing authority and who meets all rules and regulations of the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission.

(2) As a further prerequisite to the issuance of such permit or registration, the applicant shall furnish evidence of liability insurance in the minimum sum of one hundred thousand dollars covering the applicant's legal liability for such phases of his operations as the commission may require, but this shall not serve to lower any insurance requirements otherwise provided by law.

(3) In lieu of such insurance, the applicant may post with the commission bonds or other securities issued by the United States of America or the state of Louisiana, or certificates of deposit or similar instruments issued by a lending institution regulated by an agency of this state or of the federal government, in the above amounts, which bonds or securities shall be held in trust by the commission for the benefit of any person, firm, or corporation to which such legal liability may accrue.

B. The commission shall grant Class I liquefied petroleum gas dealer permits to nonresident applicants only after the commission has reached a reciprocal agreement with the liquefied petroleum gas regulating authority of the state in which the applicant resides. Such agreement shall provide for the granting of Class I dealer permits in that state to resident Louisiana liquefied petroleum gas Class I dealer applicants on an equal basis between the states for the granting of such permits. The granting of a Class I dealer permit by the commission to such nonresident applicant shall be subject to the provisions of such agreement. The provisions of such agreement shall not serve to reduce the requirements hereinabove prescribed for qualifying for Class I liquefied petroleum gas dealer permits to operate within the state of Louisiana.

gross annual sales of liquefied petroleum gas of such dealer or permit holder. The minimum permit fee shall be not less than seventy-five dollars. No permit or renewal permit shall be issued by the commission except upon payment of such fee as herein provided. The commission may formulate and enforce necessary rules and regulations for the renewal of permits and the collection of the fees.

B. No tanker truck with a water capacity of one thousand gallons or more shall be used to transport liquefied petroleum gas, including anhydrous ammonia, in Louisiana until it has been registered with the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission and an annual registration fee for each vehicle has been paid therefor to the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission. From August 1, 2025, until July 31, 2030, such fee shall be up to one hundred dollars, and thereafter, such fee shall be up to one hundred fifty dollars. Upon payment of the fee, the commission shall issue a registration decal valid for the year of issuance. This registration decal shall be permanently affixed to the motor vehicle in a prominent location as provided by the regulations which the commission shall adopt. No dealer shall deliver any liquefied petroleum gas from any transport motor vehicle to which a current registration decal is not permanently affixed.

C.(1)(a) All service and installation personnel, fuel transfer personnel, carburetion mechanics, and tank truck drivers employed by a dealer shall have successfully taken the personnel competency test administered by the commission and shall possess a current personnel competency card, which must be renewed annually. Each applicant to take the personnel competency test shall pay to the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission a personnel qualification fee of twenty dollars, the payment of which shall entitle him to take the test one time and, upon receipt of a satisfactory score, he shall be entitled to a personnel competency card valid for the year in which it is issued. Each applicant to renew his personnel competency card shall pay an annual renewal fee of ten dollars to the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission.

(b) The provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply to drivers transporting three hundred gallons or less of liquefied petroleum gas, in twenty-five gallon or more, maximum liquefied petroleum gas capacity containers, which containers conform to United States Department of Transportation specifications, if the driver's normal and routine duties are not the transportation of liquefied petroleum gases.

(2) The commission may adopt rules to provide for reciprocal agreements with other states regarding examination requirements and accept as its own the reciprocal state's examination. The commission shall ensure that the reciprocal state's examination contains substantially equivalent requirements. Each participating state in any such reciprocal agreement shall retain its own fee structure regarding examinations and other applicable fees.

D.(1) Except for the assessment established in R.S. 40:1851, all fees, penalties, and other revenues received by the commission shall be deposited immediately upon receipt in the state treasury.

(2) After compliance with the requirements of Article VII, Section 9(B) of the Constitution of Louisiana relative to the Bond Security and Redemption Fund, and prior to the monies being placed in the state general fund, an amount equal to the funds received shall

(3) At the end of each fiscal year, the unexpended and unencumbered monies which remain in the account, up to a maximum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars, shall remain in the account and shall be used by the commission for the purposes set forth in this Subsection.

(4) The monies in the account shall be used for the following purposes:

(a) For all purposes provided for under this Part.

E. In order to offset any projected increase in the total fees collected from truck registrations, competency tests, and competency card renewals from Fiscal Year 1999 to Fiscal Year 2000, the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission shall, prior to January 1, 2000, promulgate rules to reduce the liquefied petroleum gas permit fees authorized in Subsection A of this Section. The reduction in permit fees shall be in an amount equal to or exceeding the increase in truck registration, competency test, and competency card fees provided for in Subsections B and C of this Section. The actual 1998-1999 Fiscal Year sales dollars for permit fee calculations, number of truck registrations, number of competency tests given, and number of competency cards renewed shall be used in calculating the reduction in permit fees. The reduction in permit fees as well as the increase in truck registration fees, competency test fees, and competency card renewal fees set forth in this Section, shall become effective on January 1, 2000.

The rules and regulations adopted by the commission relating to the design or construction of anhydrous ammonia containers shall be in reasonable and substantial conformity with the American Society of Mechanical Engineers Code for Construction of Unfired Pressure Vessels and subsequent amendments, revisions, or modifications thereto. Such regulations shall not be extended to the manufacturers of anhydrous ammonia with respect to their operations and equipment on their plant site only, or the manufacturer of products of which anhydrous ammonia forms a component part, or the installation or storage or delivery of such gases within the plant site of any such manufacturer.

B. The Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission is vested with the duty of administering and enforcing the provisions of this Part and the rules and regulations adopted by the commission, to employ all necessary personnel or inspectors to enforce this law and the rules and regulations adopted by the commission, and such inspectors shall have the authority to enter

C. The commission shall have the right to injunctive relief to prevent the continuing violation of, or failure to comply with the law or any of the rules and regulations of the commission. Any suits for injunctive relief shall be filed in the parish in which such violations occur or in the parish in which the violator is domiciled or has his principal place of business.

A manufacturer of anhydrous ammonia, who is also a dealer within the meaning of this Part, shall not include within the term "gross sales" for the purpose of computing the permit fee as a dealer, those sales of anhydrous ammonia made by such manufacturer to other manufacturers of anhydrous ammonia. No permit nor any renewal thereof shall be issued by the commission except upon the payment of such fee.

B. Any person commencing business as a dealer shall pay the basic permit fee as provided for in this Section, which shall be valid for one calendar year from the date of issue, and shall be renewed annually thereafter as provided in Subsection A of this Section.

C. No tanker truck with a water capacity of one thousand gallons or more shall be used to transport anhydrous ammonia in Louisiana until it has been registered with the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission and an annual registration fee of fifty dollars has been paid to the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission. Upon payment of the fee, the commission shall issue a registration decal valid for the year of issuance. This registration decal shall be permanently affixed to the truck in a prominent location as provided by the regulations which the commission shall adopt. No dealer shall deliver any anhydrous ammonia from any transport motor vehicle to which a current registration decal is not permanently affixed.

D.(1) All service and installation personnel, fuel personnel, and tank truck drivers employed by a dealer shall have successfully completed the personnel competency test administered by the commission and shall possess a current personnel competency card, which must be renewed annually. Each applicant to take the personnel competency test shall pay to the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission a personnel qualification fee of twenty dollars, the payment of which shall entitle him to take the test one time and, upon receipt of a satisfactory score, shall entitle him to a personnel competency card valid for the year in which it is issued. To renew his personnel competency card, each applicant shall pay an annual renewal fee of ten dollars to the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission.

(2) The commission may adopt rules to provide agreements with other states regarding examination requirements and accept as their own results the results of the reciprocal state's examination. The commission shall ensure that the reciprocal state's examination contains substantially equivalent requirements. Each participating state in any such reciprocal agreement shall retain its own fee structure regarding examinations and other applicable fees.

E. The Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission is hereby granted the authority and power to formulate and enforce necessary rules and regulations for the collection of said fees and shall remit all fees collected to the state treasury as provided for in Article VII, Section 9(A) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

F. The Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission shall use any increase in total fees from truck registrations, competency tests, and competency card renewals provided for in Subsections C and D herein, from Fiscal Year 1999 to Fiscal Year 2000, to reduce the liquefied petroleum gas permit fees authorized by R.S. 40:1849(A). The Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission shall, prior to January 1, 2000, promulgate rules to this effect. The reduction in liquefied petroleum gas permit fees shall be in an amount equal to or exceeding the increase in such truck registration, competency test, and competency card fees provided for in Subsections C and D herein. The actual 1998-1999 fiscal year sales dollars for permit fee calculations, number of truck registrations, number of competency tests given, and number of competency cards renewed, as provided in this Section, shall be used in calculating the reduction in permit fees. The reduction in permit fees and the increase in truck registration fees, competency test fees, and competency card renewal fees set forth in this Section shall become effective on January 1, 2000.

Special consideration shall be given to patients or residents receiving end-of-life care.

(2)(a) The rules shall include but not be limited to definitions, minimum requirements including the right to consensual nonsexual physical contact such as hand-holding or hugging, and provisions to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the patients or residents and the staff of the inpatient healthcare facility. However, the rules may not require visitors to submit proof of any vaccination or immunization.

(b) The rules shall allow inpatient health care facilities to adopt reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions on patient or resident visitation that are implemented for the purpose of mitigating the possibility of transmission of any infectious agent or disease or to address the medical condition or clinical considerations of an individual patient.

(3) The rules promulgated pursuant to this Section shall be preempted by any federal statute, federal regulation, or guidance from a federal government agency that requires an inpatient health care facility to restrict patient visitation in a manner that is more restrictive than the rules adopted by the Louisiana Department of Health pursuant to this Section.

agency within the United States Department of Health and Human Services charged with administering the Medicare program.

(2) "Initial Medicare survey" means the site visit conducted by the state survey department for the purpose of gathering information on a health care provider's level of compliance with Medicare participation and other federal regulatory requirements. A survey is considered an initial Medicare survey if the survey is required in order for a health care provider to receive Medicare program payment for the first time as a type or class of health care provider or in order to receive Medicare reimbursement under a special Medicare payment methodology. The fact that a health care provider may avoid a survey by obtaining accreditation from a national accrediting body shall not affect a survey's status as an initial Medicare survey.

(3) "State survey budget" means the dollar amount that CMS will pay the state survey department in order to perform its functions as the state survey department during a federal fiscal year.

(4) "State survey department" means the Louisiana Department of Health or its successor.

B. If the state survey department determines that the state survey budget is insufficient to perform all of the initial Medicare surveys it has been requested to perform for the federal fiscal year, or the state survey department has not received final budget appropriation for the state survey budget, the state survey department shall, upon the consent of the party requesting an initial Medicare survey, assess a fee for the initial Medicare survey. The fee shall be commensurate with the cost of performing the initial Medicare survey and shall range from five hundred fifty dollars to two thousand three hundred dollars based upon the provider type for which the initial Medicare survey is requested. Upon approval by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, and upon execution of a written agreement to pay the fee by the party requesting the initial Medicare survey and the state survey department, the state survey department shall schedule and conduct the initial Medicare survey. Upon determination that the final state survey budget appropriation is insufficient to conduct the requested initial Medicare survey, the state survey department shall transmit an invoice to the party that requested the initial Medicare survey. The invoiced amount shall be the fee agreed upon by the state survey department and the party that requested the initial Medicare survey. The party that requested the initial survey shall pay the invoice no later than June thirtieth of the state fiscal year in which the initial Medicare survey was performed.

C. If the state survey department determines that the state survey budget is insufficient to perform all of the initial Medicare surveys it has been requested to perform during the federal fiscal year or the state survey department has not received final budget appropriation for the state survey budget, the state survey department shall give priority to all initial Medicare surveys requested by a rural hospital as defined in the Rural Hospital Preservation Act. The order of initial Medicare surveys shall be determined on the basis of the order in which parties requesting initial Medicare surveys complete the application process.

D. Upon receipt of an application for a license from any person, partnership, corporation, unincorporated association, or any other legal entity that has made a request for an initial Medicare survey, under the circumstances in Subsection B of this Section, the state survey department shall make a determination of whether it has sufficient state funds to conduct an initial state licensure survey. In the event that the state survey department determines that it lacks sufficient state funds, upon the consent of the party requesting the initial state licensure survey, the state survey department shall assess a fee to defray the costs associated with such initial state licensure survey. The fee shall be commensurate with the cost of performing the initial state licensure survey and shall range from six hundred dollars to two thousand six hundred fifty dollars based upon the provider type for which the initial state licensure survey is requested. Upon payment of the fee by the party requesting the initial state licensure survey, the state survey department shall schedule and conduct the initial state licensure survey.

RS 40:2006.2 — Expedited licensing process; fees facilities and providers that the department licenses.

B. The department shall promulgate, in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, any such rules as are necessary to provide for the expedited licensing process authorized by this Section.

C. The fees for the expedited licensing process shall be assessed in an amount not to exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars and shall be payable to the department at the time an expedited licensing application is submitted to the department by a healthcare facility or provider.

D.(1) After the department receives and approves the completed expedited licensing application packet, the department shall notify the applicant to provide a readiness date for the expedited survey. The department shall conduct the expedited licensing survey within ten working days of the readiness date indicated by the facility or provider and in accordance with applicable rules of the department.

(2) The department shall refund the expedited licensing fee if the expedited licensing survey is not conducted within the time period specified in this Section, unless such failure to conduct the survey is due to the unavailability of the facility or provider.

(3) The department shall not utilize existing employees who conduct regular licensing surveys to conduct any expedited licensing survey.

E. The department shall ensure that no facility or provider seeking approval to apply for licensure pursuant to a pre-licensing facility need review process provided for in this Chapter is affected by another provider of the same license type choosing the expedited licensing process instead of the regular licensing process.

common wall from floor to ceiling; or a hallway or intersection within the building.

(3) "Department" means the Louisiana Department of Health.

(4) "Health care provider" means a facility, entity, or operation, in any form whatsoever, that is required to be separately licensed, apart from the license required of physicians or board-certified social workers in private practice, or that must enter into a Medicaid provider agreement with the department before providing the medical services for which it was organized.

The definition of "health care provider" includes but is in no way limited to inpatient hospitals, nursing homes, home health agencies, and ambulatory surgical centers.

B. Any health care provider, including any branches or off-site campus thereof, shall be physically separated from other health care providers by a clearly delineated and cognizable boundary. Any such health care provider shall also be clearly identifiable and distinguishable by appropriate signage from any other health care provider.

C. If more than one health care provider occupies the same building, premises, or physical location, all treatment facilities and administrative offices of one health care provider shall be clearly separated from any treatment facilities or administrative offices of any other health care provider located in and/or on the same building, premises, or physical location by a clearly delineated and cognizable boundary. Treatment facilities shall include but not be limited to consumer beds, wings, and operating rooms.

Administrative offices shall include but not be limited to records rooms and personnel offices.

D. If more than one health care provider occupies the same building, premises, or physical location, each such health care provider shall have its own entrance. This separate entrance shall have appropriate signage and shall be clearly identifiable as belonging to one health care provider. Nothing in this Section shall prohibit a health care provider occupying the same building, premises, or physical location as another health care provider from utilizing the entrance, hallways, stairs, elevators, or escalators of another health care provider to provide access to its separate entrance.

E. Except as provided in Subsection F of this Section, the provisions of this Section shall not apply to any health care provider licensed by the department or having a Medicaid provider agreement, on August 15, 1997, until the occurrence of one of the following:

(1) The termination, revocation, or both of the license applicable to the health care provider for reasons other than as set forth in Subsection H of this Section.

(2) The termination, revocation, or both of the Louisiana Medicaid provider agreement to which the provider is a party, in cases where licensure of the particular provider by the department secretary is not required or provided. This provision shall not apply to situations in which a Louisiana Medicaid provider agreement is terminated solely because of the change of ownership of a health care provider.

(3) A change in location of the health care provider to a new building or premises.

F. The provisions of this Section shall apply to any branch or off-site campus of a health care provider otherwise exempt under the provisions of Subsection E of this Section when such branch or off-site campus is opened after August 15, 1997, except under any one or more of the following circumstances:

(1) A construction contract for the construction of a branch or off-site campus of a health care provider is signed on or before August 15, 1997.

(2) A contract for renovations to a branch or off-site campus of a health care provider is signed on or before August 15, 1997.

(3) A contract to lease a branch or off-site campus of a health care provider is signed on or before August 15, 1997.

G.(1) The provisions of this Section shall not apply to the activities of any physician in the operation of the physician's office practice so long as the physician's office practice is not separately licensed, apart from the license of the physician himself, or operating as a health care provider as defined in this Section.

(2) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to:

(a) Prohibit the location of an adult day health care center in the same building, premises, or physical location as a nursing home.

(b) Prohibit a hospital, as defined in the applicable hospital licensing standards or statutes, from leasing beds to Louisiana State University or the Louisiana Health Care Authority.

(c) Prohibit a health care provider from occupying or sharing premises, facilities, treatment areas, or administrative areas, whether contiguous or not, with another entity, provided the health care provider and the entity are recognized as related parties by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Health Care Financing Administration, or its successors, under Medicare regulations at 42 CFR 413.17. Any adverse action taken by the department against any entity or health care provider occupying or sharing premises, facilities, treatment areas, or administrative areas, whether contiguous or not, with another entity or health care provider may apply to each entity or health care provider if the health care providers or entities are recognized as related parties by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Health Care Financing Administration, or its successors, under Medicare regulations at 42 CFR 413.17.

H. The department may refuse to issue a license or to enter into a

Medicaid provider agreement with, initiate procedures to terminate an existing Medicaid provider agreement of, or initiate procedures to revoke the license of any health care provider as defined in this Section that the licensing agency determines is not in full compliance with the requirements of this Section in accordance with the procedures established by the statutes, laws, rules, and/or regulations applicable to the specific health care provider involved.

I. The provisions and requirements of this Section are in addition to and not to the exclusion of any other statutes, laws, rules, and/or regulations, which also may be applicable to health care providers as defined in this Section, or which may govern the conditions for licensure, the conditions for entering into a Medicaid provider agreement, or the conditions for general operation applicable to the specific types of health care providers as defined herein.

J. The secretary of the department shall have the authority to promulgate rules and regulations, in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, in order to enforce and insure compliance with the requirements of this Section.

brain injuries and are receiving care in an adult brain injury facility. In instances in which a brain injury occurs, the functions of the neurons, nerve tracts, or sections of the brain can be affected. If the neurons and nerve tracts are affected, they can be unable to or have difficulty carrying the messages that tell the brain what to do thereby changing the way a person thinks, acts, feels, and moves their body. Brain injury can also temporarily or permanently change the complex internal functions of the body, such as regulating body temperature, bladder control, or blood pressure. Brain injury often causes major stresses in peer and family relationships as well as educational and employment settings, and may result in mild, moderate, or severe impairments in cognition, physical functioning, and psychosocial behavior. Toward that end, it is the purpose of this Part to provide for uniform statewide minimum standards for the safety and well-being of those suffering from brain injury in such facilities, to ensure the maintenance of these standards, and to regulate conditions in these facilities through a program of licensing.

order to successfully transition adult patients with a primary diagnosis of mental illness from inpatient psychiatric facilities to the most appropriate outpatient setting.

(2) Repeated admissions of persons to inpatient psychiatric units is a significant problem which often results in inadequate care and a failure to stabilize the patient, especially if the patient is homeless or has unstable living arrangements.

(3) Community-based residential programs are a more cost-effective form of treatment and a more appropriate treatment option for persons with mental illness than emergency room visits, unnecessary long-term stays in psychiatric hospitals, and incarceration.

(4) Licensing of community-based residential programs to operate in state-owned residential buildings presents an opportunity for adaptive and innovative use of those buildings and for optimization of state resources.

(5) Persons with a mental illness who are treated in a psychiatric facility and released without a stable transitional plan of care are at high risk for hospitalization, incarceration, and psychiatric readmission.

(6) It is a fiscal and public health priority of this state to establish a licensing component for adult community-based residential facilities which has historically been missing in the continuum of services for adults with a primary diagnosis of mental illness.

B. The purpose of this Part is to authorize the Louisiana Department of Health to promulgate and adopt rules, regulations, and standards to license and regulate facilities to be operated as community-based care facilities in order to provide for the health, safety, and welfare of persons with mental illness.

(2) "Core services" are nursing services, physician services, social work services, counseling services, and support services, including trained volunteers, and bereavement and pastoral care.

(3) "Department" means the Louisiana Department of Health.

(4) "Hospice" means an autonomous, centrally administered, medically directed program providing a continuum of home, outpatient, and homelike inpatient care for the terminally ill patient and his family. It employs an interdisciplinary team to assist in providing palliative and supportive care to meet the special needs arising out of the physical, emotional, spiritual, social, and economic stresses which are experienced during the final stages of illness and during dying and bereavement.

(5) "Interdisciplinary team" includes representatives from all of the core services as evidenced by documentation, planning, and team meetings.

(6) "Palliative care" means the reduction or abatement of pain or other troubling symptoms by appropriate coordination of all services of the hospice care team required to achieve needed relief of distress.

(7) "Terminally ill" refers to a medical prognosis of limited expected survival, of approximately six months or less at the time of referral to a hospice, of an individual who is experiencing an illness for which therapeutic strategies directed toward cure and control of the disease alone are no longer appropriate.

RS 40:2183 — Licensure required; transferability of license; fees; moratorium cation for licensure shall be made by a hospice to the department on forms furnished by the department. Upon determination that the hospice is in compliance with the minimum requirements for licensure as established by the department and with all other applicable state and local laws and regulations, the department shall issue a license for such period as may be provided in the published regulations of the department, but not to exceed two years.

C. Repealed by Acts 1999, No. 657, §2, eff. July 1, 1999.

D. The license shall be displayed in a conspicuous place inside the hospice program office; shall be valid only in the possession of the person or public agency to which it is issued; shall not be subject to sale, assignment, or other transfer, voluntary or involuntary; and shall not be valid for any hospice other than the hospice for which originally issued.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the department shall implement a moratorium on the issuance of licenses for hospices. The department shall not approve for licensure any new hospice until December 31, 2008, in order to allow the department and the hospice industry to examine the uncontrolled growth in providers and Medicaid expenditures that could adversely affect the quality of care available to patients in Louisiana. The moratorium shall apply only to applications for licensure for hospices not postmarked by July 1, 2007. Applications received by the department shall be postmarked no later than 12:00 a.m. on July 1, 2007, to be accepted and reviewed for application for hospice licensure. Any applications postmarked after 12:00 a.m. July 1, 2007, shall be returned to the applicant. All applications shall be accompanied by a licensing fee and applicants shall be ready to be fully operational and prepared for a licensing survey within ninety days of submission of the application. If an applicant is unable to comply with the survey within ninety days of submission of the application, no license shall be issued under the moratorium. A moratorium would allow the department and hospice industry sufficient time to review the current standards, examine the issues, and promulgate new regulations deemed necessary to resolve uncontrolled growth and other issues identified. The provisions of this Subsection shall not apply to state correctional facilities, including Allen Correctional Center and Winn Correctional Center.

RS 40:2406 — Short title

igating this website,

RS 40:2411 — Peace Officer and Public Safety Personnel Peer Support and Mental Health and ersonnel are often exposed to traumatic, hazardous, violent, and life-threatening situations throughout their careers. The very nature of the work they perform can also cause stress in their personal life and familial relationships. These factors cumulatively can take a toll on both the mental and physical well-being of our peace officers and public safety personnel, which in turn can affect their job performance. Peace officers and public safety personnel are no less susceptible than any other citizens of Louisiana to mental health issues, including depression, alcoholism, and drug addiction.

(2) Peer support encompasses a range of activities and interactions between individuals with common life experiences. This mutuality fosters personal connection and inspires hope. Peer support has been used for decades by law enforcement agencies following critical incidents. Congress has recognized the importance of peer support programs for law enforcement officers through the Law Enforcement Mental Health and Wellness Act of 2017. Peer support and early intervention are important for successful detection and treatment of mental health issues, a reduction of poor job performance and misconduct, an increase in retention of trained peace officers, and a reduction of the suicide rate in the law enforcement and public safety professions.

(3) Peace officers and public safety personnel who protect and serve the public are often reluctant to seek help for themselves. It is important that those in positions to offer assistance have a full understanding of the job of peace officers and those personnel who support their mission. In an effort to manage stress and support the overall wellness and mental health of peace officers and public safety personnel, and for the benefit and safety of the general public they serve, peace officers and public safety personnel are hereby encouraged to seek assistance from their peers and to feel confident that their participation in a peer support program shall be privileged and confidential in all respects and shall not be divulged to the public.

(4) It is hereby declared to be the public policy of the state of Louisiana to promote and encourage the use of trained peers for support among peace officers and public safety personnel. The intent of this Section is to further this goal by providing for a privilege, confidentiality of information, and tort immunity for governmental entities, their agents, employees, and persons who, on their behalf, furnish information and participate as volunteers in peer support programs for peace officers and public safety personnel.

B. Except for participation in a peer support session following a critical incident as may be required by a governmental entity, no peace officer or public safety personnel shall be mandated to participate in a peer support session or program.

(3) No person, including a peer support member, shall be required to disclose, by way of testimony or otherwise, information made privileged and confidential by this Subsection or to produce, under subpoena or a public records request, any records, documents, opinions, or decisions relating to privileged or confidential information:

(b) By way of any discovery procedure.

(c) By way of any request for public records pursuant to R.S. 44:1 et seq.

(4) The privilege and confidentiality provided by this Subsection are supplementary to any other statute, rule, or jurisprudence creating or relating to an applicable privilege, confidentiality, or public records exemption.

(5)(a) Any peer support member or other person who reveals the contents of a communication made privileged or confidential by this Subsection, or any person who threatens, intimidates, or attempts to compel a peer support member to disclose the contents of a privileged or confidential communication, shall be subject to any discipline or penalties imposed by the governmental entity.

(b) In addition to the discipline or penalties provided by Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph, whoever violates the provisions of this Subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.

(6) The privilege and confidentiality provided by this Subsection shall not apply to any of the following:

RS 40:2471 — Statement of purpose

ivery system as an alternative approach to traditional institutional placement. Furthermore, extensive legislative study has revealed that home care is increasingly being recognized as the preferred method in the delivery of service to persons who are chronically ill and persons with disabilities because it: (1) allows such persons to receive needed treatment and care at home while enabling them to continue to maintain the family and community ties which are so important; and (2) provides less costly long term care services that are by far more satisfying and effective than institutional placement.

B. Federal developments under Public Law 97-35, "The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981," have given states more latitude and authority to cover a broad range of in-home and community support services under Medicaid. The legislature recognizes the need for deinstitutionalization of persons who are chronically ill and persons with disabilities, and intends that the state should not only participate in such programs but also establish a broad range of coordinated noninstitutional care. Therefore, it is the purpose of this Chapter to provide for a comprehensive and fully coordinated approach to long term home health care. The legislature further recognizes that persons other than those eligible for Medicaid are also in need of a broad array of health and social services. The legislature therefore states its intent to expand the long term home health care program in terms of eligibility requirements and the range of services provided for recipients. For this purpose, the Oversight Subcommittee of the Joint Committee on Health and Welfare shall periodically review the program.

RS 40:2472 — Definitions

shall mean a licensed hospital as defined by and regulated under R.S. 40:2100-40:2113.5.

RS 40:2476 — Payment for long term home health care for the services to be provided in the plan of care. Providers of home health care shall be paid in accordance with the usual procedures of the Medical Assistance Program. However, the monthly cost of providing home health care to each person participating in the program shall be less than one hundred percent of the total monthly Medicaid rate that normally would be paid to a nursing home for a comparable level of care for such person in a nursing home. If an assessment of the person's needs demonstrates that he requires care that would exceed such monthly maximum in any one month, the secretary or his designee may authorize payment of such services, provided the total annual expenditures for services rendered shall be less than the one hundred percent maximum.

RS 40:2477 — Request for waiver to provide in-home and community services

(2) That the costs associated with storage of the property is disproportionate to the value of that property.

B. Prior to such sale, the property seized shall be published in the official journal of the governing authority of the parish where the property is located and, if ordered by the seizing agency, in a newspaper which meets the requirements of R.S. 43:140(3) for qualification as an official journal and which has a larger or smaller circulation in the parish than the official journal. Pursuant to court order, the proceeds shall be held subject to claims of parties in interest to the same extent that the vessel, vehicle, aircraft, merchandise, or other property so sold would have been subject to such claim.

(1) For purposes of this Section, one hundred percent of the proceeds of the sale, minus any documented auction fees, will be remitted to the seizing agency or district attorney depending on which is designated to carry out the order of the court; the funds shall be deposited in accordance with R.S. 40:2616(B).

RS 40:2609 — Stipulation of exemptions the district attorney shall so indicate in the Notice of Pending Forfeiture as provided in Section 2608 of this Chapter.

The claim or request shall comply with the requirements for claims in Section 2610 of this Chapter.

B. The following shall apply if an owner or interest holder timely requests a stipulation of exemption:

(1) The district attorney shall provide the seizing agency and the requesting party with a written proposed stipulation of exemption and statement of nonexempt interests relating to any or all interest in the property in response to each requesting party within one hundred and twenty days after the effective date of the Notice of Pending Forfeiture.

A motion requesting an extension shall be filed within sixty days after receipt of the Notice of Pending Forfeiture.

B. The claim shall be in affidavit form, signed by the claimant under oath, and sworn to by the affiant before one who has authority to administer the oath, under penalty of perjury or false swearing and shall set forth all of the following:

C. If property is seized for forfeiture or a forfeiture lien is filed without a previous judicial determination of probable cause or order of forfeiture or a hearing under the provisions of Section 2613 of this Chapter, the court, on an application filed by an owner of or interest holder in the property, within ten days after notice of its seizure for forfeiture or lien, or actual knowledge of it, whichever is earlier, and after complying with the requirements for claims in Section 2610 of this Chapter, after five days notice to the district attorney, may issue an order to show cause to the seizing agency, for a hearing on the sole issue of whether probable cause for forfeiture of the property then exists. The hearing shall be held within thirty days of the order to show cause unless continued for good cause on motion of either party. If the court finds that there is no probable cause for forfeiture of the property, the property shall be released to the custody of the applicant or from the lien pending the outcome of a judicial proceeding pursuant to this Section.

D. The court may order property which has been seized for forfeiture sold to satisfy a specified interest of any interest holder, on motion of such party, and after notice and a hearing, on all of the following conditions:

(1) That the interest holder has filed a proper claim and is a business authorized to do business in this state under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of financial institutions, the Department of Insurance, or the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, or that the interest holder is such a business which or a person who has an interest which the district attorney has stipulated is exempt from forfeiture.

(2) That the interest holder shall dispose of the property by commercially reasonable public sale and apply the proceeds to their interest and then to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the sale or disposal.

(3) That the balance of the proceeds, if any, be returned to the actual or constructive custody of the court, in an interest bearing account, subject to further proceedings under this Chapter.

E. A defendant convicted in any criminal proceeding is precluded from later denying the essential allegations of the criminal offense of which the defendant was convicted in any proceeding pursuant to this Section regardless of the pendency of an appeal from that conviction. However, evidence of the pendency of an appeal is admissible. For the purposes of this Section, a conviction results from a verdict or plea of guilty, including a plea of nolo contendere.

F. In hearings and determinations pursuant to this Section, the court may receive and consider, in making any determination of probable cause or reasonable cause, all evidence admissible in determining probable cause at a preliminary hearing or by a judge pursuant to C.Cr.P. Art. 162 together with inferences therefrom.

G. The fact that money or a negotiable instrument was found in proximity to contraband or an instrumentality of conduct giving rise to forfeiture shall give rise to the permissible inference that the money or negotiable instrument was the proceeds of conduct giving rise to forfeiture or was used or intended to be used to facilitate the conduct.

H. There shall also be a rebuttable presumption that any property of a person is subject to forfeiture under this Section if the state establishes all of the following:

(1) That the person has engaged in conduct giving rise to forfeiture.

(2) That the property was acquired by the person during the period of the conduct giving rise to forfeiture or within a reasonable time after that period.

(3) That there was no likely source for the property other than the conduct giving rise to forfeiture.

I. All property declared forfeited under this Chapter vests in this state on the commission of the conduct giving rise to forfeiture together with the proceeds of the property after that time. Any such property or proceeds subsequently transferred to any person remain subject to forfeiture and thereafter shall be ordered forfeited unless the transferee claims and establishes in a hearing under the provisions of this Chapter that the transferee is a bona fide purchaser for value and the transferee's interest is exempt under Section 2605 of this Chapter.

J. An acquittal or dismissal in a criminal proceeding shall not preclude civil proceedings under this Chapter; however, for good cause shown, on motion by the district attorney, the court may stay civil forfeiture proceedings during the criminal trial for a related criminal indictment or information alleging a violation of this Chapter. Such a stay shall not be available pending an appeal.

K. Except as otherwise provided by this Chapter, all proceedings hereunder shall be governed by the provisions of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure. Additionally, any action under the provisions of this Chapter may be consolidated with any other action or proceeding pursuant to the Chapter relating to the same property on motion of the district attorney and may be consolidated on motion of an interest holder.

L. If a claimant whose property has been seized for forfeiture is successful in obtaining the return of the property in a civil proceeding, the court may award the claimant reasonable attorney fees, to be paid by the seizing agency, and the claimant shall also be exempt from any storage fees, or other costs incurred in the seizure, preservation, storage, or return of such seized property. Any searched or seized vehicle that is subsequently returned to a claimant, with or without court mandate, shall be returned in substantially the same condition as when searched or seized, together with any interest earned on monies or other negotiable instruments deposited, held, or invested.

RS 40:2612 — In rem proceedings

sions of this Chapter. If authorized by law, a forfeiture shall be ordered by the court in the in rem action.

B. An action in rem may be brought by the district attorney in addition to, or in lieu of, civil in personam forfeiture procedures. The state may serve the petition in the manner provided by Paragraph (3) of Section 2608 of this Chapter.

C. Only an owner of or an interest holder in the property may file an answer asserting a claim against the property in an action in rem. For the purposes of this Section, an owner of or interest holder in property who has filed a claim and answer shall be referred to as a claimant.

D. The answer shall be signed by the owner or interest holder under penalty of false swearing and shall be in accordance with C.C.P. Art. 1003 and shall set forth all of the following:

- (1) The caption of the proceedings as set forth on the Notice of Pending Forfeiture or petition and the name of the claimant.
- (2) The address where the claimant will accept mail.
- (3) The nature and extent of the claimant's interest in the property.
- (4) The date, identity of the transferor, and the circumstances of the claimant's acquisition of the interest in the property.
- (5) The specific provision of this Section relied on in asserting that it is not subject to forfeiture.
- (6) All essential facts supporting each assertion.
- (7) The precise relief sought.

E. The answer shall be filed within fifteen days after service of the civil in rem petition. No claimant shall be required to pay court costs to contest a forfeiture proceeding, except in a final judgment.

F. The state and any claimant who has timely answered the petition may, at the time of filing its pleadings, or at any other time not less than thirty days prior to the hearing, serve discovery requests on any other party, the answers or response to which shall be due within fifteen days of service. Discovery may include deposition of any person at any time after the expiration of fifteen days after the filing and service of the petition. Any party may move for a summary judgment at any time after an answer or responsive pleading is served and not less than thirty days prior to the hearing.

G. The issue shall be determined by the court alone, and the hearing on the claim shall be held within sixty days after service of the petition unless continued for good cause. In a forfeiture case wherein no claim is timely filed pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter, the burden of proof to forfeit shall be probable cause. In a forfeiture case, wherein a claim is timely filed pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter, the burden of proof required to forfeit the defendant's property shall be a preponderance of the evidence.

H. If the district attorney fails to show the existence of probable cause for forfeiture, or a claimant establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the claimant has an interest that is exempt under the provisions of Section 2605 of this Chapter, the court shall order the interest in the property returned or conveyed to the claimant. The court shall order all other property forfeited to this state and conduct further proceedings pursuant to the provisions of Section 2615 and 2616 of this Chapter.

RS 40:2613 — In personam proceedings se to forfeiture if it is authorized by law. This action shall be in addition to or in lieu of in rem forfeiture procedures.

(2) In any proceeding pursuant to this Chapter, the court, on application of the district attorney, may enter any order authorized by Section 2611 of this Chapter.

B. The court may issue a temporary restraining order under the provisions of this Section on application of the district attorney, without notice or an opportunity for a hearing, if the state demonstrates that:

- (1) There is probable cause to believe that in the event of a final judgment or conviction, the property involved would be subject to forfeiture under the provisions of this Chapter.
- (2) Provision of notice would jeopardize the availability of the property for forfeiture.

C. Notice of issuance of a temporary restraining order and an opportunity for a hearing shall be given to persons known to have an interest in the property. A hearing shall be held at the earliest possible date in accordance with the provisions of C.C.P. Arts. 3601 and 3603 et seq. and shall be limited to the issues of whether:

(1) There is a probability that the state will prevail on the issue of forfeiture and that failure to enter the order will result in the property being destroyed, conveyed, alienated, encumbered, further encumbered, disposed of, purchased, received, removed from the jurisdiction of the court, concealed, or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture.

(2) The need to preserve the availability of property through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship on any owner or interest holder against whom the order is to be entered.

D. On a determination of liability of a person for conduct giving rise to forfeiture under this Chapter, the court shall enter a judgment of forfeiture of the property described in the petition and shall also authorize the district attorney or his designee to seize all property ordered forfeited which was not previously seized or is not then under seizure. Following the entry of an order declaring the property forfeited, the court, on application of the district attorney, may enter any appropriate order to protect the interest of the state in the property ordered forfeited.

E. Following the entry of an order of forfeiture under Subsection D of this Section, the district attorney may give Notice of Pending Forfeiture, in the manner provided in Section 2608 of this Chapter, to all owners and interest holders who have not previously been given notice.

F. An owner of or interest holder in property that has been ordered forfeited and whose claim is not precluded may file a claim as described in Section 2610 of this Chapter within thirty days after initial Notice of Pending Forfeiture or after notice under Subsection E of this Section, whichever is earlier. If the state does not stipulate to the claim, the court shall hold the hearing and determine the claim without a jury and in the manner provided for in rem judicial forfeiture actions, as provided in Section 2612 of this Chapter.

G. In accordance with findings made at the hearing, the court may amend the order of forfeiture if it determines that any claimant has established by a preponderance of the evidence that the claimant has an interest in the property and that the claimant's interest is exempt under the provision of Section 2605 of this Chapter.

H. Except as provided in Section 2611 of this Chapter, no person claiming an interest in property subject to forfeiture under this Chapter may intervene in a trial or appeal of a criminal action or in an in personam civil action involving the forfeiture of the property.

(5) Has been commingled with other property making it incapable of partition in-kind without great detriment to the other property.

(6) Is subject to any interest exempted from forfeiture under the provisions of this Chapter.

B. In addition to any other remedy provided for by law, if a forfeiture lien or Notice of Pending Forfeiture has been filed and notice given pursuant to Section 2608 of this Chapter, or if a petition alleging conduct giving rise to forfeiture has been filed and notice given pursuant to such Section, the district attorney may institute an action in district court against any person with notice or actual knowledge who destroys, conveys, alienates, encumbers, further encumbers, disposes of, purchases, receives, removes from the jurisdiction of the court, conceals, or otherwise renders unavailable for forfeiture property alleged to be subject to forfeiture in the forfeiture lien, Notice of Pending Forfeiture, or petition. In such case, the court shall enter final judgment in an amount equal to the value of the lien not to exceed the fair market value of the property, or, if the property is subject to forfeiture, in an amount equal to the fair market value of the property, together with reasonable investigative expenses and attorney's fees. If a civil proceeding is pending in court, the action shall be heard by that court.

RS 40:2615 — Judicial disposition of property

ction 2616 of this Chapter. Upon a determination by the court that the district attorney's written application establishes the court's jurisdiction, the giving of proper notice, and facts sufficient to show probable cause for forfeiture, the court shall order the property forfeited to the state.

B. After final disposition of all claims timely filed in an action in rem, or after final judgment and disposition of all claims timely filed in an action in personam, the court shall enter an order that the state has clear title to the forfeited property interest. Title to the forfeited property interest and its proceeds shall be deemed to have vested in the state on the commission of the conduct giving rise to the forfeiture under this Chapter.

C. On order of the court forfeiting the subject property, the state may transfer good and sufficient title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee, and the title shall be recognized by all courts, by this state, and by all agencies of this state and any political subdivision. Likewise on entry of judgment in favor of a person claiming an interest in the property that is subject to proceedings to forfeit property under this Chapter, the court shall enter an order that the property or interest in property shall be released or delivered promptly to that person free of liens and encumbrances under this Chapter and that the person's cost bond shall be discharged.

D. Upon motion by the district attorney, if it appears after a hearing that there was reasonable cause for the seizure for forfeiture or for the filing of the Notice of Pending Forfeiture or petition, the court shall cause a finding to be entered that reasonable cause existed, and the claimant is not entitled to costs or damages, and the person or seizing agency who made the seizure, and the district attorney, are not liable to suit or judgment on account of the seizure, suit or prosecution.

E. The court shall order a claimant who fails to establish that a substantial portion of the claimant's interest is exempt from forfeiture under Section 2604 of this Chapter to pay the reasonable costs and expenses of the state for the investigation and prosecution of the matter, including reasonable attorney's fees, in connection with that claimant.

RS 40:2616 — Allocation of forfeited property; creation of special funds; reporting

All other property forfeited under the provisions of this Chapter shall be sold as provided in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection.

B. A Special Asset Forfeiture Fund is hereby established within the Special District Attorney Asset Forfeiture Trust Fund. The court shall ensure the equitable distribution of any forfeited property, or of monies under and subject to the provisions of this Subsection, to the appropriate local, state, or federal law enforcement agency so as to reflect generally the contribution of that agency's participation in any of the activity that led to the seizure or forfeiture of the property or deposit of monies under and subject to the provisions of this Subsection. The office of the district attorney shall administer expenditures from the fund. The fund is subject to public audit. Money in the fund shall be distributed in the following order of priority:

- (1) For satisfaction of any bona fide security interest or lien.

(c) The provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply to employers, unions, associations, or other persons who employ, own, operate, control, or contract directly with a pharmacy or pharmacist for the purpose of managing or controlling prescription costs paid for the benefit of an employee or member or those covered by the employee or member's plan, or when the persons contract with a pharmacy benefit manager to steer employees or members to pharmacists or pharmacies which the person owns, operates, or controls.

(19) Engage in drug repackaging and markups. A pharmacy benefit manager that owns or controls a mail-order pharmacy shall not allow the mail-order pharmacy to repackage drugs and sell the repackaged items at higher prices than the original average wholesale price unless beneficiaries who may buy the repackaged drugs are informed in writing that the drugs have been repackaged and are being sold at the higher price.

trust by the respective states for the benefit of all of their residents and visitors.

(2) The protection of the wildlife resources of a state is materially affected by the degree of compliance with its statutes, laws, ordinances, and administrative rules relating to the management of those resources.

(3) The preservation, protection, management, and restoration of wildlife contribute immeasurably to the aesthetic, recreational, and economic aspects of the natural resources of a state.

(4) Wildlife resources are valuable without regard to political boundaries; therefore, a person should be required to comply with wildlife preservation, protection, management, and restoration laws, ordinances, and administrative rules of a participating state as a condition precedent to the continuance or issuance of a license to hunt, fish, trap, or possess wildlife.

(5) Violation of wildlife laws interferes with the management of wildlife resources and may endanger the safety of persons and property.

(6) The mobility of many wildlife violators necessitates the maintenance of channels of communication among the various states.

(7) Usually, one of the following enforcement practices is used on a person who is cited for a wildlife violation in a state other than his home state:

- (a) Is required to post collateral or bond to secure appearance for a trial at a later date.
- (b) Is taken directly into custody until collateral or bond is posted.
- (c) Is taken directly to court for an immediate appearance.

(8) The purpose of the enforcement practices set forth in Paragraph (7) of this Subsection is to ensure compliance with the terms of a wildlife citation by the cited person who, if permitted to continue on his way after receiving the citation, could return to his home state and disregard his duty under the terms of the citation.

(9) In most instances, a person receiving a wildlife citation in his home state is permitted to accept the citation from the wildlife officer at the scene of the violation and immediately continue on his way after agreeing or being instructed to comply with the terms of the citation.

(10) The enforcement practices described in Paragraph (7) of this Subsection cause unnecessary inconvenience and, at times, hardship for a person who is unable to post collateral, furnish a bond, stand trial, or pay a fine at that time and is therefore compelled to remain in custody until some alternative arrangement is made.

(11) The enforcement practices described in Paragraph (7) of this Subsection consume an undue amount of enforcement time.

B. It is the policy of the participating states to:

- (1) Promote compliance with the statutes, laws, ordinances, and administrative rules relating to the management of wildlife resources in the respective states.
- (2) Recognize the suspension of wildlife license privileges of a person whose license privileges have been suspended by another participating state and treat the suspension as if it had occurred in the home state.
- (3) Allow a person, except as provided in R.S. 56:69.23, to accept a citation and, without delay, proceed on his way, whether or not the person is a resident of the state in which the citation was issued, provided that the person's home state is a participating state in the Wildlife Violator Compact.
- (4) Report to the appropriate participating state, as provided in the compact manual, a conviction recorded against a person whose home state was not the issuing state.
- (5) Allow a home state to recognize and treat convictions recorded against its residents, which convictions occurred in another participating state, as though they had occurred in the home state.
- (6) Cooperate to the fullest extent with other participating states in enforcing compliance with the terms of citations issued by one participating state to residents of another participating state.
- (7) Maximize effective use of law enforcement personnel and information.
- (8) Assist court systems in the efficient disposition of wildlife violations.

(1) Hardshell crabs -- 5 inches in width as measured from point to point of the upper shell, except when held for processing as soft crabs or sold to a processor for the making of crabs. Violation of this provision constitutes a class 3 violation.

(2) Premolt crabs less than five inches in width held by a fisherman for processing as softshell crabs or sold by him to a processor for the making of softshell crabs must be identifiable as premolt crabs and must be held in a separate container marked "peelers" or "busters" while in the possession of the fisherman. Obvious signs that such crabs are in the premolt stage shall include the fact that they are no further from molting than having a white line on the back paddle fin, which is recognized by the crab industry as a premolt stage.

- (b) The channel catfish, locally called the white catfish, the eel catfish, or the willow catfish -- eleven inches minimum length with the mouth closed or eight inches with the collarbone off; however, the commission is authorized to suspend or reduce by resolution, the legal size limit on channel catfish in those areas of the state where biological data indicates that such a suspension or reduction in the size limit would not be detrimental to the resource.
- (c) There is no size limit on any species of bullhead or small species of catfish, locally called pollywog or tadpole cat.
- (8) Paddlefish (spoonbill cat)--weighing not less than 15 pounds in the rough.

- (c) Live stone crabs may be held on board a vessel while on the water until such time as the claws are removed after which time the crabs shall be returned to the waters from which they were taken.
- B.(1) However, as to all commercial fish five percent of the total number of each species in possession may be smaller than the legal limit.
- (2) To determine whether the total number of crabs in possession violates this Subsection, the enforcement agent shall take a random sample of fifty crabs from each crate or group of crabs equivalent to one crate. Notwithstanding (B)(1), if more than ten percent of the crabs in that fifty crab random sample are less than the minimum size limit set by law, the entire number of crabs in that crate or group of crabs equivalent to one crate shall be considered to be in violation.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection B(1) of this Section, ten percent of the total number of channel catfish (Ictalurus punctatus), locally called the white cat, the eel cat, or the willow cat, in possession may be smaller than the legal limit.

Swordfish and sharks possessed by a commercial fisherman shall not be skinned until set or put on shore or when sold. No shark fin shall be possessed aboard a vessel unless naturally attached to the original shark carcass. A shark may have the head removed so long as the carcass length without the head exceeds the legal minimum size requirement, but the shark shall have all fins intact and naturally attached, including the caudal fin. All garfish caught or possessed by a commercial fisherman in the saltwater areas of the state may have the head and caudal fin removed, but shall retain a strip of skin sufficient to clearly identify the fish until set or put on shore or when sold. All saltwater finfish shall be measured in accordance with applicable law.

(b) For the purpose of consumption at sea aboard the harvesting vessel, a person may have no more than two pounds of finfish parts per person on board the vessel, provided the vessel is equipped to cook such finfish.

(c) The provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply to bait species.

(2) The commercial taking or sale by a commercial fisherman of shark is prohibited except by special permit issued by the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries at a cost of twenty-five dollars. fisheries agents at the time of discovery the identity of the commercial fisherman who harvested the undersized crabs and subsequently sold such crabs to the wholesale or retail dealer, the dealer shall not be subject to the penalties. The department may check unboiled crabs for violations of the undersized crab provisions of this Section.

(b) It shall be an affirmative defense for a wholesale or retail dealer charged with possessing undersized crabs, after the crabs leave the dock or while some or all of the crabs are in transport after leaving the dock, that the invoice or other written documentation possessed by the dealer reflect that the total number of undersized crabs possessed by the dealer did not exceed ten percent of the total number of crabs bought for processing and shipping.

(2) Commercial fishermen shall tag, mark, or otherwise identify any crabs that are sold, in a manner which will insure that such commercial fisherman can be identified as the person who harvested the crabs. The identification required herein shall include the commercial fisherman's name, license number, and date on which the crabs were harvested.

(3) Any commercial fisherman identified as having sold undersized crabs to a wholesale or retail dealer pursuant to this Section shall be subject to the penalties provided in R.S. 56:33.

(ii) Upon conviction for violating the provisions of Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph for a second time within a five year period, the defendant's crab trap gear license shall be voided and the defendant shall be prohibited from applying for a new license for a period of twelve months from the date of conviction.

(iii) Upon conviction for violating the provisions of Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph for a third time within a five year period, the defendant's crab trap gear license shall be voided and the defendant shall be permanently prohibited from applying for a new crab trap gear license.

(c) The penalties provided in Subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph are mandatory and shall be imposed without benefit of suspension. Any crab trap gear license that is voided under the provisions of this Paragraph shall be turned over to the court and forfeited to the department.

(d) No person convicted of violating the provisions of Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph shall obtain a crab trap gear license or engage in any activity requiring a crab trap gear license during the period in which he is prohibited from applying for a new license under Items (b)(i) and (ii) of this Paragraph. A violation of this Subparagraph shall constitute a class six violation and in addition to any other penalties imposed by law, a person convicted of violating this Subparagraph shall be forever barred from applying for a crab trap gear license.

G. Violation of any provision of this Section for which no penalty has been specifically provided constitutes a class 2-B violation.

Further, the legislature finds that it is in the best interest of the state that the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission be authorized to set seasons and quotas for fishing in such a manner as to maximize the availability of popular fish for serving in Louisiana restaurants.

B. Except as otherwise provided by law, the commission, when setting seasons and quotas for taking fish, shall determine which fish are considered to be popular fish for serving in Louisiana restaurants and may split, stagger, or otherwise arrange their seasons and quotas in such a manner that some of the popular fish would be harvested and available to Louisiana restaurants throughout the entire year. The provisions of this Subsection shall not apply to the harvesting of spotted sea trout.

C. The commission shall provide a forum for interested parties to provide input to determine which fish are popular fish to serve in Louisiana restaurants.

RS 56:326.5 — Bowfin; size limitations; eggs

Except those game fish being imported under a domesticated aquatic organisms license, prior to each shipment into this state of any game fish for consumption, the buyer or handler of such shipment shall notify the secretary or his designated agent of its pending arrival and shall possess a bill of lading. The bill of lading shall state the species of fish contained in each shipment, the number of fish or parts thereof, the origin of the shipment, the destination of the shipment, the consignee and consignor, and where applicable, the grower's name and fish farmer's license number. Wholesalers, their agents, and commercial transporters delivering the shipment or portions thereof to retail dealers shall provide each dealer with a copy of their bill of lading and shall indicate thereon the date of delivery to the retailer, the species of fish delivered, and the number of fish or parts thereof delivered. Both wholesale and retail dealers shall maintain a file of such bills of lading which shall be open to inspection by the secretary, his agents, or any enforcement agents. When fishing for the purpose of retaining and removing invasive species of fish and other nongame freshwater fish of commercial value, nets are restricted to a mesh size no smaller than three and one-half inches bar. Wings and leads are permitted on hoop nets in overflowed regions where the water is out of the actual bed of the natural stream or lake but not within the restricted five-hundred-foot area.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph (1) of this Subsection, hoop nets set in Little River in Grant Parish and LaSalle Parish may be set closer than five hundred feet to the mouth of any inlet or pass or water control structure, dam, or weir.

of wings or leads shall be within one hundred feet of each other and no single lead shall exceed twenty-five feet in length.

D. "Free passageway for fish" means a minimum passageway opening of five feet in width extending from the surface to the bottom of the water in the deepest portion of the water. however, the taking of crabs by means of trawls in inside waters is permitted only during the open season for shrimp. In no event, however, shall a person use a trawl with a mesh size less than that of commercial shrimp trawls for the purpose of taking crabs during the open season for shrimp.

B.(1) No person shall keep or sell immature female crabs or adult female crabs in berry stage, that is, when the adult females are carrying the eggs or young attached to the abdomen. All immature female crabs and crabs in berry stage taken by any means shall be returned immediately to the waters, unless the immature female crabs are in the premolt stage and are being held for processing as soft shell crabs or being sold to a processor for the producing of soft shell crabs. However, a legally licensed commercial crab fisherman may have an incidental take of immature female crabs in an amount not to exceed five percent or crabs in berry stage in an amount equal to not more than two percent of the total number of crabs in his possession.

(2) To determine whether the total number of crabs in possession violates this Subsection, the enforcement agent shall take a random sample of fifty crabs from each crate or group of crabs equivalent to one crate. of this Subsection, the department shall suspend or revoke the violator's crab trap gear license for a period of one year from the date of the conviction and no new crab trap gear license shall be issued to the violator during the period of suspension or revocation. During the period in which the violator's license is suspended or revoked, the violator may be present on a vessel commercially harvesting or processing crabs only if that vessel is equipped with and is actively using a vessel monitoring system accessible to the department as prescribed in R.S. 56:424.1(B). In addition, the violator shall be sentenced to perform no less than forty hours of community service. If available, the hours shall be served removing abandoned crab traps as a part of the derelict crab trap removal program or in a litter abatement community service program.

During the period in which the violator's license is suspended or revoked, the violator shall not be present on a vessel commercially harvesting or processing crabs. In addition, the violator shall be sentenced to perform no less than one hundred twenty hours of community service. If available, the hours shall be served removing abandoned crab traps as a part of the derelict crab trap removal program or in a litter abatement community service program.

It shall be the responsibility of the crab fisherman to place his crab traps so vessels can safely navigate and also to dispose of his unserviceable crab traps. Violation of any provision of this Subsection shall be a class two violation. A shrimper who catches an unserviceable crab trap shall keep it on board his vessel and properly dispose of it at a designated disposal site if one is available. Except as provided in Subsection N of this Section, a shrimper who catches an otherwise serviceable trap without a float shall return it to the water with a common float. Any fisherman with a crab fishing license may raise and check any trap with a common float to determine ownership. The owner of the trap shall return the common float to any shrimper for reuse. RS 56:411 — Legislative findings and purpose lity of Louisiana's economy.

Additionally, as stated in R.S. 56:360.2 and 360.3, the legislature also recognizes that the introduction of nonnative aquatic organisms for the purpose of aquaculture may pose a real threat to Louisiana's native species and their environments. The purpose of this Subpart is to grant the department the authority to maintain a list of approved domesticated aquatic organisms for aquaculture and the regulatory framework for the orderly development of an aquaculture industry in the state of Louisiana, including the manner of possession, propagation, culture, management, transport, or marketing of domestic aquatic organisms and the methods for consideration of approval of new species for aquaculture. The list of approved domesticated aquatic organisms and the methods for consideration of approval of a new species for aquaculture shall be promulgated under the Administrative Procedure Act.

B. For the purposes of this Subpart the following definitions shall apply:

- (1) "Aquaculture" means any activity associated with the production of fish in privately owned waters or ponds as defined in R.S. 56:8(103) and (104).
- (2) "Aquatic livestock" means native, freshwater fish but does not include any freshwater game fish as defined in R.S. 56:8, any fish which is a threatened or endangered species as defined in R.S. 56:1902, or any saltwater species of fish.
- (3) "Culture" means any activity associated with the rearing, nurturing, or growing of a domesticated aquatic organism.
- (4) "Domesticated aquatic organism" shall specifically include all domesticated fish as defined in R.S. 56:8, and any aquaculturally raised fish, except aquatic livestock.
- (5) "Mariculture" means the rearing, nurturing, or growing of saltwater fish in cages, pens, or any other containment device in or on state territorial waters including those waters over private-owned water bottoms.
- (6) "Species specific permits" are special domesticated aquatic organism permits that are required for any species which have restricted methods of aquaculture.

RS 56:412 — Issuance and renewal of domesticated aquatic organism license g a domesticated aquatic organism license.

(2) A domesticated aquatic organism license shall be valid for one year, beginning January first of each calendar year and expiring December thirty-first of the same calendar year. The license may be purchased at any time of the year for the current license year and after November fourteenth for the immediately following license year. The cost of a domesticated aquatic organism license is twenty-five dollars for residents and five hundred dollars for nonresidents. A renewal notice shall be mailed to each licensee by the department prior to the license expiration dates explaining the renewal procedures. In addition to the general domestic aquatic organism license, the department may issue the following permits for particular aquaculture activity:

- (a) Any required species specific culture permit shall cost one hundred dollars and all other species specific permits shall cost fifty dollars.
- (b) Mariculture permits shall cost five hundred dollars annually. Mariculture permits shall be issued for the life of the project and shall be revoked upon failure to maintain the conditions of the permit, or upon lapse of the annual fee.
- (3) The domesticated aquatic organism license shall authorize the bearer to transport domesticated aquatic organisms over the highways of this state. The licensee is responsible for all activities that take place under the authority of that license.
- (4) Persons engaged in the business of aquaculture under this Subpart are excepted from the provisions of R.S. 56:306, and the notification provisions of R.S. 56:327(A)(2), and shall, by virtue of their license, be entitled to sell domesticated aquatic organisms in any size, quantity, or limit without restriction within the state or outside of the state. Creel limits shall not apply to shipments or transport of domesticated aquatic organisms under the provisions of this Subpart.

(5) No person engaged in the business of aquaculture nor any other person may use public bodies of water to propagate, raise, feed, or grow any species of fish with the exception of shellfish native or endemic to Louisiana or the Northern Gulf of Mexico. The use of cages, pens, and fenced-off portions of such water bodies for propagating, raising, or growing any species of fish is prohibited without a valid Mariculture or Alternative Oyster Culture permit issued by the department.

(6) Species of rock bass, white bass, yellow bass, crappie, and bream fingerlings not exceeding a maximum total length of six inches and spotted bass, striped bass, and largemouth bass of any size may be brought into the state by and from legal and certified out-of-state commercial fish hatcheries for sale to persons for stocking ponds and approved public waters located in Louisiana and may be sold by permitted residents in accordance with the provisions of this Subsection. Creel limits shall not apply to shipments of such game fish fingerlings.

(7) The department shall have the authority to cancel sales or to confiscate and destroy shipments of fish fingerlings that are determined by department personnel to have fish diseases or parasites that would endanger native fish populations.

(8) The department may issue permits to residents to authorize the raising of all types of bass, crappie, and bream in the state as specified in this Subpart for the purpose of selling to consumers in this state for stocking of private ponds and lakes and approved public waters and for the purpose of selling to consumers in other states. The manner of raising, harvesting, and selling these game fish shall be governed by administrative rules and regulations promulgated by the commission.

(9) With the exception of game fish, the provisions of this Section shall not apply to research or other projects being conducted by the Louisiana State University Agricultural Center or by other schools or programs specifically authorized by the Board of Regents with the concurrence of the department, including but not limited to the sale or distribution of the research by-products, such as eggs, fingerlings, and fish, and other products grown under aquacultural conditions.

 - (i) For any activity, pipeline, well, platform, shell pad, or facility, including the removal of any pipeline, well, platform, shell pad, or facility, to which Subparagraph (2)(a) of this Subsection applies, if an access channel across each oyster lease is identified in the coastal use authorization or permit, it shall be the sole access channel for purposes of this Subparagraph. If more than one access channel across each oyster lease is identified, the holder of the authorization or permit shall designate a single access channel to the department in writing identifying the centerline of the access channel using the North American Datum 1983 state plane coordinates; and when the holder does so and the department consents to the designated access channel in writing, it shall be the sole access channel for purposes of this Item.

(2) No person, except a Louisiana resident sixteen years of age or under, and except the spouse of a vessel's owner while on that vessel, shall harvest oysters unless he possesses a valid oyster harvesting license.

B. An oyster lessee may work on his private oyster lease, or he may designate an agent to harvest oysters on his lease with written permission, which shall be carried on the boat and subject to inspection. Such written permission shall specify a starting date and a termination date during which period the written permission will be valid.

C. Recreational oyster fishermen may harvest oysters in leased areas with the written permission from the lease holder, in personal leased areas, and in areas open to the public for the harvesting of oysters, but shall be limited to two sacks per person per day.

D. Except as otherwise provided herein, violation of any of the provisions of this Section constitutes a class four violation. Any person, common carrier, or any agent or officer thereof, who violates any of the provisions of this Section shall at the time of arrest surrender all permits or licenses held by the vessel. The captain, person, agent, officer, crew, or members thereof by whom or under whose direction the vessel was used in the illegal taking of oysters may be charged with a violation and may be ordered to pay all costs of prosecution.

E.(1) No person shall harvest, possess, sell, barter, trade, purchase, or exchange or attempt to sell, barter, trade, or exchange oysters in the state of Louisiana or in interstate commerce unless such oysters are taken from areas approved by the state health officer in accordance with R.S. 40:5.3. Unless otherwise permitted by the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, when any vessel is found to be harvesting within an unapproved or closed area, all oysters on board the vessel shall be deemed to have been taken from unapproved or closed waters and shall be deemed to constitute a hazard to the safety, health, and welfare of the citizens of the state. In addition, no oysters taken from sources outside of Louisiana shall be sold in Louisiana, unless taken from areas approved by the state authorities having jurisdiction, and unless secured from oyster dealers whose state certifications have been endorsed by the United States Food and Drug Administration Public Health Services for interstate shipment. All oysters found in violation of this Paragraph shall be seized and ordered returned to the water. Any violation of this Paragraph shall constitute a class six violation under the provisions of R.S. 56:36.

(2)(a) In addition to all other penalties provided in this Section, for the first violation of this Subsection the oyster harvester's license under which the violation occurred shall be revoked by the department and no new such license shall be issued for one year from the date of the conviction. In addition, the violator shall be sentenced to perform no less than forty hours of community service. If available, the hours shall be served in a litter abatement community service program. During the period in which the violator is prohibited from possession of an oyster harvester license for a first offense, the violator may be present on a vessel harvesting or processing oysters only if that vessel is equipped with and is actively using a vessel monitoring system as prescribed in R.S. 56:424.1.

(b) For a second violation of this Subsection, the violator's oyster harvester license shall be revoked, and no new such license shall be issued for three years from the date of conviction. In addition, the violator shall be sentenced to perform no less than ninety hours of community service. If available, the hours shall be served in a litter abatement community service program. During the period in which the violator is prohibited from possession of an oyster harvester license for a second violation, the violator shall not be present on a vessel harvesting or processing oysters.

(c) For a third or subsequent violation of this Subsection, the violator's oyster harvester license shall be revoked, and no new such license shall be issued for ten years from the date of the third or subsequent conviction. In addition, the violator shall be sentenced to perform no less than one hundred twenty hours of community service. If available, the hours shall be served in a litter abatement community service program. During the period in which the violator is prohibited from possession of an oyster harvester license for a third or subsequent violation, the violator shall not be present on a vessel harvesting or processing oysters.

F.(1) The act of culling oysters, which is the act of discarding undersized oysters or dead shell, shall be performed only on the open state designated public grounds or leases on which the fisherman is authorized to take oysters. At no time will the act of culling oysters be permitted in areas closed to harvesting oysters.

(2) The provisions of Paragraph (1) of this Subsection notwithstanding, the secretary may grant permits for culling and oyster harvesting to those individuals involved in molluscan depuration operations and container relaying operations on a case-by-case basis, provided that the individuals conducting such operations have fully complied with the rules and regulations of the office of public health and have been issued a permit by that office to conduct such operations.

(3) Violation of any of the provisions of this Subsection constitutes a class three violation.

G.(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Subpart, all oysters taken from the reefs of this state either for sale or consumption shall be landed in Louisiana, properly sacked or containerized and tagged in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 56:449, and the severance tax levied in R.S. 56:446 paid thereon; however, a lessee legally harvesting oysters which have been properly tagged from his own lease may land those oysters outside the state under a permit issued pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the department. Any fees proposed in said rules shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

(2) Any person who obtains a permit to land oysters outside the state under the provisions of this Subsection shall be required to install and use a vessel monitoring system on each vessel that will be used to transport oysters taken in Louisiana waters to another state for landing. Access to the monitoring system shall be granted to the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries. The department shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this Paragraph.

H. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section, employees or assigns of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority may survey or remove, as a sample, oysters from an oyster lease on state water bottoms in order to make determinations in matters of integrated coastal protection. In order to make such surveys or take such samples, the employees or assigns of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall first notify the leaseholder in writing of the date and time of the survey or sample at least fifteen days prior to the survey or sampling date. This notification shall be sent by certified mail to the leaseholder at the address on file with the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries. The leaseholder may accompany the person conducting the survey or taking the sample during the survey or sampling or may authorize another person to accompany the person conducting the survey or taking the sample. Such surveys shall be conducted in the manner provided in procedures promulgated by the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority after consideration of recommendations by the Louisiana Oyster Task Force.

I. The state of Louisiana, political subdivisions of the state, the United States, and any agency, agent, contractor, or employee of any of these entities, shall not be subject to any obligation, responsibility, or liability in relation to or resulting from any surveying or sampling of any oyster lease, information provided to any lessee in relation to any surveying or sampling of any oyster lease, the timing of any acquisition of any part of any lease by the state pursuant to R.S. 56:432.1, the lack of acquisition of any part of any lease except as provided in R.S. 56:432.1, or any report pursuant to R.S. 56:432.2 or otherwise.

RS 56:424.1 — Illegal taking of oysters; penalties

R.S. 56:424, 431, 433, or 433.1, the court may order the offender, for one year after the date of such conviction, to harvest oysters only from a vessel that employs a vessel monitoring system. For any person convicted of a second offense of the provisions of R.S. 56:424, 431, 433, or 433.1, the court shall require the offender, for three years after the date of such conviction, to harvest oysters only from a vessel that employs a vessel monitoring system. For any person convicted of a third or subsequent offense, the court shall require the offender, for ten years after the date of such conviction, to harvest only from a vessel that employs a vessel monitoring system.

B. Whenever a person is required to employ a vessel monitoring system, access to the monitoring system shall be granted to the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries. Each person required to employ such monitoring system under the provisions of this Section shall notify the department on which vessel he will be harvesting oysters. Any person required to be on board a vessel with an approved vessel monitoring system when harvesting oysters shall comply with all rules and regulations adopted by the department to ensure compliance with vessel monitoring system requirements. The cost of a vessel monitoring system shall be the responsibility of the person required to be on such vessel. The department shall determine which vessel monitoring systems are approved for use under the provisions of this Section.

C. Any person required to be on board a vessel with an approved vessel monitoring system who is found harvesting oysters from a vessel not equipped with such vessel monitoring system shall have his harvester's license suspended for the remainder of the license year in which he was convicted of violation of the vessel monitoring system requirement, and he shall not be eligible for a harvester's license for the following year.

D. The department shall adopt rules and regulations in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act to implement the provisions of this Section.

RS 56:425 — Lease of water bottoms; stipulations; boundary disputes

the laws of this state any state-owned water bottoms and natural reefs in the water bottoms of this state under the limitations stipulated or authorized in this Subpart. No lease shall be granted until a reasonable investigation into the question of ownership is complete and, based on the findings, a determination is made that the state owns the water bottoms to be leased. Any lease for the taking of oysters granted by the secretary prior to June 15, 2006 which affects privately owned water bottoms shall be subordinate to the rights of the private landowner or recorded land title owner effective on that date.

B. All leases and renewals of leases made under the provisions of this Subpart shall stipulate as a matter of contract that the lessee will operate both under the laws of this state and the rules and regulations of the department.

C. The secretary may make such stipulations in the leases made by him as he deems necessary and proper to develop the industry; however, these stipulations must be consistent with the provisions of this Subpart. The secretary may also make such stipulations as he deems necessary and proper in relation to coastal protection, conservation, or restoration.

D. The department may fully settle all disputes as to boundaries between lessees of bedding grounds, subject to appeal to any court of competent jurisdiction.

E. No lease shall be granted for any water bottom for which any lease was previously acquired by the state for integrated coastal protection, unless the executive director of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority determines that leasing would otherwise be appropriate under the provisions of this Subpart and the executive director of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority affirms that the water bottom is not necessary for integrated coastal protection. Unless this determination has been made prior to issuance of the lease, a lease of water bottom for which a lease was previously acquired shall be null and void for such water bottom and shall be of no force or effect. No person shall have any claim against the state of Louisiana, its political subdivisions, the United States, or any agency, agent, contractor, or employee thereof or any other person in relation to the nullity of such lease.

F. The Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall determine areas of the coast where buffer zones between oyster leases and the shoreline may be necessary to protect sensitive and eroding coastal lands. The Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall review each application for an oyster lease or renewal or expansion of an oyster lease to determine if the water bottom applied for is located in an area where a buffer zone may be necessary and shall delineate the extent of the buffer zone necessary for each application.

RS 56:425.1 — Joint leasing of water bottoms for oyster cultivation and harvest arties, the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries is hereby authorized to enter into an agreement with a private claimant whereby certain water bottoms may, in cooperation between the state and the private claimant, be leased to a third party for the cultivation and harvest of oysters. Any such agreement shall not in any way be interpreted to indicate or determine ownership of the water bottom nor shall any such agreement be interpreted to allocate or designate ownership of mineral rights beneath the water bottom. The department may promulgate under the Administrative Procedure Act the processes by which such agreements shall be negotiated and administered.

B. Any such agreement may originate with either the department or the private claimant and any annual rental payments required by R.S. 56:428(C) shall be made to the department as provided by R.S. 56:428(C). Except for the requirements of R.S. 56:425(A) for determination of state ownership, the lease shall be subject to the provisions of Subpart D of Part VII of Chapter 1 of Title 56 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 in addition to any other conditions of the agreement between the state and the private claimant.

C. The joint agreement between the state and the private claimant shall remain in effect throughout the term of any lease issued subject to the agreement or until ownership of the water bottom has been determined by final judgment of the court. Any lease subject to the joint agreement shall terminate at the time a court has issued a final determination of ownership of the water bottom.

D. Beginning July 1, 2016, and continuing until the final implementation of Phase Three of Section 2 of Act No. 808 of the 2008 Regular Session as amended by Acts 2016, No. 595 of the 2016 Regular Session of the Legislature, oysters found on a vessel owned and operated by the holder of a private oyster lease executed and properly recorded prior to February 1, 2016, or operated by an agent or employee of such private oyster leaseholder shall be presumed to have been legally harvested from the leaseholder's private oyster lease. In order to document the legality of the harvest of oysters from the private lease, a certified copy of the lease as filed in the public records of the parish in which the lease is located shall be carried on each vessel used to harvest oysters from the private lease and shall be available for examination by representatives of the department.

E. In order to preserve private contract rights and to protect existing investments, the department shall recognize as valid a private oyster lease in effect and properly recorded as of February 1, 2016, until such time as the processing of the lease acreage pursuant to the provisions of Phase Three of Section 2 of Act No. 808 of the 2008 Regular Session as er retained by the department and registered in a lease book for that purpose.

B. All persons to whom water bottoms leases are granted shall, within thirty days following the granting thereof, record an executed copy of such lease or leases, together with a plat or map of survey indicating the area affected, in the conveyance records of the parish or parishes of the state of Louisiana in which the area is located. Within twenty days from such recordation, certified copies of the plat or map of survey shall be filed with the department. Transfers of leases from one person to another shall be likewise recorded and filed.

C. If a lease is not recorded and filed within the time periods provided above, no third party shall be bound or affected by the provision of that lease, until such time as it is properly recorded and filed. There shall be no claim against the state of Louisiana for the disregard of the provisions of any lease not properly recorded and filed in accordance with foregoing, nor shall there be any claim against the department, the register of the state land office, or the State Mineral and Energy Board, for the disregard of the provisions of any lease which has not been properly filed with the respective agency involved.

D. All leases of water bottoms for oyster culture previously granted and not filed and recorded as provided for in this Subpart, and all such leases hereafter granted, and not recorded as provided herein, shall be subordinate to the rights of the state of Louisiana, its agencies and lessees, with respect to the granting of mineral and shell leases and the exercise of rights thereunder. The renewal or extension of the term of an existing oyster lease shall not be deemed a new lease, but a renewal or extension shall be recorded no later than six months after the expiration of the term of the previous lease.

RS 56:427 — Initial application for lease

to the secretary a written application, and pay an application fee set by the commission. This application shall contain the name and address of the applicant and a reasonably definite description of the location and amount of land covered by water desired by the applicant. The applicant shall ask that the application be registered and that the water bottom described be leased to the applicant under the provisions of this Subpart. The department shall then register the application, shall order an examination to determine whether the water bottoms applied for are leasable, and shall determine the basis upon which the rental of the lease shall be fixed. If the area is found to be leasable, the applicant shall submit to the department a survey of the area for which the application was submitted. Such survey shall have been conducted in accordance with the standards required by the department. The application shall remain in effect and valid until such time as the survey is complete. If the application is favorably acted upon, the secretary may, at his option, execute a lease for the water bottoms to the applicant as soon as the survey has been made, and the plan or map thereof has been filed with the department.

B. When applications are made by two or more persons for the same water bottoms, the applicant or the heirs or transferors of a deceased applicant who files the first application has prior claim. The department shall not accept any survey plan for any lease that exceeds by ten percent the acreage described in the initial application for the particular lease from the date of adoption of this Subsection, except that the department may accept any lease application, even where the survey plan exceeds by ten percent the acreage described in the initial application, if the lease would not overlap or impact surrounding leases or pending lease applications.

C. The department shall require that the bottoms of water areas to be leased be as compact as possible, taking into consideration such factors as the shape of the body of water, and the condition of the bottom as to hardness or softness which would render it desirable or undesirable for the purpose of oyster cultivation.

D. The provisions of this Section shall apply only to the initial application for an oyster lease, and not to the renewal of a lease.

E. No application for a new lease shall be submitted nor accepted for more than one thousand acres.

F. The secretary may not execute a lease until the department has posted notice of the application for the lease on its website for ninety consecutive days.

(1) Any person claiming ownership of the water bottoms to be leased may protest the issuance of the lease on the grounds that the protesting party owns the water bottoms, but only by delivering via certified mail notice of the protest in writing to the secretary, the administrator of the state land office, and the lease applicant on or before the ninetieth day after notice of the application was posted. The notice of protest shall include all information and documentation that the protesting party believes is relevant to the question of ownership. The right to protest issuance of the lease pursuant to this Subsection shall expire if a protest is not made on or before the ninetieth day after notice of the application was posted.

(2) If a protest is timely made, the administrator of the state land office shall review the state's claim to ownership of the contested water bottoms and issue a preliminary determination to the secretary, the protesting party, and the lease applicant within ninety days of receiving the notice of protest, as to whether the state claims ownership of the contested water bottoms. The administrator shall issue a final written determination as to whether the state claims ownership of the water bottom within one hundred eighty days of receiving the notice of protest. If a protest is timely made, the secretary may execute the lease as otherwise authorized under this Subpart only to the extent that the administrator of the state land office determines that the state claims ownership of the contested water bottoms. The relief available pursuant to and the results and effects of such a protest and determination are limited to those set forth in this Subsection. The determination by the administrator of the state land office shall not be reviewable under the Administrative Procedure Act, and is appealable only to the Nineteenth Judicial District Court. Any petition for judicial review of the determination pursuant to this Subsection must be filed within sixty days after issuance of the determination. Failure to make a protest pursuant to this Subsection has no effect on the right to claim ownership of the leased water bottom authorized by R.S. 56:423(D) or the reasonable investigation into the ownership of the water bottom by the state required by R.S. 56:425(A).

(3) A lease applicant may withdraw a lease application and receive a full refund from the department of all application fees, by submitting a written request for withdrawal to the department within one hundred twenty days after the department posts notice of the application on its website, within thirty days after issuance of the determination of the administrator of the state land office regarding the state's claim to ownership pursuant to a protest authorized by this Subsection, or within thirty days after final judgment in any proceeding for judicial review of the determination, whichever is the later date.

G. The secretary shall not lease any water bottom located within seventy-five feet of the centerline of a pipeline that is located on purchased right-of-way. However, if the right-of-way is abandoned and returned to commerce, the secretary may then lease such water bottom.

RS 56:427.1 — State, political subdivisions of the state, and the United States held harmless in political subdivisions of the state, the United States, and any agency, agent, contractor, or employee thereof shall be held free and harmless from any claims arising under any oyster lease, renewal, or extension granted to any individual or other entity for any purpose from diversions of fresh water or sediment, dredging or direct placement of dredged or other materials, or any other actions taken for the purpose of coastal protection, conservation, or restoration.

B. All oyster leases, renewals, or extensions granted to any individual or other entity shall include language which shall hold harmless from all claims provided for in Subsection A of this Section the state, political subdivisions of the state, the United States, and any agency, agent, contractor, or employee thereof.

C.(1) A leaseholder whose oyster lease is acquired in whole or in part by the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority pursuant to R.S. 56:432.1 for dredging, direct placement of dredged or other materials, or other work or activities necessary for the construction or maintenance of a project for integrated coastal protection may seek compensation from the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority pursuant to that Section.

(2) A leaseholder may seek acquisition and compensation from the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority pursuant to R.S. 56:432.1 for any portion of an oyster lease that is not acquired by the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority and upon which dredging, direct placement of dredged or other materials, or other work or activities necessary for the construction or maintenance of a project for integrated coastal protection has occurred.

RS 56:428 — Commencement and duration of lease; renewal; fixing of rental rates a period of fifteen years. The owners of expiring leases have first right of renewal of their leases. However, this right to renewal shall be subject to the provisions of this Subpart. Leases carry the first right of renewal for successive periods of fifteen years each, provided the lease is capable of supporting oyster populations. Renewals shall be executed by the secretary and shall be made subject to both the provisions of this Subpart and to the rules and regulations established by the department.

B. The secretary has sixty days from the date of expiration of a lease to execute a renewal lease. If a renewal lease is not executed within this sixty-day period, the lease is automatically renewed. In either situation, the fifteen-year period of the renewal lease shall begin on the first day following the expiration date of the prior lease, and the renewal lease shall be assigned the same number used for the prior lease with the addition of a designation to indicate which year the lease was renewed. If a leaseholder wishes to change the configuration of his lease in accordance with the department's rules governing leased areas, a resurvey and plan of the water bottom shall be made by the leaseholder in accordance with the standards required by the department and a copy supplied to the department. The department may resurvey any lease for potential conflicts with department rules and regulations. If the department determines that a resurvey will be conducted, the leaseholder shall be given ten days written notice of the scheduled resurvey by the department and may be present at the resurvey.

C. The commission shall fix the rate of rental for oyster leases at two dollars per acre per year until January 1, 2016, at which time the commission shall set the rate of rental at three dollars per acre per year. The rate of rental fixed by the commission shall apply to all leases executed by the secretary. For the purpose of calculating the rental due for a lease, the amount of acreage covered by the lease shall be rounded off to the nearest full acre. The rent must be paid no later than the thirty-first of December following the signing of the lease, and annually thereafter, in advance on or before the first day of January, whether the lease be held by the original lessees or by an heir, assignee, or transferee. All revenues received from the payment of lease rentals under the provisions of this Subsection shall be credited to the Public Oyster Seed Ground Development Account, R.S. 56:434.1.

RS 56:429 — Default in payment of rent; cancellation and forfeitures pso facto and without demand or putting in default, terminates and cancels the lease and forfeits to the department all the works, improvements, betterments, and oysters on the leased water bottom. The department may at once enter on the water bottom and take possession thereof. Such water bottom shall then be open for lease in accordance with R.S. 56:425. Ten days thereafter the department shall enter the termination, cancellation, and forfeiture on its books and give public notice thereof by publication in one local paper in the parish where the formerly leased water bottoms are located. On or before the first day of each February, the department shall issue a written notice of delinquency by certified mail to each lessee who has not yet paid the rent. The department shall also publish notice of such delinquency on its website and in the official journal of the parish in which the delinquent lease is located. Any lessee who pays the rent on or after the first day of February shall pay the rent due plus an additional ten percent penalty.

RS 56:430 — Additional lease stipulations

s, stakes, buoys, and the like, in order to locate accurately and fix the limits of each lease by prominently marking such leased water bottoms with signs which state the lease number or name or initials of the leaseholder. Oysters shall not be harvested from any unmarked lease.

(2) For purposes of preventing trawling in seeded areas under R.S. 56:423(B), lessees shall clearly mark and delineate as required by law or regulation the area which has been seeded. A lease shall be posted with prominent, durable signs stating "NO TRAWLING OR SEINING-OYSTER LEASE".

(3) A violation of this Section shall be a class two violation.

RS 56:431 — Unlawful removal of oysters or signs from leased propagating grounds; instructions or attempt to take or carry away, without permission of the lessee, any oysters, shell, or cultch from the water bottoms of the Gulf of Mexico or the lakes, bays, inlets, lagoons, rivers, bayous, or other waters tributary thereto or connecting therewith, within the jurisdiction of the state where the bottoms are, at the time of such taking, let or leased to any person under the laws of Louisiana, for the purpose of bedding, planting, propagating, or cultivating oysters.

B. No person shall knowingly or willfully remove, break off, destroy, or otherwise injure or alter any stake, monument, bounds, buoy, sign, or other designation of bedding or propagating ground placed thereon by the lessee, or knowingly or willfully move from any bedding ground any stake, monument, bounds, buoy, sign, mark, or other designation placed thereon by the department or in accordance with its regulations or any Sections in this Subpart.

C. All owners or employers of vessels engaged in the oyster industry in this state shall issue typewritten instructions to the captains and crews in charge of the vessels, calling attention to the provisions of this Section. These instructions shall be duly executed before a competent notary by the parties interested, the original to be kept by the department and duplicate to be had in possession at all times by the captain of the vessel. This duplicate shall be shown on demand of any officer or agent of the department. Lack of possession of such document on a vessel, or a refusal to show the same, is prima facie evidence that the paper does not exist.

D.(1) Violation of any of the provisions of this Section constitutes a class six violation. The imposition of these penalties does not bar the prosecution and conviction of the wrongdoer under the criminal statutes of this state.

(2)(a) In addition to all other penalties provided in this Section, upon conviction for the first violation of Subsection A of this Section, the oyster harvester's license under which the violation occurred shall be revoked by the department and no new such license shall be issued for one year from the date of the conviction. In addition, the violator shall be sentenced to perform no less than forty hours of community service. If available, the hours shall be served in a litter abatement community service program. During the period in which the violator is prohibited from possession of an oyster harvester license for a first offense, the violator may be present on a vessel harvesting or processing oysters only if that vessel is equipped with and is actively using a vessel monitoring system as prescribed in R.S. 56:424.1.

(b) Upon conviction for the second violation of Subsection A of this Section, the violator's oyster harvester license shall be revoked, and no new such license shall be issued for three years from the date of conviction. In addition, the violator shall be sentenced to perform no less than ninety hours of community service. If available, the hours shall be served in a litter abatement community service program. During the period in which the violator is prohibited from possession of an oyster harvester license for a second violation, the violator shall not be present on a vessel harvesting or processing oysters.

(c) Upon conviction for the third or subsequent violation of Subsection A of this Section, the violator's oyster harvester license shall be revoked, and no new such license shall be issued for ten years from the date of the third or subsequent conviction. In addition, the violator shall be sentenced to perform no less than one hundred twenty hours of community service. If available, the hours shall be served in a litter abatement community service program. During the period in which the violator is prohibited from possession of an oyster harvester license for a third or subsequent violation, the violator shall not be present on a vessel harvesting or processing oysters.

RS 56:431.1 — Devices to protect oysters from predation; use on leased acreage edation. The permit shall be issued to a leaseholder and shall not be transferrable. Such devices shall be in compliance with all existing state and federal fishing laws and regulations. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, any device permitted under the provisions of this Section may be transported or used in compliance with the provisions of this Section. The department shall promulgate, in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, rules and regulations for such a permit. The rules shall at a minimum specify the following:

(1) That the application for the permit shall be accompanied by an application fee of one hundred dollars, and the fee for the permit shall be fifty dollars per acre permitted, not to exceed one thousand dollars.

(2) That the material used for the device shall:

(a) Not be monofilament or multifilament.

(b) Not be made to resemble, appear, or be construed to be a gill net, trammel net, or strike net as those terms are defined in R.S. 56:8, or any type of device which might entangle marine life.

(c) Be approved by the Wildlife and Fisheries Commission and the House Committee on Natural Resources and Environment and the Senate Committee on Natural Resources. The rules shall establish the procedure for such approval, including timetables.

(3) That the material authorized for such device shall have no openings that exceed one and one-quarter inch bar or two and one-half inches stretched.

(4) That the vertical profile of the device shall not raise the water bottom by more than one-half foot or shall be limited to one-tenth of the depth of the water where the device is located, whichever measure is larger, and that the device shall not restrict the free passage of fish and other marine life over the device.

(5) Requirements for reporting data or other information by the leaseholders necessary for the department to monitor the activities under the permit.

(6) Enforcement penalties for permit violations shall be considered a class four violation.

B. The area permitted for use of a device to protect oysters from predation shall not exceed ten acres per lease site, and each lease site shall be limited to the use of only one device. The area permitted shall meet the standards set forth by the Louisiana Department of Health in its oyster regulations. The device must comply with United States Coast Guard regulations relative to navigation and markings. Prior to application to the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries for a permit to use a device, the leaseholder shall have obtained all other local, state, and federal permits necessary for such activity, including a coastal use permit.

C. The department may permit the use of devices to protect oysters from predation on no more than one hundred acres east of the Mississippi, no more than one hundred acres between the Mississippi River and Bayou Lafourche, no more than one hundred acres between Bayou Lafourche and the Atchafalaya River, and no more than one hundred acres west of the Atchafalaya River. The permit issued by the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries shall authorize use of a device only during the months of March, April, October, and November. The permit shall require liability insurance to be held by the leaseholder sufficient to cover any damages that might occur as a result of the use of such device.

D. Repealed by Acts 2010, No. 263, §1.

RS 56:431.2 — Alternative oyster culture; permits

79.1, the department is authorized to issue an alternative oyster culture permit (AOC permit) to a leaseholder holding a valid oyster lease of state water bottoms pursuant to R.S. 56:427 or 428 or to a person owning a water bottom or holding an oyster lease on a privately owned water bottom or a dual-claimed water bottom as defined in R.S. 56:425.1. The area permitted for alternative oyster culture shall not extend beyond the boundaries of an existent lease or ownership of the water bottom.

(2) An AOC permit authorizes the permittee and, upon written authorization by the permittee, any person holding a valid oyster harvester license pursuant to R.S. 56:303.6 and a valid commercial fisherman's license pursuant to R.S. 56:303, to engage in the alternative oyster culture activities specified by the department in the permit on the permitted area. The permittee may engage in such activities on the water bottoms, in the water column, and on the water surface above the water bottoms within the permitted area, to the extent specified by the department in the permit, and in accordance with the provisions of this Section.

(3) The department may issue AOC permits in numbers, locations, sizes, and configurations specified by the department.

(4) An AOC permit shall be transferrable only with and to the extent of any transfer of the lease, and only to the transferee of the lease; however, the permitted leaseholder may authorize any person holding a valid oyster harvester license pursuant to R.S. 56:303.6 and a valid commercial fisherman's license pursuant to R.S. 56:303 to engage in alternative oyster culture activities pursuant to the AOC permit. An AOC permit shall be valid for ten years or until termination of the lease, including any renewal thereof, to which the permit pertains, whichever occurs first. If the lease is renewed pursuant to R.S. 56:428, the AOC permit shall continue in effect until expiration of the ten-year term.

(5) The department shall promulgate, in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this Section.

B. Application and permitting.

(1) The application for an AOC permit shall be accompanied by an application fee of one hundred dollars. The fee for the permit shall be two dollars per year per acre permitted, not to exceed one thousand dollars per permit per year.

(2) The department shall determine areas that are unsuitable or inappropriate for alternative oyster culture activities due to creation of unreasonable conflicts with other existing or anticipated uses of state waters and water bottoms, including but not limited to integrated coastal protection projects as defined in R.S. 49:214.2. The department shall base all rules, regulations, and decisions regarding AOC permits on any master plan or annual plan issued pursuant to R.S. 49:214.5.3 and any other information and data deemed relevant by the department. The department may grant an AOC permit for a different location, size, or configuration, and for different alternative oyster culture activity than what was requested in the application.

(3) No AOC permit shall authorize alternative oyster culture activities in an area that is any of the following at the time the AOC permit is issued, and any permit that includes such areas is null and void, but only to the extent that it includes such areas:

(a) Designated by the United States Army Corps of Engineers as a navigable channel or waterway or within fifteen hundred feet of the centerline of such channel or waterway.

(b) Covered by a coastal use permit or drilling permit or within fifteen hundred feet of the outside of the exterior boundaries of an area covered by a coastal use permit or drilling permit.

(c) Designated for dredging, direct placement of dredged or other materials, or other work or activities for the construction or maintenance of a project for integrated coastal protection or within fifteen hundred feet of the outside of the exterior boundaries of an area designated for such dredging, direct placement, or other work or activities.

(d) Repealed by Acts 2017, No. 222, §2.

(e) Otherwise determined by the department to be unsuitable or inappropriate for alternative oyster culture activities.

(4) No coastal use or drilling permit holder or agent thereof shall be liable to any holder of an AOC permit, any person to whom such permit has been transferred, or any other person authorized by the AOC permit holder to engage in alternative oyster culture activities, for any damage to or loss of equipment or materials used in alternative oyster culture activities within the AOC permit area, or for any damage to or loss of any oysters being grown or cultivated within the AOC permit area as a consequence of alternative oyster culture activities, where both of the following are true:

(a) The coastal use or drilling permit, or any modification to it, was issued prior to the time that the AOC permit was issued.

(b) Such damage arises out of or results from the conduct of any activity authorized by or permitted under the coastal use or drilling permit, except to the extent that the damage or loss arises from violation of any state or federal environmental law or regulation or occurs outside the area of the coastal use permit or drilling permit.

(5) The state of Louisiana, political subdivisions of the state, the United States, and any agency, agent, contractor, or employee thereof shall be held harmless from any claim arising as a result of operations by or for a permittee pursuant to an AOC permit, and the permittee shall indemnify the state of Louisiana, political subdivisions of the state, the United States, and any agency, agent, contractor, or employee thereof against any such claim. Prior to engaging in alternative oyster culture activities pursuant to an AOC permit, the permittee shall have obtained all other local, state, and federal permits necessary for such activity.

(6) The department may specify or impose limitations regarding the equipment and materials authorized to be used for alternative oyster culture activities. All equipment and materials used for alternative oyster culture activities shall, at a minimum, comply with United States Coast Guard regulations and requirements, and with all state and federal fishing laws and regulations. Any equipment and materials used for alternative oyster culture activities authorized pursuant to this Section may be transported or used in compliance with the provisions of this Section.

(7) The department may specify or impose requirements for marking, lighting, or warning devices in relation to alternative oyster culture activities. All areas where such equipment or materials are present on state water bottoms shall be clearly marked. Marking, lighting, and warning devices for alternative oyster culture activities shall, at a minimum, comply with United States Coast Guard regulations and requirements, and with all state and federal fishing laws and regulations.

(8) The department may impose requirements for the permittee to report information or data necessary or appropriate for the department to monitor the activities under the permit or to study such activities and their results.

(9) The department may require a permittee to post a reasonable removal bond in amounts to be determined by the department.

(10) Any AOC permit shall be terminable by the department and shall include language that provides for such termination upon significant or repeated violation of the permit or any applicable statutes, rules, or regulations by the permittee or anyone authorized by the permittee to engage in alternative oyster culture activities on the permitted area.

(11) Permit violations shall be considered a class three violation punishable under the provisions of R.S. 56:33. Theft of or intentionally causing damage to properly permitted alternative oyster culture equipment or to oysters contained in such equipment shall be considered a class four violation punishable under the provisions of R.S. 56:34.

C. Repealed by Acts 2017, No. 222, §2.

D. Coastal protection, conservation, or restoration.

(1) The state of Louisiana, political subdivisions of the state, the United States, and any agency, agent, contractor, or employee thereof shall be held harmless from any claims arising under or as a result of the issuance of any AOC permit in relation to diversions of fresh water or sediment, dredging or direct placement of dredged or other materials, any other actions taken for the purpose of integrated coastal protection, or adverse effects on water quality, including but not limited to increased sedimentation or eutrophication or fluctuations in salinity or pH. Any AOC permit granted to any individual or other entity shall include language which shall hold harmless from all such claims the state, political subdivisions of the state, the United States, and any agency, agent, contractor, or employee thereof.

(2) All AOC permits shall be subordinate to the rights or responsibilities of the state, any political subdivision of the state, the United States, or any agency or agent thereof, to take any action in furtherance of integrated coastal protection. For purposes of this Section, "integrated coastal protection" shall have the same meaning as provided for by R.S. 49:214.2.

E. Definitions.

(1) For purposes of this Section, "alternative oyster culture activity" means any on-bottom, off-bottom, or other means of cultivating or growing oysters other than directly on reefs or other water bottoms, including but not limited to the use of on-bottom cages or bags or floating, suspended, or otherwise off-bottom cages or bags, and includes the harvesting of oysters so grown or cultivated.

(2) For purposes of this Section, equipment and materials used for alternative oyster culture activities are excluded from the definition of "fishing gear" provided in R.S. 56:8(57).

RS 56:432 — Territorial limitations forfeits, after due trial by competent court, all leases held by him on any water bottoms of the state.

RS 56:432.1 — Oyster Lease Acquisition and Compensation Program

d the Louisiana coastal restoration program provided for in R.S. 49:214.1 et seq. Therefore, the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall develop a program, subject to the requirements and conditions of this Section, for the acquisition of and compensation for oyster leases or portions of oyster leases upon which occurs or will occur dredging, direct placement of dredged or other materials, or other work or activities necessary for the construction or maintenance of a project for integrated coastal protection.

B. The state of Louisiana, through the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority, may acquire any oyster lease, in whole or in part, due to the impact of dredging, direct placement of dredged or other materials, or other work or activities necessary for the construction or maintenance of a project for integrated coastal protection.

(1) Acquisition shall be implemented by a notice of acquisition issued to the leaseholder. Such notice shall specify the acreage acquired and the effective date of the acquisition. A plat or map depicting the acreage acquired shall be attached to the notice. The notice and acquisition shall be subject to the following:

(a) The Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall issue any such notice in writing to the leaseholder at his address on file with the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries on the date of issuance, by hand delivery or certified mail, return receipt requested. If the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority attempts such issuance at least once and is unable to deliver the notice to the leaseholder, the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall reissue the notice to the lessee at his address on file with the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries on the date of the re-issuance, by regular mail, and shall publish in the official journal for each parish in which the acquired acreage is located a summary of the notice including identification of the affected acreage, the effective date of the acquisition, and a contact person at the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority for all inquiries regarding the acquisition. The notice of acquisition may be recorded in the public records of any parish in which the acquired acreage is located.

(b) The acquisition shall be effective on the date specified in the notice of acquisition regardless of whether the lessee actually receives the notice of acquisition. Upon the effective date of the acquisition, possession of the affected acreage shall revert to the state, free and clear of any lease or other obligation or encumbrance.

(c) Lease payments as otherwise required by R.S. 56:428 or 429 shall no longer be payable for the acquired acreage for the calendar year after the date on which the notice of acquisition was issued.

(d) Upon acquisition of a portion of leased acreage, the lease shall continue in full force and effect as to the remaining acreage under the lease.

(2) The Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall determine the compensation for any acquisition pursuant to this Section in accordance with rules or regulations adopted by that department after consideration of recommendations by the Louisiana Oyster Task Force, subject to the following:

(a) The Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall issue its determination of compensation to the leaseholder together with the notice of acquisition and by the same procedure provided for issuance of such notice.

(b) The Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall consider any reasonably confirmable data or information provided by the leaseholder or any other person in making its determination of compensation, provided that the data or information is submitted in compliance with rules or regulations promulgated by that department prior to the date of initial issuance of the determination of compensation. Such rules or regulations shall provide the leaseholder at least sixty days in which to submit such data or information before the initial issuance of the determination of compensation.

(3) The Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall issue payment to the leaseholder in the full amount of its determination of compensation, except for and less any amount due on recorded liens and encumbrances to be paid out of said proceeds, together with the notice of acquisition, and by the same procedure provided for issuance of such notice. Acceptance of such payment shall not preclude any claim for additional compensation, as provided in this Section. If the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority is unable to contact the leaseholder by the procedure provided in Subparagraph (1)(a) of this Subsection, that department shall transfer funds in the amount of the determined compensation except for and less any amount due on recorded liens and encumbrances to be paid out of said proceeds, to a trust account, instead of attaching such payment to the reissued notice. Upon request of the leaseholder listed with the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries on the date notice of acquisition is initially issued, any such compensation may be withdrawn from the trust account for the benefit of the leaseholder. Any funds placed in a trust account that remain unclaimed after a period of five years shall be declared to be abandoned and may be disposed of pursuant to the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act, R.S. 9:151 et seq. Any amount due on a recorded lien or encumbrance shall be paid directly to the holder thereof, with a copy of all documentation of such payment issued to the leaseholder. If the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority is unable to contact the holder of the lien or encumbrance, that department shall transfer funds in the amount of the lien or encumbrance to a trust account, from which it may be withdrawn for the benefit of the lien or encumbrance holder.

(4) To the extent that the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority acquires any lease or portion thereof under this Section in relation to any project or action for integrated coastal protection performed by any department, agency, board, commission, or political subdivision of the state other than the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority, such department, agency, board, commission, or political subdivision shall compensate the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority for all costs incurred by the department which are associated with the acquisition. However, the executive director of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority may waive this requirement.

C. A leaseholder whose lease is acquired in whole or in part may seek an administrative hearing through the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority as to whether the acquisition due to the impact of dredging, direct placement of dredged or other materials, or other work or activities necessary for the construction or maintenance of a project for integrated coastal protection is proper or whether the compensation issued by the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority satisfies the rules or regulations of that department. A leaseholder whose lease is not acquired but which was impacted by dredging, direct placement of dredged or other materials, or other work or activities necessary for the construction or maintenance of a project for integrated coastal protection has occurred, may also seek an administrative hearing through the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority to determine if acquisition of the acreage would be proper. Adjudication under this Section shall be conducted in accordance with the following:

(1) Adjudication under this Section must be requested in writing and received by the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority within sixty days after issuance of the notice of acquisition, determination of compensation, or payment as provided in Subsection B of this Section. However, adjudication of the amount of the compensation must be requested in writing and received by the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority within two years after completion of the project for which the lease or portion of the lease was acquired, if the leaseholder establishes that notice of the acquisition, determination of compensation, or payment was not issued as required in this Section. Adjudication of the lack of acquisition of leased acreage upon which dredging, direct placement of dredged or other materials, or other work or activities necessary for the construction or maintenance of a project for integrated coastal protection has occurred must be requested in writing and received by the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority within two years after completion of the project.

(2) Adjudication under this Section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 13-B of Title 49 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 and pursuant to the rules and regulations promulgated by the Department of Conservation and Energy after consideration of recommendations by the Louisiana Oyster Task Force. The administrative law judge shall consider any reasonably confirmable data or information provided to that department by the leaseholder or any other person on or before the date of the administrative review.

(3) The final decision of the administrative law judge shall be issued to the leaseholder by certified mail at his address on file with the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries on the date of issuance or at such other address as the leaseholder may specify in his request for administrative review.

(4) A request for an adjudication shall have no effect upon the validity of the acquisition of the lease, but only the compensation payable to the lessee. However, the acquisition may be found invalid if an adjudication is sought timely and the project or action for which acquisition is sought does not further coastal protection, conservation, or restoration.

D. A leaseholder may seek in accordance with the following, judicial review of the final decision of the administrative law judge based solely on the administrative record and, except as otherwise provided in this Section, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 13-B of Title 49 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.

(1) Any petition for judicial review pursuant to this Subsection must be filed with the Nineteenth Judicial District Court within sixty days after issuance of the final decision of the administrative law judge. No petition for judicial review may be filed, and any such petition is premature, unless adjudication has been timely sought and all administrative remedies have been exhausted. The petition shall be served upon the executive director of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority and all parties of record.

(2) A request for judicial review shall have no effect upon the validity of the acquisition of the lease, but only the compensation payable to the lessee. However, the acquisition may be found invalid if review is sought timely and the project or action for which acquisition is sought does not further coastal protection, conservation, or restoration.

E. No funds from, or dedicated to, the Louisiana Wildlife Conservation Fund established by Article VII, Section 10-A of the Constitution of Louisiana shall be obligated or expended in furtherance of or for any purpose of this Section. However, funds paid to the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries expressly for the purposes of this Section may be expended accordingly.

RS 56:432.2 — Annual reporting of coastal protection, conservation, and restoration project status

ity shall provide information to the Oyster Task Force regarding the nature, location, and status of current or planned projects for integrated coastal protection to the extent practical.

RS 56:433 — Culling oysters taken from natural reefs; size limits

I shall be immediately replaced and scattered broadcast upon the natural reefs from which taken. No person shall have in his possession off the natural reefs any natural reef oysters which were not taken in accordance with the provisions of this Subpart. Any excess of over fifteen percent of dead shells and oysters under the size prescribed in this Section, in any cargo lot of oysters except any cargo lot of oysters to be used as seed oysters for bedding purposes only, shall be considered a violation of this Subpart, and any officer of the department may cause to be counted the whole or part of the cargo or lot of oysters at the expense of the person or vessel, to determine the percentage. No oysters under one inch in length from hinge to mouth shall be counted, and each half shell of over one inch shall be counted as one.

B.(1) Under its supervision and direction, the department may permit lessees of oyster bedding grounds to fish oysters of any size, without charge, from the natural reefs of the waters of this state. Such oysters are to be used as seed oysters for bedding purposes only. The department may designate from which natural reefs oysters may be fished and the quantity to be taken therefrom by any lessee. The natural reefs may be fished for the harvest of seed oysters only each year starting the first Wednesday after Labor Day. Beginning on the second Monday in October each year, the seed grounds may be opened for the harvest of oysters for market sales in addition to the harvest of seed oysters. All harvest of oysters on the public seed grounds shall cease on April thirtieth of each year. However, the commission may extend the taking of oysters on natural reefs by setting the last day of the season if it is determined that sufficient quantities of oysters are available to accommodate such additional taking in designated areas. When setting the last day of the season, the commission shall consider the recommendations of the Oyster Task Force. The commission may designate what parts or portions of the natural reefs may be fished for oysters and it may suspend the fishing of oysters altogether from natural reefs not leased by it when such reefs are threatened with depletion as determined by the department. When designating those areas of the natural reefs that may be fished, the commission shall consider the recommendations of the Oyster Task Force.

(2) The commission shall annually set aside one or more areas east of the Mississippi River for the exclusive use of sackers. The designation of the said areas is to be based on the best available data by the department for ensuring the economic development of the fisheries. One of the areas so designated shall be located in the American Bay area east of the Mississippi River in Plaquemines Parish. The total areas designated shall not exceed one-fourth of the total areas of public seed grounds east of the Mississippi River. The commission may, by rule, provide for oyster size restrictions in these sacking areas.

C. No person shall take oysters from the natural reef of the waters of the state during the period beginning the day following the closing date set by the commission pursuant to Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section and ending the Tuesday following Labor Day, nor shall any person take oysters from the natural reefs during any closure of such reefs as set by the commission or department. No person shall can, shuck, or pack any oysters from the natural reefs during the closure period. This provision does not prevent any lessee of oyster bedding grounds from harvesting his own oysters and using them for personal home consumption or for sale during the time of closure.

D. Repealed by Acts 2013, No. 35, §4.

E. The commission, at one of its regular meetings, in the exercise of its duties to improve, enlarge, and protect the state-owned natural reefs of this state, and after affording industry, department personnel, and interested parties an opportunity to be heard, shall have the option, between January first and the last day of the season of each year, of closing any portion or all of the natural oyster reefs of this state to the harvest of oysters, and of setting harvesting size limits on any portion or all of the natural oyster reefs of this state, as expected conditions warrant. The commission shall notify the oyster industry of its determination by filing the information in the office of the secretary, and by notice once weekly for two weeks prior to implementation, in the newspapers of general circulation in the coastal zone.

F. The limitations as to size contained in Subsection A shall not apply to seed oysters lawfully fished from the natural reefs.

G. No provision of this Section shall prevent the department from exercising its option to close the natural grounds to all oyster fishing as provided in Subsection B, and no person shall take oysters from the natural reefs during any such closure.

H. The provisions of this Section do not apply to a lessee of private bedding grounds when harvesting his own oysters.

I. The commission shall designate the natural reefs by regulation.

J.(1) Except for a violation of the provisions of Subsection C or G of this Section, violation of the provisions of this Section shall constitute a class two violation.

(2) A violation of Subsection C or G of this Section shall constitute a class six violation. In addition to the penalties associated with a class six violation, the violator shall be sentenced to perform no less than forty hours of community service. If available, the hours shall be served in a litter abatement community service program.

RS 56:433.1 — Oyster seed ground vessel permit

Lake or Sabine Lake, shall be placed only on a vessel which has an oyster seed ground vessel permit issued exclusively by the department pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the commission. The commission may establish a limit on the number of permits that may be issued each year after consultation with the Louisiana Oyster Task Force. The permit shall be issued in the name of the vessel owner and shall identify the vessel permitted by including the state registration number or the United States Coast Guard documented number. The permit shall identify the vessel that may possess and transport oysters taken from the public natural reefs and oyster seed grounds. The permit does not grant any rights to the oyster resource or any rights to harvest oysters from the waters of the state and shall not be sold, exchanged, or otherwise transferred. The permit is valid for one year, beginning on January first of each calendar year and expiring on December thirty-first of the same calendar year, and permit holders who hold a valid permit during the prior year may renew the permit at any time of the year for the current license year and from November fifteenth for the immediately following license year. The cost of the permit shall be fifty dollars per year for a resident and two hundred dollars per year for a nonresident.

(b) In addition to the vessel permit fee, in order to harvest oysters from the public grounds, a person onboard the permitted vessel shall be in possession of a Public Oyster Seed Ground gear permit. The Public Oyster Seed Ground gear permit is an extension of the vessel permit and allows harvest of oysters from the public seed grounds using a single scraper, tongs, or by hand. The fee for the gear permit is two hundred dollars per year for a resident and eight hundred dollars per year for a nonresident. A second scraper may be used but requires an additional gear permit. No vessel shall use or possess more than two scrapers while harvesting on the public seed grounds.

(c) After having been credited to the Bond Security and Redemption Fund as required by Article VII, Section 9(B) of the Constitution of Louisiana, all revenues received from purchase of the permits provided for in this Subsection shall be deposited in the Oyster Resource Management Account, R.S. 56:10(B)(4).

(2) Vessel owners, as listed in the official record of the department at the time of application, who meet the requirements of Subsection B of this Section shall have the right to submit to the department a new application for an oyster seed ground vessel permit. Except as authorized in Paragraph (B)(4) of this Section, no new applications for such vessel permits shall be accepted after December 31, 2012. A vessel owner shall be eligible for a permit only for each vessel which can be used to meet the qualifications for a permit under the provisions of Subsection B of this Section.

(3) The taking of oysters from the public natural reefs or the oyster seed grounds or reservations without an oyster seed ground vessel permit shall be a class two violation subject to the penalties provided in R.S. 56:32 and to the requirements of R.S. 56:424.1.

(4) In an effort to collect data to enable the department to better manage the public oyster resource, the commission may adopt rules and regulations which require the use of a vessel monitoring system for use by a vessel taking oysters for commercial purposes under the authority of the oyster seed ground vessel permit. Any data collected by the department shall be confidential and shall not be subject to the Public Records Law.

B. The following vessel owners, as listed in the official records of the department at the time of application for the permit or who can, at the time of application, demonstrate to the department that ownership of that vessel has transferred to them, shall be eligible to receive an oyster seed ground vessel permit:

(1) Any person who owned a vessel that was licensed at any time between January 1, 2004, and May 1, 2009, and can demonstrate through trip ticket submissions that that vessel had oyster landings in the state of Louisiana between January 1, 2004, and May 1, 2009.

(2) Any person who purchased or constructed a vessel and licensed that vessel in the state of Louisiana between January 1, 2004, and May 1, 2009, and who can demonstrate through trip ticket submissions that oysters were landed on that vessel in the state of Louisiana between the time of the vessel's purchase or construction and May 1, 2009.

(3) Any person who can provide evidence that he has a vessel that is under construction in the state of Louisiana that is at least fifty percent complete on May 1, 2009.

(4)(a) Notwithstanding the application date limitation contained in Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section, a person who owns an oyster vessel and who has satisfactorily completed the requirements of a professionalism program may submit an application for an oyster seed ground vessel permit under the provisions of this Section.

(b) The commission shall develop, establish, and monitor a professionalism program for the purpose of training vessel owners in the appropriate methods and practices of oyster harvest from the public seed grounds.

RS 56:434 — Oyster seed grounds; designation and setting aside; rules and regulations concerning taking of seed oysters; areas recognized as oyster seed reservations; protection of oyster seed reservations

The commission shall at its discretion from time to time designate and set aside such area from the water bottoms of the state as it judges best adapted to the planting, propagation, growth, and policing of seed oysters. The area constitutes oyster seed grounds. Each unit thereof shall, as nearly as practicable, be so located as to facilitate its efficient policing, and be readily identifiable by reference to geographical features or local landmarks or department surveys, and shall embrace at least a recognizable portion of any body or arm of water, or definite part thereof, in which it is established.

B. Upon or following the designation or location of any oyster seed ground, the department may negotiate for and acquire existing oyster leases required to be abandoned or surrendered which are found within the limits of the designated area.

The department shall compensate the leaseholder for oysters, seed oysters, shells, and other improvements found on the private leases required to be abandoned or surrendered, out of funds appropriated by the legislature. Such compensation shall be determined by an independent marine surveyor appointed by the department with the concurrence of the leaseholder, at the current-day value of the improvements on the grounds affected.

C. All seed oysters produced on oyster seed grounds or reservations established under this Subpart shall be had and held for the use and benefit of the oyster industry. The commission shall establish rules and regulations concerning the time, quantity, and method of taking by which these seed oysters shall be made available to the public. These rules and regulations shall be formulated as necessary and shall be adequate to the proper maintenance and preservation of the areas as a perpetual source of seed supply for the oyster industry. Unless otherwise opened by the commission all oyster seed grounds and reservations are closed.

D. The secretary may require persons taking, or attempting to take oysters, oyster seed, or cultch from any state owned public oyster seed ground or public oyster seed reservation to obtain a permit from the department and possess said permit when on the public oyster seed grounds or public oyster seed reservations.

E. The water bottoms located in Sister (Caillou) Lake and Bay Junop in Terrebonne Parish, Hackberry Bay (Bay Duchene) in Lafourche and Jefferson Parishes, and Bay Gardene in Plaquemines Parish are designated as oyster seed reservations, and shall be managed by the department for the best interests of the oyster industry.

F. The department shall establish and maintain an adequate and vigilant watch and control over the areas designated as oyster seed grounds and oyster seed reservations, and shall see that all oysters, seed oysters, oyster cultch, or other material improvements found or placed thereon are efficiently protected from trespass, theft, or injury.

G. During that portion of the oyster season set aside for the taking of seed oysters only, additional restrictions shall apply to harvest of seed oysters from the public seed grounds as follows:

(1) No oyster harvester who is actively harvesting oysters in the public seed grounds shall have on board his vessel any sacks or containers which may be used to hold oysters for transport to market.

(2) All oysters on board a vessel actively harvesting oysters in the public seed grounds shall be presumed to have been harvested from the public seed grounds.

(3) No harvester shall sell, or transport with his vessel, oysters intended for market sales on the same day that he harvested seed oysters from the public seed grounds.

H. A violation of the provisions of this Section shall constitute a class two violation.

RS 56:435 — Scrapers; use in removing oysters

d along the tooth bar. No scraper shall weigh more than one hundred seventy-five pounds nor shall diving boards, hydrofoils, or any other apparatus or attachment intended to create downward pressure be attached to any scraper.

B. For scrapers used to harvest oysters from the public seed grounds and the natural reefs, the scraper teeth shall be no longer than five inches in length and there shall be a minimum of two and one-quarter inch spacing measured from the center of a tooth to center of the adjacent tooth. A tooth shall not exceed eleven-sixteenths of an inch in diameter.

In addition, there shall be no more than two scrapers in use on any one vessel. An oyster scraper bag shall only be single mesh with a minimum mesh size of three inches stretched.

C. The lessees of propagating or bedding grounds may use on such propagating or bedding grounds any implements or appliances they may desire. However, no implements or appliances shall be used in any manner which will impair or destroy any water bottoms.

The department may require lessees to procure from it permits to use such implements and appliances, such permits to be issued without charge, and to be conditioned that such implements or appliances shall not be used on natural oyster reefs in the state, and on those grounds not leased.

D. A violation of the provisions of this Section shall constitute a class two violation.

The first sample shall be taken and counted by an agent of the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries and the second sample shall be taken and counted by the fisherman. The average number of specimens from the combination of these two samples shall be used to determine the count per pound. A "cargo lot" as used herein shall mean a container, basket, box, chest, bin, hole, or storage compartment in which shrimp are kept for transport. However, during the time period from October fifteenth through the third Monday in December, there shall be no possession count on saltwater white shrimp taken or possessed. Such count shall apply to the taking or possession of such shrimp aboard a vessel, except for shrimp that are documented as having been legally taken in other states or countries and imported into this state.

(2) When more than fifty percent by weight of the saltwater shrimp taken or possessed is sea bobs or brown shrimp, then the maximum allowable amount of undersized white shrimp taken or possessed shall not exceed ten percent by weight of the total saltwater shrimp taken or possessed.

C. The restriction as to count provided in R.S. 56:498(B)(1) shall not apply to "sea bobs" (Xiphopeneus Kroyeri), also called "six barbes".

(2) No person shall use a double butterfly net having an individual net frame more than twelve feet measured horizontally or vertically, whichever distance is greater, each or a single stationary butterfly net having an individual net frame greater than twenty-two feet measured horizontally or vertically, whichever distance is greater, except that persons on a vessel may use a double butterfly net having individual net frames of not more than sixteen feet measured horizontally or twelve feet measured vertically, each. A butterfly net may be mounted no more than twenty-four inches from the side of the vessel. Operation of butterfly nets shall in no way impede or restrict normal navigation.

(3) No person shall use a double skimmer net with an opening measuring more than seventy-two feet in circumference for each net and a lead line greater than thirty-three feet. No person shall tie individual skimmer nets together to exceed the specifications contained in this Paragraph or use any trawl in conjunction with a butterfly or skimmer. No person shall use a double skimmer net where the horizontal net frame extends more than twenty feet from the gunwale of the vessel. (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph (1) of this Subsection to the contrary, no person shall take saltwater shrimp with a trawl, skimmer net, or butterfly net with a mesh size of less than five-eighths of an inch square or one and one-fourth of an inch stretched in inside waters during the fall inshore shrimp season, except in that portion of the state's inside waters from the Atchafalaya River west to the western shore of Vermilion Bay and Southwest Pass at Marsh Island, mesh size no less than three-quarters of an inch square or one and one-half of an inch stretched may be used in inside waters during the fall inshore shrimp season.

C. No person shall use sweeper devices, leads, extensions, wings, or other attachments in conjunction with or attached to butterfly nets.

D.(1)(a) No person may operate a stationary shrimp net within one thousand feet upstream from another stationary shrimp net that is attached or moored to a wharf or platform that has been permitted by the United States Army Corps of Engineers.

(b) However, if two permitted wharves or platforms are located within one thousand feet of each other, the owner of the upstream wharf or platform may attach a stationary shrimp net thereto if any one of the following applies:

(i) His permit from the corps of engineers was issued prior to the effective date of this Section.

(ii) His permit from the corps of engineers was issued prior to the permit for the downstream wharf or platform.

(iii) The owner of the downstream wharf or platform does not operate a stationary shrimp net.

(2) For purposes of this Subsection, stationary shrimp net means any net for taking shrimp, including a butterfly or skimmer net, that is attached to the water bottom, bank, or a fixed structure.

(3) A violation of this Subsection shall be a class one violation.

This tag shall be attached to the net, frame, or any other structure or part directly attached to the net or frame in such a manner that it is above the water at all times. This tag shall be of readable size, easily visible, and with letters at least three inches high and of appropriate width.

(3) When a butterfly net located in West or East Pass of the Calcasieu River, in Oyster Bayou, or in Grand Bayou, all within Cameron Parish, is not being fished, all of the following shall apply:

(a) Any object to which the net is attached or mounted solely for purposes of fishing, including but not limited to any unmanned boat or vessel, floating platform, pontoon, or barge, shall be moved from the waterway and relocated adjacent to the shoreline in a manner which shall not present an obstruction or hazard to navigation.

(b) Any anchor or weight used to secure in the waterway the net or any object to which it is attached or mounted solely for purposes of fishing, including but not limited to any unmanned boat or vessel, floating platform, pontoon, or barge, shall be removed from the waterbottom.

(c) Any rope, line, chain, or other device used to connect to the shoreline the net and any object to which it is attached or mounted solely for purposes of fishing, including but not limited to any unmanned boat or vessel, floating platform, pontoon, or barge, shall be prohibited. However, the prohibition expressed herein shall not apply when such rope, line, chain, or other device is being used to secure, when not in use, such net and any object to which it is attached or mounted adjacent to the shoreline in a manner which shall not present an obstruction or hazard to navigation.

RS 56:638.1 — Fish conservation, management, and sustainability; legislative intent recreational and commercial pursuits resulting in conflicts over limited space and competition for the same fish, and acknowledging that both the sport and commercial fishing industries are vital to the economy of the coastal region and the entire state, the fishery standards for conservation, management, and sustainability of all species of fish are hereby declared to be fair and in the best interest of the state.

RS 56:638.2 — Findings to the food supply, economy, and health of the state and recreational opportunities. With proper regulations of the harvest by fishermen, coupled with protection and enhancement of their freshwater, saltwater, and estuarine habitat, Louisiana's fish resources should be available to provide these benefits to the state indefinitely.

- (2) As a consequence of increased fishing pressure or other factors and because of the limitations of fish conservation, management, and sustainability practices, certain stocks of fish may have been or will become overfished.
- (3) The future productivity of renewable fish resources and their supporting habitats may be seriously jeopardized as a consequence of the continued loss of Louisiana coastal wetlands, or because of human actions affecting the functionality and value of the state's renewable fish resources and their supporting habitats.
- (4) Both commercial and recreational fishing constitute a major source of employment and contribute significantly to the economy of the state. Many coastal areas are dependent upon such fishing and related activities and their economies have been damaged by pollution, habitat degradation, or overfishing.
- (5) Fish resources are finite but renewable. If timely placed under sound management, the fisheries can be conserved and maintained so as to provide optimum and sustainable yields on a continuing basis.
- (6) A strong state program for the wise conservation, management, and sustainability of the fish resources of Louisiana is necessary to maintain plentiful fish populations, to prevent overfishing, to rebuild reduced stocks, to ensure conservation, and to realize their full potential.
- (7) The safe development or improvement of fisheries that are not fully or properly utilized by the Louisiana commercial and recreational fishermen and fishing industries should help to ensure that Louisiana benefits from the employment, food supply, recreation, and social and economic benefit that could be maintained or generated thereby, if pursued in such a fashion that is socially, scientifically, economically, anthropologically, and biologically sound for the state, the species, any related species, and their supporting habitats.
- (8) A strong state program is necessary to advocate the importance of the functionality and value of Louisiana's waters and coastal wetlands as estuary and habitat for fish resources, the social and economic value of these resources to the state and the nation, and the need to actively seek to avoid any net loss of this functionality and value.

RS 56:638.3 — Purposes the use of sound conservation, management, and sustainability principles in the regulation of commercial and recreational fishing.

- (3) Actively advocate, on behalf of the fish constituency, improvement of or no net loss of the functionality and value of the fisheries' habitat and estuary.
- (4) Provide for the preparation and implementation of fish management plans, including plans for habitats, estuaries, and their supporting ecosystems, in accordance with this policy that will prevent overfishing and will achieve and maintain plentiful fish populations to ensure, on a continuing basis, the optimum yield from each fishery while ensuring its sustainability.
- (5) Recognize that fish populations are subject to both natural and man-induced increases and decreases, and that changes in harvest levels may need to be recommended. If changes are required, these increases and decreases should be distributed among all fishermen in a fair and equitable manner that considers among other factors historical usage, ensuring that no historical user groups will be arbitrarily excluded.

B. A sustainable fishery is one that is scientifically monitored and actively managed to be viable today and in the future, conserving fish and their environment and supporting the communities and economies that depend upon these resources.

RS 56:638.4 — Policy

undance of the resource and its habitat, shall provide for optimum sustained benefits to the state, shall be responsive to the needs of interested and affected citizens, shall ensure the proper and fair utilization of these resources for the citizens of the state in present and future generations, shall preserve the state's exclusive right to manage the fisheries within or beyond its jurisdiction, shall be based on the best scientific and technical information available. In addition, such stewardship of the state's fish resources shall draw upon federal, state, and academic capabilities and promote efficiency in carrying out research, administration, management, and enforcement.

RS 56:638.5 — Fishery standards

ing, conservation, management, and sustainability of all species of fish, in accordance with the following standards:

- (1) Conservation, management, and sustainability measures shall prevent overfishing while achieving, on a continuing basis, the optimum yield while maintaining healthy, plentiful stocks. In fact, every effort will be made at all times to prevent a harvest from exceeding the safe upper limit of harvests which can be taken consistently year after year without diminishing the stocks so that the stock is truly inexhaustible and perpetually renewable.
- (2) Conservation, management, and sustainability measures shall be based upon the best scientific, economic, biological, anthropological, and sociological information available.
- (3) To the extent practicable, an individual stock or unit of fish shall be managed as a unit throughout its range within the state's jurisdictional authority and interrelated stocks of fish and other renewable fish resources shall be managed in close coordination while considering their supporting habitats.
- (4) If it becomes necessary to allocate or assign fishing privileges among various fishermen, such allocations to the extent practicable shall be:
 - (a) Fair and equitable to all such fishermen.
 - (b) Reasonably calculated to promote conservation.
 - (c) Carried out in such a manner that no particular individual, corporation, or other legal entity acquires an excessive share of such privileges.
 - (d) In the best interest of the citizens of Louisiana.
- (5) Conservation, management, and sustainability measures shall, where practicable, promote efficiency in the conservation, management, and sustainability of fish resources; except that no such measure shall have economic allocation as its sole purpose.
- (6) Conservation, management, and sustainability measures shall, where practicable, minimize costs and avoid unnecessary duplication.
- (7) Conservation, management, and sustainability measures may take into account and allow for variations among, and contingencies in, fisheries, resources, and catches.

RS 56:700.10 — Purpose

ment of minerals in the public waterbottoms. Oyster leases and oil and gas exploration and production have historically utilized much of the same areas in the waterways and waterbottoms on public lands in the state. The oil and gas industry has been faced with the problem of having to negotiate damages to oyster beds to conduct geophysical surveys, drilling activities, and movement of equipment to and from well sites in an uncertain and unpredictable manner which is creating an undue burden on the industry. The purpose of this Part is to effect an equitable solution to the problem which will result in fair and predictable treatment to the oil and gas industry while assuring the oyster fishermen actual compensation for damages to their oyster beds due to mineral activities. The state has a tremendous interest in preserving the viability of both industries. Since both activities are granted on public waterbottoms by the state it is the obligation of the state to resolve the problems created by this impasse; therefore, the legislature does hereby establish the Oyster Lease Damage Evaluation Board to promulgate rules and regulations to determine the method of establishing a uniform system of compensation for actual damages caused to the beds of leaseholders based on biological test data.

RS 56:700.11 — Definitions

(2) In the event that a settlement is reached there shall be no further claims or demand for damages thereafter for the activity upon which the agreement was made.

(3) If a settlement cannot be reached between the leaseholder and the owner, either party may file a request with the board for arbitration and final determination of the actual damages to the oyster lease due to the mineral activity thereon.

(4) If the claim is brought before the board, the owner of the oil and gas activity shall, at its own expense, have a biological survey made of the leased premises to determine the quality and value of the beds and grounds which will be involved in the proposed operation. A biological survey shall be performed before the operations begin and upon completion of the activity.

(5) If the claim is brought before the board, the owner of the oil and gas activity shall file the initial biological survey with the board and pay a deposit to the board based on estimated damages as determined by the board after consideration of the results of the biological survey and any other information provided to the board. After payment of the deposit, the owner may proceed with his proposed activity. Upon completion of the activity, the owner of the oil and gas activity, at his own expense, shall have another biological survey performed and filed with the board so that actual damages to the leasehold may be determined by the board.

(6) All claims shall be evaluated expeditiously based on biological test data done before and after the activity over or on the beds occurs, and upon determining actual damages the claim shall be immediately paid to the board by the owner for the benefit of the leaseholder. Upon payment of the damages by the owner there shall be a presumption created in favor of the owner that actual damages are paid in full.

(7) If the leaseholder or owner is not satisfied with the decision of the board he may obtain judicial review by a suit in district court of the parish where the leasehold improvements are situated. The burden of proof for liability and damages and all costs shall be borne by the party seeking judicial review. If the district court upholds the findings of damages by the board the party seeking judicial review shall pay all costs and attorney fees of the other party.

RS 56:700.13 — Establishment of the board

B. The board shall include five members consisting of one member nominated by the Louisiana Oyster Dealers and Growers Association, one member nominated by the Louisiana Oyster Task Force, two members nominated jointly by the Louisiana Independent Oil and Gas Association, Louisiana Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association and the Louisiana Landowners Association, and one member, selected by the other four members of the board, who is a practicing administrative law judge. The secretary, in conjunction with the board, shall adopt rules providing for selection of a qualified biologist. Unless a written objection is filed with the board by either party, if a qualified biologist was previously engaged to conduct a biological survey for the mineral activity subject to the requested arbitration, that same biologist may be used for the biological surveys.

D. The board members shall evaluate the information regarding damage to the beds and make the final determination in awarding damages to claimants. The secretary, upon receiving this determination of damages, may reject the damage award and send the matter back to the board. The board may then either revise the damage award or, by a two-thirds vote, affirm the original damage determination. If the board fails to either revise the damage award or affirm the original damage determination, the arbitration process provided in this Part shall conclude without a final determination of damages.

E. The determinations of damages by the board shall be based on the values shown in the biological survey and shall reflect true and actual damages.

F. Notwithstanding the provisions of R.S. 56:424, representatives or assigns of the owner of the oil and gas activity may remove, as a sample, oysters from an oyster lease on state water bottoms in order to make determinations in matters before the Oyster Lease Damage Evaluation Board. In order to take such samples, the representatives or assigns of the owner of the oil and gas activity shall first submit written notice to the leaseholder. If the leaseholder has not granted permission within fifteen days after the written request for permission was submitted, the representatives or assigns of the owner of the oil and gas activity shall notify the leaseholder of the date and time that the lease will be surveyed. The leaseholder may accompany the biologist during the survey or may authorize another person
